Darley Octr 15<sup>n</sup> (63)

Dear Cousin

We received your parcels by Abro<sup>n</sup> safe and very much obliged to you for them we should send you some Choco bread but we had no new oatmeal while this week our old meal was not good so we shall send some the first time Abro<sup>n</sup> comes he told us he shoudl not be down this week, we rec'd two parcels since I told all safe which we thank you kindly for; summer is faire spent we thin they they are very un kind to you that they do not let you come as we shou'd be very glad to see you at any time t. them I often 6 weeks with us we ha'd

Crowds at Darley feast & John Hardaker & wife & two very nice young women from Leeds and shou'd been glad t. had you at the same time, the brother is very well here and much - Corn to get in; I have not been at Otley this many weeks but when I go I call at Jefferson and see what Whitley has left. I am in haste while

I am writing I call on you to meet the Crows over a women that dropped Dear Dead Frances Burgoyne wife so I must conclude we are all well Hoping this will find you the Dear

Your affec Cousin
