We are involved
together
in a world
of technology
each of us
serving
with his own
special gift
sharing
common heritage
in science
and philosophy
we are
from one root

the story
of microscopes
has helped me
form a better image
of where
have we come from
perhaps
provoked thoughts
of where
are we going
how brief
our moment
in history

Best wishes for joy and peace in this holiday season
