SYRUP PIX LIQUIDA COMPOUND.

Winn, Jan 27, 1891.

AUBURN DRUG & CHEMICAL CO.:

Gents:—Please send me one dozen of your Cough Syrup Pix Liquida Compound. Send by American Express Co., send soon as possible and oblige—it works like a charm.

Yours Respectfully,

A. J. LEE.

From Rev. Mr. Cates, Tokio, Japan.

Tufts College, Mass., Jan. 27, 1891.

Dear Mr. Packard:

Let me give you a bit from a letter dated Dec. 26th in Japan. "Do not forget to tell Mr. Packard that I hear the praises of Pix Liquida sung very often. One lady will return in about a year and she wishes to know where it can be procured, It is said to be marvellous in its effects."

L. WESTON ATWOOD.

Lewiston and Auburn Physicians, as well as many others throughout Maine and New England, endorse this cough remedy because it is really a DISCOVERY in its combination and process of manufacture, not one of the secret "Cure Alls." Dr. Miles Spaulding of Groton, Mass., has used nearly 50 pints in a little more than a year and a half.
