The Lighthouse Bike Ride Sunday 7th September 1997

36 miles to Windsor

We invite you to join us for a wonderful late summer's day out cycling from Richmond Green 36 miles to the riverside Alexandra Gardens Windsor. Raising funds for London Lighthouse, The Landmark and Great Ormond Street Hospital helping children and adults face the challenge of HIV/AIDS.

The ride starts at Richmond Green and follows a delightful route through 36 miles of back roads and riverside villages along the Thames Valley. There'll be plenty of refreshment stops along the way plus entertainment and full mechanical, medical back-up and support vehicles in case you need a lift. At the Finish in Windsor a circus Big Top will offer more music, food, massage and a beer tent.

RIDE FOR FREE

Families are welcome and there are FREE places for all accompanied under 16s (Cycle helmets are obligatory). If you book six COMPANY or SOCIAL TEAM places you'll get a seventh place FREE; we will send you sponsorship tips and details of the new INTER-TEAM CHALLENGE.

TRAINS

Special Trains run in the morning from Windsor, Waterloo and Clapham Junction to take you and your bike to the 8.30 am Start on Richmond Green. In the afternoon trains run from Windsor to take you back to Richmond, Clapham Junction and Waterloo. Please tick the box to give us an idea of numbers and buy your tickets as normal on the day.
