

Papers relating to Margaret Brown

Publication/Creation

1864

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/bc8t9n62>

License and attribution

You have permission to make copies of this work under a Creative Commons, Attribution, Non-commercial license.

Non-commercial use includes private study, academic research, teaching, and other activities that are not primarily intended for, or directed towards, commercial advantage or private monetary compensation. See the Legal Code for further information.

Image source should be attributed as specified in the full catalogue record. If no source is given the image should be attributed to Wellcome Collection.

Wellcome Collection
183 Euston Road
London NW1 2BE UK
T +44 (0)20 7611 8722
E library@wellcomecollection.org <https://wellcomecollection.org>

Eureka 3.5.1864

My dearest Mary:-

We have thought & talked so much of thee I hope thou art feeling rather better. as thy dear father is writing to Dr. Hitching I thought I would enclose a little note to thee. When thou feels able to write we shall be so very pleased to have a few lines from them - for having nursed them so long at home I feel so solicitous to learn how they all - I hope they need not so painful feel - I heard from Mary Ann Bentley today

she enquired kindly after them - she seems to be very pleased with being at her sisters at Croydon - & looking after the baby - They rela-

loves here are all as usual. Susan has very good accounts from her sister Priscilla
in Ireland. With dearest love from thy dear father & myself & wishing that whether in sickness or health thou may be under the tender care of our loving Father in Heaven
I am thy affectional
mother

Aunt Brown.

The Cornhill Magazine

Intend to forward to thee to-morrow. Remember me kindly to Miss Robinson.

Margaret - Brown

