1874 5th Sept^r:
Quakers Retreat
York.

Mrs. Thimmon says
she is quite well in health and she would like them now to fetch her home as she would much like to come home and she will never leave any of you
more Mrs. Thimmon
sends her kindest
regards to all of you
She would rather come home than go to Seabrook She hopes you will forgive her and she will never strike any more of you again the sooner you come

The better if you please to forgive me I remain Yours sincerely J. H. Fisher
