THE DAWN OF LIGHT BETWEEN HER LAST MOMENTS AND ETERNITY.

'As clouds of adversity gathered around, MARIE ANTOINETTE displayed a Patience and Courage in Unparalleled Sufferings such as few Saints and Martyrs have equalled The Pure Ore of her nature was but hidden under the cross of worldliness; and the scorching fire of suffering revealed one of the tenderest hearts and one of the Bravest Natures that history records,

(WHICH WILL HAUNT ALL WHO HAVE STUDIED THAT TREMENDOUS DRAMA, THE FRENCH REVOLUTION).'

. . . . 'When one reflects that a century which considered itself enlightened of the most refined civilisation, ends with public acts of such barbarity, one begins to doubt of Human Nature itself, and fear that the brute which is always in Human Nature, has the ascendancy!'

(Gower).

'Power itself hath not One-Half the Might of Gentleness.'

'She who Rocks the Cradle Rules the World.'

'Extinguish all emotions of heart and what differences will remain? I do not say between man and brute, but between Man and mere Inanimate Clod!'

(Cicero).

ALL HOPE OF SUCCOUR BUT FROM THEE IS PAST!

The Unspeakable Grandeur of the Human Heart,
The drying up of a single tear, has more Honest Fame than Shedding SEAS OF GORE!!!

What is Ten Thousand Times more Horrible than REVOLUTION or WAR?

OUTRAGED NATURE!

'O world! O men! What are ye, and our best designs,
That we must work by crime, And slay, as if death had but this one gate.' Byron.

'What is Ten Thousand Times more terrible than Revolution or War? Outraged Nature. She Kills, and kills, and is never tired of killing till she has taught man the terrible lesson he is slow to learn—that Nature is only conquered by obeying her Man has his courtesies in Revolution and War: he spares the woman and child. But Nature is fierce when she is offended. She spares neither Woman nor Child. She has no pity for some awful, but most good reason. She is not allowed to have any pity. Silently, she strikes the sleeping child with as little remorse as she would strike the strong man with musket or the pickaxe in his hand. Oh! would to God that some man had the pictorial eloquence to put before the Mothers of England the mass of preventable suffering, the mass of preventable agony of mind which exists in England year after year.' (Kingsley).

MORAL.—LIFE IS A BATTLE, NOT A VICTORY.

Disobey ye who will, but ye who disobey must suffer.

OVER

Light versus Darkness

'It is very characteristic of the late Prince Consort—a man himself of the purest mind, who powerfully impressed and influenced others by sheer force of his own benevolent nature—when drawing up the conditions of the annual prize to be given by Her Majesty at Wellington College, to determine that it should be awarded Not to the Cleverest Boy, nor the most Bookish Boy, nor to the most Precise, Diligent, and Prudent Boy, but to the Noblest Boy, to the Boy who should show the most promise of becoming a Large-Hearted, High-Motived Man.'—Smiles.

How noble in reason! how infinite in faculty! in action how like an Angel! in apprehension how like a God.

'SHAKESPEARE, the Greatest Genius who has ever yet lived,' taught the Divineness of Forgiveness, of Perpetual Mercy, of Constant Patience, of Endless Peace, of Perpetual Gentleness. If you can show me one who knew things better than this man, show him!! I know him not!! If he had appeared as a Divine, they would have Burned Him; as a Politician, they would have Beheaded Him.

'He Taught that Kindness is Nobler than Revenge!!'

The Rev. GEORGE DAWSON, M.A.

'Earthly power doth then show likest God's | And that same prayer doth teach us all to render
When mercy seasons justice, | The Deeds of Mercy.'—SHAKESPEARE.

'And such is Human Life; so gliding on,
It glimmers like a meteor, and is gone.'

What higher aim can man attain than conquest over human pain?

JEOPARDY OF LIFE, THE GREAT DANGER OF DELAY

You can change the trickling stream, but not the Raging Torrent.

WHAT EVERYBODY SHOULD READ.—How important it is to every individual to have at hand some simple, effective and palatable remedy, such as ENO'S "FRUIT SALT," to check disease at the onset!!! For this is the time. With very little trouble you can change the course of the trickling mountain stream, but not the rolling river. It will defy all your tiny efforts. I feel I cannot sufficiently impress this important information upon all householders, ship captains, or Europeans generally, who are visiting or residing in any hot or foreign climate. Whenever a change is contemplated likely to disturb the condition of health, let ENO'S "FRUIT SALT" be your companion, for under any circumstances its use is beneficial, and never can do harm. When you feel out of sorts, restless, sleepless, yet unable to say why, frequently without any warning you are suddenly seized with lassitude, disinclination for bodily or mental exertion, loss of appetite, sickness, pain in the forehead, dull aching of back and limbs, coldness of the surface, and often shivering, &c., &c., then your whole body is out of order, the spirit of danger has been kindled, but you do not know where it may end; it is a real necessity to have a simple remedy at hand. The pilot can so steer and direct as to bring the ship into safety, but he cannot quell the raging storm. The common idea when not feeling well is: "I will wait and see, perhaps I shall be better to-morrow;" whereas had a supply of ENO'S "FRUIT SALT" been at hand, and use made of it at the onset, all calamitous results might have been avoided. What dashes to the earth so many hopes, breaks so many sweet alliances, blasts so many auspicious enterprises, as untimely Death?

'I used my 'FRUIT SALT' in my last severe attack of fever, and I have every reason to say I believe it saved my life.'—J. C. ENO.

ENO'S "FRUIT SALT" prevents any over-acid state of the blood. It should be kept in every bedroom, in readiness for any emergency. Be careful to avoid rash acidulated salines, and use ENO'S "FRUIT SALT" to prevent the bile becoming too thick and (impure) producing a gummy, viscous, clammy stickiness or adhesiveness in the mucous membrane of the intestinal canal, frequently the pivot of diarrhoea and disease. ENO'S "FRUIT SALT" prevents and removes diarrhoea in the early stages.

CAUTION.—Examine each Bottle, and see that the Capsule is marked Eno's "Fruit Salt." Without it, you have been imposed on by a worthless imitation.
