

Don Francisco, the little man from Madrid will hold his levees every day for a short period, at the Cosmorama Rooms, 200, Regent-street.

Publication/Creation

[1846]

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/h932erk2>

License and attribution

This work has been identified as being free of known restrictions under copyright law, including all related and neighbouring rights and is being made available under the Creative Commons, Public Domain Mark.

You can copy, modify, distribute and perform the work, even for commercial purposes, without asking permission.

Wellcome Collection
183 Euston Road
London NW1 2BE UK
T +44 (0)20 7611 8722
E library@wellcomecollection.org
<https://wellcomecollection.org>

1846
DON FRANCISCO, the LITTLE MAN from MADRID will hold his Levees every day for a short period, at the COSMORAMA ROOMS, 209, Regent-street, from Twelve to Four and from Six to Nine. The Don is the most extraordinary specimen of the human race in the world, being 42 years old and only 29 inches high, possessing a fine intellectual countenance, and speaking three languages. If the exhibition of "small children" excited the curiosity of the public, what must be the astonishment on witnessing this "wonder of creation."—Cosmorama Rooms, 209, Regent-street. Admittance One Shilling. Children Half-price.