THE TERRENCE HIGGINS TRUST DRUG LEAFLETS

The Terrence Higgins Trust was set up in 1983 as the first national voluntary organisation to respond to all aspects of the AIDS/HIV health crisis. It aims to:

- * Provide welfare, legal and counselling help and support to people with AIDS/HIV and related conditions, and to their friends and families.
- * Disseminate accurate information about AIDS and HIV to the general public, policy makers and the media.
- * Provide health education about HIV/AIDS.
- * Encourage support, and assess research into the causes and treatment of AIDS/HIV and related conditions.

Services for drug users are completely integrated into the services of the Trust. We believe in equal access for everyone.

The following two leaflets have been produced for our drug-using clients:

Reducing the Risks- A leaflet for people who use drugs
Where to get your works - Our brand new pocket-sized directory of London Needle Exchanges.

As you are aware, we are a registered charity and must ask organisations to pay for quantities of printed matter. Reducing the Risks costs 20p and Where to get your works 10p, which is inclusive of VAT, postage and packaging. Although these prices are correct at time of printing, they are subject to change without notice. There is a minimum charge of £10 per order.
