EXPLANATION
OF
THE DISTINCTIONS OF TYPE
EMPLOYED IN THE FOLLOWING LIST.

Ordinary Members, printed in Small Roman [as George Armstrong].

Corresponding Members, printed in Small Italic [as William Babington].

Honorary Members by election, printed in Small Capitals [as WILLIAM CULLEN]. To the names of those who had been previously Ordinary Members the date of election is affixed [as BENJAM. RUSH (1785)].

Honorary Members by Succession (confined to an early period of the Society, terminating in 1775), have a Circle prefixed [as °John Straton].

Annual Presidents, printed in Capital Letters [as THOMAS SMITH].

N.B.—With a view to uniformity, the early dates have been reduced to the New Style, established in the British Islands in the year 1752. To restore the original Dates, therefore, eleven days must be subtracted from the printed Dates, down to that year inclusive; thus, Saturday, December 7, 1737, N. S. — 11 Days, = Saturday, November 26, 1737, O. S., &c.
