Just as unbelievable-most men expect someone with HIV will always tell them before sex

There are plenty of reasons why a man might choose not to tell ... you might react badly ... you might tell others ... and anyway, if you're going to have safer sex, why do you need to know? Are you still expecting to be told?
