Personalised Christmas Card Collection

The National AIDS Trust (NAT) is a charity dedicated to research and campaigning to improve the UK's prevention efforts and the quality of life of people with HIV. Our work includes:

- publishing regular research and recommendations on HIV services
- highlighting unmet needs and best practice for health professionals
- promoting the need for AIDS vaccines development
- support networks for families and carers
- encouraging good practice for employers and businesses
- the annual World AIDS Day awareness event.
