Beautiful Wonder of Nature !

GENERAL Tom Thumb

THE
Celebrated American Dwarf,
EXHIBITING EVERY DAY AND EVENING,

AT THE
EGYPTIAN HALL, PICCADILLY,
PREVIOUS TO HIS DEPARTURE TO PARIS.

CHARLES S. STRATTON, known as GENERAL TOM THUMB, was born January 11, 1832, consequently he is now

TWELVE YEARS OF AGE.

HE IS TWENTY-FIVE INCHES HIGH,

AND
Weighs Only 15 Pounds.

The GENERAL is of the most symmetrical proportions, active, lively, intelligent, and sociable. He is robust and hearty; never having been ill a day in his life. His Parents and a Preceptor have accompanied him across the Atlantic.

The extreme diminutiveness—the graceful bearing and fascinating manners of this beautiful rosy-cheeked MAN in miniature—cannot be justly conceived without seeing him. The GENERAL has been visited in America and the Canadas by nearly HALF A MILLION of Ladies and Gentlemen of the first respectability, who unanimously pronounce him

The GREATEST CURIOSITY IN THE WORLD.

The GENERAL shed his first set of Teeth several years since; and his enormous strength, his firm and manly gait and call, establish his age beyond all dispute.

The GENERAL will amuse his Visitors with a relation of his History—

Songs, Dances, Imitation of Napoleon
Buonaparte, Grecian Statues, &c. &c.

HOURS OF EXHIBITION,

From 11 to 1; from 2 to 5; and from $\frac{1}{2}$ -past 6 to 9.

ADMISSION, One Shilling.

CHILDREN, 1s. Season Ticket, (not transferable) 3s.

NO FREE LIST, THE PRESS EXCEPTED.

* * The GENERAL will be happy to wait on the Nobility and Gentry at their Residences any Day before Eleven A.M., or Evening before Nine P.M., on due Notice being given.
