PREFACE.

THIS volume contains the Catalogue of the Additions to the Department of MSS. during the years 1876–1881, arranged under the heads of Additional MSS., Additional Charters, Detached Seals, Papyri, Egerton MSS., and Egerton Charters. The total number of manuscripts acquired during this period is two thousand one hundred and eighty-eight; of charters, more than two thousand three hundred; of detached seals, upwards of two thousand eight hundred; and of papyri, five, counting many fragments under a single number.

The Index has been made as complete as possible, and includes, besides references to the details of the printed descriptions, the names of writers of the numerous letters comprised in the collections of correspondence which receive only a general notice in the Catalogue. Following the plan adopted in the Index to the Additions of 1854–1875, class-headings have been freely introduced.

By an examination of the class-headings may be obtained a general view of the nature and extent of the Additions. I need here only indicate the most important among them.

1. Of special interest are the two papyri which were purchased in 1879: the one, of the 1st century B.C., containing the orations of Hyperides for Lycophron and Euxenippus; the other, ascribed to the 2nd century of our era and known as the "Bankes Homer," containing the greater part of Book XXIV. of the Iliad.

2. Among Latin manuscripts of ancient date, and distinguished for the value of their contents or the style of their writing, are—the Homilies of St. Augustine (Add. 29,972) in Merovingian characters, of the 7th century; the Moralia of Pope Gregory the Great (Add. 31,031) in the same characters, of the 8th century; and the series of Visigothic codices (Add. 30,055, 30,844–30,855) ranging from the 9th to the 11th century, and chiefly containing offices and liturgies of the Mozarabic ritual.

3. The most valuable of the Illuminated manuscripts are—the Exultet-roll (Add. 30,337) containing the service for the benediction of the Paschal taper, with reversed miniatures, of the 12th century; and the Rationale Divinorum Officiorum of Durandus (Add. 31,032), from the Didot collection, adorned with initials of the most finished design and execution, of Italian art of the beginning of the 14th century. Another noteworthy volume is a Hymnarium (Add. 30,014) executed at Siena in the year 1415; and some good specimens of the French and Flemish schools will be found among the manuscripts (Add. 31,830–31,845) bequeathed to the Museum by Mr. William Burges, A.R.A.

4. The principal collections of State-papers and Correspondence are as follows:—

Add. 30,525–30,766. A copy of the large collection of transcripts of state-papers relating to the history of France and other countries of Europe, formed by Antoine de Loménie, Seigneur de la Ville-aux-Clercs, Secretary of State under Henri IV. and Louis XIII.

Eg. 2598. Correspondence and papers of William Asheby, during his embassy to Scotland in 1589.

Eg. 2592–2597. Correspondence and papers of James Hay, Viscount Doncaster and Earl of Carlisle, chiefly in connexion with his embassies to Germany, France, and Spain, in 1619–1624.

Eg. 2533–2562. Official and private correspondence and papers of Sir Edward Nicholas, Secretary of State to Charles I. and Charles II., together with those of his family; 1560–1722. A large part of the earlier correspondence contains minute information of the movements and intrigues of the Royalists during the period of the Commonwealth.

Add. 31,244–31,267. Correspondence and papers of Cardinals Caprara and Gualterio, successive Protectors of the English Catholics at Rome, including correspondence of the Court of St. Germain, and papers relating to Lord Lovat's plot for the invasion of Scotland; 1688–1727.

Add. 30,428–30,477. Official diary of Cardinal Henry Benedict Stuart, Duke of York, 1758–1805; together with letters and papers concerning the families of Stuart and Sobieski. Presented by the Honourable Maria Otway Cave.

Add. 31,128–31,152. Official and private correspondence and papers of Thomas Wentworth, Lord Raby and Earl of Strafford, Ambassador to Prussia and Holland, and Plenipotentiary at Utrecht; 1685–1739.

Add. 30,865–30,896. Correspondence and papers of John Wilkes; 1739–1797.

Eg. 2520–2532. Correspondence and papers of the family of Haddock, chiefly in connexion with their services in the Royal Navy; 1639–1742.

Add. 29,910–29,920, 30,001–30,013, 31,158–31,193. Correspondence and papers of the family of Jervis and allied families, during the 17th–19th centuries; including the official correspondence, registers, and journals of Admiral Sir John Jervis, afterwards Earl of St. Vincent, 1755–1823. Presented by Mrs. Martha Jervis.

Add. 30,095–30,144. Journals, correspondence, and papers of General Sir Robert Thomas Wilson; 1798–1848.

Add. 31,229–31,237. Correspondence and papers of the Right Honourable Nicholas Vansittart, Chancellor of the Exchequer, afterwards Baron Bexley; 1796–1844. Bequeathed by Lord Bexley.

5. Under the head of Music an important addition has been made by the purchase of the extensive collection of works of both English and foreign origin, formed by Mr. Julian Marshall (Add. 31,384 – 31,823). Many small collections and single volumes have also been acquired, among which may be noticed the sketch-book of Beethoven (Add. 29,997), and the two volumes of original compositions of Handel (Add. 30,308, 30,310).

6. Among small collections and single volumes, the following may be selected for their rarity or their literary value:—

Add. 30,861. The Satires of Juvenal, of the 11th century.

Eg. 2567. The Divina Commedia of Dante, with notes, written at Ferrara in 1379.

Eg. 2515. The Romances of Ipomedon and Prothesilaus, the latter the only extant complete copy, in French; early 14th century.

Add. 31,042. Poems and romances in English, collected by Robert Thornton in the 15th century.

Add. 31,826. A Year-book of law-cases during the reign of Edward I.

Eg. 2419. Moralization on the Game of Cards, composed in the year 1377.

Eg. 2572. The Guild-book of the Barber-surgeons of the City of York, commenced in the 15th century.

Eg. 2402. The original MS. of Cavendish's Life of Wolsey.

Add. 31,219. Chronicle of Mexican history to the year 1576, continued to 1607; partly in native picture-writing.

Add. 31,846–31,852. The "Naturalist's Journal" of Gilbert White, of Selborne, containing his observations on natural history and his garden-notes in the years 1768–1793; together with letters written by him between 1769 and 1780.

Add. 29,925–29,944. A collection of sketches of the ancient buildings and monuments of England, by John Carter; 1764–1817.

7. Among the Charters will be found:—

Add. Ch. 26,722. Grant by Conrad II., Emperor of the Romans, to the see of Ravenna; 1034.

Add. Ch. 24,804. Confirmation by Alfonso the Wise, King of Castile, to the Hospital of Burgos, at the time when Prince Edward of England was in Spain on account of his marriage, attested by the Moorish kings; 1254.

Add. Ch. 26,586. Return of lands in and near London granted without licence to religious foundations; 1364.

Add. Ch. 26,067. Charter, in Servian, of Stephen Dabisha, King of Bosnia; 1395.

Eg. Ch. 427–484. A series of charters relating to Stixwould Priory, co. Lincoln, and the family of Ferrers, from the 12th century; many with fine seals.

8. Among the Detached Seals is the large collection of casts formed by Mr. Henry Laing, of Edinburgh, and used by him in his works on Scottish Seals (XLVII. 1–2453).

The compilation of the Catalogue is the work of the staff of the Department. In its revision and passage through the press I have been ably assisted by Mr. E. J. L. Scott, Assistant-Keeper, and Mr. G. F. Warner, one of the Senior Assistants.

E. Maunde Thompson.

Preceded by "lectiones" or homilies for the Nativity, etc., imperfect at the beginning, ff. 1–32;—and followed by "Lectiones de letanias canonicas (sic) legende per (sic) duabus u[icibus] in diebus letaniarum canonicarum," f. 170 b. Vellum; ff. 177, mutilated and decayed at the edges. In Visigothic characters, with ornamental coloured initials. xth cent. Large Quarto.

30,845. Offices and Masses of the Mozarabic Liturgy for Saints' days from S. Quiricus [Cyriacus, 20 May] to S. Bartholomew [24 Aug.]. Latin. Imperfect. Musical notes to the antiphons, etc., have been added by a later hand. Vellum; ff. 161. In Visigothic characters; with grotesque coloured figure-initials. xth cent. Folio.

30,846. Offices and Masses of the Mozarabic Liturgy from Easter to Pentecost. Latin. Imperfect at the beginning, and with other leaves missing. Included also are:—Canticles and Hymns. f. 57;—"Sermo de cotididie" (sic), beg. "Rogo uos et amoneo, fratres karissimi, quotiens ad eglam [ecclesiam] conueniti (sic) fueritis nolite otiosis sermonibus," etc. f. 132;—"Incipiunt letanias apostolicas" (sic). f. 136;—"Passio sancta Iuliana (sic) que passa fuit in ciuitate Nicomediã sub imperatore Maximiam [Maximiano] ex profecto (sic) Eluseo xiii. kalendas Martias," beg. "Denique temporibus Maximiani." Imperfect. f. 175. Vellum; ff. 177. In Visigothic characters, with ornamental initials. xth cent. Quarto.

30,847. Mozarabic Breviary from Advent to the 4th Sunday in Lent; with musical notation. Latin. Imperfect at the beginning and end, and elsewhere. On the margins of some of the leaves are copies of deeds of sale, etc., in Spanish, late 13th cent. Vellum; ff. 188. In Visigothic characters. xith cent. Small Folio.

30,848. Mozarabic Breviary for the whole year, with musical notation; preceded by a calendar. Latin. The general title runs: "In nomine domini. Incipit brebiarum de toto circuito." The calendar wants the last four months; and the breviary ends imperfectly in the "Officium in natale plurimorum martyrum." Vellum; ff. 280. In Visigothic characters, finely written. xith cent. Folio.

30,849. Mozarabic Breviary for the year; preceded by a calendar. Latin. Imperfect, beginning in the middle of the service for the first Sunday in Advent. The musical notation is found only in the last two quires. Vellum; ff. 308. xiith cent. Folio.

30,850. Mozarabic Antiphonal for the year, with musical notation throughout. Latin. Vellum; ff. 241. In Visigothic characters, finely written, with large coloured initials of interlaced and other patterns. xith cent. Quarto.

30,851. 1. Mozarabic Psalter, with accompanying prayers and antiphons. Latin. Imperfect, beg. with Psalm xvi. This is followed by Ps. xvii. 1–30, after which there is a lacuna as far as Ps. xxxvii. 18. The Psalter ends with Ps. cl. 2. f. 1.

2. "Liber Canticorum." Imperfect, beg. with the words "pedum tuorum omnes" in Canticle xvii. (Migne, Patrologia, vol. lxxxvi., col. 855). f. 92.

3. Liber "imnorum de toto circulo anni." Ending imperfectly in the "Imni vespertini dominicales quottidiani." f. 111.
4. Special services, with hymns and antiphons. Imperfect at both ends, the first complete service being the "ordo ad medium noctis celebrandum" (sic). f. 164.

Vellum; ff. 202. In finely written Visigothic characters, with coloured initials. XIIth cent. Folio.

30,852. COLLECTION of prayers for the services in the Mozarabic Liturgy throughout the year. Latin. Imperfect, extending from Advent to the Nativity of S. John Baptist (24 June), with lacunæ in several places. The prayers include, with many others, those which in the Gothic Breviary are entitled the "capitula," the "benedictio," and the "oratio." For a collection of a similar character see J. M. Thomasii...opera omnia, studio curaque Jos. Blanchini, tom. i., Romae, 1741, p. 1. Vellum; ff. 115, decayed and mutilated at the edges. In Visigothic characters, with rubrics and coloured initials. IXth century. Quarto.

30,853. HOMILIES for the year and for particular occasions, from St. Augustine and others. Latin. Included also are:—

1. "Epistola beati Clementis episcopi directa sancto Iacobo episcopo Ihrosolime": a passage, "cauere et anteuenire—uitę prędmia peruenire," from the first of the "Epistolæ decretales" (Migne, Patrologia Græca, vol. i., coll. 466 D—468 C). f. 222 b.
2. "Incipit epistola sancti Saluatoris que directa est a domino et inuenta est super altare sancti Bauduli [Baudelii] in ciuitate Nimaso [Nîmes]," beg. "Amen dico uobis, quia misi super populum brucos et locustas." Cf. Baluze, Capitularia regum Francorum, Paris, 1677, vol. ii., col. 1396; and Amaduzzi, Anecdota Litteraria, Rome, 1773, vol. i., p. 61. The genuineness of the letter is attested by "Petrus episcopus de ciuitate Nimaso"; but the first bishop of Nîmes of this name appears to have been Pierre Ermengaud, circ. 1080–1095. f. 231.
3. "Incipiunt capitulationes penitentiarum de diuersis criminibus": a penitential, beg. "i. de ebrietate uel euomitum (sic). Si quis Episcopus aut aliquis ordinatus ebrięatis uitium habuerit." Imperfect, about half the number of chapters being missing. See Berganza, Antiguedades de España, Madrid, 1719–1721, vol. ii, p. 666. f. 309.

Vellum; ff. 324. In Visigothic characters, with delicately drawn coloured initials. XIth cent. Small Folio.

30,854. "LIBER dialogorum beati Gregorii Romensis episcopi, quem Petro diacono interrogante disseruit." Imperfect, ending in Bk. iv. ch. 24 Vellum; ff. 182. In Visigothic characters, with coloured initials. Xth cent. Small Quarto.

30,855. 1. "Liber geronticon": sayings of the Egyptian fathers, in two books. Latin. Begins, "Quidam frater, quemadmodum in cella propria degere deberet"; but not identical with the "Verba seniorum, interprete Paschasio," (Migne, Patrologia, vol. lxxiii., col. 1025), a collection which begins in the same way. f. 3.

2. "Sententia (sic) patrum Egyptiorum quas de Greco in Latino transtulit Martinus Dumiensis episcopus." See Migne, vol. lxxiv., col. 381. f. 94 b.

3. Sayings of the fathers, in two books, beg. "1. De uincendo desiderium guile (sic). Abbas Zenon dum ambularet in Palestina." Imperfect. f. 114.

Vellum; ff. 142. In Visigothic characters, with coloured initials. xith cent. Small Folio.

30,856. Missal of Spanish use, containing masses for various festivals and saints' days, together with the "benedictio salis et aque diebus dominicis" (f. 92 b) and prefaces (f. 94 b). Vellum; ff. 102. "Pertinet ad sanctum Dominicum de Sylis." xvth cent. In tooled leather binding. Small Quarto.

30,857. Order for celebrating mass by a bishop, of Spanish use. Latin. Vellum; ff. 40. Finely written, by D. Franciscus Fulgur (f. 40); with a full-page miniature of the crucifixion on f. 28 b. xviith cent. Folio.

30,858. Two fragments, marked C, consisting of ten leaves, and D, of six leaves, of a contemporary copy of the unpublished MS. of "Promiscuorum Poeticorum libri xx" by Hieronymus Bononius of Treviso. Followed, at f. 19, by a transcript in the handwriting of William Henry Black, F.S.A., of part of the first book of the same author's "Antiquarius." See Mazzuchelli's Scrittori d'Italia, Vol. ii. Part iii. p. 1490, for an account of this work; and a paper by Mr. Black printed in Archæologia, 1866, vol. xl., p. 143. Paper; ff. 25. xvith cent. Folio.

30,859. "The Overture and additional music in Cymon: a Dramatick Romance, as revived at the Theatre Royal, Covent Garden, November 20th, 1815. Composed by [Sir] Henry R[owley] Bishop." In full score. Autograph. Paper; ff. 70. Obl. Folio.

30,860. Anthem on Psalm xxviii.: "Unto Thee will I cry," by James Heseltine, organist of Durham Cathedral; 17 Sept. 1707. Full score. Autograph. Paper; ff. 8. Folio.

30,861. Decii Junii Juvenalis Satyrarum libri v.; with contemporary interlinear and marginal glosses and notes. The following lines are wanting: Sat. viii., 113–144, 273–275; ix., 1–28, 61–93; x., 91–93; xiv., 157–188, 262, 278; xv. 146–174; and the whole of

Sat. xvi. On f. 32, in a contemporary hand, is the following couplet:—

"Presul Eberhardus Christi famulamine parcus
Hunc tribuit librum Christi genetricis ad usum."

Vellum; ff. 113. XIth cent. From the library of Ambroise Firmin Didot, 1850. Quarto.

30,862. PUBLII Ovidii Nasonis Heroides sive Epistolæ; with a few notes. Imperfect; wanting Ep. xv., "Sappho Phaoni," Ep. xvi. ll. 39–142, Ep. xxi. ll. 13–248. The two last lines of Ep. vii. have been interpolated by a later hand. At the end, f. 48, is an Italian poem of 137 lines on the Virgin Mary, in a 16th cent. hand, and on f. 48 b is written, in Greek characters, "Iste liber est Petri, Gregorius frater ejus scripsit." Vellum; ff. 48. Written in Italy in the XIVth cent. From the library of Ambroise Firmin Didot. Quarto.

30,863. "LE Roman de Troie, par Benoît de Ste Maure." Imperfect; beginning at line 1443 and ending at line 27,422 of the printed edition, Benoît de Sainte More et le Roman de Troie, par A. Joly, Paris, 1870. Several leaves have been mutilated. At the foot of f. 14 b is the following: "A madame de Martignie madame Mauleurier saluz et bonne amor." Vellum; ff. 132. XIIIth cent. From the library of Ambroise Firmin Didot. Large Octavo.

30,864. VOEUX du Paon: by Jacques de Longuyon. The second and third parts of the chanson only, containing the taking and accomplishment of the vows. There is a lacuna after f. 76. With eight miniatures. The book appears to have formerly belonged to the Barons De Roos or Ros, and the "byll" on ff. 1*, 2* for "Lady Gartyrede" may refer to Gertrude, eldest daughter of Thomas, 13th Baron Ros, who married Gilbert, 6th Earl of Shrewsbury. Vellum; ff. 81. From the library of Ambroise Firmin Didot, and having the book-plate of the family of Tyrry of Glancattane (See Harley MS., 4036, f. 306.) Early XIVth cent. Small Quarto.

30,865–30,896. CORRESPONDENCE and papers of John Wilkes, M.P., Editor of the North Briton; 1739–1831. Thirty-two volumes. The general contents are as follows:—

30,865 A. B. AUTOBIOGRAPHY of J. Wilkes, written chiefly in the third person. The first volume breaks off abruptly at his school days; the second is an account of his visit, when in exile, to France and Italy in 1764–1765. Paper; ff. 9 and 57. Duodecimo.

30,866. EIGHT diaries of J. Wilkes, from the day of his release from the King's Bench, 17 April, 1770 to 31 October, 1797, four weeks before his death. The greater part of no. 5, 24 July, 1779–21 July, 1782, and all no. 7, 1 Jan. 1789–31 Aug. 1793, are wanting. There are however rough memoranda for the later years, and at the end (ff. 238 b–248) is part of no. 5 containing an account of the Gordon riots from 31 May to 28 June, 1780. Paper; ff. 248. Octavo.

"BASS-SCHLÜSSEL, das ist, Anleitung für Anfänger und Liebhaber der Setzkunst, . . . von Joseph Riepel, Hochfürstl[ichem] Thurn und Taxischen Kapellmeister": a treatise on the bass-cleff as an introduction to the art of composition. Copy made in 1794 by Anton Bachschmid, Capellmeister in Eichstädt. Followed by a work upon counterpoint, in several hands, the title being added later. The Bass-schlüssel was printed posthumously at Ratisbon in 1786. Paper; ff. 205. Folio.

31,035. TREATISE on Fugue, in two parts: the first entitled "Von der Fuge," the second, "Fugen-Betrachtung"; by Joseph Riepel. Copy made in 1783, in several hands, one being that of Anton Bachschmid. Paper; ff. 126. Folio.

31,036. "DESS Harmonis[c]hen Sylben Masses IIIter Theil, von Joseph Riepel": a treatise on musical rhythm. Copied by Anton Bachschmid. The first two parts of this work were published at Ratisbon in 1776. Paper; ff. 79. Folio.

31,037. CORRESPONDENCE of the family of Byron; 1744–1855. It chiefly consists of that between Anna Isabella, Baroness Wentworth and Lady Noel-Byron [wife of George Gordon, Lord Byron], and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Augusta Leigh, 1816–1851; and includes a letter from [Anne Louise Germaine, Baronne] de Staël-Holstein to Lord Byron, and letters from Lord Byron to Mrs. Leigh, 1814, 1816, 1824 (ff. 13, 35, 40), and from others relating to his death. The names of the writers will be found in the Index. Paper; ff. 206. Quarto.

31,038. Poems by George Gordon, Lord Byron, with other pieces in the handwriting of Lady Byron, Mrs. Augusta Leigh, and others, and a few miscellaneous papers connected with the death and character of Lord Byron. Among them are :—

1. Original draft of "On Jordan's Banks." f. 1.
2. Proofs of the lines "Fare thee well," with autograph corrections. f. 2.
3. Lines headed "January 22nd, 1824. Messalonghi. On this day I complete my thirty-sixth year." Copy. f. 6.
4. Lines, "When we two parted," in Lady Byron's hand, with corrections by Lord Byron, f. 8.

Paper; ff. 39. xixth cent. Folio.

31,039. "Satire del Signore Cavaliere Bartolomeo Dotti;" containing satires i.-ix., xv., xvi., xviii.–xx., xxii.–xxvi., xli.–xlv., of the edition of Geneva, 1757. The text differs considerably from the printed work. Paper; ff. 61. xviiith cent. Quarto.

31,040. The third part of a collection of the Customs of the Carthusian Order, in Dutch; described in the colophon on f. 54 as "dat derden deel der ouder statuten so verre als sy den leeken brueders dienen." Supplemented by "die niewe ghewoenten," f. 55. Vellum; ff. 59. Late xvth cent. In the original binding of stamped leather. Small Octavo.

31,041. "Missa solemnis. Sigismundo Neukomm, fratrum Michaelis et Josephi Haydn discipulo," in score; dated 1 Jan. 1810. Paper; ff. 90. Small Folio.

31,042. Collection of English poems and romances, written in a northern dialect by Robert Thornton, the scribe of a similar book in the Lincoln Cathedral Library, viz. :—

1. Fragment of the latter part of the "Cursor Mundi," beginning at the 56th line of the "Childhood of Mary" (l. 10,630, ed. R. Morris, Early English Text Society, 1874–1878). f. 3.
   The text is of a different recension from any of those edited by Dr. Morris; it approaches nearest to the Fairfax MS.
2. Meditation on the life of Christ, beginning: "Iesu was of Mary borne." f. 32.
   At the end is this note, referring to the next article: "Et sic procedendum ad Passionem domini nostri Iesu Christi que incipit in folio proximo sequente secundum fantasiam scriptoris."

3. The Passion of Our Lord, beginning: "Lystenes me I maye ȝow telle | Of mekill gude I wille ȝow spelle | Of Iesu that vs alle wroghte | And sythen oure saules dere boghte." f. 33.
   The original from which this copy was made must have been imperfect, as part of f. 41 and all of 41 b is left blank. At the end is the partly erased and disfigured signature "R. Thornton," and the colophon: "Explicit Passio Domini nostri Iesu Christi."
4. "Hic incepit Distruccio Ierarusalem ... The Segge of Ierusalem off Tytus and Vaspasyane," divided into "passus." Begins: "In Tyberyus tym that trewe emperoure | Sir Cesare hym seluyn was sessede in Rome." Colophon: "Explicit la sege de Ierusalem. R. Thornton [written over and changed into another surname] dictus, qui scripsit sit benedictus. Amen." f. 50.
   See another copy in Cotton MS., Calig. A. ii., f. 111.
5. "Here bygynnys the Sege off Melayne," in stanzas of six lines. Imperfect at the end. f. 66 b.
   The poem is apparently unique, and seems to form an introduction to "Roland and Otuel." (Edited together by S. J. Herrtage, E. E. T. Society, 1880.)
6. A rhymed prayer beginning: "With humble hert I praye iche creature | lorde and lady knyghte and othere ferialle | To here þe grace þe wiche I thynke depure | And prey for grace to me in specyalle." f. 80.
7. "Þe Romance of Duke Rowlande and of sir Ottuell of Spayne. Off Cherlles of Fraunce," beginning: "Lordynges þat bene hende and free | Herkyns alle hedirwardes to mee." f. 82.
   An English version of the French romance of "Otinel" (edited by Guessard and Michelant in Les anciens Poètes de la France, 1859).
8. "Passionis Cristi Cantus. Hic incipit quedam (sic) tractatus Passionis Domini nostri Iesu Christi in Anglica," beginning: "Man to reforme thyne exile and thi losse | Frome paradyce place of moste plesance | The to restore I hange uppon the Crosse | Coroned with þe thorne woundede with the launce." f. 94.
9. Memorial verses [by John Lydgate] on the kings of England, ending imperfectly with Edward I. f. 96.
   See another copy in Lansdowne MS. 699, f. 79.
10. A morality beginning: "Be noghte hasty nore sodanly vengeable"; followed by some saws in Latin doggrel. f. 97.
11. "A gud schorte Songe of this dete | This werlde es tournede up sodownne." Four lines only remaining: "To thynke it es a wondir thynge | Of this werldis mutabilytee | I ame matede in my mosynge | Of the variaunce the whilke þat I now see." f. 97 b.
12. An alliterative poem, beginning: "In a mornenyng of Maye when medowes sall spryng | Blomes and blossomms of brighte colours." f. 98.

13. A hymn, beginning: "Haile holy spyritt and joy be vnto the." f. 101 b.
14. Paraphrase of the 51st Psalm, in six-line stanzas of alliterative verse, beginning: "God þou haue mercy of me, After thi mercy mekill of mayne." Imperfect. f. 102.
15. Verses on the 43rd Psalm, beginning: "With hole herte and entere | Theire conscyence purge fro þe synnes seuen," and ending: "Where as I feyle y^e^ defawte es in lydgate." Followed by a paraphrase of the psalm in eight-line stanzas, beginning: "O þou my lorde moste myghty and eterne." In the margin, at the end of the prefatory verses, is the note, "Hunc qui dictauit lydgate Christus nominauit." f. 103.
16. "Moralisacio Sacerdotis tocius apparatus in missa, &c." Begins: "Uppon his hede ane amyte fyrste he laythe." f. 104.
17. "A Carrolle for Crystynmasse. The Rose of Ryse." Imperfect. f. 110 b.
18. Poem on the pilgrimage of the Three Kings to Bethlehem. Imperfect at beginning, two leaves having been torn out; with colophon: "Explicit tractus Trium Magum." f. 111.
19. "Hic Incipit Cantus Cuiusdam Sapientis. Here Bygynnys a louely Song of Wysdome." Beginning: "Waste makes a kyngdome in nede | And nede makes a man to trauayle." f. 120.
20. "A Song how þat Mercy passeth Rightwisnes" (printed in Hymns to the Virgin, etc., p. 95, edited by F. J. Furnivall, E. E. T. Society, 1867). f. 122 b.
21. "A songe how Mercy commes bifore þe Iugement" (printed by Furnivall, as above, p. 18). f. 123.
22. A Songe how þat Mercy passeth alle thynge." f. 123 b.
23. "The Romance of Kyng Richerd þe Conqueroure." f. 125.
    At f. 160 there is a blank of more than a column, omitting lines 6315–6604 (Weber's Metrical Romances, Edinburgh, 1810) vol. ii. pp. 248–258; and ff. 145, 152 are mutilated. The copy presents a different text and a different rhythm from the only other complete MS., preserved in Caius College, Cambridge, and edited by Weber (cf. G. Ellis, Early English Metrical Romances, ed. 1848, p. 282; and the fragment in Harl. MS. 4690, f. 106).
24. "Here Bigynnys the Romance of the childhode of Iesu Criste þat clerkes callys Ipokrephum." f. 163 b. Begins as Harl. MS. 2399 f. 47 b; but changes at the paragraph in f. 166 b, col. 2. Similarly it deserts the parallel poem in Harl. MS. 3954 from the last line of f. 164 b, col. 2.
25. "The parlement of the thre Ages," an alliterative poem, beginning: "In the monethes of Maye when mirthes bene fele." f. 169.
26. "Here Begynnes a Tretys and god Schorte refreyte By twixe Wynnere and Wastoure." f. 176 b.

Vellum; ff. 183. With four fly-leaves from a Breviary of the 15th century. On f. 49, in a hand of the latter part of the 15th cent., is written "John Nettletons boke." xvth cent. Quarto.

31,525. Miserere, for single and double choirs, by Tommaso Bai. A second copy of the score, in ancient notation, is added at f. 21. Paper; ff. 39. xviiith cent. Oblong Folio.

31,526. 1. "O quam tristis": solo from "Stabat Mater" by Giovanni Carlo Maria Clari; edited and transcribed, with organ-accompaniment, by Vincent Novello. f. 1.
2. Litany of the Virgin, for four voices, in full score, by Francesco Durante. f. 3.

3. "Requiem" and "Kyrie" in voice-score, by Jommelli. f. 28.
4. Choruses from motets and masses, by L. Leo; transcribed in score by J. P. Street. f. 38.

Paper; ff. 63. XVIIIth cent. Oblong Folio.

31,527. "La Fede ne' Tradimenti": an opera in three acts, in score, by Attilio Ariosti. Paper; ff. 145. XVIIIth cent. Oblong Folio.

31,528. Sonatas for violoncello and bass, with other compositions, solo and duo, for the same instruments, by Giuseppe, Barone dall' Abaco, Gaetano Chiabrano, Stefano Galeotti, and other masters. Those by Abaco are apparently autograph. Paper; ff. 183. XVIIIth cent. Oblong Folio.

31,529. Duets by Lotti. Paper; ff. 102. XVIIIth cent. Oblong Folio.

31,530. "Porsenna": an opera in three acts, ascribed doubtfully on the fly-leaf to Scarlatti or Lotti. Clément and Larousse (Dictionnaire Lyrique, p. 539) attribute the opera to the latter, adding that, when it was produced again at Naples, Scarlatti appended certain pieces to the work. Which of the recensions is represented by the present copy does not appear. Paper; ff. 163. XVIIIth cent. Oblong Folio.

31,531, 31,532. Sonatas for violin, with basso continuo, by John Christopher Pepusch. Two volumes. Paper; ff. 66, 33. Early XVIIIth cent. Oblong Folio.

31,538. Terzetti, by the same. Paper; ff. 49. XVIIIth cent. Oblong Folio.

31,539. Duets by Clari and Durante, with bass. Paper; ff. 174. XVIIIth cent. Oblong Folio.

31,540. "Ode to Harmony," in score, by Philip Hart. Autograph; signed at the end. Paper; ff. 94. XVIIIth cent. Folio.

31,541. "Cefalo e Procride": an opera in one act, in score, by Giovanni [Battista] Buononcini; distinguished as "Opera Prima." Paper; ff. 124. XVIIIth cent. Oblong Folio.

31,542. "Il Trionfo di Camilla": an opera in three acts, in score, attributed on the title to G. [B.] Bononcini. However, L. von Köchel (J. J. Fux, Vienna, 1872, p. 516) expressly states that the "Camilla, Regina de' Volsci," by M. A. Buononcini, exists in MS.

under the title of the present copy. Cf. G. Grove, Dict. of Music and Musicians (art. Handel), vol. i., p. 649, note. Two copies of the whole or part of "Camilla," exist, on the other hand, among the Northampton MSS. (Add. 14,185, 14,186) under the name of Giovanni Buononcini. Paper; ff. 219. XVIIIth cent. Oblong Folio.

31,543. "TURNO ARICINO": an opera in three acts, in score, by G. B. Buononcini. The attribution is confirmed by L. von Köchel, and by a copy of the same work in the same handwriting in the Dragonetti collection, Add. 15,992. Clément and Larousse, however, assign the same work to M. A. Buononcini. Paper; ff. 110. XVIIIth cent. Oblong Folio.

31,544. AIRS from the opera of "Erminia," by G. B. Buononcini. Paper; ff. 61. XVIIIth cent. Oblong Folio.

31,545–31,547. CANTATAS by G. B. Buononcini. Three volumes. Paper; ff. 103, 95, 44. XVIIIth cent. Oblong Folio.

31,548. TWELVE sonatas for three strings, in score, by G. B. Buononcini. Paper; ff. 41. XVIIIth cent. Folio.

31,549. 1. Two cantatas by Antonio Caldara. Autograph; subscribed, "Fine adi 29 Maggio, 1715, in Roma, ed è una grande ragazzata." f. 1.

2. End-chorus of the opera "Sanzio," composed 1732, by A. Caldara; in score. Autograph; and so attested by the collector, Aloys Fuchs, of the Imperial chapel at Vienna, who gave the MS. to Dr. von Gassner of Carlsruhe, 13 Sept. 1842. f. 4.

Paper; ff. 10. XVIIIth cent. Oblong Folio.

31,550. "MAGNIFICAT" for two choirs, in organ-score, by A. Caldara; followed, at f. 58, by twelve sonatas for four strings, also in score, and attributed to the same composer. Paper; ff. 100. XVIIIth cent. Oblong Folio.

31,551. "ORMISDA": an opera in three acts, in score. The overture is arranged for harpsichord. A note, on f. 1, by Victor Schoelcher, refers the authorship of the work to Francesco Conti, on the ground of an identical copy, in the handwriting of Christopher Smith (Handel's secretary), being definitely so ascribed. This would appear to decide against F. Chrysander, who conjectured (G. F. Händel, 1860, vol. ii., p. 239) that the opera of the name which Handel arranged for his opera-house in 1730, was that produced by Bartolommeo Cordans at Venice in 1728. Paper; ff. 150. XVIIIth cent. Oblong Folio.

31,552. 1. SONATA, for harpsichord in C minor, by Domenico Scarlatti. f. 1.

2. Duets, by the same. f. 4.

Paper; ff. 46. XVIIIth cent. Oblong Folio.

31,553. Forty-four sonatas for the clavichord, by Domenico Scarlatti. Paper; ff. 87. Formerly belonged to Dr. Worgan and Charles Wesley. xviiith cent. Oblong Folio.

31,554. "Responsori per la settimana santa," in voice score, by Pompeo Cannicciari; March, 1709. Autograph. Paper; ff. 42. Oblong Folio.

31,555–31,578. Works of George Frederic Handel. In twenty-four volumes. They are:—

31,555. Selections from operas and similar works, transcribed roughly, in score, by Rophino Lacy, viz.:—

1. "Almira," without words. f. 1.
2. "Roderigo," with the overture. f. 22.
3. "Silla," with the overture. f. 69.
4. "Aci, Galatea, e Polifemo." f. 99.
5. "Muzio Scevola." f. 109.
6. "Riccardo Primo." f. 111.
7. "Siroe." f. 112.
8. "Oreste," with the overture. f. 113.

Followed, at f. 127, by "Apollo e Dafne," "Agrippina," and other cantatas. Paper; ff. 284. xixth cent. Quarto.

31,556. Unpublished portions of the opera of "Rinaldo," transcribed by Rophino Lacy. At the end, f. 42, is a symphony of which the proper place in the opera is undetermined. Paper; ff. 43. xixth cent. Folio.

31,557. "Two anthems composed for his grace the duke of Shandous; 1719": two scores of the Chandos anthem, "As pants the hart," in D minor and E minor. Transcribed by J. Christopher Smith [the elder?]. Some corrections in the book are possibly by Handel. Paper; ff. 73. xviiith cent. Quarto.

31,558. "My Song shall be alway": Chandos anthem, in full score. Paper; ff. 44. xviiith cent. Oblong Folio.

31,559. Copies of the two Chandos anthems contained in Add. 31,557, 31,558; in full score. Followed, at f. 39, by Four Morning and Evening Services in voice-score, by Dr. Blow; and, at f. 74, by a "Dies Iræ" for ten voices, in full score, by Jean Baptiste Lully. Transcribed by J. Christopher Smith. Paper; ff. 102. xviiith cent. Folio.

31,560. "Hester: a grand oratoria." Transcript, in score, by Christopher Smith. Paper; ff. 110. xviiith cent. Oblong Folio.

31,561. "Acis and Galatea": a serenata. Transcript, in score, by Christopher Smith. Paper; ff. 159. xviiith cent. Oblong Folio.

31,562. "RADAMISTE," or "Il Rademisto": an Italian opera, in full score. Transcript by Christopher Smith. This copy differs from the printed text of 1720 in the fulness of its orchestration, in a few changes of phrasing (e.g. in the violino traverso of the recitative, f. 60 b), in one change of order (the aria "Vanne Sorella" appearing at f. 68 instead of f. 75, before the closing scene of act ii.), and in the omission of the end-chorus "Un di piu felice" and of all the "Arie Aggiunte" which supplemented the original publication of the opera. (See Schoelcher, Life of Handel, p. 56.) Paper; ff. 112. XVIIIth cent. In the original morocco binding, with the bookplate of Edward Stephenson, of Farley Hill [co. Berks]. Obl. Folio.

31,563. "ALESSANDRO" [otherwise "Roxana"]: an opera in three acts. Transcript, in score, by R. Lacy. Paper; ff. 121. XIXth cent. Obl. Folio.

31,564. "ORLANDO": an opera in three acts. Transcript, in score, by F. Panormo; with an index by R. Lacy. Paper; ff. 164. XVIIIth and XIXth centt. Obl. Folio.

31,565. ANOTHER copy of the same. Paper; ff. 132. XVIIIth cent. Obl. Folio.

31,566. "ALCINA": an opera in three acts, in score. Paper; ff. 55. XVIIIth cent. From the collection of R. Lacy. Quarto.

31,567. "IL CONVITO d'Alessandro": the serenata "Alexander's Feast," with an Italian version of the libretto. Paper; ff. 161. XVIIIth cent. Obl. Folio.

31,568. "ORATORIO del Tempo e della Verità," apparently in the revised and partly re-written form in which the work (originally composed in 1708) was produced in London, 23 March, 1737. With corrections in various hands in pen and pencil, generally of clerical errors. A few, e.g. "uomo" f. 42 b, are probably by Handel. At f. 126 appear the cancelled words "Segue Concerto per LOrgano e poi Hallelujah"; but the Concerto is omitted. The two compositions, however, exist in sequence in Handel's autograph, dated 25 March, 1735 (King's MS. 317, f. 37). On the relation of this recension of the work to the oratorio of 1708 see Chrysander's preface to his edition of the latter (published for the Deutsche Händelgesellschaft, 1866) and also the analysis in his Life of Handel, vol. i. p. 220. Paper; ff. 131. XVIIIth cent. Folio.

31,569. "ALESSANDRO SEVERO": a pasticcio in three acts, in score. Paper; ff. 132. XVIIIth cent. Obl. Folio.

31,570. "JEPHTHA": an oratorio. The copy used by Dr. S. Arnold in preparing his edition of the work. Part of the book consists of printed extracts from the original publication by Walsh. Paper; ff. 225. XVIIIth cent. Folio.

31,571. Songs from operas, in score; taken from "Pastor Fido," "Muzio Scævola," "Ottone," "Floridante," "Tamerlano" (?), "Giulio Cesare," "Rodelinda," and "Alessandro." Some of the songs are distinguished in a list prefixed as unpublished. Transcript by Christopher Smith. Paper; ff. 134. xviiith cent. Quarto.

31,572. Songs from operas, in score; taken principally from "Ottone" and "Flavio," with several from "Alceste," "Admeto," "Semiramide," "Orlando," "Parnasso in Festa." At f. 30 is an aria by Attilio Ariosti. The unpublished part of this volume is noted at f. 1 by Julian Marshall, to whom it passed from the library of Dr. Philip Hayes of Oxford. Paper; ff. 178. xviiith cent. Obl. Folio.

31,573. Rough transcripts by R. Lacy:—

1. "Magnificat, del Rd. Sigr. Erla" [or Erba], presumably copied from the score in the library of the Sacred Harmonic Society. (See Grove's Dict. of Music and Musicians, vol. i. p. 654 n. 1.) f. 1.
2. Harpsichord music, partly noted as unpublished, with some sketches of other instrumental compositions; followed by a medley of songs (some with guitar accompaniment), cantatas, duets, and fragments of oratorios and operas, many only inchoate. f. 33.
3. "Long live the Queen," composed 1745; the words slightly varied, and a pianoforte accompaniment added, by R. Lacy. f. 84.

Paper; ff. 85. xixth cent. Quarto.

31,574. Nine cantatas (the last entitled "Lucretia"), apparently unpublished. Paper; ff. 46. xviiith cent. Obl. Folio.

31,575. Six sonatas (trios); op. 2. Printed; with notes by R. Lacy. Paper; ff. 29. A.D. 1732, and xixth cent. Quarto.

31,576. Fugues and other compositions, principally in four parts, in score. Included are compositions by [Domenico?] Scarlatti, [Giovanni Battista] Martini, Geminiani, Richter, Jommelli, and Collet; the last, autograph. Paper; ff. 122. xviiith cent. From Dr. S. Arnold's collection. Quarto.

31,577. Harpsichord compositions; including pieces by Pepusch, William Babell, Jean Baptiste Loeillet, and [Francesco] Mancini. Paper; ff. 50. xviiith cent. Obl. Quarto.

31,578. Songs and duets, in full score; including also compositions by Sarti, [John Christian] Bach, Paisiello, and Pietro Terziani. Paper; ff. 73. xviiith cent. Obl. Folio.

31,579–31,585. Works of Benedetto Marcello, in seven volumes, viz.:—

31,581–31,584. "ESTRO Poetico-Armonico": paraphrases upon the first 50 Psalms. The intonations with Hebrew words are prefixed to some of the Psalms. A note by Julian Marshall, within the cover of vol. i., attests this transcript, which is in score, to have been written by Luigi Cherubini and to be more correct than the printed edition. Four volumes. Paper; ff. 176, 172, 189, 173. Circ. 1800. Quarto.

31,585. DUETS. Paper; ff. 68. XVIIIth cent. Obl. Folio.

31,586. ANTHEMS, in score, by Dr. Philip Falle, prebendary of Durham. At f. 23 is the 80th Psalm "Set to Musick upon Occasion of Dr. Sacheverel's Tryal." Autograph. Paper; ff. 94. Early XVIIIth cent. Folio.

31,587. "TE DEUM" and "Jubilate" by Charles King, Mus. B., scored for organ and for full orchestra by Thomas Attwood, a letter of whom is prefixed to the volume. Paper; ff. 25. XIXth cent. Obl. Folio.

31,588. OPERAS by John Ernest Galliard :—
1. "Jupiter and Europe, a masque of song's." Printed. f. 3.
2. "Pan and Syrinx, an opera, the words by Lewis Theobald, 1717, set to Music by Mr. Galliard and performed in Lincoln's Inn Theatre." Autograph score. f. 13. Additional music to the same follows at f. 69.

At the end is inserted the first leaf of a missal of the 15th century. Vellum; ff. 13. In the old binding, damaged. Octavo.

31,846–31,851. "The Naturalist's Journal": the printed tabulated annual diaries, edited by the Hon. Daines Barrington; with records of the barometer, thermometer, wind, and weather, and remarks relating to gardening, agriculture, and natural history, entered from day to day by Gilbert White, of Selborne; 1768–1793. Six volumes.

31,846. Vol. i. (ff. 180). 1768–1773.
31,847. Vol. ii. (ff. 215). 1774–1780.
31,848. Vol. iii. (ff. 156). 1781–1783.
31,849. Vol. iv. (ff. 144). 1784–1786.
31,850. Vol. v. (ff. 134). 1787–1789.
31,851. Vol. vi. (ff. 174). 1790–June, 1793.

At the beginning of vol. i. White has written "The gift of the Honourable Mr. Barrington, the Inventer." With the book-plate of George Soaper. Oblong Folio.

31,852. Fourteen original letters (with two fragments) from Gilbert White to the Hon. Daines Barrington; 6 July, 1769—8 July, 1773, 13 June, 1777, and 22 Apr. 1780. All but three are printed in Professor Bell's edition of White's Natural History of Selborne, 1877, vol. i. pp. 113 sqq., under the numbers I., II., III. and IV. (one letter in the original), V., VI. (fragment), VII., VIII., IX., XI.–XIII. (one letter), XIV., XV., XLIX. and L. (one letter); but they differ from the printed text, sometimes containing additional passages and varying in the dates. Paper; ff. 30. Folio.

31,853. "A CHOROGRAPHICALL discription of the seuerall Shires and Islands of Middlesex, Essex, Surrey, Sussex, Hamshire, Weighte, Garnesey and Jarsey, performed by the traueyle and uiew of John Norden, 1595." An original MS. with dedication to Queen Elizabeth. Of the description of Sussex only the last page (f. 19) remains. The description of Middlesex is not so full as that printed by Norden in Speculum Britanniae. The firste parte, 1593; and the description of Essex differs materially from that edited by Sir Henry Ellis, for the Camden Society, Speculi Britanniæ Pars, 1840, from a MS. in the library of the Marquis of Salisbury. The maps which originally accompanied the volume were cut out by a former owner in the last century and kept by him, presumably to prevent their being damaged, between the leaves of a book. (See a note on the fly-leaf.) At least three of them, Middlesex, Essex, and Hampshire, together with the title-page and dedication, passed into possession of Francis Grose, and subsequently to Richard Bull, of North Court, Isle of Wight, and were sold with the collection of drawings and engravings of the latter in May, 1881. Unfortunately the purchaser restored only two of the maps, Essex and Hampshire, with the title-page and dedication, to the MS. which was already in his possession. The map of Essex which accompanies Sir H. Ellis's edition is on a smaller scale than the present one. That of Hampshire, published, with other maps by Norden, in the 6th edition of Camden's Britannia, 1607, is also smaller than the one in this volume; but that published by Overton (see a topographical collection in the Department of Prints and Drawings, entitled "British Topography," vol. i., no. 113) is on the same scale, but does not include the small supplementary maps here given of the Isle of Wight, Jersey, and Guernsey. Paper; ff. 31. Folio.

Nicholas, Secretary to the Duke, and others. Paper; ff. 35. Quarto.

Eg. 2,545. Negotiations between Charles I. and Jean de Montereul or Montreuil, French Resident in England, for the surrender of the King to the Scotch army, being chiefly drafts, copies, and decipherings in the hand of Sir E. Nicholas, with declarations, etc., signed by Montreuil; 10 Jan. 1645[6]–25 Apr. 1646. Mostly printed in the Clarendon State Papers, vol. ii., pp. 209 sqq. At f. 82 is a draft by Nicholas of the Instructions to the Earls of Lindsey and Southampton and others to treat with Col. Rainsborough (op. cit. p. 228); Oxford, 25 Apr. 1646. In this document and others (ff. 80, 81) are interlineations by Charles I. Paper; ff. 83. Folio.

Eg. 2,546. Select historical papers; 1641–1661.
1. Covers of seventeen letters from Charles I., when in Edinburgh, to Edward Nicholas, Acting-Secretary of State, being chiefly letters from Nicholas to the King returned by the latter with the note "yours apostyled"; 15 Aug.–18 Nov. 1641. f. 3. The actual letters, the full number of which (see a list on f. 1) was forty-three, are preserved at Wotton, and are printed in Bray's Memoirs of J.

Evelyn, 1818, vol. ii., part ii., p. 1. On the cover of a letter (f. 15) dated by Nicholas 6 Nov., and apostiled by Charles 13 Nov., is a note to Nicholas from Queen Henrietta Maria in pursuance of the King's directions (cf. Bray, op. cit. p. 61).

2. Instructions from Charles I. to Sir Edward Herbert, Attorney General, relative to the impeachment of Lord Kimbolton, [Viscount Mandeville] and the Five Members; 3 Jan. 164½. Holograph. f. 20. They are as follows:—

"1. You ar to accuse those ~~five~~ six, jointlie & seuerallie.
2. You ar to reserue the power of making additionalls.
3. When the Coñittie for examination is a naming (w^ch^ you must press to be close & under tey of secresie) if eather Essex, Warwick, Holland, Say, ~~Mandeuill~~, Wharton, or Brooke be named, you must desyre that they may be spared because you ar to examine them as witnesses for me."

These directions (with the exception of art. 3) are referred to both in the answer of Sir E. Herbert to his impeachment and in the King's letter on his behalf to the Lord Keeper (Rushworth, vol. iv. pp. 490, 493). From the erasures noted above it appears that the impeachment of Lord Mandeville was an afterthought, the first intention being to call him as a witness with the other opposition peers, whom it was thought advisable to prevent by this device from serving on the examining committee.

3. Warrant from Charles I. to Sir Edward Herbert to desist from further proceedings on the impeachment of Lord Kimbolton and the Five Members; Theobalds, 3 Mar. 1641[2]. Signed. f. 21.

Paper; ff. 192. In the original morocco binding. Small Quarto.

Eg. 2,591. JOURNAL of David Samwell, Surgeon of the "Discovery," in Captain Cook's voyage to the Pacific Ocean; 10 Feb. 1776–29 Nov. 1779. Autograph. At the end are:—

1. "A narrative of the Death of Captain James Cook, to which are added some particulars concerning his Life and Character," etc., by David Samwell, 1786. Printed. The particulars of Cook's death are taken from the Journal. f. 298.
2. "Ode for the New Year MDCCXC. As it was intended to have been rehearsed this Day at St. James's." Printed. f. 317.

At f. 1 is a silhouette, and at f. 2 an engraved portrait, of Samwell. Paper; ff. 318. Belonged to Matthew Gregson; to whom Samwell's printed tract above was given by the author, and who probably therefore became the owner of the Journal in the same manner. Quarto.

Eg. 2,592–2,597. CORRESPONDENCE of James Hay, Baron Hay [1615], Viscount Doncaster [1618], and Earl of Carlisle [1622, ob. 1636], chiefly in connexion with his embassies: to Germany in 1619 on the affairs of the Palatinate, to France in 1621 at the outbreak of the Huguenot war, to France and Spain in 1623 during the visit of Prince Charles to Madrid, and to France in 1624 to negotiate the marriage of the Prince with Henrietta Maria; 1616–1636. A few documents are included of earlier and later dates, between 1602 and 1689. Six Volumes. Paper. Folio.

The letters of Lord Carlisle are chiefly drafts or copies in the hands of secretaries. A portion of the correspondence during the embassy to Germany is printed, from other sources, among Letters and other documents illustrating the relations between England and Germany, etc., ed. S. R. Gardiner, Camden Society, series i., ii., 1865, 1868; and many of the letters relating to the French match were included by Lord Hardwicke (to whom the collection formerly belonged) in his State Papers, 1778, vol. i. pp. 523–570.
