EXHIBITED BEFORE THEIR MAJESTIES.

[LAST WEEK.]—To be Seen in a Commodious Caravan,
in the MARKET-PLACE, HULL,

From Eleven o'Clock in the Morning, until Nine in the Evening,

THE CELEBRATED

Mrs. WESTON,

SIX INCHES SHORTER THAN ANY WOMAN TRAVELLING,

And the greatest Phenomenon of Nature ever Seen.

This astonishing Lady is Twenty-seven Years of Age, and only Thirty-four Inches high; has had the honour to be presented to the Royal Family, and most of the Nobility of this Kingdom; and was admired by all for her diminutive Stature, fine Symmetry of Proportion, and Personal Accomplishments; and is allowed to be the greatest Wonder of Nature ever introduced to the Public. This Lady is not deformed, like many little People; and is the Mother of one Child, which renders her more worthy of universal Admiration.

EXTRACT FROM THE YORK HERALD, Nov. 7, 1808.

"BIRTH—On Monday, the 7th Inst. at the Black Swan, in Peaseholm Green, of a Son, Mrs. Weston. This Lady has lately been exhibited in this City, with a Model of the Grand Turk's Palace. She is an extraordinary diminutive of the Human Species, though without deformity, being but Thirty-four Inches high, and in every other respect proportional."

ALSO, THE

Liliputian Dwarf,

Thirty Years of Age, and only THIRTY-TWO INCHES HIGH;

His Manly Appearance attracts the attention of every Person who pays him a Visit.

IN THE SAME CARRIAGE, A REPRESENTATION OF THE STATE ROOM IN THE GRAND TURK'S PALACE AT CONSTANTINOPLE.

The Room that this represents is opened but once a Year; and is so spacious as to contain 5,000 Persons, with 400 variegated moving Pillars. The Grand Sultan sits on a Throne of solid Gold, and decorated with diamonds, &c. to the value of Half a Million of Money, where he receives the Nobility, and Foreign Ambassadors. This Room is allowed to be the most Magnificent upon earth. The Pillars are moved by tremendous Water-Works.

Admittance, Ladies and Gentlemen, 1s.—Trades-People, 6d.—Children, 3d.

MON DAY, March 4th, 1811.

ROBERT PECK, PRINTER, SCALE-LANE, HULL.
