Tell the world what you're doing about AIDS

WORLD AIDS DAY

1 D E C E M B E R 1 9 8 8

J O I N T H E W O R L D W I D E E F F O R T

On WORLD AIDS DAY, everyone should be encouraged to speak out and tell the world what they are doing in the fight against AIDS.

When?

1 December 1988

Where?

In every country

Why?

- To tell people everywhere that AIDS can be stopped worldwide
- To convince people that their responsible behaviour can protect them, and stop the spread of AIDS
- To encourage compassion and understanding toward those who have AIDS or are infected with the virus
- To highlight the extraordinary range and scope of the fight against AIDS — all over the world
- To support AIDS prevention and control programmes in your country

How?

Tell the people in your country and the world of your work in the fight against AIDS.

What can you do?

- MAKE 1 DECEMBER 1988 WORLD AIDS DAY IN YOUR COUNTRY
- WORLD AIDS DAY is a day to focus attention on understanding and learning about AIDS. It is an opportunity to highlight the mobilization already underway in the fight against AIDS in your country — in organizations, communities, schools, and families.

What will the World Health Organization do?

- Focus attention on WORLD AIDS DAY
- Provide materials for adaptation for the WORLD AIDS DAY activities in your country
- Serve as a focal point to exchange information on WORLD AIDS DAY activities in different countries

Materials

The World Health Organization will make available:

- The official WORLD AIDS DAY symbol
- Stationery with the symbol
- Action Kits with specific materials to be used in planning activities for WORLD AIDS DAY
- Updated fact sheets to educate, inform, and stimulate debate
