

There is a young colossus to be seen at the sign of the French Horn and Mansion House, opposite the Mansion House : being a boy fifteen years of age, seven feet high, and every way proportioned ...

Publication/Creation

[1745?]

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/rvxhtzcd>

License and attribution

This work has been identified as being free of known restrictions under copyright law, including all related and neighbouring rights and is being made available under the Creative Commons, Public Domain Mark.

You can copy, modify, distribute and perform the work, even for commercial purposes, without asking permission.

Wellcome Collection
183 Euston Road
London NW1 2BE UK
T +44 (0)20 7611 8722
E library@wellcomecollection.org
<https://wellcomecollection.org>

THERE is a YOUNG COLOSSUS to be seen at the Sign of the French Horn and Mansion House, opposite the Mansion House, being a Boy fifteen Years of Age, Seven Feet high, and every way proportioned ; born at Hurtfield, in Sussex ; and allowed by several Judges to be a greater Curiosity than the famous Sweede* that was shewn at the above Place some Time ago. He is to be seen any Time, from Ten in the Morning till Nine at Night ; and never was exhibited to publick View before.

Daily Advertiser, Feb. 23, 1745.

The Wonderful Young Giant will perform on the Rope this present Saturday, at the New Wells near the London Spaw, Clerkenwell.

Ib. August 3, 1745.

* DANIEL CAJANUS.

Reprint

Reprints from old advertisements
v.c.