Poster 1

London MESMAC, the HEA funded community project based at the Terrence Higgins Trust has produced two posters aimed at Black men who have sex with men.

The first is to promote the youth group for black men run by London Black MESMAC and is available free. The second carries a safer sex message aimed particularly at young black men. These are free in small quantities to voluntary organisations, youth groups and individuals. For other organisations there is a minimum order of 10 posters at a cost of £1 each. Please complete the attached order form and return it to the address at the bottom.

Both posters are ideal for display in colleges, youth projects, clinics, drug projects, clubs and pubs - anywhere where young black men congregate. The posters are A2 size and feature black and white photographs on a vivid background colour - they are really eye-catching!
