Before you send off a donation – STOP – and consider confirming your long-term commitment to The Terrence Higgins Trust

We have a covenanting scheme enabling individuals to give on a regular basis very simply. Better still, it allows us to recover the tax you have paid on your donation from the Inland Revenue.

The Terrence Higgins Trust can reclaim your tax if you pledge an annual contribution for at least four years and complete the straightforward bankers order and covenant forms overleaf.

To make the scheme cost-effective to administer, we ask that you give at least £5 per month (or £60 per year). For example, £100 covenanted will be worth £133 a year to us – without costing you a penny extra.

Because of its long term nature, covenanting also enables us to plan ahead more confidently.
