BLACK hiv FORUM

Coventry & Warwickshire

The Black HIV Forum is an group for Asian, African and African-Caribbean people concerned with HIV and AIDS, and aims to:

- inform Black communities about HIV and the services available - both prevention services and care services
- build links with a range of Black community groups
- provide and facilitate groups and individuals to get training about HIV issues
- campaign for appropriate, accessible and equitable HIV services for Black people, including Black people living with HIV or AIDS

The Forum is part of the HIV Network, and membership is open to Black members of the HIV Network. However, the Forum is keen to work with other groups and individuals.

The Black HIV Forum can be contacted through the Network office, on 0203 229292

or you can contact Tina/Jackie on 229292
