the HIV network

A COMMUNITY RESPONSE IN COVENTRY & WARWICKSHIRE

The Network is the body coordinating volunteer work around HIV and AIDS in Coventry and Warwickshire, and linking volunteer work with local government and health authorities. We offer a range of services for people with HIV and their carers, and for employers, policy-makers or anyone concerned with this major health crisis.

Groups and services currently available include:

- ◇ information on all local services and policy issues
- ◇ caring Buddies (one to one support); hospital visiting service
- ◇ training courses in HIV tailored to your specific needs
- ◇ black HIV Forum offering advice, information and raising awareness within black communities
- ◇ gay men's health group gay health & sex promotion (GHASPI!)

If you have any concerns about HIV or AIDS, please contact us. Our new address (from December 1992), is:
