New Freedoms Boxes

Freedoms Boxes are a new range of products which are now on sale to complement and support our continuing free condom distribution scheme.

The new range features two attractively designed Freedoms Boxes containing both condoms and lube. These products give you the opportunity to buy condoms and lube at near cost price and thereby make huge savings on high street prices.

The Freedoms free packs, containing two condoms and two sachets of lube, have been available in over 150 gay venues throughout London for two years now. And they will continue to be available as before.

In the course of those two years, the scheme has grown to be the largest and most highly respected in the world. We distribute nearly 1.5 million free condoms per year to gay men in London.

While this may sound like a lot of condoms, they have to be shared out between the estimated 400,000 gay men living in, working in and visiting the capital. This means that Freedoms can only supply three free condoms to every gay man in London each year!

The Freedoms free packs need to be there for you when you need condoms in a hurry, when you have no access to other condoms. But you also need to buy your own regular supply and save the Freedoms free packs for an emergency.

That is where the new Freedoms Boxes come in.

Rather than spending large amounts of cash in the chemist or the all-night garage, and still not getting the condoms and lube you really want, you can now buy the highest quality condoms and lube at an exceptionally competitive price.

Freedoms Boxes will be available from a variety of gay establishments throughout London and on the Internet. Full details of how to get your Freedoms Boxes can be found at www.freedoms.org.uk or by calling 020 7530 3941.
