Hello, Big Up. How can I help you? ... Yo, wassup ... Hi ... You know I don't even know your name ... Kofi ... Mine's Jamal. My friend says that wanking will turn you blind and if you do it you must be hard up and he made it sound all risky ... Do you jerk off? ... Wank, yes ... Look, wanking with a partner or in a group is safe as long as you avoid getting someone else's cum in your arse or into any cuts or sores you may have. But tell me, what is it like for you? Let your mind go free ... Well, I think about the things that I like doing, I touch the parts of my body that turn me on and then I think about who I'd like to do it with ... you know? ... and at the end of it? ... I feel good, a little messy but good ... nothing a little bit of soap & water won't wash off. So at the end of all that, what do you think? ... My friend is wrong? ... Maybe you need to talk a bit more to your friend ... and tell him that it's all in the mind. You can also tell him that as wanking can often lead to other things so if you've been using peanut butter or whipped cream to help things along, these can damage condoms - so be careful ... I'll remember that. By the way anyone ever tell you that you've got a really sexy voice? ... Thank you for the compliment. Is there anything I can help you with? ... Not at the moment ... Click
