ROYAL ADELAIDE GALLERY.

General Tom Thumb's Evening Concerts.

1844

GENERAL TOM THUMB respectfully begs leave to inform his numerous Friends and Patrons, that presuming on the kindness which has hitherto been bestowed on him by a liberal public, he proposes giving a series of EVENING CONCERTS, at the ROYAL ADELAIDE GALLERY, every Evening, commencing Monday, June 17th, when he will have the honour of introducing the popular American vocalist, Mr. H. G. Sherman, of New York, assisted by Miss Clairton, Miss Burnard, Mr. Tranklee, and Mr. Hill. In addition to his usual performances, the General will sing a Comic Duet, and dance a "Pas de Polka" with the Infant Thalia, who has been expressly engaged for the purpose, and will give a variety of Songs and Dances. The Concert will be followed by Dissolving Views, and other attractions.

The General is exhibited as usual at the Egyptian Hall, in the day time, between Eleven and One, a.m., and half-past Two and Five, p.m.
