DIED, on Sunday last, Mrs. COX, of 38, Red Lion Street, Clerkenwell, of dropsy. She is supposed to have been the heaviest woman in London, weighing, at the time of her death, not less than 18 stone : about three years ago, however, she much much heavier, being then 23 stone 5 lbs. She was the mother of eleven children, and was in her 48th year. Notwithstanding her great bulk, she was a very active and bustling woman.

13 June, 1830.
