

Beecham's music portfolio. No. 12, Scenes that are brightest.

Contributors

Beecham, Thomas, 1820-1907.
Beecham's Pills (Firm)
Canning & Co.

Publication/Creation

St Helens, Lancashire : Thomas Beecham, [between 1890 and 1910?]

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/csst4zad>

License and attribution

This work has been identified as being free of known restrictions under copyright law, including all related and neighbouring rights and is being made available under the Creative Commons, Public Domain Mark.

You can copy, modify, distribute and perform the work, even for commercial purposes, without asking permission.

wellcome
collection

Wellcome Collection
183 Euston Road
London NW1 2BE UK
T +44 (0)20 7611 8722
E library@wellcomecollection.org
<https://wellcomecollection.org>

BEECHAM'S

MUSIC

PORTFOLIO

Nº 12
REGISTERED.

SCENES THAT ARE BRIGHTEST.

COPYRIGHT EDITION.

PRESENTED BY
Thomas Beecham
PROPRIETOR OF THE
RENOWNED PILLS

A WONDERFUL MEDICINE.

SCENES THAT ARE BRIGHTEST.

Cantabile e con molto semplicita.

PIANO.

pp gva

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand begins with a treble clef, a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and a common time signature. It features a series of eighth notes ascending and then descending, with a long slur over the first six measures. The left hand starts with a bass clef and a common time signature, playing a simple accompaniment of quarter notes. The dynamic marking pp (pianissimo) is placed between the staves, and the tempo/style marking gva (cantabile) is written above the right staff.

Scenes that are bright - - est May charm..... a - - Words can not seat - - - ter The thoughts..... we

The first system of the song features a vocal line on a single staff and a piano accompaniment on two staves. The vocal line is in a treble clef with a key signature of two flats and a common time signature. The lyrics are: "Scenes that are bright - - est May charm..... a - - Words can not seat - - - ter The thoughts..... we". The piano accompaniment consists of a treble and bass clef with a common time signature, featuring a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the right hand and a simple bass line in the left hand.

while Hearts which are light - - - est, And fear..... For tho' they flat - - - ter, They

The second system of the song continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "while Hearts which are light - - - est, And fear..... For tho' they flat - - - ter, They". The musical notation follows the same format as the first system, with a vocal line and piano accompaniment.

eyes..... that smile; Yet o'er them, a - mock..... the ear Hope will still de -

The third system of the song concludes the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "eyes..... that smile; Yet o'er them, a - mock..... the ear Hope will still de -". The musical notation follows the same format as the previous systems, with a vocal line and piano accompaniment.

dim. 3

bove us, Tho' na - ture beam With ceive us, With tear - ful cost And none to they love us, How sad they when they leave us The heart is seem With none to they love us, How lost And when they leave us, The ritard.

sad they seem!
 heart is lost.

A WONDERFUL MEDICINE.

.....

Beecham's Pills are admitted by thousands
To be the best Pills that are sold,
Effecting the cure of all nervous disorders,
Sick headache, a chill, or a cold.
In bilious diseases, or wind in the stomach,
They're certain to make you all right ;
So they should be used in all cases of sickness,
Or loss of a good appetite.

For shortness of breathing they've not got an equal :
All costiveness certain to cure :
If scurvy or blotches have made you unsightly,
They'll make you once more clean and pure.
If your sleep is disturbed, or you're given to dreaming,
The first dose will ease you from pain ;
You will sleep like a top, and not wake till the morning.
And then you can slumber again.

It's really no fiction, in thousands of cases,
Much good to the sick has been done
By this wonderful cure, by this best of all medicines,
A better than which there is none.
For a stomach that's weak, or digestion impaired,
On the liver like magic they'll act,
For doses a few will be found to work wonders,
And thousands can vouch for this fact.

They strengthen the whole of the muscular system ;
To the appetite give a keen zest :
Believe me, there's not in the world such a medicine,
Of all Pills then Beecham's the best.
Then make up your mind, don't delay, but go quickly,
Before it's too late and you're ill ;
Purchase a box, and try a small sample
Of this really wonderful Pill.

For females these Pills are a boon and a blessing,
They're a better possession than wealth,
By removing obstruction, and clearing the system,
They soon will restore them to health.
They're sold by all druggists, and dealers in physic,
Directions are sent with each box,
This Rose-bud of health, you should ever remember,
Is well WORTH A GUINEA A BOX.