Lindrin
Better-Naturally

Winters in Scandinavia can be bitterly cold – a perfect breeding ground for Winter's ailments. But not every sufferer wants the relief afforded by chemicals, however effective modern drugs may be.

A leading Danish Doctor of Medicine looked for Nature's traditional remedies, and formulated Lindrin, nine specially selected herbs in a soluble tablet.

Lindrin

Danish for Relief

Lindrin was acknowledged by the Swedish Medical Authorities as a most useful product, and, in one winter over 10 million tablets were sold. Now, this unique blend of herbs is available in the UK, in a handy, pocket-sized pack.

Lindrin is most beneficial when taken at the first signs of discomfort. Take between 6 – 8 tablets a day and allow them to dissolve slowly in the mouth, releasing all the flavours and goodness of the herbs.

Lindrin is not only completely safe, with no known side effects, but is the most successful natural product for Winter's ailments in Scandinavia.
