Inkers Rest
Oct 2^o 1774

My Dear Sir

Extreme & constant anxiety as to the welfare of my three dear children
induces me once more to address you -

The D^r says
he must go to Wiltby
to see Miss Sturmy
I suppose, being unwell
there; if it were possible how much I should like to accompany

him Dear Leticia
at Glasgow & her dear Father, I hope thro' Gods

blissing are quite well & happy & their brother, in Australia
If I had been free, at one time, when I was with the Dowager Queen, I could have commanded of wealth.
I am now so far
advanced in years &
am too old for the present sovereignty, but we have a Mrs Simpson here, not your Simsons of Whitty, but from near Hull, & she is extremely kind &
pleasant, & exactly

Victorian's age, she once visited a most beautiful Park of the Marquis of Chandos
I had 7 acres of fresh water in it. Here -

From Gurnworth, an old lady of 90, comes from, she is quite a wonder can see without glasses, & enjoys good health & spirits. Robt & his family must find it a healthy Place, by what I hear of it. To Joe & the rest of my relatives give my kind Love yours truly
I see for you Mr K. A. Baxter I see for you Mr. T. K. S. has been to the of the name

Christopher Richardson Esq
Field House
Whitby

As Mrs Junius
Hill, niece to Mr B, is a remarkably fine & clever girl, kindly says she ^{is} Mamma's to the dear children
I hope you will send her a box of winter
clothing for the twins.
The Uncle in St Petersburg has been so liberal, I only wish the boy could benefit by his kindness.

I hope & trust thro' Gods mercy he is doing well in the Southern Hemisphere Give my love to dear
Sister Mary, Miss Louys Sister (Archdeacon Louys Daughter,) both living at Daversport would be gratified by our noble Prince of Wales' visit. The Boys I hope are well there, also Robt and his family at great Yarmouth. Dr & Mrs Kitching, have gone to Wales for a month. Dr

Walter Fitching says
the Leabro & Whitty Railway, will not be finished for two years, will cost £200,000. Mr Birkwoodson's Uncle, Field, made our visits
very pleasant when as a girl I used to go over with Joe there. Give my love to Aunt Fitt, also to my cousins, and

believe me my dear Sir Yours truly & affectionately Anna Del Rosaria A. A.
Baxter
