Carved CHEST. Northern Italy.
XVth century.

64.5 x 138 x 59 cm; walnut. Inv. no. 15

The lid and base have been restored.

The Gothic motif, frequently found in Northern Italy, particularly in Piedmont, covers the whole front in a single panel, without any border. The carving consists of a row of arches with a series of geometric motives of flame type above.

Reproduced from « I mobili nelle civiche raccolte artistiche di Milano » - edited by Gilda Rosa and published by Martello. Photographs taken in the « Castello Sforzesco » in Milan.
