The Food Chain provides nutrition services (including home delivered meals, essential groceries and nutrition advice) to men, women and children across London who are chronically ill as a result of HIV. All our services are provided with the help and support of over 800 volunteers across London.

As a Trustee of The Food Chain you would work as a team with other Trustees to:

- oversee finances to make sure all money generously donated is used wisely
- help shape the future of the charity
- lead or contribute to specific projects such as organising the annual fundraising dinner or Carol Service.

It would involve attending monthly meetings in central London and around 3 hours work per week in between.

New Trustees will be elected in October each year and we are keen for Trustees to represent our large community of volunteers.

If you would like to find out more about being a Trustee, please send an email with your preferred contact details to trustees@foodchain.org.uk, and one of our existing Trustees will get in touch.
