Dear Sir,

I desire to thank you for sending me the etching and engraving of Dr de Langlesia. The former has no interest for me, but I should be pleased to offer you 3/6 for the engraving of the flaying of St Jerome.

With regard to the book on "The Medicinal Nature of Hemlock" I regret that we already possess a copy of this work.

Will you kindly call for the picture and the book when convenient to you, and you can then let me know whether you will accept the price offered for the engraving, or whether it shall be returned to you.

Yours faithfully,

Dear Sir,

I desire to thank you for allowing me to inspect the book entitled "Experiments and Observations on Bezoar Stones". I may point out that it is not an uncommon book, and is not in black letter as you suggest in your note of the 2nd inst. I am informed that a good value for it would be five shillings, which amount I shall be pleased to offer you. If you accept, kindly let me know, and I will forward you cheque for that sum.
