

Indexes to reports of Commissioners, 1803-1806. (Naval Inquiry).

Contributors

Great Britain. Commissioners of Naval Inquiry.

Publication/Creation

[London] : [publisher not identified], [1847]

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/svkugpg2>

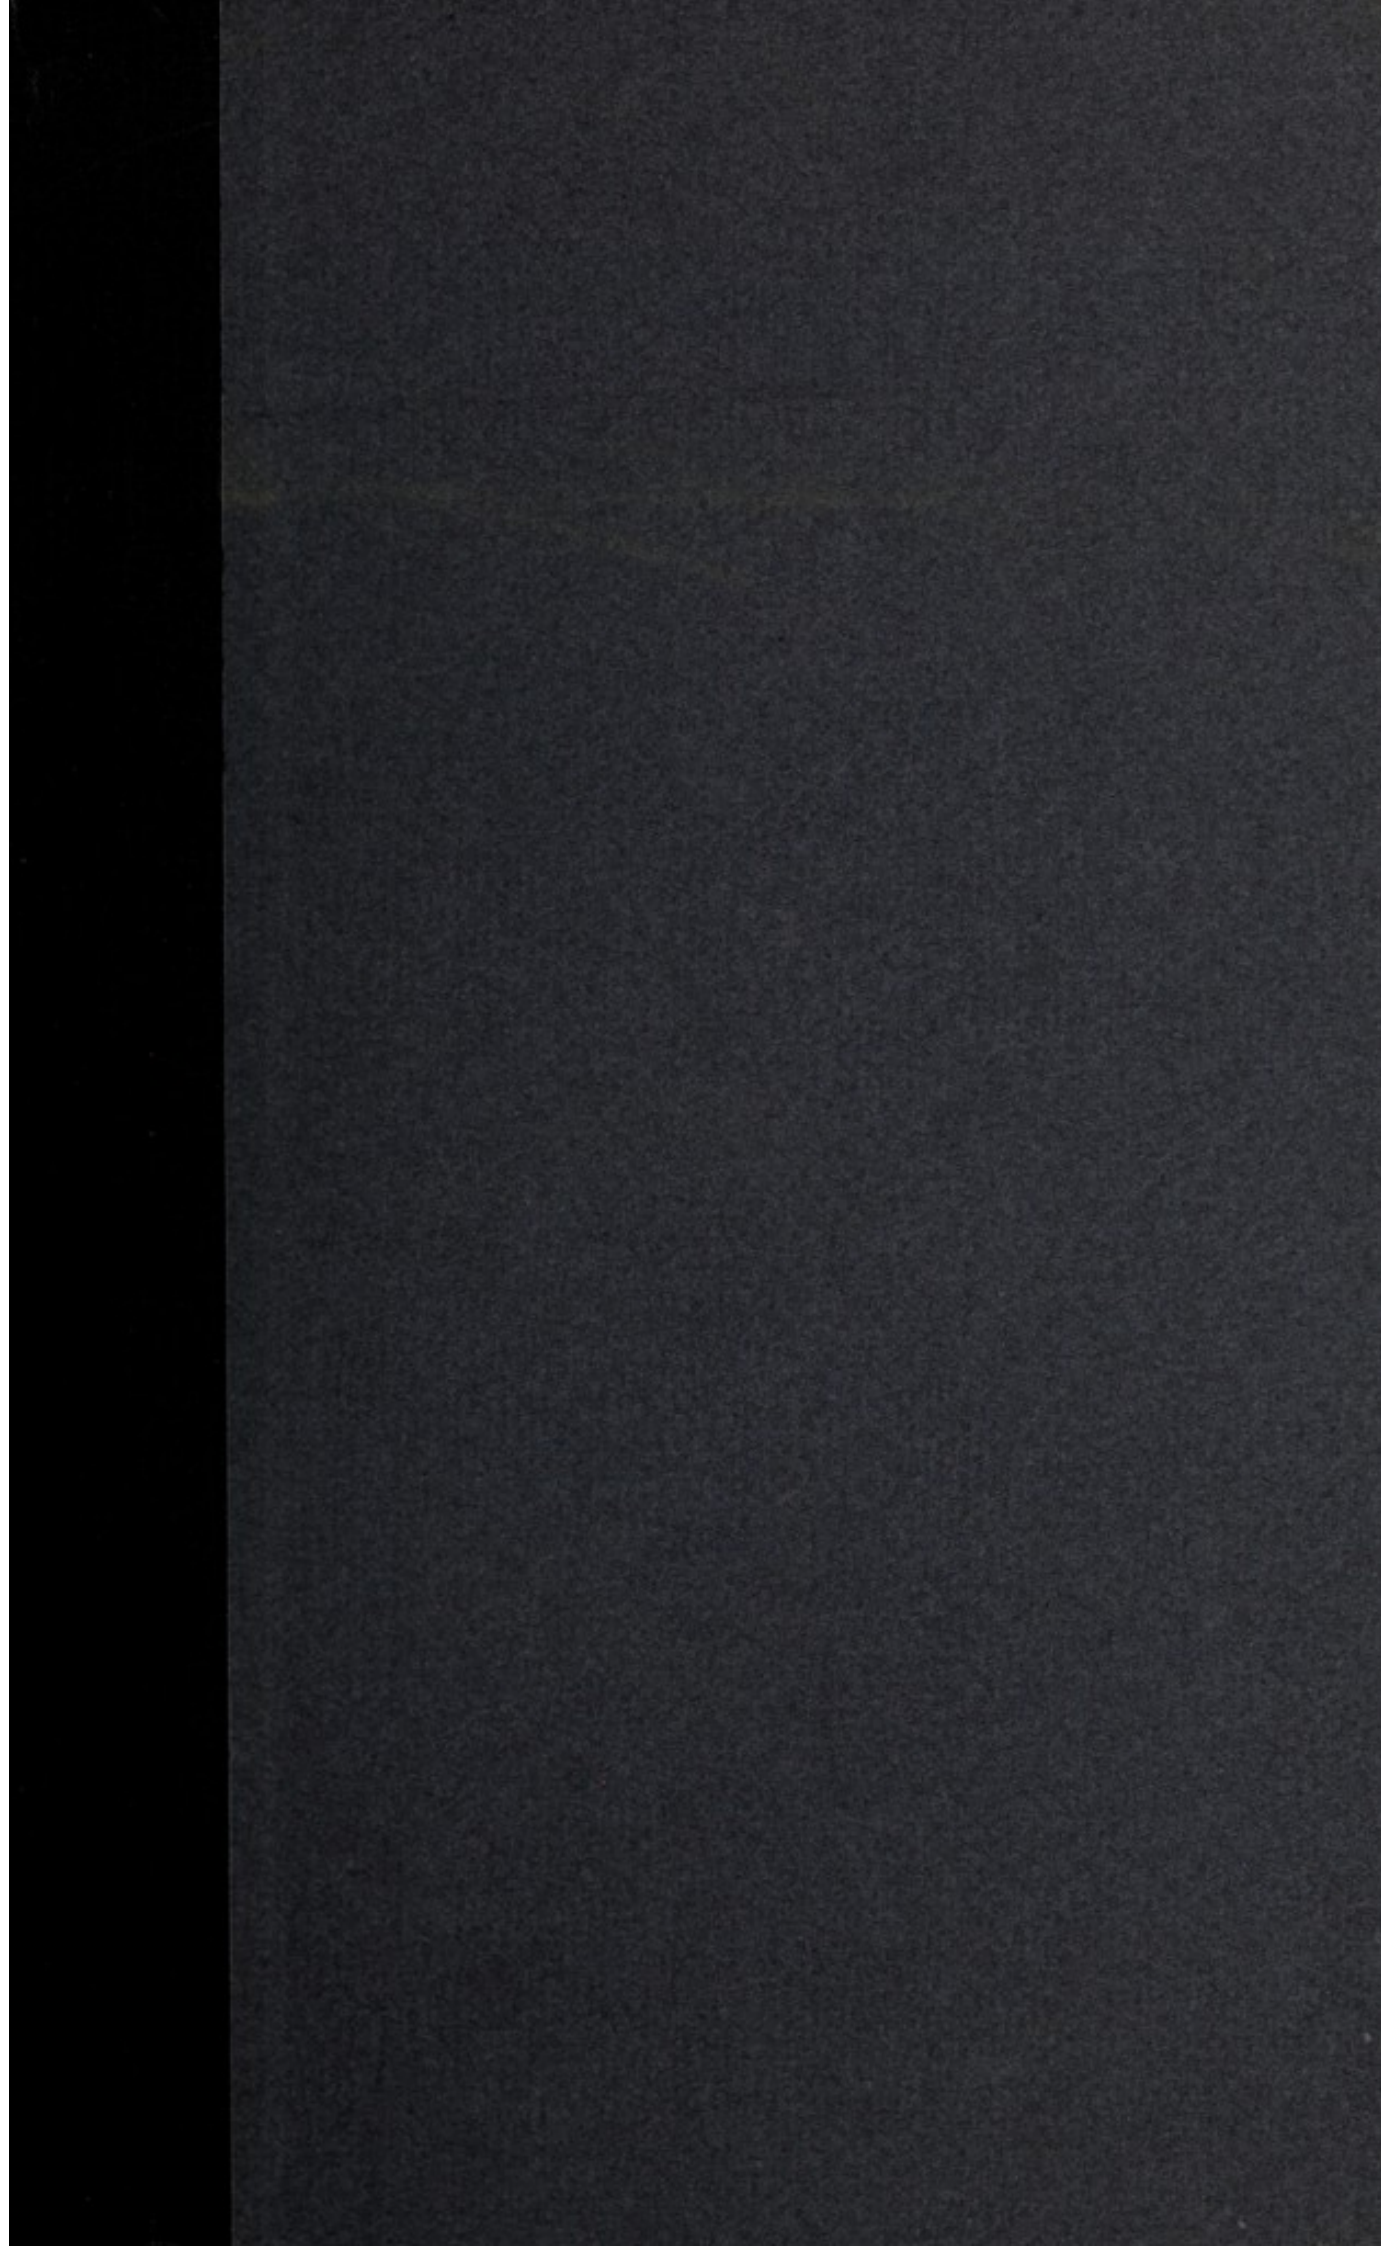

License and attribution

This work has been identified as being free of known restrictions under copyright law, including all related and neighbouring rights and is being made available under the Creative Commons, Public Domain Mark.

You can copy, modify, distribute and perform the work, even for commercial purposes, without asking permission.

Wellcome Collection
183 Euston Road
London NW1 2BE UK
T +44 (0)20 7611 8722
E library@wellcomecollection.org
<https://wellcomecollection.org>

Supp. 60,99/e

457.50

Digitized by the Internet Archive in 2017 with funding from Wellcome Library

<https://archive.org/details/b28746107>

1880

1881

1882

Г. С. Д. И. У. С.

ИЗВЕСТИЯ

СОММЕРСКОГО

1901—1902

(Второй выпуск)

Издательство

1902

348126

I N D E X E S

TO

R E P O R T S

OF

C O M M I S S I O N E R S,

1803—1806.

(Naval Inquiry.)

Ordered, by The House of Commons, to be Printed,

21 July 1847.

I N D E X

R E P O R T S

-
1. NAVAL INQUIRY (NAVAL STOREKEEPERS AT JAMAICA ; CHEST AT CHATHAM ; BLOCK CONTRACT ; COOPERS' CONTRACT ; PRIZE AGENCY ; SIXPENNY OFFICE) - - - - - p. 1

 2. NAVAL INQUIRY (PLYMOUTH YARD ; WOOLWICH YARD ; NAVAL HOSPITAL at EAST STONEHOUSE ; LE CATON HOSPITAL SHIP ; VICTUALLING DEPARTMENT AT PLYMOUTH ; EMBEZZLEMENT OF THE KING'S CASKS) - - - - - p. 43

 3. NAVAL INQUIRY (RECEIPT AND ISSUE OF STORES IN PLYMOUTH YARD ; OFFICE OF TREASURER OF HIS MAJESTY'S NAVY ; ISSUE OF NAVY BILLS FOR THE PURPOSE OF RAISING MONEY, &c.) - p. 109

 4. NAVAL INQUIRY (PURCHASES OF HEMP, MASTS, AND FIR TIMBER, ON COMMISSION ; TRANSFER OF CONTRACTS ; CONTRACTS FOR VICTUALLING SICK PRISONERS OF WAR ; ROYAL HOSPITAL AT GREENWICH) - - - - - p. 163
-

Naval Inquiry.

1803—1806.

LIST OF INDEXES TO REPORTS.

	Page of Index.	Volume and Page of Arranged Series of Reports.
1. Naval Storekeepers at Jamaica :
First Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, appointed by Act 43 Geo. 3, c. 3 [Naval Storekeepers at Jamaica]; dated 12 May 1803 (78.) - - -	1
Chest at Chatham :
Second Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, appointed by Act 43 Geo. 3, c. 3 [Chest at Chatham]; dated 6 June 1803 (97.) - - - - -
Block Contract ; Coopers' Contract :
Third Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, appointed by Act 43 Geo. 3, c. 3 [Block Contract ; Coopers' Contract]; dated 13 June 1803 (109.) -
Prize Agency :
Fourth Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, appointed by Act 43 Geo. 3, c. 3 [Prize Agency]; dated 18 July 1803 (160.) - - - - -	1
Sixpenny Office :
Fifth Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, appointed by Act 43 Geo. 3, c. 3 [Sixpenny Office]; dated 10 August 1803 (174.) - - - - -
2. Plymouth Yard ; Woolwich Yard :
Sixth Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, appointed by Act 43 Geo. 3 [Plymouth Yard ; Wool- wich Yard]; dated 2 May 1804 (83.) - - - - -	43
Naval Hospital at East Stonehouse ; Le Caton Hospital Ship :
Seventh Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, appointed by Act 43 Geo. 3 [Naval Hospital at East Stonehouse ; Le Caton Hospital Ship]; dated 11 July 1804 (172.) - - - - -
Victualling Department at Plymouth ; Embezze- ment of the King's Casks :
Eighth Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, appointed by Act 43 Geo. 3 [His Majesty's Victual- ling Department at Plymouth ; Embezzlement of the King's Casks]; dated 16 July 1804 (179.) - - -

	Page of Index.	Volume and Page of Arranged Series of Reports.
3. Receipt and Issue of Stores in Plymouth Yard :
Ninth Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, appointed by Act 43 Geo. 3 [Receipt and Issue of Stores in Plymouth Yard]; dated 16 January 1805 (1.) - - - - -	109
Office of Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy :
Tenth Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, appointed by Act 43 Geo. 3 [Office of Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy]; dated 13 February 1805 (21.) - - - - -
Issue of Navy Bills for the purpose of raising Money, &c. :
Eleventh Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, appointed by Act 43 Geo. 3 [Issue of Navy Bills for the purpose of raising Money, &c.]; dated 11 March 1805 (47.) - - - - -
4. Purchases of Hemp, Masts, and Fir Timber, on Commission; Transfer of Contracts :
Twelfth Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, appointed by the Act of 45 Geo. 3 [Purchases of Hemp, Masts, and Fir Timber, on Commission, by Mr. Lindegren, for the Service of the Navy; Transfer of Contracts]; dated 22 January 1806 (1.) - - - - -	163
Contracts for Victualling Sick Prisoners of War :
Thirteenth Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, appointed by the Act of 45 Geo. 3 [Contracts for Victualling Sick Prisoners of War, between the Commissioners for taking care of the Sick and Wounded Seamen and Dr. Thomas Mein, Surgeon in His Majesty's Navy]; dated 15 May 1806 (161.)
Royal Hospital at Greenwich :
Fourteenth Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, appointed by the Act of 45 Geo. 3 [Royal Hospital at Greenwich]; dated 30 June 1806 (256.)

Year and Page of Report.	Page.	Subject and Name of Report.
		1. Annual Report of the Commission of Naval Inquiry. This report of the Commission of Naval Inquiry, organized by Act of Congress, dated 12 February 1903 (31 Stat. 1352), is herewith submitted for the purpose of raising the status of the Navy; dated 12 February 1903 (31 Stat. 1352).
	100	2. Annual Report of the Commission of Naval Inquiry. This report of the Commission of Naval Inquiry, organized by Act of Congress, dated 12 February 1903 (31 Stat. 1352), is herewith submitted for the purpose of raising the status of the Navy; dated 12 February 1903 (31 Stat. 1352).
		3. Annual Report of the Commission of Naval Inquiry. This report of the Commission of Naval Inquiry, organized by Act of Congress, dated 12 February 1903 (31 Stat. 1352), is herewith submitted for the purpose of raising the status of the Navy; dated 12 February 1903 (31 Stat. 1352).
		4. Annual Report of the Commission of Naval Inquiry. This report of the Commission of Naval Inquiry, organized by Act of Congress, dated 12 February 1903 (31 Stat. 1352), is herewith submitted for the purpose of raising the status of the Navy; dated 12 February 1903 (31 Stat. 1352).
	101	5. Annual Report of the Commission of Naval Inquiry. This report of the Commission of Naval Inquiry, organized by Act of Congress, dated 12 February 1903 (31 Stat. 1352), is herewith submitted for the purpose of raising the status of the Navy; dated 12 February 1903 (31 Stat. 1352).
		6. Annual Report of the Commission of Naval Inquiry. This report of the Commission of Naval Inquiry, organized by Act of Congress, dated 12 February 1903 (31 Stat. 1352), is herewith submitted for the purpose of raising the status of the Navy; dated 12 February 1903 (31 Stat. 1352).

Naval Inquiry.

1. Naval Inquiry. 1802-3.

First Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, appointed by Act 43 Geo. 3, (Naval Storekeepers at Jamaica); dated 12 May 1803 (78.)

Sess. Vol. IV. p. 163.

Second Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, appointed by Act 43 Geo. 3, (Chest at Chatham); dated 6 June 1803 (97.)

Sess. Vol. IV. p. 115.

Third Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, appointed by Act 43 Geo. 3, (Block Contract. Coopers' Contract); dated 13 June 1803 (109.)

Sess. Vol. IV. p. 173.

Fourth Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, appointed by Act 43 Geo. 3, (Prize Agency); dated 18 July 1803 (160.)

Sess. Vol. IV. p. 249.

Fifth Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, appointed by Act 43 Geo. 3, (Sixpenny Office); dated 10 August 1803 (174.)

Sess. Vol. IV. p. 327.

[N.B.—In this Index the Numerals i. ii. iii. iv. and v. following Rep. refer to the First, Second, Third, Fourth, and Fifth Reports, and the Figures refer to the printed Paging of the Reports and Appendices respectively.]

A.

ABATEMENTS ON CONTRACTS. Extract of a letter from the Navy Board to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 8 March 1803, in regard to the grounds on which advances and abatements are made to contractors, Rep. iii. App. 237.

See also Per Centage Allowances, 2.

Aberdeen. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Aberdeen, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

Aberystwith. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Aberystwith, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

Abstract Accounts. Recommendation of the Commissioners that an abstract account of the yearly expense of their respective yards, under different heads, should be prepared by the dockyard officers, and forwarded annually to the Navy Board, Rep. iii. 193.

Abuses. Nature of the abuses and irregularities directed to be inquired into by the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, Rep. i. 4, 5.

See also, Agents, I. II. 2. Contracts, 1. Distribution of Prizes.

1—Reports, 1802-3—continued.

ACCOUNTS :

1. Naval Storekeepers at Foreign Stations.
2. Sixpenny Receiver's Office.

1. Naval Storekeepers at Foreign Stations :

Every naval storekeeper, or other person entrusted with purchases abroad, or expenditure of the public money, should be required to attest on oath that they derive no benefit whatsoever from such expenditure, Rep. i. 22, 23.

2. Sixpenny Receiver's Office :

Observations of the Commissioners on the fallacious appearance of the accounts rendered to Greenwich Hospital by the Commissioners of the Sixpenny Duty, Rep. v. 348, 349.

See also Abstract Accounts. Arrear Accounts. Audit of Accounts. Commanders-in-Chief, 2. Examination of Accounts. Forms of Accounts. Instructions to Officers, 4. Sixpenny Receiver's Office, 3, 4.

Adam, William. Examination of William Adam, esq., timber merchant, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 26th May 1803, respecting the price of ash timber in the years 1791, 1792, 1799, 1800, and 1802, Rep. iii. App. 249.

Adams & Corson, Messrs. See Young, Adams, & Corson, Messrs.

ADMIRALTY BOARD :

1. Conduct of Mr. Smith, Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica.
2. Circulation of Counterfeit Coin in Jamaica.
3. Collection of Dead Men's Wages.

1. Conduct of Mr. Smith, Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica :

Copy of letter from Evan Nepean, esq., secretary to the Admiralty, to the Navy Board, dated 10 September 1795, respecting the improper conduct of Mr. Smith, the naval officer at Jamaica, Rep. i. App. 34, 35—Letter from the Board of Admiralty to the Navy Board, dated 28 May 1796, relative to the irregular conduct of Mr. William Smith, naval officer at Jamaica, in taking up money for his bills, ib. 37—Extract from an order from the Right hon. the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty to the Navy Board, dated 6 July 1796, directing the dismissal of Mr. Smith, the naval officer at Jamaica, from his situation, ib. 38.

2. Circulation of Counterfeit Coin in Jamaica :

Copy of letter from Evan Nepean, esq., secretary to the Board of Admiralty, to Mr. Dick, naval storekeeper at Jamaica, dated 20 July 1797, respecting two boxes of counterfeit coin transmitted to order, Rep. i. App. 98—Letter from the Secretary of the Admiralty to the Navy Board, dated 15 August 1797, relative to the circulation of base copper coin in the island of Jamaica by Mr. Dick, the naval storekeeper, ib. 100—Letter from the secretary of the Admiralty to Vice-admiral Sir Hyde Parker, dated 1 September 1797, respecting the transmission of two boxes of counterfeit coin to Mr. Dick, the naval storekeeper at Jamaica, ib. 103—Letter from the secretary of the Admiralty to Mr. Dick, His Majesty's naval storekeeper at Jamaica, dated 20 December 1797, respecting the Birmingham coin found on board the "Adventure" store ship, ib. 106.

3. Collection of Dead Men's Wages :

Copy of the correspondence between the Secretary of the Admiralty and the Commissioners of the Sixpenny Duty, dated 9 January and 2 February 1798, relative to the collection of dead men's wages, Rep. v. App. 384, 386.

See also Dead Men's Wages, 1. Instructions to Officers, 2. Markham, John. Nepean Evan.

Admiralty Court. Extract from the evidence of James Primrose Maxwell, esq., taken before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, concerning the proceedings in the High Court of Admiralty with regard to prizes taken at sea, Rep. iv. 252-257.

See also Vice-Admiralty Courts.

Advances on Contracts. Observations of the Commissioners on the impolicy of making advances to contractors from their original prices, Rep. iii. 186, 187—Copy of order of the Navy Board allowing an increase of the contract price to Messrs. Taylor & Sons for articles of blockmakers' wares supplied to His Majesty's dockyards, Rep. iii. App. 220—Extract of a letter from the Navy Board to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 8 March 1803, in regard to the grounds on which advances and abatements are made to contractors, ib. 237.

See also Per Centage Allowances, 2. Taylor & Sons, Messrs. Taylor, Walter. "Adventure,"

1—Reports, 1802-3—continued.

"Adventure," the Ship. Copy of letter from James Dick, esq., naval storekeeper at Jamaica, to Sir Hyde Parker, dated 19 June 1797, respecting two boxes of counterfeit coin found on board the "Adventure" store ship, bearing his address, Rep. i. App. 104, 105.

African Trade. Observations of the Commissioners on the moiety of the wages of men deserting from ships in the African trade, forfeited to Greenwich Hospital, Rep. v. 341—Account of the gross and net produce of the moiety of run men's wages in the African trade collected in the ports of London, Liverpool, Bristol, and Lancaster, for the use of Greenwich Hospital, Rep. v. App. 381.—See also Run Men's Wages.

AGENTS :

I. Agents of Pensioners.

II. Prize Agents :

1. Duties of Office.
2. Irregularities, Abuses, and Frauds.
3. Employment of Prize Money.
4. East Indies.

I. Agents of Pensioners :

Observations of the Commissioners on the charges for agency of pensioners on the chest at Chatham, and extortion arising thereout, Rep. ii. 124, 125.

II. Prize Agents :

1. Duties of Office :

Observations of the Commissioners on the duties of prize agents, and manner in which they perform the business of their office, Rep. iv. 251-278—Extract from the clauses of the Prize Act, which prescribe the duty of the prize agent during the last war, ib. 255-257—Recommendation of the Commissioners for the future regulation of prize agents in the conduct of their business, ib. 267-269.

2. Irregularities, Abuses, and Frauds :

Observations of the Commissioners on the irregularities, abuses, and frauds practised under the present system of prize agency, Rep. iv. 258-278.

3. Employment of Prize Money :

Objection of the Commissioners to allowing agents to have the use of the proceeds of prizes pending an appeal, Rep. iv. 262, 263.

4. East Indies :

It is a general practice in the East Indies for prize agents to pay or advance shares of prize money to seamen before notification of distribution as required by Act, Rep. iv. 265.

See also Aubin, John. Baker, William. Bate, Edward, 1. Bedingfield, Joseph. Brouncker, John. Collier, Thomas. Commission, 1. Cook, William Ely. Devis, Henry. Distribution of Prizes. East Indies. Employment of Prize Money. Exchanges. Failures of Agents. Forms of Accounts, 2. Frauds, 2. Halford, James. Hayden, William. Imposition. Inferior Agents. Jackson, John. M'Lean, John. Maude, Thomas. Maxwell, James Primrose. Notification of Distribution. Payment of Prize Money. Paulain, James. Prize Agency. Publicans. Recall Agents. Registration of Powers of Attorney. Unclaimed Prize Money. Willis & Waterhouse, Messrs.

Aldborough (Suffolk). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Aldborough, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

Alloa (North Britain). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Alloa, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

Allowances to Contractors. See Per Centage Allowances, 2.

American Ports. Account of the money received at the several American ports, by John Rashleigh, esq., receiver of the duty of 6d. a man per month out of merchant seamen's wages, for the use of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, between 1 January and 31 December 1802, Rep. v. App. 397.

Anstruther (North Britain). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Anstruther, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

1—Reports, 1802-3—continued.

Antigua (West Indies). Mode of calculating the rate of exchange which prevails in the island of Antigua, in drawing bills on this country, Rep. i. 6.

Appeals. Extract from the evidence of James Primrose Maxwell, esq., taken before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, respecting the time for lodgment of appeals in cases of prizes captured at sea, Rep. iv. 253, 254.

Appearance of Pensioners. Recommendation of the Commissioners, that the periodical appearance of the pensioners at the chest at Chatham should be dispensed with, Rep. ii. 124.

ARREAR ACCOUNTS:

1. Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica.
2. Deputy Receivers of Sixpenny Duty.

1. Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica:

Observations of the Commissioners on the arrear accounts of the naval storekeeper at Jamaica, Rep. i. 21.

2. Deputy Receivers of Sixpenny Duty:

Observations of the Commissioners on the arrears of the deputy receivers for Ireland, of the Greenwich Hospital duties, Rep. v. 340.

Arundel Port. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Arundel, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September, in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

Ash Goods. Statement of the price of ash goods supplied to His Majesty's dockyard under contract in the years 1799, 1800, and 1802, Rep. iii. App. 184—Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, dated 13 June 1799, fixing the price of certain ash goods supplied to His Majesty's dockyards, ib. 213, 214.

See also Taylor, Walter, 2.

Assistant Register-General of Shipping. Observations of the Commissioners on the information obtained from Mr. John Dalley, of the number of men employed in the merchant service, Rep. v. 337.—See also Dalley, John.

Attendance of Commissioners. Recommendation of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry that constant personal attendance be required of the Commissioners of the Sixpenny Duty, Rep. v. 349.

Aubin, John. Circumstances attending the retention by Mr. Aubin of the proceeds of the capture of the "Requin," Rep. iv. 265—Examination of John Aubin, esq., prize agent, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 20th April 1803, relative to the mode of conducting prize agency in His Majesty's navy, Rep. iv. App. 318, 319.

Audit of Accounts. Recommendation of the Commissioners on fees with respect to the examination and audit of accounts of all officers employed on foreign service, Rep. i. 22.

See also Instructions to Officers, 4.

Ayr (North Britain). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Ayr, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

B.

Baker, Joseph. Copy of deposition of Mr. Joseph Baker, master ropemaker at Woolwich dockyard, respecting the frauds committed by contractors for coopers' work, Rep. iii. App. 248.

Baker, William. Examination of Mr. William Baker, formerly gunner of His Majesty's ship "Teemeraire," taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 20 April 1803, relative to his duties as agent to the pensioners of the chest at Chatham, Rep. ii. App. 165-167.

Balances of Public Money. Amount of the balance of public money in the hands of Mr. John Rashleigh, the late receiver of the sixpenny duty, at the time of his decease, Rep. v. 346.

See also Buck, Sir Peter. Dead Men's Wages, 2. Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica, 3. Receiver of the Sixpenny Duty, 1. Sixpenny Receiver's Office, 5.

Banff (North Britain). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Banff, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

Barnstaple (Devon). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Barnstaple, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

Base Money. Occasion of the naval storekeeper at Jamaica receiving a consignment of base money from a manufacturer at Birmingham, Rep. i. 16, 17—Letter from Admiral Sir Hyde Parker to the secretary of the Admiralty, dated 13 June 1797, with enclosures relative to the circulation of base copper coin by the naval storekeeper in Jamaica, Rep. i. App. 96, 97.

See also Admiralty Board, 2. Bullock, William. Dick James, 4. Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica, 6.

BATE, EDWARD :

1. Prize Agency.
2. Sixpenny Receiver's Office.

1. Prize Agency :

Examination of Edward Bate, esq., deputy treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 17th June 1803, relative to the mode of conducting prize agency in His Majesty's navy, Rep. iv. App. 315, 316.

2. Sixpenny Receiver's Office :

Examination of Edward Bate, esq., deputy treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 25th July 1803, relative to the periods of payment of the sixpenny duty by the receiver to the treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, Rep. v. App. 394.

BEAUMARIS, PORT OF :

1. Sixpenny Duty.
2. Tonnage and Shipping.

1. Sixpenny Duty :

Observations of the Commissioners on the amount returned as received in the port of Beaumaris on account of the sixpenny duty collected in that port, Rep. v. 337.

2. Tonnage and Shipping :

Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Beaumaris, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

Bedingfield, Joseph. Examination of Joseph Bedingfield, esq., inspector of seamen's wills, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 2d July 1803, relative to the mode of conducting prize agency in His Majesty's navy, Rep. iv. App. 324, 325.

Berwick. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Berwick, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

Beverly, John. See Commissioners of the Sixpenny Duty, 3.

Bideford (Devon). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Bideford, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

BILLS OF EXCHANGE :

1. Rates of Exchange on Bills.
2. Ordnance Service.

1. Rates of Exchange on Bills :

It should be the duty of some person in the several naval departments to examine the rates of exchange at which bills may be drawn on the Government at home, Rep. i. 18.

1—Reports, 1802-3—continued.

BILLS OF EXCHANGE—continued.2. Ordnance Service :

Account of bills of exchange drawn on the Office of Ordnance by the storekeeper at Jamaica, for service of the said office, from 1 January 1793 to 14 October 1802, and drawn at exchange of 140 per cent. currency, distinguishing the rate at which each bill was negotiated for the public service, Rep. i. App. 70-72.

See also Commanders-in-Chief, 1. Currency. Dick, James, 3. Drawing Bills-Exchanges. Instructions to Officers, 2. Jamaica, 1. 2. Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica, 4. Navy Board, 2. Negotiation of Bills. Premium on Bills of Exchange. Storekeepers at Foreign Stations.

Birmingham. See Base Money. Bullock, William.

Blackney and Clay (Norfolk). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the ports of Blackney and Clay, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

Blank Receipts. Observations of the Commissioners on the use of blank receipts in the office of receipt of the sixpenny duty in Greenwich Hospital, Rep. v. 339.

Bligh, Vice Admiral Richard Rodney. Refusal of Admiral Bligh to accept bills of Mr. James Dick, the naval storekeeper at Jamaica, without payment of premium, Rep. i. 11 — Examination of Richard Rodney Bligh, esq., Vice Admiral of the Red, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 4th April 1803, relative to the rates of premium on bills drawn at Jamaica on this country for the public service, Rep. i. App. 74, 75.

Block Machinery. Intention of the Government to erect block machinery in Portsmouth Dockyard, by which blocks would be made cheaper and better, Rep. iii. 183.

BLOCKMAKERS' WARES :

1. Supply of His Majesty's Dockyards.
2. Mr. Walter Taylor's Contract.

1. Supply of His Majesty's Dockyards :

Observations of the Commissioners on the irregularities obtained in supplying His Majesty's navy with articles of blockmakers' wares, Rep. iii. 175-188—Recommendation of the Commissioners, in case the blocks are not manufactured by Government, that the supplies of the different yards be divided, and not confined to one individual, ib. 187 — Comparative views of the difference in price of blocks with brass coated shivers, and brass shivers, Rep. iii. App. 216.

2. Mr. Walter Taylor's Contract :

Extract of the condition of a contract entered into by Mr. Walter Taylor with the Navy Board, dated 8 April 1791, for the supply of articles of blockmakers' wares, Rep. iii. App. 197, 198—Copy of warrant from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 8 August 1793, allowing the request of Mr. Walter Taylor of an increase of price on his contract for blockmakers' wares, ib. 205—Account of the net amount of bills or certificates made out to Mr. Walter Taylor for blockmakers' wares at the different yards, from 1791 to 1802 inclusive, ib. 231.

See also Certificates, 4. Colpoys, Captain John, R.N. Contracts, 1. Deptford Dockyard. Dunsterville, Bartholomew. Fox, Thomas. Garnett, John. Hamond, Sir Andrew Snape, Bart., 2. Irvin, Mr., senior. Markham, John. Navy Board, 4. Plymouth Dockyard. Portsmouth Dockyard. Prices, 3. Randall, Brent & Garnett, Messrs. Taylor & Sons, Messrs. Taylor, Walter. Tenders for Contracts. Woolwich Dockyard, 1. Yeats, George.

Board of Commissioners. See Admiralty Board. Navy Board. Sixpenny Receiver's Office.

Borrowstowness (North Britain). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Borrowstowness, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

Boston (Lincolnshire). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Boston, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

Brass Shivers. See Blockmakers' Wares, 1.

Brent & Garnett, Messrs. See Randall, Brent, & Garnett, Messrs.

Bridgewater (Somerset). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Bridgewater, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

Bridlington (York). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Bridlington, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

BRISTOL, PORT OF:

1. Registered Tonnage.
2. Dead Men's Wages.

1. Registered Tonnage:

Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Bristol, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

2. Dead Men's Wages:

Account of the gross amount of the money received at the port of Bristol on account of the wages of men dying in the West India Trade, from the passing of the Act on the 1st July 1797 to 31 December 1802, Rep. v. App. 387.

See also Run Men's Wages.

British Consuls Abroad. See Rates of Exchange.

Bronté, Duke of. See Nelson, Vice Admiral Lord Viscount, K.B.

Broughton, Edward. Observations of the Commissioners on the purchases of stores made of Mr. Edward Broughton, by the naval storekeeper at Jamaica, Rep. i., 21.

Broughton, Henry. Circumstances attending the appointment of Mr. Henry Broughton to the office of naval storekeeper at the island of Jamaica, Rep. i. 7, 8.

Brouncker, John. Examination of John Brouncker, esq., a prize agent, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 27th June 1803, relative to the mode of conducting the business of prize agency in His Majesty's navy, Rep. iv. App. 320, 321.

Buck, Sir Peter. Sums of money owing by Sir Peter Buck and others to the chest at Chatham, being balances of accounts entrusted to them for distribution, Rep. ii. 126.

Bullock, William. Letter from Mr. William Bullock, of Bristol-street, Birmingham, to Mr. Dick, naval storekeeper at Jamaica, dated September 1795, transmitting a box of base copper coin for circulation in that island, Rep. i. App. 98—Letter from Mr. William Bullock to Captain John Dick, dated 25 August 1797, respecting two boxes of counterfeit copper coin being addressed to Mr. James Dick, naval storekeeper at His Majesty's yard at Jamaica, ib. 102.

C.

Cambridge University. See Esquire Bedel of Cambridge University.

Campbelltown (North Britain). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Campbelltown, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

Captains of Ships. Recommendations of the Commissioners for the future guidance of captains of ships on foreign stations with regard to navy prize-money, Rep. iv. 270, 271.

Captured Vessels. Extract from the evidence of James Primrose Maxwell, esq., before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, respecting the proceedings against captured vessels, Rep. iv. 252-257.

Cardiff, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Cardiff, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

1—Reports, 1802-3—continued.

Cardigan, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Cardigan, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

Carlisle, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Carlisle, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

CERTIFICATES :

1. Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica.
2. Pensioners on the Chest at Chatham.
3. Coopers' Work (Woolwich Yard).
4. Block Contract.

1. Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica :

Copy of certificate, dated 1 February 1797, given by Mr. James Dick, upon entering upon his duties as naval storekeeper at Jamaica, Rep. i. App. 45.

2. Pensioners on the Chest at Chatham :

Form of certificate of medical officer to entitle pensioners to relief from the chest at Chatham, Rep. ii. App. 171.

3. Coopers' Work (Woolwich Yard).

Copy of a certificate for goods delivered and work performed, under the contract for coopers' work, by Messrs. Michael and John Hedges, at Woolwich Dockyard, showing the errors and irregularities therein, Rep. iii. 190, 191.

4. Block Contract :

Account of the certificates for blockmakers' wares, delivered by Mr. Bartholomew Dunsterville, for Mr. W. Taylor, for 1800, for Plymouth Yard, Rep. iii. App. 204—Account of the net amount of bills or certificates made out to Mr. Walter Taylor for blockmakers' wares at the different yards, from 1791 to 1802 inclusive, ib. 231.

Channel Islands. See Shipping, 2.

Charles II. Grant of twelve acres of marsh land by King Charles the Second to the chest at Chatham, Rep. ii. 119.

Chatham Dockyard. See Chest at Chatham. Irvin, Mr., sen.

Chepstow. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Chepstow, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

CHEST AT CHATHAM :

1. Constitution and Management.
2. Establishment.
3. Duties, Salaries, and Emoluments of Officers and Clerks.
4. Receipts and Disbursements.
5. Property in the Funds and Land.
6. Defalcations, Mulcts, and Abatements from Wages.
7. Pensioners.

1. Constitution and Management :

Observations of the Commissioners on the administration of the affairs of the chest at Chatham, together with recommendations as to future arrangement thereof, Rep. ii. 117-129—Recommendation of the Commissioners that the chest at Chatham be removed to Greenwich Hospital, to be managed as a separate branch of that institution, ib. 126—Decree of a commission held by virtue of an Order in Council, dated 22 July 1616, showing the constitution of the chest, Rep. ii. App. 133-139.

2. Establishment :

Account showing the establishment and the number of days the resident supervisor, governor, inferior officers, clerks, &c., were employed in managing the business of the chest at Chatham in each year, from 1791 to 1803, and the particulars of the expense attending the said establishment, Rep. ii. App. 140, 141.

3. Duties,

CHEST AT CHATHAM—continued.3. Duties, Salaries, and Emoluments of Officers and Clerks:

Account of the duties performed by the supervisors, governors, and other persons employed in the business of the chest at Chatham, by whom and how appointed, with the duration of interest; whether executed in person or by deputy, with the salaries, fees, and emoluments attached to the respective departments, Rep. ii. App. 142-146.

4. Receipts and Disbursements:

General abstract of the receipts and disbursements of the chest at Chatham, for the year 1802, Rep. ii. 120—General abstract of the receipts and disbursements on account of the chest at Chatham, commencing the 17th August 1790, and ending with the year 1803, Rep. ii. App. 148, 149.

5. Property in the Funds and Land:

Detail of the particulars relating to the monies vested by the governors of the chest at Chatham, in the Three per Cent. Consols, in the names of Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., Francis John Hartwell, esq., Mr. John Madgson, and Mr. Edward Sison, under a declared deed of trust, for the use of the said chest, Rep. ii. App. 150, 151—Particulars relating to the freehold and leasehold estates vested in the governors of the chest at Chatham, in trust for the use of that institution; also a general statement of the receipts and disbursements thereon within the last twenty years, ib. 152, 153.

6. Defalcations, Mulcts, and Abatements from Wages:

Account of the amount of the actual defalcations, mulcts, and abatements, made from the wages of the officers, seamen, and marines in His Majesty's navy, on account of the chest at Chatham, for each year since 1790, Rep. ii. App. 154, 155.

7. Pensioners:

Scale of hurts that are pensionable from the chest at Chatham, with the annual sums allowed for each hurt, Rep. ii. App. 156—Proposals by Charles Hope, esq., for the future regulation of the chest at Chatham, ib. 169, 170.

See also Agents, I. Appearance of Pensioners. Baker, William. Buck, Sir Peter. Certificates, 2. Clauses, 1. Defalcations. Directors of the Chest Establishment, 1. Estates. Falkingham, Edward. Goddard, William. Greenwich Hospital, 1. Hope, Charles. Hurts. James the Second. M'Lean, John. M'Lean, Lachlan. Mismanagement of Estates. Pensioners. Pensions for Wounds and Hurts. Relief. Stoppage of Wages. Tanner, Thomas. Twopenny Edward Soan.

Chester, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Chester, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence in the year 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

Chichester, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Chichester, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

Circulation of Base Coin. See Dick, James, 4, Naval storekeeper at Jamaica.

CLAIMS:

1. Chest at Chatham.
2. Prize Agency.

1. Chest at Chatham:

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of hearing and determining claims on the funds of the chest at Chatham, Rep. ii. 124, 125.

2. Prize Agency:

Extract from the evidence of James Primrose Maxwell before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, respecting the period for making claims for prizes captured at sea, Rep. iv. 253, 254.

Clay (Norfolk). See Blackney and Clay (Norfolk).

Clearing Notes. See Tide Surveyors.

Clerk of the Ordnance. See Nettleship, William.

Cleveland, John. See Commissioners of the Sixpenny Duty, 3.

1—Reports, 1802-3—continued.

Coasting Trade. Observations of the Commissioners on the exemption of vessels going coastwise from the payment of the sixpenny duty to Greenwich Hospital, Rep. v. 340.

Cochrane, Captain, Hon. Alexander, R.N. Examination of the Hon. Alexander Cochrane, captain in the royal navy, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 23d June 1803, relative to the mode of conducting prize agency in His Majesty's navy, Rep. iv. App. 302-305.

Coetlogon, Charles de. Examination of Mr. Charles de Coetlogon, naval officer at St. Domingo, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 12th February 1803, relative to the purchase and supply of stores for the use of His Majesty's forces stationed at St. Domingo, Rep. i. App. 92-95—Letter from Charles de Coetlogon to Vice Admiral Sir Hyde Parker, commander-in-chief on the Jamaica station, dated 2 June 1797, relative to the circulation of base copper coin by the naval storekeeper at Jamaica, ib. 97.

Colchester (Essex). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Colchester, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

Collection of the Sixpenny Duty. Observations of the Commissioners on the power of the Lords of the Admiralty to enforce the collection of the sixpenny duty upon the merchant service, Rep. v. 330, 331—Opinion of the Commissioners that the Greenwich Hospital duty should be made payable before the ship or vessel be cleared of her cargo, and before the Custom-house officers placed on board be taken off, ib. 339.

See also Commissioners of the Sixpenny Duty. Dead Men's Wages, 3. Expenses of Collection.

Collier, Thomas. Examination of Thomas Collier, esq., a prize agent, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 14th June 1803, relative to the mode of conducting prize agency in His Majesty's navy, Rep. iv. App. 291-293.

Colpoys, Captain John, R.N. Copy of letter from Captain John Colpoys and others to Vice Admiral Roddam, dated on board the "Magnificent," 25 March 1791, respecting Messrs. Garnett & Co.'s blocks, Rep. iii. App. 235.

COMMANDERS-IN-CHIEF :

1. West India Station.
2. Foreign Stations.

1. West India Station :

Duty of the commander-in-chief on the West India station to approve all bills drawn by naval storekeepers, Rep. i. 10, 11.

2. Foreign Stations :

Opinion of the Commissioners that commanders-in-chief on foreign stations should have authority to investigate the accounts of officers of the naval department, and to suspend or remove those whose misconduct may be injurious to the public service, Rep. i. 24.

See also Instructions to Officers. Parker, Vice Admiral Sir Hyde. Parker, Rear Admiral William. Seymour, Lord Hugh.

COMMISSION :

1. Prize Agents.
2. Deputy Receivers of the Sixpenny Duty.
3. Dead Men's Wages.

1. Prize Agents :

Observations of the Commissioners on the amount of the emoluments derived by prize agents on vessels and goods captured at sea, Rep. iv. 257, 258—Proposed future rate of Commission to be allowed to prize agents for distribution of prizes, ib. 275, 276.

2. Deputy Receivers of the Sixpenny Duty :

Rate of commission allowed to deputy receivers of sixpenny duty at the out-ports and at foreign stations, Rep. v. 333.

3. Dead Men's Wages :

Occasion of the reduction of the per-centage allowed to the deputy receivers at Bristol and Liverpool for the collection of the wages of men dying on board ships in the West India trade, Rep. v. 343.

See also Dead Men's Wages, 3. Deputy Receivers of Sixpenny Duty.

1—Reports, 1802-3—continued.

COMMISSIONERS OF THE SIXPENNY DUTY :

1. Sinecure Office.
2. Reduction of Establishment.
3. Collection of Dead Men's Wages.

1. Sinecure Office :

Observations of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry on the neglect of the Commissioners of Sixpenny Duty to discharge the duties confided to them, Rep. v. 331, 332.

2. Reduction of Establishment :

Opinion of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry that two commissioners are fully adequate to conduct the business of the sixpenny office, one to be receiver and the other the comptroller, Rep. v. 349.

3. Collection of Dead Men's Wages :

Copy of letter from John Rashleigh, John Cleveland, and John Beverley, esqrs., Commissioners of the Sixpenny Duty, to the Secretary to the Admiralty, dated 20 December 1797, and 19 January 1798, relative to the collection of dead men's wages, Rep. v. App. 382, 383, 384, 385.

See also Attendance of Commissioners. Blank Receipts. Esquire Bedel of Cambridge University.

Committees. Observations of the Commissioners on the necessity of dividing the several members of the Navy Board into committees, so that each member might have the immediate superintendence of a separate branch thereof, Rep. iii. 188.

Compensation to Officers. Reason assigned by the Commissioners for not awarding compensation to persons in the sixpenny office, whose salaries have been reduced, Rep. v. 350.

Comptroller of the Navy. Proposed exemption of the comptroller of the navy from the service of a separate branch as a member of the Navy Board, Rep. iii. 188.

See also Hamond, Sir Andrew Snape, bart.

Consuls Abroad. See Rates of Exchange.

Contractors. See Per-Centage Allowances, 2.

CONTRACTS :

1. Block Contract.
2. Coopers' Contract.

1. Block Contract :

Nature of the irregularities obtained in supplying His Majesty's navy with blockmakers' wares, Rep. iii. 175-184—Amount of the allowance made by the sub-contractors to Mr. Walter Taylor, for permission to supply His Majesty's yards with blockmakers' wares, ib. 186, 187.

2. Coopers' Contract :

Observations of the Commissioners on the case of gross fraud committed under the contract for the performance of coopers' work, and for the supply of coopers' wares at Her Majesty's yard at Woolwich, Rep. iii. 188-193—Extract of a letter from the Commissioners of the navy to Sir Evan Nepean, bart., secretary to the Admiralty, dated 17 July 1802, respecting certain frauds committed by contractors for coopers' work at Woolwich Dockyard, Rep. iii. App. 241, 242—Extract of a letter from the Commissioners of the navy to Sir Evan Nepean, bart., dated 4 August 1802, on the same subject, ib. 242, 245.

See also Abatement of Contracts. Advances on Contracts. Ash Goods. Blockmakers' Wares, 2. Certificates, 4. Coopers' Work, 1. Expenditure.
Hedges, Michael and John, Messrs. Navy Board, 4. 5. Nelson, Richard Alexander. Prices, 2. Taylor & Sons, Messrs., 1. 2. Taylor, Walter, 1.
Tenders for Contracts. Woolwich Dockyard, 1, 2. Yeats, George. Young, Adams & Corson, Messrs.

Cook, William Ely. Account of a money transaction between Mr. William Ely Cook and Messrs. Willis & Waterhouse, whereby Greenwich hospital was defrauded of certain unclaimed prize money, Rep. iv. 264, 265—Examination of William Ely Cook, esq., navy agent, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 27 June 1803, respecting the account current of Mr. Thomas Finch, of His Majesty's ship "Regulus," with Messrs. Willis & Waterhouse, Rep. iv. App. 317, 318.

COOPERS' WORK:

1. Government Contract.
2. Frauds at Woolwich Dockyard.

1. Government Contract:

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of contracting for articles of coopers' work in His Majesty's navy, Rep. iii. 188-193—Copy of orders of the Commissioners of the navy to the officers of Woolwich Dockyard, dated respectively 17 June 1793, 7 October 1795, and 6 March 1798, respecting certain coopers' work performed by Messrs. Young, Adams & Corson, Rep. iii. App. 243, 244.

2. Frauds at Woolwich Dockyard:

Statement taken from the Navy Board's letter of 4 August 1802, of the total amount of bills made out to Messrs. Michael & John Hedges for workmanship, between 11 March and 11 December 1801, and of the amount actually performed during that period, Rep. iii. 192, 193.

See also Baker, Joseph. Certificates, 3. Contracts, 2. Foster, William. Frauds, 1. Gunton, William. Hedges, Michael & John, Messrs. Hoops. Navy Board, 5. Prevention of Frauds. Smith, Stephen. Todd, Stephen. Wood Hoops. Woolwich Dockyard, 2. Young, Adams & Corson, Messrs.

Cordage. Statement of the price paid for cordage by Mr. James Dick, naval storekeeper in Jamaica, in the months of October and November 1799, and the price paid by Government for the like article in England, Rep. i. 16.

Corson, Mr. See Young, Adams & Corson, Messrs.

Counterfeit Coin. See Admiralty Board, 2. Dick, James, 4. Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica, 6.

Cowes (Isle of Wight). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Cowes, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

Crews of Vessels. Every shipmaster or owner tendering payment of the sixpenny duty should be required to produce a list of the crew, with the times of their respective entries and discharges, Rep. v. 339, 340.

Crown Lands (Jamaica). Possessions belonging to the Crown, under the superintendence of the naval storekeeper at Jamaica, Rep. i. 26, 27—Statement of William Smith, naval storekeeper at Jamaica, bearing date 17 July 1797, of the lands in that island belonging to the Crown, Rep. i. App. 53.

Currency. Account of the currency, in the valuation of money between this country and the West Indies, Rep. i. 6.

Custody of Public Records. See Instructions to Officers, 3.

Custom House (Port of London). Observations of the Commissioners on the Act of Queen Anne, which requires the Greenwich hospital duty to be paid before a ship can clear from the Custom-house, Rep. v. 338.

D.

Dalley, John. Examination of John Dalley, esq., assistant register-general of shipping, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 5 August 1803, relative to the mode of calculating the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating vessels belonging to the several ports of the British empire, Rep. v. App. 377-379.

See also Assistant Register-general of Shipping.

Dartmouth, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Dartmouth, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

Davies, Thomas. Examination of Mr. Thomas Davies, a clerk in the Navy Office, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 28 February 1803, respecting the examination which the accounts of contractors undergo at the hands of the clerks in the Navy Office, Rep. iii. App. 237-240.

Davis, William Gregory. Extract of the examination of Mr. William Gregory Davis, fourth clerk in the office for bills and accounts in the Navy Office, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 31 January 1803, relative to the transmission, by naval storekeepers at foreign yards, of an account containing the rate of exchange in every month throughout the year, Rep. i. App. 106.

DEAD MEN'S WAGES:

1. Receipt and Collection.
2. Balances in the hands of the Receiver.
3. Commission on Collection.
4. Unclaimed Wages.

1. Receipt and Collection:

Observations of the Commissioners on the receipt, in the Sixpenny Duty Office, of the wages of men dying on board ship in the West India Trade, Rep. v. 342, 343—Account of the gross sums collected since the passing of the Act, the sums paid to the representatives, the charge of collection, and the amount distributed to the Merchant Seamen's Hospital in each year, from 1798 to 1802, both inclusive, ib. 343—Copy of correspondence between the Commissioners of the Sixpenny Duty and the Lords of the Admiralty, dated December 1797 and January 1798, relative to the collection of dead men's wages, Rep. v. App. 382-386—Abstract of the gross amount of the money received at the different ports on account of the wages of men dying in the West India trade, from the passing of the Act on the 1st July 1797 to 31 December 1802, ib. 387.

2. Balances in the hands of the Receiver:

Account of the money in the hands of John Rashleigh by receiver of the sixpenny duty, on 17 May 1803, the day of his decease, on account of the wages of men dying in the West India trade, Rep. v. App. 392.

3. Commission on Collection:

The receiver of the sixpenny duty should be authorized to deduct a commission of two and a half per cent. upon the receipt of dead men's wages in the port of London, to indemnify Greenwich Hospital for the expense of a clerk, Rep. v. 344.

4. Unclaimed Wages:

Account of money received for dead men's wages, unappropriated by the Act of Parliament, from 1 July 1797 to 31 December 1799, Rep. v. App. 388.

See also Admiralty Board, 3. Bristol, Port of, 2. Commission, 3. Glasgow, Port of, 2. Greenock, Port of, 2. Greenwich Hospital, 5. Lancaster, Port of, 2. Leith, Port of, 2. London, Port of, 2. Liverpool, Port of, 3. Masters of Ships. Newcastle, Port of, 2. Rashleigh, John, 2. West India Trade. Whitehaven (Cumberland), 2.

Deal, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Deal, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

Defalcations. Observations of the Commissioners on the defalcations from time to time in the chest at Chatham, Rep. ii. 121.—See also Chest at Chatham, 6.

Deptford Dockyard. Manner in which Deptford dockyard is supplied with blockmakers' wares for the use of His Majesty's navy, Rep. iii. 176.

See also Fox, Thomas. Slade, Benjamin.

Deputy Postmaster-general. Complaint of the deputy postmaster-general at Jamaica, of the naval storekeeper refusing to give bills for the money which he wanted to remit, Rep. i. 25.

Deputy Postmasters. See Post Office.

Deputy Receivers of the Sixpenny Duty. Power of Commissioners of the Sixpenny Duty to appoint deputy receivers; rate of allowance made to these officers for their trouble of collection, Rep. v. 332, 333—Suggestions of the Commissioners with respect to the time of the deputy receivers making their remittances to the Sixpenny Office, ib. 340.

See also Arrear Accounts, 2. Commission, 2. Irish Ports. Liverpool, Port of, 1. Per-Centage Allowances, 1. Sixpenny Receiver's Office, 4.

Derrick, Charles. Examination of Charles Derrick, Esq., secretary to the committee of stores, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 12 April 1803, relative to the purchase and supply of stores to the naval storekeeper at Jamaica, for the use of His Majesty's navy, Rep. i. App. 88-90.

Deserting from Ships. See African Trade.

Devis, Henry. Examination of Mr. Henry Devis, clerk to Messrs. Willis & Waterhouse, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 13 April 1803, relative to the mode of conducting prize agency in His Majesty's navy, Rep. iv. App. 306-308—Further examination of Mr. Henry Devis, clerk to Messrs. Willis & Waterhouse, taken upon oath, 14 April 1803, on the same subject, ib. 309-311—Further examination of Mr. Henry Devis, clerk to Messrs. Willis & Waterhouse, taken upon oath, 11 June 1803, on the same subject, ib. 312-315.

DICK, JAMES :

1. Appointment to Office.
2. Duties of the Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica.
3. Negotiation of Navy Bills.
4. Circulation of Base Coin.

1. Appointment to Office :

Circumstances attending the appointment of Mr. James Dick to the office of naval storekeeper at the island of Jamaica, Rep. i. 8.

2. Duties of Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica :

Examination of Mr. James Dick, naval storekeeper at Jamaica, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 12 February 1803, relative to the administration of the affairs of his office, Rep. i. App. 45-50—Further examination of Mr. James Dick on 15 February 1803, on the same subject, ib. 51-58.

3. Negotiation of Navy Bills :

Letter from Mr. James Dick, naval officer at Jamaica, to Richard Nelson, Esq., secretary to the Navy Board, dated 18 December 1800, relative to the mode of procuring money for the carrying on the public service in that island, Rep. i. App. 42, 43.

4. Circulation of Base Coin :

Circumstances attending Mr. Dick, naval storekeeper at Jamaica, being engaged in a traffic of spurious coin, Rep. i. 16—Letter from Mr. James Dick, naval storekeeper at Jamaica, to Evan Nepean, Esq., secretary of the Admiralty, dated 20 October 1797, in explanation of two boxes of counterfeited coin being addressed to him, Rep. i. App. 103, 104—Letter from James Dick, Esq., naval storekeeper at Jamaica, to Sir Hyde Parker, dated 19 June 1797, respecting two boxes of counterfeit coin found on board the "Adventure" store ship, bearing his address, ib. 104, 105.

See also Admiralty Board, 2. Jamaica, 1. Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica, 4. 6.

Dick, Captain John. Letter from Captain John Dick to the principal officers of His Majesty's navy, dated 25 August 1797, in explanation of two boxes of counterfeit coin being addressed to his father, Mr. James Dick, the naval storekeeper at His Majesty's yard at Jamaica, Rep. i. App. 101, 102.

Directors of the Chest. Proposed plan for selecting and appointing five persons from the naval service, to be called directors of the chest at Greenwich, Rep. ii. 127.

Dismissal from Office. See Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica, 7. Smith, William, 1.

Distribution Lists. Nature and form of a distribution list described, Rep. iv. 259.

Distribution of Prize Money. Extract from the evidence of James Primrose Maxwell, esq., taken before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry on the subject of the distribution of prizes taken at sea, Rep. iv. 252-257—Observations of the Commissioners on the gross irregularities and abuses practised in the distribution of prize money through prize agents, ib. 259-261.

See also Agents, II. Commission, 2. East Indies. Notification of Distribution. Prize Money. Recall Agents. Vice Admiralty Courts.

Dockyards, His Majesty's. See Blockmakers' Wares, 1. Contracts, 1. 2. Coopers' Work, 1. 2. Deptford Dockyard. Navy Board, 4. 5. Plymouth Dockyard. Portsmouth Dockyard. Prevention of Frauds. Publicans. Recall Agents. Slop Sellers. Taylor, Walter. Warrants. Woolwich Dockyard.

Domingo, St. See Coetlogon, Charles de.

Dover, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Dover, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

1—Report, 1802-3—continued.

Drawing Bills. Recommendation of the Commissioners that bills of exchange should be made out in such sums, not less than 100 l., as may be desired by the party tendering the best rate of exchange, Rep. i. 20—See also Jamaica, 2.

Dumfries (North Britain). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Dumfries, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

Dunbar (North Britain). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Dunbar, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

Dundee, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered at the port of Dundee, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

Dunsterville, Bartholomew. Supply of articles of blockmakers' wares to the Royal dockyard at Plymouth, through Mr. Bartholomew Dunsterville, Rep. iii. 177, 178—Examination of Mr. Bartholomew Dunsterville, a blockmaker at Plymouth, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 22 March 1803, relative to the contract for the supply of articles of blockmakers' wares, for the use of His Majesty's dockyards, Rep. iii. App. 202, 203.

Duties of Officers. See Chest at Chatham, 3. Navy Board, 1.

E.

East Indies. It is a general practice for prize agents, in the East Indies, to pay or advance shares of prize money to seamen before notification of distribution, Rep. iv. 265.

See also Agents, II. 4. Vice Admiralty Courts.

Emoluments of Office. See Chest at Chatham, 3.

Employment of Prize Money. Observations of the Commissioners on the necessity of taking from agents the use of prize money while appeals are pending, Rep. iv. 276, 277.

See also Agents, II. 3.

Employment of Slaves. See Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica, 1.

Esquire Bedel of Cambridge University. Office of esquire bedel of Cambridge University, held by the junior Commissioner for the receipt of the sixpenny duty, Rep. v. 332.

ESTABLISHMENTS :

1. Chest at Chatham.
2. Prize Office.

1. Chest at Chatham :

Statement of the present establishment of the chest at Chatham, and the proposed establishment on removal of the chest to Greenwich Hospital, Rep. ii. 128.

2. Prize Office :

Proposed establishment for the general Prize Office in London, and at the outports, together with the amount of salaries of the respective officers, Rep. iv. 274.

See also Chest at Chatham, 2. Sixpenny Receiver's Office, 1.

Estates. Statement of the estates belonging to the chest at Chatham, specifying when purchased, number of acres, cost, then rent, and present rent, Rep. ii. 122.

See also Chest at Chatham, 5. Mismanagement of Estates.

Eve, Charles. Examination of Mr. Charles Eve, first clerk to the receiver in the Sixpenny Receiver's Office for Greenwich Hospital, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 25 March 1803, relative to the duties of the office, and manner in which the business of the department is conducted, Rep. v. App. 357-359—Further examination of Mr. Charles Eve, taken upon oath, 29 March 1803, on the subject of the fees taken in the Sixpenny Receiver's Office, ib. 359-361—Further examination of Mr. Charles Eve, taken upon oath, 4 April 1803, relative to the mode of conducting the business of the Sixpenny Receiver's Office for Greenwich Hospital, ib. 362—Further examination of Mr. Charles Eve, taken upon oath, 26 July 1803, respecting the duties allotted to each Commissioner of the Sixpenny Office, ib. 363-367—Further examination of Mr. Charles Eve, 27 July 1803, on the subject of making up the accounts of the deputy receivers in England, ib. 368—Further examination of Mr. Charles Eve, taken upon oath, 9 August 1803, relative to the amount of the collection of the sixpenny duty for the port of Beaumaris, ib. 369.

1—Report, 1802-3—continued.

Eve, Charles—continued.

EXAMINATION OF ACCOUNTS :

1. Storekeeper's Accounts at Foreign Stations.
2. Navy Office.

1. Storekeeper's Accounts at Foreign Stations :

Observations of the Commissioners on the system of examination of accounts of naval storekeepers on foreign stations, Rep. i. 21, 22.

2. Navy Office :

Observations of the Commissioners on the looseness of the system of examination of the public accounts by the clerks in the Navy Office, Rep. iii. 187.

See also Davies, Thomas. Hebden, John. Instructions to Officers, 4.

Exchanges. How the rates of exchange between this country and the West Indies are regulated, Rep. i. 6—Observations of the Commissioners on the objectionable practice of agents of Government becoming interested in the rise or fall of the exchange, as instanced in the case of the naval storekeeper at Jamaica, ib. 17.

See also Bills of Exchange, 1. Henry, Alexander. Hibbert, George. Hughan, Thomas. Jamaica, 2. Milligan, Robert. Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica, 4. Premium on Bills of Exchange. Rates of Exchange.

Exeter, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Exeter, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping, to have been in existence in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

Expenses of Collection. Recommendation of the Commissioners that the expense of the collection of the monies payable for the support of the merchant seamen's hospitals should be defrayed from the wages that remain unclaimed, Rep. v. 346.

Expenditure (Dockyard Contracts.) Recommendations of the Commissioners for the future check and control of the annual expenditure of the different dockyards in His Majesty's service, Rep. iii. 193.

See also Incidental Expenses. Reduction of Expenditure.

Extortion. See Agents I. II. 2.

F.

Failure of Agents. Observations of the Commissioners on the losses sustained by captors and claimants from allowing the proceeds of prizes to remain with the agents, Rep. iv. 263-276.

Falkingham, Edward. Examination of Edward Falkingham, esq., chief clerk to the comptroller of the navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 13 April 1803, relative to the duties of his situation and mode of keeping the accounts of the chest at Chatham, Rep. ii. App. 159, 160.

Falmouth, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Falmouth, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping, to have been in existence in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

Faversham (Kent.) Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Faversham, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping, to have been in existence on 30 September, in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

Fees, Commissioners of. See Audit of Accounts.

Fees (Sixpenny Receiver's Office.) Nature of the fees exacted from masters of vessels on passing their accounts at the sixpenny office, and authority for the same, Rep. v. 334, 335—Statement of the fees received by the chief clerk in the sixpenny receiver's office, for Greenwich Hospital, from the masters and owners of ships, agents, and other persons transacting business with the office, Rep. v. App. 359.

See also Chest at Chatham, 3.

1—Reports, 1802-3—continued.

Finch, Thomas. Case of Mr. Thomas Finch, late master's mate of His Majesty's ship "Regulus," who was killed in action on 11 July 1798, Rep. iv. 264—Statement of Thomas Finch, of His Majesty's ship "Regulus," in account current with Messrs. Willis and Waterhouse, Rep. iv. App. 317.

Fishley, Hugh. See Jamaica.

Foreign Stations, 1. See Accounts, 1. Audit of Accounts. Captains of Ships' Commanders-in-Chief, 2. Examination of Accounts, 1. Forms of Accounts, 1. Instructions to Officers, 1, 2. Negotiation of Bills. Post Office. Storekeepers at Foreign Stations. Stores, 1.

Forfeitures. Neglect of the Commissioners of the Sixpenny Duty to proceed against parties for forfeitures and penalties imposed by various Acts of Parliament, Rep. v. 340, 341—Account of the monies paid into Greenwich Hospital under the head of run men's wages, unlawful fishing on the Thames, and other forfeitures in each year, from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, ib. 341.

Forgeries. Observations of the Commissioners on the tendency of the establishment of a general prize office, to check and correct the frauds and forgeries practised for the obtaining prize money by wills, general powers of attorney, and orders, Rep. iv. 277, 278.

FORMS OF ACCOUNTS:

1. Storekeepers at Foreign Stations.
2. Agents for Prizes.

1. Storekeepers at Foreign Stations:

Proposed form to be adopted by the several agents abroad for drawing bills on the Government at home, and charging themselves therewith in their cash accounts, Rep. i. 19, 20.

2. Agents for Prizes:

Copy of the proposed form to be used by agents in making the payment of shares of prize money to petty officers, seamen, and marines, Rep. iv. 272.

Fort William (North Britain.) Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Fort William, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping, to have been in existence on 30 September, in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

Foster, William. Examination of William Foster, esq., chief clerk in the office for bills and accounts in the navy office, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 1st June 1803, respecting the frauds committed at Woolwich dockyard by contractors for coopers' work, Rep. iii. App. 248.

Fowey (Cornwall.) Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Fowey, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping, to have been in existence on 30 September, in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

Fox, Thomas. Mode in which the supply of blockmakers' wares to Deptford and Woolwich dockyards is made through Mr. Thomas Fox, Rep. iii. 176-179—Examination of Mr. Thomas Fox, a blockmaker, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, on 4 March 1803, relative to the contract for the supply of articles of blockmakers' wares to His Majesty's dockyards, Rep. iii. App. 198-202.

FRAUDS:

1. Coopers' Contract.
2. Prize Agency.

1. Coopers' Contract:

Observations of the Commissioners on the frauds committed under the contract for the performance of coopers' work, and for the supply of coopers' wares, at His Majesty's yard at Woolwich, Rep. iii. 188-193—Account of the ships' names whose masts are certified to have been furnished with wood hoops at Woolwich dockyard, but in fact were not furnished with any, Rep. iii. App. 246, 247.

2. Prize Agency:

Observations of the Commissioners on the frauds practised on seamen under the present system of prize agency, Rep. iv. 258-262.

See also Agents, II. 2. Certificates, 3. Contracts, 2. Coopers' Work, 2. Forgeries. Prevention of Frauds. Recall Agents. Woolwich Dockyard, 2.

Funded Property. See Chest at Chatham, 5.

G.

Gambier, Samuel. Examination of Samuel Gambier, esq., one of the commissioners of His Majesty's navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 31 January 1803, relative to the rate of premium on bills drawn at Jamaica on this country for the public service, Rep. i. App. 75-79.

Garnett, John. Observations of the Commissioners on the improved blocks invented by Mr. John Garnett, and tried in His Majesty's navy, Rep. iii. 185.

See also Randall, Brent, and Garnett, Messrs.

GLASGOW, PORT OF :

1. Registered Tonnage and Shipping.
2. Dead Men's Wages.

1. Registered Tonnage and Shipping :

Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Glasgow, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

2. Dead Men's Wages :

Account of the gross amount of the money received at the port of Glasgow on account of the wages of men dying in the West India trade, from the passing of the Act on 1 July 1797 to 31 December 1802, Rep. v. App. 387.

Gloucester, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Gloucester, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

Goddard, William. Examination of Mr. William Goddard, one of the governors of the chest at Chatham, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 21st April 1803, relative to the administration of the affairs connected with the chest at Chatham, Rep. ii. App. 161-163.

Government Contracts. See Contracts, 1. 2. Prices, 2.

Great Britain. See Shipping.

GREENOCK, PORT OF (NORTH BRITAIN) :

1. Registered Tonnage and Shipping.
2. Dead Men's Wages.

1. Registered Tonnage and Shipping :

Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Greenock, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

2. Dead Men's Wages :

Account of the gross amount of the money received at the port of Greenock on account of the wages of men dying in the West India trade, from the passing of the Act on 1 July 1797 to 31 December 1802, Rep. v. App. 387.

GREENWICH HOSPITAL :

1. Chest at Chatham.
2. Payment of Out-Pensioners.
3. Naval Prize Money.
4. Sixpenny Duty.
5. Dead Men's Wages.
6. Increase of Hospital Revenues.

1. Chest at Chatham.

Observations of the Commissioners on the advantage of the removal of the chest at Chatham to Greenwich Hospital, to be managed as a separate branch of that institution, Rep. ii. 126, 127.

2. Payment

GREENWICH HOSPITAL—continued.2. Payment of Out-Pensioners :

Mode adopted by the treasurer of Greenwich Hospital for paying the out-pensioners, transmitted to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, by Viscount Hood, governor of the hospital, 3 March 1803, Rep. ii. App. 171.

3. Naval Prize Money :

Duties of prize agents with respect to rendering the treasurer of Greenwich Hospital an account of the proceeds of a prize, the amount of the sums paid, and of the money remaining in his hands, Rep. iv. 254, 255—Neglect of prize agents abroad to furnish the treasurer of Greenwich Hospital with the accounts of the payment and distribution of prize money, as required by Act, ib. 263.

4. Sixpenny Duty :

Account of the amount of monies paid in to Greenwich Hospital in the year 1802, by the receiver of the sixpenny duty, Rep. v. 347—Account of monies received by the receiver of the sixpenny duty on account of Greenwich Hospital, from the year 1783 to 1802 inclusive, with the amount of salaries and incidental charges of the sixpenny office, and the net sums paid the treasurer of the hospital during the last twenty years, Rep. v. App. 393.—Account of money received by John Rashleigh, esq., receiver of the duty of 6 d. a man per month out of the merchant seamen's wages, for the use of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, between 1 January 1802 and 31 December following, both days included, ib. 395-397.

5. Dead Men's Wages :

Observations of the Commissioners on the circumstance of Greenwich Hospital advancing money on account of the Commission on Dead Men's Wages; sum at present due to the hospital on that account, Rep. v. 343, 344.

6. Increase of Hospital Revenues :

Opinion of the Commissioners that the revenues of Greenwich Hospital might be considerably increased were proper attention paid by the Commissioners of the Sixpenny Duty to the collection of the duty in the port of London, Rep. v. 349.

See also Accounts, 2. African Trade. Arrear Accounts, 2. Chest at Chatham, 1. Collection of the Sixpenny Duty. Cook, William Ely. Dead Men's Wages, 3. Directors of the Chest. Forfeitures. Merchant Service, 2. Out-Pensioners. Receiver of the Sixpenny Duty, 2. Run Men's Wages. Sixpenny Receiver's Office. Tide Surveyors. Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital.

Gunton, William. Observations of the Commissioners on the contract for coopers' wares, to be delivered at Woolwich dockyard, held by Mr. William Gunton, and subsequently by his widow, Rep. iii. 189-193.

Gweek, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Gweek, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

H.

Halford, James. Examination of James Halford, a navy agent, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 14th and 15th June 1805, relative to the mode of conducting prize agency in his Majesty's navy, Rep. iv. App. 285-289—Further examination of James Halford, esq., taken upon oath, 28 June 1803, on the same subject, ib. 289, 290.

HAMOND, SIR ANDREW SNAPE, BART. :

1. Premium on Bills in Jamaica.
2. Block Contract.

1. Premium on Bills in Jamaica :

Examination of Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 1st March 1803, relative to the rate of premium on bills drawn at Jamaica on this country for the public service, Rep. i. App. 80-85.

1—Reports, 1802-3—continued.

HAMOND, SIR ANDREW SNAPE, BART—continued.

2. Block Contract :

Examination of Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 2d March 1803, relative to the contract entered into with Mr. Walter Taylor, for the supply of articles of blockmakers' wares for the use of His Majesty's dockyards, Rep. iii. App. 221-230.

See also Chest at Chatham, 5.

Harmood, Harry. Examination of Harry Harmood, esq., one of the principal officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, and a member of the committee of stores, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 25th April 1803, relative to the purchase of stores by the naval storekeeper at Jamaica, for the use of His Majesty's navy, Rep. i. App. 87.

Hartwell, Francis John. See Chest at Chatham, 5.

Harwich, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Harwich, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

Haydon, William. Examination of Mr. William Haydon, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, in the King's Bench Prison, the 16th June 1803, relative to the mode of conducting prize agency in His Majesty's navy, Rep. iv. App. 306.

Hebden, John. Examination of Mr. John Hebden, second clerk in the office for bills and accounts in the navy office, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 2d February 1803, relative to the examination and check, which the accounts of naval storekeepers at foreign stations, undergo in the office of bills and accounts, Rep. i. App. 108-111.

Hedges, Michael & John, Messrs. Observations of the Commissioners on the contracts for coopers' work to be delivered at Woolwich dock yard, held in trust for Messrs. Michael & John Hedges, Rep. iii. 189-193.—See also Cooper's Work, 2.

Henry, Alexander. Examination of Alexander Henry, esq., a West India merchant, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 8th February 1803, touching the rates of exchange on Government bills negotiated in the island of Jamaica, Rep. i. App. 68, 69.

Herne, Thomas. Examination of Mr. Thomas Herne, late chief clerk in the office for comptrolling victualling accounts in the Navy Office, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 10th May 1803, relative to the balances due to Mr. William Smith, late naval storekeeper at Jamaica, on the final passing of his accounts, Rep. i. App. 112.

Hibbert, George. Examination of George Hibbert, esq., merchant, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 25th January 1803, respecting the rate of exchange on Navy bills in the island of Jamaica, Rep. i. App. 64.

Holidays. See Sixpenny Receiver's Office, 2.

Holloway, Captain J., R. N. Letter from Captain J. Holloway and others to Vice-Admiral Roddam, dated on board the "Magnificent," the 25th March 1791, respecting Messrs. Garnett & Co.'s blocks, Rep. iii. App. 235.

Hood, Viscount. See Greenwich Hospital, 2.

Hoops. Statement of the number of hoops set on ships' masts, charged for under the cooper's contract in the years 1798 and 1799, Rep. iii. 192, 193.

Hope, Charles. Communication of Charles Hope, esq., commissioner at Chatham and supervisor of the chest, to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 21 April 1803, on the subject of the chest at Chatham, and submitting proposals for their consideration, Rep. ii. App. 169-171.

Hours of Business. See Sixpenny Receiver's Office, 2.

Hughan, Thomas. Examination of Thomas Hughan, esq., a merchant in connexion with the island of Jamaica, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 1st February 1803, relative to the premium on bills of exchange negotiated in Jamaica, Rep. i. App. 65.

Hull,

Hull, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Hull, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping, to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

Hurts. Scale of hurts that are pensionable from the chest at Chatham, with the annual sum allowed for each hurt, Rep. ii. App. 156.

I.

Ilfracombe, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Ilfracombe, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

Imposition. Recommendations of the Commissioners for guarding against the impositions practised by agents on pensioners of the chest at Chatham, Rep. ii. 125.

See also Agents, I. II. 2. Sailors. Stopsellers.

Incidental Expenses. Observations of the Commissioners on the magnitude of the sum paid to artificers, and other incidental charges of the naval storekeeper at Jamaica, Rep. i. 24.

Increase of Revenue. See Greenwich Hospital, 6.

Inferior Agents. Observations of the Commissioners on the impolicy of the employment of inferior agents for the distribution of naval prize-money, Rep. iv. 258, 259.

Inspector of Seamen's Wills. See Bedingfield, Joseph.

INSTRUCTIONS TO OFFICERS:

1. Commanders-in-Chief at Foreign Stations.
2. Negotiation of Bills of Exchange.
3. Custody of Public Records.
4. Examination of Public Accounts.

1. Commanders-in-Chief at Foreign Stations:

Commanders-in-chief should be always furnished by the Navy Board with a copy of the instructions to officers of the naval departments at foreign stations, to enable them to superintend the conduct of those officers, Rep. i. 23.

2. Negotiation of Bills of Exchange:

Extract of the instructions from the Right hon. the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty to the Commander-in-chief of His Majesty's ships and vessels in the West Indies, relative to providing money for the public service through the naval storekeeper at foreign stations, Rep. i. App. 73.

3. Custody of Public Records:

Article 33 of the instructions to naval storekeepers, with respect to keeping the public records belonging to the office, Rep. i. App. 112.

4. Examination of Public Accounts:

Expediency of issuing a code of instructions for the guidance of the officers and clerks in the Navy Office, upon whom the examination of the public accounts of the navy depends, Rep. iii. 187.— See also Negotiation of Bills.

Inverness (North Britain). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Inverness, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

Ipswich, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Ipswich, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 373.

Irish Ports. Account of the state of the accounts of the deputy receivers of the Sixpenny Duty to Greenwich Hospital in Ireland, under the direction of Henry Kinsey, e-q., with the names of the ports, receivers, the usual time of accounting, to what time the accounts have been received, to what time the balances have been paid, and the average annual amount of the receipt at each port, Rep. v. App. 380.

1—Reports, 1802-3—continued.

Irvin, Mr., Senior. Supply of articles of blockmakers' wares to the dockyards at Chatham and Sheerness, by Mr. Irvin, senior, Rep. iii. 177.

Irvine (North Britain). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Irvine, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

Isle Martin. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Isle Martin, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

J.

Jackson, John. Examination of John Jackson, esq., secretary to Lord Keith in 1795, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 24 March 1803, relative to the mode of conducting prize agency in His Majesty's navy, Rep. iv. App. 290, 291.

Jackson, Joseph. Examination of Joseph Jackson, esq., proctor in the Vice-Admiralty Court at Jamaica, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 6 April 1803, relative to the mode of conducting prize agency in His Majesty's navy, Rep. iv. App. 323, 324.

JAMAICA:

1. Naval Storekeeper.
2. Rate of Exchange on Bills.

1. Naval Storekeeper:

Circumstances attending the dismissal of the naval storekeeper at Jamaica for abuses and irregularities in procuring money on bills of exchange, Rep. i. 7, 8—Letter from James Dick and Hugh Fishley, Esquires, Jamaica officers to the secretary of the Navy Board, dated 20 December 1797, on the state of the office of naval storekeeper in Jamaica, Rep. i. App. 44.

2. Rate of Exchange on Bills:

Mode of calculating the rate of exchange in the island of Jamaica in drawing bills on this country, Rep. i. 6.

See also Admiralty Board, 1, 2. Base Money. Bligh, Vice-admiral Richard Rodney. Broughton, Edward. Broughton, Henry. Certificates, 1. Coetlogon, Charles de. Crown Lands, Jamaica. Deputy Postmaster-general. Dick, James, 1, 4. Exchanges. Hamond, Sir Andrew Snape, Bart., 1. Harmood, Harry. Incidental Expenses. Instructions to Officers, 2. Jackson, Joseph. Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica. Parker, Vice-admiral Sir Hyde, 1, 3. Parker, Rear-admiral William, 1, 2. Premium on Bills of Exchange. Prices, 1. Seymour, Lord Hugh. Smith, William. Specie. Stores, 2. Wade, William Richard. Whyte, John. Willis & Waterhouse, Messrs.

James II. Grant of King James the Second of the fines and mulcts imposed by naval courts martial towards the funds of the chest at Chatham, Rep. ii. 119.

K.

King's Bench Prison. See Haydon, William.

Kircaldy (North Britain). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Kircaldy, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

Kirkcudbright (North Britain). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Kirkcudbright, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

Kirkwall (North Britain). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Kirkwall, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

L.

LANCASTER, PORT OF:

1. Registered Tonnage and Shipping.
2. Dead Men's Wages.

1. Registered Tonnage and Shipping:

Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Lancaster, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

2. Dead Men's Wages:

Account of the gross amount of the money received at the port of Lancaster, on account of the wages of men dying in the West India trade, from the passing of the Act on 1 July 1797 to 31 December 1802, Rep. v. App. 387.

See also Run Men's Wages.

Landed Property. See Chest at Chatham, 5.

LEITH, PORT OF (NORTH BRITAIN):

1. Registered Tonnage and Shipping.
2. Dead Men's Wages.

1. Registered Tonnage and Shipping:

Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Leith, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

2. Dead Men's Wages:

Account of the gross amount of the money received at the port of Leith on account of the wages of men dying in the West India trade, from the passing of the Act on 1 July 1797 to 31 December 1802, Rep. v. App. 387.

Lerwick (North Britain). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Lerwick, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

Letters of Attorney. See Registration of Powers of Attorney.

Lignum Vitæ. Copy of letter from the navy office to the purveyor at Deptford dock-yard, dated 25 June 1800, respecting the quantity of lignum vitæ now in the market, Rep. iii. App. 236—Letter from Mr. Benjamin Slade to the Navy Board, dated 28 June 1800, respecting the quantity of lignum vitæ in the market, and the price, ib. 236, 237.

LIVERPOOL, PORT OF:

1. Deputy Receiver of the Sixpenny Duty.
2. Registered Tonnage and Shipping.
3. Dead Men's Wages.

1. Deputy Receiver of the Sixpenny Duty:

Amount of the emolument derived by the deputy receiver at Liverpool from the per-centage allowances on the monies collected under the direction of the Sixpenny Office, Rep. v. 333.

2. Registered Tonnage and Shipping:

Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Liverpool, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

1—Reports, 1802-3—continued.

*LIVERPOOL, PORT OF—continued.*3. Dead Men's Wages:

Account of the gross amount of the money received at the port of Liverpool on account of the wages of men dying in the West India trade, from the passing of the Act on 1 July 1797 to 31 December 1802, Rep. v. App. 387—Account of money received for dead men's wages unappropriated by the Act of Parliament, from 1 July 1797 to 31 December 1799, ib. 388.

See also Reduction of Expenditure. Run Men's Wages.

Llanelly, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Llanelly, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

LONDON, PORT OF:

1. Registered Tonnage and Shipping.
2. Dead Men's Wages.
3. Sixpenny Duty on Merchant Seamen's Wages.

1. Registered Tonnage and Shipping:

Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of London, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, distinguishing each year, Rep. v. App. 373.

2. Dead Men's Wages:

Account of the gross amount of the money received at the port of London on account of the wages of men dying in the West India trade, from the passing of the Act on 1 July 1797 to 31 December 1802, Rep. v. App. 387—Account of money received in the port of London for dead men's wages, unappropriated by the Act of Parliament from 1 July 1797 to 31 December 1799, ib. 388.

3. Sixpenny Duty on Merchant Seamen's Wages:

In order to magnify the receipts of the sixpenny duty in the port of London, it has been the practice since the year 1766 to deduct the amount of the salaries and incidental charges of the Sixpenny Office from the monies collected at the outports, Rep. v. 348—Account of the money received in the port of London by John Rashleigh, Esq., receiver of the duty of sixpence a man per month out of merchant seamen's wages, for the use of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, between 1 January and 31 December 1802, Rep. v. App. 395-398.

See also Custom House, (Port of London.) Prize Office. Run Men's Wages.
Ships entered Inwards.

Looe, Port of (Cornwall). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Looe, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September, in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

Losses. Statement of the losses to Government on the purchases made by Mr. James Dick, of stores and supplies for the use of the naval service in the West Indies, Rep. i. 15, 16.

Lyme, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Lyme, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

Lynn (Norfolk). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Lynn, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

M.

Machinery. See Block Machinery.

M'Lean, John. Examination of Mr. John M'Lean, agent to the pensioners of the chest, at Chatham, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 21st April 1803, relative to the manner in which the chest agency at Chatham is conducted, Rep. ii. App. 167-169.

M'Lean,

1—Reports, 1802-3—continued.

M'Lean, Lachlan. Examination of Mr. Lachlan M'Lean, accountant to the chest at Chatham, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 20 April 1803, relative to the mode of making payments to pensioners, and the general administration of the affairs connected with the chest at Chatham, Rep. ii. App. 163-165.

Madgson, John. See Chest at Chatham, 5.

Maldon (Essex). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Maldon, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping, to have been in existence on 30 September, in the years 1799, 1800 and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

Mariners. See Stoppage of Wages.

Marines. See Chest at Chatham, 6.

Markham, John. Examination of John Markham, esq., one of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 17 May 1803, respecting the contract entered into with Mr. Walter Taylor for the supply of articles of blockmakers' wares to his Majesty's yards, Rep. iii. App. 230, 231.

Masters of Ships. Duty of masters of ships to deliver upon oath, within 10 days of the ship's arrival, to the collector or comptroller of the Customs, the accounts of the wages of men dying during the voyage, Rep. v. 345.—See also Fees. Oaths.

Maude, Thomas. Examination of Thomas Maude, esq., taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 27 June 1803, relative to the mode of conducting prize agency in His Majesty's Navy, Rep. iv. App. 284, 285.

Maxwell, James Primrose. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of James Primrose Maxwell, esq., a prize agent of great experience, respecting the practice, duty, and emoluments of prize agents, Rep. iv. 252-257.—Examination of James Primrose Maxwell, esq., taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 19 March 1803, relative to the distribution of naval prize-money, and the mode of conducting prize-agency, Rep. iv. App. 281-283.—Further examination of James Primrose Maxwell, esq., taken upon oath, 28 June 1803, upon the same subject, ib. 283, 284.

Medway, River. Period of the River Medway being the general rendezvous and dépôt for the fleet, Rep. ii. 126.

Merchant Seamen's Corporation. See Oddy, William.

Merchant Seamen's Hospital. The receiver of the Sixpenny duty should be authorised to deduct the sums that have been advanced from the first monies that became payable to the Merchant Seamen's Hospital, to repay the sum due to Greenwich Hospital, Rep. v. 344.—See also Dead Men's Wages, 1.

MERCHANT SERVICE:

1. Men Employed.
2. Sixpenny Duty.

1. Men Employed:

Account of seamen returned to the Admiralty, as having been employed in the merchant service in each year from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, as also the number that ought to have been returned, Rep. v. 336.—Account of the number of men and boys which appear by the reports of the masters to have been employed in the merchant service in Great Britain on board British ships, inwards and outwards from and to foreign parts, during the last 10 years, distinguishing England from Scotland, Rep. v. App. 376.

2. Sixpenny Duty:

Origin of the imposition of the sixpenny duty on the merchant service, Rep. v. 330.—Account of money received by the receiver of the duty of sixpence a man per month out of merchant seamen's wages, for the use of the royal hospital at Greenwich, between 1 January and 31 December 1802, Rep. v. App. 395-397.

See also London, Port of, 3. Shipping. Tonnage.

Millegan, Robert. Examination of Robert Millegan, esq., a West India merchant, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 3 February 1803, relative to the rates of exchange on navy bills circulated in the island of Jamaica, Rep. i. App. 66, 67.

Minehead (Somerset). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Minehead, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September, in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

1—Reports, 1802-3—continued.

Mismanagement of Estates. Observations of the Commissioners on the mismanagement of the estates belonging to the chest at Chatham, Rep. ii. 122, 123.

Montague, Captain George, R.N. Copy of letter from Captain George Montague and others to Vice Admiral Roddam, dated 25 March 1791, respecting Messrs. Garnett & Co's. blocks, Rep. iii. App. 235.

Montrose (North Britain). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Montrose, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September, in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

Moore, Captain Graham, R.N. Examination of Captain Graham Moore, of the royal navy, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 24 June 1803, relative to the mode of conducting prize agency in His Majesty's Navy, Rep. iv. App. 304, 305.

Mulcts. See Chest at Chatham, 6.

N.

Naval Prize Money. See Greenwich Hospital, 3. Prize Money.

NAVAL STOREKEEPER AT JAMAICA :

1. Employment of Slaves.
2. Salary and Allowances of Naval Storekeeper.
3. Balances of Public Money.
4. Negotiation of Bills of Exchange.
5. Purchase and Supply of Stores.
6. Circulation of Base Coin.
7. Dismissal from Office.

1. Employment of Slaves :

Observations of the Commissioners on the practice of the naval storekeeper at Jamaica employing his own slaves as artificers and labourers in the naval yard, for whose service he received the pay of Government, Rep. i. 24.

2. Salary and Allowances of Naval Storekeeper :

Account of the income derived by the naval officer at Jamaica, from the salary and established allowances made to him by the public, Rep. i. 26.

3. Balances of Public Money :

Letter from the Navy Board to Mr. Smith, naval officer at Jamaica, dated 4 September 1795, on the subject of the balances of public money retained in his hands, Rep. i. App. 33—Letter from the Navy Board to Rear Admiral Parker, dated 4 September 1795, relative to the state of the balance of the naval storekeeper at Jamaica, ib.

4. Negotiation of Bills of Exchange :

Observations of the Commissioners on the neglect of the Navy Board to make inquiry into the conduct of the naval storekeepers at Jamaica, in procuring money on bills of exchange, Rep. i. 8, 9—Letter from the Navy Board to Evan Nepean, esq., dated 26 May 1796, relative to the conduct of Mr. William Smith, naval officer at Jamaica, relative to taking up money for his bills, ib. 36, 37—Letter from the Navy Board to Vice Admiral Lord Hugh Seymour, commander-in-chief at Jamaica, dated 18 September 1800, respecting the negotiation of navy bills by the naval storekeeper at Jamaica, ib. 39, 40—Letter from the Navy Board to Mr. James Dick, naval officer at Jamaica, dated 18 September 1800, conveying instructions for his guidance in the negotiation of navy bills drawn on the Government at home, ib. 40, 41.

5. Purchase and Supply of Stores :

Letter from the Navy Board to the Commander-in-chief at Jamaica, dated 1 October 1800, relative to the purchase and supply of stores by the naval storekeeper at Jamaica, Rep. i. App. 90, 91.

6. Circulation of Base Coin :

Letter from the Navy Board to Evan Nepean, esq., secretary of the Admiralty, dated 14 August 1797, relative to the circulation of base copper coin in the island of Jamaica, by Mr. Dick, the naval storekeeper, Rep. i. App. 100—Letter from the Navy Board to Evan Nepean, esq., dated 29 August 1797, relative to the discovery of two boxes of counterfeit copper coin, addressed to Mr. Dick, the naval storekeeper at His Majesty's yard at Jamaica, ib. 101.

7. Dismissal

1—Reports, 1802-3—continued.

NAVAL STOREKEEPER AT JAMAICA—continued.

7. Dismissal from Office :

Letter from the Navy Board to Mr. Smith, naval officer at Jamaica, dated 7 July 1796, dismissing him from his office, Rep. i. App. 38, 39.

See also Accounts, 1. Admiralty Board, 1. Arrear Accounts, 1. Base Money. Bills of Exchange, 2. Broughton, Edward. Broughton, Henry. Certificates, 1. Cordage. Crown Lands (Jamaica). Dick, James. Examination of Accounts, 1. Exchanges. Forms of Accounts, 1. Incidental Expenses. Instructions to Officers, 1. 2. Jamaica, 1. Navy Board, 2. Negotiation of Bills. Parker, Vice Admiral Sir Hyde, 1. 3. Parker, Rear Admiral William. Premium on Bills of Exchange. Smith, William. Specie. Stores, 2. Wade, William Richard. Wages.

Naval Stores. See Stores.

NAVY BOARD :

1. Duties of Members of the Board.
2. Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica.
3. Negotiation of Navy Bills.
4. Block Contract.
5. Coopers' Contract.

1. Duties of Members of the Board :

Proposed plan of the arrangement of the several members of the Navy Board into committees, each member having the immediate superintendance of a separate branch, Rep. iii. 188.

2. Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica :

Letter from the Naval Board to Evan Nepean, esq., dated 5 September 1795, respecting the improper conduct of Mr. Smith, naval officer at Jamaica, Rep. i. App. 34—Letter from the Navy Board to Evan Nepean, esq., dated 14 September 1795, relative to the conduct of Mr. Smith, the naval officer at Jamaica, ib. 35—Letter from the Navy Board to Mr. Smith, naval officer at Jamaica, dated 17 September 1795, respecting his improper conduct in taking up money for the service of this yard, ib. 36—Letter from the Navy Board to the Jamaica officers, dated 14 September 1797, calling for report, ib. 44.

3. Negotiation of Navy Bills :

Circumstance of the attention of the Navy Board being called to the subject of premium on bills of exchange negotiated by naval storekeepers in foreign stations, Rep. i. 6, 7.

4. Block Contract :

Observations of the Commissioners on the conduct of the Navy Board, in connexion with the block contract with Mr. Walter Taylor of Southampton, Rep. iii. 178, 179—Copy of letter from the Navy Board to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 14 May 1803, relative to granting an increase of contract price to Mr. Walter Taylor, on certain ash goods supplied to His Majesty's yards, Rep. iii. App. 214.

5. Coopers' Contract :

Extract of a letter from the Commissioners of the Navy to Sir Evan Nepean, bart., secretary to the Admiralty, dated 17 July 1802, respecting frauds committed by contractors for coopers' work in His Majesty's dockyards, Rep. iii. App. 241, 242—Extract of a letter from the Commissioners of the Navy to Sir Evan Nepean, bart., dated 4 August 1802, on the same subject, ib. 242, 243.

See also Abatement on Contracts. Advances on Contracts. Committees. Comptroller of the Navy. Contracts, 2. Coopers' Work, 1. Gambier, Samuel. Hamond, Sir Andrew Snape, Bart. Harwood, Harry. Instructions to Officers, 1. Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica, 3. 4. 5. 6. Rule, Sir William. Smith, William. Supplies. Taylor, Walter. Warrants.

Navy Office. See Davies, Thomas. Davies, William Gregory. Examination of Accounts, 2. Falkingham, Edward. Foster, William. Hebden, John. Herne, Thomas. Nelson, Richard Alexander. Yeats, George.

Negotiation of Bills. Copy of instructions to naval storekeepers on foreign stations, for the guidance of their conduct in procuring money for their bills of exchange, Rep. i. 4-6.

See also Bills of Exchange, 2. Commanders-in-Chief, 1. Dick, James, 3. Gambier, Samuel. Hamond, Sir Andrew Snape, Bart., 1. Hibbert, George. Henry, Alexander. Instructions to Officers. Jamaica, 1. 2. Millegan, Robert. Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica, 4. Navy Board, 2. Premium on Bills of Exchange. Storekeepers at Foreign Stations. Wade, William Richard.

1—Reports, 1802-3—continued.

Nelson, Richard Alexander. Examination of Richard Alexander Nelson, esq., of the Navy Office, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 21 February 1803, relative to the system pursued in the Navy Office in making contracts for the navy, Rep. iii. App. 207-212.

Nelson, Vice Admiral Lord Viscount, K. B. Examination of Vice Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson, K. B., Duke of Bronte, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 1 April 1803, relative to the mode of conducting prize agency in His Majesty's navy, Rep. iv. App. 322.

NEPEAN, EVAN, afterwards SIR EVAN.

1. Conduct of Mr. Smith, Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica.
2. Circulation of Counterfeit Coin in Jamaica.
3. Collection of Dead Men's Wages.

1. Conduct of Mr. Smith, Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica :

Letter from Evan Nepean, esq., secretary to the Admiralty, to the Navy Board, dated 10 September 1795, respecting the improper conduct of Mr. Smith, the naval officer at Jamaica, Rep. i. App. 34, 35.

2. Circulation of Counterfeit Coin in Jamaica :

Letter from Evan Nepean, esq., secretary of the Admiralty, to Mr. Dick, naval storekeeper at Jamaica, dated 24 July 1797, respecting two boxes of counterfeit coin transmitted to order, Rep. i. App. 98—Letter from Evan Nepean, esq., secretary of the Admiralty, to the Navy Board, dated 15 August 1797, relative to the circulation of base copper coin in the island of Jamaica, by Mr. Dick, the naval storekeeper, ib. 100—Letter from Evan Nepean, esq., secretary of the Admiralty, to Vice-Admiral Sir Hyde Parker, dated 1 September 1797, respecting the transmission of two boxes of counterfeit copper coin to Mr. Dick, the naval storekeeper at Jamaica, ib. 103—Letter from Evan Nepean, esq., secretary of the Admiralty, to Mr. Dick, His Majesty's naval storekeeper at Jamaica, dated 20 December 1797, respecting the Birmingham coin found on board the "Adventure" store ship, ib. 106.

3. Collection of Dead Men's Wages :

Copy of the Correspondence between Evan Nepean, esq., secretary to the Admiralty and the Commissioners of the Sixpenny Duty, dated respectively 9 January and 2 February 1798, relative to the collection of dead men's wages, Rep. v. App. 384-386.

Nettleship, William. Examination of William Nettleship, esq., chief clerk to the clerk of the Ordnance, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry the 28 February 1803, with regard to the premium on bills drawn by officers of the Board of Ordnance being carried to Government account, Rep. i. App. 31.

NEWCASTLE, PORT OF :

1. Registered Tonnage and Shipping.
2. Dead Men's Wages.

1. Registered Tonnage and Shipping :

Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Newcastle, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

2. Dead Men's Wages :

Account of the gross amount of the money received at the port of Newcastle on account of the wages of men dying in the West India trade, from the passing of the Act on 1 July 1797 to 31 December 1802, Rep. v. App. 387.

Newhaven (Sussex). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Newhaven, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

New Milford (Pembroke). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of New Milford, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

Notification of Distribution. Neglect of prize agents abroad to give public notification required previous to the payment of shares of navy prize money, Rep. iv. 263, 264—Circumstance of M. Aubin neglecting to give notification of distribution in the case of the "Requin" captured in 1795, Rep. iv. 265—See also Prize Money.

1—Reports, 1802-3—continued.

O.

Oaths. Neglect of the clerks of the Sixpenny Office to administer an oath to the masters of merchantmen on passing their accounts, as having no authority for that purpose, Rep. v. 334—See also Accounts, 1.

Oban (North Britain). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Oban, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

Oddy, William. Examination of William Oddy, esq., secretary to the Merchant Seamen's Corporation, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 25 July 1803, relative to the collection of the sixpenny duty for Greenwich Hospital from merchant seamen, Rep. v. App. 389, 390.

Officers. See Instructions to Officers. Salaries of Officers.

Official Residence. The receiver of the sixpenny duty, in addition to his salary, will have the advantage of a house to reside in, Rep. v. 350.

Onslow, Captain Richard, R.N. Letter from Captain Onslow to Vice-Admiral Roddam, dated on board the "Magnificent," 25 March 1791, respecting Garnett and Co.'s blocks, Rep. iii. App. 235.

Ordnance Department. Account of bills of exchange drawn on the office of Ordnance by the storekeeper at Jamaica, for service of the said office, from 1 January 1793 to 14 October 1802, and drawn at an exchange of 140 per cent. currency, distinguishing the rate at which each bill was negotiated for the public service, Rep. i. App. 70-72.

See also, Bills of Exchange, 2. Nettlehip, William.

Out-Pensioners. Mode adopted by the treasurer of Greenwich Hospital for paying the out-pensioners, Rep. ii. App. 171—See also Greenwich Hospital.

Out-Ports. Account of the money received at the several out-ports of Great Britain and Ireland, by John Rashleigh, esq., receiver of the duty of sixpence a man per month out of merchant seamen's wages, for the use of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, between 1 January and 31 December 1802, Rep. v. App. 395, 396-398.

See also, Irish Ports. Slopsellers.

P.

Padstow (Cornwall.) Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Padstow, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September, in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

PARKER, VICE ADMIRAL SIR HYDE :

1. Negotiation of Bills in Jamaica.
2. Purchase and Supply of Stores in Jamaica.
3. Circulation of Base Coin in Jamaica.

1. Negotiation of Bills in Jamaica :

Examination of Sir Hyde Parker, knight, commander of the naval squadron at Jamaica, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 5 February 1803, relative to the rates of premium on bills drawn at Jamaica on this country, for the public service, Rep. i. App. 73.

2. Purchase and Supply of Stores in Jamaica :

Letter from Admiral Sir Hyde Parker to the Navy Board, dated Jamaica, 9 February 1799, relative to the purchase and supply of stores by the naval storekeeper at Jamaica for the use of His Majesty's ships, Rep. i. App. 91, 92—Letter from Vice Admiral Sir Hyde Parker to the Navy Board, dated 20 February 1800, relative to the purchase of a large quantity of naval stores of Mr. Edward Broughton, in the island of Jamaica, for the use of His Majesty's service, ib. 106, 107—Extract of a letter from Vice Admiral Sir Hyde Parker to the Navy Board, dated Jamaica, 22 March 1800, respecting collusion in tendering for the supply of stores for the use of the navy, ib. 107.

1—Reports, 1802-3—continued.

PARKER, VICE ADMIRAL SIR HYDE—continued.3. Circulation of Base Coin in Jamaica :

Letter from Sir Hyde Parker to Evan Nepean, esq., dated 13 June 1797, relative to the transmission of base coin to Mr. Dick, the naval storekeeper at Jamaica, for circulation in that island, Rep. i. App. 96—Letter from Admiral Sir Hyde Parker to Evan Nepean, esq., secretary of the Admiralty, dated 23 June 1797, respecting the profit derived by the naval storekeeper at Jamaica, by the circulation of base copper coin, ib. 99—Letter from Admiral Sir Hyde Parker to Evan Nepean, esq., dated 16 July 1797, transmitting a letter from Mr. Dick, naval storekeeper of His Majesty's yard at Jamaica, in vindication of his conduct respecting the Birmingham coin, ib.—Letter from Vice Admiral Sir Hyde Parker to James Dick, esq., naval storekeeper at Jamaica, dated 8 June 1797, respecting two boxes of counterfeit copper coin on board the "Adventure," storeship, directed to him, ib. 104.

PARKER, REAR ADMIRAL WILLIAM :

1. Misconduct of the Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica.
2. Arrear Accounts of the Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica.

1. Misconduct of the Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica :

Occasion of Rear-Admiral William Parker, then commander-in-chief at Jamaica, representing to the Navy Board the conduct of the naval storekeeper in procuring money for bills of exchange, Rep. i. 7—Extract of a letter from Rear Admiral William Parker to the Navy Board, dated on board the "Swiftsure," at Port Royal, 5 May 1796, relative to the irregular conduct of Mr. Smith, naval officer at Jamaica, in taking up money for his bills, Rep. i. App. 38.

2. Arrear Accounts of the Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica :

Letter from Rear Admiral Parker to the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, dated 14 July 1795, relative to the arrear accounts of the naval storekeeper at Jamaica, Rep. i. App. 31, 32.

Payment of Prize Money. Recommendation of the Commissioners with respect to the future payment of shares of prize money by agents, Rep. iv. 271.

See also Distribution of Prize Money. Notification of Distribution. Prize Agency.

Payne, Admiral. See Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital.

Pembroke, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Pembroke, late Milford, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping, to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, distinguishing each year, Rep. v. App. 374.

Penalties. Neglect of the Commissioners of the Sixpenny Duty to proceed against parties for penalties imposed by various Acts or Parliament, Rep. v. 340, 341.

Penryn (Cornwall.) Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Penryn, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

Pensioners (Chest at Chatham.) Account of the number of pensioners actually paid from the chest at Chatham, in each year, since 1790, Rep. ii. App. 157—Account of the number of pensioners discharged well in the year 1802, with the amount of the pensions thereby saved to the chest, ib.—Account of the number of pensioners whose pensions have been increased in the year 1802, on account of their wounds or hurts getting worse, with the amount of the consequent increase of expense to the chest, ib. 158—Account of the number of pensioners whose pensions were reduced in the year 1802, on account of the amendment in their state of health; with the amount of saving to the chest thereby, ib. 159—Proposals submitted by Charles Hope, esq., for the consideration of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, with respect to pensioners of the chest at Chatham, ib. 169, 170.

See also Agents, I. Appearance of Pensioners. Certificates, 2. Chest at Chatham, 7. Greenwich Hospital, 2. Hurts. Imposition. Out-Pensioners.

Pensions for Wounds or Hurts. Terms upon which pensions are granted to the wounded or hurt in His Majesty's naval service from the chest at Chatham, Rep. ii. 123, 124.

Penzance, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Penzance, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

1—Reports, 1802—3—continued.

PER-CENTAGE ALLOWANCES :

1. Deputy Receivers of the Sixpenny Duty.
2. Bills of Dockyard Contractors.

1. Deputy Receivers of the Sixpenny Duty :

Recommendation of the Commissioners that the per-centage allowance to deputy receivers of sixpenny duty should be revised annually, Rep. v. 333.

2. Bills of Dockyard Contractors :

Copy of order of the Navy Board, discontinuing the abatement of the per centage upon the amount of the bills of Messrs. Taylor & Sons, under the block contract, Rep. iii. App. 217.

See also Commission. Tayler & Sons, Messrs. 2. Taylor, Walter, 2.

Perth (North Britain). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Perth, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

Plymouth Dockyard. Manner in which the supply of blockmakers' wares is made to the Plymouth yard for the use of His Majesty's navy, Rep. iii. 177—Account of certificates for blockmakers' wares, delivered by Mr. Bartholomew Dunsterville for Mr. Walter Taylor, for 1800, for Plymouth yard, Rep. iii. App. 204.

See also Certificates, 4. Dunsterville, Bartholomew.

Plymouth, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Plymouth, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

Poole (Dorset). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Poole, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

Port Patrick (North Britain). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Port Patrick, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

Portsmouth Dockyard. Manner in which Portsmouth dockyard is supplied with blockmakers' wares for the use of His Majesty's navy, Rep. iii. 176.

See also Block Machinery.

Portsmouth, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Portsmouth, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

Post Office. Notice should be given by agents of the Post Office to the naval officers on foreign stations, of the money they have occasion to remit, which should be the first money taken after such notice, Rep. i. 25.

Poulain and Keys, Messrs. Covenant of indemnity between Messrs. Poulain and Keys and Benjamin Hitchins for payments for shares of prize-money, Rep. iv. 261.

Poulain, James. Examination of Mr. James Poulain, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 20 June 1803, relative to the mode of conducting prize agency in His Majesty's navy, Rep. iv. App. 293-297—Further examination of Mr. James Poulain, continued on 21 June 1803, on the same subject, ib. 297-301—Further examination of Mr. James Poulain continued on 22 June 1803, ib. 301, 302.

Powers of Attorney. Observations of the Commissioners on the general character of the powers of attorney given by seamen to their prize agents, Rep. iv. 261, 262.

See also Forgeries. Registration of Powers of Attorney.

Premium on Bills of Exchange. Account of the amount of the premium on the bills drawn by the naval storekeeper in the island of Jamaica, between 1 January 1793 and 31 December 1800, Rep. i. 10.

See also Bills of Exchange. Exchanges. Negotiation of Bills.

1—Reports, 1802-3—continued.

Preston, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Preston, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

Prestonpans (North Britain). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Prestonpans, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on 30 September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

Prevention of Frauds. Recommendations of the Commissioners for the future prevention of frauds in the supply of articles of coopers' work to His Majesty's dockyards, Rep. iii. 193.

PRICES:

1. Stores and Supplies in Jamaica.
2. Government Contracts.
3. Block Contract.

1. Stores and Supplies in Jamaica:

Statement showing the prices paid by Mr. James Dick, naval storekeeper at Jamaica, for stores and supplies in the months of January and February 1800, and the prices paid by Government for the like articles in England, Rep. i. 13-15.

2. Government Contracts:

Recommendation of the Commissioners to do away with the present practice of making the prices of contracts subject to a variety of abatements and advances, Rep. iii. 185.

3. Block Contract:

Copy of postscript from the Navy Board, suspending the warrant granting an increase of price to Mr. Walter Taylor on his contract for the supply of blockmakers' wares, Rep. iii. App. 205—Copy of the order from the Navy Board, dated 23 August 1793, cancelling the postscript suspending the warrant allowing an increase of price to Mr. Walter Taylor on his contract for the supply of blockmakers' wares, ib. 207—Copy of orders of the Navy Board, dated 28 March 1801 and 19 February 1802, allowing the continuance of the increase of price to Messrs. Taylor & Sons, on their contract for the supply of articles of blockmakers' wares, ib. 218. 219.

See also Advances on Contracts. Ash Goods. Blockmakers' Wares, 1. Cordage.

Prize Agency. Observations of the Commissioners on the business of prize agency, and manner in which it is conducted, Rep. iv. 251-278.

See also Agents, II. Bate, Edward, 1. Claims, 2. Commission, 1. Distribution of Prizes. East Indies. Failure of Agents. Publicans. Recall Agents. Slopsellers. Willis & Waterhouse, Messrs.

Prize Money. Opinion of the Commissioners that no transfer by deed, will, or otherwise, or agreement for a transfer of any prize money, executed or made before notification of distribution of the prizes, should be valid, Rep. iv. 266.

See also Admiralty Court. Agents, II. Captains of Ships. Captured Vessels. Claims, 2. Distribution of Prizes. East Indies. Employment of Prize Money. Failure of Agents. Forgeries. Frauds, 2. Greenwich Hospital, 3. Inferior Agents. Nelson, Vice Admiral Lord Viscount. Notification of Distribution. Payment of Prize Money. Proceedings in Prize Causes. Publications. Recall Agents. Sale of Prizes. Sailors. Slopsellers. Unclaimed Prize Money. Vice Admiralty Courts.

Prize Office. Proposed plan for the establishment of a general prize office in London, under the management of three commissioners, who should have agents and correspondents at the out-ports, Rep. iv. 267-275—Observations of the Commissioners on the advantages which a general prize office offers for the conduct of the business of prize agency, Rep. iv. 275-277.—See also Establishment, 2. Salaries.

Proceedings in Prize Causes. Extract from the evidence of James Primrose Maxwell, esq., taken before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, relative to proceedings in prize causes, Rep. iv. 252-257.

Public Money. See Balances of Public Money. Buck, Sir Peter. Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica, 3. Receiver of Sixpenny Duty, 1.

Publicans. Observations of the Commissioners on the frauds practised on seamen by publicans and others at the out-ports, under the present system of prize agency, Rep. iv. 259, 260.

Purchase

Purchase of Stores. See Harmood, Henry. Losses. Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica, 5.
Rule, Sir William. Storekeeper at Foreign Stations. Stores, 1.

R.

Randall, Brent, & Garnett, Messrs. Observations of the Commissioners on the superiority of the articles of blockmakers' wares manufactured by Messrs. Randall, Brent, & Garnett, Rep. iii. 185, 186.

RASHLEIGH, JOHN:

1. Sixpenny Duty.
2. Dead Men's Wages.

1. Sixpenny Duty:

Account of the money in the hands of John Rashleigh, esq., receiver of the sixpenny duty, on the 17th May 1803, the day of his decease, on account of the duty of 6*d.* per month, payable by seamen in the merchants' service, to Greenwich Hospital, the moiety of run men's wages in the African trade, and of other forfeitures, Rep. v. App. 391.

2. Dead Men's Wages:

Account of the money in the hands of John Rashleigh, esq., receiver of the sixpenny duty, on the 17th May 1803, the day of his decease, on account of the wages of men dying in the West India trade, Rep. v. App. 392.

See also Commissioners of the Sixpenny Duty, 3. Receiver of Sixpenny Duty.

Rates of Exchange. Opinion of the Commissioners that the governors of colonies and the consuls abroad should be directed to send home monthly an account of the actual rates of Exchange within that period, Rep. i. 18.

Recall Agents. Observations of the Commissioners on the gross irregularities and abuses practised by recall agents in the distribution of prize money to seamen, Rep. iv. 259-261.

Receipts and Disbursements. See Chest at Chatham, 4. Sixpenny Receiver's Office, 6.

RECEIVER OF THE SIXPENNY DUTY:

1. Balances of Public Money.
2. Payment of Balances.

1. Balances of Public Money:

Opinion of the Commissioners that the monies in the hands of a receiver of the sixpenny duty upon demise or removal, should be paid over to his successor in office, Rep. v. 346.

2. Payment of Balances:

Manner in which the payments of the receiver to Greenwich Hospital of the money received by him within the year, are regulated, Rep. v. 347, 348—Recommendation of the Commissioners that the receiver of the sixpenny duty should in future pay over to the treasurer of Greenwich Hospital on the first day of every month, the amount of money in his hands on account, ib. 348.

See also Balances of Public Money. Dead Men's Wages, 2. Merchant Seamen's Hospital. Official Residence. Rashleigh, John. Signature of Receipts. Sixpenny Receiver's Office.

Records, Public. See Instructions to Officers, 3.

Reduction of Establishment. See Commissioners of the Sixpenny Duty. Compensation to Officers.

Reduction of Expenditure. Saving of expense in the collection of the sixpenny duty by the reduction of the commission of the deputy-receiver at Liverpool, Rep. v. 350.

Registrar-General of Shipping. See Assistant Registrar-General of Shipping. Shipping Tonnage.

Registration of Powers of Attorney. Observations of the Commissioners on the unnecessary length of time allowed prize agents for registering letters of attorney, Rep. iv. 265, 266.

"Regulus," His Majesty's Ship. See Finch, Thomas.

Relief. Observations of the Commissioners on the nature of the relief afforded to mariners and seamen from the funds of the chest at Chatham, Rep. ii. 119.

Remittances. See Deputy-Receiver's Office of Sixpenny Duty.

1—Reports, 1802-3—continued.

Removal from Office. Necessity of removing from their stations those officers who evade or neglect the faithful discharge of their duty, Rep. i. 20, 21.

“Requin,” the Ship. Circumstances attending the retention by Mr. Aubin of the proceeds of the capture of the “Requin,” Rep. iv. 265.

Revenues of the Hospital. See Greenwich Hospital, 6.

Rochester, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Rochester, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

Rothesay (North Britain). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Rothesay, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

Rule, Sir William. Examination of Sir William Rule, joint surveyor of the navy, and a member of the committee of stores, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 25th April 1803, relative to the purchase of stores by the naval storekeeper at Jamaica for the use of His Majesty's navy, Rep. i. App. 86.

Run Men's Wages. Observations of the Commissioners on the revenue derived by Greenwich Hospital from the moiety of the wages of run men in the African trade, Rep. v. 341, 342—Account of the gross and net produce of the moiety of run men's wages in the African trade collected in the ports of London, Liverpool, Bristol, and Lancaster, for the use of Greenwich Hospital, Rep. v. App. 381.—See also Forfeitures.

Rye, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Rye, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801 Rep. v. App. 374.

S.

Sailors. Observations of the Commissioners on the abominable frauds practised upon sailors with respect to their prize money, Rep. iv. 259, 266—Observations of the Commissioners on the tendency of the establishment of a general prize office to check and correct the impositions now practised on seamen with regard to their prize money, ib. 277, 278.—See also Shipping. Stoppage of Wages.

St. Ives (Cornwall). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of St. Ives, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

Salaries of Officers. Proposed scale of salaries to be allowed to the officers and clerks of the Sixpenny Duty Office, Rep. v. 349, 350.

See also Chest at Chatham, 3. Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica, 2. Sixpenny Receiver's Office, 1.

Sale of Prizes. Extract from the evidence of James Primrose Maxwell, esq., taken before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, relative to the sale of prizes captured at sea, Rep. iv. 254-256.—See also Prize Money.

Sandwich, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Sandwich, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

Scarborough (York). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Scarborough, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

Scilly. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Scilly, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

1—Reports, 1802-3—continued.

Seamen. See Merchant Service. Shipping. Stoppage of Wages.

Seamen's Hospital. See Merchant Seamen's Hospital.

Secretary to the Admiralty. See Nepean, Evan.

Seymour, Lord Hugh. Circumstance of Lord Hugh Seymour calling the attention of the Navy Board to the conduct of the naval storekeeper in the island of Jamaica, in procuring money on bills of exchange, Rep. i. 9—Extract of a letter from Lord Hugh Seymour to the Navy Board, dated on board the "Sanspareil," Port Royal, 21 December 1800, relative to the mode of procuring money by the naval officer at Jamaica for carrying on the public service, Rep. i, App. 43.

Sheerness Dockyard. See Irvin, Mr., Sen.

SHIPPING:

1. Great Britain.
2. United Kingdom and Channel Islands.

1. Great Britain:

Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually navigating the same, that have been registered in the several ports of Great Britain, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, distinguishing each year, each port, and England and Scotland, Rep. v. App. 373-375.

2. United Kingdom and Channel Islands:

Account of the number of ships, with their tonnage, and number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered at and belong to the several ports of the British dominions, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, distinguishing each year, Rep. v. App. 376.

See also Captured Vessels. Coasting Trade.

Ships entered Inwards. The collector's or comptroller's clerk in the port of London should transmit twice a week to the Sixpenny Office a report of the ships entered inwards from the West Indies, Rep. v. 345.

Shipwrights. See Stoppage of Wages.

Shivers. See Blockmakers' Wares, 1.

Shoreham (Sussex). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Shoreham, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

Signature of Receipts. Practice of the chief clerk to the receiver to sign receipts for the sixpenny duty as deputy to the receiver, and also as deputy to the comptroller, Rep. v. 339.

Sinecure Offices. Observation of the Commissioners on the sinecure offices of the Commissioners for the receipt of the sixpenny duty in Greenwich Hospital, Rep. v. 331, 332.

Sison, Edward. See Chest at Chatham, 5.

SIXPENNY DUTY:

1. Origin of the Duty.
2. Receipt of Duty.

1. Origin of the Duty:

Observations of the Commissioners on the origin of the sixpenny duty and its successive progress, Rep. v. 330.

2. Receipt of Duty:

Account of the sums paid into Greenwich Hospital by the receiver on account of the sixpenny duty during the last thirteen years, specifying the amount paid in each year, Rep. v. 335—Account of money paid Admiral Payne, treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, by the receiver of the duty of sixpence a man per month out of merchant seamen's wages between 1 January and 31 December 1802, Rep. v. App. 399-411.

See also Beaumaris, Port of, 1. Coasting Trade. Collection of the Sixpenny Duty. Commission, 2. Commissioners of the Sixpenny Duty. Crews of Vessels. Deputy Receivers of the Sixpenny Duty. Greenwich Hospital, 4. Irish Ports. London, Port of, 3. Liverpool, Port of, 1. Merchant Seamen's Hospital. Merchant Service, 2. Oddy, William. Penalties. Per-centage Allowances, 1. Receiver of the Sixpenny Duty. Reduction of Expenditure. Tide Surveyors.

SIXPENNY RECEIVER'S OFFICE :

1. Establishment.
2. Business of the Office.
3. Annual Accounts.
4. Deputy Receiver's Accounts (Ireland).
5. Balances of Public Money.
6. Receipts and Disbursements.

1. Establishment :

Account showing the present and proposed establishment of the Sixpenny Duty Office, together with the salaries of the officers and clerks, Rep. v. 349—Account of the establishment of the Sixpenny Receiver's Office for Greenwich Hospital as it stood the 6th April 1803, specifying the name and rank of each officer, by whom and when appointed, duration of interest, amount of salary and emoluments, &c., Rep. v. App. 354, 355.

2. Business of the Office :

Observations of the Commissioners on the duties of the Sixpenny Receiver's Office in Greenwich Hospital, and manner in which the business of the department is conducted, Rep. v. 329-335—Statement of the hours of business in the Sixpenny Receiver's Office for Greenwich Hospital, the number of holidays kept, and the general business of the office, and how conducted, Rep. v. App. 356.

3. Annual Accounts :

Recommendations of the Commissioners with respect to the making up of the annual account to Greenwich Hospital of the receipt of the sixpenny duty, Rep. 348, 349.

4. Deputy Receiver's Accounts (Ireland) :

Account of the state of the accounts of the deputy receiver's of the sixpenny duty to Greenwich Hospital, in Ireland, under the direction of Henry Kinsey, esq., with the names of the ports, receivers, the usual time of accounting, to what time the accounts have been received, to what time the balances have been paid, and the average annual amount of the receipt at each port, Rep. v. App. 380.

5. Balances of Public Money :

Account of the money in the hands of John Rashleigh, esq., receiver of the sixpenny duty, on 17 May 1803, the day of his decease, on account of the duty of sixpence per month, payable by seamen in the merchant service to Greenwich Hospital, the moiety of run men's wages in the African trade, and of other forfeitures, Rep. App. 391.

6. Receipts and Disbursements :

Account of monies received by the receiver of the sixpenny duty on account of Greenwich Hospital, from the year 1783 to 1802, inclusive, with the amount of salaries and incidental charges of the Sixpenny Office, and the net sums paid the treasurer of the hospital during the last twenty years, Rep. v. App. 393.

See also Accounts, 2. Arrear Accounts, 2. Attendance of Commissioners. Bate, Edward, 2. Blank Receipts. Compensation to Officers. Dead Men's Wages, 1. Eve, Charles. Fees. Forfeitures. Oaths. Salaries of Officers. Ships entered Inwards. Stanbridge, Charles, Sen.

Slade, Benjamin. Letter from Mr. Benjamin Slade, surveyor of Deptford dockyard, to Mr. Nelson, dated 27 June 1800, respecting the quantity of lignum vitæ now in the market, Rep. iii. App. 236.

Slaves. See Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica, 1.

Slopsellers. Observations of the Commissioners on the frauds practised on seamen by slopsellers and publicans at the outports, under the present system of prize agency, Rep. iv. 259.

Smith, Stephen. Letter from Mr. Stephen Smith, clerk of the survey at Woolwich yard, to the Honourable the Navy Board, dated 28 July 1802, respecting the frauds committed by contractors for coopers' work, Rep. iii. App. 245.

SMITH, WILLIAM :

1. Dismissal from Office.
2. Examination before the Commissioners of Inquiry.

1. Dismissal from Office :

Circumstances attending the dismissal of Mr. William Smith from the office of naval storekeeper in the island of Jamaica, Rep. i. 6, 7—Neglect of the Navy Board to call upon Mr. Smith to account for his conduct as naval storekeeper in the island of Jamaica, ib. 8.

2. Examination

SMITH, WILLIAM—continued.

2. Examination before the Commissioners of Inquiry:

Examination of Mr. William Smith, late naval store-keeper at Jamaica, taken upon oath in the Fleet prison, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 18 February 1803, respecting the administration of the affairs of his office, Rep. i. App. 58-64.

See also Admiralty Board, 1. Crown Lands (Jamaica). Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica, 2. 4. 7.

Southampton, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Southampton, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

Southwold (Suffolk). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Southwold, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

Specie. Occasion of the Government, in the year 1781, sending out 40,000 l. in specie to Jamaica, 5,000 l. of which was remitted to the naval storekeeper in December of the same year, Rep. i. 17.

Stanbridge, Charles, Senior. Examination of Mr. Charles Stanbridge, senior, clerk to the accountant of the Sixpenny Office, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 28 July 1803, relative to the duties of the officers and clerks in the Sixpenny Receiver's Office, and manner in which the business of the department is conducted, Rep. v. App. 370-372.

Stockton, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Stockton, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

Stoppage of Wages. Account of the amount stopped out of the wages of every mariner, seaman, and shipwright towards the support of the chest at Chatham, Rep. ii. 118.

Storekeepers at Foreign Stations. Copy of directions to naval storekeepers on foreign stations for the guidance of their conduct in procuring money for their bills of exchange, and in making purchases of stores, Rep. i. 4-6.

See also Accounts, 1. Admiralty Board, 1. 2. Arrear Accounts, 1. Broughton, Henry. Certificates, 1. Dick, James. Examination of Accounts, 1. Exchanges. Forms of Accounts, 1. Incidental Expenses. Instructions to Officers, 1. 2. Jamaica, 1. Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica. Navy Board, 2. Negotiation of Bills. Smith, William. Specie. Stores, 1.

STORES:

1. Purchase of Stores.
2. Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica.

1. Purchase of Stores:

Copy of directions to naval storekeepers on foreign stations for the conduct in making purchases of stores, Rep. i. 4-6—Regulations under which stores wanted at foreign stations are procured for the use of the navy, ib. 20.

2. Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica:

Irregularity of Mr. Dick, naval storekeeper at Jamaica, in the transmission of his accounts of stores expended and remaining, and of demands for the probable exigencies of the service, Rep. i. 12—Annual account of the amount of charges made by the naval officer at Jamaica, from 1 January 1797 to 31 December 1801, under the heads of purchase of stores, hard wood, and lumber, pay to artificers of the yard, and hired artificers, Rep. i. App. 113.

See also Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica, 5. Prices, 1. Storekeepers at Foreign Stations.

Stornaway (North Britain). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Stornaway, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

1.—Reports, 1802-3—continued.

Stranraer (North Britain). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Stranraer, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

Sub-Contractors. See Contracts, 1.

Sunderland, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Sunderland, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

Supplies. Observations of the Commissioners on the evil attending the mode of procuring supplies for the naval service, by the naval storekeeper at Jamaica, Rep. i. 12—Letter from the Navy Board to Vice-Admiral Lord Hugh Seymour, commander-in-chief at Jamaica, dated 1 October 1800, relative to the purchase and supply of stores by the naval storekeeper at Jamaica, for the use of the public service, Rep. i. App. 90, 91.

See also Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica, 5. Prices, 1.

Surveyor of the Navy. See Rule, Sir William.

Swansea, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and of the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Swansea, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

T.

Tadd, Stephen. Account drawn out by Stephen Tadd, master mast maker in Woolwich dockyard, of the number of wood hoops on ships' masts, between 11 March 1800 and 11 December 1801, Rep. iii. App. 246-248.

Tanner, Thomas. Deposition of Thomas Tanner, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 21st April 1803, respecting his duties and charges as agent to the chest pensioners at Chatham, Rep. ii. 169.

TAYLOR & SONS, MESSRS :

1. Advance on Contract Prices.
2. Per-centage on Contractors' Bills.

1. Advance on Contract Prices :

Letter from Messrs. Taylor & Sons to the Commissioners of the Navy Board, dated 23 June 1800, representing the scarcity of lignum vitæ, and comparative view of the difference in price of blocks with coaked shivers and brass shivers, Rep. iii. App. 214, 215—Letter from Messrs. Walter Taylor & Sons to the Navy Board, dated 23 March 1801, requesting a continuance of the advance on the contract price for the supply of articles of blockmakers' wares, ib. 217, 218—Letter from Messrs. Walter Taylor & Sons to the Navy Board, dated 8 February 1802, requesting a continuance of the advance on their contract, ib. 218, 219—Letter from Messrs. Walter Taylor & Sons to the Navy Board, dated 4 March 1802, requesting a continuance for six months' longer of the advance on their contract for the supply of articles of blockmakers' wares, ib. 219, 220.

2. Per-centage on Contractors' Bills :

Letter from Messrs Walter Taylor & Sons to the Navy Board, dated 30 June 1800, respecting a per-centage upon the amount of their bills, Rep. iii. App. 216, 217.

See also Advances on Contracts. Per-centage Allowances, 2.

TAYLOR, WALTER :

1. Block Contract.
2. Increase of Prices.

1. Block Contract :

Observations of the Commissioners on the contract entered into with Mr. Walter Taylor, of Southampton, for supplying His Majesty's dockyards with blockmakers' wares, Rep. iii. 175-180—Extract of the conditions of a contract entered into by Mr. Walter Taylor with the Navy Board, dated 8 April 1791, for the supply of articles of blockmakers' wares, Rep. iii. App. 197, 198.

2. Increase

TAYLOR, WALTER—continued.

2. Increase of Prices :

Letter from Walter Taylor, esq. to the Navy Board, dated 23 July 1793, requesting an increase of price on his contract for the supply of blockmakers' wares to the Royal dock-yards, Rep. iii. App. 204—Letter from Mr. Taylor to the Navy Board, dated 19 August 1793, respecting the suspension of the warrant of the Commissioners of the Navy, granting an increase of price on his contract for the supply of articles of blockmakers' wares, ib. 205-207—Letter from Mr. Walter Taylor to the Navy Board, dated 1 May 1799, requesting an increase of the contract price for ash goods supplied to His Majesty's dock-yards, ib. 213.

See also Blockmakers' Wares, 2. Certificates, 4.

Tenders for Contracts. Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of making tenders for contracts in the navy for articles of blockmaking, Rep. iii. 175-180.

Thurso (North Britain). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Thurso, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

Tide Surveyors. Observations of the Commissioners on the practice of tide waiters giving false clearing notes, certifying that the Greenwich Hospital duty has been paid, Rep. v. 339.

Tobermory (North Britain). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Tobermory, and appear by the books of the register of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

TONNAGE :

1. Great Britain.
2. United Kingdom and Channel Islands.

1. Great Britain :

Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the several ports of Great Britain, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th of September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, distinguishing each year, each port, and England from Scotland, Rep. v. App. 373-375.

2. United Kingdom and the Channel Islands :

Account of the number of ships, with their tonnage, and number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered, and belong to the several ports of the British dominions, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, distinguishing each year, Rep. v. App. 376.

Transfer of Prizes. See Prize-money.

Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital. Account of the money paid Admiral Payne, treasurer of Greenwich hospital, by the receiver of the duty of 6*d.* a man per month, out of merchant seamen's wages, between the 1st January 1802, and 31st December following, Rep. v. App. 399-411.

See also Out Pensioners. Sixpenny Receiver's Office, 6. Unclaimed Prize Money.

Truro (Cornwall). Account of the number of ships and vessels with their tonnage, and of the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Truro, as appears by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800 and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

Twopenny, Edward Soan. Examination of Edward Soan Twopenny, esq., attorney to the chest at Chatham, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 21st April 1803 relative to the value of the Chest estates, and mode of granting leases of the same, Rep. ii. App. 161.

1—Reports, 1802-3—continued.

U.

Unclaimed Prize-money. Observations of the Commissioners on the payment over to the treasurer of Greenwich Hospital of all unclaimed prize-money, Rep. iv. 261—Inconvenience of allowing prize agents abroad the option of paying the forfeited or unclaimed shares to the treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, or to his deputies abroad, ib. 266.

See also Cook, William, Ely. Finch, Thomas.

Unclaimed Wages. Observations of the Commissioners with respect to the disposal of the unclaimed wages of seamen dying on board ships in the West India trade belonging to ports in America and the West Indies, Rep. v. 345.

See also Dead Men's Wages, 4. Expenses of Collection.

United Kingdom. See Shipping.

V.

Vessels. See Captured Vessels. Coasting Trade. Crews of Vessels.

Vice Admiralty Courts. Observations of the Commissioners on the irregularities in the distribution of prize-money in the East Indies from the absence of Vice-admiralty courts, Rep. iv. 265.—See also Jackson, Joseph.

W.

Wade, William Richard. Connexion of William Richard Wade with the bill transactions of the naval storekeeper at Jamaica, Rep. i. 21.

Wages. Annual account of the amount of charges made by the naval officer at Jamaica, from 1 January 1797 to 31 December 1801, under the head of pay to artificers of the yard, and hired artificers, Rep. i. App. 113.

See also Chest at Chatham, 6. Dead Men's Wages. Run Men's Wages. Stoppage of Wages. Unclaimed Wages.

Wallace, Captain James, R. N. Copy of letter from Captain James Wallace to Vice Admiral Roddam, dated on board the "Magnificent" 25 March 1791, respecting Messrs. Garnett and Co.'s blocks, Rep. iii. App. 235.

Warrants. Observations of the Commissioners on the loose manner in which the warrants of the Navy Board are worded, and differently interpreted, and acted upon at the several dockyards, Rep. iii. 184, 185.

Waterhouse, Mr. See Willis and Waterhouse, Messrs.

Wells (Norfolk). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Wells, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

West India Station. See Commanders-in-Chief. Instructions to Officers, 2.

West India Trade. Observations of the Commissioners on the Act authorizing the receipt of the wages of men dying on board ships in the West India trade, to be paid to the receiver of the sixpenny duty, Rep. v. 342, 343.

See also Currency. Dead Men's Wages, 1. Henry, Alexander. Hibbert, George. Hughan, Thomas. Milligan, Robert. Unclaimed Wages. Willis, John.

Weymouth, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Weymouth, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

Whitby, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Whitby, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

WHITEHAVEN (CUMBERLAND):

1. Registered Tonnage and Shipping.
2. Dead Men's Wages.

1. Registered Tonnage and Shipping:

Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Whitehaven, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

2. Dead Men's Wages:

Account of the gross amount of money received at the port of Whitehaven on account of the wages of men dying in the West India trade, from the passing of the Act on the 1st July 1797 to 31 December 1802, Rep. v. App. 387.

Whyte, John. Letter from John Whyte, esq., to the Vice-Admiral Sir Hyde Parker, commander-in-chief at Jamaica, dated 2 June 1797, relative to the circulation of base copper coin in that island, Rep. i. App. 97.

Wigtown (North Britain). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Wigtown, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 375.

Willis & Waterhouse, Messrs. Observations of the Commissioners on the large sums of money retained by Messrs. Willis & Waterhouse, the principal agency house in Jamaica for navy prize money, Rep. iv. 262, 263.—Statement of Messrs. Willis & Waterhouse in account current with Mr. John Finch, of His Majesty's ship "Regulus," Rep. iv. App. 317.—See also Devis, Henry. Finch, Thomas.

Willis, John. Examination of John Willis, esq., a West India merchant, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 9th February 1803, respecting the rate of exchange on navy bills circulated in the island of Jamaica, Rep. i. App. 69.

Wills See Forgeries.

Wisbeach, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Wisbeach, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

Wood Hoops. Accounts drawn out by the master mastmaker, of the number of wood hoops on ships' masts between 11 March 1800 and 11 December 1801, and the names of the ships whose masts are certified to have been furnished with wood hoops, but in fact were not furnished with any, Rep. iii. App. 246.

Woodbridge (Suffolk). Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Woodbridge, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

WOOLWICH DOCKYARD:

1. Block Contract.
2. Frauds; Coopers' Work.

1. Block Contract:

Manner in which Woolwich dockyard is supplied with blockmakers' wares for the use of the Royal navy, Rep. iii. 176.

2. Frauds; Coopers' Work:

Statement taken from the Navy Board's Letter of the 17th July 1802, of the charge made by Messrs. Michael and John Hedges for coopers' work at Woolwich yard, between 12 December and 1 May 1802, and the amount of work actually performed, and of the materials delivered, Rep. iii. 192.

See also Baker, Joseph. Certificates, 3. Contracts, 2. Coopers' Work, 2.
Fox, Thomas. Foster, William. Gunton, William. Hedges, Michael & John, Messrs. Smith, Stephen. Tadd, Stephen.

1—Reports, 1802-3—continued.

Wounded or Hurt. Process by which a person wounded or hurt in His Majesty's naval service, is enabled to claim relief from the chest at Chatham, Rep. ii. 123.

Y.

Yarmouth, Port of. Account of the number of ships and vessels, with their tonnage, and the number of men and boys usually employed in navigating the same, that have been registered in the port of Yarmouth, and appear by the books of the register-general of shipping to have been in existence on the 30th September in the years 1799, 1800, and 1801, Rep. v. App. 374.

Yeats, George. Examination of Mr. George Yeats, clerk in the office for bills and accounts in the navy office, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, touching the contract entered into with Mr. Walter Taylor, for the supply of His Majesty's yards with articles of blockmakers' wares, Rep. iii. App. 232-235.

Young, Adams, & Corson, Messrs. Observations of the Commissioners on the contract for coopers' wares to be delivered at Woolwich dockyard, held by Messrs. Young, Adams and Corson, Rep. iii. 189.—See also Coopers' Work, 1.

2. Nabal Enquiry. 1803-4.

Sixth Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, appointed by Act 43 Geo. 3, (Plymouth Yard; Woolwich Yard); dated 2 May 1804 (83.)

Sess. Vol. V. p. 1.

Seventh Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, appointed by Act 43 Geo. 3, (Naval Hospital at East Stonehouse; Le Caton Hospital Ship); dated 11 July 1804 (172.) - - - - Sess. Vol. V. p. 541.

Eighth Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, appointed by Act 43 Geo. 3, (His Majesty's Victualling Department at Plymouth; Embezzlement of the King's Casks); dated 16 July 1804 (179.)

Sess. Vol. V. p. 637.

[N. B.—In this Index the Numerals vi. vii. and viii. following Rep. refer to the Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth Reports, and the Figures refer to the printed Paging of the Reports and Appendices respectively.]

A.

ABOLITION OF FEES. See Fees, 1.ABUSES:

1. Plymouth Yard.
2. Woolwich Yard.

1. Plymouth Yard:

Observations of the Commissioners on the abuses and irregularities that have existed in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, and manner in which they have arisen, Rep. vi. 124-127.

2. Woolwich Yard:

Observations of the Commissioners on the abuses and irregularities existing in the payment of artificers and labourers at Woolwich yard, Rep. vi. 136-147.

See also Anonymous Letters. Caton Hospital Ship. Fees, 2. Inspector-General of Naval Works. Victualling Department at Plymouth, 2.

Accountant's Office. Observations of the Commissioners with respect to the establishment of an office in each of His Majesty's yards, for arranging and drawing out the accounts, Rep. vi. 131.

ACCOUNTS:

1. Shipwrights at Plymouth Yard.
2. Value of Works performed
3. General System of Accounts.
4. Woolwich Yard.
5. Royal Hospital at Plymouth.
6. Sick and Wounded Office.
7. Victualling Office at Southdown.

1. Shipwrights at Plymouth Yard:

Description of the situations of the persons employed in taking and checking the accounts of the earnings of the shipwrights in Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. 24, 25—Observations of the Commissioners on the very loose manner in which the job accounts of the shipwrights in Plymouth yard are kept, ib. 31, 32.

2. Value of Works performed:

Observations of the Commissioners on the difficulty of keeping faithful and regular accounts of the various and minute works to be performed, and the price to be allowed for them, in His Majesty's yards, Rep. vi. 125, 126.

3. General System of Accounts:

Opinion of the Commissioners on the importance of revising and forming accounts suitable to the very extended scale of the naval service, and in establishing a general system, Rep. vi. 134.

ACCOUNTS—continued.3. Woolwich Yard :

Observations of the Commissioners on the fallacy of the accounts rendered of work performed by the artificers and labourers in Woolwich yard, Rep. vi. 136-139.

5. Royal Hospital at Plymouth :

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of keeping the accounts of the medical department of the navy at Plymouth Hospital, Rep. vii. 555, 556.

6. Sick and Wounded Office :

Recommendation of the Commissioners that extra clerks be immediately engaged in the Sick and Wounded Office, and exclusively employed in bringing up the accounts in arrear, Rep. vii. 556.

7. Victualling Office at Southdown :

Observations of the Commissioners on the loose manner in which the accounts of the coopers' work are kept at the victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. 640, 641.

See also Arrear Accounts. Audit of Accounts. Comptroller of the Navy, 1. Copying Accounts. Day Books. Examination of Accounts. Falsification of Accounts. Forms of Accounts. Office of Accounts. Sick and Wounded Board, 1. Victualling Department at Plymouth, 4. 8.

Adams, James. Examination of Mr. James Adams, Surveyor to His Majesty's Naval Hospital at East Stonehouse, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 4th November 1803, relative to the duties of his office, and manner in which the business of the Royal Hospital is conducted, Rep. viii. App. 611-613.

Adjudication of Magistrate. Copy of the adjudication of the Rev. Jonathan Williams, clerk, one of the justices of the peace for the county of Devon, in the case of Messrs. Dansey, White & Co., of Plymouth, for the embezzlement of the King's casks from His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. App. 745.

ADMIRALTY BOARD :

1. Job Work at Plymouth Yard.
2. Visitation of Plymouth Yard.
3. His Majesty's Ship "Amaranthe."
4. Employment of Artificers.
5. Dismissal of Officers.

1. Job Work at Plymouth Yard :

Observations of the Commissioners with respect to the conduct of the Board of Admiralty in directing the employment of the shipwrights in Plymouth yard by the job, Rep. vi. 26, 27—Letter from the Secretary of the Admiralty to the officers of His Majesty's dockyards, dated 12 November 1802, approving of the workmen being employed by job, Rep. vi. App. 329.

2. Visitation of Plymouth Yard :

Discovery of abuses existing in Plymouth yard by the Board of Admiralty in 1802, upon the occasion of their visitation, Rep. vi. 45, 46.

3. His Majesty's Ship "Amaranthe" :

Proceedings taken by the Lords of the Admiralty in the case of the repairs of His Majesty's ship "Amaranthe," Rep. vi. 140.

4. Employment of Artificers :

Copy of Admiralty order to the Navy Board, dated 10 March 1803, directing them to employ the artificers in His Majesty's yards as much extra as possible, Rep. vi. App. 330—Copy of Admiralty order to the Navy Board, dated 12 March 1803, directing that the workmen in His Majesty's dockyards should work extra time, without limiting the extras to the ships ordered to be fitted, ib. 331.

5. Dismissal of Officers :

Copy of orders of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated 10 March 1802, to dismiss the master shipwright, storekeeper, and clerk of the survey, from His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, Rep. vi. App. 405-407.

See also Dismissal of Officers, 3. Extra Tides, 2. 5. Instruction to Officers, 2. Job Work, 1. Royal Hospital at Plymouth, 6.

ADVANCES ON CONTRACT PRICES:

1. "Le Caton" Hospital Ship Contract.
2. Objection to the System of Advances on Contracts.

1. "Le Caton" Hospital Ship Contract:

Circumstance of the contractor for victualling the sick and wounded on board "Le Caton" hospital ship applying to the Sick and Wounded Board for an advance of price on his contract, Rep. vii. 559.

2. Objection to the System of Advances on Contracts:

Objection of the Commissioners to the principle of making advances on the contract price; they should never be made without full investigation into all the circumstances of the case, Rep. vii. 561.—See also Horse Contracts, 2.

Agent of the Royal Hospital (Plymouth). Observations of the Commissioners on the nature of the duties of the agent of the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, Rep. vii. 544, 545.

See also Official Residences, 2. Salaries of Officers, 1. Searle, George.

AGENT VICTUALLER AT PLYMOUTH:

1. Embezzlement of the King's Casks.
2. Master Cooper's Regulations.

1. Embezzlement of the King's Casks:

Circumstance of the agent victualler at Plymouth receiving intimation that some butts and casks belonging to the Victualling Office were concealed at Messrs. Dansey, White & Co.'s, of the Tamar brewery, Rep. viii. 648—Observations of the Commissioners on the conduct of the agent victualler in withholding information relative to the embezzlement of the king's casks from the Victualling Office at Southdown, Rep. viii. 653, 654.

2. Master Cooper's Regulations:

Copy of a letter from the Victualling Board to Mr. Miller, their agent at Plymouth, dated 13 February 1800, directing him to carry into effect the regulations adopted by the master cooper for the more effectually carrying on the service of his department, Rep. viii. App. 676.

See also Depositions. Miller, Thomas. Prosecution.

Agreement. Copy of agreement entered into the 1st March 1794, between the purser of His Majesty's hospital ship Le Caton and George Bourchier Worgan, surgeon's first mate of the said ship, for supplying and providing the sick and wounded seamen with provisions and necessaries, Rep. vii. App. 627-629.

ALLOWANCES TO WORKMEN:

1. Chip Money.
2. Sailmakers at Plymouth Yard.

1. Chip Money:

Table of allowances in money given to the workmen in His Majesty's yards for the loss of the chips, Rep. vi. 7.

2. Sailmakers at Plymouth Yard:

Account of the allowances proposed to be established, in the scheme for employing the sailmakers by task, in accounting for the several parts of the workmanship, Rep. vi. App. 477, 478.

See also Artificers, 1. Braziers. Chips. Coopers' Work, 1. Lodging Money. Riggers and Riggers' Labourers, 3. Sheerness Dockyard, 5.

"AMARANTHE," HER MAJESTY'S SHIP:

1. Repair of Ship by Job Work.
2. Cost of Repairs.
3. Deptford Officer's Report.

1. Repair of Ship by Job Work:

Observations of the Commissioners on the very striking instance of abuse which occurred in the repair of His Majesty's ship "Amaranthe," of 24 guns, carried on by the job at Woolwich yard, Rep. vi. 139-144.

2. Cost of Repairs:

Statement of the expense of each class of artificers employed in the repairs of the "Amaranthe," in His Majesty's yard at Woolwich, in the years 1800 and 1801, Rep. vi. 142, and App. 509—Account showing what was the expense of workmanship of each class of artificers employed in the repairs of the "Amaranthe," hull, masts, yards, in the years 1800 and 1801, Rep. vi. App. 526.

“AMARANTHE,” HER MAJESTY’S SHIP—continued.

3. Deptford Officer’s Report :

Copy of report of the officers of His Majesty’s yard at Deptford, of the state of the “Amaranthe” when paid off, bearing date 6 and 9 February 1804, Rep. vi. App. 532, 533.

See also Admiralty Board, 3. Boys, Captain. Deptford Dockyard, 3. Patten, Vice-Admiral. Tavery, Mr.

Ancell, John. Examination of Mr. John Ancell, assistant to the master shipwright of Plymouth yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 8 September 1803, relative to the duties of his office and the manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 272-279.

Anonymous Letters. Copy of an anonymous letter to the Hon. Admiral Cornwallis, dated Southdown, port of Plymouth, 11 September 1801, complaining of the conduct of the master cooper and his foreman at the victualling yard at Plymouth, Rep. viii. App. 677.

See also Martin, T.

“Antelope,” His Majesty’s Ship. Comparison of the expense attending the performance of the works required of His Majesty’s ship “Antelope” by job, with the sums which would have been allowed if the same works had been performed by task, Rep. vi. 128—Account showing the expense of completing the “Antelope” by job, Rep. vi. App. 496.

APPRENTICES :

1. Wages of Shipwrights’ Apprentices.
2. Employment of Apprentices.
3. Mastmakers’ Work.
4. Master Shipwrights and Assistants.
5. Plymouth Yard.
6. Ropeyard at Plymouth.

1. Wages of Shipwrights’ Apprentices :

Observations of the Commissioners on the rate of wages of apprentices paid to shipwrights in Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. 25—Abolition of the emoluments of the officers, arising from the pay of apprentices, by Order of Council of May 1801, and establishment of fixed annual salaries in lieu of them, ib. 25, 26.

2. Employment of Apprentices :

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of employment and payment of apprentices in His Majesty’s yard at Plymouth, Rep. vi. 120-124.

3. Mastmakers’ Work :

Expediency of bringing up a certain number of apprentices exclusively to the business of mast-making and boat-building in His Majesty’s dockyards, Rep. vi. 52. 64.

4. Master Shipwrights and Assistants :

Recommendation of the Commissioners that the master shipwrights, and the assistants of the several yards, should have the same number of apprentices as formerly, but they should not be allowed to take any premium, or to derive any advantage from their wages, Rep. vi. 123, 124.

5. Plymouth Yard :

Statement showing the number of apprentices allowed to each officer in His Majesty’s yard at Plymouth, with the amount of their pay during each year of their apprenticeship, Rep. vi. 121—Abstract account of the number of apprentices allowed to the officers and foremen of His Majesty’s yard at Plymouth, with the amount of their pay in each year from 1790 inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 408-411.

6. Ropeyard at Plymouth :

Abstract account of the number of apprentices allowed to the officers and foremen of the ropeyard at Plymouth, with the amount of their pay in each year, from 1790 to Midsummer quarter 1803, Rep. vi. App. 412, 413.

See also Artificers, 3. Plymouth Dockyard, 5. Quartermen of Shipwrights, 1. Ropeyard at Plymouth, 4. Wages, II. 2.

ARREAR ACCOUNTS :

1. Plymouth Dockyard.
2. Sick and Wounded Office.
3. Victualling Department at Plymouth.

1. Plymouth Dockyard :

Observations of the Commissioners on the complicated and voluminous accounts of the job work in Plymouth yard, and delay in the payment of the workmen's wages in consequence, Rep. vi. 48.

2. Sick and Wounded Office :

Observations of the Commissioners on the arrears in the office for foreign accounts in the sick and wounded department of the navy, Rep. vii. 556.

3. Victualling Department at Plymouth :

Observations of the Commissioners on the arrears of the quarterly accounts of the store-keeper of the victualling department at Plymouth, Rep. viii. 642, 643.

See also Accounts, 6. Sick and Wounded Board, 1.

Arsenal at Plymouth. Date of the establishment of the naval arsenal at Plymouth, Rep. vi. 3.

ARTIFICERS :

1. Plymouth Yard.
2. Woolwich Yard.
3. Apprentices to Artificers.
4. Hours of Labour.

1. Plymouth Yard :

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of employing and paying the several classes of artificers in Plymouth dockyard, Rep. vi. 8, 9—Account of the artificers and labourers established and borne at Plymouth yard, on 6 September 1803, with their rates of pay and allowances, and the times when such rates and allowances were established, Rep. vi. App. 190-193.

2. Woolwich Yard :

Observations of the Commissioners on the system of employment and payment of the artificers and labourers at Woolwich yard, Rep. vi. 137-139.

3. Apprentices to Artificers :

Observation of the Commissioners on the practice, in Plymouth yard, of allotting apprentices to artificers, Rep. vi. 123.

4. Hours of Labour :

Account showing what time the shipwrights and other artificers and labourers in Plymouth dockyard have been respectively directed to work, from 1 January 1793 to 30 June 1803, stating the different periods, the mode of employment, and after what rate of pay they were set off in each period, Rep. vi. App. 432-443.

See also Cawsand Bay. Classification of Workmen. Daily Pay, 1. 2. Day Work. Double Pay. Earnings of Workmen. Extra Tides, 1. 2. 4. Extra Wages, 1. Hours of Labour. Job Work, II. Limitation of Earnings. Lodging Money. Over Time. Pay, 2. 3. Payment of Wages, 1. Pensions. Piece Work, 2. 3. Plymouth Dockyard, 4. Portsmouth Dockyard, 2. Superannuations. Task Work, II. 1. Wages, I. 1. II. 1.

Assizes. Observations of the Commissioners on the negligence both of the agent victualler and the attorney in not prosecuting Messrs. Dansey, White & Co. at the assizes, for embezzlement of the King's casks from the Victualling Office at Southdown, Rep. viii. 655, 656.

Attorney to the Navy Board. Circumstance of the agent victualler at Plymouth employing Mr. Pridham, an attorney, in the case of the embezzlement of the King's casks from the Victualling Office, instead of the attorney to the Navy Board, Rep. viii. 654, 655.

See also Eastlake, Mr. Pridham, Joseph. Prosecutions.

Audit of Accounts. The accounts of the navy are final, they are not audited or examined, Rep. vi. 135.

B.

- Baird, Dr. Andrew. Extract of a letter from Doctor Andrew Baird, Commissioner of the Sick and Wounded Board, and Inspector of Naval Hospitals, to Sir Evan Nepean, bart., dated 14 June 1803, relative to the expenses of the Royal Naval Hospital at Plymouth, Rep. vii. App. 606—Examination of Dr. Andrew Baird, one of the Commissioners of sick and hurt, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 5 November 1803, relative to the medical staff attached to His Majesty's Naval Hospital at East Stonehouse, ib. 615, 616—Further examination of Dr. Andrew Baird before the Commissioners, relative to the performance of surgical operations at the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, ib. 616.
- Barge Building. Statement of the prices at present allowed by the Navy Board's warrants for building and completing and for repairing barges in His Majesty's dockyards, Rep. vi. 63.
- Barrett, John. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of John Barrett, a quarterman of shipwrights in Plymouth yard, with reference to making out the job accounts of the artificers and labourers, Rep. vi. 32, 33—Examination of Mr. John Barrett, a quarterman of shipwrights in Plymouth yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 15 September 1803, relative to the duties of his office and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 308, 309.
- Baskerville, Henry. Examination of Mr. Henry Baskerville, foreman of the coopers in His Majesty's victualling department at Southdown, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 11 November 1803, relative to the duties of his office and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. viii. App. 677-679.
See also Master Cooper at Southdown.
- Bastard, Mr. John. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Mr. Bastard, with respect to the over-payments made to the shipwrights in Plymouth dockyard, Rep. vi. 42—Letter from Mr. John Bastard, late master shipwright's assistant at Plymouth dockyard, to the honourable Navy Board, dated 25 April 1803, relative to the manner in which the workmen had been paid for the extra time, Rep. vi. App. 324.
- Bavins. Occasion of communications being made to the Victualling Board, stating that frauds had been practised in the supply of bavins by contract to the victualling department at Plymouth, Rep. viii. 643, 644.
- Baylis, John. Examination of Mr. John Baylis, first clerk to the steward of His Majesty's Naval Hospital at Stonehouse, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 1 November 1803, relative to the manner in which the business of the steward's department has been conducted, Rep. vii. App. 590-603.
- Bedding. See Royal Hospital at Plymouth, 3.
- Bedford, Walter. Examination of Mr. Walter Bedford, clerk of the cheque in His Majesty's victualling department at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 12 November 1803, touching the duties of his situation, and manner in which the accounting branch of the service is conducted, Rep. viii. App. 686-689.
- Beer. Observations of the Commissioners on the bad quality of the beer supplied to the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, Rep. vii. 548, 549.
- Belfour, John Daniel. Amount paid by the Navy Board to Mr. Belfour, for his superintendence of the erection of the machines invented by him in Plymouth dockyard, Rep. vi. 119, 120.
- Bevans, Mary. Examination of Mrs. Mary Bevans, matron of His Majesty's Naval Hospital at Stonehouse, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 3 November 1803, relative to the mode of conducting the business of the matron's department in the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, Rep. vii. App. 603, 604.
- Binmer, John. Examination of John Binmer, esq., assistant to the surveyors of His Majesty's navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 12 January 1804, relative to the preparation of the schedule of prices of job and task work in Plymouth dockyard, Rep. vi. App. 312-314.
- Blake, Richard. Examination of Mr. Richard Blake, foreman of the shipwrights in His Majesty's yard at Woolwich, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 27 January 1804, relative to the duties of his office, and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 515, 516.

Block Coopers. Mode of employing and paying the block coopers at the victualling department at Plymouth and Southdown, Rep. viii. 640, 641.

See also Lyne, Edward. Penn, James. Philips, Philip. Waymouth, John.

Blockmakers. Statement, showing the number of blockmakers at present employed in Plymouth yard, with their rates of pay and allowances, and average yearly amount of wages, Rep. vi. 85—Abstract account of the average number of blockmakers borne in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, with the amount of their wages in the following years, 1758-1780, and in the several years from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 377.

BOATBUILDERS' WORK:

1. Plymouth Yard.
2. Portsmouth Yard.
3. Prices of building and repairing Boats.
4. Value of Work.

1. Plymouth Yard:

Observations of the Commissioners on the manner in which the boatbuilders' department in Plymouth dockyard is conducted, Rep. vi. 53-62.

2. Portsmouth Yard:

Extract from letter of the officers of Portsmouth dockyard to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 30 October 1793, respecting the repairing of boats by job, Rep. vi. App. 356, 357—Letter from the Surveyors of the Navy to the Portsmouth Officers, dated 20 February 1795, directing them to propose prices to the Navy Board for repairing boats by job, ib. 358.

3. Prices of building and repairing Boats:

Statement of the prices at present allowed by the Navy Board Warrants for building and completing and for the repairing boats in His Majesty's yards, Rep. vi. 63—Copy of Warrant, dated 7 November 1794, establishing prices for building boats by task in Plymouth dockyard, Rep. vi. App. 355—Copy of warrant of the Navy Board, dated 13 March 1795, establishing a scheme for repairing boats by job in Plymouth dockyard, ib.—Account of the prices per foot to be allowed the shipwrights of Plymouth yard for repairing boats, ib. 356—Comparative account of the expense of building and completing the several classes of boats for His Majesty's fleet in the several yards, ib. 370, 371.

4. Value of Work:

Account of the monthly value of works performed by job by the shipwrights employed in the boat-house in Plymouth dockyard, also the amount of their wages at the rate of two for one, from the first introduction of the job work in March 1795 to 31 December 1802, Rep. vi. App. 364, 365.

See also Chatham Dockyard, 4. Deptford Dockyard, 1. Hutchocking, Job Work, II. 3. Navy Board, 7. Pinnaces, Portsmouth Dockyard, 1. Prices, 4. Sheerness Dockyard, 1. Surveyors of the Navy, Tuson, William. Value of Work, I. 2. Wages, II. 3. Woolwich Dockyard, 2.

Bonalluck, John. Circumstance of his receiving extra pay as superintendent of the teams in Plymouth yard when prevented by sickness from attending to his duty, Rep. vi. 59, 60.

Bone, George. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of George Bone, relative to the making out of the job accounts of the shipwrights in Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. 31, 32—Examination of George Bone, shipwright belonging to Plymouth yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 14 September 1803, relative to the duties of his situation, and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 287-292.

Books. See Pay Books.

Boys, Captain. Circumstance of Captain Boys making a report of the unseaworthiness of His Majesty's ship "Amaranihe," Rep. vi. 140.

Brain, Joseph. Examination of Mr. Joseph Brain, foreman of the shipwrights in Woolwich yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 27 January 1804, relative to the duties of his office and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 538, 539.

2—Reports, 1803-4—continued.

Braziers. Statement showing the number of braziers at present employed in Plymouth yard, with their rates of pay and allowances, and average yearly amount of wages, Rep. vi. 85—Abstract account of the average number of braziers borne in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, with the amount of their wages in the following years, 1758-1780, and in the several years from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 378.

BREWERY AT SOUTHDOWN:

1. Supply of Malt and Hops.
2. Sale of Old Stores.
3. Embezzlement of the King's Casks.

1. Supply of Malt and Hops:

Manner in which hops and malt are supplied to His Majesty's brewery at Southdown, Rep. viii. 642.

2. Sale of Old Stores:

Observations of the Commissioners on the abuses and irregularities in the sale of old stores at the Government brewery at Southdown, Rep. viii. 645-647.

3. Embezzlement of the King's Casks:

Circumstances attending the embezzlement of the King's casks from His Majesty's brewery at Southdown, Rep. viii. 648-656.

See also Pollard, John. Tamar Brewery.

Bricklayers' Labourers. Abstract account of the average number of bricklayers' labourers borne in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, with the amount of their wages in the following years, 1758-1780, and in the several years from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 380.

BRICKLAYERS' WORK:

1. Plymouth Yard.
2. Woolwich Yard.

1. Plymouth Yard:

Statement showing the number of bricklayers employed in Plymouth yard in the years 1758, 1780, 1790, 1793, 1797, 1801, and 1803; the amount of their wages in those years, with their several allowances, Rep. vi. 77—Abstract account of the average number of bricklayers borne in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, with the amount of their wages for the following years, 1758-1780, and the several years from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 374.

2. Woolwich Yard:

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of employing and paying the workmen for bricklayers' work at Woolwich yard, Rep. vi. 145, 146.

See also Cox, Joseph. May, Robert.

Brooks, Reuben. Examination of Reuben Brooks, a leading man of the scavelmen in Plymouth yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 27 September 1803, relative to receiving money from parties for obtaining them situations in the dockyard, Rep. vi. App. 422, 423.

Budge, William. Examination of William Budge, house carpenter in Plymouth yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 27 September 1803, relative to receiving money from parties for obtaining them situations in the dockyard, Rep. vi. App. 423.

Butler of the Royal Hospital. Observations of the Commissioners on the total incapacity of the butler of the Royal Hospital at Plymouth to attend to his duties, Rep. vii. 553, 554.

C.

Cabin Keepers. Observations of the Commissioners on the nature of the duties of cabin keepers in His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, Rep. vi. 88—Abstract account of the average number of cabin keepers to shipwrights and cabin keepers to caulkers borne in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, with the amount of their wages, in the following years, 1758-1780, and the several years from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 380.

Campbell, James. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of James Campbell, a quartermaster of shipwrights in Plymouth yard, with reference to making out the job accounts of the artificers and labourers, Rep. vi. 32, 33—Examination of Mr. James Campbell, quartermaster of shipwrights in Plymouth yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 14th September 1803, relative to the duties of his office, and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 307, 308.

“CANOPUS,” HIS MAJESTY’S SHIP :

1. Excess of Wages paid to Shipwrights.
2. Value of Works performed.

1. Excess of Wages paid to Shipwrights :

Account of excess of wages paid to the shipwrights alone, beyond the value of the work actually performed, in the repair of the “Canopus,” at Plymouth yard, in the years 1800 and 1801, Rep. vi. 34—Observations of the Commissioners on the enormity of the charges for stage work in the repair of His Majesty’s ship “Canopus,” at Plymouth yard, ib. 37, 38.

2. Value of Works performed :

Account of the value of the works performed to His Majesty’s ship “Canopus,” which was repaired at the port of Plymouth, in the years 1800 and 1801, with the amount of wages paid to the artificers employed, and the extra paid for the teams, in consequence of their being borne on the job, Rep. vi. App. 310, 311.

Capstan House. Observations of the Commissioners on the manner in which the business of the top and capstan-house in Plymouth yard is conducted, Rep. vi. 52, 53.

Captains of the Navy. See Commissioners of Plymouth Yard.

CARPENTERS’ WORK :

1. Plymouth Yard.
2. Woolwich Yard.

1. Plymouth Yard :

Observations of the Commissioners on the system of employing and paying house carpenters in Plymouth dockyard, Rep. vi. 74-76—Statement showing the number of carpenters employed in Plymouth yard in 1758, 1780, 1790, 1793, 1797, 1801, and 1803, the amount of their wages in those years, with their several allowances, ib. 74—Abstract account of the average number of house carpenters borne in His Majesty’s yard at Plymouth, with the amount of their wages for the following years, 1758-1780, and the several years from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 373—Copy of letter of the officers of His Majesty’s dockyard at Plymouth to the Navy Board, dated 11 June 1803, respecting the house carpenters’ job work, ib. 418—Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Navy, dated 17 June 1803, in reply to the letter of the Plymouth officers to the Navy Board, respecting the house carpenters’ job work, ib.

2. Woolwich Yard :

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of employing and paying the workmen for carpenters’ work at Woolwich yard, Rep. vi. 145, 146.

See also Bridge, William. Officers of Plymouth Yard, 4. Pitts, Joseph Rowse.

Carvers. Abstract account of the average number of carvers borne in His Majesty’s yard at Plymouth, with the amount of their wages in the following years, 1758-1780, and in the several years from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 372.

Casks. Observations of the Commissioners on the abuses and irregularities in the sale of staves, hoops, and headings of casks at the victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. 645-647.

See also Embezzlement of the King’s Casks. Erasing the King’s Mark.

CATON HOSPITAL SHIP :

1. Administration of the Affairs of the Hospital.
2. Quarterly Payments to the Contractor.
3. Profits of Contract.
4. Cost of Victualling the sick and wounded Seamen on board.

1. Administration of the Affairs of the Hospital :

Observations of the Commissioners on the administration of affairs on board Le Caton hospital ship at Plymouth, and of the abuses practised upon sick and wounded, Rep. vii. 557-561.

2—Reports, 1803-4—continued.

CATON HOSPITAL SHIP—continued.2. Quarterly Payments to the Contractor:

Statement of the quarterly payments made to the farmer of the contract for the supply of the sick and wounded seamen on board the hospital ship Le Caton, with supplies and necessaries, Rep. vii. 558.

3. Profits of Contract:

Statement showing the amount paid to the contractor for victualling Le Caton hospital ship, in each year from 1794 to 1798, by the Sick and Wounded Board, and the profits made by the persons concerned in the contract, Rep. vii. 559.

4. Cost of Victualling the sick and wounded Seamen on board:

Account of the sums of money paid Mr. Samuel Keast, purser of His Majesty's ship Le Caton, for victualling sick and wounded seamen during the late war, Rep. vii. App. 634.

See also Advances on Contract Prices. Agreement. Contracts, 3. Dawkins, Thomas. Keast, Samuel. Martyn, T. Officers' Table. Overpayments, 2. Profits of Contractors. Sick and Wounded Board, 2. Surgeon of Le Caton Hospital Ship. Worgan, George Bouchier.

CAULKERS' WORK:

1. Plymouth Yard.
2. Portsmouth Yard.
3. Schemes for Caulkers' Work.

1. Plymouth Yard:

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of employment of caulkers in Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. 65-70—Statement showing the number of caulkers employed in Plymouth yard, the amount of their wages, with their several allowances, in the years 1758, 1780, 1790, 1793, 1797, 1801, and 1803, ib. 65—Abstract account of the average number of caulkers borne in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, with the amount of their wages for the following years, 1758, 1780, and the several years from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 372.

2. Portsmouth Yard:

Account of the stint required from the caulkers of Portsmouth yard employed by job on old work, for double days, one tide, two tides, and three for one, Rep. vi. App. 395.

3. Schemes for Caulkers' Work:

Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 6 May 1773, establishing schemes for caulkers' work in His Majesty's yards, Rep. vi. App. 389, 390—Copy of warrant of the Navy Board, dated 5 December 1783, establishing schemes for caulkers' work, ib. 390, 391—Tables showing the quantity of the several sorts of work to be performed by the caulkers in His Majesty's naval yards, for a single day's work, or for a tide, and two tides extra, ib. 392, 393—Account of the number of threads of black and white oakum to be used in caulking a seam of each thickness on new works of ships' sides and decks, with the quantity of seam for one man for one day, &c., ib. 393.

See also Cabin Keepers. Frauds, 1. Frost, Philip. Job Work, II. 5. Officers of Plymouth Yard, 3. Portsmouth Dockyard, 6.

Cawsand Bay. Observations of the Commissioners on the extra allowance made to artificers and labourers when they are employed on board ships in Cawsand Bay, Rep. vi. 12.

CERTIFICATES:

1. Job and Task Work.
2. Signature of Certificates.

1. Job and Task Work:

Form of certificate of job and task work of scavelmen and labourers, given by the officers under whom the men are employed, Rep. vi. 94.

2. Signature of Certificates:

Observations of the Commissioners on the practice in Plymouth yard of requiring the officers to sign certificates of work having been done, to entitle the men to wages, when they had no rule for estimating the value of the work, Rep. vi. 130.

CHATHAM DOCKYARD:

1. Horses and Teams.
2. Shipwrights' Wages.
3. Earnings of Workmen.
4. Prices of Boatbuilders' Work.
5. Dockyard Pay.

Horses and Teams:

Statement showing the average number of teams employed in His Majesty's yard at Chatham, the contract price per day, and the amount paid in the years 1758-1780, and from 1787 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. 106, 107.

2. Shipwrights' Wages:

Observations of the Commissioners on the high rate of wages paid to the shipwrights employed in His Majesty's yard at Chatham, Rep. vi. 133—Copy of a letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the master shipwright at Chatham, dated 4 April 1803, relative to the manner in which the workmen at Chatham were to be paid for the extra time, ib. App. 318.

3. Earnings of Workmen:

Account of the average daily earnings of the different classes of artificers in His Majesty's dockyard at Chatham (exclusive of the foremen and quartermen), per Minute 28 January 1804, Rep. vi. App. 336.

4. Prices of Boatbuilders' Work:

Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the officers of Chatham yard, dated 12 May 1785, ordering them to build boats by task at the prices directed, Rep. vi. App. 367.

5. Dockyard Pay:

Account of the pay of His Majesty's yard at Chatham in the years 1758-1780, and in each year from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 498, 499.

See also Earnings of Workmen, 5. Seppings, Robert.

CHIPS:

1. Allowances to Workmen.
2. Abolition of Allowances.

1. Allowances to Workmen:

Table of allowances to the different description of workmen in His Majesty's yards for the loss of the chips, Rep. vi. 7—Rate of allowance made to the labourers and scavelmen in Plymouth yard, in lieu of the privilege of carrying chips out of the yard, ib. 88, 89.

2. Abolition of Allowances:

Recommendation to the Commissioners that the allowance made to the workmen in His Majesty's yards, in lieu of chips, should be abolished, Rep. vi. 132.

See also Allowances to Workmen.

Chissell, John. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Mr. John Chissell, ton man at Tamar brewery, relative to the embezzlement of the King's casks from His Majesty's Victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. 652—Examination of Mr. John Chissell, of Tamar brewery, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 24 October 1803, relative to the embezzlement of the King's casks by Messrs. Dansey, White & Co., from His Majesty's yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. App. 759-761.

Civil Department of the Navy. Recommendations of the Commissioners, by which the civil department of the navy may be conducted with order, regularity, and economy, Rep. vi. 134.

Clark, James. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of James Clark, a cooper employed in the victualling department, relative to the embezzlement of the king's casks from the victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. 650, 651—Examination of James Clark, cooper in His Majesty's victualling department at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 20 October 1803, relative to the embezzlement of the King's casks from the victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. App. 746, 747.

Classification of Workmen. Observations of the Commissioners on the advantages of dividing artificers and labourers in His Majesty's yard into classes, with a view to create excitement to emulation and exertion, Rep. vi. 132.

See also Shipwrights, I. 3.

2—Reports, 1803-4—continued.

Cleather, George. Letter from Mr. George Cleather, late steward of His Majesty's naval hospital at Stonehouse, to the governor, dated 25 July 1802, relative to the issue of bedding and stores for the use of persons in the hospital Rep. vii. App. 588, 590.

CLERK OF THE CHECQUE:

1. Plymouth Yard.
2. Woolwich Yard.
3. Southdown Victualling Yard.

1. Plymouth Yard:

Observations of the Commissioners on the nature of the duties of the clerk of the checque in Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. 5—Inability of the clerk of the checque in Plymouth yard to attend to his duties owing to his age and infirmities, ib. 29.

2. Woolwich Yard:

Observations of the Commissioners on the exaction of fees from the workmen by the clerks of the checque in Woolwich yard, Rep. vi. 136, 137.

3. Southdown Victualling Yard:

Observations of the Commissioners on the incapacity of the clerk of the checque at the victualling yard at Southdown to fulfil his duties, Rep. viii. 640, 641.

See also Bedford, Walter. Damerell, Henry. Emoluments. Fees, 1. 2. Jeffery, John. Job Notes, 2. Lloyd, John. Netherton, Thomas. Pering, Richard.

Clerk of the Ropeyard (Plymouth). Observations of the Commissioners on the nature of the duties of the clerk of the ropeyard in Plymouth dockyard, Rep. vi. 5.

Clerk of the Survey (Plymouth Yard). Observations of the Commissioners on the nature of the duties of the clerk of the survey in Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. 5—Letter from the clerk of the survey in Plymouth dockyard to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 13 February 1802, in justification of his conduct, Rep. vi. App. 403.

See also Lugger, J.

COALS:

1. Royal Hospital at Plymouth.
2. Victualling Department at Plymouth.
3. Port at Plymouth.

1. Royal Hospital at Plymouth:

Observations of the Commissioners with respect to the supply and consumption of coals at the Royal Naval Hospital at Plymouth, Rep. vii. 549, 550—Account of coals received into the Royal Naval Hospital at Plymouth, between the 1st January 1790 and the 28th October 1803, Rep. vii. App. 607.

2. Victualling Department at Plymouth:

Observations of the Commissioners on the system of receipt and management of coals at His Majesty's victualling yard at Plymouth, Rep. viii. 644, 645—Extract from an account of coals received into His Majesty's victualling stores at Plymouth and Southdown, between 1 January 1790 and 8 November 1803, Rep. viii. App. 702, 703.

3. Port of Plymouth:

Account of coals landed in the port of Plymouth out of vessels from Newcastle and Sunderland in each year, from 1799 to 1803, both inclusive, Rep. viii. App. 704.

See also Henley & Sons, Messrs. Plymouth Port. Pollard, John, 2. Royal Hospital at Plymouth. Southdown Victualling Yard, 2. Victualling Department at Plymouth, 5.

Cock, James. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of James Cock, a working cooper at Tamar brewery, relative to the embezzlement of the King's casks from His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. 652—Examination of James Cock, of Maurice Town, cooper, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry the 21st October 1803, relative to the embezzlement of King's casks from His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. App. 738-741.

Colour Grinders. Statement of the number of colour grinders borne on the books of Plymouth yard on 5 September 1803, and their rates of pay, Rep. vi. 86.

Commissioner of Plymouth Yard. Administration of the affairs of Plymouth yard by a commissioner, chosen from the captains in His Majesty's Navy, Rep. vi. 3, 4.

See also Fanshawe, Robert. Superintendent Commissioner.

Committee of the Navy Board. Copy of report of a committee of the Navy Board, on a visitation of Plymouth yard, dated 9 February 1802, Rep. vi. App. 397-400.

See also Navy Board, 2.

COMPTROLLER OF THE NAVY:

1. Job Accounts
2. Payment of Riggers and Riggers' Labourers.

1. Job Accounts:

Reason assigned by the Comptroller of the Navy for not detecting the frauds in the job accounts of the shipwrights at Plymouth dockyard, Rep. vi. 35.

2. Payment of Riggers and Riggers' Labourers:

Explanation given by the Comptroller of the Navy with respect to the pay of the riggers and riggers' labourers in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. vi. 113.

See also Hamond, Sir Andrew Snape, bart.

Conditions of Sale. Observations of the Commissioners on the necessity of strictly enforcing the conditions of sale upon the occasion of the sale of old stores at His Majesty's victualling yards, Rep. viii. 646, 647.

CONTRACTS:

1. Horse Contracts, Plymouth Yard.
2. Royal Hospital at Plymouth.
3. Le Caton Hospital Ship.
4. Sub-Contractors.

1. Horse Contracts, Plymouth Yard:

Abstract of the contracts for providing His Majesty's yard at Plymouth with teams and horses, Rep. vi. 97.

2. Royal Hospital at Plymouth:

Observations of the Commissioners on the system of contracting for the repairs of the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, Rep. vii. 512, 513.

3. Le Caton Hospital Ship:

Observations of the Commissioners on the contract entered into by the Sick and Wounded Board with Mr. Samuel Keast, the purser of "Le Caton" hospital ship, for victualling the sick on board, Rep. vii. 558-560—Copy of contract entered into 8 February 1794 between the Commissioners for taking care of the sick and wounded seamen and Mr. Samuel Keast, purser of His Majesty's hospital ship "Le Caton," for supplying and providing the sick and wounded seamen with provisions and necessaries, Rep. vii. App. 631-633.

4. Sub-Contractors:

Recommendation of the Commissioners that no contract or share thereof should be transferred without the authority and approbation of the Board with whom it was made, Rep. vii. 560.

See also Advances on Contract Prices. Caton Hospital Ship, 2. 3. Horse Contracts. Keast, Samuel. Miller, Thomas, 1. Penalties. Profits of Contractors. Ship-building, 1. Sick and Wounded Board, 2. Standing Contracts. Sub-Contractors. Teams, I. II. 2. Worgan, George Bouchier.

Conviction. See Hume, John.

COOPERS' WORK:

1. Plymouth Yard.
2. Victualling Department at Plymouth.

1. Plymouth Yard:

Statement showing the number of coopers at present employed in Plymouth yard, with their rates of pay and allowances, and average yearly amount of wages, Rep. vi. 85—Abstract account of the average number of coopers borne in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, with the amount of their wages in the following years, 1758-1780, and in the several years from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 379.

2. Victualling Department at Plymouth:

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of employing and paying the coopers at His Majesty's victualling department at Plymouth, Rep. viii. 640, 641.

See also Accounts, 7. Baskerville, Henry. Block Coopers. Day Coopers. Master Cooper at Southdown. Prices, 5. Sargent, Isaac. Trimming. Triscott, Samuel. Victualling Department at Plymouth, 3. West, John.

Copying Accounts. Observations of the Commissioners on the practice prevailing in the victualling department at Plymouth of the clerks copying accounts from each other, Rep. viii. 642.

- Cordage.* Observations of the Commissioners on the machinery invented by Mr. John Daniel Belfour for making cordage, and erected by him in Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. 119, 120.
- Cornwallis*, Honourable Admiral. See Anonymous Letters.
- Council of the Royal Hospital.* Occasion of the abolition of the council of the Roy a Hospital at Plymouth, and placing the administration of affairs under a governor and three lieutenants, Rep. vii. 543, 544.
- Cox, Joseph.* Examination of Mr. Joseph Cox, master bricklayer of Woolwich yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 28 January 1804, relative to the duties of his situation, and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 536, 537.
- Creyke, Richard.* Examination of Richard Creyke, esq., captain in the Royal Navy, and Governor of the Naval Hospital at Stonehouse, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 5 November 1803, relative to the mode of conducting the business of the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, Rep. vii. App. 604-606.
- Croad, Ann.* Copy of contract entered into between the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy and Ann Croad of Keyham, bearing date 7 October 1802, for the supply of the dockyard at Plymouth with teams and horses, Rep. vi. App. 463-465.
- Croad, Susannah.* Observations of the Commissioners on the horse contract entered into by Mrs. Susannah Croad with the Navy Board, for the supply of Plymouth yard with teams, Rep. vi. 99, 100—Terms of the contract, bearing date 11 June 1790, entered into by the Navy Board with Susannah Croad of Keyham, for the supply of Plymouth dockyard with horses ib. App. 460, 461—Terms of the contract, bearing date 2 September 1794, entered into with Susannah Croad of Keyham, for the supply of Plymouth dockyard with horses, ib. 462, 463—Letter of Mrs. Susannah Croad of Keyham to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 8 May 1794, respecting her contract for the supply of Plymouth dockyard with horses and teams, ib. 468.

D.

DAILY PAY :

1. His Majesty's Dockyards.
2. Plymouth Yard.

1. His Majesty's Dockyards :

Observations of the Commissioners with respect to the sufficiency of the daily pay of the artificers and labourers in His Majesty's yards, as fixed in the Seventeenth Century, Rep. vi. 126—Observations of the Commissioners on the advantages of the system of daily pay of workmen in His Majesty's yards over employment of artificers and labourers by the job, ib. 131, 132.

2. Plymouth Yard :

Observations of the Commissioners on the rates of daily pay of artificers and labourers in Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. 11, 12.

Damerell, Henry. Examination of Mr. Henry Damerell, late third clerk to the clerk of the checque of Plymouth dockyard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 3 October 1803, relative to the contract entered into by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy for the supply of horses and teams to Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. App. 472-474.

DANSEY, WHITE & CO., MESSRS. :

1. Embezzlement of the King's Casks.
2. Indictment at Quarter Sessions.

1. Embezzlement of King's Casks :

Circumstances attending the discovery of some butts and casks belonging to His Majesty's victualling office being concealed at Messrs. Dansey, White & Co.'s brewery, Rep. viii. 648-656—Failure of the Commissioners to ascertain how the King's casks came into the possession of Messrs. Dansey, White & Co. ib. 656.

2. Indictment at Quarter Sessions :

Circumstance of Messrs. Dansey, White & Co. being indicted at quarter sessions for having certain butts in their possession with the King's mark, Rep. viii. 650—Letter from Mr. Pridham to Mr. Baxter, solicitor to the Victualling Board, dated 16 January 1802, relative to the ignoring of the bill by the grand jury at Exeter, preferred against Messrs. Dansey, White & Co. for embezzling the King's casks from His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. App. 745, 746.

See also Adjudication of the Magistrate. Embezzlement of the King's Casks, 1.
Erasing the King's Mark. Information. Search Warrant. Tamar Brewery.

Dart,

Dart, William. Examination of William Dart, plumber to His Majesty's naval hospital at East Stonehouse, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 3 November 1803, relative to the mode of accounting for repairs done to the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, Rep. vii. App. 613, 614.

Davy, William. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of William Davy, relative to the embezzlement of the King's casks from the victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. vii. 653—Examination of Mr. William Davy, a labourer in His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 24 October 1803, respecting the embezzlement of the King's casks from Her Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. App. 761, 762.

Daw, Joseph. Examination of Joseph Daw, shipwright in Plymouth yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 29 September 1803, relative to his duties as master of the horse in Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. App. 366.

Dawkins, Thomas. Copy of letter from Mr. Thomas Dawkins, of Modbury, to the First Lord of the Admiralty, dated 21 May 1803, complaining of the abuses and irregularities on board "Le Caton" hospital ship at Plymouth, Rep. vii. 557, 558—Examination of Mr. Thomas Dawkins, of Modbury, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 28 October 1803, relative to the contract entered into by Mr. Keast with the Sick and Hurt Board for victualling the sick on board "Le Caton" hospital ship, Rep. vii. App. 626, 627.

Day Coopers. Mode of employing and paying the day coopers in the victualling department of Plymouth and Southdown, Rep. viii. 640, 641.

Day Work. Account showing what time the shipwrights and other artificers and labourers in Plymouth dockyard have been respectively directed to work, from 1 January 1793 to 30 June 1803, stating the different periods, the mode of employment, and after what rate of pay they were set off in each period, Rep. vi. App. 342-443.

Delay in Payment of Wages. Observations of the Commissioners on the great inconvenience to workmen in His Majesty's yards, arising from the delay in the payment of their wages, Rep. vi. 132.

Demands for Stores. Manner in which demands for stores are made for the use of the Royal Naval Hospital at Plymouth, Rep. vii. 545, 546.

Depositions. Copy of the depositions of the agent victualler and Mr. Samuel Truscott, foreman of the coopers in His Majesty's victualling yard at Plymouth, before the magistrate, relative to the discovery of a quantity of the King's casks in the possession of Messrs. Dansey, White & Co., at the Tamar brewery, Rep. viii. App. 766, 767.

DEPTFORD DOCKYARD:

1. Boatbuilders' Work.
2. Horses and Teams Contract.
3. Repairs of Her Majesty's Ship "Amaranthe."
4. Earnings of Workmen.
5. Dockyard Pay.

1. Boatbuilder's Work:

Adoption of the plan of boatbuilding by job instead of by task in Deptford yard, Rep. vi. 61—Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the officers of His Majesty's yard at Deptford, dated 21 October 1785, directing them to build boats by job, at the prices directed, Rep. vi. App. 368, 369.

2. Horses and Teams Contract:

Statement showing the average number of teams employed in His Majesty's yard at Deptford, the contract price per day, and the amount paid in the years 1758-1780, and from 1787 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. 106, 107.

3. Repairs of Her Majesty's Ship "Amaranthe."

Observations of the Commissioners on the report of the officers of Deptford dockyard on the repairs of Her Majesty's ship "Amaranthe," Rep. vi. 144—Report of the officers of Deptford dockyard, dated 6th and 9th February 1804, of the state of His Majesty's ship "Amaranthe" when paid off, Rep. vi. App. 532, 533.

4. Earnings of Workmen:

Account of the average earnings of the different classes of artificers in His Majesty's yard at Deptford, with the time they respectively work in Christmas quarter, 1803, Rep. vii. App. 332, 333.

2—Reports, 1803-4—continued.

DEPTFORD DOCKYARD—continued.

5. Dockyard Pay :

Account of the pay of His Majesty's yard at Deptford, in the years 1758-1780, and in each year from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 498, 499.

See also "Amaranthe," Her Majesty's Ship. Earnings of Workmen, 4.

Dinner Time. Observations of the Commissioners on the time allowed the artificers and labourers in Plymouth yard for dinner, Rep. vi. 10.

Disabled Workmen. See Extra Wages, 3.

Discovery of Fraud. See Embezzlement of the King's Casks, 1.

DISMISSAL OF OFFICERS :

1. Officers of Plymouth Yard.
2. Steward of the Royal Hospital at Plymouth.
3. Victualling Department at Southdown.

1. Officers of Plymouth Yard :

Copy of the Admiralty orders, dated 10 March 1802, to dismiss the master shipwright, storekeeper, and clerk of the survey, from His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, Rep. vi. App. 405-407.

2. Steward of the Royal Hospital at Plymouth :

Circumstances attending the dismissal of the steward of the Royal hospital at Plymouth from his situation, Rep. vii. 546.

3. Victualling Department at Southdown :

Letter from Thomas Miller, esq., agent victualler at Plymouth, to the Commissioners for victualling His Majesty's Navy, dated 4 January 1803, relative to the dismissal of William Netherton from his situation as cooper in His Majesty's victualling yard at Plymouth, Rep. viii. App. 765.

See also Admiralty Board, 5.

Dispenser of Medicines. Observations of the Commissioners on the nature of the duties of the dispenser of medicines in the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, Rep. vii. 550, 551.

See also Hammick, Stephen. Salaries of Officers, 1. Tripe, Thomas.

Dockyards. See Chatham Dockyard. Deptford Dockyard. Plymouth Dockyard. Portsmouth Dockyard. Sheerness Dockyard. Woolwich Dockyard.

DONEGAL, HIS MAJESTY'S SHIP :

1. Excess of Wages paid Shipwrights.
2. Value of Works performed.

1. Excess of Wages paid Shipwrights :

Account of the excess of wages paid to the shipwrights alone beyond the value of the work actually performed, in the repair of the "Donegal" at Plymouth yard, in the years 1800 and 1801, Rep. vi. 34.

2. Value of Works performed :

Account of the value of the works performed to His Majesty's ship "Donegal," which was repaired at the port of Plymouth in the year 1800 and 1801, with the amount of wages paid to the artificers employed, and the extras paid for the teams, in consequence of their being borne on the job, Rep. vi. App. 310, 311.

DOUBLE DAYS :

1. His Majesty's Dockyards.
2. Plymouth Yard.

1. His Majesty's Dockyards :

Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 10 October 1801, to employ the workmen in His Majesty's dockyards double days, Rep. vi. App. 315.

2. Plymouth Yard :

Observations of the Commissioners on the system of allowing the shipwrights in Plymouth yard to work double days, Rep. vi. 28, 29—Occasion of the Navy Board directing that the artificers in Plymouth yard should be employed double days, ib. 38.

Double Pay. Circumstances attending the Navy Board permitting the artificers in Plymouth yard to receive twice the amount of their established daily pay, Rep. vi. 23, 24.

DUINS,

DUINS, ROBERT:

1. Earnings of Workmen in Plymouth Yard.
2. Sale of Offices.

1. Earnings of Workmen in Plymouth Yard:

Examination of Mr. Robert Duins, first clerk in the master shipwright's office in Plymouth dockyard, taken on 16 April 1803, respecting the earnings of artificers and workmen in that yard, Rep. vi. App. 320, 321.

2. Sale of Offices:

Examination of Mr. Robert Duins, first clerk to the master shipwright in Plymouth yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 27 September 1803, relative to receiving money from parties for obtaining them situations in the dockyard, Rep. vi. App. 424.

Dyer, Samuel. Examination of Mr. Samuel Dyer, sawyers' measurer in Plymouth yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 23 September 1803, relative to the duties of his situation, and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 427-429.

E.

EARNINGS OF WORKMEN:

- | | |
|---------------------------------|----------------------------|
| 1. Plymouth Yard. | 6. Sheerness Yard. |
| 2. Ropeyard at Plymouth. | 7. Portsmouth Yard. |
| 3. Woolwich Yard. | 8. Shipwrights. |
| 4. Deptford Yard. | 9. Job Work. |
| 5. Chatham Yard. | 10. Sawyers. |

1. Plymouth Yard:

Observations of the Commissioners on the amount of the earnings of the artificers and labourers in Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. 12, 13—Account showing the average daily earnings of each class of artificers and labourers in His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, with the time they respectively worked, for the quarter ending 31 December 1803, Rep. vi. App. 341.

2. Ropeyard at Plymouth:

Account of the average daily earnings of each class of artificers and labourers in His Majesty's ropeyard at Plymouth, for the quarter ending 30 September 1803, Rep. vi. App. 386.

3. Woolwich Yard:

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of estimating and accounting for the earnings of workmen at Woolwich yard, Rep. vi. 138-147—Account showing the average earnings per day of the different classes of artificers in His Majesty's dockyard at Woolwich, with the time they respectively worked in the Christmas quarter of 1803, Rep. vi. App. 334, 335.

4. Deptford Yard:

Account of the average earnings of the different classes of artificers in Deptford dockyard, with the time they respectively worked in Christmas quarter 1803, Rep. vi. App. 332, 333.

5. Chatham Yard:

Account of the average daily earnings of the different classes of artificers in His Majesty's dockyard at Chatham (exclusive of the foremen and quartermen), per Minute 28 January 1804, Rep. vi. App. 336.

6. Sheerness Yard:

Account of the average earnings of the working artificers, &c. (exclusive of foremen and quartermen) at Sheerness yard, with the time they respectively worked in Christmas quarter 1803, Rep. vi. App. 337.

7. Portsmouth Yard:

Account showing the average earnings of the different classes of artificers and labourers in His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth, with the time they respectively worked in Christmas quarter 1803, Rep. vi. App. 338-340.

EARNINGS OF WORKMEN—continued.8. Shipwrights:

Comparative view of the wages paid per day, on an average, to the shipwrights of the different yards, in Christmas quarter 1803, Rep. vi. 47—Previous to 1793 the shipwrights in the dockyards were stinted in their earnings to 2 s. 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. a day in winter, and to 3 s. 4 d. in summer, ib. 126, 127.

9. Job Work:

Comparison of the expense attending the performance of the work by job, with the sums which would have been allowed if the same works had been performed by task, Rep. vi. 127, 128.

10. Sawyers:

Account showing the amount of the earnings of the sawyers in His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, in the years 1800, 1801, 1802, and 1803, Rep. vi. App. 430.

See also Accounts, 1. Chatham Dockyard, 3. Deptford Dockyard, 4. Limitation of Earnings. Plymouth Dockyard, 3. Portsmouth Dockyard, 4. Ropeyard at Plymouth, 3. Sawyers' Work, 2. Sheerness Dockyard, 3. Shipwrights, 1. 1. Woolwich Dockyard, 4.

East Stonehouse Hospital. See Naval Hospital at East Stonehouse.

Eastlake, Mr. Occasion of the services of Mr. Eastlake, of Plymouth, whom the Navy Board employed many years as their attorney in criminal cases, being discontinued, Rep. viii. 654, 655.

Eathorne, William. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of William Eathorne, a quartermaster of shipwrights in Plymouth yard, with reference to making out the job accounts of the artificers and labourers, Rep. vi. 32, 33—Examination of Mr. William Eathorne, quartermaster of shipwrights in Plymouth yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 15 September 1803, relative to the duties of his office, and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 309.

Eggs. Observations of the Commissioners on the large sums expended in providing eggs for the use of the sick and wounded in the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, Rep. vii. 551.

EMBEZZLEMENT OF THE KING'S CASKS:

1. Discovery of the Fraud.
2. Prosecution of the Parties implicated.
3. Information exhibited before the Magistrate.
4. Adjudication of the Magistrate.
5. Depositions of the Agent Victualler and Master Cooper.

1. Discovery of the Fraud:

Observations of the Commissioners with respect to the discovery of the embezzlement of the King's casks from His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. 648-656—Letter from Thomas Miller, esq., agent victualler at Plymouth, to the Commissioners for victualling His Majesty's Navy, dated 5 December 1804, relative to the discovery of a quantity of the King's casks in the possession of Messrs. Dansey, White & Co., at the Tamar brewery, Rep. viii. App. 767.

2. Prosecution of the Parties implicated:

Observations of the Commissioners on the conduct of the agent victualler and the attorney, with respect to the prosecution of the parties for embezzling the King's casks from the Victualling Office at Southdown, Rep. viii. 655—Letter from Joseph Pridham of Plymouth, attorney-at-law, to Thomas Miller, esq., agent victualler at Plymouth, dated 8 December 1801, relative to the legal proceedings instituted against Messrs. Dansey, White & Co., of the Tamar brewery, for the embezzlement of the King's casks from His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. App. 768.

3. Information exhibited before the Magistrate:

Copy of the information exhibited before the magistrate at the instance of Mr. Thomas Miller, agent victualler at Plymouth, against Messrs. Dansey, White & Co., for embezzling the King's casks from His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. App. 744.

4. Adjudication of the Magistrate:

Copy of the adjudication of the Rev. Jonathan Williams, clerk, one of His Majesty's justices of the peace for the county of Devon, in the case of the information preferred against Messrs. Dansey, White & Co., for embezzling the King's casks from His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. App. 745.

2—Reports, 1803-4—continued.

EMBEZZLEMENT OF THE KING'S CASKS—continued.5. Depositions of the Agent Victualler and Master Cooper :

Copy of the depositions of the agent victualler and Mr. Samuel Triscott, foreman of the coopers in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, before the magistrate, in the matter of the discovery of the King's casks in the possession of Messrs. Dansey, White & Co., at the Tamar brewery, Rep. viii. App. 766, 767.

See also Adjudication of Magistrate. Agent Victualler at Plymouth, 1. Attorney to the Navy Board. Brewery at Southdown, 3. Chissell, John. Clark, James. Cock, James. Dansey, White & Co., Messrs., 1. Davy, William. Depositions. Harry, John. Head, John. Hearder, Gilbert. Hume, John. Netherton, William, 1. Pridham, Joseph. Prosecutions. Southdown Victualling Yard, 1. Tamar Brewery. Triscott, Samuel, 2. Victualling Department at Plymouth, 7. Warne, Thomas. White, John. Williams, Walter.

Embezzlement of Stores. Observations of the Commissioners on the opportunities afforded of embezzlement of stores from Plymouth yard, by workmen residing on the opposite side of the water to the dockyard, Rep. vi. 134.—See also Storekeepers, 1.

Emoluments. Abolition of the emoluments of the officers and clerks in His Majesty's yards, arising from fees and perquisites, and substitution of permanent annual salaries, Rep. vi. 7.

EMPLOYMENT OF WORKMEN :

1. Job Work.
2. Task Work.

1. Job Work :

Necessity of abolishing the present system of employing and paying the workmen in His Majesty's dockyards by the job, Rep. vi. 147.

2. Task Work :

Scheme of works on which the labourers, scavengers, &c., in His Majesty's yards may be employed by task, to the advantage of His Majesty's service, computed as well for receiving, as issuing stores, in proportion to what may be performed, by one man in one day, Rep. vi. App. 447-451.

See also Extra Tides. Night Work. Sundays. Victualling Department at Plymouth, 3.

Erasing the King's Mark. Circumstances of the casks found concealed at Messrs. Dansey, White & Co.'s brewery, having the King's mark erased, and the dubbings lying immediately under the casks, Rep. viii. 654, 645.

Erection of Machinery. See Belfour, John Daniel.

ESTABLISHMENT :

1. Plymouth Yard.
2. Naval Hospital at East Stonehouse.
3. Victualling Department at Plymouth.

1. Plymouth Yard :

Account of the establishment of Plymouth yard, stating the names and salaries of the officers and clerks, and the number of the different classes of artificers, apprentices, and labourers, with their several rates of pay, and the times when such rates were established, also the different allowances made to them, and the number of each class at present borne, Rep. vi. App. 188-195.

2. Naval Hospital at East Stonehouse :

Account of the establishment of the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, as it stood on 7 October 1803, Rep. vii. 566, 567.

3. Victualling Department at Plymouth :

Account of the establishment of His Majesty's victualling department at Plymouth, with the salaries of the respective officers and clerks, the allowances made, number allowed on the peace establishment, and number of persons borne, Rep. viii. App. 662-671.

See also Expense of Establishment. Plymouth Dockyard, 2. Ropeyard at Plymouth, 1. Royal Hospital at Plymouth, 2. Victualling Department at Plymouth, 1.

Evans, George. Examination of George Evans, a labourer in His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 10 November 1803, relative to the sale and delivery of old stores at His Majesty's yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. App. 717, 718.

2—Reports, 1803-4—continued.

Examination of Accounts. Observations of the Commissioners on the nature of the examination and check established, of the accounts of the wages of the shipwrights in Plymouth yard, Rep. 25, 26.—See also Audit of Accounts. Pay Books.

Exeter Quarter Sessions. Circumstance of the grand jury at the quarter sessions at Exeter ignoring the bill preferred against Messrs. Dansey, White & Co., for unlawful possession of the King's casks, Rep. viii. 650, App. 745, 746.

Expenses of Establishment. Observations of the Commissioners on the advantage of comparing the expenses of one establishment with another of a similar nature, as in the case of the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, Rep. vii. 555, 556.

See also Royal Hospital at Plymouth, 3. 7.

EXTRA TIDES :

1. His Majesty's Yards.
2. Artificers and Labourers at Plymouth Yard.
3. Shipwrights at Plymouth Yard.
4. Woolwich Yard.
5. Orders of the Board of Admiralty.
6. Warrants of the Navy Board.

1. His Majesty's Yards :

Occasion of the Navy Board directing that the artificers in His Majesty's yards were to work extra time, without limiting the extra to the ships, which had been or might be ordered to be brought forward, Rep. vi. 39, 40.

2. Artificers and Labourers at Plymouth Yard :

Observations of the Commissioners on the system of employing the artificers and labourers in Plymouth yard, extra tides, Rep. vi. 11, 12—Observations of the Commissioners on the correspondence between the Navy Board and the Board of Admiralty, in March 1803, with respect to the employment of the artificers and labourers in Plymouth yard extra, ib. 46, 47—Account of the rates of pay and allowances for a tide extra, which have been allowed to the artificers and labourers in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, from the first establishment of the yard, Rep. vi. App. 192, 193.

3. Shipwrights at Plymouth Yard :

Observations of the Commissioners on the system of employing the shipwrights in Plymouth yard, double tides, Rep. vi. 28, 29—Copy of the master shipwrights' proposal to His Majesty's Commissioners, dated 30 January 1797, to employ the workmen in Plymouth yard, additional extra, Rep. vi. App. 302.

4. Woolwich Yard :

Observations of the Commissioners on the practice of employing the artificers and labourers in Woolwich yard, extra tides, Rep. vi. 139-147.

5. Orders of the Board of Admiralty :

Copy of order of the Board of Admiralty, dated 25 September 1787, to employ the workmen extra in His Majesty's dockyards, Rep. vi. App. 299—Copy of the Admiralty order, dated 6 May 1790, on the same subject, ib. 300—Copy of the Board's order, dated Admiralty Office, 26 March 1791, on the same, ib.—Copy of order of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated 25 December 1792, on the same, ib.—Copy of order of the Board of Admiralty, dated 17 September 1802, to the same effect, ib. 301—Copy of order of the Lords Commissioners, dated 12 March 1803, on the same, ib.—Copy of Admiralty order, dated 10 March 1803, directing the Navy Board to employ the artificers in His Majesty's dockyards as much extra as possible, ib. 330.

6. Warrants of the Navy Board :

Copy of Warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 28 November 1798, directing the officers of His Majesty's yard at Plymouth to employ the workmen two tides extra, Rep. vi. App. 303—Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 12 March 1803, to employ the workmen extra in Plymouth yard, ib. 316.

See also Admiralty Board, 4. Fitting Ships for Sea. Navy Board, 3. Officers of Plymouth Yard, 1. 2.

EXTRA WAGES (PLYMOUTH YARD):

1. Artificers and Labourers.
2. Shipwrights.
3. Sick and disabled Workmen.
4. Foremen and Quartermen.
5. Sailmakers.

1. Artificers and Labourers:

Observations of the Commissioners on the conduct of the officers of Plymouth yard in allowing to the artificers and labourers such a considerable portion of extra wages, without taking any steps to ascertain that work was performed equal thereto, Rep. vi. 30, 31—Copy of general note given by the master shipwright to the clerk of the cheque, for the allowance of extra wages to the workmen in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. vi. App. 304—Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the officers of Plymouth dockyard, dated 4 April 1803, relative to the manner in which the workmen were to be paid for the extra time, ib. 317—Letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the officers of His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, dated 29 April 1803, relative to the manner in which the workmen were to be, and had been, paid for the extra time, ib. 325.

2. Shipwrights:

Observations of the Commissioners on the negligence of the Navy Board in allowing the circumstance to escape detection of the shipwrights at Plymouth yard being paid extra wages beyond the value of the work actually performed, Rep. vi. 35, 44, 45.

3. Sick and disabled Workmen:

Instances of extra wages being paid to workmen in Plymouth yard when prevented by sickness from attending to their duties, Rep. vi. 59, 60.

4. Foremen and Quartermen:

Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 13 March 1794, for allowing extra wages to the foremen and quartermen in Plymouth dockyard, Rep. vi. App. 295—Copy of warrant for allowing extra wages to the foremen and quartermen of Plymouth yard, dated 22 May 1797, ib.

5. Sailmakers:

Form of note for the allowance of extra wages to the sailmakers in Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. App. 484.

See also Cawsand Bay.	Horse Contracts, 3.	Master Shipwright.	Officers of
Plymouth Yard, 1.	Payment of Wages.	Plymouth Sound.	Sailmakers'
Work, 3.	Sundays.	Warrants, 4.

F.FALSIFICATION OF ACCOUNTS:

1. Plymouth Yard.
2. Woolwich Yard.

1. Plymouth Yard:

Observations of the Commissioners on the falsification of the job accounts of the shipwrights in Plymouth dockyard, Rep. vi. 31-33, 35—Observations of the Commissioners on the system of concocting the accounts of the job work of the artificers and labourers employed in Plymouth yard, ib. 129, 130.

2. Woolwich Yard:

Observations of the Commissioners on the fallacy of the accounts rendered of the value of work done by the artificers and labourers employed at Woolwich yard, Rep. vi. 136-139.

See also Accounts, 2. Inspector-General of Naval Works.

FANSHAWE, ROBERT:

1. Extra Employment of Artificers and Labourers.
2. Payment of Workmen.

1. Extra Employment of Artificers and Labourers:

Letter from Honourable Commissioner Robert Fanshawe to the Navy Board, dated 30 January 1799, respecting the master shipwrights' proposal to employ the workmen in Plymouth yard additional extra, Rep. vi. App. 302, 303.

2. Payment of Workmen:

Extract of letter from Mr. Commissioner Fanshawe to the Navy Board, dated 16 April 1803, relative to the manner in which the workmen at Plymouth dockyard were to be, and had been, paid for the extra time, Rep. vi. App. 319, 320.

FEES :

1. Abolition of Fees in Dockyards.
2. Plymouth Yard.
3. Woolwich Yard.

1. Abolition of Fees in Dockyards :

Abolition of fees and perquisites of officers and clerks in His Majesty's yards, and substitution of annual salaries, Rep. vi. 7.

2. Plymouth Yard :

Observations of the Commissioners on the abuse existing in Plymouth Yard, of clerks exacting fees from the men, for mustering the workmen, Rep. vi. 10, 11.

3. Woolwich Yard :

Observations of the Commissioners on the practice of the clerks exacting fees from the workmen in Woolwich yard, Rep. vi. 136, 137.

See also Clerks of the Checque, 2. Emoluments. Quarterly Notes, 1. 2.

Ffinch, Benjamin Cutler. Examination of Mr. Benjamin Cutler Ffinch, second clerk to the clerk of the checque in Woolwich yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 21 January 1804, relative to the duties of his office, and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 510-515.

FISHER, WILLIAM :

1. Stores, Plymouth Hospital.
2. Sick and Wounded Office.

1. Stores, Plymouth Hospital :

Copy of letter from William Fisher, esq., chief clerk of the office of sick and wounded seamen, to John Williams, esq., dated 28 January 1804, inclosing an account of the expense of spirits of wine, lint, pearl ashes, honey, sago, &c., paid as medicines for Plymouth Hospital during the late war, Rep. vii. App. 617.

2. Sick and Wounded Office :

Examination of Mr. William Fisher, first clerk and accountant in the Sick and Hurt Office, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 3 December 1803, relative to the mode of keeping the accounts of the expense of the sick and hurt departments, Rep. viii. App. 618, 619.

Fitting Ships for Sea. Copy of Navy Board's letter to the Admiralty, dated 11 March 1803, requesting to know if the workmen in His Majesty's dockyards were to be employed extra only on the ships ordered to be fitted, Rep. vi. App. 330—Copy of Admiralty order, dated 12 March 1803, not to confine the extra to the ships ordered to be fitted, ib. 331.

Fixed Salaries. See Emoluments.

Foreign Accounts. See Arrear Accounts, 2.

FOREMEN OF DOCKYARDS :

1. Shipwrights.
2. Caulkers.

1. Shipwrights :

Observations of the Commissioners on the nature of the duties of the foremen of the shipwrights in Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. 17.

2. Caulkers :

Comparative statement of the yearly pay of the apprentices of the foreman of the caulkers in Plymouth yard, and of the working caulkers, Rep. vi. 69.

See also Depositions. Extra Wages, 4.

Forms of Accounts. Copy of the form which has been introduced by the present master shipwright of job and task work in Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. App. 157.

FRAUDS :

1. Caulkers, Plymouth Yard.
2. Sale of Old Stores (South Down Victualling Yard).

1. Caulkers, Plymouth Yard :

Frequent instances in Plymouth yard of men having been paid for working on Sundays, and sleeping on board His Majesty's ships, when they had done neither the one or the other, Rep. vi. 69.

FRAUDS—continued.

2. Sale of Old Stores (South Down Victualling Yard):

Nature of the frauds committed in the sale and delivery of old stores at His Majesty's victualling yard at South Down, Rep. viii. 645-647.

See also Bavins. Embezzlement of the King's Casks. Henley & Sons, Messrs. Tamar Brewery.

Frood, William. Examination of Mr. William Frood, master sailmaker in Plymouth yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 21 September 1803, relative to the duties of his office, and manner in which the sailmaking business is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 481-483.

Frost, Philip. Examination of Mr. Philip Frost, foreman of the caulkers in Plymouth yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 23 September 1803, relative to the duties of his office, and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 387-389.

Fruit. Observations of the Commissioners on the large sums expended in fruit for the use of the sick and wounded in the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, Rep. vii. 551.

See also Royal Hospital at Plymouth, 3.

G.

Gangs. System of working by gangs, as adopted with the shipwrights in Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. 17.

"Gibraltar," His Majesty's Ship. Copy of report of the Plymouth officers to the Navy Board, dated 15 November 1788, of the works necessary to be performed on His Majesty's ship "Gibraltar," Rep. vi. 21, 22.

Governor of the Royal Hospital. Occasion of the appointment of a governor and three lieutenants to the establishment of the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, Rep. vii. 543, 544.

See also Creyke, Richard. Instruction to Officers, 2.

Grand Jury at Exeter. Circumstance of the grand jury at quarter sessions at Exeter ignoring the bill preferred against Messrs. Dansey, White & Co. for unlawful possession of the King's casks, Rep. viii. 650—Letter from Mr. Pridham to Mr. Baxter, solicitor to the Victualling Board, dated 16 January 1802, relative to the ignoring by the grand jury at Exeter, of the bill preferred against Messrs. Dansey, White and Co., of Tamar brewery, Plymouth, for embezzling the King's casks from His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, ib. App. 745, 746.

Grigg, John. Examination of John Grigg, a labourer in His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 10 November 1803, relative to the sale and delivery of old stores at Southdown, Rep. viii. App. 716, 717.

Grigg, Nicholas. Examination of Nicholas Grigg, a labourer in His Majesty's victualling department at Southdown, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 9 November 1803, relative to the frauds practised in the receipt and issue of stores, and in the sale and delivery of old stores, at Southdown, Rep. viii. App. 716.

Grinders. See Colour Grinders.

H.

Hair. Statement of the cost of hair purchased for the several medical establishments under the Sick and Hurt Board, from 1794 to 1803, Rep. vii. 548.

Hammick, Stephen. Examination of Stephen Hammick, dispenser of His Majesty's Naval Hospital at East Stonehouse, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 2 November 1803, relative to the treatment of the sick in the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, Rep. vii. App. 608, 609—Examination of Mr. Stephen Hammick, first surgeon of His Majesty's naval hospital at East Stonehouse, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 4 November 1803, relative to the treatment of patients in the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, ib. 614, 615.

Hamond, Sir Andrew Snape, Bart. Examination of Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 6 January 1804, relative to the instructions issued to the officers and clerks in Plymouth yard, for their guidance in the execution of their duties, Rep. vi. App. 197-204—Further examination examination of Sir Andrew Hamond before the Commissioners, on 7 January 1803, on the subject of the employment of the artificers and labourers in Plymouth yard at job and and task work, Rep. vi. App. 205-209—Further examination of Sir Andrew Hamond before the Commissioners, on 9 January 1804, relative to the prices paid for work and labour done in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, ib. 210-216.

2—Reports, 1803-4—continued.

Hamond, Sir Andrew Snape, Bart.—continued.

Harness, John, M. D. Examination of John Harness, M. D., chairman of the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 5 December 1803, relative to the mode of keeping the accounts of the Sick and Wounded Office, Rep. vii. App. 619-621.

Harvey, John. Occasion of John Harvey, a constable of Plymouth, accompanying the agent victualler to search the premises of Messrs. Dansey, White & Co., for King's casks, Rep. viii. 648-656.

Hayward, William. Examination of Mr. William Hayward, master joiner in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 17 September 1803, relative to the duties of his office, and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 414, 415.

Head, John. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Mr. John Head, master cooper at Tamar brewery, relative to the embezzlement of the King's casks from the victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. 652—Examination of Mr. John Head, of Plymouth dock, cooper, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 20 October 1803, relative to the embezzlement of the King's casks from the victualling yard at Southdown, ib. App. 754-759.

Header, Gilbert. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Gilbert Header, a cooper, employed in the victualling department at Plymouth, relative to the embezzlement of the King's casks from his Majesty's stores at Southdown, Rep. viii. 650, 651—Examination of Gilbert Header, cooper, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 20 October 1803, relative to the embezzlement of the King's casks by Messrs. Dansey & White, from His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, ib. App. 747-753.

Henley & Son, Messrs. Case of fraud in the delivery of coals at the victualling yard at Southdown, from a vessel belonging to Messrs. Henley & Son, Rep. viii. 644, 645.

Henslow, Sir John. Examination of Sir John Henslow, joint surveyor of the navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 2 January 1804, relative to the employment of artificers and labourers in his Majesty's yard at Plymouth, and mode of payment of the men, Rep. vi. App. 216-229.

“HERCULE,” HIS MAJESTY'S SHIP :

1. Excess of Wages paid to the Workmen.
2. Value of the Work performed.

1. Excess of Wages paid to the Workmen :

Account of the excess of wages paid to the shipwrights alone, beyond the value of the work actually performed, in the repair of the “Hercule” at Plymouth yard, in the years 1800 and 1801, Rep. vi. 34.

2. Value of the Work performed :

Statement showing the value of the work performed on the “Hercule,” according to the propositions sent to the Navy Board, and the amount of wages paid to the men, Rep. vi. 41—Account of the value of the work performed to His Majesty's ship “Hercule,” which was repaired at the port of Plymouth, in the years 1800 and 1801, with the amount of wages paid to the artificers employed, and the extra paid for the teams, in consequence of their being borne on the job, Rep. vi. App. 310, 311.

Hire of Teams. See Teams. Wages, II. 4. Woolwich Yard, 3.

Hops. See Brewery at Southdown, 1.

HORSE CONTRACTS :

1. System of contracting for Horses.
2. Advance on Contract Prices.
3. Extra Prices paid for Horses.
4. Richard Nelson's Contract.
5. Susannah Croad's Contract.
6. Ann Croad's Contract.

1. System of Contracting for Horses :

Observations of the Commissioners on the system of contracting for horses and teams in Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. 96-108.

2. Advance

2—Reports, 1803-4—continued.

HORSE CONTRACTS—continued.2. Advance on Contract Prices :

Copy of letter of the Navy Board to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 31 January 1804, signifying that the advance granted to the contractors for horses for their being employed by job was not communicated to the contractors, Rep. vi. App. 475.

3. Extra Prices paid for Horses :

Statement showing the amount paid for horses and teams in the years 1758 and 1780, and in the several years from 1790 to 1803, the amount of the pay of the teams employed at the contract price, and the amount of extra paid above the prices contracted for in each year, Rep. vi. 99.

4. Richard Nelson's Contract :

Copy of contract, dated 1 November 1786, entered into between the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy and Richard Nelson, of Plymouth dock, in the county of Devon, for the supply of Plymouth dockyard with horses, Rep. vi. App. 459, 460—Account of cash received for the use of eighteen teams of horses, employed in His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth per contract with R. Nelson, commencing 2d day of February 1787, ending 24 August 1790, ib. 467.

5. Susannah Croad's Contract :

Copy of contract, dated 11 May 1799, entered into between the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy and Susannah Croad, of Keyham, for the supply of the dockyard at Plymouth with horses, Rep. vi. App. 460, 461—Copy of contract, dated 2 September 1794, entered into between the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy and Susannah Croad, of Keyham, for the supply of the dockyard with horses, ib. 462, 463.

6. Ann Croad's Contract :

Copy of the contract, bearing date 2 October 1802, entered into by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy with Ann Croad, of Keyham, for the supply of Plymouth dockyard with horses and teams, Rep. vi. App. 463-465.

See also Chatham Dockyard, 1. Contracts, 1. Deptford Dockyard, 2. Job Work, II. 4. Marshall, John, 3. Navy Board, 8. Netherton, Thomas. Plymouth Dockyard, 8. Portsmouth Dockyard, 3. Sheerness Dockyard, 2. Sison, Edward.

Hospital Ships. See Caton Hospital Ship.

HOURS OF LABOUR :

1. Plymouth Yard.
2. Portsmouth Yard

1. Plymouth Yard :

Manner in which the hours of labour of artificers and workmen in Plymouth yard are regulated, Rep. vi. 9.

2. Portsmouth Yard :

Account of the alterations of the time of the bell-ringing in the mornings and evenings in Portsmouth dockyard, on account of the daylight in Christmas quarter 1803, Rep. vi. App. 340.

See also Artificers, 4. Ropeyard at Plymouth, 5. Task Work, II. 3.

HOUSE CARPENTERS :

1. Plymouth Yard.
2. Woolwich Yard.

1. Plymouth Yard :

Statement showing the number of house carpenters employed in Plymouth yard in the years 1758, 1780, 1790, 1793, 1797, 1801, and 1803, the amount of their wages in those years, with their several allowances, Rep. vi. 74—Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of employment and payment of house carpenters in Plymouth yard, ib. 74-76—Abstract account of the average number of house carpenters borne in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, with the amount of their wages for the following years, 1758-1780, and the several years from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 373.

2. Woolwich Yard :

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of employing and paying the men for house carpenters' work in Woolwich yard, Rep. vi. 145, 146.

See also Bridge, William. Officers of Plymouth Yard, 4. Pitts, Joseph Rowse. Smith, Stephen.

2—Reports, 1803-4—continued.

Household Accounts. See Royal Hospital at Plymouth, 7.

Howe, Earl. Circumstance of the attention of the late Earl Howe being directed to the revision of the instructions and orders issued to the officers of His Majesty's yards, Rep. vi. 134.

Hume, John. Letter from Mr. Pridham to Mr. Baxter, solicitor to the Victualling Board, dated 16 January 1802, relative to the conviction of John Hume at the quarter sessions, for embezzling the King's casks from the victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. App. 745, 746.—See also King v. John Hume.

"Hutchocking." Explanation of the term "hutchocking" used in the boatbuilding business in His Majesty's yards, Rep. vi. 63, 64.

I.

Increase of Wages. Observations of the Commissioners on the large increase of the wages of the shipwrights of Plymouth yard since the year 1758, Rep. vi. 16, 17.

Indictment. See Dansey, White & Co., Messrs.

Information. Circumstance of an information being laid against Messrs. Dansey, White & Co., of the Tamar brewery, Plymouth, for having in the possession certain butts and casks with the King's mark, Rep. viii. 649-656—Copy of the information exhibited before the magistrate, at the instance of Mr. Thomas Miller, agent victualler, at Plymouth, against Messrs. Dansey, White & Co., for embezzlement of the King's casks from His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, ib. App. 744.

See also Storekeepers, 1.

Inspector-General of Naval Works. Circumstance of the attention of the inspector-general of naval works being called to the abuses existing in Plymouth dockyard, particularly as to the falsification of the job accounts, and payment of the workmen, Rep. vi. 146, 147.

Inspector of Naval Hospitals. Appointment of one of the members of the Sick and Hurt Board exclusively to inspect the several medical departments, Rep. vii. 555.

See also Baird, Dr. Andrew.

INSTRUCTIONS TO OFFICERS:

1. Plymouth Yard.
2. Royal Hospital at Plymouth.
3. Revision of Instructions.

1. Plymouth Yard:

Observations of the Commissioners on the ancient date of the instructions under which the officers and clerks of Plymouth yard act, Rep. vi. 6.

2. Royal Hospital at Plymouth:

Neglect of the Board of Sick and Wounded to furnish the stewards and agent of the Royal Hospital with instructions for their guidance in the execution of their duties, Rep. vii. 554—Extract of the instructions given by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty to the Governor of His Majesty's Naval Hospital at East Stonehouse, for his guidance in the execution of his duties, ib. App. 611.

3. Revision of Instructions:

Observations of the Commissioners on the necessity of revising the instructions for the several officers of His Majesty's dockyards, Rep. vi. 134.

See also Hamond, Sir Andrew Snape, Bart. Howe, Earl. Middleton, Sir Charles Palmer, William. Royal Hospital at Plymouth, 6.

Irregularities. Observations of the Commissioners on the irregularities and abuses that have existed in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, and manner in which they have arisen, Rep. vi. 124-127.—See also Victualling Department at Plymouth, 2.

ISSUE OF STORES:

1. Royal Hospital at Plymouth.
2. Victualling Department at Plymouth.

1. Royal Hospital at Plymouth:

Observations of the Commissioners on the great negligence in the issue of stores to the wards in the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, Rep. vii. 547.

2. Victualling

2—Reports, 1803-4—continued.

ISSUE OF STORES—continued.

2. Victualling Department at Plymouth:

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of issuing and accounting for provisions and stores at the victualling department at Plymouth, Rep. viii. 641-644.

See also Victualling Department at Plymouth, 4.

J.

Jagoe, James. Examination of Mr. James Jagoe, assistant to the master shipwright of Plymouth yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 24 September 1803, relative to the duties of his office, and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 279-281.

Jeffery, John. Examination of John Jeffery, esq., clerk of the cheque of Woolwich yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 19 January 1804, relative to the duties of his office, and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 517-519—Further examination of John Jeffery, esq. before the Commissioners on 20 January 1804, relative to the mode of accounting for work performed, ib. 520.

Jenner, John. Examination of Mr. John Jenner, foreman of the mast-house in Plymouth yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 27 September 1803, relative to the premium paid by him for his advancement in the dockyard, Rep. vi. App. 425.

Jenner, Thomas. Examination of Mr. Thomas Jenner, master mastmaker in His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 12 September 1803, respecting the duties of his office, and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 343-345.

JOB NOTES:

1. Plymouth Yard.
2. Woolwich Yard.

1. Plymouth Yard:

Copy of letter from the Plymouth officers to the Navy Board, dated 13 August 1803, on the subject of signing job notes, Rep. vi. App. 396—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the master shipwright and assistants at Plymouth, dated 17 August 1803, in reply, ib.

2. Woolwich Yard:

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of making out job notes for work and labour done in Woolwich dockyard, Rep. vi. 137, 138—In some instances the job notes furnished to the clerk of the cheque did not amount to half the sum of the wages set off to the men, ib. 138, 139.

See also Bone, George. Officers of Plymouth Yard, 2.

JOB WORK:

I. Introduction of Job Work at His Majesty's Yards.

II. Plymouth Yard:

1. Artificers and Labourers.
2. Shipwrights.
3. Boatbuilders' Work.
4. Horses and Teams.
5. Caulkers' Work.
6. Riggers and Riggers' Labourers.
7. Warrants of the Navy Board.

III. Portsmouth Yard.

IV. Woolwich Yard.

1. Introduction of Job Work at His Majesty's Yards:

Observations of the Commissioners with reference to the introduction of job work into His Majesty's yards, and of the occasion that called it forth, Rep. vi. 126, 127—Opinion of the Commissioners that the job work system, even under a superintendence the most attentive and vigilant would always be a source of fraud and abuse, ib. 146—Copy of order of the Lords of the Admiralty, dated 29 November 1783, to employ the workmen in His Majesty's yards by job, Rep. vi. App. 299—Copy of Admiralty order, dated 12 November 1802, approving of the workmen in His Majesty's dockyards being employed by job, ib. 329—Copy of Letter from the Navy Board to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 8 October 1803, assigning their reasons for the introduction of job work in His Majesty's dockyards, ib. 342.

2—Reports, 1803-4—continued.

JOB WORK—continued.

II. Plymouth Yard :

1. Artificers and Labourers :

Observations of the Commissioners on the system of employing the artificers and labourers in Plymouth yard by the job, Rep. vi. 11, 12—Copy of account of jobs performed in the month of April 1802 by the scavelmen and labourers in Plymouth yard, ib. 93—Letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Board of Admiralty, dated 5 November 1802, relative to continuing the plan of employing the artificers by job, Rep. vi. App. 328, 329.

2. Shipwrights :

Reasons assigned by the Navy Board to the Lords of the Admiralty for the introduction of job work among the shipwrights in His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, Rep. vi. 20, 21—Occasion of the Navy Board first establishing a scheme of prices for the various works performed by the shipwrights in His Majesty's yards by job, ib. 38, 39—Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 2 January 1802, for establishing the scheme for shipwrights' job work at Plymouth dockyard, Rep. vi. App. 315—Account showing what time the shipwrights and other artificers and labourers in Plymouth dockyard have been respectively directed to work, from 1 January 1793 to 30 June 1803, stating the different periods, the mode of employment, and after what rate of pay they were set off in each period, ib. 432-443.

3. Boatbuilders' Work :

Observations of the Commissioners on the system of employing the artificers and labourers by the job in building and repairing boats, Rep. vi. 54-60.

4. Horses and Teams :

Observations of the Commissioners on the practice pursued in Plymouth yard of hiring horses and teams by the job, Rep. vi. 100-105.

5. Caulkers' Work :

Account of the quantity of seam to be caulked on old work, by job, by each man, for one day, one tide, and two tides, Rep. vi. App. 393.

6. Riggers and Riggers' Labourers :

Copy of letter of the master's attendant of Plymouth yard to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 14 October 1801, respecting the employment of the riggers and their labourers by job, Rep. vi. App. 485—Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 16 October 1801, in reply, ib.—Letter of the first clerk to the clerk of the cheque in Plymouth dockyard to the Navy Board, dated 19 October 1801, on the same subject, ib. 486—Copy of letter from the Navy Board to the Plymouth officers, dated 24 October 1801, in reply, ib.

7. Warrants of the Navy Board :

Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 3 December 1803, establishing job work in His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, Rep. vi. App. 282, 283—Copy of warrant establishing job work, dated 13 January 1791, ib. 284—Copy of warrant, dated 8 January 1793, employing the workmen, two for one, by job, including their dinner time, ib. 284, 285—Copy of warrant, dated 7 October 1794, for employing the workmen, two for one, exclusive of their dinner time, ib. 285.

III. Portsmouth Yard :

Extract from letter of the officers of Portsmouth dockyard to the Navy Board, dated 13 February 1795, respecting the employment of the shipwrights by job in the houses, Rep. vi. App. 357—Copy of letter from the officers of Portsmouth dockyard to the Navy Board, dated 23 February 1795, stating the impracticability of repairing boats by job, ib. 359, 360.

IV. Woolwich Yard :

Observations of the Commissioners on the system of employing the artificers and labourers in Woolwich yard by the job, Rep. vi. 137-139.

See also Accounts, 1. Admiralty Board, 1. "Amaranthe," His Majesty's Ship. "Antelope," His Majesty's Ship. Boatbuilders' Work, 3. 4. Carpenters' Work, 1. Caulkers' Work, 2. Certificates, 1. Comptroller of the Navy, 1. Daily Pay, 1. Deptford Yard, 1. Earnings of Workmen, 9. Employment of Workmen, Falsification of Accounts. Inspector-General of Naval Works. Navy Board, 5. Officers of Plymouth Yard, 2. Payment of Wages, 2. Portsmouth Dockyard, 5. Riggers and Riggers' Labourers, 2. Scavelmen, 4. Schedule of Prices. Value of Work, 1. 2. Wages, 1. 3. Warrants, 3. Woolwich Dockyard, 2. Wonnicot, Robert. Workmen.

JOINERS' WORK :

1. Plymouth Yard.
2. Woolwich Yard.

1. Plymouth Yard :

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of employment and payment of the joiners in Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. 70-73—Abstract account of the average number of joiners borne in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, with the amount of their wages for the following years, 1758-1780, and the several years from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 373—Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 14 February 1784, directing that task and job work shall be proposed monthly, ib. 415, 416.

2. Woolwich Yard :

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of employing and paying the workmen for joiners' work at Woolwich yard, Rep. vi. 145.

See also Hayward, William.

Jones, Samuel. Examination of Mr. Samuel Jones, foreman of the shipwrights in Plymouth yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 12 September 1803, relative to the duties of his office, and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 296-298.

K.

KEAST, SAMUEL :

1. "Le Caton" Hospital Ship Contract.
2. Transfer of Contract.
3. Allowance for victualling sick and wounded Seamen.

1. "Le Caton" Hospital Ship Contract :

Observations of the Commissioners on the terms of the contract entered into by the Board of Sick and Wounded and Mr. Samuel Keast, purser of "Le Caton" hospital ship, for victualling the sick on board, Rep. vii. 558-560—Copy of contract entered into 8 February 1794, between the Commissioners for taking care of the sick and wounded seamen and Mr. Samuel Keast, purser of His Majesty's hospital ship "Le Caton," for supplying and providing the sick and wounded seamen with provisions and necessaries, ib. App. 631-633.

2. Transfer of Contract :

Articles of agreement entered into, 1 March 1794, between Samuel Keast, purser of His Majesty's ship "Le Caton" and George Bouchier Worgan, surgeon's first mate of the said ship, for supplying and providing the sick and wounded seamen with provisions and necessaries, Rep. vii. App. 627-629.

3. Allowances for victualling sick and wounded Seamen :

Account of the sums of money paid Mr. Samuel Keast, purser of His Majesty's hospital ship "Le Caton," for victualling sick and wounded seamen during the late war, from 1794 to 1798, both inclusive, Rep. vii. App. 634.

See also Caton Hospital Ship, 4. Sick and Wounded Board, 2.

Kevern, C. Letter from Mr. C. Kevern, master shipwright's assistant at Plymouth dockyard, to the honourable the Navy Board, dated 24 April 1803, relative to the manner in which the workmen had been paid for the extra time, Rep. vi. App. 325.

Key Bearer. Nature of the duties of the key bearer in the ropeyard at Plymouth, and how paid for his services, Rep. vi. 120.

King v. John Hume. Letter of Mr. Pridham to Mr. Baxter, solicitor to the Victualling Board, dated 16 January 1802, respecting the prosecution of John Hume for the embezzlement of the King's casks from His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. App. 745, 746.

KING'S MARK :

1. Obliteration of Mark.
2. Sale of Stores.

1. Obliteration of Mark :

Attempt made to obliterate the King's mark from certain butts and casks discovered concealed at Messrs. Dansey, White & Co.'s brewery at Maurice Town, near Plymouth dock, Rep. viii. 648, 649.

2. Sale of Stores :

Opinion of the Commissioners that no stores having the King's mark should be sold, Rep. viii. 647—Circumstances attending the discovery of some butts and casks with the King's mark, at Messrs. Dansey, White & Co.'s brewery, called the Tamar brewery, ib. 648-656.

See also Dansey, White & Co., Messrs. Embezzlement of the King's Casks. Storekeepers, 1.

KING'S YARDS :

- | | |
|-------------------------------|--------------------------|
| 1. Boatbuilders' Work. | 4. Ship Building. |
| 2. Caulkers' Work. | 5. Task Work. |
| 3. Job Work. | 6. Wages. |

1. Boatbuilders' Work :

Statement of the prices at present allowed by the Navy Board warrants for building and completing, and for the repairing boats in His Majesty's dockyards, Rep. vi. 63—Comparative account of the expense for building and completing the several classes of boats for His Majesty's fleet, in the several yards, ib. App. 370, 371.

2. Caulkers' Work :

Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 6 May 1773, establishing schemes for caulkers' work in His Majesty's dockyards, Rep. vi. App. 389, 390—Copy of warrant of the Navy Board, dated 5 December 1783, establishing schemes for caulkers' work, ib. 390, 391—Table showing the quantity of the several sorts of work to be performed by the caulkers in His Majesty's naval yards, for a single day's work, or for a tide, and two tides extra, ib. 392, 393—Account of the number of threads of black and white oakum to be used in caulking a seam of each thickness on new work of ships' sides and decks, with the quantity of seam for one man for one day, &c., ib. 393.

3. Job Work :

Observations of the Commissioners with reference to the circumstance of the introduction of job work into His Majesty's dockyard, and the occasion which called it forth, Rep. vi. 126, 127—Copy of order of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated 29 November 1783, to employ the workmen in His Majesty's yards by job, ib. App. 299—Copy of Admiralty order, dated 12 November 1802, approving of the workmen in His Majesty's dockyards being employed by the job, ib. 329—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 8 October 1803, assigning their reasons for the introduction of job work in His Majesty's dockyards, ib. 342.

4. Ship Building :

Observations of the Commissioners on the advantage of building ships in His Majesty's yards instead of building them by contract, Rep. vi. 131.

5. Task Work :

Copy of the warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 23 March 1775, establishing task work in His Majesty's dockyards, Rep. vi. App. 253-257—Copy of warrant of the Navy Board relative to the introduction of task work in the King's yards, dated 22 August 1775, ib. 259, 260—Copy of warrant respecting task work, dated 3 May 1776, ib. 260, 261.

6. Wages :

Observations of the Commissioners on the very loose manner in which the payments of the wages of the workmen in His Majesty's yards has been conducted, Rep. vi. 14—Account of the wages of the workmen employed in His Majesty's dockyards in the years 1758 and 1780, and in each year from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, ib.—Comparative view of the wages paid per day, on an average, to the shipwrights of the different yards, on Christmas quarter, 1803, ib. 47—Comparison of the expense attending the performance performance of the works by job, with the sums which would have been allowed if the same work had been performed by task, Rep. vi. 127, 128—Opinion of the Commissioners that the wages of the artificers in His Majesty's dockyards should be limited until adequate rates of pay be established, ib. 133.

2—Reports, 1803-4—continued.

KING'S YARDS—continued.

Accountant's Office. Allowances to Workmen, 1. Apprentices, 4. Barge Building. Chatham Dockyard. Chips. Classification of Workmen. Daily Pay, 1. Deptford Dockyard. Dismissal of Officers, 1. 3. Double Days. Earnings of Workmen, 1-7. Emoluments. Employment of Workmen, 1. 2. Extra Tides, 1. Fees, 1. Foremen of Dockyards. Howe, Earl. Instructions to Officers, 3. Job Work, 1. Launches. Pay, 1. Piece Work, 1. Pinnaces. Plymouth Dockyard. Portsmouth Dockyard. Prices, 1-6. Quartermen of Shipwrights. Sheerness Dockyard. Shipwrights, 1. 1-3. Storekeepers, 1. Superannuations, 1. Table of Prices. Task Work, 1. Teams, 1. 1. Wages, 1. 1-5. Woolwich Dockyard. Workmen. Yawls.

Knowles, John. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Mr. Knowles, assistant to the master shipwright at Woolwich, with respect to the repairs done to His Majesty's ship "Amaranthe" at that yard, Rep. vi. 140, 141—Examination of Mr. John Knowles, assistant to the master shipwright of Woolwich yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 25 January 1804, relative to the duties of his office, and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 520-525.

L.

LABOURERS:

I. Plymouth Yard:

1. Employment and Payment of Labourers.
2. Establishment Borne.
3. Bricklayers' Labourers.
4. Painters.
5. Job and Task Work.
6. Hours of Labour.

II. Portsmouth Yard.

III. Woolwich Yard.

IV. Royal Hospital at Plymouth.

I. Plymouth Yard:

1. Employment and Payment of Labourers:

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of employing and paying the several classes of labourers in Plymouth dockyard, Rep. vi. 8, 9.

2. Establishment Borne:

Account of labourers and artificers established and borne at Plymouth yard on 6 September 1803, with their rates of pay and allowances, and the times when such rates and allowances were established, Rep. vi. App. 190-193—Abstract account of the average number of labourers borne in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, with the amount of their wages in the following years, 1758-1780, and in the several years from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, ib. 376.

3. Bricklayers' Labourers:

Statement showing the number of bricklayers' labourers employed in Plymouth yard in the years 1758, 1780, 1790, 1793, 1797, 1801, and 1803; the amount of their wages in those years, with their several allowances, Rep. vi. 78.

4. Painters:

Statement of the number of painters' labourers borne on the books of Plymouth yard on 5 September 1803, and their rates of pay, Rep. vi. 86.

5. Job and Task Work:

Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 3 April 1758, for employing the labourers in Plymouth dockyard by task, Rep. vi. App. 445, 446—Copy of warrant of the Navy Board, dated 2 September 1772, for employing the labourers by task, ib. 446, 447—Account of jobs performed in the month ending 8 May 1802 by the scavelmen and labourers in Plymouth dockyard, ib. 457.

6. Hours of Labour:

Account showing what time the shipwrights and other artificers and labourers in Plymouth dockyard have been respectively directed to work, from 1 January 1793 to 30 June 1803, stating the different periods, the mode of employment, and after what rate of pay they were set off in each period, Rep. vi. App. 432-443.

*LABOURERS—continued.*II. Portsmouth Yard:

Account of the average number of labourers borne in His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth, their daily rate of pay, the time of its establishment, and the amount of their pay in each year, from 1 January 1793 to 31 December 1802, Rep. vi. App. 445.

III. Woolwich Yard:

Observations of the Commissioners on the system of employment and payment of labourers at Woolwich yard, Rep. vi. 137-139.

IV. Royal Hospital at Plymouth:

Observations of the Commissioners on the present establishment of labourers at the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, and rate of wages allowed them, Rep. vii. 551, 552.

See also Bricklayers' Labourers. Cawsand Bay. Certificates, 1. Chips. Classification of Workmen. Daily Pay, 1. 2. Day Work. Earnings of Workmen. Employment of Workmen, 2. Extra Tides, 1. 2. 4. Extra Wages, 1. Job Work. Limitation of Earnings. Lodging Money. Over Time. Pay, 2. 3. Payment of Wages, 1. Pensions. Piece Work, 2. 3. Plymouth Dockyard, 4. Portsmouth Dockyard, 2. Riggers and Riggers' Labourers. Superannuations. Task Work, I. 4. II. 1. Wages, I. 1. II. 1.

Launches. Statement of the prices at present allowed by the Navy Board's warrants for building and completing and for repairing launches in His Majesty's yards, Rep. vi. 63—Comparative account of the expense of building and completing the several classes of boats for His Majesty's fleet in the several yards, Rep. vi. App. 370, 371.

Legal Proceedings. See Adjudication of Magistrate. Assizes.

Lemyn, Joseph. Examination of Mr. Joseph Lemyn, quartermaster of shipwrights, and acting as foreman of the boathouse in Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 17 September 1803, relative to the duties of his office, and manner in which the boat-building business is conducted in Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. App. 360-363.

Letters. See Anonymous Letters.

Limitation of Earnings. Observations of the Commissioners on the impolicy of the system of limitation of earnings of artificers and labourers in His Majesty's yards, Rep. vi. 128, 129.—See also Wages, I. 4.

Lloyd, John. Letter from Mr. John Lloyd, late clerk of the cheque at Plymouth dockyard to the Hon. Navy Board, dated 27 April 1803, relative to the manner in which the workmen had been paid for their extra time, Rep. vi. App. 324.

Locksmiths. Statement showing the number of locksmiths at present employed in Plymouth yard, with their rates of pay and allowances, and the average yearly amount of wages, Rep. vi. 85—Abstract account of the average number of locksmiths borne in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, with the amount of their wages in the following years, 1758-1780, and in the several years from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, ib. App. 379.

Lodging Money. Observations of the Commissioners on the allowance made to artificers and labourers in Plymouth yard, under the title of lodging money, Rep. vi. 13—Recommendation of the Commissioners that the allowance to artificers and labourers in His Majesty's yards for lodging should be abolished, ib. 132.

Lugger, J. Copy of letter from Mr. J. Lugger, clerk of the survey in Plymouth dockyard, to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 13 February 1802, in justification of his conduct, Rep. vi. App. 403.

Lyne, Edward. Examination of Edward Lyne, block cooper in His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 8 November 1803, relative to the frauds practised in the receipt and issue of stores, and in the sale and delivery of old stores at Southdown, Rep. viii. App. 708, 709.

M.

Machinery. See Belfour, John Daniel.

Magistrate. See Adjudication of Magistrate. Depositions.

Malt. Mode of purchasing malt for the use of the brewery at His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. 642.—See also Brewery at Southdown, 1.

Manderson,

Manderson, William. Examination of William Manderson, master joiner of Woolwich yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 24 January 1804, relative to the duties of his office, and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 533, 534.

Marking Stores. Expediency of giving hospital stores distinctive marks in order to prevent embezzlement, Rep. vii. 548.—See also King's Mark.

Marr, John. Examination of Mr. John Marr, boatswain of Plymouth yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 19 September 1803, relative to the duties of his office, and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 451-453—Further examination of Mr. John Marr, before the Commissioners, on 20 September 1803, relative to the number of labourers employed in Plymouth yard, ib. 454, 455.

MARSHALL, JOHN :

1. Overpayment of Shipwrights.
2. Extra Employment of Workmen.
3. Horse Contract.
4. Dismissal from Office.

1. Overpayment of Shipwrights :

Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Mr. Marshall, with respect to the overpayments made to the shipwrights in Plymouth dockyard, Rep. vi. 42—Letter from Mr. John Marshall, late master shipwright at Plymouth yard, to the Honourable the Navy Board, dated 25 April 1803, relative to the manner in which the workmen had been paid for their extra time, Rep. vi. App. 323.

2. Extra Employment of Workmen :

Letter from John Marshall, master shipwright in Plymouth dockyard, to Honourable Commissioner Fanshawe, dated 30 January 1797, making proposal to employ the workmen additional extra, Rep. vi. App. 302.

3. Horse Contract :

Examination of Mr. John Marshall, late master shipwright at Plymouth dockyard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 30 September 1803, respecting the contract entered into by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy for the supply of Plymouth yard with horses and teams, Rep. vi. App. 469, 470.

4. Dismissal from Office :

Letter from Mr. John Marshall, master shipwright of Plymouth dockyard, to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 13 February 1802, in justification of his conduct, Rep. vi. App. 401.

Martyn, F. Letter from F. Martyn to the Board of Sick and Wounded, dated Plymouth dock, 1 May 1796, relative to the wholesale system of plunder carried on by the officers of His Majesty's hospital ship "Le Caton," Rep. vii. App. 625—Letter from Mr. F. Martyn to the Sick and Wounded Board, dated 3 February 1798, relative to the promotion of Mr. Mein, late surgeon to the "Caton" hospital ship, ib. 625, 626.

Masons (Plymouth Yard). Statement showing the number of masons employed in Plymouth yard, in the years 1758, 1780, 1790, 1793, 1797, 1801, and 1803, the amount of their wages in those years, with their several allowances, Rep. vi. 77—Abstract account of the average number of masons borne in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, with the amount of their wages, for the following years, 1758-1780, and the several years from 1790 to 1802, ib. App. 374.

MASTER COOPER AT SOUTHDOWN :

1. Receipt of Stores.
2. Complaint against the Master Cooper.

1. Receipt of Stores :

Duty of the master cooper with respect to the receipt of stores at His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. 641, 642.

2. Complaint against the Master Cooper :

Copy of an anonymous letter to Hon. Admiral Cornwallis, dated Southdown, port of Plymouth, 11 September 1801, complaining of the conduct of the master cooper, John West, and his foreman, Henry Baskerville, at Southdown, Rep. viii. App. 677.

See also West, John.

Master of the Horse. See Daw, Joseph.

2—Reports, 1803-4—continued.

MASTER SHIPWRIGHT (PLYMOUTH YARD):

1. Duties of the Office :
2. Allowance of extra Wages to Workmen.
3. Justification of Conduct.
4. Dismissal from Office.

1. Duties of the Office :

Observations of the Commissioners on the nature of the duties of the master shipwright of Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. 4.

2. Allowance of extra Wages to Workmen :

Copy of general note of the master shipwright at Plymouth dockyard to the clerk of the cheque, for the allowance of extra wages to the workmen, Rep. vi. App. 304.

3. Justification of Conduct :

Copy of letter of the master shipwright of Plymouth dockyard to the Commissioners of His Majesty Navy, dated 5 February 1802, in justification of his conduct, Rep. vi. App. 400, 401.

4. Dismissal from Office :

Copy of letter from the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty to the Navy Board, dated 10 March 1822, conveying orders to dismiss the master shipwright at Plymouth dockyard from his employment, Rep. vi. App. 405-407.

See also Extra Wages, 1. Job Notes, 1. Marshall, John. Seppings, Robert. Sison, Edward. Tovey, Mr. Tucker, Thomas.

Master's Attendant (Plymouth Yard). Observations of the Commissioners on the nature of the duties of the master's attendant in Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. 4, 5—Letter of the master's attendant of His Majesty's yard at Plymouth to the Navy Board, dated 14 October 1801, respecting the employment of the riggers and their labourers by job, Rep. vi. App. 485.—See also Smith, James.

MASTMAKERS' WORK (PLYMOUTH YARD):

1. Mode of Employment of Mastmakers.
2. Warrants establishing Schemes.
3. Prices of Work.

1. Mode of Employment of Mastmakers :

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of employing the mastmakers in Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. 49-52.

2. Warrants establishing Schemes :

Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 27 September 1790, establishing a scheme of prices for making masts and yards by task, Rep. vi. App. 346, 347—Copy of warrant, dated 3 January 1791, establishing a scheme of prices for making masts and yards, ib. 348—Copy of warrant, dated 12 October 1793, establishing a scheme for mastmakers' work by job, ib. 348—Copy of warrant, dated 18 December 1795, establishing a scheme for mastmakers' work by job, ib. 349—Copy of warrant, dated 20 February 1799, revising the schemes for making masts and yards, ib.

3. Prices of Work :

Observations of the Commissioners on the comparative statement of the prices established for mastmakers' work in Plymouth yard, by the warrants of the Navy Board of September 1790 and 1799, Rep. vi. 50, 51—Account of prices for making masts, yards, &c., established by warrant of the Navy Board, ib. App. 350, 351.

See also Apprentices, 8. Prices, 2. Task Work, II. 2. Warrants, 5.

Matron of the Royal Hospital. See Bevans, Mary.

Matthews, John. Examination of John Matthews, warder at the gate of His Majesty's victualling department at Southdown, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 9 November 1803, relative to the frauds practised in the receipt and issue of stores, and in the sale and delivery of old stores at Southdown, Rep. viii. App. 715.

May, Robert. Examination of Mr. Robert May, foreman of the bricklayers in Plymouth yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 7 October 1803, relative to the duties of his office, and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 425, 426.

Meals.

2.—Reports, 1803-4—continued.

Meals. Observations of the Commissioners with respect to the time allowed to the artificers and labourers in Plymouth yard for their meals, Rep. vi. 10.

See also Dinner Time.

Measurer. Nature of the duties of the measurer of sawyers' work in Plymouth yard, and how paid, Rep. vi. 80, 81.

Medical Attendance. Nature of medical attendance on artificers and labourers in Plymouth yard, when hurt in His Majesty's service, Rep. vi. 12.

Medical Department. See Accounts, 5. Sick and Wounded Board.

Medicines. Observations of the Commissioners on the manner in which medicines are supplied for the use of the sick and wounded in the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, Rep. vii. 55^o, 55¹.

See also Dispenser of Medicines. Royal Hospital at Plymouth, 3. 4.

Members of the Navy Board. Observations of the Commissioners on the necessity of members of the Navy Board being chosen for their fitness for the situations they are to fill, Rep. vi. 135.—See also Navy Board, 1.

Middleton, Sir Charles. Circumstance of the attention of Sir Charles Middleton being directed to the revision of the instructions and orders issued from time to time to the officers of His Majesty's yards, Rep. vi. 134.

MILLER, THOMAS:

1. Victualling Contracts.
2. Sale of Old Stores.
3. Embezzlement of the King's Casks.
4. Dismissal of William Netherton.

1. Victualling Contracts:

Examination of Thomas Miller, esq., agent victualler at His Majesty's victualling department at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 29 October 1803, relative to the mode in which contracts for provisions and stores are made for the supply of the service, Rep. viii. App. 683-685.

2. Sale of Old Stores:

Examination of Thomas Miller, esq., agent victualler at His Majesty's victualling department at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 12 November 1803, relative to the sale of old stores, and the loss in casks of wine and spirits by shrinkage, Rep. viii. App. 685, 686.

3. Embezzlement of the King's Casks:

Examination of Thomas Miller, esq., agent victualler at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 22 and 24 October 1803, relative to the embezzlement of the King's casks from His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. App. 726-735.—Letter from Thomas Miller, esq., agent-general at Plymouth, to the Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy, dated 5 December 1804, relative to the discovery of a quantity of the King's casks at the brewery of Messrs. Dansey, White & Co., called the Tamar brewery, ib. 767.—Letter from Thomas Miller, e-q., agent victualler at Plymouth, to the Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy, dated 8 December 1801, respecting the recovery of the King's casks from Messrs. Dansey & Co., of the Tamar brewery, ib. 768.

4. Dismissal of William Netherton:

Letter from Thomas Miller, esq., agent victualler at Plymouth, to the Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy, dated 4 January 1803, relative to the dismissal of William Netherton from his situation, as cooper in His Majesty's victualling yard at Plymouth, Rep. viii. App. 765.

See also Agent Victualler at Plymouth.

Moore, Alexander. Examination of Mr. Alexander Moore, master smith of Plymouth yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 21 September 1803, relative to the duties of his situation, and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 430, 431.

2—Reports, 1803-4—continued.

MUSTERS OF WORKMEN :

1. Plymouth Yard.
2. Woolwich Yard.

1. Plymouth Yard :

Observations of the Commissioners on the manner in which the artificers and labourers in Plymouth yard are mustered, Rep. vi. 9, 10.

2. Woolwich Yard :

Observations of the Commissioners on the neglect of the clerks of the Checque in Woolwich yard, to muster workmen on duty, Rep. vi. 136, 137.

See also Fees, 2.

N.

Nankivel, Benjamin. Examination of Mr. Benjamin Nankivel, second clerk in the Clerk of the Checque's Office at Plymouth dockyard, taken before Mr. Commissioner Fanshawe, 10 April 1803, relative to the earnings of artificers in Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. App. 322
—Examination of Mr. Benjamin Nankivel, second clerk to the Clerk of the Checque of His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 14 November 1803, relative to the earnings of the shipwrights employed in the boat-house in Plymouth dockyard, ib. 366.

Narracott, Valentine. Examination of Mr. Valentine Narracott, cooper of Stonehouse, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 9 November 1803, touching the frauds practised in the receipt and issue of stores, and in the sale and delivery of old stores, at His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. App. 713.

NAVAL HOSPITAL AT EAST STONEHOUSE :

1. Treatment of sick and wounded Seamen.
2. Establishment.
3. Expenditure.
4. Stores and Supplies.
5. Coals.
6. Instructions to Officers.

1. Treatment of sick and wounded Seamen :

Observations of the Commissioners with respect to the treatment of the sick and wounded, and the general administration of affairs at the Naval Hospital at East Stonehouse, Rep. vii. 543-545.

2. Establishment :

Account of the establishment of the Naval Hospital at East Stonehouse, as it stood on 7 October 1803, Rep. vii. App. 566, 567.

3. Expenditure :

Account showing the amount of the expenses of the Naval Hospital at East Stonehouse, from the year 1792 to 1804, exclusive of medicines, necessaries, bedding, &c. sent from London, with a distinct account of the expense of wine, porter, fruit, and workmen's bills, in each year; also the number of patients victualled for one day, Rep. vii. 544
—Account showing the amount of the expense of the Naval Hospital at East Stonehouse, from the year 1794 to 1802, exclusive of bedding &c. sent from London, and medicines from Apothecaries' Hall, together with the exact expense of wine, porter, and fruit, and also the number of patients victualled and coals expended during the same time, ib. App. 568-577—Account of the household expense of the Naval Hospital at East Stonehouse, for the month of September 1803, ib. 578-587.

4. Stores and Supplies :

Copy of report, dated 1 June 1803, by three divisional masters superintending the ships in ordinary, of the state of the stores and supplies for the use of the sick and wounded in the Naval Hospital at East Stonehouse, Rep. vii. 545, 546—Instances of boxes of nitre and vitriolic acid being sent to a druggist's at Plymouth, to be filled up, without an account being previously taken of the quantity remaining in them, ib. 548—Account of the expense of spirits of wine, lint, pearlshes, honey, sago, &c. paid as medicines for the Naval Hospital at East Stonehouse during the late war, from 1793 to 1801, both inclusive, ib. 617.

5. Coals :

Account of the issues of coals made to the several officers and wards of the Naval Hospital at East Stonehouse, in the month of September 1803, Rep. vii. 584, 585—
Account

2—Reports, 1803-4—continued.

NAVAL HOSPITAL AT EAST STONEHOUSE—continued.5. Coals—continued.

Account of coals received into the Naval Hospital at East Stonehouse, between 1 January 1790 and 28 October 1803, Rep. vii. 607.

6. Instructions to Officers :

Extract of the instructions given by the Right hon. the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty to the Governor of His Majesty's Naval Hospital at East Stonehouse, for his guidance in the execution of his duties, Rep. vii. App. 611.

See also Accounts, 5. Adams, James. Baird, Dr. Andrew. Beer. Bevans, Mary. Cleather, George. Coals, 1. Contracts, 2. Creyke, Richard. Dart, William. Demands for Stores. Dismissal of Officers. Dispenser of Medicines. Eggs. Establishment. Fisher, William. Fruit. Hamnick, Stephen. Instructions to Officers, 2. Issue of Stores, 1. Labourers, IV. Medicines. Necessaries. Porter. Provisions, 2. Remains of Stores, 1. Repairs, 3. Salaries of Officers. Searle, George. Servants. Stores. Supplies. Treatment of Patients. Tripe, Thomas. Unserviceable Stores. Wine.

Naval Works. See Inspector-General of Naval Works.

NAVY BOARD :

1. Members of the Board, and their Responsibility.
2. Report of Committee on Plymouth Dockyard.
3. Extra Employment of Workmen at Plymouth Yard.
4. Overpayment of Shipwrights at Plymouth Yard.
5. Job Work, King's Yards.
6. Payment of Workmen at Plymouth Yard.
7. Prices of Boat-building at Plymouth.
8. Horse Contract.
9. Woolwich Yard.

1. Members of the Board, and their Responsibility :

Observations of the Commissioners on the practice pursued by the Navy Board of transferring the responsibility of every measure, however trifling, from themselves to their subordinates, Rep. vi. 81, 82—Observations of the Commissioners on the necessity of intelligence and application to business in the different members who constitute the Navy Board, ib. 135.

2. Report of Committee on Plymouth Dockyard :

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Secretary of the Admiralty, dated 17 February 1802, inclosing the report of the Committee on Plymouth Dockyard, Rep. vi. App. 404, 405.

3. Extra Employment of Workmen at Plymouth Yard :

Letter of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Commissioner Fanshawe, dated 1 February 1797, approving of the workmen in Plymouth yard being employed additional extra, as proposed by the master shipwrights, Rep. vi. App. 303—Copy of the correspondence between the Navy Board, the present and late officers of Plymouth yard, relative to the manner in which the workmen were to be, and had been, paid for the extra time, ib. 316-327—Copy of letter from the Navy Board to Sir Evan Nepean, Secretary to the Admiralty, dated 11 March 1803, requesting to know if the workmen in His Majesty's yards were to be employed extra only on the ships ordered to be fitted, ib. 330.

4. Overpayment of Shipwrights in Plymouth Yard :

Observations of the Commissioners on the gross neglect of the Navy Board in not inquiring into the fact of the shipwrights in Plymouth yard, being paid for work not performed, Rep. vi. 35. 44, 45.

5. Job Work, King's Yards :

Reasons assigned by the Navy Board for the employment of the artificers and labourers in Plymouth yard by the job, in preference to day work, Rep. vi. 48, 49—Letter of the Navy Board to the Admiralty, dated 22 November 1793, proposing to employ the workmen in His Majesty's yards by job, Rep. vi. App. 298—Letter of the Navy Board to the secretary of the Admiralty, dated 5 November 1802, relative to continuing the plan of employing the artificers in His Majesty's yards by job, ib. 328, 329—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 8 October 1803, assigning their reasons for the introduction of job work in His Majesty's dockyards, ib. 342.

NAVY BOARD—continued.

6. Payment of Workmen at Plymouth Yard:

Copy of letter from the Navy Board to the officers at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, dated 21 April 1803, relative to the manner in which the workmen were to be paid for the extra time, Rep. vi. App. 323—Letter of the Navy Board to the Plymouth officers, dated 8 June 1802, signifying that their warrant of 5 June 1802 was intended to extend to all classes of workmen, ib. 458.

7. Prices of Boat-building at Plymouth:

Copy of letter of the Navy Board to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 5 April 1804, with an account of the prices allowed for building boats at the different yards, Rep. vi. App. 369, 370.

8. Horse Contract:

Letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 12 May 1794, giving Mrs. Croad warning on her contract for the supply of horses to Plymouth dockyard, Rep. vi. App. 468—Copy of letter of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 31 January 1804, signifying that the advance granted to the contractors for horses for their being employed by job was not communicated to the contractors, ib. 475.

9. Woolwich Yard:

Observations of the Commissioners on the conduct of the Navy Board in connexion with the administration of affairs at Woolwich yard, Rep. vi. 136-147.

See also Attorney to the Navy Board. Audit of Accounts. Civil Department of the Navy. Committee of the Navy Board. Comptroller of the Navy. Eastlake, Mr. Extra Tides, 6. Extra Wages, 1. Job Work, II. III. 7. Joiners' Work, 1. Mastmakers' Work, 2. Members of the Navy Board. Palmer, William. Payment of Wages, 2. Plymouth Dockyard, 1. Regulations. Schedule of Prices. Signature of Warrants. Standing Orders. Task Work, I. 1. Warrants, 1. 5.

Necessaries. Observations of the Commissioners on the manner in which medicines and necessaries are supplied for the use of the sick and wounded in the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, Rep. vii. 550, 551—Recommendation of the Commissioners that necessaries be allowed to such persons only as may be patients within the walls of the hospital, ib. 551.—See also Royal Hospital at Plymouth, 3.

NELSON, RICHARD:

1. Horse Contract.
2. Supply of Horses and Teams at Plymouth Yard.

1. Horse Contract:

Loss sustained by Mr. Richard Nelson by the horse contract with the Navy Board for the supply of Plymouth dockyard with teams, Rep. vi. 99—Terms of the contract entered into by the Navy Board with Mr. Richard Nelson of Plymouth Dock for the supply of the dockyard with horses, Rep. vi. App. 459, 460.

2. Supply of Horses and Teams at Plymouth Yard:

Examination of Richard Nelson, esq., taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 29 September 1803, respecting the contract entered into with the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, for the supply of the dockyard at Plymouth with horses and teams, Rep. vi. App. 465, 466.

Nelson, Robert John. Copy of letters from Robert John Nelson, esq., master shipwright at Sheerness, to Mr. Commissioner Coffin, dated 6 and 11 January 1804, respecting a launch built at that yard, Rep. vi. App. 370, 371.

NETHERTON, THOMAS:

1. Office of Clerk of the Cheque at Plymouth.
2. Job and Task Work.
3. Horse Contract.

1. Office of Clerk of the Cheque at Plymouth:

Examination of Mr. Thomas Netherton, first clerk to the clerk of the cheque of His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 29 August 1803, relative to the duties of the office, and manner in which the business is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 164-169.

NETHERTON, THOMAS—continued.2. Job and Task Work :

Examination of Mr. Thomas Netherton, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners, on 30 August 1803, on the subject of the employment of the artificers in Plymouth yard at job and task work, Rep. vi. App. 169-175—Further examination of Mr. Thomas Netherton, before the Commissioners, on 1 September 1803, relative to the terms of employment of artificers and labourers in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, ib. 176-187—Copy of letter from Mr. Thomas Netherton, first clerk to the clerk of the cheque in Plymouth yard, to the Navy Board, dated 19 October 1801, respecting the employment of the riggers and their labourers by job, ib. 486.

3. Horse Contract :

Examination of Mr. Thomas Netherton, first clerk to the clerk of the cheque of Plymouth yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 29 September 1803, relative to the contracts entered into by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy for the supply of horses and teams to Plymouth dockyard, Rep. vi. App. 470, 471.

NETHERTON, WILLIAM :

1. Embezzlement of the King's Casks.
2. Dismissal from Office.

1. Embezzlement of the King's Casks :

Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of William Netherton, a cooper employed in the Victualling Department, relative to the embezzlement of the King's casks from His Majesty's yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. 651-664—Examination of William Netherton, cooper of Stonehouse, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 21 October 1803, relative to the embezzlement of the King's casks from His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. App. 753, 754—Letter from Mr. William Netherton to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Victualling Board, dated 30 December 1802, relative to the persecution he suffered for giving information respecting the embezzlement of the King's casks from His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, ib. 765.

2. Dismissal from Office :

Copy of letter from Thomas Miller, esq., agent victualler at Plymouth, to the Commissioners for victualling His Majesty's navy, dated 4 January 1803, relative to the cause of the dismissal of William Netherton from his situation as cooper in His Majesty's victualling yard at Plymouth, Rep. viii. App. 765.

Newcastle. See Coals, 3.

Night Work (Plymouth Yard). Observations of the Commissioners on the system of employing the artificers and labourers in Plymouth yard by night, Rep. vi. 11, 12—Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, dated 28 January 1801, to the respective officers of His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, directing them to employ the workmen one night extra, Rep. vi. App. 304—Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy to the officers of Plymouth yard, dated 23 January 1801, to employ the workmen one extra night in fitting the "Orion" and "Majestic" for sea, ib. 327, 328.

O.

Oakum. Account of the number of threads of black and white oakum, and hair, used in caulking a seam of each thickness, with the quantity of seam for one man, for one day, Rep. vi. App. 392.

Oakum Boys. Abstract account of the average number of oakum boys borne in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, with the amount of their wages in the following years 1758-1788, and in the several years from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 376.

Obliteration of Marks. See King's Mark, 1.

Office of Accounts. Observations of the Commissioners with respect to the establishment of an office in each of His Majesty's yards, for arranging and drawing out the accounts, Rep. vi. 131.

OFFICERS OF PLYMOUTH YARD :

1. Extra Wages to Artificers, &c.
2. Job Work.
3. Caulkers' Work.
4. Carpenters' Work.
5. Payment of Labourers.

1. Extra Wages to Artificers :

Observations of the Commissioners on the conduct of the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, in allowing to the artificers and labourers such a considerable portion of extra wages, without taking any steps to ascertain that work was performed equal thereto, Rep. vi. 30, 31—Copy of letter from the officers of His Majesty's yard at Plymouth to the Navy Board, dated 29 March 1803, relative to the manner in which the workmen were to be, and had been, paid for the extra time, ib. App. 316, 317.

2—Reports, 1803-4—continued.

OFFICERS OF PLYMOUTH YARD—continued.

1. Extra Wages to Artificers—continued.

2. Job Work:

Letter from the officers of Plymouth dockyard to the Honourable the Navy Board, dated 3 May 1803, relative to the manner in which the workmen were to be, and had been, paid for the extra time, Rep. vi. App. 325-327—Copy of letter of the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth to the Navy Board, dated 13 August 1803, on the subject of signing job notes, ib. 396.

3. Caulkers' Work:

Copy of letters from the officers of His Majesty's yard at Plymouth to the secretary to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 20 February 1804, respecting the scheme of caulkers' work, Rep. vi. App. 394.

4. Carpenters' Work:

Copy of letter of the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth to the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, dated 11 June 1803, respecting house carpenters' job work, Rep. vi. App. 418.

5. Payment of Labourers:

Copy of letter from the officers of Plymouth yard to the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, dated 6 April 1802, relative to paying the labourers employed by job, Rep. vi. App. 455—Copy of letter from the Plymouth officers to the Navy Board, dated 8 May 1802, on the same subject, ib. 456, 457.

See also Dismissal of Officers. Emoluments. Extra Wages, 1. "Gibraltar," His Majesty's Ship. Instructions to Officers. Payment of Wages, 2. Salaries of Officers, 1. 2.

Officers' Table. Observations of the Commissioners on the circumstance of furnishing the officers' table of Hospital Ship "Le Caton," out of the profits of the contract for victualling the sick, Rep. vii. 558-560.

See also Surgeon of "Le Caton" Hospital Ship,

OFFICIAL RESIDENCES:

1. Physician and Surgeon of Plymouth Hospital.
2. Steward and Agent of Plymouth Hospital.

1. Physician and Surgeon of Plymouth Hospital:

Privilege enjoyed by the physician and surgeon of the Royal Hospital at Plymouth of official residences, Rep. vii. 554, 555.

2. Steward and Agent of Plymouth Hospital:

Observations of the Commissioners on the folly of giving official servants residences without the means to support them, as in the case of the steward and agent of the Royal Hospital, Rep. vii. 555.

Old Stores. Observations of the Commissioners on the frauds and abuses practised in the sale of old stores at His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. 645-647.

See also Conditions of Sale. Frauds, 2. Removal of Lots. Sale of Old Stores. Southdown Victualling Yard, 3. Victualling Department at Plymouth, 6.

Orders. Observations of the Commissioners on the necessity of digesting the immense mass of orders which have been from time to time issued to the officers of His Majesty's yards, Rep. vi. 134.

Ordinary, The, at Plymouth. Nature of the ordinary in His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, and class of persons belonging to that establishment, Rep. vi. 114-116.

See also Provisions, 1. Rations. Victualling Board.

"ORION," HIS MAJESTY'S SHIP:

1. Overpayment of Shipwrights.
2. Value of Work performed.

1. Overpayment of Shipwrights:

Account of the excess of wages paid to the shipwrights alone, beyond the value of the work actually performed, in the repair of the "Orion" in Plymouth yard, in the years 1800 and 1801, Rep. vi. 34.

2. Value

2—Reports, 1803-4—continued.

“ORION,” HIS MAJESTY’S SHIP—continued.

2. Value of Work performed:

Account of the value of the work performed to His Majesty’s ship “Orion,” which was repaired at the port of Plymouth in the years 1800 and 1801, with the amount of wages paid to the artificers employed, and the extra paid for the teams, in consequence of their being borne on the job, Rep. vi. App. 310, 311.

OVERPAYMENTS:

1. Shipwrights (Plymouth Yard).
2. Contractor for “Le Caton” Hospital Ship.

1. Shipwrights (Plymouth Yard):

Statement showing the manner in which the overpayment of 1,454 l. 13 s. 3 d. was made to the shipwrights employed on the repairs of the “Hercule,” in His Majesty’s yard at Plymouth, Rep. vi. 40, 41.

2. Contractor for “Le Caton” Hospital Ship:

Circumstance of an overpayment of 87 l. 17 s. 3 d. being made to the contractor for victualling the sick and wounded on board “Le Caton” hospital ship, in consequence of the inadvertence of one of the principal clerks in the Sick and Wounded Office, Rep. vii. 560, 561.

See also Bastard, John. “Canopus,” His Majesty’s Ship. “Donegal,” His Majesty’s Ship. “Hercule,” His Majesty’s Ship. Marshall, John, 1. 2. Navy Board, 4. “Orion,” His Majesty’s Ship. “Princess Royal,” His Majesty’s Ship. “San Josef,” His Majesty’s Ship. Seppings, Robert. “Spartiate,” His Majesty’s Ship.

Over Time. Recommendation of the Commissioners with respect to the payment of the artificers and labourers in His Majesty’s yards, for work done beyond the usual hours of labour, Rep. vi. 132.

P.

Painters. Statement of the number of painters borne on the books of Plymouth yard on 5 September 1803, and their rates of pay, Rep. vi. 86.

Palmer, William. Examination of William Palmer, esq., Commissioner of His Majesty’s navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, the 8th February 1804, respecting the instructions issued by the Navy Board to the officers of His Majesty’s dockyards, for their guidance in the performance of their duties, Rep. vi. App. 243-253.

Patey, John. Examination of Mr. John Patey, first clerk to the masters attendant of Plymouth yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 14 November 1803, relative to the duties of his situation, and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 487, 488.

Patients. See Royal Hospital at Plymouth, 3. Treatment of Patients.

Patton, Vice-Admiral. Circumstance of Vice-Admiral Patton reporting to the Lords of the Admiralty the unseaworthiness of H. M. S. “Amaranthe,” Rep. vi. 140.

PAY:

1. His Majesty’s Dockyards.
2. Artificers and Labourers, Plymouth Yard.
3. Labourers and Scavellers, Plymouth and Woolwich.

1. His Majesty’s Dockyards:

Opinion of the Commissioners that adequate rates of pay should be established for the different classes of workmen in His Majesty’s yards, Rep. vi. 133—Account of the pay of His Majesty’s yards in the years 1758-1780, and in each year from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 498, 499.

2. Artificers and Labourers (Plymouth Yard):

Account of the rates of pay and allowances for a tide extra to artificers and labourers in Plymouth yard, which have been allowed from the first establishment of the yard, Rep. vi. App. 192, 193.

3. Labourers and Scavellers (Plymouth and Woolwich):

Rate of pay of labourers and scavellers in Plymouth and Woolwich yards, and in His Majesty’s other yards, Rep. vi. 96.

See also Artificers, 1. Braziers. Chatham Dockyard, 5. Coopers’ Work, 1. Daily Pay. Deptford Dockyard, 5. Double Pay. Extra Tides, 2. Plymouth Dockyard, 7. Portsmouth Dockyard, 7. Rates of Pay. Riggers and Rigger’s Labourers, 3. Scavellers, 3. Sheerness Dockyard, 4. Woolwich Dockyard, 5.

2—Reports, 1803-4—continued.

Pay Books. Nature of the examination and check established with regard to the pay books of the artificers and labourers in Plymouth Yard, Rep. vi. 13, 14.

PAYMENT OF WAGES (PLYMOUTH YARD):

1. Quarterly Payment of Artificers and Labourers.
2. Job Work
3. Extra Wages.

1. Quarterly Payment of Artificers and Labourers:

Observations of the Commissioners on the system of quarterly payment of wages to artificers and labourers in Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. 13, 14.

2. Job Work:

Necessity of abolishing the present system of paying the workmen in His Majesty's dockyards by job, Rep. vi. 147—Copy of letter from the officers of Plymouth dockyard to the Navy Board, dated 6 April 1802, relative to paying the labourers employed by job, Rep. vi. App. 455—Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, dated 14 April 1802, in reply to the letter of the Plymouth officers, ib. 456—Copy of letter of the Plymouth officers to the Navy Board, dated 8 May 1802, on the same subject, ib. 456, 457—Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, dated 5 June 1802, in reply to the Plymouth officers, ib. 458.

3. Extra Wages:

Letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy to Mr. Commissioner Fanshawe, dated 4 April 1803, relative to the manner in which the workmen in Plymouth yard were to be paid for the extra time, Rep. vi. App. 318.

See also Abuses, 2. Artificers, 2. Delay in Payment of Wages. Navy Board, 6. Officers of Plymouth Yard, 5. Over Time. Quartermen of Shipwrights, 2. Victualling Department at Plymouth, 3. Wages, 1. 5. Woolwich Dockyard, 1.

Penalties. Recommendation of the Commissioners that a penalty of 500*l.* should be inflicted upon any Government contractor transgressing the terms of his contract, Rep. vii. 560.

Penn, James. Examination of James Penn, block cooper in His Majesty's Victualling Department at Southdown, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 8 November 1803, relative to the frauds practised in the receipt and issue of stores, and in the sale and delivery of old stores at Southdown, Rep. viii. App. 705, 706.

Pensions (Plymouth Yard). Account of the rates of superannuations for the different classes of artificers and labourers; the number to which such indulgence is confined; the servitude required to entitle them to superannuation, and the number of each class now allowed pensions, Rep. vi. App. 196.

Penfold, John Linzee. Examination of Mr. John Linzee Penfold, master ropemaker of Plymouth yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 24 September 1803, relative to the duties of his office, and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 494, 495.

Pering, Richard. Examination of Richard Pering, esq., clerk of the cheque of Plymouth yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 23 August 1803, relative to the duties of his office, and manner in which the business is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 153-164.

Perquisites. See Emoluments.

Philips, Philip. Examination of Philip Philips, block cooper in His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 9 November 1803, relative to the manner in which the coopers' work is performed and accounted for at Plymouth Yard, Rep. viii. App. 709-712.

Physician to the Royal Hospital. See Official Residences, 1. Private Practice. Salaries of Officers, 1.

PIECE WORK:

1. His Majesty's Dockyards generally.
2. Plymouth Yard.
3. Woolwich Yard.

1. His Majesty's Dockyards generally:

Advantage of carrying out the system of piece work in His Majesty's dockyards, where it can be carried fairly and completely into execution, Rep. vi. 125—Observations of the Commissioners with respect to the employment of artificers and labourers by piece work in private concerns, ib. 130.

2. Plymouth Yard:

Observations of the Commissioners on the system of employing the artificers and labourers in Plymouth yard by the piece, Rep. vi. 11, 12.

3. Woolwich

PIECE WORK—continued.3. Woolwich Yard :

Observations of the Commissioners on the system pursued in Woolwich yard of employing the artificers and labourers by the piece, Rep. vi. 137-139.

Pinnaces. Statement of the prices at present allowed by the Navy Board's warrants for building and completing and for repairing pinnaces in His Majesty's dockyards, Rep. vi. 63—Comparative account of the expense of building and completing the several classes of boats for His Majesty's fleets, in the several dockyards, ib. App. 370, 371.

Pitch-heaters. Abstract account of the average number of pitch-heaters borne in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, with the amount of their wages in the following years, 1758-1780, and the several years from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 377.

Pitmen. Rate of wages of a pitman among the sawyers in Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. 81.

Pitts, Joseph Rowse. Examination of Mr. Joseph Rowse Pitts, master house-carpenter in His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 19 September 1803, relative to the duties of his office, and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 416, 417.

Places under Government. See Purchase of Places.

Plumbers. Statement showing the number of plumbers at present employed in Plymouth yard, with their rates of pay and allowances, and average yearly amount of wages, Rep. vi. 85—Abstract account of the average number of plumbers borne in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, with the amount of their wages in the following years, 1758-1780, and in the several years from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 378.

Plymouth District. See Surveyor of Works.

PLYMOUTH DOCKYARD :

1. Report of Navy Board on Visitation.
2. Establishment.
3. Earnings of Workmen.
4. Artificers and Labourers.
5. Apprentices.
6. Purchase of Situations.
7. Pay.
8. Horses and Teams.

1. Report of Navy Board on Visitation :

Copy of report of a Committee of the Navy Board, on a visitation of Plymouth yard, dated 9 February 1802, Rep. vi. App. 397-400.

2. Establishment :

Account of the establishment of Plymouth yard, stating the names and salaries of the officers and clerks, and the number of the different classes of artificers, apprentices, and labourers, with their several rates of pay, and the times when such rates were established; also the different allowances made to them, and the number of each class at present borne, Rep. vi. App. 188-195.

3. Earnings of Workmen :

Account showing the average daily earnings of each class of artificers and labourers in His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, with the time they respectively worked, for the quarter ending 31 December 1803, Rep. vi. App. 341.

4. Artificers and Labourers :

Abstract account of the average number of men and servants of the different classes of workmen borne in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth; with the amount of wages of each class, from the year 1758 to the year 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 372-381—Account showing what time the shipwrights and other artificers and labourers of the yard have been respectively directed to work, from 1 January 1793 to 30 June 1803, stating the different periods, the mode of employment, and after what rate of pay they were set off in each period, ib. 432-443.

5. Apprentices :

Abstract account of the number of apprentices allowed to the officers and foremen of His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, with the amount of their pay in each year, from 1790 to 1802 inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 408-411.

2—Reports, 1803-4—continued.

PLYMOUTH DOCKYARD—continued.6. Purchase of Situations :

List of persons employed in His Majesty's yards at Plymouth who have paid consideration for their several appointments, with the sums received for the same, and to whom paid, taken from the depositions of the parties, before Commissioner Fanshawe, Rep. vi. App. 419-421.

7. Pay :

Account of the pay of His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, in the years 1758-1780, and in each year from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 498, 499.

8. Horses and Teams :

Statement showing the average number of teams employed in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, the contract price per day, and the amount paid in the years 1758-1780, and from 1787 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. 106, 107.

See also Abuses, 1. Accounts, 1. 2. Admiralty Board, 1. 2. Allowances to Workmen, 2. Apprentices, 1. 2. 5. Arrear Accounts, 1. Artificers, 1. 3. 4. Blockmakers. Boatbuilders' Work, 1. 3. 4. Braziers. Bricklayers' Work, 1. Cabin-keepers. "Canopus," His Majesty's Ship. Capstan House. Carpenters' Work, 1. Carvers. "Caton" Hospital Ship. Caulkers' Work, 1. Clerk of the Cheque, 2. Clerk of the Survey. Colour Grinders. Commissioner of Plymouth Yard. Committee of the Navy Board. Comptroller of the Navy, 1. 2. Contracts. Coopers' Work, 1. Cordage. Daily Pay, 2. Dinner Time. Dismissal of Officers. "Donegal," His Majesty's Ship. Double Days. Double Pay. Earnings of Workmen, 1. 10. Embezzlement of Stores. Establishment, 1. Examination of Accounts. Extra Tides, 2. 3. Extra Wages, 1. 5. Falsification of Accounts, 1. Fanshawe, Robert. Fees, 2. Frauds, 1. Hamond, Sir Andrew Snape, Bart. "Hercule," His Majesty's Ship. Horse Contract. Hours of Labour, 1. House Carpenters, 1. Inspector-General of Naval Works. Instructions to Officers. Job Notes, 1. Job Work, II. Joiners' Work, 1. Labourers, 1. Locksmiths. Lodging Money. Masons. Master Shipwright. Masters Attendant. Mastmakers' Work. Medical Attendance. Musters of Workmen, 1. Navy Board, 2. 7. Night Work. Oakum Boys. Officers of Plymouth Yard. Ordinary, The. "Orion," His Majesty's Ship. Overpayments, 1. Painters. Pay, 2. Payment of Wages, 1. Pensions. Piece Work, 2. Pitch-heaters. Plumbers. "Princess Royal," His Majesty's Ship. Purchase of Places. Quarter Boys. Quarterly Notes, 1. Repairs, 1. Residences of Workmen. Riggers and Riggers' Labourers. Ropeyard at Plymouth. Sailmakers' Work. "San Josef," His Majesty's Ship. Sawyers' Work. Scavellmen. Shipwrights, II. 1. 2. Smiths' Work. "Spartiate," His Majesty's Ship. Stage Work. Storekeepers, 2. Strikes of Workmen. Superannuations, 2. Superintendent Commissioner. Task Work, II. Teams, II. 1. 2. Vacancies. Value of Work, I. 1. 2. Wages, II. Wheelwrights. Workmen.

Plymouth Hospital. See Royal Hospital at Plymouth.

Plymouth Port. Account of coals landed in the Port of Plymouth out of vessels from Newcastle and Sunderland, in each year from 1799 to 1803, both inclusive, Rep. viii. App. 704.

Plymouth Sound. Observations of the Commissioners on the extra allowance made to artificers and labourers when they are employed on board ships in Plymouth Sound, Rep. vi. 12.

Plymouth Victualling Yard. See Victualling Department at Plymouth.

POLLARD, JOHN :

1. Brewers' Contract (Plymouth).
2. Supply of Coals to the Victualling Department at Plymouth.

1. Brewers' Contract (Plymouth) :

Examination of Mr. John Pollard, clerk of His Majesty's brewhouse at Southdown, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 7 November 1803, relative to the duties of his situation, and manner in which the business of the department is conducted, Rep. viii. App. 691-693.

2. Supply of Coals to the Victualling Department at Plymouth :

Examination of Mr. John Follard, clerk of His Majesty's brewhouse at Southdown, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 7 November 1803, touching the supply of coals to His Majesty's victualling yard at Plymouth, Rep. viii. App. 693, 694.

Porter.

Porter. Observations of the Commissioners on the extravagant use of porter in the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, Rep. vii. 548, 549.

See also Royal Hospital at Plymouth, 3.

PORTSMOUTH DOCKYARD:

1. Boatbuilders' Work.
2. Dockyard Labourers.
3. Horses and Teams.
4. Earnings of Workmen.
5. Job Work.
6. Caulkers' Work.
7. Dockyard Pay.

1. Boatbuilders' Work:

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of payment for boatbuilders' work in Portsmouth yard, Rep. vi. 61—Extract from letters of the officers of Portsmouth dockyard to the Navy Board, dated 30 October 1793, respecting the repairing of boats by job, Rep. vi. App. 356, 357—Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the officers of His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth, dated 11 May 1785, ordering them to build boats at the prices directed, ib. 367.

2. Dockyard Labourers:

Statement showing the number of labourers employed in Portsmouth dockyard in each year from 1793 to 1803, both inclusive, with the amount of their wages in those years, together with the calculated amount per day to each man, Rep. vi. 89—Account of the average number of labourers borne in His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth, their daily rate of pay, the time of its establishment, and the amount of their pay in each year from 1 January 1793 to 31 December 1802, Rep. vi. App. 445.

3. Horses and Teams:

Statement showing the average number of teams employed in His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth, the contract price per day, and the amount paid in the years 1758-1780, and from 1787 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. 106, 107.

4. Earnings of Workmen:

Account showing the average earnings of the different classes of artificers and labourers in His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth, with the time they respectively worked in Christmas quarter 1803, Rep. vi. App. 338-340.

5. Job Work:

Extract from a letter of the officers of Portsmouth dockyard, to the Navy Board, dated 13 February 1795, as relates to employing the shipwrights by job in the houses, Rep. vi. App. 357—Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the officers of His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth, dated 19 February 1795, allowing to the persons employed in the houses at Portsmouth the same wages as if at the dockside, ib. 357, 358—Letter from the officers of Portsmouth dockyard to the Navy Board, dated 23 February 1795, stating the impracticability of repairing boats by job, ib. 359, 360.

6. Caulkers' Work:

Letter of the officers of His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 20 February 1804, respecting the scheme of caulkers' work, Rep. vi. App. 394, 395.

7. Pay:

Account of the pay of His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth in the years 1758-1780, and in each year from 1790 to 1802 both inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 498, 499.

See also Boatbuilders' Work, 2. Caulkers' Work, 2. Earnings of Workmen, 7. Hours of Labour, 2. Job Work, III. Labourers, II. Surveyors of the Navy. Wages, III.

PRICES:

1. Shipwrights' Work.
2. Mastmakers' Work.
3. Stage Work.
4. Boatbuilders' Work.
5. Coopers' Work.
6. Price of Labour.

1. Shipwrights' Work.

Occasion of a scheme of prices being first established by the Navy Board for various works performed by the shipwrights in His Majesty's yards by job, Rep. vi. 38, 39.

2—Reports, 1803-4—continued.

PRICES—continued.2. Mastmakers' Work :

Comparative statement of the prices established for mastmakers' work by the warrants of the Navy Board of September 1790 and February 1799, Rep. vi. 50—Copy of warrant of the Navy Board, dated 27 September 1790, establishing a scheme of prices for making masts and yards in His Majesty's yards at Plymouth, Rep. vi. App. 346, 347—Account of prices for making masts, yards, bowsprits, &c., established by warrant of the Navy Board, ib. 350, 351.

3. Stage Work :

Account of the prices for stage work, independent of partial stages, proposed by the officers of the several yards, and approved by the Navy Board, Rep. vi. App. 314.

4. Boatbuilders' Work :

Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 7 November 1794, establishing prices for building boats by task in Plymouth dockyard, Rep. vi. App. 355—Account of the prices, per foot, to be allowed the shipwrights in Plymouth yard for repairing boats, ib. 356—Comparative account of the expense of building and completing the several classes of boats for His Majesty's fleets in the several dockyards, ib. 370, 371.

5. Coopers' Work :

Observations of the Commissioners on the high prices paid for coopers' work at the victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. 640.

6. Price of Labour :

Manner in which the high wages paid to the artificers and workmen in His Majesty's yards affect the prices of labour to be paid to similar classes of workmen in their vicinity, Rep. vi. 114.

See also Accounts, 2. Advances on Contract Prices. Boatbuilders' Work, 3. Chatham Dockyard, 4. Deptford Dockyard, 1. Mastmakers' Work, 3. Navy Board, 7. Schedule of Prices. Shipbuilding. Stage Work. Surveyors of the Navy. Table of Prices.

PRIDHAM, JOSEPH :

1. Discovery of the King's Casks at Messrs. Dansey, White & Co.'s.
2. Prosecution of the Parties for Embezzlement of the King's Casks.

1. Discovery of the King's Casks at Messrs. Dansey, White & Co.'s :

Circumstance of Mr. Joseph Pridham, an attorney at Plymouth, accompanying the agent victualler to search Messrs. Dansey, White & Co.'s premises for King's casks, Rep. viii. 648-656—Observations of the Commissioners on the conduct of Mr. Pridham, in respect to withholding information relative to the embezzlement of the King's casks from the Victualling Office at Southdown, ib. 653—Examination of Mr. Joseph Pridham, of Plymouth, attorney at law, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 22 and 24 October 1803, relative to the discovery of the embezzlement of the King's casks from his Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. App. 718-726.

2. Prosecution of the Parties for Embezzlement of the King's Casks :

Letter from Mr. Pridham to Mr. Baxter, solicitor to the Victualling Board, dated 16 January 1802, relative to the prosecution of certain parties at quarter sessions for embezzlement of the King's casks from His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. App. 745, 746—Letter from Mr. Joseph Pridham, of Plymouth, attorney at law, to Thomas Miller, esq., agent victualler of Plymouth, dated 8 December 1801, relative to the measures adopted against Messrs. Dansey, White & Co., for the embezzlement of the King's casks from His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, ib. 768.

See also Attorney to the Navy Board.

“PRINCESS ROYAL,” HIS MAJESTY'S SHIP :

1. Overpayment of Shipwrights.
2. Value of Work performed.

1. Overpayment of Shipwrights :

Statement of the excess of the wages paid to the shipwrights alone in Plymouth yard, beyond the value of the work actually performed in the repair of the “Princess Royal,” in the years 1800 and 1801, Rep. vi. 34.

2. Value

“PRINCESS ROYAL,” HIS MAJESTY’S SHIP—continued.

2. Value of Work performed:

Account of the value of the works performed to His Majesty’s ship “Princess Royal,” which was repaired at the port of Plymouth in the year 1800 and 1801; with the amount of the wages paid to the artificers employed, and the extra paid for the teams, in consequence of their being borne on the job, Rep. vi. App. 310, 311.

Private Practice. Objection of the Commissioners to allowing the physician and surgeon of Plymouth Hospital to follow private practice in the neighbourhood, Rep. vii. 554.

Profits of Contractors. Statement showing the amount paid to the contractor for victualling Le Caton hospital ship, in each year from 1794 to 1798, by the Sick and Wounded Board, and the profits made by the persons concerned in the contract, Rep. vii. 559.

Prosecutions. Observations of the Commissioners on the negligence and inattention shown both by the agent victualler and the attorney at Plymouth, in the prosecution of Messrs. Dansey, White & Co., for embezzling the King’s casks from the Victualling Office at Southdown, Rep. viii. 655, 656.

See also Adjudication of Magistrate. Assizes. Dansey, White & Co., Messrs., 2. Eastlake, Mr. Embezzlement of the King’s Casks, 2. Hume, John.

PROVISIONS:

1. The Ordinary at Plymouth.
2. Royal Hospital at Plymouth.
3. Victualling Yard at Plymouth.

1. The Ordinary at Plymouth:

Observations of the Commissioners on the badness of the provisions issued to the ordinary of Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. 116—Account of the allowance of provisions issued to one man in the ordinary at the different ports of the kingdom, Rep. vi. App. 489.

2. Royal Hospital at Plymouth:

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of supplying the Royal Hospital at Plymouth with provisions, Rep. vii. 548-550.

3. Victualling Yard at Plymouth:

Observations of the Commissioners on the system of receipt, issue, and account of provisions and stores in His Majesty’s Victualling Yard at Plymouth, Rep. viii. 641-644—Account of the quantities of provisions and other articles carried to the credit of the storekeeper, in the quarterly accounts in each year, from 1 January 1790 to 31 December 1802, under the head of deficiencies, or charged against him as a surplus, Rep. viii. App. 696, 697.

See also Issue of Stores. Victualling Department at Plymouth, 4.

Purchase of Places. List of persons employed in His Majesty’s yards at Plymouth who have paid consideration for their several appointments, with the sums received for the same, and to whom paid, Rep. vi. App. 419-421.

See also Budge, William. Duins, Robert. Plymouth Dockyard, 6.

Q.

Quarter Boys. Abstract account of the average number of quarter boys borne in His Majesty’s yard at Plymouth, with the amount of their wages in the following years, 1758-1780, and in the several years from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 376.

Quarter Sessions. See Exeter Quarter Sessions.

QUARTERLY NOTES:

1. Plymouth Yard.
2. Woolwich Yard.

1. Plymouth Yard:

Observations of the Commissioners on the abuse formerly existing in Plymouth yard of the clerks exacting fees from the men, for notes, certifying the amount of their wages, Rep. vi. 11.

2. Woolwich Yard:

Observations of the Commissioners on the practice of the clerks in Woolwich yard exacting fees from the workmen for the quarterly notes, Rep. vi. 136, 137.

See also Payment of Wages, 1.

QUARTERMEN OF SHIPWRIGHTS :

1. Duties of Office.
2. Apprentices.
3. Payment of Wages.

1. Duties of Office :

Observations of the Commissioners on the nature of the duties of the officer called the quartermen of the shipwrights, Rep. vi. 17.

2. Apprentices :

Advantages which a quartermen of shipwrights in Plymouth yard derives from the wages of an apprentice, Rep. vi. 24, 25.

3. Payment of Wages :

Objection to the payment of the quartermen of the shipwrights in Plymouth yard in proportion to the earnings of the shipwrights, Rep. vi. 48.

See also Barrett, John. Campbell, James. Eathorne, William. Extra Wages, 4. Lemyn, Joseph. Sumpter, John.

R.

Rates of Pay. Observations of the Commissioners on the difference in rates of pay for the same classes of workmen existing in different yards, Rep. vi. 133, 134.

See also Scavelmen, 3. Wages.

Rations. Observations of the Commissioners on the expense of the provisions issued to the men employed in the ordinary at Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. 116.

Receipt of Stores. Observations of the Commissioners on the system of receipt of stores and provisions at the victualling department at Plymouth, Rep. viii. 641-644.

See also Victualling Department at Plymouth, 4.

Regulations. Contemplation of the Navy Board in 1785 to make a general collection and digest of their regulations; reasons why not carried out, Rep. vi. 6, 7—Substance of the regulations established, by order of His Majesty in Council in May 1801, for the better government of the dockyards, ib. 7.

REMAINS OF STORES :

1. Royal Hospital at Plymouth.
2. Victualling Department at Plymouth.

1. Royal Hospital at Plymouth :

Observations of the Commissioners on the neglect of the authorities at Plymouth Hospital to ascertain the remains of stores in that establishment, Rep. vii. 547.

2. Victualling Department at Plymouth :

Observations of the Commissioners on the necessity of taking the remains of stores periodically at the victualling department at Plymouth, Rep. viii. 643.

Removal of Lots. Observations of the Commissioners on the abuse of allowing the removal of the lots of old stores from the victualling yard at Southdown at unseasonable hours, Rep. viii. 646, 647.

REPAIRS :

1. Plymouth Yard.
2. Woolwich Yard.
3. Royal Hospital at Plymouth.

1. Plymouth Yard :

Statement of the amount overpaid to the shipwrights alone for the repairs of the ships "Princess Royal," "San Josef," "Orion," "Hercule," "Donegal," "Spartiate," and "Canopus," in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth in the years 1800 and 1801, Rep. vi. 34-38—Observations of the Commissioners on the wideness of the difference charged for similar work in the repairs of His Majesty's ship "Canopus," and His Majesty's ship "Tonnant," at Plymouth yard, ib. 35.

2. Woolwich Yard :

Observations of the Commissioners on the enormous sum charged for the repairs of ships at Woolwich Yard, as instanced in the case of His Majesty's ship "Amaranthe," Rep. vi. 139-144.

3. Royal

REPAIRS—continued.

3. Royal Hospital at Plymouth:

Observations of the Commissioners with respect to the superintendence of the repairs of the Royal Hospital at Plymouth when required, Rep. vii. 512, 513.

See also Admiralty Board. "Amaranthe," His Majesty's Ship. Boatbuilders' Work, 3. "Canopus," His Majesty's Ship. Contracts, 2. Deptford Dockyard, 3. Overpayments, 1. Surveyor of Works. Surveyors of the Navy. Tops of Ships. Value of Work, I. 1. Yaws.

Report of Committee. See Navy Board, 2.

Residences of Workmen. Observations on the inconvenience of several of the workmen in Plymouth yard residing on the opposite side of the water to the dockyard, Rep. vi. 134.

See also Official Residences.

Responsibility of Members. See Navy Board, 1.

Revision of Instructions. See Howe, Earl. Middleton, Sir Charles.

RIGGERS AND RIGGERS' LABOURERS (PLYMOUTH YARD):

1. Establishment Borne.
2. Job Work.
3. Pay and Allowances.

1. Establishment Borne:

Statement showing the number of riggers and riggers' labourers employed in Plymouth yard in the years 1758, 1780, 1790, 1793, 1797, 1801, and 1803, the total amount of their wages in those years, with their allowances, Rep. vi. 111.—Abstract account of the average number of riggers and riggers' labourers borne in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, with the amount of their wages, for the following years, 1758-1780, and the several years from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 375.

2. Job Work:

Copy of letter of the masters attendant of His Majesty's yard at Plymouth to the Navy Board, dated 14 October 1801, respecting the employment of the riggers and their labourers by job, Rep. vi. App. 485.—Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, dated 16 October 1801, in reply, ib.—Letter of the first clerk to the clerk of the cheque in Plymouth dockyard to the Navy Board, dated 19 October 1801, on the same subject, ib. 486.—Copy of letter of the Navy Board to the Plymouth officers, dated 24 October 1801, in reply, ib.

3. Pay and Allowances:

Observations of the Commissioners on the daily rate of pay of artificers and labourers in the riggers' department in Plymouth yard, and allowance made to them in lieu of chips, Rep. vi. 111, 112.—See also Comptroller of the Navy, 2. Job Work, II. 6.

ROPEYARD AT PLYMOUTH:

1. Establishment borne.
2. Duties of Officers and Clerks.
3. Earnings of Workmen.
4. Apprentices.
5. Work Time.

1. Establishment borne:

Statement showing the number of ropemakers employed in Plymouth yard in the years 1758, 1780, 1790, 1793, 1797, 1801, and 1803; the amount of their wages in those years, with their allowances, Rep. vi. 117.—Account of the establishment of His Majesty's ropeyard at Plymouth, the names and salaries of the officers and clerks, and the numbers of the different classes of artificers, apprentices, and labourers, with the several rates of pay and allowances, and the time when such rates were established, and also the different allowances made to them, and the number at present borne, Rep. vi. App. 194, 195.—Abstract account of the average number of men and servants of the different classes of workmen borne in His Majesty's ropeyard at Plymouth, with the amount of the wages of each class for the years 1758-1780, and the several years from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, ib. 383-385.

2. Duties of Officers and Clerks:

Observations of the Commissioners on the manner in which the business of the ropeyard at Plymouth is conducted, and how the men are paid, Rep. vi. 117-121.

2—Reports, 1803-4—continued.

ROPEYARD AT PLYMOUTH—continued.3. Earnings of Workmen :

Account of the average daily earnings of each class of artificers and labourers in His Majesty's ropeyard at Plymouth, for the quarter ending 30 September 1803, Rep. vi. App. 386.

4. Apprentices :

Abstract account of the number of apprentices allowed to the officers and foremen of His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, with the amount of their pay in each year from 1790 to Midsummer quarter 1803, inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 412, 413.

5. Work Time :

Account showing what time the ropemakers, labourers, &c. have been respectively directed to work, from the 1st January 1793 to the 30 June 1803, stating the different periods, the mode of employment, and after what rate of pay they were set off in each period, exclusive of occasional extra, Rep. vi. App. 444.

See also Apprentices, 6. Clerk of the Ropeyard. Earnings of Workmen, 2. Key Bearer. Penfold, John Linzee. Scott, John. Scott, William Wilkins. Spinners.

ROYAL HOSPITAL AT PLYMOUTH :

1. Treatment of sick and wounded Seamen.
2. Establishment.
3. Expenditure.
4. Stores and Supplies.
5. Coals.
6. Instructions to Officers.
7. Household Accounts.

1. Treatment of sick and wounded Seamen :

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of treatment of the sick and wounded, and the general administration of the affairs of the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, Rep. vii. 543-545.

2. Establishment :

Account of the establishment of the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, as it stood on 7 October 1803, Rep. vii. App. 566, 567.

3. Expenditure :

Accounts showing the amount of the expenses of the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, from the year 1792 to 1804, exclusive of medicines, necessaries, bedding, &c. sent from London, with a distinct account of the expense of wine, porter, fruit, and workmens' bills in each year, also the number of patients victualled for one day, Rep. vii. 544—Account showing the amount of the expense of the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, from the year 1794 to 1802, exclusive of bedding, necessaries, &c. sent from London, and medicines from Apothecaries' Hall, together with the exact expense of wine, porter, and fruit, and also the number of patients victualled and coals expended, during the same time, Rep. vii. App. 568-577.

4. Stores and Supplies :

Copy of report, dated 1 June 1803, by three divisional masters, superintending the ships in ordinary, of the state of the stores and supplies for the use of the sick and wounded in the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, Rep. vii. 545, 546—Instance of boxes of nitre and vitriolic acid being sent to a druggist's at Plymouth to be filled up, without any account being previously taken of the quantity remaining in them, ib. 548—Account of the expense of spirits of wine, lint, pearlshes, honey, sago, &c. paid as medicines for Plymouth Hospital during the late war, from 1793 to 1801, both inclusive, Rep. vii. App. 617.

5. Coals :

Account of the issues of coals made to the several offices and wards of the Royal Hospital at Plymouth in the month of September 1803, Rep. vii. 584, 585—Account of coals received into the Royal Naval Hospital at Plymouth between 1 January 1790 and 28 October 1803, ib. 607.

6. Instructions to Officers :

Extract of the instructions given by the Right honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty to the governor of His Majesty's Naval Hospital at East Stonehouse, for his guidance in the execution of his duties, Rep. vii. App. 611.

7. Household

2—Reports, 1803-4—continued.

ROYAL HOSPITAL AT PLYMOUTH—continued.

7. Household Accounts :

Account of the household expenses of the Royal Hospital at Plymouth for the month of September 1803, Rep. vii. App. 578-587.

See also Accounts, 5. Adams, James. Agent of the Royal Hospital. Baird, Dr.
 Andrew. Beer. Bevans, Mary. Butler of the Royal Hospital. Cleather,
 George. Coals, 1. Contracts, 2. Council of the Royal Hospital. Creyke,
 Richard. Dart, William. Demand for Stores. Dismissal of Officers.
 Dispenser of Medicines. Eggs. Establishment. Expense of Establishment.
 Fisher, William. Fruit. Governor of the Royal Hospital. Hamminck,
 Stephen. Instructions to Officers, 2. Issue of Stores, 1. Labourers, IV.
 Medicines. Necessaries. Porter. Private Practice. Provisions, 2.
 Remains of Stores, 1. Repairs, 3. Salaries of Officers. Searle, George.
 Servants. Steward of the Royal Hospital. Stores, 1. Supplies. Survey of Stores, 1. Treatment of Patients. Tripe, Thomas. Unserviceable Stores.
 Wine.

Rule, Sir William. Examination of Sir William Rule, joint surveyor of the navy, taken mode of working the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, on 3 January 1804, touching the upon oath before and paying the artificers and labourers in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. vi. App. 229-243.

S.

SAILMAKERS' WORK (PLYMOUTH YARD):

1. Establishment borne.
2. Task Work.
3. Extra Wages.
4. Business of the Yard.

1. Establishment borne:

Statement showing the number of sailmakers employed in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth in the years 1758, 1780, 1790, 1793, 1797, 1801 and 1803; the amount of their wages in those years with their allowances, Rep. vi. 108—Abstract account of the average number of sailmakers borne in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, with the amount of their wages, for the following years, 1758-1780, and the several years from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 374.

2. Task Work:

Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, dated 17 May 1764 establishing a scheme for employing the sailmakers by task, Rep. vi. App. 476—Scheme proposed for carrying on the making sails in His Majesty's yards, for the performance of workmanship only by the great or task, ib. 477—Copy of warrant, dated 17 May 1764, revising the scheme for employing the sailmakers by task, ib. 479.

3. Extra Wages:

Form of note for the allowance of extra wages to the sailmakers in Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. App. 484.

4. Business of the Yard:

Observations of the Commissioners with respect to the manner in which the sailmakers' business is conducted and paid for in Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. 109, 110.

See also Allowances to Workmen, 2. Extra Wages, 5. Frood, William. Task Work, I. 3.

SALARIES OF OFFICERS:

1. Royal Hospital at Plymouth.
2. Victualling Department at Plymouth.

1. Royal Hospital at Plymouth:

Recommendation of the Commissioners that the salaries of the physician and surgeon of the Royal Hospital at Plymouth should be increased, as well as those of the dispenser, steward, and agent, Rep. vii. 554.

2. Victualling Department at Plymouth:

Account of the salaries of the respective officers and clerks on the establishment of His Majesty's victualling department at Plymouth, the allowances made, &c. Rep. viii. App. 662-671.

Sale of Old Stores. Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of conducting the sale of old stores at His Majesty's Victualling Office at Plymouth, Rep. viii. 645-647.

See also Brewery at Southdown. Casks. Conditions of Sale. Evans, George. Frauds, 2. Grigg, John. Grigg, Nicholas. King's Mark, 2. Miller, Thomas, 2. Removal of Lots. Southdown Victualling Yard, 3. Victualling Department at Plymouth, 6.

Sale of Places. See Rudge, William. Duins, Robert. Plymouth Dock Yard, 6.

“SAN JOSEF,” HIS MAJESTY'S SHIP :

1. Overpayment of Shipwrights.
2. Value of Work performed.

1. Overpayment of Shipwrights :

Statement of the excess of wages paid to the shipwrights alone beyond the value of the work actually performed in the repair of the “San Josef,” in Plymouth yard, in the years 1800 and 1801, Rep. vi. 34.

2. Value of Work performed :

Account of the value of the works performed to His Majesty's ship “San Josef,” which was repaired at the port of Plymouth in the year 1800 and 1801, with the amount of wages paid to the artificers employed, and the extra paid for the teams, in consequence of their being borne on the job, Rep. vi. App. 310, 311.

Sargent, Isaac. Examination of Isaac Sargent, cooper in His Majesty's victualling department at Southdown, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 9 November 1803, relative to the frauds practised in the receipt and issue of stores, and in the sale and delivery of old stores at Southdown, Rep. viii. App. 712.

SAWYERS' WORK (PLYMOUTH YARD) :

1. Establishment borne.
2. Earnings of Workmen.
3. Business of the Yard.

1. Establishment borne :

Statement showing the number of sawyers employed in Plymouth yard in the years 1758, 1780, 1790, 1793, 1797, 1801 and 1803; the amount of their wages in those years; with their several allowances, Rep. vi. 79—Abstract account of the average number of sawyers borne in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, with the amount of their wages, in the following years, 1758-1780, and in the several years from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 377, 378.

2. Earnings of Workmen :

Account showing the amount of the sawyers' wages in His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, in the years 1800, 1801, 1802 and 1803; Rep. vi. App. 430.

3. Business of the Yard :

Observations of the Commissioners on the manner in which the sawyers' work in Plymouth yard is conducted and paid for, Rep. vi. 79-83.

See also Dyer, Samuel. Earnings of Workmen, 10. Measurer. Topman.

SCAVELMEN (PLYMOUTH YARD) :

1. Establishment borne.
2. Business of the Yard.
3. Pay.
4. Job Work.

1. Establishment borne :

Statement showing the number of scavelmen employed in Plymouth yard in the years 1758-1780, and in the several years from 1790 to 1802, with the amount of their wages in the years stated, together with the calculated amount per day to each man, Rep. vi. 89—Abstract account of the average number of scavelmen borne in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, with the amount of their wages for the following years, 1758-1780, and the several years from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 375.

2. Business of the Yard :

Observations of the Commissioners on the nature of the duties of scavelmen in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, and how paid, Rep. vi. 88-96.

3. Pay :

Difference in the rates of pay of the scavelmen in Portsmouth and Plymouth yards, and in His Majesty's other yards, Rep. vi. 134.

4. Job

2—Reports, 1803-4—continued.

SCAVELMEN (PLYMOUTH YARD)—continued.

4 Job Work :

Account of jobs performed in the month ending 8 May 1802 by the scavelmen and labourers in His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, Rep. vi. App. 457.

See also Brooks, Reuben. Certificates, 1. Chips. Employment of Workmen, 2. Pay, 3. Steer, Richard. Task Work, 1. 4.

Schedule of Prices. Observations of the Commissioners on the inaccuracy and omissions in the schedule of prices of job work established by the Navy Board, Rep. vi. 128.

Scott, John. Examination of John Scott, esq., clerk of the ropeyard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 22 September 1803, relative to the duties of his office and manner in which the business of the ropeyard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 490-492.

Scott, William Wilkins. Examination of Mr. William Wilkins Scott, clerk to the clerk of the ropeyard in Plymouth yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 27 October 1803, relative to the duties of his office, and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 492, 493.

Search Warrant. Circumstance of the agent victualler at Plymouth obtaining a warrant to search the premises of Messrs. Dansey, White & Co., of the Tamar brewery, for King's casks, Rep. viii. 648.

Searle, George. Examination of Mr. George Searle, late agent to His Majesty's Naval Hospital at Stonehouse, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 3 November 1803, relative to the manner in which the business of the Royal Hospital is conducted, Rep. vii. App. 588.

Seppings, Robert. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Mr. Seppings, with respect to the overpayments made to the shipwrights in Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. 42—Letter from Robert Seppings, esq., master shipwright at Chatham yard, to the Navy Board, dated 7 April 1803, relative to the manner in which the workmen were to be, and had been, paid for the extra time, Rep. vi. App. 319.

Servants (Royal Hospital at Plymouth). Observations of the Commissioners on the establishment of servants at the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, and the rate of wages allowed them, Rep. vii. 551, 552.

SHEERNESS DOCKYARD :

1. Boatbuilders' Work.
2. Horses and Teams.
3. Earnings of Workmen.
4. Pay and Allowances.

1. Boatbuilders' Work :

Rate of wages and prices paid for building and completing boats in His Majesty's yard at Sheerness, Rep. vi. 64—Copy of letter from the master shipwright at Sheerness to Mr. Commissioner Coffin, dated respectively 4 and 11 January 1804, respecting a launch built at that yard, Rep. vi. App. 370, 371.

2. Horses and Teams :

Statement showing the average number of teams employed in His Majesty's yard at Sheerness, the contract price per day, and the amount paid in the years 1758-1780, and from 1787 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. 106, 107.

3. Earnings of Workmen :

Account of the average daily earnings of the working artificers and labourers in His Majesty's dockyard at Sheerness, exclusive of foremen and quartermen, with the time they respectively worked in Christmas quarter 1803, Rep. vi. App. 337.

4. Pay and Allowances :

Account of the pay of His Majesty's yard at Sheerness, in the year 1758-1780, and in each year from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 498, 499.
See also Earnings of Workmen, 5. Nelson, Robert John.

SHIP-BUILDING :

1. King's Yards.
2. Prices for Ship-building :

1. King's Yards :

Observations of the Commissioners on the advantage of building ships in the King's yards, instead of building them by contract, Rep. vi. 131.

SHIP-BUILDING—continued.2. Prices for Ship-building :

Opinion of the Commissioners that the scheme of prices for building the different classes of ships in His Majesty's yards wants revision, the prices for the large ships being set too high, and for the small ships too low, Rep. vi. 133.

See also Launches. Pinnaces. Repairs, 1. Task Work, I. 2. Yaws.

*SHIPWRIGHTS :*I. King's Yards :

1. Earnings of Workmen.
2. Single-stationed Men.
3. Classification of Workmen.

II. Plymouth Yard :

1. Establishment borne.
2. Work Time.

III. *Woolwich Yard :*I. King's Yards :

1. Earnings of Workmen:

Comparative view of the wages paid per day, on an average, to the shipwrights of the different yards, in Christmas quarter, 1803, Rep. vi. 47—Observations of the Commissioners on the manner in which the earnings of the artificers and labourers in His Majesty's yards were regulated in the years 1793 and 1794, ib. 126, 127.

2. Single-stationed Men :

Account of those shipwrights who are to be on the list of single stationed men referred to in the warrant of the Navy Board, dated 23 March 1775, Rep. vi. App. 258.

3. Classification of Workmen :

Recommendation of the Commissioners that the shipwrights in His Majesty's yards should be divided into classes, with a view to excitement to emulation and exertion, Rep. vi. 132.

II. Plymouth Yard :

1. Establishment borne :

Statement showing the average number of shipwrights employed in Plymouth yard, and the amount of their wages in 1758, 1780, 1790, 1793, 1797, 1801, and 1803, Rep. vi. 16—Abstract account of the average number of shipwrights borne in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, with the amount of their wages, from the year 1758 to the year 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 372.

2. Work Time:

Account showing what time the shipwrights and other artificers and labourers of Plymouth dockyard have been respectively directed to work, from 1 January 1793 to 30 June 1803, stating the different periods, the mode of employment, and after what rate of pay they were set off in each period, Rep. vi. App. 432-443.

III. Woolwich Yard :

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of employing and paying the shipwrights in His Majesty's yard at Woolwich, Rep. vi. 137-139.

See also Accounts, 1. Apprentices, 1. 4. Cabin Keepers. Chatham Dock Yard, 2. Day Work. Double Days. Earnings of Workmen, 8. Examination of Accounts, 1. Extra Tides, 3. Extra Wages, 2. Falsification of Accounts, 1. Foremen of Dockyards. Gangs. Job Work, II. 2. Master Shipwright. Over-payments, 1. Prices, 1. Quartermen of Shipwrights. Task Work, I. 2. Wages, I. 2.

Sick and Disabled Workmen. See Extra Wages, 3.

SICK AND WOUNDED BOARD :

1. Arrear Accounts.
2. Le Caton Hospital Ship Contract.

1. Arrear Accounts :

Observations of the Commissioners on the state of the arrear accounts in the foreign department of the office of sick and wounded, Rep. vii. 556—Observations on the present state of Sick and Wounded Office, so far as relates to the different departments for accounts, Rep. vii. App. 623, 624.

SICK AND WOUNDED BOARD—continued.2. Le Caton Hospital Ship Contract :

Copy of letter of the Sick and Wounded Board to Mr. Samuel Keast, purser of His Majesty's hospital ship Le Caton, dated 16 May 1795, consenting to allow him 1*s.* 4*d.* per man per day for victualling sick and wounded seamen on board the said ship, Rep. vii. App. 633—Copy of letter of the Sick and Wounded Board to Mr. Keast, purser of His Majesty's hospital ship Le Caton, dated 25 October 1797, granting him an allowance of 1*s.* 3*d.* per day for victualling sick and wounded seamen on board the said ship, ib.—Letter of the Sick and Wounded Board to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 29 June 1804, relative to an over-payment made to Mr. Samuel Keast, on his accounts for victualling the sick on board His Majesty's hospital ship Le Caton, ib. 634—Letter of the Sick and Wounded Board to John Williams, esq., dated 4 July 1804, relative to an over-payment made to Mr. Keast, late contractor for victualling sick and wounded seamen on board His Majesty's hospital ship Le Caton, ib. 635.

See also Accounts, 6. Advances on Contract Prices, 1. Arrear Accounts, 2. Baird, Dr. Andrew. Hair. Harness, John, M. D. Inspector of Hospitals. Instructions to Officers, 2. Keast, Samuel. Stewart, Joseph. Weir, John, M. D.

Sick and Wounded Office. See Fisher, William.

Sick and Wounded Seamen. See Caton Hospital Ship, 1. Royal Hospital at Plymouth, 1.

Signature of Warrants. Observations of the Commissioners on the circumstance of members of the Navy Board signing warrants without noticing the contents, Rep. vi. 61, 62.

See also Certificates, 2. Job Notes, 1. Warrants, 1.

Single-stationed Men. See Shipwrights, I. 2.

SISON, EDWARD :

1. Horse Contract (Plymouth Yard).
2. Woolwich Yard.

1. Horse Contract (Plymouth Yard) :

Examination of Edward Sison, esq., formerly master shipwright of Plymouth yard, but now of Woolwich yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 19 January 1804, relative to the contract for the supply of horses and teams to the yard at Plymouth, Rep. vi. App. 475, 476.

2. Woolwich Yard :

Examination of Edward Sison, esq., master shipwright of Woolwich yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 25 January 1804, relative to the duties of his office, and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 527.

Skardon, John. Examination of Mr. John Skardon, first clerk to the clerk of the cheque of His Majesty's victualling yard, stationed at Southdown, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 10 November 1803, relative to the duties of his situation, and manner in which the accounting branch of the service is conducted, Rep. viii. App. 680-683.

Slight, John. Examination of John Slight, storekeeper in His Majesty's victualling department at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 12 November 1803, relative to the duties of his situation, and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. viii. App. 689-691.

Smith, George. Examination of Mr. George Smith, first clerk to the clerk of the cheque of Woolwich yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 20 January 1804, relative to the duties of his office and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 501-506—Further examination of Mr. George Smith before the Commissioners on 23 January 1804, touching the mode of keeping accounts of works done in Plymouth yard, ib. 506-510.

Smith, James. Examination of James Smith, esq., master attendant of His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 20 September 1803, relative to the duties of his office, and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 479-481.

Smith, Stephen. Examination of Mr. Stephen Smith, master house-carpenter in Woolwich yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 23 January 1804, relative to the duties of his situation, and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 535, 536

Smiths' Work (Plymouth Yard). Statement showing the number of smiths employed in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth in the years 1758, 1780, 1790, 1793, 1797, 1801 and 1803, the amount of their wages in those years, with their several allowances, Rep. vi. 83—Abstract account of the average number of smiths borne in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, with the amount of their wages for the following years, 1758-1780, and the several years from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, ib. App. 373.

See also Moore, Alexander.

SOUTHDOWN VICTUALLING YARD:

1. Embezzlement of the Kings' Casks.
2. Receipt and Management of Coals.
3. Sale of Old Stores.

1. Embezzlement of the King's Casks:

Circumstances attending the embezzlement of certain butts and casks bearing the King's mark, which were manufactured at the victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. 648-656.

2. Receipt and Management of Coals:

Observations of the Commissioners on the receipt and management of coals at His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. 644, 645.

3. Sale of Old Stores:

Observations of the Commissioners on the abuses and irregularities in the sale of old stores at His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. 645-647.

See also Brewery at Southdown. Clerk of the Checque, 3. Coals, 2. Day Coopers. Dismissal of Officers, 3. Embezzlement of the King's Casks, 1. Evans, George. Frauds, 2. Grigg, John. Grigg, Nicholas. Henley and Sons, Messrs. Lyne, Edward. Master Cooper at Southdown. Matthews, John. Prices, 5. Sale of Old Stores. Sargent, Isaac. Shardon, John. Triscott, Samuel. Weymouth, John. West, John. Williams, Walter.

"SPARTIATE," HIS MAJESTY'S SHIP:

1. Overpayment of Shipwrights.
2. Value of Work performed.

1. Overpayment of Shipwrights:

Account of the excess of wages paid to the shipwrights alone beyond the value of the work actually performed in the repair of the "Spartiate" at Plymouth yard in the years 1800 and 1801, Rep. vi. 34.

2. Value of Work performed:

Account of the value of the works performed to His Majesty's ship "Spartiate," which was repaired at the port of Plymouth in the year 1800 and 1801, with the amount of wages paid to the artificers employed, and the extra paid for the teams in consequence of their being borne on the job, Rep. vi. App. 310, 311.

Spinners. Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of employment and payment of the spinners in the rope yard at Plymouth, Rep. vi. 120.

Stage Work. Observations of the Commissioners on the difference in the prices charged for stage work in the repair of the ship "Canopus," and in the repair of the "Tonnant" in Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. 36, 37. — See also Prices, 3.

Standing Contracts. Objection of the Commissioners to the system of standing contracts, their tendency to promote fraud, Rep. viii. 644.

Standing Orders. Contemplation of the Navy Board in 1785 to make a general collection and digest of their standing orders and regulations; reason why not carried out, Rep. vi. 6.

Steer, Richard. Examination of Richard Steer, scavelman in His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 26 September 1803, relative to receiving money for obtaining a situation in Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. App. 422.

Steward of the Royal Hospital Plymouth. Observations of the Commissioners on the duties of the steward of the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, Rep. vii. 544.

See also Baylis, John. Cleather, George. Dismissal from Office, 2. Official Residences, 2. Salaries of Officers, 1.

Stewart, Joseph. Examination of Joseph Stewart, esq., secretary to the Sick and Wounded Board, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 6 December 1803, relative to the establishment of clubs in the different departments of the sick and Wounded Office, Rep. vii. App. 622, 623.

Stonehouse Hospital. See Naval Hospital at East Stonehouse.

STOREKEEPERS:

1. King's Yards generally.
2. Plymouth Dockyard.
3. Victualling Yard at Plymouth.

1. King's Yards generally:

All persons entrusted with the superintendence of King's stores receiving any information of any embezzlement of them should be required to take minutes thereof in writing, and state the same fully and truly to the superior Board, Rep. viii. 655.

2. Plymouth Dockyard:

Observations of the Commissioners on the nature of the duties of the storekeeper of Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. 5—Letter from the storekeeper of Plymouth dockyard to the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, dated 13 February 1802, in justification of his conduct, Rep. vi. App. 402.

3. Victualling Yard at Plymouth:

Statement of the manner in which the surplus of the different articles of provision and other articles carried to the credit of the storekeeper of Plymouth victualling yard, from 1 January 1790 to 31 December 1802, are supposed to have arisen, Rep. viii. App. 699-701.

See also Arrear Accounts, 3. Dismissal of Officers, 1. Teait, George. Victualling Department at Plymouth, 8.

STORES:

1. Royal Hospital at Plymouth.
2. Victualling Yard at Plymouth.

1. Royal Hospital at Plymouth:

Observations of the Commissioners on the gross neglect of the servants of the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, of the custody and keeping of the stores of that establishment, Rep. vii. 545-548.

2. Victualling Yard at Plymouth:

Observations of the Commissioners on the system of receipt, issue, and account of provisions and stores in general in His Majesty's victualling yard at Plymouth, Rep. viii. 641-644.

See also Conditions of Sale. Demands for Stores. Embezzlement of Stores. Frauds, 2. Issue of Stores. King's Stores. Marking Stores. Old Stores. Receipt of Stores. Remains of Stores. Royal Hospital at Plymouth, 4. Sale of Old Stores. Southdown Victualling Yard, 3. Storekeepers, 1. Survey of Stores. Unserviceable Stores. Victualling Yard at Plymouth, 4. 6.

Strikes of Workmen. Circumstance of the shipwrights in Plymouth yard striking work in June 1755, Rep. vi. 19.

Sub-Contractors. Objection to the principle of persons deriving any benefit from Government contracts not being named therein, Rep. vii. 560.—See also Contracts, 4.

Sumpter, John. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of John Sumpter, a quartermaster of shipwrights in Plymouth yard, with reference to making out the job accounts of the artificers and labourers, Rep. vi. 32, 33—Examination of Mr. John Sumpter, quartermaster of shipwrights in Plymouth yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 13 September 1803, relative to the duties of his office, and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 304-306.

Sundays. Rate of allowance to artificers and labourers in Plymouth yard, when employed on Sundays, Rep. vi. 12.

Sunderland. See Coals, 3.

SUPERANNUATIONS:

1. King's Yards.
2. Plymouth Yard.

1. King's Yards:

Recommendation of the Commissioners with respect to the superannuation of artificers and labourers rendered incapable of attending to their duties, Rep. vi. 60, 61.

2—Reports, 1803-4—continued.

SUPERANNUATION—continued.2. Plymouth Yard:

Observations of the Commissioners on the establishment of superannuation for the different classes of artificers and labourers in Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. 12, 13—Account of the rates of superannuation for the different classes of artificers and labourers, the number to which such indulgence is confined, the servitude required to entitle them to superannuation, and the number of each class now allowed pensions, Rep. vi. App. 196.

Superintendent Commissioner. Administration of the affairs of Plymouth dockyard by a superintendent commissioner chosen from the captains in His Majesty's navy, Rep. vi. 3, 4.

Superintendent of Teams. See Bonalluck, John.

SUPPLIES:

1. Royal Hospital at Plymouth.
2. Victualling Department at Plymouth.

1. Royal Hospital at Plymouth:

Observations of the Commissioners on the gross neglect shown by the servants of the Royal Hospital at Plymouth to the custody and safe keeping of the supplies required for the use of the sick and wounded, Rep. vii. 545-547.

2. Victualling Department at Plymouth:

Observations of the Commissioners on the system of receipt, issue, and account of stores and supplies in His Majesty's victualling yard at Plymouth, Rep. viii. 641-644.

Surgeon of Le Caton Hospital Ship. Observations of the Commissioners on the highly censurable conduct of the surgeon of Le Caton hospital ship, in maintaining the table of the officers out of the profits of the contract for victualling the sick and wounded, Rep. vii. 560.

Surgeon of the Royal Hospital. See Hammick, Stephen. Official Residences, 1. Private Practice. Salaries of Officers, 1.

SURVEY OF STORES:

1. Royal Hospital at Plymouth.
2. Victualling Department at Plymouth.

1. Royal Hospital at Plymouth:

Description given of the state of the stores in the Royal Hospital at Plymouth upon the occasion of a survey being made by the divisional masters superintending the ships in ordinary, Rep. vii. 545, 546.

2. Victualling Department at Plymouth:

Observations of the Commissioners on the expediency of periodical surveys of stores being made in the victualling department at Plymouth, Rep. viii. 642.

Surveyor of Works (Plymouth District). Appointment of a surveyor by the Navy Board to superintend the repairs in the several departments of the Navy and Sick and Wounded Boards in the Plymouth district, Rep. vii. 512, 513.

Surveyors of the Navy. Letter of the surveyors of the navy to the Portsmouth officers, dated 20 February 1795, directing them to propose prices to the Navy Board for repairing boats by job, Rep. vi. App. 358—Letter from the surveyors of the navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 27 March 1804, stating that similar letters were written to the officers of other yards as were sent to the officers at Portsmouth, ib. 359.

See also Boatbuilders' Work, 3. Henslow, Sir John. Rule, Sir William.

T.

Table for the Officers. Observations of the Commissioners on the circumstance of the table for the officers of Le Caton hospital ship being kept out of the profits of the contractor for victualling the sick and wounded on board, Rep. vii. 558-560.

Table of Prices. Observations of the Commissioners on the necessity of the establishment of a table of prices and work of artificers and labourers in His Majesty's yards, Rep. vi. 125.

2—Reports, 1803-4—continued.

Tamar Brewery. Circumstance of the agent victualler at Plymouth receiving intimation that some butts and casks belonging to the Victualling Office were concealed at the Tamar Brewery, in Maurice Town, near Plymouth Dock, Rep. viii. 648—Copy of affidavit made by Mr. John White, a partner in the firm of Dansey, White & Co., dated 8 January 1802, with respect to the King's casks discovered in possession of that firm at the Tamar brewery, Rep. viii. App. 704.

See also Cussell, John. Cock, James. Dansey, White & Co., 1. Embezzlement of the King's Casks, 1. Head, John. Search Warrants.

TASK WORK:

I. King's Yards:

1. Warrants of the Navy Board.
2. Shipwrights.
3. Sailmakers' Work.
4. Labourers, Scavelmen, &c.

II. Plymouth Yard:

1. Artificers and Labourers.
2. Mastmakers' Work.
3. Hours of Labour.

III. *Woolwich Yard.*I. King's Yards:

1. Warrants of the Navy Board:

Copy of the warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, dated 23 March 1775, establishing task work in His Majesty's dockyards, Rep. vi. App. 253-257—Copy of warrant respecting task work, dated 22d August 1775, ib. 259, 260—Copy of warrant respecting task work, dated 3 May 1776, ib. 260, 261.

2. Shipwrights:

Reasons assigned by the Navy Board in their letter to the Lords of the Admiralty in February 1755, for the employment of shipwrights in His Majesty's yard at task work, Rep. vi. 17, 18—Opinion of the Commissioners that in building new ships, and in carrying on great repairs in His Majesty's yards, the task scheme is preferable, ib. 132, 133.

3. Sailmaker's Work:

Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, dated 17 May 1764, establishing a scheme for employing the sailmakers in His Majesty's yards by task, Rep. vi. App. 476—Scheme proposed for carrying on the making sails in Her Majesty's yards, for the performance of the workmanship by task, ib. 477—Copy of warrant, dated 17 May 1764, revising the scheme for employing the sailmakers by task, ib. 479.

4. Labourers, Scavelmen, &c.:

Scheme of works on which the labourers, scavelmen, &c. in His Majesty's yards, may be employed by task to the advantage of His Majesty's service; computed as well for receiving as issuing stores, in proportion to what may be performed by one man in one day, Rep. vi. App. 447-451.

II. Plymouth Yard:

1. Artificers and Labourers:

Observations of the Commissioners on the system of employing the artificers in Plymouth yard at task work, Rep. vi. 11, 12—Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, bearing date 3 April 1758, for employing the labourers in Plymouth dockyard by task, Rep. vi. App. 445, 446—Copy of warrant of the Navy Board, dated 2 September 1772, for employing the labourers by task, ib. 446, 447.

2. Mastmakers' Work:

List of prices allowed to the artificers in Plymouth dockyard in making masts and yards by task, Rep. vi. App. 346, 347.

3. Hours of Labour:

Account showing what time the shipwrights and other artificers and labourers in Plymouth dockyard have been respectively directed to work, from 1 January 1793 to 30 June 1803, stating the different periods; the mode of employment, and after what rate of pay they were set off in each period, Rep. vi. App. 432-443.

See also Certificates, 1. Earnings of Workmen, 9. Employment of Workmen, 2. Sailmakers' Work, 2. Wages, 1. 3. Warrants.

2—Reports, 1803-4—continued.

TASK WORK—continued.III. Woolwich Yard:

Observations of the Commissioners on the system pursued in Woolwich yard of employing the artificers and labourers by task, Rep. vi. 137-139.

Teait, George. Copy of letter from Mr. George Teait, storekeeper of Plymouth dockyard, to the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, dated 13 February 1802, in justification of his conduct, Rep. vi. App. 402.

TEAMS:I. King's Yards:

1. Establishment borne.

II. Plymouth Yard:

1. Establishment.
2. Team Contracts.

I. King's Yards:

1. Establishment borne:

Statement showing the amount paid in the years 1758 and 1780, and in the several years from 1790 to 1803, the amount of the pay of the teams employed at the contract price, and the amount of extra paid above the prices contracted for in each year, Rep. vi. 99—Statement showing the average number of teams employed in the several dockyards, the contract price per day, and the amount paid in the years 1758, 1780, and from 1787 to 1802, both inclusive, ib. 106, 107.

II. Plymouth Yard:

1. Establishment borne:

Abstract account of the average number of teams borne in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, with the amount of their cost in the following years 1758-1780, and in the several years from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 381.

2. Team Contracts:

Observations of the Commissioners on the system of contracting for horses and teams in Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. 96-108—Copy of contracts entered into between the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy and Richard Nelson, of Plymouth Dock, and Susannah and Ann Croad, of Keyham, for the supply of teams for the use of the dockyard at Plymouth, Rep. vi. App. 459-465—Account of cash received for the use of eighteen teams of horses employed in His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, per contract with R. Nelson, commencing 2d day of February, ending 24 August 1790, ib. 467.

See also Chatham Dockyard, 1. Contracts, 1. Croad, Ann. Croad, Susannah.
Deptford Dockyard, 2. Job Work, II. 4. Plymouth Dockyard, 3. Portsmouth Dockyard, 3. Sheerness Dockyard, 2. Woolwich Dockyard, 3.

Tides. See Extra Tides.

Timber Master. Observations of the Commissioners on the nature of the duties of the timber master in Plymouth dockyard, Rep. vi. 82.

Top and Capstan House. Observations of the Commissioners on the manner in which the business of the top and capstan house in Plymouth yard is conducted, Rep. vi. 52, 53.

Topmen. Rate of wages of a topman among the sawyers in Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. 81.

Tops of Ships. Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, dated 27 April 1795, establishing a scheme for repairing tops by job in Plymouth dockyard, Rep. vi. App. 352—Copy of warrant establishing a scheme for repairing tops by job, dated 16 May 1795, ib.

Tovery, Mr. Observations of the Commissioners on the conduct of the late Mr. Tovery, master shipwright at Woolwich yard, in connexion with the repair of His Majesty's ship "Amaranthe," Rep. vi. 141.

Transfer of Contracts. See Contracts, 4. Keast, Samuel, 2. Sub-Contractors. Worgan, G. B.

Treatment of Patients. Observations of the Commissioners on the proper care and attention exercised in the treatment of the patients in the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, Rep. vii. 555.—See also Royal Hospital at Plymouth, 1.

Trimming. Observations of the Commissioners on the high rate of wages earned by coopers in His Majesty's yard at repairs called trimming, Rep. viii. 640.

Tripe, Thomas. Examination of Mr. Thomas Tripe, second assistant to the dispenser of His Majesty's Naval Hospital at East Stonehouse, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 4 November 1803, relative to the issues of necessaries for the use of the sick in the Royal Hospital, Rep. vii. App. 610.

TRISCOTT, SAMUEL:

1. Victualling Department at Plymouth.
2. Embezzlement of the King's Casks.

1. Victualling Department at Plymouth:

Examination of Mr. Samuel Triscott, first foreman of the coopers at His Majesty's Victualling Office at Plymouth, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 10 November 1803, relative to the duties of his situation, and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. viii. App. 713, 714.

2. Embezzlement of the King's Casks:

Circumstance of Mr. Samuel Triscott, foreman of the coopers in the victualling department at Plymouth, accompanying the agent victualler to search Messrs. Dansey, White & Co.'s premises for King's casks, Rep. viii. 648-656—Examination of Mr. Samuel Triscott, first foreman of the coopers in His Majesty's victualling office at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 21 October 1803, relative to the embezzlement of the King's casks from His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. App. 735-738.

Tucker, Joseph. Examination of Joseph Tucker, esq., master shipwright of Plymouth yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 6 September 1803, relative to the duties of his office, and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 261-271.

Tuson, William. Examination of Mr. William Tuson, master boatbuilder in Plymouth yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 13 September 1803, respecting the duties of his office, and manner in which the boatbuilding business is conducted in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. vi. App. 353, 354.

U.

Unserviceable Stores. Recommendations of the Commissioners with respect to the disposal of unserviceable stores in the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, Rep. vii. 547, 548.

V.

Vacancies. Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of filling up vacancies of artificers and labourers in Plymouth yard as they from time to time occur, Rep. vi. 9.

VALUE OF WORK:

I. Plymouth Yard.

1. Repairs of Ships.
2. Boatbuilders' Work.

II. Woolwich Yard.

I. Plymouth Yard:

1. Repairs of Ships:

Account of the value of the works performed to His Majesty's ships, "Princess Royal," "San Josef," "Orion," "Hercule," "Donegal," "Spartiate," and "Canopus," which were repaired at the port of Plymouth in the year 1800 and 1801, with the amount of wages paid to the artificers employed, and the extra paid for the teams in consequence of their being borne on the jobs, Rep. vi. App. 310, 311.

2. Boatbuilders' Work:

Account of the monthly value of works performed by job by the shipwrights employed in the boathouse in Plymouth dockyard; also the amount of their wages at the rate of two for one, from the first introduction of job work in March 1795 to 31 December 1802, Rep. vi. App. 364, 365.

II. Woolwich Yard:

Observations for the Commissioners on the fallacy of estimating the value of work performed by the artificers and labourers in Woolwich yard, Rep. vi. 138-147.

See also Accounts, 2. Boatbuilders' Work, 4. Certificates, 2. Extra Wages, 1. Repairs, 1. 2.

2—Reports, 1803-4—continued.

VICTUALLING BOARD:

1. The Ordinary at Plymouth Yard.
2. Victualling Department at Plymouth.

1. The Ordinary at Plymouth Yard:

Copy of report of the Victualling Board of the cost of the provisions allowed to the persons employed in the ordinary, dated 20 February 1804, Rep. vi. App. 489.

2. Victualling Department at Plymouth:

Copy of letter from the Victualling Board to Mr. Miller, their agent at Plymouth, dated 13 February 1800, directing him to put in force the regulations which the master cooper had adopted for the more effectually carrying on the service of his department, Rep. viii. App. 676.

VICTUALLING DEPARTMENT AT PLYMOUTH:

1. Establishment borne.
2. Abuses and Irregularities in the Department.
3. Employ and Pay of Coopers.
4. Receipt, Issue, and Account of Provisions and Stores.
5. Receipt and Management of Coals.
6. Sale of Old Stores.
7. Embezzlement of the King's Casks.
8. Storekeeper's Quarterly Accounts.

1. Establishment borne:

Account of the establishment of His Majesty's victualling department at Plymouth, with the salaries of the respective officers and clerks, the allowances made, number allowed on the peace establishment, and number of persons borne, Rep. viii. App. 662-671.

2. Abuses and Irregularities in the Department:

Observations of the Commissioners on the abuses and irregularities existing in His Majesty's victualling department at Plymouth, Rep. viii. 639-647.

3. Employ and Pay of Coopers:

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of employing and paying the coopers in His Majesty's victualling yard at Plymouth, Rep. viii. 640, 641.

4. Receipt, Issue, and Account of Provisions and Stores:

Observations of the Commissioners on the system of receipt, issue, and account of provisions and stores in His Majesty's victualling yard at Plymouth, Rep. viii. 641-644.

5. Receipt and Management of Coals:

Observations of the Commissioners on the system of receipt and management of coals at His Majesty's victualling yard at Plymouth, Rep. viii. 644, 645—Extract from an account of coals received into His Majesty's victualling stores at Plymouth and Southdown, between 1 January 1790 and 8 November 1803, Rep. viii. App. 702, 703.

6. Sale of Old Stores:

Observations of the Commissioners on the practice in His Majesty's victualling yard at Plymouth with respect to the sale of old stores, Rep. viii. 645-647.

7. Embezzlement of the King's Casks:

Circumstances attending the embezzlement of certain casks and butts belonging to the victualling department at Plymouth, Rep. viii. 648-656.

8. Storekeeper's Quarterly Account:

Account of the quantities of provisions and other articles carried to the credit of the storekeeper, in the quarterly accounts in each year, from 1 January 1790 to 31 December 1802, under the head of deficiencies, or charged against him as a surplus, Rep. viii. App. 696, 697.

See also Accounts, 7. Agent Victualler at Plymouth. Arrear Accounts, 3. Basins. Block Coopers. Casks. Clerk of the Cheque, 3. Coals, 2. Coopers' Work, 2. Copying Accounts. Day Coopers. Dismissal of Officers, 3. Embezzlement of the King's Casks, 1. 5. Establishment. Frauds, 2. Henley & Sons, Messrs. Issue of Stores, 2. Malt. Miller, Thomas. Old Stores. Prices, 5. Provisions, 3. Receipt of Stores. Remains of Stores, 2. Sale of Old Stores. Southdown Victualling Yard. Storekeepers, 3. Stores, 2. Survey of Stores, 2. Triscott, Samuel, 1. Victualling Board.

Victualling Sick Prisoners. See Contracts, 3. Keast, Samuel. Sick and Wounded Board, 2.

Visitation of Plymouth Yard. See Admiralty Board, 2. Committee of the Navy Board.

W.

WAGES :

- I. King's Yards :
 1. Artificers and Labourers.
 2. Shipwrights.
 3. Job Work.
 4. Limitation of Wages.
 5. Payment of Wages.
- II. Plymouth Yard :
 1. Artificers and Labourers.
 2. Apprentices.
 3. Boatbuilders' Work.
 4. Hire of Teams.
- III. Portsmouth Yard.
- IV. Woolwich Yard.

I. King's Yards :

1. Artificers and Labourers :

Account of the wages of the workmen employed in His Majesty's dockyards in the years 1758 and 1780, and in each year from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. 14.

2. Shipwrights :

Comparative view of the wages paid per day, on an average, to the shipwrights of the different yards in Christmas quarter 1803, Rep. vi. 47.

3. Job Work :

Comparison of the expense attending the performance of the works by job, with the sums which would have been allowed if the same work had been performed by task, Rep. vi. 127, 128.

4. Limitation of Wages :

Opinion of the Commissioners that the wages of the artificers in His Majesty's yards should be limited until adequate rates of pay be established, Rep. vi. 133.

5. Payment of Wages :

Observations of the Commissioners on the very loose manner in which the payments of the wages to the workmen in the dockyards have been conducted, Rep. vi. 14.

II. Plymouth Yard :

1. Artificers and Labourers :

Abstract of the total amount of wages paid to artificers and labourers in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, from the year 1758 to the year 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 382.

2. Apprentices :

Statement of the average wages of the officers' apprentices in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, compared with the average wages of the classes of workmen to which they belonged, Rep. vi. 122.

3. Boatbuilders' Work :

Account of the wages actually paid to the shipwrights employed in the boathouse in Plymouth dockyard, not on task-work, in each year, 1795 to 1802, both inclusive; omitting such persons as did not actually work at their tools, Rep. vi. App. 364, 365.

4. Hire of Teams :

Account of the annual amount of the wages paid to the workmen, and for the hire of the teams employed in Plymouth dockyard, in the years 1758—1780, and in each year from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. 8.

III. Portsmouth Yard :

Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, dated 19 February 1795, allowing to the persons employed in the houses in Portsmouth dockyard the same wages as if at the dock side, Rep. vi. App. 357, 358.

IV. Woolwich Yard :

Observations of the Commissioners on the frauds committed in setting off the wages to the artificers and labourers in Woolwich yard, Rep. vi. 138-147.

See also Apprentices, 1. Braziers. Bricklayers' Work, 1. Carpenters' Work. Carvers. Caulkers' Work, 1. Certificates, 2. Chatham Dockyard, 2. Coopers' Work, 1. Delay in Payment of Wages. Examination of Accounts. Extra Wages. Increase of Wages. Limitation of Earnings. Payment of Wages. Sailmakers' Work, 3. Smiths' Work. Sundays. Trimming.

Warder at Southdown. See Matthews, John.

Warne, Thomas. Circumstance of Mr. Thomas Warne supplying parties with money to go from Plymouth Dock, in order to avoid examination before the magistrates upon the subject of the embezzlement of the King's casks from the victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. 651—Examination of Mr. Thomas Warne, of Maurice Town, victualler, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 22 October 1803, relative to the embezzlement of the King's casks from His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. App. 763, 764.

WARRANTS :

1. Signature of Warrants.
2. Task Work.
3. Job Work.
4. Extra Wages to Foremen and Quartermen.
5. Mastmakers' Work.

1. Signature of Warrants :

Observations of the Commissioners on the circumstance of the members of the Navy Board placing their signatures to warrants without noticing the contents, Rep. vi. 61, 62.

2. Task Work :

Copy of the warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, dated 23 March 1775, establishing task-work in His Majesty's dockyards, Rep. vi. App. 253-257—Copy of warrant respecting task-work, dated 22 August 1775, ib. 259, 260—Copy of warrant respecting task-work, dated 3 May 1776, ib. 260, 261.

3. Job Work :

Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, dated 3 December 1803, establishing job work in His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, Rep. vi. App. 282, 283—Copy of warrant establishing job work in Plymouth yard, dated 13 January 1791, ib. 284—Copy of warrant, dated 8 January 1793, employing the workmen two for one by job, including their dinner-time, ib. 284, 285—Copy of warrant, dated 7 October 1794, for employing the workmen two for one, exclusive of their dinner-time, ib. 285, 286.

4. Extra Wages to Foremen and Quartermen :

Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, dated 13 March 1794, for allowing extra wages to the foremen and quartermen in Plymouth dockyard, Rep. vi. App. 295—Copy of warrant for allowing extra wages to the foremen and quartermen of Plymouth yard, dated 22 May 1797, ib.

5. Mastmakers' Work :

Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, dated 27 September 1790, establishing a scheme of prices for making masts and yards by task, Rep. vi. App. 346, 347—Copy of warrant, dated 3 January 1791, establishing a scheme of prices for making masts and yards, ib. 348—Copy of warrant, dated 12 October 1793, establishing a scheme for mastmakers' work by job, ib.—Copy of warrant, dated 18 December 1795, establishing a scheme for mastmakers' work by job, ib. 349—Copy of warrant, dated 20 February 1799, revising the scheme for making masts and yards, ib.

See also Job Work, II. 7. Mastmakers' Work, 3. Search Warrants. Signature of Warrants. Task Work.

Waymouth, John. Examination of John Waymouth, block cooper in His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 8 November 1803, relative to the frauds practised in the receipt and issue of stores, and in the sale and delivery of old stores at Southdown, Rep. viii. App. 706-708.

Weir, John, M.D. Examination of John Weir, M.D., Commissioner of Sick and Wounded, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 6 December 1803, relative to the mode of keeping the accounts in the office of sick and hurt, Rep. vii. App. 621.

West, John. Examination of Mr. John West, master cooper at His Majesty's victualling department at Southdown, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 11 November 1803, relative to the nature of his duties, and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. viii. App. 672-677.

See also Master Cooper at Southdown.

Wheelwrights. Abstract account of the average number of wheelwrights borne in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, with the amount of their wages in the following years, 1758-1780, and in the several years from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 379.

2—Reports, 1803-4—continued.

White, John. Explanation given by Mr. White, of the firm of Dansey, White & Co., of Plymouth, of the possession of certain butts and casks with the King's mark, Rep. viii. 649-656—Copy of affidavit made by Mr. John White, a partner in the brewery of Messrs. Dansey, White & Co., dated 8 January 1802, in the matter of the King's casks discovered in the possession of that firm at the Tamar brewery, Rep. viii. App. 764.

See also Dansey, White & Co., Messrs. Tamar Brewery.

White, Thomas. Incapacity of Thomas White, foreman of the boatbuilders in Plymouth yard, of the performance of the duties of his situation, Rep. vi. 59.

Williams, Rev. Jonathan. Copy of the adjudication of the Rev. Jonathan Williams, clerk, one of His Majesty's justices of the peace for the county of Devon, in the case of Messrs. Dansey, White and Co. of Tamar brewery, Plymouth, for the embezzlement of the the King's casks from His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. App. 745.

Williams, Walter. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Walter Williams, a working cooper at Tamar brewery, relative to the embezzlement of the King's casks from the victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. 653—Examination of Walter Williams, of Maurice Town, cooper, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 21 October 1803, relative to the embezzlement of the King's casks from His Majesty's victualling yard at Southdown, Rep. viii. App. 741-744.

Wine. Observations of the Commissioners on the large sums expended in wine for the use of the sick and wounded in the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, Rep. vii. 551.

See also Royal Hospital at Plymouth, 3.

Wonnycott, Robert. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Robert Wonnycott, relative to the making out of the job accounts of the shipwrights in Plymouth yard, Rep. vi. 31, 32—Examination of Mr. Robert Wonnycott, shipwright in Plymouth yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 16 September 1803, relative to the duties of his situation, and manner in which the business of the yard is conducted, Rep. vi. App. 292-294.

WOOLWICH DOCKYARD:

1. Business of the Yard; Payment of Workmen.
2. Boatbuilders' Work.
3. Hire of Teams.
4. Earnings of Workmen.
5. Dockyard Pay.

1. Business of the Yard; Payment of Workmen:

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of conducting the business of His Majesty's yard at Woolwich, and system of payment of artificers and labourers, Rep. vi. 136-147.

2. Boatbuilders' Work:

Adoption of the plan of boatbuilding by job instead of by task in Woolwich yard, Rep. vi. 61—Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy to the officers of His Majesty's yard at Woolwich, dated 20 September 1785, directing them to build boats by job at the prices directed, Rep. vi. App. 368.

3. Hire of Teams:

Statement showing the average number of teams employed in His Majesty's yard at Woolwich, the contract price per day, and the amount paid, in the years 1758-1780, and from 1787 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. 106, 107.

4. Earnings of Workmen:

Account showing the average earnings per day of the different classes of artificers in His Majesty's dockyard at Woolwich, with the time they respectively worked in Christmas quarter 1803, Rep. vi. App. 334, 335.

5. Dockyard Pay:

Account of the pay of His Majesty's yard at Woolwich in the years 1758-1780, and in each year from 1790 to 1802, both inclusive, Rep. vi. App. 498, 499.

See also Abuses, 2. Accounts, 4. "Amaranthe," His Majesty's Ship, 1. 2. Artificers, 2. Bricklayers' Work, 2. Carpenters' Work, 2. Clerk of the Cheque, 2. Earnings of Workmen, 3. Extra Tides, 4. Falsification of Accounts, 2. Fees, 3. House Carpenters, 2. Job Notes, 2. Job Work, IV. Joiners' Work, 2. Labourers, III. Masters of Workmen, 2. Navy Board, 9. Pay, 3. Piecework, 3. Quarterly Notes, 2. Repairs, 2. Shipwrights, III. Sison, Edward, 2. Task Work, III. Tavery, Mr. Value of Work, II. Wages, IV. Workmen, 3.

2—Reports, 1803-4—continued.

Worgan, George Bouchier. Examination of Mr. George Bouchier Worgan, surgeon in His Majesty's navy, and late surgeon's mate of His Majesty's hospital ship, "Le Caton," taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 8 November 1803, touching the agreement entered into with the purser of the said ship to supply and provide the sick and wounded seamen with provisions and necessaries, Rep. vii. App. 630, 631.—See also Agreement.

Work Time. Manner in which the hours of labour of artificers and labourers in Plymouth yard are regulated, Rep. vi. 9, 10.

WORKMEN :

1. King's Yards.
2. Plymouth Yard.
3. Woolwich Yard.

1. King's Yards :

Necessity of abolishing the present system of employing and paying the workmen in His Majesty's dockyards by job, Rep. vi. 147.

2. Plymouth Yard :

Account showing what time the shipwrights and other artificers and labourers of Plymouth yard have been respectively directed to work, from 1 January 1793 to 30 June 1803, stating the different periods, the mode of employment, and after what rate of pay they were set off in each period, Rep. vi. App. 432-443.

3. Woolwich Yard :

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of employing and paying the workmen in His Majesty's yard at Woolwich, Rep. vi. 136-147.

See also Allowances to Workmen. Classification of Workmen. Double Days. Earnings of Workmen. Embezzlement of Stores. Employment of Workmen. Extra Tides. Extra Wages, 1. Hours of Labour. Job Work. Limitation of Earnings. Musters of Workmen. Over Time. Pay, 1. Residences of Workmen. Strikes of Workmen.

Y.

Yawls. Statement of the prices at present allowed by the Navy Board warrants for building and completing and for the repairing yawls in His Majesty's dockyards, Rep. vi. 63.

3. Naval Enquiry. 1805.

Ninth Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, appointed by Act 43 Geo. 3 (Receipt and Issue of Stores in Plymouth Yard); dated 16 January 1805 (1.) - - - - - Sess. Vol. II. p. 1.

Tenth Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, appointed by Act 43 Geo. 3 (The Office of the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy); dated 13 February 1805 (21.) - - - - - Sess. Vol. II. p. 125.

Eleventh Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, appointed by Act 43 Geo. 3 (Issue of Navy Bills for the Purpose of raising Money, &c.); dated 11 March 1805 (47.) - - - - - Sess. Vol. II. p. 481.

[N.B.—In this Index the Numerals ix. x. and xi. following Rep. refer to the Ninth, Tenth, and Eleventh Reports; and the Figures refer to the Printed Paging of the Reports and Appendices respectively.

A.

ABOLITION OF OFFICES. Recommendation of the Commissioners to abolish the office of clerk of the ropery at Plymouth, and make that officer one of the storekeepers, Rep. ix. 32.

Abuses. Particulars relative to the frauds and abuses practised in the measurement and delivery of coals at His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 15-24.

See also Candles. Navy Pay Office, 1.

Accountants' Department (Navy Pay Office). Occasion of the establishment of the accountant's branch in the Navy Pay Office for the express purpose of bringing up the old and keeping up the new accounts of the treasurers of the navy, Rep. x. 131. 138—Opinion of the Commissioners that the accountants' branch should be employed in keeping up the annual account of the treasurer, which should be made up and transmitted to the Auditors' Office in the course of the succeeding year, ib. 167, 168.

See also Fennell, George. Navy Pay Office, 3. Sub-Accountants.

ACCOUNTS:I. Storekeeper at Plymouth:

1. Timber Accounts.
2. Paint Work.
3. Clerk of the Ropery.
4. Arrear Accounts of late Storekeeper.

II. Treasurer of the Navy:

1. Generally.
2. Arrear Accounts of Ex-treasurers.
3. Navy Pay Office.

I. Storekeeper of Plymouth:

1. Timber Accounts:

Observations of the Commissioners on the inaccuracy and incorrectness of the accounts of English timber in store furnished by the storekeeper at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 10.

2. Paint Work:

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of taking and keeping the account of paint work done at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 24-26.

3. Clerk of the Ropery:

Observations of the Commissioners on the very loose and unsatisfactory manner in which the accounts of the stores are kept by the clerk of the ropery at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 28, 29—Copy of the clerk of the ropery's weekly return, pursuant to the method and establishment made by the Navy Board 28 March 1768, Rep. ix. App. 120-123.

4. Arrear Accounts of the late Storekeeper:

Observations of the Commissioners on the great arrear of the accounts of the late storekeeper at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 32.

ACCOUNTS—continued.

II. Treasurer of the Navy :

1. Generally :

Opinion of the Commissioners that all monies should be carried to account in the same manner by the treasurer and by persons employed in the public offices to check his accounts, in order that the two accounts may correspond, Rep. x. 154.

2. Arrear Accounts of Ex-treasurers :

Observations of the Commissioners on the extensive arrears of accounts of the ex-treasurers of the navy; opinion that no time should be lost in completing them, Rep. x. 167, 168.

3. Navy Pay Office :

Circumstance of the treasurer of the navy declining to furnish the returns called for by the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, Rep. x. 175—Letter from the Right honourable George Canning, treasurer of the navy, to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 3 October 1801, declining to render the accounts of the Navy Office called for by the Commissioners, and enclosing counsel's opinion thereupon, Rep. x. App. 479.

See also Arrear Accounts. Audit of Accounts. Copies of Accounts. Counsel's Opinion. Examination of Accounts. Form of Accounts. Navy Board, 2. Navy Pay Office, 4. Public Accounts Commissioners. Treasurer of the Navy, 4.

Accoutrements. Account of the standing contracts with the Navy Board for clothing and accoutrements for marines, in force on 19 December 1801, and which continued so for twelve months afterwards, Rep. xi. App. 530.

Act of Parliament. Nature of the provisions of the Act of Parliament 25 Geo. 3. c. 31, for better regulating the office of the treasurer of His Majesty's navy, Rep. x. 130, 131.

Admiralty Board. Whenever a difference of opinion may arise between the Naval Boards on the construction of an Act of Parliament, or any other general regulation, the Commissioners of the Admiralty should be called upon to decide thereon, Rep. xi. 491.

See also Counsel to the Admiralty. First Lord of the Admiralty. Spencer, Earl, K. G. Vincent, St., Earl.

ADVANCES OF MONEY :

1. Treasurer of the Navy.
2. Paymaster of the Navy.

1. Treasurer of the Navy :

Letter from Lord Viscount Melville to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 30 June 1804, with reference to giving occasional accommodation from the funds in the treasurer's hands to other services not connected with his official situation as treasurer of the navy, Rep. x. 140.

2. Paymaster of the Navy :

Inability of Mr. Trotter to ascertain whether certain advances of money made by him to Lord Melville were from his public or private balances, Rep. x. 146, 147.

Allotments. See Cashier of Allotments (Navy Pay Office).

Allowances. Rate of allowances made to the merchant by the Customs for the draught of the scale in weighing hemp, Rep. ix. 11.—See also Chips. Coals, III. 1.

Antrobus, Edmund. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Mr. Edmund Antrobus, principal acting partner in the house of Messrs. Thomas Coutts & Co., with reference to the accounts kept at that banking house by Mr. Alexander Trotter, paymaster of His Majesty's navy, Rep. x. 145-147—Examination of Edmund Antrobus, esq., principal acting partner in the banking house of Messrs. Thomas Coutts & Co., taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 6 July 1804, relative to the lodgment of balances in Messrs. Coutts's bank by the treasurer of the navy, for the use of the public service, Rep. x. App. 237-241.

Appointment of Officers. The officers and clerks in the Navy Pay Office are nominated by the treasurer of the navy, and are not usually removed except in cases of misconduct, Rep. x. 132.—See also Treasurer of the Navy, 1.

ARREAR ACCOUNTS:

1. Storekeeper at Plymouth.
2. His Majesty's Dockyards.
3. Navy Pay Office.

1. Storekeeper at Plymouth:

Observations of the Commissioners on the extensive arrears of the accounts of the storekeeper at Plymouth in the year 1802, on the dismissal of that officer, Rep. ix. 3.

2. His Majesty's Dockyards:

Opinion of the Commissioners that the officers of His Majesty's dockyards should not be suffered to receive their pay if their accounts should be more than one year in arrear, Rep. ix. 32.

3. Navy Pay Office:

Observations of the Commissioners on the extensive arrears of the accounts of the treasurer of the navy, notwithstanding they have been frequently called for by the Commissioners for Auditing the Public Accounts, Rep. x. 167.

See also Accounts, I. 4. II. 2. Ex-Treasurers of the Navy.

Assignments. Circumstance of the amount of the assignments or orders upon the treasurer of the navy not according with the amount of the sums paid by him within the year, Rep. x. 154.

Attendance of Officers. Observations of the Commissioners on the neglect of the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth to give their attendance on the receipt of timber at the yard, Rep. ix. 8-10—Opinion of the Commissioners that the clerks attached to the storehouses and storehouse labourers should attend to issue stores from half-past eight o'clock in the morning till three in the afternoon, ib. 33.

Attorney-General. Copy of opinion of Spencer Percival, His Majesty's Attorney-General, dated 3 October 1804, relative to the production of the accounts of the Navy Pay Office, called for by the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, Rep. x. App. 479.

AUDIT OF ACCOUNTS:

1. Navy and Victualling Services.
2. Contingent Expenses of the Navy Pay Office.

1. Navy and Victualling Services:

The treasurer of the navy should cause to be made up an annual account of the navy and victualling services, to be transmitted to the auditors of the imprest, Rep. x. 131.

2. Contingent Expenses of the Navy Pay Office:

Opinion of the Commissioners that the contingent expenses of the Navy Pay Office, as well as all other payments made by the treasurer, should be subject to the control and audit of the Commissioners of the Navy, Rep. x. 174.

B.

BALANCES OF PUBLIC MONEY:

1. Treasurer of the Navy.
2. Right Honourable Henry Dundas.
3. Right Honourable Charles Townsend.
4. Death or Removal of Treasurer.
5. Paymaster of the Navy.
6. Deputy Paymaster of the Navy.
7. Sub-Accountants of the Navy Pay Office.
8. Use and Employment of Public Balances.

1. Treasurer of the Navy:

Account of the state and disposition of the balance of public money with which the treasurer of the navy stood charged on 31 December in each year, from 1786 to 1802 inclusively, Rep. x. 128—Statement showing the amount of the treasurer's unassigned and actual balances on 31 December in each year, from 1786 to 1803; and the number of days such balances would have lasted at the average rate of expenditure of the succeeding years, ib. 155—Opinion of the Commissioners that the money in the treasurer's charge should not at any time be more than equal to ten days' probable expenditure, ib.—Account of the balances of the public money in the hands of the treasurer of the navy, his different cashiers or sub-accountants, made up to 31 December in each year since 1784, with the amount of sums standing in the treasurer's name at the

BALANCES OF PUBLIC MONEY—continued.1. Treasurer of the Navy—continued.

Bank at such periods, Rep. x. App. 181–183—General statement of the annual receipt, payments, and balances of the treasurer of His Majesty's navy, from the year 1786 to 1803 inclusive, ib. 419—General statement of the monthly receipts, payments, and balances of the treasurer of His Majesty's navy, for the years 1796 and 1800, ib. 420—Account showing the unassigned general balance of the treasurer of His Majesty's navy on 31 December in each year, from 1786 to 1803 both inclusive, ib. 421.

2. Right Honourable Henry Dundas :

Account of the balance of public money with which the Right honourable Henry Dundas, now Lord Viscount Melville, stood charged on 30 April 1783, the month in which he quitted the office of treasurer of the navy; showing also the sums received and paid by him, and the amount of his balance on 31 December in each succeeding year, Rep. x. App. 193—Account of the balance of public money with which the Right honourable Henry Dundas, now Viscount Melville, treasurer of the navy, stood charged on 31 December 1785, when the old mode of accounts ceased; showing also the sums received and paid by him, and the amount of his balance on 31 December in each succeeding year, ib. 224.

3. Right Honourable Charles Townsend :

Account of the balance of public money with which the Right honourable Charles Townsend, now Lord Bayning, stood charged on 31 January 1784, the month in which he quitted the office of treasurer of the navy, showing also the sums received and paid by him, and the amount of his balance on 31 December in each succeeding year, Rep. x. App. 223.

4. Death or Removal of Treasurer :

On the death, resignation, or removal of a treasurer, the balance of cash standing in his name at the Bank of England and elsewhere, should vest in his successor, Rep. x. 131.

5. Paymaster of the Navy :

Reason assigned by the paymaster of the navy for keeping balances of public money in his own hands, rather than with the Bank of England, Rep. x. 152.

6. Deputy Paymaster of the Navy :

Circumstance of Lord Melville, when treasurer of the navy, communicating with Mr. Jellicoe, the deputy paymaster, on the subject of the balance in his hands, and desiring him to reduce it, Rep. x. 157, 158—Account showing the sums with which the late Adam Jellicoe, deputy paymaster, stood charged on account of the Right honourable Isaac Barré, treasurer of the navy, at the end of each month, from 10 April 1782, the commencement of his treasurership, to the time of the said Mr. Jellicoe's decease, Rep. x. App. 457—Similar account during the treasurership of Lord Melville, ib.—Similar account during the treasurership of Lord Bayning, ib.—Account showing the sums with which the late Adam Jellicoe, deputy paymaster, stood charged on account of the treasurer of the navy for the time being at the end of each month, from April 1782 to the time of the said Mr. Jellicoe's decease, Rep. x. App. 460—Account of the aggregate charge of the late Mr. Adam Jellicoe, deputy paymaster of the navy, as well on account of the treasurer of the navy for the time being as of the several ex-treasurers, at the end of each month, from April 1782 to the time of his decease, ib.

7. Sub-Accountants of the Navy Pay Office :

Statement of the time when the payments made by the sub-accountants in the Navy Pay Office amounted to the sum of their balances respectively on 31 December in the preceding year, from 1794 to 1804 respectively, Rep. x. 152—Account of balances of public money in the hands of the cashier of the navy on 31 December in each year, from 1792 to 1803, both inclusive, and how disposed of, Rep. x. App. 414—Account of the balance in the hands of the cashier of the victualling on 31 December in each year, from 1785 to 1803, inclusive, specifying where the same was deposited, and the day in each year when the aggregate of the payments had amounted to or exhausted the balance brought forward from the preceding year, ib. 415—Account of the balances in the hands of John Swaffield, deputy paymaster of the navy, on 31 December in each year, from the time of his appointment to that situation to 31 December 1803 inclusive, specifying where such balances were deposited, and the day in each year when the aggregate of the payments had amounted to or exhausted the balance brought forward from the preceding year, ib. 416, 417—Account of the balance in the hands of J. Davies, esq., cashier of allotments, on 31 December in each year, from the time of the establishment of the office to the year 1803 inclusive, specifying where the same was deposited, and the day in each year on which the aggregate of the payments had amounted to or exhausted the balance brought forward from the preceding year, ib. 418.

BALANCES OF PUBLIC MONEY—continued.

3. Use and Employment of Public Balances:

Reason assigned by Lord Melville for permitting the paymaster of the navy to deposit the balances of public money in the hands of Messrs. Coutts & Co., his private bankers, Rep. x. 142—Manner in which the balances of public money drawn from the Bank of England by the paymaster of the navy, had been disposed of, ib. 144.

See also Ex-Treasurers of the Navy, 1. Jellicoe, Adam, 6. Melville, Viscount, 2. Sub-Accountants, 2. Townshend, Right honourable Charles, 2. Treasurer of the Navy, 6. Unassigned Balances.

BANK OF ENGLAND:

1. Treasurer of the Navy's Account.
2. Paymaster of the Navy's Account.
3. Withdrawal of Public Money.
4. Transfer of Accounts.
5. Issues of Money for Navy Services.

1. Treasurer of the Navy's Account:

An account should be raised at the Bank of England, to be entitled, "The Account of the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy," Rep. x. 130, 131—Provision made in the Act for better regulating the office of treasurer of the navy with respect to the separate accounts to be kept by the treasurer with the Bank of England, ib. 169, 170.

2. Paymaster of the Navy's Account:

Statement of the drafts drawn by Alexander Trotter, esq. on the Bank, placed to the credit of his own account with Messrs. Thomas Coutts & Co., between 13 July 1791 and 6 July 1802, both days inclusive, Rep. x. App. 242-246.

3. Withdrawal of Public Money:

Observations of the Commissioners on the practice of the treasurer of the navy allowing the paymaster to withdraw large sums of money from the Bank of England and lodge it in the hands of private bankers, Rep. x. 142-144—Opinion of the Commissioners that the withdrawal of the public money from the Bank of England by the paymaster of the navy was a disobedience of the law as established by the 25 Geo. 3, c. 31, ib. 149—Direction of the Act of Parliament that monies issued to the bank on account of the treasurer of the navy shall not be paid out of the bank unless for navy services, ib. 152—Opinion of the Commissioners that the treasurer and paymaster of the navy be prohibited from drawing money from the Bank of England, ib. 171—Opinion of the Commissioners that the whole of the public money should remain in the bank until actually wanted for the service for which it is issued, ib. 174.

4. Transfer of Accounts:

Opinion of the Commissioners that the bank should be prohibited from paying any money from the account of the treasurer of the navy, otherwise than by transfer to the sub-accountants, Rep. x. 171.

5. Issues of Money for Navy Services:

Opinion of the Commissioners that the issues made from the Exchequer for the service of the navy should be in cash, or such Exchequer bills as the Bank of England agree to take as cash, Rep. x. 169.

See also Issue of Money, 3. Madden, Benjamin. Newland, Abraham. Payment of Money, 1. Private Bankers. Treasurer of the Navy, 9. Withdrawal of Public Money.

Banking Account at Coutts & Co. Particulars of the several descriptions of accounts kept by Mr. Alexander Trotter, paymaster of the navy, with the banking house of Messrs. Coutts & Co. during the period that he held that office, Rep. x. 145-147—Account of the sums received by Messrs. Thomas Coutts and Co. by the drafts of Mr. Trotter on the bank and carried to the credit of his own account, ib. 148—Amount of sums paid from the account of Mr. Trotter with Messrs. Thomas Coutts and Co., entitled, "His own account," to the different sub-accountants of the Navy Pay Office, ib.—Amount of the sums paid from the same account for services supposed to be of a public nature, to the "Act of Parliament Account," and to the "Act of Parliament New Account," ib.

See also Antrobus, Edmund. Chapman, William. Treasurer of the Navy, 9. Trotter, Alexander.

BARRE, RIGHT HONOURABLE ISAAC:

1. Office of Treasurer of the Navy.
2. Increase of Salary of Treasurer.
3. Deputy Paymasters' Balances.

1. Office of Treasurer of the Navy:

Observations of the Commissioners on the office of the treasurer of the navy during the treasurership of the Right honourable Isaac Barré, Rep. x. 133.

2. Increase of Salary of Treasurer:

Copy of the King's warrant, dated 22 June 1782, granting an increase of Mr. Barré's salary as treasurer of the navy to 4,000 l. per annum, Rep. x. App. 184.

3. Deputy Paymasters' Balances:

Account showing the sums with which the late Adam Jellicoe, deputy paymaster, stood charged on account of the Right honourable Isaac Barré, treasurer of the navy, at the end of each month, from 10 April 1782, the commencement of his treasurership, to the time of the said Mr. Jellicoe's decease, Rep. x. App. 457.

BATHURST, RIGHT HONOURABLE CHARLES:

1. Office of Treasurer of the Navy.
2. Lodgment of Public Money with Private Bankers.

1. Office of Treasurer of the Navy:

Observations of the Commissioners on the office of treasurer of the navy during the treasurership of the Right honourable Charles Bathurst, Rep. x. 166, 167.

2. Lodgment of Public Money with Private Bankers:

Occasion of the Right honourable Charles Bathurst, when treasurer of the navy, putting a stop to the practice of drawing the money out of the Bank of England and lodging it in the hands of a private banker, Rep. x. 143—Examination of the Right honourable Charles Bathurst, late treasurer of His Majesty's navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 25 June 1804, relative to the lodgment of balances of public money by the treasurer of the navy in the hands of a private banker for the use of the service, Rep. x. App. 232, 233.

BAYNING, RIGHT HONOURABLE LORD:

1. Office of Treasurer of the Navy.
2. Treasurer's Balances.
3. Deputy Paymaster's Balances.

1. Office of Treasurer of the Navy:

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of conducting the business of the department of the treasurer of the navy during the treasurership of Lord Bayning, Rep. x. 136, 137—Examination of the Right honourable Lord Bayning, late treasurer of His Majesty's navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 12 January 1805, relative to the mode of conducting the business of the treasurer's department during his Lordship's tenure of office, Rep. x. App. 222.

2. Treasurer's Balances:

Account of the balance of public money with which the Right honourable Charles Townsend, afterwards Lord Bayning, stood charged on 31 January 1784, the month in which he quitted the office of treasurer of the navy, showing also the sums received and paid by him, and the amount of his balance on 31 December in each succeeding year, Rep. x. App. 223.

3. Deputy Paymaster's Balances:

Account showing the sums with which the late Adam Jellicoe, deputy paymaster, stood charged on account of the Right honourable Lord Bayning, treasurer of the navy, at the end of each month, from 11 April 1783, the commencement of his treasurership, to the time of the said Mr. Jellicoe's decease, Rep. x. App. 457.

BILLS OF EXCHANGE:

1. Navy Bills.
2. Transport Bills.
3. Victualling Bills.
4. Payment of Interest on Navy and Transport Bills.

1. Navy Bills:

Observations of the Commissioners on the practice of the Navy Board issuing bills, during the late war, for the purpose of raising money for the service, Rep. xi. 483-486
—Account

BILLS OF EXCHANGE—continued.1. Navy Bills—continued.

—Account of bills issued by the Navy Board to Mr. George Glenny, and to Messrs. Donaldson and Glenny, for the purpose of raising money, between 24 October 1800 and 21 April 1804, both inclusive, Rep. xi. App. 504-508—Copy of minute submitted by the Committee of Accounts to the Navy Board, dated 12 December 1801, proposing an alteration in the mode of paying the ninety-day bills issued by the Navy Board, ib. 524, 525.

2. Transport Bills :

Copy of letter from the Transport Board to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 12 October 1804, relative to the loss arising from the mode of paying the interest on transport bills, Rep. xi. App. 521—Account of the amount of the bills payable at ninety days' date issued from the Transport Office in each year, upon which the interest of the day of the date, and the day of payment, was included, ib. 532.

3. Victualling Bills :

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of calculating the interest on bills issued by the Victualling Board, Rep. xi. 487-491—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of Victualling to the Navy Board, dated 8 February 1797, on the subject of the terms of the bills issued by the Victualling Board, and the mode of calculating the interest thereon, Rep. xi. App. 521, 522.

4. Payment of Interest on Navy and Transport Bills :

Observations of the Commissioners on the loss arising to the public from the mode of paying the interest on navy and transport bills, Rep. xi. 486-491—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 22 August 1804, relative to the loss arising to the public from the mode of paying the interest on navy and transport bills, Rep. xi. App. 525—Account showing the amount of ninety-day bills issued from the Navy Office in each year, during the time interest was allowed, both on the day of the date of the bills and the day of payment, ib. 531.

See also Exchequer Bills. Interest on Bills. Issue of Bills. Navy Bills. Navy Board, 10. Negotiation of Bills. Remittance Bills. Transport Bills. Victualling Bills.

BILLS OF PARCELS :

1. Receipt of Stores.
2. Issue of Stores.
3. Prices of Stores.

1. Receipt of Stores :

Opinion of the Commissioners that no stores should be allowed to be deposited in the yard or storehouse without a bill of parcels being produced, and the number of packages compared therewith, Rep. ix. 5.

2. Issues of Stores :

Opinion of the Commissioners that no article should pass from the charge of one department in a dockyard to another without a note, answering a bill of parcels, Rep. ix. 29.

3. Prices of Stores :

The bills of parcels should contain the prices as well as the quantities of the articles received in His Majesty's yards, Rep. ix. 5.—See also Invoices.

Black, George. Employment of Mr. George Black, an accountant at the Navy Pay Office, to draw out a schedule of Mr. Jellicoe's effects, and the debts due to him at the time of his decease, Rep. x. 159—Examination of Mr. George Black, agent and accountant, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 20 November 1804, relative to the state of the late Mr. Adam Jellicoe's accounts at the time of his decease, Rep. x. App. 437.

Bonar, Thomson. Examination of Thomson Bonar, esq., a merchant of London, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 31 July 1804, relative to the allowance made to merchants for the draught of the scale on weighing hemp for duty, Rep. ix. App. 67, 68.

Books. See Pay Books. Ships' Books.

Brokers' Commission. See Goldsmid, B. and A., Messrs., 3.

Builders' Measurer. Nature of the duties performed by the builders' measurer at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth on the receipt of timber at the dockyard, Rep. ix. 8, 9.

C.

Cabin Keepers. Nature of the duties of the cabin keepers in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, with reference to the issue of stores to ships, Rep. ix. 6, 7.

Candles. Account of the abuses at Plymouth yard in the receipt of the article of candles from the contractors, Rep. ix. 5.

CANNING, RIGHT HONOURABLE GEORGE:

1. Monies impressed into the Hands of the Treasurer of the Navy.
2. Payment of Home Remittance Bills.
3. Navy Pay Office Accounts.
4. Mr. Adam Jellicoe's Deficiency.

1. Monies impressed into the Hands of the Treasurer of the Navy:

Circumstance of the Commissioners applying to Mr. Canning when treasurer of the navy for an account of monies received by Lord Melville, or any person on his account, during his Lordship's tenure of office of treasurer, Rep. x. 140, 141—Letter from the Right honourable George Canning, treasurer of the navy, to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 28 July 1804, stating his inability to furnish certain accounts required by the Commissioners, Rep. x. App. 224.

2. Payment of Home Remittance Bills:

Part taken by Mr. Canning in rectifying the mistake in the treasurer's accounts, arising out of a fraud committed by a clerk in the Navy Office, in twice charging remittance bills in the account, Rep. x. 165, 166—Letter from the Right honourable George Canning, treasurer of the navy, to the Commissioners of the Navy, dated 29 November 1804, relative to certain remittance bills being twice charged in the treasurer's accounts during Lord Melville's treasurership, Rep. x. App. 468, 469.

3. Navy Pay Office Accounts:

Circumstance of Mr. Canning declining to furnish the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry with the accounts required by them in their precept to the treasurer of the navy, Rep. x. 175, 176—Copy of letter from the Right honourable George Canning, treasurer of the navy, to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 30 October 1804, stating reasons for not furnishing the returns called for by the Commissioners, and enclosing the opinion of the law officers of the Crown thereupon, Rep. x. App. 479.

4. Mr. Adam Jellicoe's Deficiencies:

Copy of letter from the Right honourable George Canning, treasurer of His Majesty's navy, to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 23 November 1804, relative to the state of the late Mr. Adam Jellicoe's balance, and the amount of his deficiency, Rep. x. App. 426.

Carvers' Work. Observations of the Commissioners on the system of contracting for carvers' work at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 26, 27.

Cash. Opinion of the Commissioners that all issues to the Bank of England, for the service of the navy, should be made from the Exchequer in cash, or in such Exchequer Bills as the Bank agree to take as cash, Rep. x. 169.

CASHIER OF ALLOTMENTS (NAVY PAY OFFICE):

1. Establishment of the Office.
2. Duties of the Office.
3. Use and Employment of Public Money.
4. Payments of Money.
5. Balances of Public Money.

1. Establishment of the Office:

Establishment of the office of cashier of allotments in the Navy Office by Act of Parliament, passed in the year 1795, Rep. x. 132.

2. Duties of the Office:

The cashier of allotments pays all bills for pay drawn by the officers of the navy, and the allotments and remittances of wages made by the seamen of the fleet to their relations or friends, Rep. x. 132.

3. Use and Employment of Public Money:

No advantage has been derived by the cashier of allotments, from the use of the public money, since his appointment in 1795, Rep. x. 153.

4. Payments

3—Reports, 1805—continued.

CASHIER OF ALLOTMENTS (NAVY PAY OFFICE)—continued.

4. Payments of Money:

Nature of the various payments made by the cashier of allotments in the Navy Pay Office, and mode of accounting for the same, Rep. x. 172, 173.

5. Balances of Public Money:

Account of the balance in the hands of the cashier of allotments on 31 December in each year, from the time of the establishment of the office to the year 1803 inclusive, specifying where the same was deposited, and the day in each year on which the aggregate of the payments had amounted to or exhausted, the balance brought forward from the preceding year, Rep. x. App. 418.

See also Davies, John. Payment of Money, 2.

Cashier of the Bank of England. See Newland, Abraham.

CASHIER OF THE NAVY (NAVY PAY OFFICE):

1. Duties of the Office.
2. Employment of the Public Money.
3. Balances of Public Money.

1. Duties of the Office:

The cashier of the navy pays all bills assigned on the treasurer by the Navy, Transport, and Sick and Hurt Boards, Rep. x. 132.

2. Employment of the Public Money:

Emolument and advantage derived by the cashier of the navy from the investment of balances of public money in navy bills, Rep. x. 153.

3. Balances of Public Money:

Account of balances of public money in the hands of the cashier of the navy on 31 December in each year from 1792 to 1803, both inclusive, and how disposed of, Rep. x. App. 414.

See also Payment of Money, 2. Slade, James.

CASHIER OF THE VICTUALLING (NAVY PAY OFFICE):

1. Duties of the Office.
2. Lodgment of Public Money with Private Bankers.
3. Employment of Public Money.
4. Balances of Public Money.

1. Duties of the Office:

The cashier of the victualling pays all bills assigned on the treasurer of the navy by the Victualling Board, Rep. x. 132.

2. Lodgment of Public Money with Private Bankers:

Circumstance of the cashier of victualling objecting to the deposit of his balances at the banking house of Messrs. Coutts & Co., Rep. x. 141, 142.

3. Employment of Public Money:

No advantage has been derived by the cashier of the victualling from the use of the public money, since his salary was raised in 1786, Rep. x. 153.

4. Balances of Public Money:

Account of the balance in the hands of the cashier of the victualling, on 31 December in each year, from 1785 to 1803 inclusive, specifying where the same was deposited, and the day in each year when the aggregate of the payments had amounted to or exhausted, the balance brought forward from the preceding year, Rep. x. App. 415.

See also Payment of Money, 2. Swaffield, George.

CERTIFICATES:

1. Receipt of Stores.
2. Payment for Stores.
3. Signature of Certificates.

1. Receipt of Stores:

The accounts of the officers of customs, of stores received in His Majesty's yard, should be compared with the certificates given by the officers of the yard, previous to the Commissioners affixing their signatures thereto, Rep. ix. 31—The certificates of stores received from contractars, now made out by the clerk of the cheque, should in future be made out and signed by the clerk of the survey, ib. 31.

CERTIFICATES—continued.2. Payment of Stores :

Certificates of stores received are made out as often as the contractors may require, in order to their obtaining payment of the Navy Board, Rep. ix. 4.

3. Signature of Certificates :

The certificates of stores received from contractors after being examined and signed by the storekeeper, should receive the signature of the master shipwright and masters attendant, certifying the quality of the stores, Rep. ix. 31, 32.

See also Monthly Certificates.

Chamberlayne & White, Messrs. Employment of Messrs. Chamberlayne and White, solicitors, to conduct the process on behalf of the treasurer of the navy, against Mr. Adam Jellicoe, deputy paymaster, Rep. x. 158.

CHAPMAN, WILLIAM :1. *Mr. Trotter's Banking Account at Coutts & Co's.*2. *Mr. Adam Jellicoe's Banking Account.*1. Mr. Trotter's Banking Account at Coutts & Co's :

Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Mr. William Chapman, clerk in the banking house of Messrs. Thomas Coutts & Co., with reference to the accounts kept by Mr. Alexander Trotter with that firm, during the time he was paymaster of the navy, Rep. x. 146—Examination of Mr. William Chapman, a clerk in the banking house of Messrs. Thomas Coutts & Co., taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 16 November 1804, relative to the account kept by Mr. Alexander Trotter at Messrs. Coutts & Co's. bank, Rep. x. App. 241.

2. Mr. Adam Jellicoe's Banking Account :

Examination of Mr. William Chapman, clerk in the banking house of Messrs. Thomas Coutts & Co., taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 26 December 1804, relative to the account kept at Messrs. Coutts & Co's, by Mr. Adam Jellicoe, deputy paymaster of the navy, Rep. x. App. 454.

Checks. Observations of the Commissioners on the disadvantage to the public of the nominal and unnecessary multiplication of checks established, in conducting the business at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 31, 32.

Chips. Account of the amount of the produce of the chips in His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth since the allowance of chip money was first established in July 1801, Rep. ix. App. 115.

CLERK OF THE CHEQUE (PLYMOUTH YARD):1. *Receipt of Timber.*2. *Receipt of Stores.*1. Receipt of Timber :

Observations of the Commissioners on the duties of the clerk of the cheque at Plymouth yard, with reference to the receipt of timber, Rep. ix. 7-10.

2. Receipt of Stores :

Opinion of the Commissioners that the clerk of the cheque should be relieved from attending the receipt of stores, in order that his whole attention may be directed to the mustering and checking the wages of the workmen, Rep. ix. 31.

See also Metcalf, James. Netherton, Thomas. Pering, Richard.

Clerk of the Rope Yard at Plymouth. Suggestion of the Commissioners for abolishing the office of clerk of the Rope Yard, and making that officer one of the storekeepers, Rep. ix. 32—See also Accounts, I. 3.

CLERK OF THE SURVEY (PLYMOUTH YARD):1. *Issue of Stores.*2. *Receipt of Stores.*1. Issue of Stores :

Nature of the duties of the clerk of the survey in reference to the issue of stores at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 6, 7.

2. Receipt of Timber :

Duties of the clerk of the survey at Plymouth yard, with reference to giving attendance on the receipt of timber into store, Rep. ix. 7-10.

See also Certificates, 1.

3—Reports, 1805—continued.

Clerks (Plymouth Yard). Observations of the Commissioners on the gross neglect of the clerks in Plymouth yard, in taking and keeping the account of paint work, Rep. ix. 24-26.—See also Fees, 1.

Clothing. Account of the standing contracts with the Navy Board for slop clothing, &c., for seamen and marines, in force on 19 December 1801, and which continued so for twelve months afterwards, Rep. xi. App. 529, 530.

COALS:

I. The King's Yard at Plymouth:

1. Coal Contract.
2. Receipt and Delivery of Coals.
3. Excess of Cargoes of Coals.
4. Fraudulent Measurement.

II. *Port of Plymouth.*III. *Royal Hospital at Plymouth.*IV. Port of London:

1. Allowance of Ingrain.

V. North of England:

1. Sale of Coals by Weight.

I. The King's Yard at Plymouth:

1. Coal Contract:

Copy of the contract made by the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy with Messrs. Henley & Son, for the supply of the King's yard at Plymouth with coals, Rep. ix. App. 69-71.

2. Receipt and Delivery of Coals:

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of receipt and delivery of coals at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 14-24—Abstract account of coals received in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, between 1 January 1790 and 31 August 1803, Rep. ix. App. 86-91.

3. Excess of Cargoes of Coals:

Statement showing the excess of the cargoes of the several ships above double the quantity contained in their respective cockets, with the contract price in each year, delivered at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 18, 19—Explanation given by Messrs. Henley & Son of the great excess of the cargoes delivered at His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, above double the cocketted quantities, ib. 22, 23.

4. Fraudulent Measurement:

Observations of the Commissioners on the frauds practised in the measurement of coal on delivery from the ship "Henley" at Plymouth yard, Rep. ix. 15-17—Copy of letter from the officers of customs at Newcastle to the Commissioners of Customs, dated 27 June 1803, relative to a fraud committed in the delivery of coals at Plymouth yard, from the ship "Henley," belonging to Messrs. Henley and Son, Rep. ix. App. 73.

II. Port of Plymouth:

Account of coals landed at the port of Plymouth out of ships from Newcastle and Llanely, between 1 January 1790 and 31 August 1803, Rep. ix. App. 92, 93—Account of the quantity of coals landed in the port of Plymouth out of vessels from Newcastle and Sunderland, from 5 July 1803, ib. 94—Account of the coals delivered in the port of Plymouth, in Michaelmas quarter 1803, stating the name of vessel, from whence shipped, the quantity per cocket, the quantity upon which duty was paid, the excess above double the quantity cocketted and quantity landed, Rep. ix. 21.

III. Royal Hospital at Plymouth:

Account of the price of coals purchased for the Royal Hospital at Plymouth on an average of each year from 1790 to 1803 inclusive, Rep. ix. 24.

IV. Port of London:

1. Allowance of Ingrain:

Nature of the allowance made in the port of London to the buyer of coals, for ingrain, Rep. ix. 15.

V. North of England:

1. Sale of Coals by Weight:

Letter from the officers of customs at Newcastle-upon-Tyne to the secretary of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 24 August 1804, relative to the sale of coals in the north by weight, Rep. ix. App. 71.

See also Frauds, 1. 2. Henley and Sons, Messrs., 1. 2. "Horta," The Ship. Measurement of Coals. Meters. Navy Board, 1. Outports, 1. Salt, John Neve, 2. Scobell and Sambell, Messrs.

3—Reports, 1805—continued.

Commission. Rate of commission charged by Messrs. B. and A. Goldsmid on the sale of Exchequer bills issued for the service of the navy, Rep. x. 168—Amount of Messrs. Goldsmids' commission on the negotiation of navy bills during the late war, for the purpose of raising money, Rep. xi. 486.—See also Kemp, 3.

Commissioners of Plymouth Yard. Occasion of the Commissioners receiving instructions from the Navy Board to inquire into the causes of the violent dissensions between the storekeeper and the master shipwright and other officers of His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 30.

Committee of Accounts. Copy of minute of the Committee of Accounts, bearing date 12 December 1801, to the Navy Board, proposing an alteration in the mode of paying the ninety-day bills issued by the Navy Board, Rep. xi. App. 524, 525.

Committee of the Navy Board. Occasion of a committee of the Navy Board being sent to Plymouth to make inquiry into the disputes and reciprocal complaints of the officers of His Majesty's dockyards, Rep. ix. 30, 31.

Comptroller of Customs. See Newton, John.

COMPTROLLER OF THE NAVY:

1. Raising Money on Navy Bills.
2. Issue of Navy Bills:
3. Secret Service Money.

1. Raising Money on Navy Bills:

Part taken by the comptroller of the navy in connexion with raising money, during the late war, upon navy bills, Rep. xi. 484.

2. Issue of Navy Bills:

Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of the comptroller of the navy, with respect to the issue of navy bills, during the late war, for the purpose of raising money, Rep. 485.

3. Secret Service Money:

Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of the comptroller of the navy with respect to the money imprested by the Navy Board for secret naval services, Rep. xi. 491-494.

See also Hamond, Sir Andrew Snape, Bart.

Contingent Expenses. Formerly the contingent expenses of the Navy Pay Office, as well as all other payments made by the treasurer, were subject to the control and audit of the Commissioners of the Navy, Rep. x. 174.

CONTRACTS:

1. The King's Yard at Plymouth.
2. Coal Contracts.
3. Painters' Work.
4. Standing Contracts.
5. Allowance to Contractors for Draught of the Scale.

1. The King's Yard at Plymouth:

Observations of the Commissioners on the contracts carried on in His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, besides those for the erection and repair of buildings, Rep. ix. 26, 27.

2. Coal Contracts:

Nature and condition of the contracts under which coals are supplied to His Majesty's dockyards, Rep. ix. 14-24—Copy of contract entered into between the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy and Messrs. Henley and Son, dated 17 March 1790, for the supply of coals to His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. App. 69-71.

3. Painters' Work:

Observations of the Commissioners on the system of contracting for paint work done in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 24-26.

4. Standing Contracts:

Account of the standing contracts with the Navy Board, in force on 19 December 1801, and which continued so for twelve months afterwards, Rep. xi. App. 527-530.

5. Allowance to Contractors for Draught of the Scale:

Opinion of the Commissioners that no allowance should be made to contractors for draught of the scale, in weighing hemp and other articles, on receipt at His Majesty's yards, Rep. ix. 13.

See also Treenail Mooting.

Converter of Timber. Nature of the duties of this officer in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, previous to the appointment of a timber master, Rep. ix. 10.

Convictions for Fraud. See Thomas, George.

Copies of Accounts. The officers of the customs attending the landing of articles in the dockyards, for the purpose of collecting the duties, should transmit copies of those accounts to the resident Commissioners, Rep. ix. 31.

CORDAGE :

1. Sale of Old Stores.
2. Delivery of Stores.

1. Sale of Old Stores :

Regulations under which the sale of old ropes conducted at His Majesty's yards, Rep. ix. 27, 28.

2. Delivery of Stores :

Suggestions of the Commissioners with respect to the establishment of a check upon the issue of cordage and junk, by the storekeeper at Plymouth yard, to the clerk of the ropeyard, Rep. ix. 29.

See also Embezzlement of Stores, 2.

Cort, Henry. Embarrassments of Mr. Adam Jellicoe, late deputy-paymaster of the navy, from his connexion with Mr. Henry Cort, in an undertaking for rendering cast iron malleable, Rep. x. 158.

Counsel to the Admiralty. Copy of opinion of T. Jervis, esq., counsel to the Admiralty, dated 3 October 1804, relative to the production of the accounts of the Navy Pay Office, called for by the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, Rep. x. App. 479.

Counsel's Opinion. Copy of opinion of the attorney-general and solicitor-general and the counsel to the Admiralty with reference to the treasurer of the navy furnishing the accounts called for by the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, Rep. x. 175.

COUTTS, THOMAS & Co., MESSRS. :

1. Mr. Trotter's Banking Account.
2. Mr. Jellicoe's Balance of Account.

1. Mr. Trotter's Banking Account :

Observations of the Commissioners on the circumstance of Mr. Trotter drawing large sums of money from the Bank of England, and depositing them with his private bankers, Messrs. Thomas Coutts & Co., Rep. x. 141, 142—Particulars respecting the various descriptions of accounts kept by Mr. Alexander Trotter with the banking house of Messrs. Thomas Coutts & Co., during the time he was paymaster of the navy, ib. 145-147—Account of sums paid from the account of Mr. Trotter with Messrs. Thomas Coutts & Co., entitled "His own account," to the different sub-accountants of the Navy Pay Office, ib.—Amount of the sums paid from the same account for services supposed to be of a public nature, to the "Act of Parliament Account," and to the "Act of Parliament New Account," ib.—Statement of the drafts drawn by Alexander Trotter, esq., on the bank, placed to the credit of his own account with Messrs. Thomas Coutts & Co., between 13 July 1791 and 6 July 1802, both days inclusive, Rep. x. App. 242-246—Statement of the drafts drawn by Alexander Trotter, esq., on the bank, placed to the credit of his separate account with Messrs. Thomas Coutts & Co., between 25 April 1789 and 12 April 1790, both days inclusive, ib. 247—Account of Alexander Trotter, esq. with the house of Messrs. Coutts & Co., entitled "His own account," ib. 249-389—Extract from the account of Alexander Trotter, esq., with the house of Messrs. Thomas Coutts & Co., entitled "His separate account," ib. 392-395—Abstract of the account of Alexander Trotter, esq. with the house of Messrs. Thomas Coutts & Co., entitled "His account as paymaster," ib. 398-412.

2. Mr. Jellicoe's Balance of Account :

Amount due to the estate of Mr. Adam Jellicoe, deputy paymaster of the navy, from Thomas Coutts & Co., at the time of his decease, Rep. x. 161.

See also Antrobus, Edmund. Chapman, William.

Crown Process. See Extents in Aid.

Custody of Stores. The officers charged with stores in the naval service are not allowed to receive their pay, until their accounts have been examined and approved, Rep. ix. 32.

Custom House. Account of the allowance made by the customs to merchants, for the draught of the scale upon all weighable goods, previous to the abolition of the same, Rep. ix. App. 67.

3—Reports, 1805—continued.

Custom-house Officers. Check established on the receipt of goods in His Majesty's yards by the officers of customs taking account of the most important articles for the purpose of collecting the duties, Rep. ix. 31.

See also Certificates, 1. Newton, John.

Customs, Commissioners of. Circumstance of the officers of the customs at Newcastle communicating to the Commissioners of Customs the particulars of a fraud committed in the delivery of coals by the ship "Henley" at Plymouth yard, Rep. ix. 15.

See also Secretary of Customs.

D.

Damaged Stores. See Hemp, 3.

DAVIES, JOHN :

1. Lodgment of Public Money with Private Bankers.
2. Balances of Public Money.

1. Lodgment of Public Money with Private Bankers :

Examination of John Davies, esq., cashier of allotments in the Navy Pay Office, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 5 July 1804, relative to the lodgment of balances of public money at Messrs. Couetts & Co.'s bank, by the treasurer of the navy, for the use of the service, Rep. x. App. 230, 231.

2. Balances of Public Money :

Account of the balance in the hands of J. Davies, cashier of allotments, on 31 December in each year, from the time of the establishment of the office to the year 1803 inclusive; specifying where the same was deposited, and the day in each year on which the aggregate of the payments had amounted to or exhausted, the balance brought forward from the preceding year, Rep. x. App. 418.

Daysh, George. Examination of George Daysh, esq., second clerk in the ticket office in the Navy Office, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 26 January 1805, on the subject of the examination and making up of the pay books of His Majesty's ships, Rep. x. App. 476, 477.

Dean Forest. Account of the supply of timber from the Forest of Dean for the service of His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 8.

See also Resident Purveyor of Timber.

Debts and Effects. Statement of the amount of the debts of Mr. Adam Jellicoe, formerly deputy paymaster of the navy, due to the treasurer of His Majesty's navy at the time of his decease, Rep. x. 159—Schedule of the effects and debts belonging and due to Adam Jellicoe, esq., deceased, as the same appeared in his books on 29 August 1789, Rep. x. App. 438-440.

DEFICIENCIES :

1. Treasurer of the Navy.
2. Mr. Adam Jellicoe.

1. Treasurer of the Navy :

Account of the state and disposition of the balance of public money with which the treasurer of the navy stood charged on 31 December, in each year, from 1786 to 1802 inclusive, showing the amount of deficiency, Rep. x. 128—Recommendation of the Commissioners, that before any treasurer of the navy, or other public accountant, be discharged from accounting for deficiencies in his office, a statement of the loss or deficiency, and the circumstances attending it, be sworn to by such accountant before one of the Barons of the Court of Exchequer, ib. 163—Statement of the amount of the deficiencies in the balances of the treasurer of the navy at the Bank of England, in each year, from 31 December 1786 to 31 December 1799, both inclusive, Rep. x. App. 191.

2. Mr. Adam Jellicoe :

Circumstances attending the defalcation of Mr. Adam Jellicoe, formerly deputy paymaster of the navy, Rep. x. 157. 163—Accounts showing the amount of Mr. Jellicoe's debt to the treasurer and ex-treasurers of the navy, at the time of his decease, Rep. x. App. 436.

See also Jellicoe, Adam, 1. 6. Trotter, Alexander, 4. 5.

Deficiency of Weight. See Hemp, 2.

Delivery of Stores. Opinion of the Commissioners that no article should pass from the charge of one department in a dockyard to another, without a note, answering a bill of parcels, Rep. ix. 29.—See also Cordage, 2. Frauds, 1. 2.

3—Reports, 1805—continued.

Demands for Stores. Observations of the Commissioners on the process of the issue of stores on the demands of captains, in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 6, 7—Opinion of the Commissioners that all demands for stores should, in the first instance, be examined and approved by the master shipwright and masters attendant, Rep. ix. 33.

DEPUTY PAYMASTER OF THE NAVY:

1. Duties of the Office.
2. Balances of Public Money.
3. Act of Parliament new Account.
4. Use and Employment of Public Money.
5. Mr. Adam Jellicoe's Deficiency.

1. Duties of the Office:

The payment of all wages to the seamen of the fleet and the workmen in the dockyards is in the department of the deputy paymaster, Rep. x. 132.

2. Balances of Public Money:

Account of the balances in the hands of John Swaffield, deputy paymaster of the navy, on 31 December in each year, from the time of his appointment to that situation to 31 December 1803 inclusive, specifying where such balances were deposited, and the day in each year when the aggregate of the payments had amounted to or exhausted, the balance brought forward from the preceding year, Rep. x. App. 416, 417—Account showing the sums with which the late Adam Jellicoe, deputy paymaster, stood charged on account of the Right honourable Isaac Barré, treasurer of the navy, at the end of each month, from 10 April 1782, the commencement of his treasurership, to the time of the said Mr. Jellicoe's decease, ib. 457—Similar account during the treasurership of Lord Melville, ib.—Similar account during the treasurership of Lord Bayning, ib.

3. Act of Parliament new Account:

Account showing the sums with which the late Adam Jellicoe, deputy paymaster, stood charged on account of the Right honourable Lord Melville, treasurer of the navy, at the end of each month, from 1 January 1786, the commencement of the Act of Parliament new account to the time of the said Mr. Jellicoe's decease, Rep. x. App. 459.

4. Use and Employment of Public Money:

No advantage has been derived by the deputy paymaster of the navy from the use of the public money since his appointment in the year 1797, Rep. x. 153.

5. Mr. Adam Jellicoe's Deficiency:

Account showing the sums with which the late Adam Jellicoe, deputy paymaster, stood charged on account of the treasurer of the navy for the time being, at the end of each month, from April 1782 to the time of the said Mr. Jellicoe's decease, Rep. x. App. 460—Account of the aggregate charge of the late Mr. Adam Jellicoe, deputy paymaster of the navy, as well on account of the treasurer of the navy for the time being as of the several ex-treasurers, at the end of each month, from April 1782 to the time of his decease, ib.

See also Jellicoe, Adam. Payment of Money, 2. Security, 1. Swaffield, John.

Devonshire, Henry. Examination of Henry Devonshire, hammerman in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 5 October 1803, relative to the frauds committed in the delivery of coals at the King's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. App. 75, 76.

Disputes between Officers of Plymouth Yard. Particulars respecting the violent dissensions between the storekeeper at Plymouth and the master shipwright, clerk of the survey, and one of the masters attendant, Rep. ix. 29-31.

DOCKYARDS:

1. Supply of Coals.
2. Accounting for Stores.

1. Supply of Coals:

Manner in which the coals required for the use of His Majesty's dockyards are supplied, Rep. ix. 14.

2. Accounting for Stores:

Opinion of the Commissioners, that the officers charged with stores in His Majesty's dockyards should not receive their pay until their accounts had been examined and approved, Rep. ix. 32.

3—Reports, 1805—continued.

Donaldson & Glenny, Messrs. Circumstance of Messrs. Donaldson & Glenny being employed to discount navy bills for the purpose of raising money during the late war, Rep. ix. 484—Account of the navy bills issued to Mr. George Glenny, to Messrs. Donaldson & Glenny, and to Messrs. Hammersley & Co., on account of sundry naval services between 24 October 1800 and 21 April 1804, both inclusive, Rep. xi. App. 504-508.

Douglas, Andrew. Difficulty experienced by the Commissioners in prosecuting their inquiry into the department of treasurer of the navy from Mr. Andrew Douglas, who acted as paymaster to Lord Melville, being dead, Rep. x. 134, 135, 137—Denial of Mr. Douglas, while acting as paymaster to Lord Bayning, of having made use of the public money, withdrawn by him from the bank, to his own advantage or emolument, ib. 150.

Drafts. Statement of the drafts drawn by Alexander Trotter, esq. on the bank, placed to the credit of his separate account with Messrs. Coutts & Co., between 25 April 1789 and 12 April 1790, both days inclusive, Rep. x. App. 247.

DRAUGHT OF THE SCALE :

1. Weighing Hemp.
2. Sale of Old Stores.

1. Weighing Hemp :

Statement showing the difference in the practice at His Majesty's several dockyards in making allowances to merchants for draught of the scale in weighing hemp and other articles, Rep. ix. 12, 13.

2. Sale of Old Stores :

Rate of allowance made to the purchasers of old lead, iron, and cordage for the draught of the scale, Rep. ix. 28.

DUNDAS, RIGHT HON. HENRY :

1. Office of Treasurer of the Navy.
2. Balances of Public Money.
3. Increase of Salary.
4. Payment of Home Remittance Bills.
5. Mr. Adam Jellicoe's Deficiency.

1. Office of Treasurer of the Navy :

Observations of the Commissioners on the office of treasurer of the navy during the first treasurership of the Right hon. Henry Dundas, afterwards Lord Viscount Melville, Rep. 134, 135—Remarks of the Commissioners on the second treasurership of the Right hon. Lord Viscount Melville, ib. 137, 138—Observations of the Commissioners on the second part of the second treasurership of the Right hon. Lord Viscount Melville, officially entitled "His Act of Parliament New Account," ib. 138-157.

2. Balances of Public Money :

Account of the balance of public money with which the Right hon. Henry Dundas, afterwards Lord Viscount Melville, stood charged on 30 April 1783, the month in which he quitted the office of treasurer of the navy; showing also the sums received and paid by him, and the amount of his balance on 31 December in each succeeding year, Rep. x. App. 193—Account of the balance of public money with which the Right hon. Henry Dundas, afterwards Lord Viscount Melville, treasurer of the navy, stood charged on 31 December 1785, when the old mode of account ceased; showing also the sums received and paid by him, and the amount of his balance on 31 December in each succeeding year, ib. 224.

3. Increase of Salary :

Copy of the King's warrant, bearing date 19 August 1782, for increasing the salary of the Right hon. Henry Dundas, as treasurer to the navy, to 4,000*l.* a year, Rep. x. App. 188, 189.

4. Payment of Home Remittance Bills :

Account of home remittance bills twice charged as paid in the accounts of the Right hon. Henry Dundas, treasurer of the navy, Rep. x. App. 465—Copy of letter from the Right hon. Henry Dundas, treasurer of His Majesty's navy, to the Commissioners of the Navy, dated 27 July 1795, relative to a fraud practised in the payment of Home remittance bills, ib. 466, 467.

5. Mr. Adam Jellicoe's Deficiency :

Account of Alexander Trotter, esq., paymaster of the navy, in trust for the estate of Adam Jellicoe, esq., deceased, as far as respects the interest of the Right hon. Henry Dundas, treasurer of His Majesty's navy, Rep. x. App. 442-449—Statement presented by the Right hon. Henry Dundas, afterwards Viscount Melville, to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's treasury on the subject of the debt due to him from

DUNDAS, RIGHT HON. HENRY—continued.

5. Mr. Adam Jellicoe's Deficiency—continued.

Mr. Adam Jellicoe at the time of his decease, Rep. x. App. 450, 451—Copy of letter from the Right hon. Henry Dundas, treasurer of the navy, to Adam Jellicoe, esq. deputy paymaster of the navy, dated 10 July 1788, relative to reducing the amount of the balance of public money in his hands, ib. 452.

See also Melville, Viscount.

E.

Elliott, John. Examination of Mr. John Elliott, late a storehouse foreman in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 28 October 1803, relative to the receipt and issue of stores in Plymouth yard, Rep. ix. App. 46.

Ellis, Right Honourable Welbore. Circumstance of the certificate books of the treasurer-ship of the Right honourable Welbore Ellis, being surreptitiously taken out of the Navy Pay Office, Rep. x. 159.

EMBEZZLEMENT OF STORES:

1. Tinman's and Glazier's Work.
2. Old Cordage.

1. Tinman's and Glazier's Work:

Observations of the Commissioners on the frequent attempts to embezzle articles of tinman's and glazier's work in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 27.

2. Old Cordage:

Observations of the Commissioners on the frequency of embezzlement of old cordage from His Majesty's yards; check established to prevent the abuse, Rep. ix. 27.

See also Thorne, George.

EMPLOYMENT OF PUBLIC MONEY:

1. Treasurer of the Navy.
2. Paymaster of the Navy.
3. Clerks in the Navy Pay Office.
4. Resolutions of the House of Commons.
5. Mr. Jellicoe's Deficiency.
6. Public Accountants.

1. Treasurer of the Navy:

Circumstance of Lord Melville, when treasurer of the navy, applying the money voted for navy services, in the public service of the state, Rep. x. 139, 140.

2. Paymaster of the Navy:

Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Mr. Edmund Antrobus, with reference to the employment of the public money, received by Messrs. Thomas Coutts & Co. from the bank on Mr. Trotter's drafts, Rep. x. 145—Acknowledgment of Mr. Trotter of his having made use of the public money, withdrawn by him from the Bank of England, to his own advantage and emolument, ib. 149, 150—No notice is taken of the advantage derived by the paymaster of the navy from the use of the money issued for the service of the navy, by the Select Committee of the House of Commons on Finance, in their report in 1797, ib. 151.

3. Clerks in the Navy Pay Office:

Acknowledgment of the chief clerk in the bill and remittance office of the Navy Pay Office, of having derived an advantage from the use and employment of money issued for the payment of Exchequer fees, Rep. x. 144.

4. Resolution of the House of Commons:

Resolution of the House of Commons of 18 June 1782, with reference to the paymaster-general and treasurer of the navy, applying the public money to any purpose of advantage or interest to themselves, Rep. x. 129.

5. Mr. Jellicoe's Deficiency:

Evils arising from the application of public money by individuals to private use, as exemplified in the case of Mr. Adam Jellicoe, formerly deputy paymaster of the navy, Rep. x. 157-161.

EMPLOYMENT OF PUBLIC MONEY—continued.6. Public Accountants:

Opinion of the Commissioners, that all persons entrusted with public money should make oath previously to receiving their salaries, that they have not derived any advantage, directly or indirectly, from the use or employment of the public money committed to their charge, Rep. x. 163.

See also Fees in Public Offices. Commissioners. Paymaster-General of the Forces. Sprot, Mark. Trotter, Alexander, 3. Wilson, Thomas.

Establishment. See Navy Pay Office, 2.

Eton, Mr. Account of bills issued to Mr. Eton by the Navy Board, for which neither stores have been delivered or services performed, Rep. xi. App. 509.

Examination of Accounts. Opinion of the Commissioners that the public can derive very little advantage from the examination of accounts which have been suffered to run many years in arrears, Rep. x. 167, 168—Recommendations of the Commissioners with respect to the examination and audit of the annual accounts of the treasurer of the navy, ib. 174, 175.—See also Monthly Certificates.

EXCHEQUER BILLS:

1. Issues to the Treasurer of the Navy.
2. Loss of the Sale of Exchequer Bills.
3. Interest on Exchequer Bills.

1. Issues to the Treasurer of the Navy:

The practice of making issues to the treasurer of the navy in Exchequer bills, for carrying on the current service of the navy, has much interrupted the regularity of the accounts, Rep. x. 168.

2. Loss on the Sale of Exchequer Bills:

Amount of the loss in the year 1797 on Exchequer bills sold by Messrs. B. & A. Goldsmid, issued for the current service of the navy, Rep. x. 169.

3. Interest on Exchequer Bills:

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of computing interest on Exchequer bills, Rep. xi. 488, 489.

See also Goldsmid, B. & A., Messrs., 1. Negotiation Bills.

Exchequer Fees. Advantages derived from the use and employment of money issued for the payment of Exchequer fees by the clerks in the Navy Pay Office, Rep. x. 144.

Exchequer Issues. See Issue of Money, 2.

Expenses. See Contingent Expenses.

Extents in Aid. Circumstance of the issue of extents of the Crown into the counties of Middlesex and Hampshire against the person and property of Mr. Adam Jellicoe, deputy paymaster of the navy, Rep. x. 158, 159—Copy of the extent issued into the county of Hants against the person and property of Mr. Adam Jellicoe, and the return made thereto by the sheriff, Rep. x. App. 432-434.—See also Harris, William.

EX-TREASURERS OF THE NAVY:

1. Balances of Public Money.
2. Right Hon. Isaac Barré.
3. Arrear Accounts.
4. Mr. Jellicoe's Deficiency.

1. Balances of Public Money:

Observations of the Commissioners on the circumstance of the ex-treasurers of the navy retaining large balances in their hands upon quitting office, Rep. x. 129.

2. Right Hon. Isaac Barré:

Nature of the payments made by the Right honourable Isaac Barré, as ex-treasurer of the navy, upon such ships' books as were opened during his treasurership, Rep. x. 133.

3. Arrear Accounts:

Observations of the Commissioners on the extensive arrears of accounts of ex-treasurers of the navy, and opinion that no time should be lost in completing them, Rep. x. 167, 168.

EX-TREASURERS OF THE NAVY—continued.

4. Mr. Jellicoe's Deficiency:

Account of the aggregate charge of the late Mr. Adam Jellicoe, deputy paymaster of the navy, as well on account of the treasurer of the navy for the time being as of the several ex-treasurers at the end of each month, from April 1782 to the time of his decease, Rep. x. App. 460.

See also Barré, Right Hon. Isaac. Bathurst, Right Hon. Charles. Dundas, Right Hon. Henry. Ellis, Right Hon. Welbore. Ryder, Right Hon. Dudley. Tierney, Right Hon. George. Townshend, Right Hon. Charles.

F.

Falkingham, Edward. Examination of Edward Falkingham, esq., chief clerk in the office for seamen's wages, in the Navy Office, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 24 July 1804, relative to the manner in which the deputy paymaster of the navy and the treasurers' clerks at the outports are supplied with money, Rep. x. App. 423, 424.

FEES:

1. Receipt of Timber.
2. Writ of Privy Seal.
3. Navy Pay Office.

1. Receipt of Timber:

Observations of the Commissioners on the practice of payment of fees to clerks and measurers on the receipt of timber at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 9, 10.

2. Writ of Privy Seal:

Application of the balance due to Mr. Jellicoe's estate from Messrs. Thomas Coutts & Co., in paying the fees on the writ of Privy Seal, acquitting Lord Melville from accounting for Mr. Jellicoe's deficiency, Rep. x. 161.

3. Navy Pay Office:

Circumstance of the abolition of all fees whatsoever to clerks in the Navy Pay Office, Rep. x. 131.

See also Exchequer Fees.

Fees in Public Offices Commissioners. Extract from the evidence of Mr. Alexander Trotter, paymaster of the navy, before the Commissioners on fees, gratuities, perquisites, and emoluments received in public offices, in October 1786, respecting the employment and use of the public money entrusted to his charge, Rep. x. 150, 151.

FENNELL, GEORGE:

1. Treasurer of the Navy's Accounts.
2. Purloining of a Certificate Book.

1. Treasurer of the Navy's Accounts:

Examination of Mr. George Fennell, accountant to the treasurer of His Majesty's navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 1 November 1804, relative to the method of keeping the accounts in the department of the treasurer of the navy, Rep. x. App. 186-188.

2. Purloining of a Certificate Book:

Copy of letter from Mr. George Fennell, accountant to the treasurer of the navy, to the Right hon. George Canning, dated 14 December 1804, relative to the purloining of a certificate book by J. W. Gillebrand, a clerk in the Navy Pay Office, Rep. x. App. 437.

Finance Committee of 1797. Nature of the inquiry instituted by the Select Committee of the House of Commons on Finance, into the salary and emolument of the paymaster of the navy, Rep. x. 151.

Fir Timber. Observations of the Commissioners on the attendance given by the officers of the yard on the receipt of fir timber and masts at His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 9, 10.

First Lord of the Admiralty. Authority of the First Lord of the Admiralty in matters of money intrusted for the performance of secret naval services, Rep. xi. 491-494.

See also Spencer, Earl, K. G. Vincent, St., Earl.

Fixed Salaries. Occasion of the salary of the treasurer of the navy being fixed at 4,000*l.* a year in full satisfaction of all wages and fees, and other profits and emoluments, Rep. x. 129.

3—Reports, 1805—continued.

Foreman of Ropemakers. Constant attendance of a foreman of the ropemakers on the receipt of hemp at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 11.

Form of Account. Form of account, showing the state and disposition of the respective balances, and of payments made by the treasurer of the navy, Rep. x. 170.

Foster, William. Examination of William Foster, esq., chief clerk in the office for bills and accounts in the Navy Office, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 31 May 1804, relative to the process of making out bills for stores delivered, and services performed in the Navy Office, Rep. xi. App. 510-513.

Fox, Thomas. Examination of Mr. Thomas Fox, late painters' measurer in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 8 October 1803, relative to the method practised in keeping the accounts of painters' work at Plymouth yard, Rep. ix. App. 100, 101.

FRAUDS:

I. The King's Yard at Plymouth:

1. Receipt of Stores.
2. Delivery of Coals.

II. Navy Pay Office:

1. Payment of Remittance Bills.
2. Purloining of a Certificate Book.

I. The King's Yard at Plymouth:

1. Receipt of Stores:

Nature of the frauds committed at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, in the receipt of stores from the contractors, Rep. ix. 5, 6.

2. Delivery of Coals:

Nature of the frauds committed in the delivery of coals at His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 15-23.

II. Navy Pay Office:

1. Payment of Remittance Bills:

Particulars respecting a fraud practised by a junior clerk in the Navy Pay Office, in twice charging certain home remittance bills as paid, in the account, Rep. x. 164-166—Copy of letter from the Right hon. Henry Dundas, treasurer of His Majesty's navy, to the Commissioners of the Navy, dated 27 July 1795, on the subject of a fraud practised in the payment of remittance bills, Rep. x. App. 466, 467.

2. Purloining of a Certificate Book:

Copy of a letter from Mr. George Fennell, accountant to the treasurer of the navy, to the Right hon. George Canning, dated 14 December 1804, relative to the purloining of a certificate book by J. W. Gillebrand, a clerk in the Navy Pay Office, Rep. x. App. 437.

See also Candles. Coals, I. 4. Embezzlement of Stores. Henley & Son, Messrs., 2.

G.

Gillebrand, J. W. See Frauds, II. 2.

Glaziers' Work. Observations of the Commissioners on the system of contracting for glaziers' work at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 26, 27.

See also Embezzlement of Stores, 1. Pering, Richard. Tucker, Joseph, 2.

Glenny, George. Circumstance of Mr. George Glenny being employed to raise money, during the late war, on navy bills, for the purpose of carrying on the service, Rep. xi. 484.—Examination of George Glenny, esq., taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 22 June 1804, relative to the issue of navy bills for the purpose of raising money, Rep. xi. App. 503, 504.—Account of the navy bills issued to Mr. George Glenny on account of sundry naval services, between 24 October 1800 and 21 April 1804, both inclusive, ib. 504-508.—See also Donaldson & Glenny, Messrs.

GOLDSMID, ABRAHAM:

1. Issues of Exchequer Bills for Navy Services.
3. Raising Money on Navy Bills.
3. Calculation of Interest on Navy Bills.

1. Issues of Exchequer Bills for Navy Services:

Examination of Abraham Goldsmid, esq., taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 25 June 1804, on the subject of issues made for the service of the navy in Exchequer bills, Rep. x. App. 473.

2. Raising

GOLDSMID, ABRAHAM—continued.2. Raising Money on Navy Bills :

Examination of Abraham Goldsmid, esq., taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 25 June 1804, relative to the raising money on bills issued by the Navy Board for carrying on the service, Rep. xi. App. 520, 521.

3. Calculation of Interest on Navy Bills :

Examination of Abraham Goldsmid, esq., taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 9 July 1804, relative to the method of calculating the interest on navy bills, Rep. xi. App. 520, 521.

GOLDSMID, B. AND A., MESSRS. :

1. Sale of Exchequer Bills for Navy Services.
2. Raising Money on Navy Bills.
3. Brokers' Commission.

1. Sale of Exchequer Bills for Navy Services :

Employment of Messrs. B. and A. Goldsmid in negotiating the Exchequer bills issued for the service of the navy, Rep. x. 168, 169—Account of the loss on the sale of Exchequer bills by Messrs. B. and A. Goldsmid, in the year 1797, issued for the current service of the navy, ib. 169.

2. Raising Money on Navy Bills :

Circumstance of Messrs. Goldsmid being employed to negotiate navy bills for the purpose of raising money during the late war, Rep. xi. 484—Account rendered by Messrs. Goldsmid of the sale of the navy bills, issued for the purpose of raising money in the years 1800, 1801, and 1802, Rep. xi. App. 516-519.

3. Brokers' Commission :

Amount of the Messrs. Goldsmid's commission on negotiating the navy bills during the late war, Rep. xi. 486.

II.

Hammerman at Plymouth. See Devonshire, Henry.

HAMMERSLEY & Co., MESSRS. :

1. Secret Naval Services.
2. Negotiation of Navy Bills.

1. Secret Naval Services :

Circumstance of the Navy Board advancing 16,000*l.* to Messrs. Hammersley & Co. for the performance of a secret naval service, Rep. xi. 492.

2. Negotiation of Navy Bills :

Account of the navy bills issued to Messrs. Hammersley & Co. on account of sundry naval services between 24 October 1800 and 21 April 1804, both inclusive, Rep. xi. App. 504-508.

HAMOND, SIR ANDREW SNAPE, BART. :

1. Payment of Seamen's Wages.
2. Issue of Navy Bills.

1. Payment of Seamen's Wages :

Examination of Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of His Majesty's navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 22 January 1805, relative to the accounts of wages paid through the treasurer of the navy, Rep. x. App. 422, 423.

2. Issue of Navy Bills :

Examination of Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 6 June 1804, relative to the issue of navy bills for the purpose of raising money, Rep. xi. App. 497-502.

Hampshire. See Extents in Aid.

HARMOOD, HARRY :

1. Office of Treasurer of the Navy.
2. Treasurership of the Right Hon. Isaac Barré.
3. Use and Employment of the Public Money.

1. Office of Treasurer of the Navy :

Examination of Harry Harwood, esq., a Commissioner of the navy, and paymaster to the late Right hon. Isaac Barré, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 8 November 1804, relative to the manner in which the business of the treasurer's department is conducted, Rep. x. App. 185, 186.

2. Treasurership of the Right Hon. Isaac Barré :

Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Mr. Harwood, relative to the mode of conducting the business of the department during the treasurership of the late Right hon. Isaac Barré, Rep. x. 133.

3. Use and Employment of the Public Money :

Denial of Mr. Harwood, paymaster to Mr. Barré, of having made use of the public money, withdrawn by him from the bank, to his own advantage or emolument, Rep. x. 150.

Harris, William. Copy of the return made by William Harris, esq., high sheriff of the county of Hants, to the extent issued into that county, against the person and property of Mr. Adam Jellicoe, Rep. x. App. 433, 434.

HARROWBY, RIGHT HON. LORD :

1. Office of Treasurer of the Navy.
2. Lodgment of Public Money at Private Banker's.

1. Office of Treasurer of the Navy :

Observations of the Commissioners on the office of treasurer of the navy, during the treasurership of the Right hon. Dudley Ryder, afterwards Lord Harrowby, Rep. x. 166, 167.

2. Lodgment of Public Money at Private Banker's :

Circumstance of Lord Harrowby, when treasurer of the navy, disapproving of the practice of the lodgment of the balances of the paymaster of the navy in the hands of his private bankers, Rep. x. 143—Examination of the Right hon. Lord Harrowby, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and formerly treasurer of the navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 4 July 1804, relative to the lodgment of balances of public money by the treasurer of the navy at a private banker's, for the use of the service, Rep. x. App. 231, 232.

See also Ryder, Right hon. Dudley.

Hayward, William. Copy of letter from Mr. William Hayward, master joiner in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 13 February 1802, relative to the measuring of the painters' work afloat, Rep. ix. App. 105.

Heads of Service. Direction of the Act of Parliament with respect to specifying in each draft drawn upon the bank, the head of service for which it is drawn, Rep. x. 144—Observations of the Commissioners on the practice of the Navy Board in applying for sums under minute heads of service, and considering such sums as appropriated to those services, instead of being applicable to the general service of each department, ib. 156.

See also Public Accounts Commissioners.

HEMP :

1. Receipt and Issue of Hemp.
2. Deficiency of Weight.
3. Damaged Stores.
4. Allowances to Merchants.

1. Receipt and Issue of Hemp :

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of receipt and issue of hemp at His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 11-13.

2. Deficiency of Weight :

Manner in which the deficiency in weight of hemp delivered at His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth was accounted for, Rep. ix. 11.

3. Damaged Stores :

Circumstance of persons employed by the Navy Board to purchase hemp upon commission, buying an inferior quality and damaged, Rep. ix. 13.

4. Allowances

HEMP—continued.4. Allowances to Merchants :

Account of the allowance made by the Customs to merchants for the draught of the scale on the weighing of hemp, Rep. ix. App. 67.

See also Bonar, Thomson. Hume, John. Woolwich Yard.

HENLEY AND SON, MESSRS. :

1. Coal Contract.
2. Fraudulent Measurement of Coals.
3. Profit on Excess of Cargoes.

1. Coal Contract :

Observations of the Commissioners on the sums paid to Messrs. Henley and Son for coals delivered at His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, for the excess of the several cargoes, Rep. ix. 20—Copy of the contract entered into between the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy and Messrs. Henley and Son, dated 17 March 1790, for the supply of His Majesty's yard at Plymouth with coals, Rep. ix. App. 69-71.

2. Fraudulent Measurement of Coals :

Nature of the explanation given by Messrs. Henley and Son of the abuse in the measurement of coals delivered at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 22-24—Copy of letter from Messrs. Henley and Son to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 23 September 1803, relative to the delivery of a cargo of coals at Plymouth dockyard from the ship "Henley," Rep. ix. App. 95, 96.

3. Profit on Excess of Cargoes :

Observations of the Commissioners on the amount of profit derived by Messrs. Henley and Son on excess of cargoes of coals delivered by them at His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 23, 24.

See also Coals, I. 1. 4. Navy Board, 1.

Henley, Joseph. Copy of letter from Mr. Joseph Henley to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 11 October 1803, concerning the delivery of coals at Plymouth dockyard, Rep. ix. App. 96.

"Henley," The Ship. Circumstance of the ship "Henley" delivering a cargo of coals from Newcastle at His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth in June 1803, Rep. ix. 15-23—Copy of letter from the officers of Plymouth dockyard to Mr. Commissioner Fanshawe, dated 17 July 1803, relative to the delivery of coals from the ship "Henley" at His Majesty's dockyard in the month of May last, Rep. ix. App. 85—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Messrs. Henley, dated 22 September 1803, relative to the delivery of a cargo of coals at Plymouth dockyard, shipped on board the ship "Henley," ib. 95.

See also Jenner, James. Measurement of Coals, 2.

High Sheriff of Hampshire. See Harris, William.

Hollingworth, Thomas. Examination of Thomas Hollingworth, esq., clerk of the survey in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 11 October 1803, relative to the receipt and issue of stores at Plymouth yard, Rep. ix. App. 39-44.

Holman, Alexander. Examination of Alexander Holman, thirteen-shilling foreman of the smiths in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 5 October 1803, relative to the delivery of coals from the ship "Henley" at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. App. 73-75.

Holtz, John. Examination of Mr. John Holtz, storehouse labourer in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 28 October 1803, relative to the receipt and issue of stores at Plymouth yard, Rep. ix. App. 47, 48.

Home Remittance Bills. Particulars respecting a fraud practised by a junior clerk in the Navy Pay Office in twice charging certain home remittance bills as paid in the account, Rep. x. 164-166—Account of home remittance bills twice charged as paid in the accounts of the treasurer of the navy, Rep. x. App. 465—Copy of letter from the Right hon. George Canning, treasurer of the navy, to the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, dated 29 November 1804, relative to certain remittance bills being twice charged in the treasurer's accounts during Lord Melville's treasureship, ib. 468, 469.—See also Lawson, James English. Navy Board, 4.

"Horta," The Ship. Observations of the Commissioners with respect to the measurement and delivery of coals from the ship "Horta" at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 20 — Letter from the clerk of the cheque at Plymouth yard, dated 13 August 1803, relative to the quantity of coals received into His Majesty's yard from the ship "Horta," in August 1803, on the contract of Messrs. Scobell & Sambell, Rep. ix. App. 95.

Hours of Labour. Recommendation of the Commissioners with respect to the hours of attendance of clerks attached to the storehouses, and storehouse labourers, on the issue of stores, Rep. ix. 33.

House of Commons. Resolution of the House of Commons, of 18 June 1782, with reference to the paymaster-general and treasurer of the navy applying the public money to any purpose of advantage or interest to themselves, Rep. x. 129.

Hume, John. Letter from J. Hume, esq. to John Williams, esq., dated 14 August 1804, with an account of the allowance made to merchants for the draught of the scale on the weighing of hemp, Rep. ix. App. 67.

Hunter, John. Examination of John Hunter, esq., chief clerk of the ticket office, in the Navy Office, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 23 January 1805, relative to the examination and making up of the pay books of His Majesty's ships, Rep. x. App. 475, 476.

I.

INCREASE OF SALARIES:

1. Treasurer of the Navy.
2. Clerks in the Navy Pay Office.

1. Treasurer of the Navy:

Circumstances attending the increase of the salary of the treasurer of the navy from 2,000 l. to 4,000 l. per annum, Rep. x. 129, 133, 134.

2. Clerks in the Navy Pay Office:

Circumstance of the increase of the salaries of the clerks and officers in the Navy Pay Office upon the abolition of fees, Rep. x. 131, 132.

Ingrain. Allowance made to the buyer of coals in the Port of London of one chaldron upon 20, called ingrain, Rep. ix. 15.

Initials of Officers. Regulation of the Navy Board with respect to marking with the initials of the officers of the yard all timber on its receipt at the dockyard, Rep. ix. 8, 9.

Instructions to Officers. Particular attention should be paid in drawing up regulations and instructions for the several offices of His Majesty's yards, not to augment the business unnecessarily, nor to impose a greater portion of duty upon any individual than he can be reasonably expected to perform, Rep. ix. 33.—See also Navy Board, 2.

INTEREST ON BILLS:

1. Navy Bills.
2. Transport Bills.
3. Victualling Bills.

1. Navy Bills:

Observations of the Commissioners on the loss arising to the public from the mode of paying the interest on navy and transport bills, Rep. xi. 486-491—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 22 August 1804, relative to the loss arising to the public from the mode of paying the interest on navy and transport bills, ib. App. 525—Account showing the amount of Ninety-day bills issued from the Navy Office in each year, during the time interest was allowed, both on the day of the date of the bills and the day of payment, ib. 531.

2. Transport Bills:

Copy of letter from the Transport Board to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 12 October 1804, relative to the loss arising from the mode of paying the interest on transport bills, Rep. xi. App. 521—Account of the amount of bills payable at 90 days' date, issued from the Transport Office in each year, upon which the interest of the day of the date and the day of payment was included, ib. 532.

3. Victualling Bills:

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of calculating the interest on bills issued by the Victualling Board, Rep. xi. 487-491.

See also Exchequer Bills, 3. Navy Board, 7. Victualling Board.

Invoices. Opinion of the Commissioners that no stores should be allowed to be deposited in the yard or storehouses without an invoice or bill of parcels being produced, and the number of packages compared therewith, Rep. ix. 5.—See also Bills of Parcels.

Iron. Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of receipt and issue of iron at His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 13, 14.—See also Old Iron.

Irregularities. See Navy Pay Office, 1.

ISSUE OF BILLS:

1. Exchequer Bills.
2. Navy Bills.

1. Exchequer Bills:

Observations of the Commissioners on the inconvenience of making issues of money for the service of the navy in Exchequer bills, Rep. x. x. 168, 169.

2. Navy Bills:

Observations of the Commissioners on the practice of the Navy Board issuing bills during the late war, for the purpose of raising money for the service, Rep. xi. 484-486—Letter from Charles Long, esq., Secretary of the Treasury, to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 7 September 1800, relative to the issue of navy bills for the purpose of raising money, Rep. xi. App. 502—Copy of letter from Charles Long, esq., Secretary to the Treasury, to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy, dated 22 October 1800, directing the issue of navy bills to the amount of 500,000*l.*, for the purpose of paying off ninety-day bills, ib. 513.

See also Comptroller of the Navy, 2. Exchequer Bills, 1.

ISSUE OF MONEY:

1. Treasurer of the Navy.
2. Exchequer Issues.
3. Navy Services.

1. Treasurer of the Navy:

The Act for the better regulation of the office of treasurer of the navy directs that all issues to the treasurer of the navy from the Exchequer should be placed to his credit at the Bank of England, and be drawn from thence by draft, specifying the heads of service, Rep. x. 151, 152.

2. Exchequer Issues:

All monies for the service of the navy should be issued from the Exchequer to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, Rep. x. 130, 131—Opinion of the Commissioners that the applying of the money issued from the Exchequer to the general purposes of each department would not only prevent the irregularity in the accounts, but also the unnecessary trouble occasioned by the mode of transfer, ib. 156.

3. Navy Services:

Opinion of the Commissioners that all issues to the Bank of England for navy services should be made from the Exchequer in cash, or such Exchequer bills as the bank agree to take as cash, Rep. x. 169.

See also Bank of England, 5. Heads of Service. Out-Ports, 2. Public Accounts Commissioners, 2. Secret Naval Services. Sub-Accountants, 3. Treasury, 1.

Issue of Stores (Plymouth Yard). Observations of the Commissioners on the process of issuing stores in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 6, 7—Opinion of the Commissioners that there is no occasion that the warrants and notes given by the clerk of the survey for the issue of stores should be countersigned by the master shipwright and masters attendant, ib. 33.

See also Bills of Parcels. Clerk of the Survey, 1. Salt, John Neve, 1.

J.

Jagoe, James. Extract from the examination of Mr. James Jagoe, assistant to the master shipwright of Plymouth yard, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 24 September 1803, relative to the timber spoiled in the King's yards, for want of skill and judgment in the persons appointed to convert it, Rep. ix. App. 67.

JELlicOE, ADAM :

1. Appointment of Deputy Paymaster of the Navy.
2. Defalcation of Deputy Paymaster.
3. Effects of Mr. Jellicoe.
4. Trust Account.
5. Extent in Aid.
6. Balances of Public Money.
7. Act of Parliament New Account.
8. Reduction of Public Balance.

1. Appointment of Deputy Paymaster of the Navy :

Circumstances under which Mr. Adam Jellicoe became deputy paymaster of the navy, Rep. x. 157.

2. Defalcation of Deputy Paymaster :

Observations of the Commissioners on the circumstances attending the defalcation of the late Mr. Adam Jellicoe, deputy paymaster of the navy, Rep. x. 157-163—Explanation given by Mr. Jellicoe, in a letter found at the time of his decease, of the cause of his embarrassments, and deficiency of his balances as deputy paymaster of the navy, ib. 160—Account, showing the amount of Mr. Jellicoe's debt to the treasurer and ex-treasurers of the navy at the time of his decease, Rep. x. App. 436—Copy of letter written by Mr. Adam Jellicoe, deputy paymaster of the navy, bearing date 11 November 1782, found in his iron chest after his decease, relative to his debts due to Government, ib. 441.

3. Effects of Mr. Jellicoe :

Observations of the Commissioners on the remissness of the treasurer and paymaster of the navy, in not collecting the effects of Mr. Adam Jellicoe after his decease, Rep. x. 160-162—Opinion of the Commissioners that a statement of Mr. Jellicoe's affairs, with the other papers relating to his property, should be put into the hands of a solicitor, to recover for the public all that can now be had from Mr. Jellicoe's estate, ib. 163—Schedule of the debts and effects belonging and due to Adam Jellicoe, esq., deceased, as the same appeared on his books on the 29th day of August 1789, Rep. x. App. 438-440.

4. Trust Account :

Account of Alexander Trotter, esq., paymaster of the navy, in trust for the estate of Adam Jellicoe, esq., deceased, as far as respects the interest of the Right hon. Henry Dundas, treasurer of the navy, Rep. x. App. 442-449.

5. Extent in Aid :

Copy of the extent issued into the county of Hants, against the person and property of Mr. Adam Jellicoe, and the return made thereto by the sheriff, Rep. x. App. 432-434.

6. Balances of Public Money :

Account, showing the sums with which the late Adam Jellicoe, deputy paymaster, stood charged on account of the Right hon. Isaac Baring, treasurer of the navy, at the end of each month, from 10 April 1782, the commencement of his treasurership, to the time of the said Mr. Jellicoe's decease, Rep. x. App. 457—Similar account during the treasurership of Lord Melville, ib.—Similar account during the treasurership of Lord Bayning, ib.—Account, showing the sums with which the late Adam Jellicoe, deputy paymaster, stood charged on account of the treasurer of the navy for the time being, at the end of each month, from April 1782 to the time of the said Mr. Jellicoe's decease, ib. 460—Account of the aggregate charge of the late Mr. Adam Jellicoe, deputy paymaster of the navy, as well on account of the treasurer of the navy for the time being, as of the several ex-treasurers, at the end of each month, from April 1782 to the time of his decease, ib.

7. Act of Parliament New Account :

Account, showing the sums with which the late Mr. Adam Jellicoe, deputy paymaster, stood charged on account of the Right hon. Lord Melville, treasurer of the navy, at the end of each month, from 1 January 1786, the commencement of the Act of Parliament new account, to the time of the said Mr. Jellicoe's decease, Rep. x. App. 459.

8. Reduction of Public Balance :

Copy of a letter from Adam Jellicoe, esq., deputy paymaster of the navy, to the Right hon. Henry Dundas, treasurer of His Majesty's navy, dated 10 July 1788, respecting the reduction of the balance of public money in his hands, Rep. x. App. 452.

See also Cort, Henry. Coutts, Thomas & Co., Messrs., 2. Seamen's Wages Office. Shidfield Estate. Treasury, 4.

Jellicoe, Samuel. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Mr. Samuel Jellicoe, relative to the deficiency of his father, the late Mr. Adam Jellicoe, formerly deputy paymaster of the navy, Rep. x. 157-163—Examination of Mr. Samuel Jellicoe, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 10 November 1804, relative to the balances of public money in the hands of his father at the time of his death, Rep. x. App. 424, 425—Copy of letter from Mr. Samuel Jellicoe to the secretary of the Naval Inquiry Commissioners, dated 1 December 1804, relative to paying a sum of money due to his father's estate, ib. 435.

Jenner, James. Examination of Mr. James Jenner, eleventh clerk to the storekeeper in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 5 October 1803, relative to the delivery of coals from the ship "Henley," at the King's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. App. 82—Examination of Mr. James Jenner, master mastmaker in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 15 October 1803, relative to the receipt and issues of stores at Plymouth yard, ib. 56, 57.

Jervis, T. See Counsel to the Admiralty.

Johns, William. Examination of William Johns, late a ropemaker in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 18 October 1803, relative to the sale and delivery of old stores at His Majesty's ropeyard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. App. 112-114.

Junior Clerks (Navy Pay Office). Particulars of a fraud practised by a junior clerk in the Navy Pay Office in twice charging certain home remittance bills as paid in the account, Rep. x. 164-166.

K.

KING'S WARRANTS:

1. Salary of the Right Hon. Isaac Barré.
2. Salary of the Right Hon. Henry Dundas.

1. Salary of the Right Hon. Isaac Barré:

Copy of the King's warrant, dated 22 June 1782, for increasing Mr. Barré's salary as treasurer of the navy to 4,000 l. a year, Rep. x. App. 184.

2. Salary of the Right Hon. Henry Dundas:

Copy of the King's warrant, bearing date 19 August 1782, for increasing the salary of the Right hon. Henry Dundas as treasurer of His Majesty's navy to 4,000 l. a year, Rep. x. App. 188, 189.

KING'S YARDS, THE:

1. Supply of Coals.
2. Store Accounts.

1. Supply of Coals:

Observations of the Commissioners with reference to the manner in which the coals required for the use of His Majesty's yards are supplied, Rep. ix. 14.

2. Store Accounts:

Opinion of the Commissioners that the officers charged with stores in the King's yards should not receive their pay until their accounts had been examined and approved, Rep. ix. 32.

See also Arrear Accounts, 2. Attendance of Officers. Custom-House Officers. Frauds, 1. Instructions to Officers. Measurement of Coals, 1. Plymouth Yard. Portsmouth Yard. Regulations, 2. Timber. Woolwich Yard.

Knapman, John. Observations of the Commissions on the evidence of Mr. John Knapman, second clerk to the storekeeper at Plymouth, with reference to the receipt of timber at the Dockyard, Rep. ix. 8-10—Examination of Mr. John Knapman, second clerk to the storekeeper in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 14 October 1803, relative to the receipt and issue of stores at Plymouth yard, Rep. ix. App. 49-52—Further examination of Mr. John Knapman, taken upon oath, 15 October 1803, relative to the receipt of timber in Plymouth yard during the late war, ib. 52-54.

L.

Latham, William Ashby. Examination of William Ashby Latham, esq., late paymaster of the navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 22 June 1804, relative to the lodgment in the hands of a private banker the balances of public money for the use of the service, Rep. x. App. 233, 234.

Lawson, James English. Examination of Mr. James English Lawson, chief clerk in the allotment department in the Navy Pay Office, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 12 December 1804, respecting certain home remittance bills being twice charged in the accounts of the treasurer of the navy, Rep. x. App. 466.

Legal Proceedings. Employment of Messrs. Chamberlayne and White, by Mr. Trotter, to conduct the process on behalf of the treasurer of the navy, against Mr. Adam Jellicoe, on discovery of his deficiency, Rep. x. 158.—See also White, Joseph.

Lending Public Money. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Mr. Edmund Antrobus, with reference to the employment of the public money received by Messrs. Thomas Coutts & Co. from the bank, on Mr. Trotter's drafts, Rep. x. 145.

LETTERS PATENT:

1. Mr. Isaac Barré's Salary.
2. Mr. Henry Dundas's Salary.

1. Mr. Isaac Barré's Salary:

Copy of letters patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, dated 22 June 1782, for increasing Mr. Barré's salary, as treasurer of the navy, to 4,000 l. per annum, Rep. x. App. 184.

2. Mr. Henry Dundas's Salary:

Copy of letters patent, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing date 19 August 1782, for increasing the salary of the Right hon. Henry Dundas, as treasurer of the navy, to 4,000 l. a year, Rep. x. App. 188, 189.

Limbery, Richard. Copy of letter from Richard Limbery, foreman of painters in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 13 February 1802, relative to the measuring of the painters' work afloat, Rep. ix. App. 105.

Llanelly. See Coals, II.

Lodgment of Public Money. Occasion of Mr. Charles Bathurst, when treasurer of the navy, putting a stop to the practice of drawing the money out of the Bank of England, and lodging it in the hands of private bankers, Rep. x. 143.

See also Coutts, Thomas & Co., Messrs. Harrowby, Right Hon. Lord. Private Bankers. Sub-Accountants, 1.

LONG, CHARLES:

1. Repayment of Advances from Navy Services.
2. Raising Money on Navy Bills.

1. Repayment of Advances from Navy Services:

Circumstance of Mr. Long, one of the secretaries to the treasury, returning to the paymaster of the navy a sum of money which had been advanced by the treasurer of the navy in the public service of the State, Rep. x. 139, 140.

2. Raising Money on Navy Bills:

Letter from Charles Long, esq., secretary to the treasury, to the Commissioners of the Navy, dated 7 September 1800, relative to the issue of navy bills for the purpose of raising money, Rep. xi. App. 502—Letter from Charles Long, esq., secretary of the treasury, to the Commissioners of the Navy, dated 22 October 1800, directing the issue of navy bills to the amount of 500,000 l. for the purpose of paying off ninety-day bills, ib. 513.

M.

Madden, Benjamin. Examination of Benjamin Madden, one of the clerks to the Bank of England, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 10 December 1804, on the subject of issues made for the service of the navy in Exchequer bills, Rep. x. App. 472.

Marking Timber. Nature of the regulations of the Navy Board with respect to marking all timber on receipt thereof at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 8, 9.

Master Joiner. See Hayward, William.

Master Shipwright. Observations of the Commissioners on the duties of the master shipwright at Plymouth yard with reference to the receipt of timber, Rep. ix. 7-10.

See also Issue of Stores. Tucker, Joseph.

Master's Attendant. See Issue of Stores.

Mastmakers' Work. See Jenner, James.

Masts. Observations of the Commissioners on the attendance given by the officers of the yard on the receipt of masts and timber at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 9.

MEASUREMENT OF COALS:

1. The King's Yard.
2. The Ship "Henley."

1. The King's Yard:

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of measurement of coals supplied for the use of His Majesty's dockyard, Rep. ix. 14-24.

2. The Ship "Henley":

Account of the frauds committed in the measurement of coals delivered from the ship "Henley," at Plymouth dockyard, Rep. ix. 15, 16.

See also Ingrain. Meters. Navy Board, 1. Newcastle-upon-Tyne, 1. Out Ports. Salt, John Neve, 2.

Measurers. Nature of the duties of the measurers on the receipt of timber at His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 7-10.

See also Builders' Measurer. Fees, 1.

MELVILLE, VISCOUNT:

1. Navy Pay Office.
2. Balances of Public Money.
3. Application of Public Money to other than Navy Services.
4. Increase of Salary of Treasurer of the Navy.
5. Refusal to answer Questions of Commissioners.
6. Act of Parliament New Account.
7. Appointment of Mr. Alexander Trotter.
8. Lodgment of Public Monies with Private Bankers.
9. Employment of the Public Money by the Paymaster of the Navy.
10. Fraud in Payment of Remittance Bills.
11. Mr. Jellicoe's Deficiency.

1. Navy Pay Office:

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of conducting the business of the department of the treasurer of the navy during the second treasurership of the Right hon. Lord Viscount Melville, Rep. x. 137, 138.

2. Balances of Public Money:

Copy of letter from Lord Viscount Melville to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 30 June 1804, stating his inability to render an account of the money impressed into his hands as treasurer of the navy, Rep. x. 140, and App. 189.—Examination of the Right hon. Lord Viscount Melville, late treasurer of the navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 5 November 1804, relative to his accounts and the deficiencies in the balances at the bank, ib. 190-193.—Account of the sums received and paid, and the balance with which Lord Melville was charged on 31 December in each year, during his first ex-treasurership of the navy, ib. 193.—Account of the sums received and paid, and the balance with which Lord Melville was charged on 31 December in each year, during his second ex-treasurership, ib. 224.

3. Application of Public Money to other than Navy Services:

Circumstance of Lord Melville, when treasurer of the navy, employing the money applicable to naval services in the public service of the State, Rep. x. 139, 140.

4. Increase of Salary of Treasurer of the Navy:

Circumstance of Lord Melville's salary as treasurer of the navy being increased from 2,000*l.* to 4,000*l.* a year, Rep. x. 134.

5. Refusal to answer Questions of Commissioners:

Grounds of the refusal of Lord Melville to answer the questions put to him by the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, Rep. x. 134, 135, 141.

*MELVILLE, VISCOUNT—continued.*6. Act of Parliament New Account :

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of conducting the business of the Navy Pay Office during the second part of the second treasurership of the Right hon. Lord Viscount Melville, officially entitled his "Act of Parliament New Account," Rep. x. 138-157—Account showing the sums with which the late Adam Jellicoe, deputy paymaster, stood charged on account of the Right hon. Lord Melville, treasurer of the navy, at the end of each month, from 1 January 1786, the commencement of the "Act of Parliament New Account," to the time of the said Mr. Jellicoe's decease, Rep. x. App. 459.

7. Appointment of Mr. Alexander Trotter :

Occasion of Lord Melville appointing Mr. Alexander Trotter to act as his deputy in the office of treasurer of the navy, Rep. x. 139.

8. Lodgment of Public Monies with Private Bankers :

Permission given by Lord Melville, when treasurer of the navy, to Mr. Trotter, the paymaster of the navy, to lodge the public money in his private banker's hands, Rep. x. 139—Reason assigned by Lord Melville for permitting the paymaster of the navy to deposit his public balances in the hands of private bankers, ib. 142.

9. Employment of the Public Money by the Paymaster of the Navy :

Explanation given by Lord Melville with respect to the permission given to the paymaster of the navy for the employment of the money withdrawn from the bank to his own advantage and emolument, Rep. x. 149.

10. Fraud in Payment of Remittance Bills :

Conduct of Lord Melville in connexion with the discovery of a fraud practised by a junior clerk in the Navy Pay Office, in twice charging home remittance bills in the account, Rep. x. 164-166.

11. Mr. Jellicoe's Deficiency :

Circumstance of Lord Melville having been acquitted in his accounts of the sum of 24,846 l. 6 s. 6½ d., as the amount of Mr. Jellicoe's deficiency, Rep. x. 157—Circumstance of Lord Melville communicating with Mr. Jellicoe with respect to the amount of his balance as deputy paymaster of the navy, and desiring him to reduce it, ib. 157, 158—Copy of writ of privy seal, bearing date 31 May 1800, exonerating and acquitting Viscount Melville of Mr. Adam Jellicoe's deficiency as deputy paymaster of the navy, Rep. x. App. 453, 454—Account showing the sums with which the late Adam Jellicoe, deputy paymaster, stood charged on account of the Right hon. Lord Melville, treasurer of the navy, at the end of each month, from 19 April 1782, the commencement of his first treasurership, to the time of the said Mr. Jellicoe's decease, ib. 457—Account showing the sums with which the late Adam Jellicoe, deputy paymaster, stood charged on account of the Right hon. Lord Melville, treasurer of the navy, at the end of each month, from 5 January 1784, the commencement of his second treasurership, to the said Mr. Jellicoe's decease, ib. 458.

See also Dundas, Right hon. Henry. Paymaster of the Navy, 4. Privy Seal.

Merchants. Rate of allowance made by Government to the merchant on the payment of the duties on hemp, for draught of the scale, Rep. ix. 11, 12.

Metcalfe, James. Examination of Mr. James Metcalfe, eighth clerk to the clerk of the checque in His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 5 October 1803, relative to the delivery of coals from the ship "Henley" at the Kings yard, Rep. ix. App. 78-90.

Meters. Observations of the Commissioners on the practice of paying meters of coals according to the number of chaldrons the cargo might turn out, Rep. ix. 17.

Middlesex. See Extents in Aid.

Monthly Certificates. Observations of the Commissioners on the examination to which the monthly certificates are subject in the Navy Pay Office previous to signature, Rep. x. 173.

Monthly Receipts and Payments. General statement of the monthly receipts, payments, and balances of the treasurer of His Majesty's navy for the years 1796 and 1800, Rep. x. App. 420.

Moore, Alexander. Examination of Mr. Alexander Moore, master smith of His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 22 September 1803, relative to the receipt and issue of stores at Plymouth yard, Rep. ix. App. 68, 69.

Morris, Mark Luke. Examination of Mr. Mark Luke Morris, fifth clerk to the store-keeper in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 27 October 1803, relative to the delivery of lots of old stores at Plymouth yard, Rep. ix. App. 109.

N.

NAVAL STORES:

1. Officers charged with Stores.
2. Sale of Old Stores.

1. Officers charged with Stores:

The officers charged with stores in the naval service are not allowed to receive their pay until their accounts have been examined and approved, Rep. ix. 32.

2. Sale of Old Stores:

Abstract account of the sale of old naval stores at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, from 1 January 1790 to 31 December 1802, Rep. ix. App. 115.

NAVY BILLS:

1. Raising Money on Bills.
2. Issues of Bills to Agents.
3. Sale of Navy Bills.
4. Interest on Navy Bills.
5. Payment of Navy Bills.

1. Raising Money on Bills:

Observations of the Commissioners on the practice of the Navy Board issuing bills, during the late war, for the purpose of raising money for the service, Rep. xi. 483-486—Letter from Charles Long, esq., secretary to the treasury, to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 7 September 1800, relative to the issue of navy bills for the purpose of raising money, Rep. xi. App. 502.

2. Issues of Bills to Agents:

Account of the bills issued to Mr. George Glenny, to Messrs. Donaldson and Glenny, and to Messrs. Hammersley & Co., on account of sundry naval services, between 24 October 1800 and 21 April 1804, both inclusive, Rep. xi. App. 504-508—Account of bills issued from the Navy Office to persons for which neither stores have been delivered or services performed, on 14 December 1803, and 9 April 1804, ib. 509.

3. Sale of Navy Bills:

Account rendered by Messrs. B. and A. Goldsmid of the sale of navy bills, issued for the purpose of raising money, in the years 1800, 1801, and 1802, Rep. xi. App. 516-519

4. Interest on Navy Bills:

Observations of the Commissioners on the loss arising to the public from the mode of paying the interest on navy and transport bills, Rep. xi. 486-491—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 22 August 1804, relative to the loss arising to the public from the mode of paying the interest on navy and transport bills, Rep. xi. App. 525—Account showing the amount of ninety-day bills issued from the Navy Office in each year, during the time interest was allowed both on the day of the date of the bills, and the day of payment, ib. 531.

5. Payment of Navy Bills:

Copy of minute submitted by the Committee of Accounts to the Navy Board, dated 12 December 1801, proposing an alteration in the mode of paying the ninety-day bills issued by the Navy Board, Rep. xi. App. 524, 525.

See also Comptroller of the Navy, 1. 2. Goldsmid, B. and A., Messrs. Hammersley, & Co., Messrs. Interest on Bills, 1. Navy Board, 6. Negotiation of Bills, 2. Sale of Navy Bills. Smalley, Cornwall.

NAVY BOARD:

1. Coal Contracts.
2. Paint Work.
3. Survey and Receipt of Timber.
4. Payment of Home Remittance Bills.
5. Pay Books of His Majesty's Ships.
6. Raising Money on Navy Bills.
7. Payment of Interest on Navy and Transport Bills.
8. Secret Naval Services.
9. Standing Contracts.
10. Victualling Bills.

1. Coal Contracts:

Inquiry instituted by the Navy Board into the circumstances of the abuse in the measurement of coals, delivered by Messrs. Henley at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 22-24—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Messrs. Henley, dated 22 September 1803, respecting a cargo of coals delivered at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth from the ship "Henley," Rep. ix. App. 95—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Messrs. Henley, dated 28 September 1803, on the same subject, ib. 96.

2. Paint Work:

Nature of the instructions issued by the Navy Board for taking and keeping the accounts of paint work done at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 24-26—Copy of an order from the Navy Board, dated 1 June 1781, to the officers of His Majesty's several dockyards, respecting the various methods practised in keeping the accounts of paint work performed in His Majesty's several yards, Rep. ix. App. 97.

3. Survey and Receipt of Timber:

Copy of an order from the Navy Board to the officers of the several yards, dated 13 May 1751, relating to the attending the survey and receipt of stores served into His Majesty's yards, Rep. ix. App. 60—Copy of an order from the Navy Board to the officers of the several yards, dated 10 April 1767, on the same subject, ib. 61—Copy of an order from the Navy Board to the officers of the several yards, dated 7 September 1780, relative to the receipt of timber into His Majesty's yards, ib.

4. Payment of Home Remittance Bills:

Conduct of the Navy Board in connexion with the discovery of a fraud practised by a clerk in the Navy Pay Office, in twice charging home remittance bills in the account, Rep. x. 165, 166—Copy of a letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Right hon. Henry Dundas, treasurer, dated 1 August 1795, relative to certain home remittance bills being twice charged in the treasurer's accounts, Rep. x. App. 467—Copy of letter of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Right hon. George Canning, treasurer, dated 15 November 1804, relative to certain remittance bills being charged twice in the treasurer's accounts, ib.

5. Pay Books of His Majesty's Ships:

Copy of minute of the Navy Board, dated 29 March 1781, relative to the making up and examination of the pay books of His Majesty's ships, Rep. x. App. 475.

6. Raising Money on Navy Bills:

Letter from the Navy Board to George Glenny, esq., dated 24 October 1800, directing the payment of 100,000 l. on account of the Commissioners of the Navy into the hands of the treasurer of the navy, Rep. xi. App. 513—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Right hon. Dudley Ryder, treasurer of the navy, dated 24 October 1800, directing the application of 100,000 l. towards the payment of navy, victualling, and transport ninety-day bills, ib. 514.

7. Payment of Interest on Navy and Transport Bills:

Observations of the Commissioners on the conduct of the Navy Board with reference to the mode of paying the interests on ninety-day bills, Rep. xi. 487-491—Letter from the Commissioners of the Navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 22 August 1804, relative to the loss arising to the public from the mode of paying the interest on navy and transport bills, Rep. xi. App. 525.

8. Secret Naval Service:

Observations of the Commissioners with respect to money impressed by the Navy Board, for secret naval services, Rep. xi. 491-494—Account of sums advanced by the Navy Board by way of imprest for the performance of secret naval services, Rep. xi. App. 509—Letter from Nicholas Vansittart, esq., secretary of the treasury, to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 1 May 1804, on the subject of money impressed by the Navy Board for secret naval services, ib. 532.

9. Standing

NAVY BOARD—continued.

9. Standing Contracts :

Copy of Letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 20 November 1804, respecting standing contracts with the Navy Board, in force on 19 December 1801, and which continued so for 12 months afterwards, Rep. xi. App. 526.

10. Victualling Bills :

Letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Commissioners of Victualling, dated 7 February 1797, relative to the want of uniformity of victualling bills, and mode of calculating the interest thereon, Rep. xi. App. 521.

See also Certificates, 2. Committee of Accounts. Committee of the Navy Board.
Comptroller of the Navy. Nelson, Richard A. Regulations. Secret Naval Services.

Navy Branch Account. Proposed account to be opened by the treasurer of the navy with Bank of England, under the head of "Navy Branch Account," Rep. x. 170.

NAVY PAY OFFICE :

1. Abuses and Irregularities.
2. Revision of the Establishment.
3. Accountant's Department.
4. Sub-Accountants.
5. Treasurer's Account.
6. Purloining of Certificate Book.
7. Fraud in the Payment of Remittance Bills.
8. Sureties of Officers and Clerks.
9. Contingent Expenses.

1. Abuses and Irregularities :

Opinion of the Commissioners that the irregularities in the management of the business of the Navy Pay Office have proceeded rather from the existing regulations having been disregarded, than from their being inadequate, Rep. x. 167.

2. Revision of the Establishment :

Circumstance of the revision of the establishment of the Navy Pay Office by the Right hon. Henry Dundas, when treasurer of His Majesty's navy, Rep. x. 131, 132.

3. Accountant's Department :

Establishment of the accountant's branch, consisting of principal and eight clerks, by Order in Council in August 1786, for the express purpose of bringing up the old, and keeping up the new accounts of the treasurer of the navy, Rep. x. 131, 138.

4. Sub-Accountants :

Statement of the time when the payments made by the sub-accountants in the Navy Pay Office, amounted to the sum of their balances respectively, on 31 December in the preceding year, from 1794 to 1804 inclusively, Rep. x. 152.

5. Treasurer's Accounts :

Opinion of the Commissioners that all monies should be carried to account in the same manner by the treasurer of the navy, and by the persons employed in the public offices to check his accounts, in order that the two accounts may correspond, Rep. x. 154—
Letter from the Right hon. George Canning, treasurer of the navy, to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 2 October 1804, stating reasons for not rendering the accounts of the Navy Office called for by the Commissioners, and enclosing the opinion of the law officers of the Crown thereupon, Rep. x. App. 479.

6. Purloining of Certificate Books :

Circumstance of the certificate books of the treasurership of the Right hon. Welbore Ellis having been surreptitiously taken out of the Navy Pay Office, Rep. x. 159—
Copy of a letter from Mr. George Fennell, accountant to the treasurer of the navy, to the Right Hon. George Canning, dated 14 December 1804, relative to the purloining of a certificate book by J. W. Gillebrand, a clerk in the Navy Pay Office, Rep. x. App. 437.

7. Fraud in Payment of Remittance Bills :

Particulars relative to a fraud practised by a junior clerk in the Navy Pay Office in the payment of home remittance bills, Rep. x. 164-166.

8. Sureties of Officers and Clerks :

Opinion of the Commissioners that the paymaster and other officers and clerks of the Navy Pay Office entrusted with the public money should be required to find security in proportion to the amount of their salaries, Rep. x. 174.

3—Reports, 1805—continued.

NAVY PAY OFFICE—continued.

9. Contingent Expenses :

Opinion of the Commissioners that the contingent expenses of the Navy Pay Office as well as all other payments made by the treasurer, should be subject to the control and audit of the Commissioners of the Navy, Rep. x. 174.

See also Accountants' Department. Accounts, II. 3. Appointment of Officers. Arrear Accounts, 3. Black, George. Canning, Right Hon. George. Cashier of Allotments. Cashier of the Navy. Cashier of the Victualling. Contingent Expenses. Fees, 3. Fennell, George. Foster, William. Frauds, II. 1. 2. Monthly Certificates. Paymaster of the Navy. Payment of Money, 2. Seamen's Wages Office. Sub-Accountants. Ticket Office. Treasurer of the Navy. Wilson, Thomas.

Navy Services. Observations of the Commissioners on the practice of making the issues for the current service of the navy in Exchequer bills, Rep. x. 168, 169.

See also Issue of Bills. Secret Naval Services.

NEGOTIATION OF BILLS :

1. *Exchequer Bills.*2. *Navy Bills.*1. Exchequer Bills :

Employment of Messrs. B. and A. Goldsmid, by the treasurer, in the negotiating of the Exchequer bills issued for the service of the navy, Rep. x. 168, 169.

2. Navy Bills :

Account rendered by Messrs. B. and A. Goldsmid, of the sale of navy bills issued for the purpose of raising money in the years 1800, 1801, and 1802, Rep. xi. App. 516-519.

Nelson, Richard A. Examination of Richard A. Nelson, esq., Secretary to the Navy Board, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 8 November 1804, relative to the orders under which the Navy Board act in the execution of their duties, Rep. x. App. 523—Further examination of Richard A. Nelson, esq., 12 January 1805, relative to the mode of paying ninety-day bills issued by the Navy Board, ib. 523, 524.

Netherton, Thomas. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Mr. Thomas Netherton, first clerk of the clerk of the cheque at Plymouth yard, relative to the receipt of timber at His Majesty's dockyard, Rep. ix. 7-10—Examination of Mr. Thomas Netherton, first clerk of the clerk of the cheque in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 28 October 1803, relative to the receipt and issue of stores at Plymouth yard, Rep. ix. App. 49.

NEWCASTLE-UPON-TYNE :

1. *Measurement of Coals.*2. *Officers of His Majesty's Customs.*1. Measurement of Coals :

Observations of the Commissioners on the difference in the mode of measurement of coals at the port of Newcastle, and at the port of London and the out-ports, Rep. ix. 14-24.

2. Officers of His Majesty's Customs :

Circumstances of the officers of customs at Newcastle, stating to the Commissioners of Customs the circumstance of a fraud in the delivery of coals at Plymouth yard, from the ship "Henley," of London, Francis Watson, master, Rep. ix. 15—Letter from the officers of customs, at Newcastle, to John Williams, esq., dated 14 August 1804, relative to the sale of coals in the ports of Newcastle, Sunderland, and Blyth, Rep. ix. App. 71—Copy of letter from the officers of customs, at Newcastle, to the Commissioners of the Customs, dated 27 June 1803, respecting a fraud committed in the delivery of coals at Plymouth yard, from the ship "Henley," ib. 73.

See also Coals, II.

Newland, Abraham. Examination of Abraham Newland, esq., cashier of the Bank of England, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 2 August 1804, relative to the accounts opened by the governor and company of the Bank with the treasurer of the navy, Rep. x. App. 247, 248.

Newton, John. Examination of John Newton, esq., comptroller of customs in the port of Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 4 October 1803, relative to the collection of the duty on coals at that port, Rep. ix. App. 71-73.

NINETY-DAY BILLS:

1. Raising Money for Navy Services.
2. Interest on Bills.
3. Committee of Accounts.
4. Transport Bills.

1. Raising Money for Navy Services:

Observations of the Commissioners on the practice of the Navy Board issuing ninety-day bills during the late war, for the purpose of raising money for the service, Rep. xi. 483-486—Letter from Charles Long, esq., secretary of the Treasury, to the Commissioners of the Navy, dated 22 October 1800, directing the issue of navy bills to the amount of 500,000 l., for the purpose of paying off ninety-day bills, Rep. xi. App. 513—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Right hon. Dudley Ryder, treasurer of the navy, dated 24 October 1800, directing the application of 100,000 l. towards the payment of the navy, victualling, and transport bills, ib. 514—Account showing the amount of ninety-day bills issued from the Navy Office in each year, during the time interest was allowed both on the day of the date of the bills and the day of payment, ib. 531.

2. Interest on Bills:

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of paying the interest on ninety-day bills issued by the Navy Board, Rep. xi. 487-491—Account of the amount of ninety-day bills issued between 26 December 1796 and 19 December 1801, at an interest of 3½ d. per cent. per day, allowed both for the day of the date, and the day of the payment of the bills, ib. 490.

3. Committee of Accounts:

Copy of Minute submitted by the Committee of Accounts to the Navy Board, dated 12 December 1801, proposing an alteration in the mode of paying the ninety-day bills issued by the Navy Board, Rep. xi. App. 524, 525.

4. Transport Bills:

Account of the amount of the bills payable at ninety days' date, issued from the Transport Office in each year, upon which the interest of the day of the date and the day of payment was included, Rep. xi. App. 532.

North of England. See Coals, V.

O.

Oak Timber. Observations of the Commissioners on the neglect of the officers of Plymouth yard to attend at the receipt of oak timber at that yard, Rep. ix. 9, 10.

Oar Making. Observations of the Commissioners on the system of contracting for oar making at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 26, 27.

Oaths (Public Accounts). Opinion of the Commissioners that all persons entrusted with public money should make oath, previously to the receipt of their salaries, that they have not derived any advantage, directly or indirectly, from the use and employment of the public money committed to their charge, Rep. x. 163.

OFFICERS OF PLYMOUTH YARD:

1. Receipt of Timber.
2. Paint Work.
3. Delivery and Measurement of Coals.
4. Quarrels among the Officers.

1. Receipt of Timber:

Observations of the Commissioners on the neglect of the officers of Plymouth yard to attend to the regulations established by the Navy Board on the receipt of Timber, Rep. ix. 7-10.

2. Paint Work:

Circumstance of a committee of the Navy Board, in February 1802, calling to account the officers of Plymouth yard for neglect of duty in taking and keeping the account of paint work, Rep. ix. 26.

3. Delivery and Measurement of Coals:

Copy of letter from the Plymouth officers to Mr. Commissioner Fanshawe, dated 17 July 1803, relative to the delivery of coals into His Majesty's dockyard from the "Henley," in the month of May last, Rep. ix. App. 85.

4. Quarrels amongst the Officers:

Observations of the Commissioners on the violent dissensions between the storekeeper of His Majesty's yard at Plymouth and the master shipwright, clerk of the survey, and one of the master attendants, Rep. ix. 29, 30.

Official Errors. Observations of the Commissioners on the statement of Mr. Trotter with respect to a balance remaining in his possession of 1,138*l.* as having arisen from official errors, Rep. x. 163-166.

Oil and Colours. Copy of an order from the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy to the officers of the several yards, dated 1 June 1781, relative to the method practised in keeping the accounts of oil and colours served to boatswains and carpenters of ships, Rep. ix. App. 97, 98.

Old Iron. Observations of the Commissioners on the accumulation and disposal of the old iron at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 14.

Old Stores. Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of conducting the sale of old stores at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 27, 28—Abstract account of the sale of old naval stores at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, from 1 January 1790 to 31 December 1802, Rep. ix. App. 115.

See also Embezzlement of Stores, 2. Sale of Old Stores.

Old Vessels. Account of the amount of the sale of vessels at His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, between 9 April 1799 and 2 March 1802, Rep. ix. App. 116.

OUT PORTS :

1. Measurement and Delivery of Coals.
2. Issues of Money for Naval Services.

1. Measurement and Delivery of Coals :

Reason of cargoes of coals turning more at the out-ports than in the port of London, Rep. ix. 22.

2. Issues of Money for Naval Services :

The issues of money for carrying on the payment at the out-ports are directed by the Navy Board, Rep. x. 132.

P.

PAINT WORK :

1. Plymouth Yard.
2. Portsmouth Yard.

1. Plymouth Yard :

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of taking and keeping the account of paint work at His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 24-26—Statement showing the amount of the sums paid to the contractors for paint work in Plymouth and Portsmouth yards, from the year 1790 to 1802, ib. 26—Copy of an order from the Navy Board to the officers of the several yards, dated 1 June 1781, relative to the method practised in keeping the accounts of paint work performed in His Majesty's several dockyards, Rep. ix. App. 97—Account of the amount of the bills made out to the contractors for paint work at His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, in each year, from 1 January 1790 to the termination of the contract, ib. 102.

2. Portsmouth Yard :

Account of the amount of the bills made out to the contractor for paint work at His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth, in each year, from 1 January 1790 to 31 December 1802, stating the date of the bills, amount, between what period performed, and the amount of the bills made out in each year, Rep. ix. App. 103, 104.

See also Accounts, I. 2. Clerks (Plymouth Yard). Fox, Thomas. Hayward, William. Limbery, Richard. Navy Board, 2. Thomson, Josiah.

Paviours' Work. Observations of the Commissioners on the system of contracting for paviours' work at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 26, 27.

Pay Books. Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of making up the pay books of His Majesty's ships, Rep. x. 171, 172—Recommendations of the Commissioners with respect to making up the pay books of His Majesty's ships for the future, ib. 172—Copy of minute of the Navy Board, dated 29 March 1781, relative to the examination and making up of the pay books of His Majesty's ships, Rep. x. App. 475.

See also Daysh, George. Hunter, John. Navy Board, 5. Polhill, David Robert.

Pay Branch Account. Proposed account to be kept by the treasurer of the navy with the Bank of England, under the head of Pay Branch Account, Rep. x. 170.

Pay of Officers. Opinion of the Commissioners that the officers of His Majesty's dockyards should not be suffered to receive their pay if their accounts should be more than one year in arrear, Rep. ix. 32.

Paymaster-General of the Forces. Resolution of the House of Commons forbidding the paymaster-general of His Majesty's land forces from applying the public money to any purpose of self-advantage or interest, Rep. x. 129.

PAYMASTER OF THE NAVY:

1. Appointment and Duties of Office.
2. Fees, Perquisites, and Emoluments of the Paymaster.
3. Issues of Money.
4. Lodgment of Public Money with Private Bankers.
5. Banking Account at Messrs. Coutts & Co.
6. Use and Employment of the Public Money.
7. Justification of the Conduct of the Paymaster of the Navy.
8. Fraud in the Payment of Remittance Bills.

1. Appointment and Duties of Office:

The treasurer nominates and appoints the paymaster of the navy, to whom he delegates the whole charge and conduct of the office by a general power of attorney, Rep. x. 132—Circumstance of the appointment of Mr. Alexander Trotter, lately a clerk in the Navy Office, to the situation of paymaster of the navy, ib. 139.

2. Fees, Perquisites, and Emoluments of the Paymaster:

Extract from the evidence of Mr. Alexander Trotter, before the Commissioners on fees, &c. in public offices, in August 1786, relative to the salary, fees, perquisites and emoluments of the office of paymaster of the navy, ib. 150, 151.

3. Issues of Money:

The paymaster of the navy solicits the Lords of the Treasury for the money necessary for carrying on the services of the navy, Rep. x. 132—No payments are made by the paymaster of the navy, except the fees on the issues of money from the Exchequer, and some other contingencies, ib.

4. Lodgment of Public Money with Private Bankers:

Reason assigned by Lord Melville for permitting the paymaster of the navy to deposit the balances of public money in the hands of Messrs. Coutts & Co., Rep. x. 142—Reason assigned by the paymaster of the navy for keeping balances of public money in his own hands rather than with the Bank of England, ib. 152.

5. Banking Account at Messrs. Coutts & Co.:

Particulars of the several accounts kept by Mr. Alexander Trotter, paymaster of the navy, with the banking house of Messrs. Thomas Coutts & Co., Rep. x. 145-147—Account of sums received by Messrs. Thomas Coutts & Co. by the drafts of Mr. Trotter on the bank, and carried to the credit of his own account, ib. 148—Amount of sums paid from the account of Mr. Trotter with Messrs. Thomas Coutts & Co., entitled, "His own account," to the different sub-accountants of the Navy Pay Office, ib.—Amount of sums paid from the same account for services supposed to be of a public nature, to the "Act of Parliament Account," and to the "Act of Parliament New Account," ib.

6. Use and Employment of the Public Money:

Observations of the Commissioners on the manner in which the balances of public money drawn from the Bank of England by the paymaster of the navy had been disposed of, Rep. x. 144—Acknowledgment of Mr. Trotter of his having made use of the public money withdrawn by him from the Bank of England, to his own advantage and emolument, ib. 149, 150—No notice is taken of the advantage derived by the paymaster of the navy from the use of the money issued for the service of the navy in the inquiry instituted in 1797, by the Select Committee of the House of Commons on Finance, ib. 151—Opinion of the Commissioners that the public money has been unnecessarily put to hazard, and that in defiance of the precautions taken against it by the Legislature, ib. 157.

7. Justification of the Conduct of the Paymaster of the Navy:

Observations of the Commissioners on the paper drawn up by Mr. Trotter in justification of his conduct, and purporting to be a statement of the transactions of his paymastership, Rep. x. 149, 150—Copy of paper drawn up by Mr. Trotter and laid before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, in justification of his conduct, and purporting to be a statement of the transactions of his paymastership, Rep. x. App. 210-213.

3—Reports, 1805—continued.

PAYMASTER OF THE NAVY—continued.8. Fraud in the Payment of Remittance Bills:

Circumstance of the paymaster of the navy discovering a fraud practised by a junior clerk in the Navy Pay Office, in twice charging remittance bills as paid in the account, Rep. x. 164-166.

See also Advances of Money, 2. Bank of England, 3. Coutts, Thomas & Co., Messrs. 1. Deputy Paymaster of the Navy. Douglas, Andrew. Employment of Public Money, 2. Fees in Public Offices Commissioners. Finance Committee of 1797. Harmood, Harry. Latham, William Ashby. Navy Pay Office. Sprot, Mark. Sub-Accountants. Trotter, Alexander.

PAYMENT OF MONEY:

1. Bank of England.
2. Navy Pay Office.
3. Sick and Hurt Board.
4. Treasurer of the Navy.

1. Bank of England:

No monies should be paid out of the bank but for navy services, and in pursuance of drafts drawn by the treasurer or persons in his office duly authorized by him, Rep. x. 131.

2. Navy Pay Office:

The money for carrying on the payments is transferred by the paymaster to the cashiers of the navy and victualling, the deputy paymaster, and the cashier of allotments, Rep. x. 132.

3. Sick and Hurt Board:

The payments of the treasurer of the navy on account of the Sick and Hurt Board are incorporated in the paymaster's monthly certificate, with the payments directed by the Navy Board, Rep. x. 170.

4. Treasurer of the Navy:

General statement of the annual receipt, payments, and balances of the treasurer of His Majesty's navy, from the year 1786 to 1803 inclusive, Rep. x. App. 419—General statement of the monthly receipts, payments, and balances of the treasurer of His Majesty's navy, for the years 1796 and 1800, ib. 420.

See also Certificates, 2. Navy Board, 4.

Penfold, John Linzee. Examination of Mr. John Penfold Linzee, master ropemaker in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 13 October 1803, relative to the receipt and issue of stores at Plymouth yard, Rep. ix. App. 64-66.

Pensions. Observations of the Commissioners on the system of pensions to the widows of commission and warrant officers in His Majesty's navy, Rep. x. 173.

Percival, Spencer. See Attorney-General.

PERING, RICHARD:

1. Delivery of Coals at Plymouth Yard.
2. Tinman and Glazier's Contract.

1. Delivery of Coals at Plymouth Yard:

Letter from Richard Pering, esq., to the secretary of the Naval Commission of Inquiry, dated 13 August 1804, relative to the quantity of coals received at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, from the ship "Horta," in August 1803, on the contract of Messrs. Scobell and Sambell, Rep. ix. App. 95.

2. Tinman and Glazier's Contract:

Examination of Richard Pering, esq., clerk of the cheque in His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 25 October 1803, relative to the mode of contracting for tinman and glazier's work at Plymouth yard, Rep. ix. App. 106, 107.

Plymouth Hospital. See Royal Hospital at Plymouth.

Plymouth, Port of. Account of coals landed at the port of Plymouth, out of ships from Newcastle and Llanelly, between 1 January 1790 and 31 August 1803, Rep. ix. App. 92, 93—Account of the quantity of coals landed in this port out of vessels from Newcastle and Sunderland, from 5 July 1803, ib. 94.

See also Newton, John.

PLYMOUTH YARD:

1. Receipt and Issue of Stores.
2. Measurement and Delivery of Coals.
3. Sale of Old Stores.
4. Paint Contract.

1. Receipt and Issue of Stores:

Observations of the Commissioners on the method of conducting the receipt and issue of stores in his Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 3-7.

2. Measurement and Delivery of Coals:

Nature of the explanation given by Messrs. Henley & Son of the abuse in the measurement of coals delivered at His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 22-24—Abstract account of coals received in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, between 1 January 1790 and 31 August 1803, Rep. ix. App. 86-91.

3. Sale of Old Stores:

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of conducting the sale of old stores at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 27, 28—Abstract account of the sale of old naval stores at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, from 1 January 1790 to 31 December 1802, Rep. ix. App. 115.

4. Paint Contract:

Account of the amount of the bills made out to the contractors for paint work at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth in each year, from 1 January 1790 to the termination of the contract, Rep. ix. App. 102.

See also Abolition of Offices. Accounts, I. Cabin Keepers. Carvers' Work.
Clerk of the Checque. Clerk of the Survey. Coals, I. Commissioner of Plymouth Yard. Contracts, 1. 3. Frauds, I. Hemp. Henley & Sons,
Messrs. Hours of Labour. Issue of Stores. Marking Timber. Master
Shipwright. Measurement of Coals, 2. Officers of Plymouth Yard. Paint
Work. Paviours' Work. Receipt of Stores. Register. Ropeyard at Plymouth. Sale of Old Stores. Storekeeper at Plymouth. Stores. Thorne, George. Timber. Timber Master. Timber Tasters. Tucker, Joseph.
Warden.

Polhill, David Robert. Examination of Mr. David Robert Polhill, one of the clerks in the office for seamen's wages in the Navy Office, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 14 December 1804, relative to the examination and making up of the pay books of His Majesty's ships, Rep. x. App. 478.

Port of London. See Coals, IV.

Portsmouth Common. Value of the freehold messuage at Portsmouth common, the property of the late Adam Jellicoe, deputy paymaster of the navy, Rep. x. 159.

Portsmouth Yard. Account of the amount of the bills made out to the contractor for paint work at His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth, in each year, from 1 January 1790 to 31 December 1802, stating the date of the bills, amount, between what period performed, and the amount of the bills paid out in each year, Rep. ix. App. 103.

Prices of Stores. See Bills of Parcels, 3.

Private Bankers. Observations of the Commissioners on the practice of the paymaster of the navy in drawing money from the Bank of England in large sums, and lodging it in the hands of private bankers, Rep. x. 139—Circumstance of Mr. Charles Bathurst, when treasurer of the navy, putting a stop to the practice of drawing the money out of the Bank of England, and lodging it in the hands of private bankers, ib. 143.

See also Coutts, Thomas & Co., Messrs., 1. Lodgment of Public Money.

Privy Seal. Circumstance of Lord Melville being exonerated by writ of Privy Seal from accounting for the deficiency of the late Mr. Adam Jellicoe, deputy paymaster of the navy, Rep. x. 160, 161—Copy of writ of Privy Seal, bearing date 31 May 1800, exonerating and acquitting Lord Melville of Mr. Adam Jellicoe's deficiency as deputy paymaster of the navy, Rep. x. App. 453, 454.

Public Accountants. See Oaths.

PUBLIC ACCOUNTS COMMISSIONERS :

1. Office of Treasurer of the Navy.
2. Issues of Money under Heads of Service.

1. Office of Treasurer of the Navy :

Nature of the inquiry instituted into the office of treasurer of the navy by the Commissioners for taking and stating the Public Accounts of the Kingdom, Rep. x. 128, 129.

2. Issue of Money under Heads of Service :

Recommendation of the Commissioners of Public Accounts that the practice of public Boards, and particularly the Navy Board, in applying for sums of money under minute Heads of Service, should be abolished, Rep. x. 156.

PUBLIC MONEY :

1. Use and Employment of Public Money.
2. Paymaster of the Navy.
3. Finance Committee of 1797.
4. Mr. Jellicoe's Deficiency.
5. Bank of England.

1. Use and Employment of Public Money :

Acknowledgment of Mr. Thomas Wilson, chief clerk in the bill and remittance department of the Navy Pay Office, of having derived an advantage from the use and employment of money issued for the payment of Exchequer fees, Rep. x. 144—Observations of the Commissioners on the impolicy of allowing individuals to make use of public money entrusted to their charge, ib. 163—All persons entrusted with public money should make oath previously to receiving their salaries, that they have not derived any advantage, directly or indirectly, from the use or employment of the public money committed to their charge, ib.

2. Paymaster of the Navy :

Acknowledgment of Mr. Trotter of having made use of the public money withdrawn by him as paymaster of the navy, from the Bank of England, to his own advantage and emolument, Rep. x. 149, 150—Opinion of the Commissioners that the public money has been unnecessarily put to hazard, and that in defiance of the precautions taken against it by the Legislature, ib. 157.

3. Finance Committee of 1797 :

No notice is taken by the Select Committee of the House of Commons on Finance, in 1797, of the advantage derived by the paymaster of the navy from the use of the money issued for the service of the navy, Rep. x. 151.

4. Mr. Jellicoe's Deficiency :

Observations of the Commissioners on the evils arising from the application of public money by individuals to private use, as exemplified in the case of Mr. Adam Jellicoe, formerly deputy paymaster of the navy, Rep. x. 157-163.

5. Bank of England :

Opinion of the Commissioners that the whole of the public money should remain in the bank until actually wanted for the services for which it is issued, Rep. x. 174.

See also Balances of Public Money. Employment of the Public Money. Fees in Public Offices Commissioners. Issue of Money. Lending Public Money.
Lodgment of Public Money. Paymaster-General of the Forces. Payment of Public Money. Trotter, Alexander, 3. Wilson, Thomas. Withdrawal of Public Money.

Purveyor of Timber. See Resident Purveyor of Timber.

Purveyor's Reports. Nature of the purveyor's reports which accompany the receipt of timber at His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 8-10.

Q.

Quality of Stores. See Hemp, 3.

R.

Raising Money. Observations of the Commissioners on the practice of the Navy Board issuing bills, during the late war, for the purpose of raising money for the service, Rep. xi. 483-486.

See also Exchequer Bills. Navy Bills, 1. Navy Board, 6. Smalley, Cornwall.
Transport Bills. Treasury, 2.

Receipt

Receipt of Stores (Plymouth Yard). Observations of the Commissioners on the system of receipt of stores in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 3-7—Observations of the Commissioners on the unnecessary multiplication of checks on the receipt of stores at His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, ib. 31, 32.

See also Attendance of Officers. Bills of Parcels, 1. Certificates, 1. Clerk of the Cheque, 1. Clerk of the Survey, 2. Fees, 1. Frauds, I. 1. Hemp, 1. Invoices. Navy Board, 3. Regulations, 1. Salt, John Neve.

Receipts of the Treasurer of the Navy. General statement of the annual receipts, payments, and balances of the treasurer of His Majesty's navy, from the year 1786 to 1803 inclusive, Rep. x. App. 419—General statement of the monthly receipts, payments, and balances of the treasurer of His Majesty's navy, for the years 1796 and 1800, ib. 420.

REGISTER (PLYMOUTH YARD):

1. Receipt and Conversion of Timber.
2. Store Ships.

1. Receipt and Conversion of Timber :

Observations of the Commissioners on the excellence of the register kept by the timber master at His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 10.

2. Store Ships :

Recommendation of the Commissioners that the names of the ships bringing stores to His Majesty's yards be entered in the respective receipt books kept by the officers, Rep. ix. 13.

Regulation of Office. See Treasurer of the Navy, 2.

REGULATIONS :

1. Receipt of Timber.
2. Officers of His Majesty's Yards.

1. Receipt of Timber :

Observations of the Commissioners on the neglect of the officers of Plymouth yard to attend to the regulations established by the Navy Board on the receipt of timber at the dockyard, Rep. ix. 7-10.

2. Officers of His Majesty's Yards :

Opinion of the Commissioners that particular attention should be paid in drawing up regulations and instructions for the several officers of His Majesty's yards not to augment the business unnecessarily, nor to impose a greater portion of duty upon any individual than he can be reasonably expected to perform, Rep. ix. 33.

Remittance Bills. Particulars respecting a fraud committed by a junior clerk in the Navy Pay Office, in twice charging certain home remittance bills as paid, Rep. x. 164-166—Copy of letter from the Right hon. Henry Dundas, treasurer of His Majesty's navy, to the Commissioners of the Navy, dated 27 July 1795, on the subject of a fraud practised in the payment of remittance bills, Rep. x. App. 466, 467.

See also Navy Board, 4.

Resident Purveyor of Timber. Establishment of a resident purveyor in the Forest of Dean to examine and report on all the timber delivered at His Majesty's dockyards, Rep. ix. 8.

Revision of Establishment. See Navy Pay Office, 2.

Richard, Thomas. Examination of Thomas Rickard, eleven-shilling foreman of the smiths in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 5 October 1803, relative to the frauds committed in the delivery of coals at the King's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. App. 77, 78.

Rope. Regulations under which the sale of old rope is conducted in His Majesty's dockyards, Rep. ix. 27, 28.

Ropeyard at Plymouth. Remarks of the Commissioners on the loose and unsatisfactory mode of accounting for the stores in the department of the clerk of the ropeyard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 28, 29—Copy of the clerk of the ropeyard's weekly return, pursuant to the method and establishment made by the Navy Board, 28 March 1768, Rep. ix. App. 120-123.

See also Foreman of Ropemakers. Penfold, John Linzee. Scott, John. Stores, 1. Weekly Returns.

3—Reports, 1805—continued.

Royal Hospital at Plymouth. Account of the price paid for coals by the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, on an average of each year, from 1790 to 1803 inclusive, Rep. ix. 24.

Ryder, Right Hon. Dudley. Observations of the Commissioners on the office of treasurer of the navy during the treasurership of the Right hon. Dudley Ryder, afterwards Lord Harrowby, Rep. x. 166, 167—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy to the Right hon. Dudley Ryder, treasurer of the navy, dated 24 October 1800, directing the application of 100,000 l. towards the payment of the navy, victualling, and transport bills, Rep. xi. App. 514.—See also Harrowby, Right Hon. Lord.

S.

SALARIES OF OFFICERS:

1. Paymaster of the Navy.
2. Fixed Salaries.

1. Paymaster of the Navy:

Amount of salary of the paymaster of the navy, as recommended by the Commissioners on fees, gratuities, perquisites, and allowance on public offices, in their report, Rep. x. 151.

2. Fixed Salaries:

Opinion of the Commissioners that the salaries of all persons entrusted with public money should be fair and liberal, Rep. x. 163.

See also Fixed Salaries. Increase of Salaries. Treasurer of the Navy.

Sale of Navy Bills. Account rendered by Messrs. B. & A. Goldsmid of the sale of navy bills issued for the purpose of raising money in the years 1800, 1802, and 1803, Rep. xi. App. 516-519.

Sale of Old Stores. Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of conducting the sale of old stores at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 27, 28—Abstract account of the sale of old naval stores, from 1 January 1790 to 31 December 1802, at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. App. 115.

See also Cordage. Draught of the Scale, 2. Johns, William. Salt, John Neve, 3. Scott, John, 2.

SALT, JOHN NEVE:

1. Receipt, Issue, and Survey of Stores.
2. Receipt and Measurement of Coals.
3. Sale of Old Stores.

1. Receipt, Issue, and Survey of Stores:

Examination of John Neve Salt, esq., storekeeper of His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 11 October 1803, relative to the receipt and issue of stores in Plymouth yard, Rep. ix. App. 39-44—Further examination of John Neve Salt, esq., storekeeper of His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, 13 October 1803, relative to the survey of stores at His Majesty's yard, ib. 45, 46.

2. Receipt and Measurement of Coals:

Examination of John Neve Salt, esq., storekeeper of His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 6 October 1803, relative to the receipt and measurement of coals at the King's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. App. 83-85.

3. Sale of Old Stores:

Examination of John Neve Salt, esq., storekeeper of His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 25 October 1803, relative to the sale of old stores at Plymouth yard, Rep. ix. App. 107, 108.

Sambell, Mr. See Scobell & Sambell, Messrs.

Scobell & Sambell, Messrs. Letter from the clerk of the cheque at Plymouth yard, dated 13 August 1803, relative to the quantity of coals received at His Majesty's yard from the ship "Horta," in August 1803, on the contract of Messrs. Scobell & Sambell, Rep. ix. App. 95.

SCOTT, JOHN :

1. Receipt and Issue of Stores.
2. Sale of Old Stores.

1. Receipt and Issue of Stores :

Examination of John Scott, esq., clerk of the ropeyard in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 12 October 1803, relative to the receipt and issue of stores at Plymouth yard, Rep. ix. App. 61-64—Examination of John Scott, esq., clerk of the ropeyard in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 12 October 1803, relative to the mode of accounting for stores received and issued in his department at Plymouth, ib. 116-118,

2. Sale of Old Stores :

Examination of John Scott, esq., clerk of the ropeyard in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 17 October 1803, relative to the sale of old stores at the ropeyard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. App. 109-111.

Seamen's Wages Office. Circumstance of the appointment of Mr. Adam Jellicoe to the situation of chief clerk in the office for the payment of seamen's wages, Rep. x. 157.

Secret Naval Services. Observations of the Commissioners with reference to money imprested by the Navy Board for secret naval services, Rep. xi. 491-494—Accounts of sums advanced by the Navy Board by way of imprest for the performance of secret naval services, Rep. xi. App. 509—Letter from Nicholas Vansittart, esq., secretary of the Treasury, to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 1 May 1804, on the subject of money imprested by the Navy Board for secret naval services, ib. 532.

See also Comptroller of the Navy, 3. Eton, Mr. First Lord of the Admiralty. Hammersley & Co., Messrs. Navy Board, 3. Spencer, Earl, K.G. Treasury, 3. Vincent, St., Earl.

Secretary of Customs. Letter from the Secretary of Customs to John Williams, esq., dated 14 August 1804, with an account of the allowances made for the draught of the scale on the weighing of hemp, Rep. ix. App. 67.

Secretary to the Treasury. Letter from Charles Long, esq., secretary to the Treasury, to the Commissioners of the Navy, dated 7 September 1800, relative to the issue of navy bills for the purpose of raising money, Rep. xi. App. 502—Copy of letter from Charles Long, esq., secretary to the Treasury, to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 22 October 1800, directing the issue of navy bills to the amount of 500,000 l., for the purpose of paying off ninety-day bills, ib. 513.

SECURITY :

1. Deputy Paymaster of the Navy.
2. Officers and Clerks in the Navy Pay Office.

1. Deputy Paymaster of the Navy :

Occasion of Mr. Jellicoe offering to give security to the treasurer of the navy for the amount of the balance in his hands as deputy paymaster of the navy, Rep. x. 158.

2. Officers and Clerks in the Navy Pay Office :

Neither the officers nor clerks in the Navy Pay Office give any security for the faithful discharge of their duty, notwithstanding the great responsibility of their situations, Rep. x. 174.

Sheppard, William. Examination of Mr. William Sheppard, seventh clerk to the clerk of the survey in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 5 October 1803, relative to the delivery of coals from the ship "Henley" at the King's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. App. 80, 81.

Shidfield Estate (Hants). Value of the messuage and farm at Shidfield, the property of the late Mr. Adam Jellicoe, deputy paymaster of the navy, Rep. x. 159—Copy of letter from Mr. Samuel Jellicoe to the secretary of the Naval Inquiry Commissioners, dated 1 December 1804, relative to the disposal of the Shidfield estate, late the property of Mr. Adam Jellicoe, deceased, Rep. x. App. 435.

Ships. Account of the amount of the sale of old vessels at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, between 9 April 1799 and 2 March 1802, Rep. ix. App. 116.

Ships' Books. Recommendation of the Commissioners with respect to the making up of ships' books in the ticket office, Rep. x. 172.

Sick and Hurt Board. See Payments of Money, 3.

Sick and Hurt Branch. Proposed account to be opened by the treasurer of the navy with the Bank of England, under the head of "Sick and Hurt Branch," Rep. x. 170.

Signature of Certificates. See Certificates, 3.

SLADE, JAMES :

1. Lodgment of Public Money with Private Bankers.
2. Balances of Public Money.

1. Lodgment of Public Money with Private Bankers :

Examination of James Slade, esq., cashier of the navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 10 July 1804, relative to the lodgment of balances of public money in the hands of Messrs. Thomas Coutts & Co., bankers, by the treasurer of the navy, Rep. x. App. 226-228.

2. Balance of Public Money :

Account of the balances of public money in the hands of James Slade, esq., cashier of the navy, on 31 December in each year, from 1792 to 1803, both inclusive, specifying where deposited, and the date when exhausted, Rep. x. App. 414.

Slop Clothing. Account of the standing contract with the Navy Board for slop clothing for seamen, on 19 December 1801, and which continued so for twelve months afterwards, Rep. xi. App. 529, 530.

Smalley, Cornwall. Circumstance of Mr. Cornwall Smalley disapproving of his name being made use of in raising money upon navy bills during the late war, Rep. xi. 484.

Smiths' Work. See Holman, Alexander. Moore, Alexander.

Solicitor-General. Copy of opinion of Thomas Manners Sutton, solicitor-general to His Majesty, dated 3 October 1804, relative to the production of the accounts of the Navy Pay Office, called for by the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, Rep. x. App. 479.

Solicitor to the Treasury. See White, Joseph.

Spencer, Earl, K.G. Examination of the Right hon. Earl Spencer, K.G. taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 6 November 1804, on the subject of money imprested by the Navy Board for secret naval services, Rep. xi. App. 532, 533.

Sprot, Mark. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Mr. Mark Sprot with reference to the employment of the money drawn from the Bank of England by Mr. Alexander Trotter, paymaster of the navy, Rep. x. 148—Examination of Mark Sprot, esq., of the Stock Exchange, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 16 November 1804, relative to any money transactions between him and Mr. Alexander Trotter, paymaster of the navy, Rep. x. App. 413.

Standert, Osborn. Examination of Osborn Standert, esq., chief clerk for examining the treasurer's accounts in the Navy Pay Office, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 4 December 1804, on the subject of issues made for the service of the navy in Exchequer bills, Rep. x. App. 473, 474.

Standing Contracts. Account of the standing contracts with the Navy Board, in force on 19 December 1801, and which continued so for twelve months afterwards, Rep. xi. App. 527-530.—See also Navy Board, 9.

Stephens, Thomas. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Thomas Stephens, a labourer in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, with reference to the receipt of timber at the yard, Rep. ix. 8-10—Examination of Thomas Stephens, labourer in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 14 October 1803, relative to the receipt and delivery of stores at Plymouth yard, Rep. ix. App. 54-56.

Stevens, Samuel. Examination of Samuel Stevens, thirteen-shilling foreman of the smiths, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 5 October 1803, relative to the frauds committed in the delivery of coals at the King's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. App. 76, 77.

STOREKEEPER AT PLYMOUTH :

1. Arduous Duties of the Office.
2. Receipt and Issue of Stores.
3. Receipt of Timber.
4. Delivery of Iron.
5. Dissensions with Brother Officers.
6. Examination and Audit of Accounts.

1. Arduous Duties of the Office.

Observations of the Commissioners on the arduous duties of the storekeeper at Plymouth yard, with recommendation for appointing an additional storekeeper, Rep. ix. 32.

2. Receipt and Issue of Stores :

Observations of the Commissioners on the process of receipt and issue of stores by the storekeeper at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 3-7—Observations of the Commissioners upon the large issues made by the storekeeper at Plymouth yard, of old cordage and junk, to the clerk of the ropeyard, ib. 29.

3. Receipt of Timber :

Duties of the storekeeper of Plymouth yard with reference to giving attendance on the receipt of timber at the dockyard, Rep. ix. 7-10,

4. Delivery of Iron :

Duties and responsibility of the storekeeper at Plymouth with reference to the receipt and delivery of iron, Rep. ix. 14.

5. Dissensions with Brother Officers :

Observations of the Commissioners on the violent dissensions between the storekeeper at Plymouth and the master shipwright, clerk of the survey, and one of the master attendants, Rep. ix. 29, 30.

6. Examination and Audit of Accounts :

The officers charged with stores in the naval service are not allowed to receive their pay until their accounts have been examined and approved, Rep. ix. 32.

See also Accounts, 1. Arrear Accounts, 1. Bills of Parcels. Custody of Stores. Delivery of Stores. Demands for Stores. Issue of Stores. Receipt of Stores. Salt, John Neve.

Store Ships. See Register.

STORES :

1. Clerk of the Ropeyard at Plymouth.
2. Demands for Stores.
3. Issue of Stores.
4. Standing Contracts.

1. Clerk of the Ropeyard at Plymouth :

The mode of accounting for the stores in the department of the clerk of the ropeyard at Plymouth is very loose and unsatisfactory, Rep. ix. 28, 29.

2. Demands for Stores :

Opinion of the Commissioners that all demands for stores should in the first instance be examined and approved by the master shipwright and masters attendant in their respective departments, Rep. ix. 33.

3. Issue of Stores :

Opinion of the Commissioners that there is no occasion that the warrants and notes given by the clerk of the survey for the issue of stores should be countersigned by the master shipwright and masters attendant, Rep. ix. 33.

4. Standing Contracts :

Account of the standing contracts with the Navy Board for stores, in force 19 December 1801, and which continued so for twelve months afterwards, Rep. xi. App. 527-530.

See also Attendance of Officers. Bills of Parcels. Custody of Stores. Delivery of Stores. Demands for Stores. Embezzlement of Stores. Frauds, I. 1. Issue of Stores. Naval Stores. Old Stores. Receipt of Stores. Register, 2.

Stribley, Thomas. Examination of Thomas Stribley, ropemaker in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 17 October 1803, relative to the sale and delivery of old stores at the ropeyard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. App. 111, 112.

Strover, Thomas. Examination of Mr. Thomas Strover, assistant to the master shipwright and timber master in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 26 October 1803, relative to the receipt and issue of stores at Plymouth yard, Rep. ix. App. 57-59.

SUB-ACCOUNTANTS (NAVY PAY OFFICE):

1. Lodgment of Public Balances with Private Bankers.
2. Balances of Public Money.
3. Issues of Money under Heads of Service.

1. Lodgment of Public Balances with Private Bankers:

Circumstance of the paymaster of the navy prevailing with the sub-accountants of the Navy Pay Office to deposit the greater part of their balances with Messrs. Thomas Coutts & Co., Rep. x. 141, 142.

2. Balances of Public Money:

Statement of the time when the payments made by the sub-accountants in the Navy Pay Office amounted to the sum of their balances respectively on 31 December in the preceding year, from 1794 to 1804 inclusively, Rep. x. 152.

3. Issues of Money under Heads of Service:

Advantage of the regulation adopted by Mr. Tierney of transferring at the bank, from the account of the treasurer to the accounts of the respective sub-accountants, the sums necessary to be advanced to them for carrying on the public payments, Rep. x. 170, 171.

See also Navy Pay Office, 4.

Sumpter, Jacob. Examination of Jacob Sumpter, stor-house labourer in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 28 October 1803, relative to the receipt and issue of stores at Plymouth yard, Rep. ix. App. 48, 49.

Sunderland. See Coals, II.

Supplies. Account of the standing contracts with the Navy Board for supplies in force on 19 December 1801, and which continued so for 12 months afterwards, Rep. xi. App. 527-530.

Sureties of Officers. See Navy Pay Office, 8.

Survey of Stores. Observations of the Commissioners on the process of the survey of stores at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 4.—See also Salt, John Neve, 1.

Sutton, Thomas Mannors. See Solicitor-General.

SWAFFIELD, GEORGE:

1. Lodgment of Public Balances with Private Bankers.
2. Balances of Public Money.

1. Lodgment of Public Balances with Private Bankers:

Examination of George Swaffield, esq., cashier of the victualling department, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 18 July 1804, relative to the lodgment of balances of public money at Messrs. Coutts & Co.'s bank, for the use of the victualling service, Rep. x. App. 225, 226.

2. Balances of Public Money:

Account of the balance in the hands of the cashier of the victualling, on 31 December in each year, from 1785 to 1803 inclusive, specifying where the same was deposited, and the day in each year when the aggregate of the payments had amounted to or exhausted the balance brought forward from the preceding year, Rep. x. App. 415.

SWAFFIELD, JOHN:

1. Lodgment of Public Balances with Messrs. Coutts & Co.
2. Balances of Public Money.

1. Lodgment of Public Balances with Messrs. Coutts & Co.:

Examination of John Swaffield, esq., deputy paymaster of the navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 16 July 1804, relative to the lodgment of balances of public money at Messrs. Coutts & Co.'s bank by the treasurer of the navy, for the use of the service, Rep. x. App. 228, 229.

2. Balances of Public Money:

Account of the balances in the hands of John Swaffield, deputy paymaster of the navy, on 31 December in each year, from the time of his appointment to that situation on 31 December 1803, inclusive, specifying where such balances were deposited, and the day in each year when the aggregate of the payments had amounted to or exhausted the balance brought forward from the preceding year, Rep. x. App. 416, 417.

T.

Thompson, Josiah. Examination of Mr. Josiah Thompson, painter's measurer in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 8 October 1803, relative to the method practised in keeping the accounts of painters' work at Plymouth yard, Rep. ix. App. 98, 99.

Thorne, George. Circumstance attending the conviction of George Thorne for the embezzlement of stores from His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 5.

Ticket Office. Duties of the officers and clerks in the ticket office with the respect to making up the pay books of His Majesty's ships, Rep. x. 172.

See also Daysh, George. Hunter, John.

TIERNEY, RIGHT HON. GEORGE:

1. Accounts of Sub-Accountants at the Bank of England.
2. Office of Treasurer of the Navy.

1. Accounts of Sub-Accountants at the Bank of England:

Circumstance of Mr. Tierney, when treasurer of the navy, directing the paymaster to transfer such sums as might be necessary for the service, from the treasurer's accounts at the Bank of England, to the accounts of the sub-accountants, Rep. x. 143.

2. Office of Treasurer of the Navy:

Observations of the Commissioners on the office of treasurer of the navy during the treasurership of the Right hon. George Tierney, Rep. x. 166, 167.

Timber. Observations of the Commissioners with respect to the receipt and issue of timber at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 7-10—Copy of an order from the Navy Board to the officers of the several yards, dated 13 May 1751, relative to the attending the survey and receipt of stores served into His Majesty's yards, Rep. ix. App. 60—Copy of order from the Navy Board to the officers of the several yards, dated 10 April 1767, on the same subject, ib. 61—Copy of an order from the Navy Board to the officers of the several yards, dated 7 September 1780, relative to the receipt of timber into His Majesty's yards, ib.

See also Accounts, I. 1. Converter of Timber. Dean Forest. Fir Timber. Marking Timber. Measurers. Purveyors' Reports. Register, 1. Resident Purveyor of Timber.

Timber Master. Establishment of a new office in July 1801, at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, styled timber master, to whom is entrusted the receipt and conversion of timber, Rep. ix. 10.—See also Register, 1.

Timber Tasters. Nature of the duties of these officers in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth on the receipt of timber at the yard, Rep. ix. 9.

Tinman's Work. Observations of the Commissioners on the system of contracting for tinman's work at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 26, 27.

See also Embezzlement of Stores, 1. Pering, Richard. Tucker, Joseph.

TOWNSHEND, RIGHT HONOURABLE CHARLES:

1. Office of Treasurer of the Navy.
2. Balances of Public Money.

1. Office of Treasurer of the Navy:

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of conducting the business of the department of treasurer of the navy during the treasurership of the Right hon. Charles Townshend, afterwards Lord Bayning, Rep. x. 136, 137.

2. Balances of Public Money:

Account of the balance of public money with which the Right hon. Charles Townshend, afterwards Lord Bayning, stood charged on 31 January 1784, the month in which he quitted the office of treasurer of the navy, showing also the sums received and paid by him, and the amount of his balance on 31 December in each succeeding year, Rep. x. App. 223.—See also Bayning, Right hon. Lord.

Townshend, Thomas. Examination of Thomas Townshend, storehouse labourer in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 28 October 1803, relative to the receipt and issue of stores at Plymouth yard, Rep. ix. App. 47.

Transfer of Accounts. See Bank of England, 4.

Transport Bills. Observations of the Commissioners on the loss arising to the public from the mode of paying the interest on navy and transport bills, Rep. xi. 486-491—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 22 August 1804, relative to the loss arising to the public from the mode of paying the interest on navy and transport bills, Rep. xi. App. 525—Account of the amount of the bills payable at ninety days' date issued from the Transport Office in each year, upon which the interest of the day of the date and the day of payment was included, ib. 532.

See also Interest on Bills, 1, 2.

Transport Board. Observations of the Commissioners on the conduct of the Commissioners of Transports, with reference to the mode of paying the interest on transport bills, Rep. xi. 490, 491—Copy of letter from the Transport Board to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 12 October 1804, relative to the loss arising from the mode of paying the interest on transport bills, Rep. xi. App. 521.

Transport Branch Account. Proposed account to be opened by the treasurer of the navy with the Bank of England, under the head of Transport Branch Account, Rep. x. 170.

TREASURER OF THE NAVY:

1. Appointment and Duties of Office.
2. Regulation of the Office of Treasurer.
3. Increase of Salary.
4. Accounts.
5. Navy Pay Office Accounts.
6. Balances of Public Money.
7. Receipts and Payments of Money.
8. Employment of the Public Money.
9. Banking Account with the Bank of England.
10. Mr. Adam Jellicoe's Deficiency.
11. Fraud practiced in the Payment of Remittance Bills.

1. Appointment and Duties of Office:

The treasurer of the navy is appointed by patent; he does not in person perform any of the official duties of his situation, Rep. x. 132.

2. Regulation of the Office of Treasurer:

Nature of the provisions of the Act of Parliament 25 Geo. 3, c. 31, for better regulating the office of treasurer of His Majesty's navy, Rep. x. 130, 131.

3. Increase of Salary:

Circumstances attending the increase of the salary of the treasurer of the navy from 2,000 l. to 4,000 l. a year, Rep. x. 129, 133, 134—Copy of the Letters Patent passed under the great seal, bearing date 22 June 1782, for increasing the salary of the treasurer of the navy to 4,000 l. per annum, Rep. x. App. 184—Copy of the King's warrant, bearing date 19 August 1782, for increasing the salary of the Right hon. Henry Dundas, as treasurer of the navy, to 4,000 l. a year, ib. 188, 189.

4. Accounts:

Opinion of the Commissioners that the treasurer of the navy should render, at the usual periods, to each Board, an account of the payments he has made, and the state and disposition of the respective balances, Rep. x. 170.

5. Navy Pay Office Accounts:

Circumstance of the treasurer of the navy declining to furnish the returns and accounts asked for by the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, Rep. x. 175.

6. Balances of Public Money:

Account of the state and disposition of the balance of public money with which the treasurer of the navy stood charged on 31 December in each year, from 1786 to 1802 inclusively, Rep. x. 128—Statement, showing the amount of the treasurer's unassigned and actual balances on 31 December in each year, from 1786 to 1803, and the number of days such balances would have lasted at the average rate of expenditure of the succeeding years, ib. 155—Opinion of the Commissioners that the money in the treasurer's charge should not, at any time, be more than equal to ten days' probable expenditure, ib.—Account of the balances of public money in the hands of the treasurer of the navy, his different cashiers, or sub-accountants, made up to 31 December in each year, since 1784, with the amount of sums standing in the treasurer's name at the bank, at such periods, Rep. x. App. 181-183—Account of the balance of public money with which the Right hon. Henry Dundas, now Lord Viscount Melville, stood charged on

TREASURER OF THE NAVY—continued.

6. Balances of Public Money—continued.

30 April 1783, the month in which he quitted the office of treasurer of the navy, showing also the sums received and paid by him, and the amount of his balance on 31 December in each succeeding year, Rep. x. App. 193—Account showing the unassigned general balance of the treasurer of His Majesty's navy on 31 December in each year, from 1796 to 1803, both inclusive, ib. 421.

7. Receipts and Payments of Money :

When a treasurer of the navy has gone out of office, it has been usual to make the payments in his name to the end of the month in which his successor has been appointed, Rep. x. 135—Copy of letter from Lord Viscount Melville to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 30 June 1804, stating his inability to render an account of the money imprest into his hands during the period of his holding the treasurership of the navy, Rep. x. 140. App. 189—Circumstance of the amount of the assignments or orders upon the treasurer not according with the amount of the sums paid by him within the year, Rep. x. 154—General statement of the annual receipts, payments, and balances of the treasurers of His Majesty's navy, from the year 1786 to 1803 inclusive, Rep. x. App. 419—General statement of the monthly receipts, payments, and balances of the treasurer of His Majesty's navy for the years 1796 and 1800, Rep. x. App. 420.

8. Employment of Public Money :

Resolution of the House of Commons, passed 18 June 1782, with reference to the paymaster-general and treasurer of the navy applying the public money to any purpose of advantage or interest to themselves, Rep. x. 129—Opinion of the Commissioners that if a treasurer of the navy derive profit from the use of money issued for navy services, he becomes upon principles of equity a debtor to the public, and is accountable for all such profit, Rep. x. 148, 149.

9. Banking Accounts with the Bank of England :

Opinion of the Commissioners that the treasurer of the navy should open five accounts at the Bank of England, viz., Pay Branch, Navy Branch, Transport Branch, Victualling Branch, and Sick and Hurt Branch, Rep. x. 170.

10. Mr. Adam Jellicoe's Deficiency :

Account showing the sums with which the late Adam Jellicoe, deputy paymaster, stood charged on account of the Right hon. Isaac Barré, treasurer of the navy, at the end of each month, from 10 April 1782, the commencement of his treasurership, to the time of the said Mr. Jellicoe's decease, Rep. x. App. 457—Similar account during the treasurership of Lord Melville, ib.—Similar account during the treasurership of Lord Bayning, ib.—Account showing the sums with which the late Mr. Adam Jellicoe deputy paymaster, stood charged on account of the Right hon. Lord Melville, treasurer of the navy, at the end of each month, from 1 January 1786, the commencement of the "Act of Parliament new account," to the time of the said Mr. Jellicoe's decease, Rep. x. App. 459—Account showing the sums with which the late Mr. Adam Jellicoe, deputy paymaster, stood charged on account of the treasurer of the navy for the time being, at the end of each month, from April 1782 to the time of the said Mr. Jellicoe's decease, ib. 460—Account of the aggregate charge of the late Mr. Adam Jellicoe, deputy paymaster of the navy, as well on account of the treasurer of the navy for the time being as of the several ex-treasurers, at the end of each month, from April 1782 to the time of his decease, ib. 460.

11. Fraud practised in Payment of Remittance Bills :

Proceedings of the treasurer of the navy upon discovery of a fraud practised by a junior clerk in twice charging certain home remittance bills in the account, Rep. x. 164-166—Account of home remittance bills twice charged as paid in the accounts of the treasurer of the navy, Rep. x. App. 465.

See also Accounts, II. Advances of Money, 1. Appointment of Officers. Audit of Accounts. Balances of Public Money, 1. 4. Bank of England, 1. Barré, Right Hon. Isaac. Bathurst, Right Hon., Charles. Canning, Right Hon. George. Counsel's Opinion. Dundas, Right Hon. Henry. Ellis, Right Hon. Welbore. Ex-Treasurers of the Navy. Harwood, Harry. Issue of Money, 1. Melville, Viscount. Navy Pay Office, 5. Payment of Money, 1. 4. Public Accounts Commissioners, 1. Ryder, Right Hon. Dudley. Tierney, Right Hon. George. Townshend, Right Hon. Charles. Withdrawal of Public Money.

TREASURY :

1. Issues of Exchequer Bills for Navy Services.
2. Raising Money on Navy Bills.
3. Secret Naval Services.
4. Mr. Jellicoe's Deficiency.

1. Issues of Exchequer Bills for Navy Services :

Manner in which the Treasury regulate the issues of money for the service of the navy in Exchequer bills, Rep. x. 168, 169.

2. Raising Money on Navy Bills :

Directions given by the Treasury to the Navy Board to raise money on navy bills during the late war, Rep. xi. 484 — Authority of the Treasury to the comptroller of the navy for the issue of navy bills, for the purpose of raising money for the service, Rep. xi. 485.

3. Secret Naval Services :

Circumstance of the Treasury issuing directions to the Navy Board to advance 100,000*l.* to a party for the performance of a secret naval service, Rep. xi. 491. 493.

4. Mr. Jellicoe's Deficiency :

Circumstance of Lord Melville, previously to his quitting office, in May 1800, presenting to the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury a detailed statement of the circumstances respecting Mr. Jellicoe's debt, Rep. x. 160 — Copy of Treasury Minute, dated 27 May 1800, on Viscount Melville's memorial, exonerating and discharging his Lordship from accounting for the sum of 24,846*l.* 6*s.* 6*d.*, being the amount due from Mr. Adam Jellicoe, deputy postmaster of the navy, Rep. x. App. 453.

See also Vansittart, Nicholas.

Treenail Mooting. Observations of the Commissioners upon the system of contract for treenail mooting at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. ix. 26, 27.

TROTTER, ALEXANDER :

1. Refusal to answer Questions of Commissioners.
2. Justification of Conduct as Paymaster of the Navy.
3. Use and Employment of the Public Money.
4. Mr. Jellicoe's Deficiency.
5. Deficiencies in Unappropriated Balances.
6. Payment of Remittance Bills.
7. Raising Money on Naval Bills.
8. Issues of Exchequer Bills.
9. Fees in Public Offices Commission Inquiry.
10. Business of the Treasurer's Department.
11. Banking Account at Messrs. Thomas Coutts & Co.

1. Refusal to answer Questions of Commissioners :

Grounds of the refusal of Mr. Trotter, paymaster of the navy, to answer certain questions put to him by the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, Rep. x. 139.

2. Justification of Conduct as Paymaster of the Navy :

Observations of the Commissioners on the paper drawn up by Mr. Trotter in justification of his conduct, and purporting to be a statement of the transactions of his paymastership, Rep. x. 149, 150 — Copy of a paper presented to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, by Mr. John Trotter, in justification of his conduct, and purporting to be a statement of the transactions of his paymastership, Rep. x. App. 210-213.

3. Use and Employment of the Public Money :

Acknowledgment of Mr. Trotter of his having made use of the public money withdrawn by him from the Bank of England to his own advantage and emolument, Rep. x. 149, 150 — Remark made by Mr. Trotter, that the public had sustained no loss from his use of the money issued for the service of the navy, ib. 156 — Opinion of the Commissioners that the public money has been unnecessarily put to hazard, and that in defiance of the precautions taken against it by the Legislature, ib. 157 — Examination of Alexander Trotter, esq., paymaster of His Majesty's navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 14 June 1804, relative to the advantages derived by treasurer of the navy from monies drawn out of the bank and lodged at his private bankers, Rep. x. App. 202-206. 210, 211.

4. Mr. Jellicoe's Deficiency :

Observations of the Commissioners on the part taken by Mr. Trotter, paymaster of the navy, in the matter of the defalcation of Mr. Adam Jellicoe, formerly deputy paymaster of the navy, Rep. x. 158, 159. — Examination of Alexander Trotter, esq., paymaster of the the navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 7 December 1804, relative to the state of the affairs of the late Mr. Adam Jellicoe, deputy paymaster of the navy, at the period of his death, Rep. x. App. 426-432—Account of Alexander Trotter, esq., paymaster of the navy, in trust for the estate of Adam Jellicoe, esq., deceased, as far as respects the interest of the Right hon. Henry Dundas, treasurer of the navy, ib. 442-449.

TROTTER, ALEXANDER—continued.4. Mr. Jellicoe's Deficiency—continued.

5. Deficiencies in Unappropriated Balances :

Explanation given by Mr. Alexander Trotter when called upon to account for the deficiencies in the unappropriated balances of the treasurer of the navy, Rep. x. 139.

6. Payment of Remittance Bills :

Observations of the Commissioners on Mr. Trotter's statement respecting a balance of 1,138 l. remaining in his possession, as having arisen from official errors, Rep. x. 163-166—Examination of Alexander Trotter, esq., paymaster of the navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 10 December 1804, with reference to the entries made in the home remittance lists in June 1785, Rep. x. App. 461-463.

7. Raising Money on Navy Bills :

Examination of Alexander Trotter, esq., paymaster of the navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 15 June 1804, relative to the issue of bills for the purpose of raising money for the naval service, Rep. xi. App. 514, 515.

8. Issues of Exchequer Bills :

Examination of Alexander Trotter, esq., paymaster of the navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 7 December 1804, on the subject of issues made for the service of the navy in Exchequer bills, Rep. x. App. 469-471.

9. Fees in Public Offices Commission Inquiry :

Extract from the evidence of Mr. Trotter, before the Commissioners on Fees, &c. in public offices, in October 1786, respecting the use and employment of public money intrusted to his charge as paymaster of the navy, Rep. x. 150, 151.

10. Business of the Treasurer's Department :

Examination of Alexander Trotter, esq., paymaster of His Majesty's navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 8 June 1804, relative to the mode of conducting the business of the treasurer of the navy's department, Rep. x. App. 194-198—Further examination of Alexander Trotter, esq., paymaster of His Majesty's navy, 11 June 1804, on the same, ib. 198-201—Examination of Alexander Trotter, esq., paymaster of His Majesty's navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 19 June 1804, relative to the period of accounting in the treasurer of the navy's office, by cashiers and deputy paymasters of the navy, ib. 206-208—Examination of Alexander Trotter, esq., paymaster of His Majesty's navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 25 July 1804, relative to the method of making up the monthly accounts of the treasurer of the navy, ib. 208-212.

11. Banking Account at Messrs. Coutts & Co. :

Particulars respecting the several accounts kept by Mr. Trotter with the banking house of Messrs. Thomas Coutts & Co. during the time he was paymaster of the navy, Rep. x. 145-147—Account of sums received by Messrs. Thomas Coutts & Co. by the drafts of Messrs. Trotter on the bank, and carried to the credit of his own account, ib. 148—Amount of the sums paid from the account of Mr. Trotter with Messrs. Thomas Coutts & Co., entitled "His own account," to the different sub-accountants to the Navy Pay Office, ib.—Amount of sums paid from the same account for services, supposed to be of a public nature, to the "Act of Parliament Account," and to the "Act of Parliament New Account," ib.—Examination of Alexander Trotter, esq., paymaster of the navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 19 October 1804, respecting the account kept at Messrs. Coutts & Co.'s bank, entitled the "Paymaster's Account," Rep. x. App. 213-221—Statement of the drafts drawn by Alexander Trotter, esq. on the bank, placed to the credit of his own account with Messrs. Thomas Coutts & Co., between 13 July 1791 and 6 July 1802, both days inclusive, ib. 242-246—Statement of the drafts drawn by Alexander Trotter, esq. on the bank, placed to the credit of his separate account with Messrs. Thomas Coutts & Co., between 25 April 1789 and 12 April 1790, both days inclusive, ib. 247—Account of Alexander Trotter, esq. with the house of Messrs. Coutts & Co., entitled "His own account," ib. 249-389—Extract from the account of Alexander Trotter, esq. with the house of Messrs. Thomas Coutts & Co., entitled "His separate account," ib. 392-395—Abstract of the account of Alexander Trotter, esq. with the house of Messrs. Thomas Coutts & Co., entitled "His account as paymaster," ib. 398-412.

See also Coutts, Thomas & Co., Messrs., 1.

Paymaster of the Navy.

Fees in Public Offices Commissioners.

TUCKER, JOSEPH :

1. Receipt and Issue of Stores.
2. Tinman and Glazier's Contract.

1. Receipt and Issue of Stores :

Examination of Joseph Tucker, esq., master shipwright in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 27 October 1803, relative to the receipt and issue of stores at Plymouth yard, Rep. ix. App. 59, 60.

2. Tinman and Glazier's Contract :

Examination of Joseph Tucker, esq., master shipwright in His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 27 October 1803, relative to the tinman and glazier's contracts at Plymouth yard, Rep. ix. App. 106.

U.

Unassigned Balances. Opinion of the Commissioners that the money in the treasurer's charge should not at any time be more than equal to ten days' probable expenditure, Rep. x. 155—Statement showing the amount of the unassigned and actual balances of the treasurer of the navy, on 31 December in each year, from 1786 to 1803, and the number of days such balances would have lasted, at the average rate of expenditure of the succeeding years, ib.—Account showing the unassigned general balance of the treasurer of His Majesty's navy on 31 December in each year, from 1786 to 1803, both inclusive, Rep. x. App. 421.

USE OF PUBLIC MONEY :

1. Resolution of Parliament.
2. Clerks in the Navy Pay Office.
3. Paymaster of the Navy.
4. Finance Committee of 1797.
5. Mr. Jellicoe's Deficiency.
6. Public Accountants.

1. Resolution of Parliament :

Resolution of the House of Commons, passed 18 June 1782, with reference to the paymaster-general and treasurer of the navy applying the public money to any purpose of advantage or interest to themselves, Rep. x. 129.

2. Clerks in the Navy Pay Office :

Acknowledgment of Mr. Thomas Wilson, chief clerk in the bill and remittance department of the Navy Pay Office, of having derived an advantage from the use and employment of money issued for the payment of Exchequer fees, Rep. x. 144.

3. Paymaster of the Navy :

Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Mr. Edward Antrobus, with reference to the use and employment of the public money received by Messrs. Thomas Countts & Co. from the Bank of England, on Mr. Trotter's drafts, Rep. x. 145—Acknowledgment of Mr. Trotter of his having made use of the public money withdrawn by him, as paymaster of the navy, from the Bank of England, to his own advantage and emolument, ib. 149, 150.

4. Finance Committee of 1797 :

No notice is taken of the advantage derived by the paymaster of the navy from the use of the money issued for the service of the navy, by the Select Committee of the House of Commons on Finance, in their Report of 1797, Rep. x. 151.

5. Mr. Jellicoe's Deficiency :

Evils arising from the application of public money by individuals to private use, as exemplified in the case of Mr. Adam Jellicoe, formerly deputy paymaster of the navy, Rep. x. 157-161.

6. Public Accountants :

Opinion of the Commissioners that all persons entrusted with public money should make oath, previously to receiving their salaries, that they have not derived any advantage, directly or indirectly, from the use and employment of the money committed to their charge, Rep. x. 163.

See also Fees in Public Offices Commissioners.
Trotter, Alexander, 3.

Paymaster-General of the Forces.
Wilson, Thomas.

V.

Vansittart, Nicholas. Letter from Nicholas Vansittart, esq., secretary of the Treasury, to the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, dated 1 May 1804, respecting money impressed by the Navy Board for secret naval services, Rep. xi. App. 532.

Vessels. Account of the amount of the sale of old vessels at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, between 9 April 1799 and 2 March 1802, Rep. ix. App. 116.

Victualling Bills. Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of calculating the interest on bills issued by the Victualling Board, Rep. xi. 487-491—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Commissioners of Victualling, dated 7 February 1797, relative to the want of uniformity of victualling bills, and mode of calculating interest thereon, Rep. xi. App. 521.

See also Interest on Bills, 3. Navy Board, 10.

Victualling Board. Letter from the Commissioners of the victualling to the Navy Board, dated 8 February 1797, on the subject of the terms of the bills issued by the Victualling Board, and the mode of calculating the interest thereon, Rep. xi. App. 521, 522.

Victualling Branch Account. Proposed account to be opened by the treasurer of the navy with the Bank of England, under the head of "Victualling Branch Account," Rep. x. 170.

Vincent, St., Earl, K. B. Examination of the Right hon. Earl St. Vincent, K. B., taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 2 November 1804, on the subject of money impressed by the Navy Board for secret naval services, Rep. xi. App. 533.

W.

Wages. Observations of the Commissioners on the method of payment of seamen's wages, as well in town as at the outports, Rep. x. 171, 172.

Warden (Plymouth Yard). The warden should examine the number of packages with the bill of parcels on their being admitted into the yard, and sign it if it agree, Rep. ix. 5.

Warrant Officers. See Pensions.

Warrants See King's Warrants.

Weekly Returns. Copy of the clerk of the ropeyard's weekly returns pursuant to the method and establishment made by the Navy Board, 28 March 1768, Rep. ix. App. 120-123.

Weighing Hemp. See Draught of the Scale.

White, Joseph. Observations of the Commissioners on the statement of Mr. White, the solicitor employed by the paymaster of the navy to recover the balance due by the late Mr. Adam Jellicoe, deputy paymaster of the navy, Rep. x. 162, 163—Examination of Joseph White, esq., solicitor to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 17 December 1804, relative to the steps taken for the recovery of the debt due from Mr. Adam Jellicoe, at the time of his decease, to the treasurer of the navy, Rep. x. App. 455, 456.

See also Chamberlayne & White, Messrs.

Widows' Men. A certain number of fictitious men are borne under the denomination of widows' men, in all His Majesty's ships, in proportion to their compliments, Rep. x. 173.

Widows of Officers. See Pensions.

Wilson, Thomas. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Mr. Thomas Wilson, the chief clerk in the bill and remittance department of the Navy Pay Office, with respect to the manner which the public money drawn from the Bank of England by the paymaster of the navy had been disposed of, Rep. x. 144—Examination of Thomas Wilson, esq., of the Navy Pay Office, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of 710—XI. X Naval

3—Reports, 1805—continued.

Wilson, Thomas—continued.

Naval Inquiry, 18 July 1804, relative to the duties of his office, and manner in which the department of the treasurer of the navy is conducted, Rep. x. App. 234-236—Further examination of Thomas Wilson, esq., 20 July 1804, relative to advantages derived by officials from the use of public monies, ib. 237.

Withdrawal of Public Money. Observations of the Commissioners on the practice of the paymaster of the navy withdrawing the public money from the Bank of England, and lodging it in the hands of his private bankers, Rep. x. 142-144—Direction of the Act of Parliament that monies issued to the bank on account of the treasurer of the navy shall not be paid out of the bank except for naval purposes, ib. 152.

See also Bank of England, 3. Heads of Service.

Woolwich Yard. At Woolwich yard it is not the practice to give the contractors credit for the exact quantity of hemp delivered, Rep. ix. 12.

Writ of Privy Seal. See Fees, 2. Privy Seal.

4. Naval Enquiry. 1806.

Twelfth Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, appointed by the Act of 45 Geo. 3, (Purchases of Hemp, Masts, and Fir Timber, on Commission, by Mr. Lindegren, for the Service of the Navy; Transfer of Contracts); dated 22 January 1806 (1.) - - - - Sess. Vol. IV. p. 1.

Thirteenth Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, appointed by the Act of 45 Geo. 3, (Contracts for Victualling Sick Prisoners of War, between the Commissioners for taking Care of the Sick and Wounded Seamen, and Dr. Thomas Mein, Surgeon in His Majesty's Navy); dated 15 May 1806 (161.)
Sess. Vol. IV. p. 361.

Fourteenth Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, appointed by the Act of 45 Geo. 3, (Royal Hospital at Greenwich); dated 30 June 1806 (256.) - - - - Sess. Vol. IV. p. 523

[N.B.—In this Index the Numerals xii. xiii. and xiv. following Rep. refer to the Twelfth, Thirteenth, and Fourteenth Reports, and the Figures refer to the printed Paging of the Reports and Appendices respectively.]

A.

ABUSES. See Storekeeper at Jamaica, 1.

ACCOUNTS:

1. Government Agent at Riga.
2. Naval Stores Account.
3. Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son's Accounts.
4. Expenditure of Public Money.
5. Navy Office.
6. Transfer of Contracts.
7. Butler of Greenwich Hospital.

1. Government Agent at Riga:

Observations of the Commissioners on the state of the accounts furnished by Mr. Lindegren, entitled, "Disbursements for Naval Stores," Rep. xii. 41-43—Observations of the Commissioners on the circumstance of the Navy Board allowing Mr. Lindegren's accounts to pass without his producing an account current, ib. 48, 49—Letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq., to the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, dated 11 May 1805, transmitting an account current, showing the balance due from him to the Navy Board, Rep. xii. App. 271—Letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq., to the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, dated 1 June 1805, transmitting to them an amended account current, ib. 272, 273—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 1 June 1805, stating their inability to find the account current furnished by Mr. Lindegren to the Navy Board in 1797, ib. 292—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 5 June 1805, on the same subject, ib. 293.

2. Naval Stores Account:

Copies of the accounts current between Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, and Mr. Andrew Lindegren, relating to the purchase of stores made by the latter for the service of the navy, under commissions granted by the Navy Board in the years 1795, 1796, 1797, and 1798, Rep. xii. App. 206-209—Transcript from the account in the ledgers of Godfrey Thornton & Sons, entitled, "Disbursements for Naval Stores imported," ib. 286, 287—Extracts from the journal of Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Sons, explanatory of such items accounted for in the transcript from the ledger account as were not contained in the general account with Mr. Lindegren, entitled, "His Account of Naval Stores imported," ib. 288, 289—Account extracted from the foregoing, showing the sums received and paid by Mr. Godfrey Thornton & Son, which should have been carried by Mr. Lindegren to the account of the public, ib. 290, 291—Copy of Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son's account with Mr. Lindegren, entitled, "His particular Account," for the years 1796, 1797, 1798, and 1799, ib. 294-303.

ACCOUNTS—continued.3. Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son's Account :

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty navy to Andrew Lindegren, esq., dated 7 March 1797, respecting the accounts rendered by Messrs. Thornton for the purchase of hemp and masts for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 292.

4. Expenditure of Public Money :

Recommendation of the Commissioners that no account of the expenditure of public money should be received by the Navy Board, without a general account current of the receipts and disbursements, Rep. xii. 48.

5. Navy Office :

Recommendations of the Commissioners with respect to the examination and passing of the accounts by the clerks in the Navy-office, Rep. xii. 49.

6. Transfer of Contracts :

Account of Mr. Andrew Lindegren with Messrs. Thorley, Morison & Co., for the purchase of masts and spars at Riga, for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 316, 317.

7. Butler of Greenwich Hospital :

Manner in which the accounts of the numerous payments of money made by the butler of Greenwich Hospital to pensioners and nurses in lieu of allowances of provisions are kept, Rep. xiv. 544-547.

See also Clearing Bills. Committee of Accounts. Examination of Accounts. Fees. Quarterly Accounts. Steward of Greenwich Hospital, 1. Vouchers.

ADMIRALTY BOARD :

1. Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica.
2. Advances on Contract Prices.
3. Admission of Pensioners to Greenwich Hospital.

1. Naval Storekeepers at Jamaica :

Observations of the Commissioners on the proceedings of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty in the matter of the naval storekeeper at Jamaica, appropriating to his own use and advantage, the premium on bills drawn by him on the Navy Board, Rep. xii. App. 342-350.

2. Advances on Contract Prices :

Opinion of the Commissioners with respect to the prevention of any addition being made to contract prices without the special order and sanction of the Board of Admiralty, Rep. xiii. 388.

3. Admission of Pensioners to Greenwich Hospital :

Selection of the in-pensioners to be admitted to the Royal Hospital at Greenwich by the Board of Admiralty, Rep. xiv. 541.

See also, First Lord of the Admiralty.

Admission of Pensioners. Opinion of the Commissioners that when a man has been passed by the Admiralty for admission into the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, an allowance, adequate to his support in the neighbourhood, should be made during the time that he may wait for a vacancy, Rep. xiv. 547.

ADVANCES ON CONTRACTS :

1. Objection to the System.
2. Haslar Hospital Contract.
3. Victualling Contracts at Prison Hospitals.
4. Sick and Wounded Board.

1. Objection to the System :

Observations of the Commissioners on the impositions to which the public is exposed in making advances on contract prices, Rep. xiii. 387.

2. Haslar Hospital Contract :

Copy of letter from Mr. Richard Owen to the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen, dated 18 March 1800, requesting an increase of price on his contract to supply beef, mutton, and oatmeal to the Royal Hospital at Haslar, Rep. xiii. App. 487—
Copy of letter from Mr. Richard Owen, of Fareham, to the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen, dated 5 April 1800, urging the Board for an increase of price on his contract for supplying certain articles of provisions to Haslar Hospital, ib. 488, 489
—Copy

ADVANCES ON CONTRACTS—continued.

2. Haslar Hospital Contract—continued.

— Copy of letter from the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen to Mr. Richard Owen, dated 10 April 1800, intimating their intention of taking into consideration what addition it be reasonable to make to his contract rate, Rep. xiii. App. 490.

3. Victualling Contract at Prison Hospitals:

Letter from Messrs. Hay and Company to the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen, dated 29 July 1800, soliciting an advance upon their original price for victualling the sick prisoners of war at the depôts, Rep. xiii. App. 505— Copy of letter from the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen to Messrs. Joseph Hay & Co., dated 28 July 1800, consenting to allow them at the rate of 1½*d.* per man per diem in addition to their present price for victualling sick prisoners of war, ib.

4. Sick and Wounded Board:

Copy of minute of the Sick and Wounded Board, dated 4 March 1796, with respect to making advances on contracts, Rep. xiii. App. 517.

See also Accounts, 2.

“Adventure,” The Ship. Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq., to the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Navy, dated 1 February 1796, reporting the non-arrival of the ship “Adventure,” laden with masts from Riga for Plymouth, Rep. xii. App. 229— Copy of letter from the officers of His Majesty’s dockyard at Deptford to John Williams, esq., secretary to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 16 September 1805, relative to the manner in which the Norway masts sent on shore from the ship “Adventure” were disposed of, ib. 260— Report of the officers of His Majesty’s dockyard at Portsmouth to the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Navy, dated 19 April 1797, of the number of Riga and Norway masts and spars, and pieces of fir timber, received from Mr. Lindegren by the ship “Adventure,” Henry Pyle, master, ib. 267.

See also, Broken Stowage, 5.

AFFIDAVITS:

1. Government Commission Agents.
2. Solicitor to Greenwich Hospital.

1. Government Commission Agents:

Opinion of the Commissioners that agents should be required to make affidavits that they were in no way interested in the articles purchased, previous to their being obtained for Government, Rep. xii. 48.

2. Solicitor to Greenwich Hospital:

Opinion of the Commissioners that the affidavit that the solicitor of Greenwich Hospital is required to annex to his bill of costs should be abolished, Rep. xiv. 540.

“Agenoria,” The Ship. Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Navy, to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 21 November 1797, relative to the quality of the Riga hemp delivered at Plymouth dockyard from out of the ship “Agenoria,” John Rockwood master, Rep. xii. App. 315.

AGENTS:

1. Government Commission Agents.
2. Navy Agent at Portsmouth.
3. Commission Agent at Petersburg.
4. Surgeons of Prison Hospitals.
5. Prize Agents.

1. Government Commission Agents:

Observations of the Commissioners on the system of procuring naval stores by means of commission agents, Rep. xii. 3-18— Opinion of the Commissioners that public boards should stipulate with agents that the rate of commission which may be agreed upon shall constitute the whole of their remuneration, ib. 48.

2. Navy Agent at Portsmouth:

Office of agent at Portsmouth to the contractors of naval stores, held by Mr. Lindegren, previous to his appointment as commission agent at Riga, Rep. xii. 14.

3. Commission Agent at Petersburg:

Circumstance of the Government employing Mr. Cornwall Smalley, a partner in the house of Thorntons and Smalley, as commission agent at Petersburg, to purchase hemp and other naval stores for the service of His Majesty’s navy, Rep. xii. 26.

AGENTS—continued.

4. Surgeons of Prison Hospitals:

Observations of the Commissioners on the circumstance of the surgeons of the prison hospitals at Forton and Chatham being in the pay of, and acting as agents to the contractors for victualling the sick prisons, Rep. xiii. 385, 386.

5. Prize Agents:

Observations of the Commissioners on the Act of the 45 Geo. 3, c. 72, for the better controlling of the conduct of prize agents, Rep. xiv. 534, 535.

See also Chapeaurouge, M. Commission Agents. French Agents. Lindegren, Andrew. Miln & Halliday, Messrs., 3. Oaths, 1. Peacock, John. Private Trading. Remuneration of Officers. Smalley, Cornwall. Surgeons of Hospitals. Thorley Morison, & Co., Messrs. Thornton, Godfrey & Son, Messrs. Walton, Mr.

AGREEMENTS:

1. Purchase of Foreign Naval Stores.
2. Victualling Sick Prisoners of War.
3. Counsel's opinion on Agreement.

1. Purchase of Foreign Naval Stores:

Copy of agreement made and concluded on 27 February 1795, between Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son on one part, and Mr. Andrew Lindegren, to provide from foreign parts certain articles of naval stores, Rep. xii. App. 77—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 16 May 1805, respecting the agreement entered into with Mr. Lindegren for the purchase of naval stores on commission for Government, at Riga, ib. 221, 222.

2. Victualling Sick Prisoners of War:

Observations of the Commissioners on the agreement entered into by Dr. Grey, on the part of Dr. Mein, with Mr. Richard Owen, for supplying the hospitals at Forton and Porchester with beef, mutton, bread, beer, &c. at stated prices, Rep. xiii. 371, 372—Statement showing the prices paid by Dr. Mein under his agreement with Mr. Owen for beef, mutton, bread, and beer, and the prices inserted in the certificate for the like articles, on 22 December 1799, ib. 375—Copy of articles of agreement entered into by Dr. Grey, on the part of Dr. Mein, with Mr. Richard Owen, for the supply of beef, mutton, bread, beer, and various other articles for the sick prisoners of war at Forton and Porchester Hospital, dated 21 December 1799, Rep. xiii. App. 492, 493—Copy of articles of agreement entered into by Dr. Thomas Mein with Mr. Richard Owen, dated 26 December 1799, confirming the agreement made by Dr. Grey, and extending the supply to the depôt at Stapleton, near Bristol, ib. 493, 494.

3. Counsel's Opinion on Agreement:

Copy of case submitted for the opinion of counsel by Dr. Thomas Mein, and the assignees of Mr. Richard Owen, with respect to the articles of agreement entered into between Dr. Mein and Mr. Richard Owen, on 26 December 1799, Rep. xiii. App. 495-497.

ALLOWANCES FOR LOSSES:

1. Abuses of the System.
2. Dr. Mein's Contract.
3. Mr. Richard Owen's Contract.

1. Abuses of the System:

Remarks of the Commissioners on the impositions to which the public is exposed in making advances on contract prices, and the irregularities which occur in the mode of granting such allowances, Rep. xiii. 387, 388.

2. Dr. Mein's Contract:

Amount of Money granted by the Board for sick and wounded seamen to Dr. Mein, by way of allowance for losses, said to have been sustained by him in the performance of his first contract, Rep. xiii. 365—Account of the amount paid to Dr. Mein under the contract of 26 March 1800, for the increase in the prices of the articles supplied, ib. 377—Comparison of the quantities of beef and mutton supplied by Mr. Owen to the prison hospital at Forton, from 21 December 1799 to the beginning of May 1800, and the quantities on which Dr. Mein received the additions for the increase of price during those months, ib. 380—Comparison of the quantities of beef and mutton supplied to the prisoners at Forton hospital, in the months of November and December 1800, and the quantities on which Dr. Mein received the additions for the increase of price during those months, ib. 382—Copy of letter from the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen to Dr. Mein, dated 11 July 1800, granting him an allowance for losses said to have been sustained by him under his contract on 21 December 1799 for victualling sick prisoners of war, Rep. xiii. App. 454.

ALLOWANCES FOR LOSSES—continued.

2. Dr. Mein's Contract—continued.

3. Mr. Richard Owen's Contract :

Circumstance of Mr. Richard Owen making application to the Sick and Wounded Board for an allowance for losses sustained by him in the performance of his contract, Rep. xiii. 370, 371.

See also Compensation for Losses.

Allowances to Pensioners. Copy of minute of the Directors of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, dated 9 January 1724–25, respecting the prices it might be proper to allow the pensioners for their spare provisions, Rep. xiv. App. 657, 658.

See also Butler of Greenwich Hospital, 2. Commutation of Allowances. Table Allowances.

Alston Perpetual Curacy. Particulars respecting the perpetual curacy of Alston, in the gift of the commissioners and governors of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. 550.

Ambassador to Petersburg. Copy of letter from Sir Charles Whitworth, ambassador to Petersburg, to the Right hon. Lord Grenville, Secretary of State for the Foreign Department, dated 27 March 1795, relative to the employment of agents to purchase hemp at Riga secretly, for the service of the navy, Rep. xii. App. 73.

American War. Observations of the Commissioners on the rate of commission allowed merchants in the Russia trade, employed by the Navy Board, to purchase naval stores during the American war, Rep. xii. 8. 15—Account of the rates of commission granted to persons employed by the Navy Board to purchase naval stores for the service during the American war, Rep. xii. App. 145.

Angerstein, John Julius. Examination of John Julius Angerstein, esq., taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, relative to the allowances made to brokers upon insurances effected by them against sea risk at the offices, Rep. xii. App. 308, 309.

"Ann," The Ship. Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 5 August 1795, reporting the sailing from Riga of the ship "Ann," Captain Grant, for Portsmouth dockyard, laden with hemp for the service of the navy, Rep. xii. App. 200—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq., to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 18 July 1795, reporting the sailing from Riga of the ship "Ann," Marwood master, for Plymouth, laden with hemp for His Majesty's service, ib. 227, 228—Report of the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 19 April 1797, of the number of Riga masts and bowsprits received from Mr. Lindegren, by the ship "Ann," Robert Lincoln, master, ib. 265.

Annuity. See Newburgh, Earl of. South Sea Annuities.

Apartments. Account of the different officers and persons to whom apartments are allotted in the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, according to the establishment of the hospital, Rep. xiv. App. 685.

Arundel, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Arundel, in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

"Asphalon," The Ship. Report of the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 19 April 1797, of the number of Riga masts and bowsprits received from Mr. Lindegren, by the ship "Asphalon," William Edgar, master, Rep. xii. App. 265, 267.

ASSIZE OF BREAD :

1. City of London.
2. Portsmouth.

1. City of London :

Copy of letters from Henry Woodthorpe, esq., town clerk of the City of London, to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 30 November 1805, with an account of the assize of bread from 26 November 1799 to 30 December 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 455, 456.

2 Portsmouth :

Extract from the register of the returns of flour and the assize of bread, as fixed in every week by the mayor and aldermen of the borough of Portsmouth, commencing 3 December 1799, and continued weekly unto 19 August 1809, Rep. xiii. App. 458.

Assurance Company. See Royal Exchange Assurance Company.

Attendances. See Solicitor to Greenwich Hospital, 2.

Attorney-General. See Percival, Spencer.

Auditor to Greenwich Hospital. Recommendation of the Commissioners that the bills for law charges of the solicitor to Greenwich Hospital should be submitted to the auditor, previously to their being laid before the Board of Directors, Rep. xiv. 540.

Augmentation of Salaries. Observations of the Commissioners on the correspondence and proceedings relative to the augmentation of the salaries of the officers, clerks, and servants of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. 536, 537.

See also Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, 1.

"Aurora," The Ship. Report of the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth to the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, dated 19 April 1797, of the number of Riga and Norway masts and spars, and pieces of fir timber received from Mr. Lindegren, by the ship "Aurora," John Hall, master, Rep. xii. App. 266.

B.

Bacon, John. Examination of John Bacon, esq., F.S.A., senior clerk in the First Fruits Office, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 22 May 1806, relative to the value of livings in the market, Rep. xiv. App. 681.

BALANCES OF PUBLIC MONEY:

1. Government Commission Agent at Riga.
2. Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital.

1. Government Commission Agent at Riga:

Letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq., to the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, dated 11 May 1805, transmitting an account current, showing the balance due from him to the Navy Board, Rep. xii. App. 271—Letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq., to the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, dated 1 June 1805, transmitting to them an amended account current, ib. 272, 273.—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq., to Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, dated 1 June 1797, relative to the balance due to him on the naval store account, ib. 304.

2. Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital:

Copy of letter from Admiral Sir John Colpoys, treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, to John Dyer, esq., dated 27 April 1806, relative to the large balances of public money which from time to time remain in his hands as treasurer, and suggesting their investment in the public funds, Rep. xiv. App. 683.—Minute of a meeting of the directors of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, dated 27 April 1805, with reference to the investment of a portion of the balances in the hands of the treasurer, in the public funds, ib. 684.

See also Unappropriated Balances.

Bank of England. Minute of a meeting of the directors of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, held at Salter's Hall, 8 May 1805, directing the payments of the treasurer's balance into the Bank of England, and the investment of the surplus in the purchase of stock, Rep. xiv. App. 684.

Bannister, John. See "Sophia," The Ship.

Barber to Greenwich Hospital. Observations of the Commissioners on the sinecure situation of the barber to the Royal Hospital at Greenwich; amount of his salary, Rep. xiv. 549.—See also Cloux, Henry.

"BARNES," THE SHIP:

1. Shipment of Naval Stores Abroad.
2. Broken Stowage.
3. Introduction of the Captain to the Government Agent at Riga.
4. Delivery of Cargo at Plymouth Yard.

1. Shipment of Naval Stores Abroad:

Observations of the Commissioners on the shipment of masts by the transport "Barnes," from Riga, for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. 30—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq., to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 3 September 1795, reporting the sailing from Riga of the ship "Barnes," Captain Ushaw, with masts and bowsprits for Portsmouth, for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 255.

2. Broken

“BARNES,” THE SHIP—continued.

2. Broken Stowage :

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy to Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, dated 19 June 1795, relative to providing small articles of broken stowage for the “Barnes” mast ship from Riga, Rep. xii. App. 254.

3. Introduction of the Captain to the Government Agent at Riga :

Copy of letter from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son to the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, dated 19 June 1795, respecting the captain of the transport ship “Barnes” being directed to call upon them for a letter of introduction to a gentleman at Riga,” Rep. xii. App. 254.

4. Delivery of Cargo at Plymouth Yard :

Account of masts, &c. received into His Majesty's stores at Portsmouth dockyard, from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, on account of Government, out of the “Barnes” transport, per Navy Board's warrant 25 September 1795, Rep. xii. App. 262.

See also Broken Stowage, 6.

Barnstaple, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Barnstaple in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 604.

Bate, Edward. Examination of Edward Bate, esq., deputy treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 16 April 1806, respecting the collection of the revenues of Greenwich Hospital, Rep. xiv. App. 562, 563.

Beaumaris, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Beaumaris in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 604.

BEEF :

1. Haslar Hospital Contract.
2. Prices at Newgate Market.
3. Prices at Gosport.
4. Prices at Portsmouth.
5. Prices at Plymouth.

1. Haslar Hospital Contract :

Statement showing the difference in the prices paid for beef by the Board for sick and wounded seamen at the Royal Hospital at Haslar, and the prices according to Dr. Mein's certificate on 22 December 1799, Rep. xiii. 369, 370.

2. Prices at Newgate Market :

Statement of the sales of the beef and wether mutton at Newgate market by the carcase, per stone of eight pounds, in each week of November and December of 1799, and January, February, March and April 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 455.

3. Prices at Gosport :

Statement of the average rates of beef and mutton at Gosport, in each month of the year 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 460, 461, 464.

4. Prices at Portsmouth :

Statement of the average price of beef and mutton per cwt. at Portsmouth, in each month during the years 1800 and 1801, Rep. xiii. App. 466.

5. Prices at Plymouth :

Statement of the price of beef and mutton per cwt. at Plymouth dock, in the month of December 1799, and in each of the first six months of 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 497.

BEER :

1. Haslar Hospital Contract.
2. Prices at Portsmouth.
3. Prices at Gosport.
4. Prices at Plymouth.
5. Royal Hospital at Greenwich.

1. Haslar Hospital Contract :

Statement showing the difference between the prices paid by the Board for sick and wounded at Haslar Hospital, and the prices according to Dr. Mein's certificate on 22 December 1799, Rep. xiii. 369, 370—Statement of the average prices of beer per ton, and of table beer supplied to the Royal Hospital at Haslar in each month during the year 1800, ib. 474-476—Statement of the average wholesale price of beer of a similar quality to that supplied to the hospital in each month during the year 1801, ib. 475, 476.

*BEER—continued.*2. Prices at Portsmouth:

Statement showing the average price of beer in each month in the year 1800, according to the evidence of the witnesses examined at Portsmouth, and the average prices according to the weekly returns of the governor of Haslar Hospital, Rep. xiii. 378.

3. Prices at Gosport:

Statement of the price of beer in Gosport similar to that supplied to the Royal Hospital at Haslar in December 1799, and in January, February, March and April 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 477.

4. Prices at Plymouth:

Statement of the price of beer at Plymouth dock between 22 December 1799 and December 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 498.

5. Royal Hospital at Greenwich:

Observations of the Commissioners on the high charges for brewing beer for the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. 546.

Bellingham, Sir William, Bart. Occasion of the appointment of Sir William Bellingham, bart., a member of a committee to visit the estates of the Royal Hospital of Greenwich in the north, Rep. xiv. 527—Copy of minute of a Court of Directors of Greenwich Hospital, held at Salter's Hall, 31 July 1805, appointing Sir William Bellingham, bart. a member of a committee of visitation of the hospital estates in the north, Rep. xiv. App. 564.

Berwick, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Berwick, in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

Bideford, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Bideford, in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 604.

Billingham Chapelry. Particulars respecting the chapelry of Billingham, in the gift of the commissioners and governors of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. 550, 551.

Bills of Costs. Observations of the Commissioners on the heavy expenditure of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, on account of the solicitor's bills of costs, Rep. xiv. 537-541—Account of law charges of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich disbursed from 21 November 1804 to 21 November 1805, inclusive, Rep. xiv. App. 612—Bill of law charges and business done for the commissioners and governors of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, in the county of Kent, exclusive of the Derwentwater estate, from 31 March to 1 October 1805, ib. 613-622.

See also Law Charges.

Bills of Exchange. Observations of the Commissioners on the practice of the naval storekeepers at Jamaica appropriating the premium on bills, drawn by them upon the Navy Board, to their own advantage and emolument, ib. 341-350.

See also Clearing Bills. Consuls. Navy Bills. Premium on Bills.

Bills of Lading. See Invoices.

Blane, Gilbert. Examination of Gilbert Blane, M. D., late a Commissioner of the Sick and Wounded Board, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 12 December 1805, relative to the system of contracting for the supply of sick prisoners of war with provisions, at the several hospitals, Rep. xiii. App. 445-448.

Blatherwick, T. Copy of letter from Mr. T. Blatherwick, formerly surgeon to the prison hospital at Porchester, to John Williams, esq., secretary to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 26 April 1806, in explanation of the certificates granted to Dr. Mein of the number of patients victualled at Porchester Hospital in 1800 and 1800, differing so materially in respect to the number certified in the quarterly books of the hospital, Re pxi i. App. 514, 515.

Bonar, Thomson. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Thomson Bonar, a Russia merchant, respecting the rate of commission allowed merchants shipping hemp from Riga on account of Government, Rep. xii. 8, 9—Examination of Thomson Bonar, esq., Russia merchant, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 31 July and 1 August 1804, relative to the purchase of hemp and other naval stores at Riga and Petersburg on commission, Rep. xii. App. 140-141.

Boston, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Boston, in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 604.

4—Reports, 1806—continued.

Bounty Money. Account of the amount of prize and bounty monies received and refunded by the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, under the Act of the 45 Geo. 3, c. 72, from the time of passing that Act to 31 December 1805, and from that time to 31 May 1806, Rep. xiv. App. 604.

Bourchier, John. Examination of John Bourchier, esq., lieutenant-governor of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 22 May 1806, relative to the mode of administering the affairs of the infirmary, Rep. xiv. App. 672.

Bowsprits. Account of bowsprits received into His Majesty's stores at Portsmouth dock-yard from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton and Son, on account of Government, out of the "Barnes" transport, per Navy Board warrant of 25 September 1795, Rep. xii. App. 262—Account of the number of bowsprits received at His Majesty's yard, Portsmouth, in 1797, from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton and Son, on account of Mr. Andrew Lindegren, specifying the several ships' names the stores were imported in, and the quantity delivered by each, ib. 265-270.

Boys. Account of the number of boys and their nurses, borne on the establishment of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, in each year, from 1 January 1790 to 31 December 1805, showing the cost of one boy and one nurse in each year, Rep. xiv. App. 674.

Boys' School. Appropriation of the profits arising from the payment of money to pensioners and nurses in lieu of provisions, in aid of the funds for the support of the boys' school in the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. 545—Observations of the Commissioners on the establishment annexed to the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, of a school for the education and maintenance of poor boys, the sons of seamen, ib. 548.

See also Military Officers, 2.

BREAD :

1. Haslar Hospital.
2. Portsmouth.
3. City of London.
4. Gosport.
5. Portsea.

1. Haslar Hospital :

Statement showing the differences between the prices paid for bread by the Board for Sick and Wounded Seamen at Haslar Hospital, and the prices according to Dr. Mein's certificate on 22 December 1799, Rep. xiii. 369, 370—Statement showing the average prices of bread in each month of the year 1800, according to the evidence of the witnesses at Portsmouth, and the average prices according to the weekly return of the governor of Haslar Hospital, ib. 378.

2. Portsmouth :

Extract from the register of the returns of flour and the assize of bread, as fixed in every week by the mayor and aldermen of the borough of Portsmouth, commencing 3 December 1799, and continued weekly unto 19 August 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 458.

3. City of London :

Account of the prices of the peck loaf, wheaten and household, in the city of London, in each week from 26 November 1799 to 31 December 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 456.

4. Gosport :

Statement of the price of the gallon loaf at Gosport on 22 December 1799, and the average price in each month of the year 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 468, 469.

5. Portsea :

Statement of the prices of bread at Portsea in December 1799, and in each week of the year 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 472—Statement of the price of the gallon loaf at Portsea, made from fine flour, between 1 January and 31 December 1801, ib. 473.

See also Assize of Bread.

Brewery at Greenwich Hospital. Observations of the Commissioners on the heavy charge for brewing for the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. 546—Account of the particulars constituting the sum of 5,126 l. 14 s. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ d., stated as the brewing charge for 1805, in the account of the expense of Greenwich Hospital for that year, Rep. xiv. App. 669.—See also Hickman, Stephen Collman.

Bridlington, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Bridlington, in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 604.

4—Reports, 1806—continued.

Bristol Depôt. Observations of the Commissioners on the contract for victualling sick prisoners of war at the depôt near Bristol, between the Commissioners for taking care of sick and wounded seamen and Dr. Thomas Mein, surgeon in His Majesty's navy, Rep. xiii. 363-376.—See also Stapleton Hospital, near Bristol.

Bristol, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Bristol, in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

BRISTOL PRISON HOSPITAL SHIP (CHATHAM):

1. Victualling Contract.
2. Surgeon of the Ship.

1. Victualling Contract:

Observations of the Commissioners on the contracts for victualling sick prisoners of war at the Bristol prison hospital ship at Chatham, between the Commissioners for taking care of the sick and wounded seamen, and Mr. Thomas Mein, surgeon in His Majesty's navy, Rep. xiii. 363-376.

2. Surgeon of the Ship:

Circumstance of the surgeon of the Bristol prison hospital ship at Chatham, acting as agent, and being in the pay of the contractor, Dr. Mein, Rep. xiii. 385, 386—Account showing the yearly amount of the pay and allowances granted by the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded Seamen to Mr. Alexander Young, surgeon of the Bristol prison hospital ship at Chatham, in the years 1800 and 1801, Rep. xiii. App. 516.

See also Surgeons of Hospitals, 2. Young, Alexander.

BROKEN STOWAGE:

1. Mast Ships.
2. Fir Timber.
3. Lathwood and Firewood.
4. Transport Ships.
5. The Ship "Adventure."
6. The Ship "Barnes."
7. The Ships "Nestor" and "Liverpool."

1. Mast Ships:

Observations of the Commissioners with respect to the provision of small articles of broken stowage for the mast ships from Riga for His Majesty's dockyards, Rep. xii. 30-40—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy to Mr. Lindegren, dated 14 August 1795, relative to procuring freight for the surplus stowage of mast ships from Riga, Rep. xii. App. 254—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq., to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 3 November 1795, relative to procuring merchandise from individuals at Riga to fill up the empty space in the mast ships to the out-ports, ib. 254, 255—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq., to the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, dated 11 August 1797, on the subject of the broken stowage necessary for the ships laden with masts from Riga, ib. 275, 276—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 11 August 1797, on the subject of the broken stowage necessary for the ships to be laden with masts from Riga, ib. 276—Copy of letter from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, to Messrs. Chapell and Hodge, dated 15 August 1797, directing the sale of the timber received by the mast ships from Riga, ib. 277—Copy of letter from Thomas Tooke, esq., to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 22 July 1805, stating his inability to find any letter from the Navy Board to Messrs. Godfrey, Thornton & Son, in the year 1797, on the subject of broken stowage brought by the mast ships, ib.

2. Fir Timber:

Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy to the respective officers of Plymouth dockyard, dated 15 August 1797, relative to the filling up of the broken stowage in the mast ships from Riga with fir timber, Rep. xii. App. 276.

3. Lathwood and Firewood:

Extract of a letter from Messrs. Godfrey, Thornton & Son, to Messrs. Chapell & Hodge of Plymouth dock, dated 31 July 1797, relative to the disposal of the lathwood and firewood brought home in the mast ships from Riga, Rep. xii. App. 276.

4. Transport Ships:

Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq., to Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, dated 12 September 1795, relative to putting broken stowage on board the mast transport ships from Riga for His Majesty's dockyards at Portsmouth and Plymouth, Rep. xii. App. 255.

5. The

BROKEN STOWAGE—continued.5. The Ship "Adventure":

Letter from the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth to the secretary to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 7 May 1805, relative to the permission granted to Mr. Lindegren to remove 185 small masts from Portsmouth yard, brought there in the "Adventure" transport ship, Rep. xii. App. 264.

6. The Ship "Barnes":

Copy of letter from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, to the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, dated 19 June 1795, relative to ordering articles of broken stowage for the transport ship "Barnes," from Riga, Rep. xii. App. 254—Letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy to Messrs. Godfrey, Thornton & Son, dated 19 June 1795, relative to providing small articles of broken stowage for the "Barnes" mast ship from Riga, ib.

7. Ships "Nestor" and "Liverpool":

Copy of letter from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, to Messrs. Chapell & Hodge, of Plymouth docks, dated 9 August 1797, directing an examination of the masts shipped from Riga on board the ships "Nestor" and "Liverpool," Rep. xii. App. 277.

See also Firewood. Freights, 2.

Brough, Anthony. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Mr. Anthony Brough, a Russia merchant, respecting the rate of commission allowed merchants shipping hemp from Riga on Government account, Rep. xii. 8, 9—Examination of Anthony Brough, esq., a Russia merchant, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 18 March 1805, relative to the purchase of hemp and other naval stores at Riga and Petersburg on commission, Rep. xii. App. 142, 143.

Broughton, Mr. Circumstance of Mr. Broughton, the chief clerk in the office of the naval storekeeper at Jamaica, holding the charge till the arrival of Mr. Dick, Rep. xii. App. 344.

Buildings. See Hospital Estate, Greenwich Hospital, 4.

BUTLER OF GREENWICH HOSPITAL:

1. Accounts.
2. Allowances.
3. Purchase of Provisions.
4. The Butler's List.

1. Accounts:

Manner in which the accounts of the numerous payments of money made by the butler of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich to the pensioners and nurses, in lieu of allowances of provisions, are kept, Rep. xiv. 544-547.

2. Allowances:

Rate of allowance made to the butler of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich for his trouble and responsibility in the payment of money to the pensioners and nurses in lieu of provisions, Rep. xiv. 545.

3. Purchase of Provisions:

Method of discovering the quantity of provisions paid for by the butler of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. App. 660, 661.

4. The Butler's List:

Nature of the payments made by the butler of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich to the in-pensioners in lieu of their allowance of provisions, called "The Butler's List," Rep. xiv. 542—Opinion of the Commissioners that no man be admitted on the butler's list at Greenwich Hospital without an order from the council, and that such men as have families in the neighbourhood should be preferred, ib. 545.

See also Saward, William.

Bye-Laws. Recommendation of the Commissioners that the bye-laws and regulations of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich be revised, and a digest made of such as are proper to be retained, Rep. xiv. 550.

C.

Cameron, Master. See "Yarico," The Ship.

"Captain Cook," The Ship. Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq., to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 18 July 1795, reporting the sailing from Riga of the ship "Captain Cook," Gibson, master, for Plymouth, laden with hemp for His Majesty's service, Rep. xii. App. 227, 228.

Cargoes. See Delivery of Cargoes.

Castings of Vouchers. See Examination of Accounts, 1.

"Caton" Hospital Ship (Plymouth). Observations of the Commissioners on the contracts for victualling sick prisoners of war in "Le Caton" hospital ship at Plymouth, between the Commissioners for taking care of sick and wounded seamen and Dr. Thomas Mein, surgeon in His Majesty's navy, Rep. xiii. 363-376.

Cave, Joseph. Examination of Mr. Joseph Cave, of Portsmouth, coal merchant, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 11 February 1806, relative to the price of coals per chaldron at Gosport and Portsmouth on 22 December 1799, and in each month during the year 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 483.

"Centurion," The Ship. Copy of the invoices of masts, spars, and fir deals shipped on board the "Centurion," Captain John Swales, for the river, from Riga, by order, and for account and risk of Andrew Lindegren, esq., Rep. xii. App. 280.

CERTIFICATES :

1. Market Prices of Provisions.
2. Fraudulent Signature of Certificates.
3. Store Certificates.
4. Surgeon's Certificate.
5. Yard Certificates.

1. Market Prices of Provisions :

Obligation on the part of Dr. Mein to furnish the Board for sick and wounded seamen with certificates of the market prices of beef, mutton, beer, bread, and coals at Portsmouth, Plymouth, Bristol, and Chatham, Rep. xiii. 364, 365—Remarks of the Commissioners on the manner in which the certificates of prices sent in by Dr. Mein to the Sick and Wounded Board were obtained, ib. 373, 374—Statement exhibiting the actual prices of beef, mutton, bread, beer, and coals at Gosport and Portsmouth, compared with the prices certified in the certificates sent in by Dr. Mein to the Board, ib. 374—Statement showing the prices paid by Dr. Mein under his agreement with Mr. Owen for beef, mutton, bread, and beer, and the prices inserted in the certificate sent in to the Board for the like articles, on 22 December 1799, ib. 375—Letter from Dr. Thomas Mein to the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded Seamen, dated 17 June 1800, relative to the difficulty in procuring certificates of prices of provisions at the different depôts, and suggesting the adoption of the prices at Haslar Hospital as a standard, Rep. xiii. App. 439.

Copy of certificate, dated 30 June 1800, of the prices of beef, mutton, bread, beer, and coals, at Gosport, in the months of January, February, March, April, May, and June 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 453, 454—Copy of certificate presented by Dr. Mein to the Board for Sick and Wounded Seamen, dated 31 March 1800, of the price of beef, mutton, bread, beer, and coals, at Gosport, 22 December 1799, ib. 455—Copy of certificate presented by Dr. Mein to the Board for Sick and Wounded Seamen, dated 30 June 1800, of the prices of provisions at Gosport, 22 December 1799, ib.—Copies of certificates sent by Mr. Owen of Fareham to the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded Seamen, of the prices of beef, mutton, and oatmeal at Gosport, on 10th January and 4th April 1800, ib. 489.

2. Fraudulent Signature of Certificates :

Suggestions of the Commissioners for the Prevention of Fraudulent Signatures of Certificates, more especially those from foreign countries and the colonies, Rep. xiii. 386, 387.

3. Store Certificates :

Copy of minute of the Committee of Accounts, dated 12 December 1803, with respect to the examination of certificates for stores delivered in His Majesty's yards, Rep. xii. App. 87.

4. Surgeon's

CERTIFICATES—continued.

4. Surgeon's Certificate.

Letter from John Williams, esq., secretary to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, to Mr. T. Blatherwick, formerly surgeon of the Prison Hospital at Portchester, dated 26 April 1806, requesting an explanation of the reasons of the certificate granted to Dr. Mein, of the number of patients victualled at Portchester Hospital differing so materially in respect of the numbers contained in the surgeon's quarterly books, Rep. xiii. App. 513, 514.

5. Yard Certificates :

Copy of the minute of the Committee of accounts of the Navy Board, dated 22 January 1804, directing the method to be pursued in the examination of yard certificates, Rep. xii. App. 87.

See also Consuls. Examination of Accounts, 2. Fraudulent Certificates. Signature of Certificates.

Chalk off List. Nature of the payments made by the butler of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich to the pensioners in lieu of their allowances of provisions, called "Chalk off list," Rep. xiv. 543—Recommendation of the Commissioners that the practice of chalking off the pensioners of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich be abolished, ib. 545.

Chapeaurouge, M. Copy of letter from the First Lord of the Admiralty to the comptroller of the navy, dated 17 January 1797, relative to the employment of Monsieur Chapeaurouge by the French government, in making large purchases of naval stores at Riga, Rep. xii. App. 215.

CHAPELL AND HODGE, Messrs :

1. Broken Stowage of Mast Ships.
2. Examination of Masts from Riga.
3. Sale of Riga Timber.

1. Broken Stowage of Mast Ships :

Circumstance of Messrs. Chapell and Hodge being commissioned to dispose of the broken stowage shipped in the mast ships from Riga for Plymouth dockyard, Rep. xii. 37, 38—Extract of a letter from Messrs Godfrey Thornton & Son to Messrs. Chapell & Hodge of Plymouth dock, dated 31 July, 1797, directing them to dispose of the lath wood and fire-wood brought home in the timber ships from Riga, Rep. xii. App. 276.

2. Examination of Masts from Riga :

Copy of letter from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son to Messrs. Chapell & Hodge of Plymouth dock, dated 9 August 1797, directing an examination of the masts shipped from Riga on board the ships "Nestor" and "Liverpool," Rep. xii. App. 277.

3. Sale of Riga Timber :

Copy of letter from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, to Messrs. Chapell & Hodge of Plymouth dock, dated 15 August 1797, directing the sale of the timber received by the mast ships from Riga, Rep. xii. App. 277.

CHAPLAINS :

1. Greenwich Hospital.
2. Navy Chaplains.

1. Greenwich Hospital :

Particulars of the revenue arising to the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, from the emoluments of the two chaplains to the ordinaries at Deptford and Woolwich, Rep. xiv. 534—Observations of the Commissioners on the circumstance of the chaplain to Greenwich Hospital never having been at sea, ib. 549.

2. Navy Chaplains :

Recommendation of the Commissioners for providing for six or more chaplains of the navy out of the living of Simonburn, in the gift of the commissioners and governors of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. 550, 551.

Chapman, Captain John. See "Ellison," The Ship.

Charge on Greenwich Hospital Estate. Estimate of the annual charge incurred for-buildings, repairs, fencing, planting, law charges, &c. on the estates of the Royal Hospital of Greenwich, in the north, including an annuity to the Earl of Newburgh, Rep. xiv. 539.

CHARITY SCHOOL (GREENWICH HOSPITAL):

1. School Property.
2. Revenue and Expenditure.

1. School Property:

Manner in which the revenues for the support of the school annexed to the establishment of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich are derived, Rep. xiv. 548—Account of the personal property belonging to the establishment of the charity boys at the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, from 1790 to 1805 inclusive, as it stood on 31 December in each year, describing the securities in which it is invested, Rep. xiv. App. 675.

2. Revenue and Expenditure:

Account of the revenue and expenditure of the charity school of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, from 1790 to 1805 inclusive, Rep. xiv. App. 676, 677—Detached account of the expenses of the charity school of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, in the year 1805, ib. 678.

Charter of Greenwich Hospital. Date of the charter of incorporation of Greenwich hospital; power and privileges granted to the institution by the charter, Rep. xiv. 525, 526.

Chatham Depôt. Observations of the Commissioners on the contract for victualling sick pensioners of war at prison hospital at Chatham depôt, between the Commissioners for taking care of sick and wounded seamen, and Dr. Thomas Mein, surgeon in His Majesty's navy, Rep. xiii. 363-367.

See also Bristol Prison Hospital Ship at Chatham. Surgeons of Hospitals, 2. Young, Alexander.

CHATHAM DOCKYARD:

1. Supply of Hemp.
2. Quality of Naval Stores.
3. Distribution of Naval Stores.

1. Supply of Hemp:

Account of the quantity of hemp supplied by commission, and received into His Majesty's yard at Chatham, since 1 January 1793, Rep. xii. App. 132, 133—Copy of warrant from the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy to the officers of Chatham dockyard, dated 5 October 1799, directing the disposal of the Riga hemp consigned to that yard by Mr. Lindegren, ib. 225—Copy of letter from Charles Hope, esq., Commissioner of Chatham yard, to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 16 May 1804, relative to the cargoes of hemp of the "Nymphe" and "Hector," consigned to that yard in 1799, from Riga, ib. 226.

2. Quality of Naval Stores:

Copy of letter from the officers of His Majesty's yard at Chatham to the Committee of Stores, dated 24 August 1797, relative to the quality of the hemp consigned to that yard, bought by commission at Riga, Rep. xii. App. 216—Copy of letter from the officers of Chatham yard to the Navy Board, dated 18 November 1799, relative to the inferior quality of the hemp from Riga, brought in the ship "Nymphe," Robert Dawson master, ib. 223, 224—Copy of letter from the officers of His Majesty's yard at Chatham, to the Honourable Navy Board, dated 19 September 1799, complaining of the inferior quality of the Riga hemp, unloaded from the ship "Hector," John Pringle master, ib. 224—Copy of letter from the officers of His Majesty's yard at Chatham, to the Honourable Navy Board, dated 25 September 1799, reporting on the inferior quality of the Riga hemp, landed at that yard from the ship "Nymphe," Robert Dawson, master, ib.—Copy of letter from the officers of His Majesty's yard at Chatham to the Honourable the Navy Board, dated 30 September 1799, reporting upon the inferior quality of Riga hemp unloaded from that yard, from the ship "Hector," John Pringle, master, ib. 224, 225—Copy of letter from the officers of Chatham ropeyard to the Honourable Navy Board, dated 3 October 1799, reporting upon the inferior quality of the Riga hemp received at that yard out of the "Hector," ib. 225.

3. Distribution of Naval Stores:

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy to Andrew Lindgren, esq., dated 20 April 1797, directing the distribution of the Norway goods and Riga timber to be delivered at His Majesty's yard at Chatham, Rep. xii. App. 274, 275.

See also Hope, Charles. Ropeyard at Chatham.

Chepstow, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Chepstow, in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

Chester, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Chester, in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

4—Reports, 1806—continued.

Chichester, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Chichester, in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

Chief Clerk of the Sick and Wounded Office. Circumstance of Dr. Muir making presents of money to the chief clerk of the Sick and Wounded Office, through whose department his accounts were to pass, Rep. xiii. 386.

Church Patronage. Particulars respecting the church patronage belonging to the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, in the gift of the governors, Rep. xiv. 550.

Civil Officers (Greenwich Hospital). Observations of the Commissioners on the declaration of the charter, requiring that all officers employed in the Royal Hospital at Greenwich shall be seafaring men, or such as have been disabled in the sea service, Rep. xiv. 549—Circumstance of the places of first clerk to the steward and first mate to the butler in the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, being held by the same person, ib. 550—Return of the names of such persons on the establishment of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich as have not been employed in His Majesty's navy, Rep. xiv. App. 679.

Claims of Government Agent. See Purchase of Naval Stores.

Clay, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Clay, in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

Clearing Bills. Recommendation of the Commissioners, when accounts are directed by the Navy Board to be passed, that the clearing bills should be immediately made out, and not neglected, Rep. xii. 49.

Clerk of the Cheque (Greenwich Hospital). Duty of the clerk of the cheque of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich with respect to checking the accounts of the payments of money made by the butler of the hospital to the pensioners and nurses in lieu of their allowances of provisions, Rep. xiv. 544-546.—See also Smith, Richard.

Clerk of the Ropeyard at Plymouth. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of the clerk of the ropeyard at Plymouth, with reference to the inferior quality of the hemp delivered at that yard by persons employed by the Navy Board, during the late war, Rep. xii. 3.

Cloux, Henry. Examination of Mr. Henry Cloux, barber of Greenwich Hospital, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 14 April 1806, relative to his duties, salary, and emoluments, Rep. xiv. App. 679, 680.

COALS:

1. Haslar Hospital.
2. Gosport.
3. Fareham.
4. Portsmouth Borough.

1. Haslar Hospital:

Statement showing the average prices of coals in each month in the year 1800, according to the evidence of the witnesses examined at Portsmouth, and the average prices according to the weekly returns of the governor of Haslar Hospital, Rep. xiii. 378—Copy of letter from the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen to the governors of Haslar Hospital, dated 14 April 1800, relative to retaining a stock of coals at Haslar Hospital for six weeks' consumption, Rep. xiii. App. 509—Copy of minute of the Sick and Wounded Board, dated 25 October 1799, on the subject of the coal contract for the supply of Haslar Hospital, ib. 518.

2. Gosport:

Statement of the average price of coals per chaldron at Gosport in each month during the year 1800 and 1801, Rep. xiii. App. 480, 481.

3. Fareham:

Statement of the average price of coals at Fareham in the month of December 1799, and in each month during the year 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 482, 483.

4. Portsmouth Borough:

Statement of the average price of coals at Portsmouth the chaldron, on 22 December 1799, and in each month during the year 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 483.

See also Waters, Mr.

Colchester (Essex). Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Colchester in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

Collection of the Light Dues. Amount of the gross collection for the Foreland lights in each year from 1790 to 1805, both inclusive, showing the sums paid for salaries, and the amount of the other disbursements in each year respectively, Rep. xiv. App. 602.

Collison, Mr. Appointment of Mr. Collison, a land surveyor of Brackley in Northamptonshire, to accompany the committee of directors of Greenwich Hospital to visit the Derwentwater and other estates in the north, Rep. xiv, 527.

COLPOYS, ADMIRAL SIR JOHN, K. B.:

1. Visitation of Greenwich Hospital Estates.
2. Simonburn Rectory.
3. Balance of the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital.

1. Visitation of Greenwich Hospital Estate:

Occasion of the appointment of Admiral Sir John Colpoys a member of a committee of directors of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, to visit the hospital estates in the north, Rep. xiv, 527—Copy of minute of a court of directors of Greenwich Hospital, held at Salters' Hall 31 July 1805, appointing Sir John Colpoys, K. B., a member of a committee of visitation of the hospital estates in the north, Rep. xiv. App. 564.

2. Simonburn Rectory:

Examination of Admiral Sir John Colpoys, K. B., treasurer of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 18 April 1806, respecting the living of the parish of Simonburn belonging to the hospital, Rep. xiv. App. 680.

3. Balance of the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital:

Copy of letter from Admiral Sir John Colpoys, treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, to John Dyer, esq., dated 27 April 1806, relative to the large balances of public money which from time to time remain in his hands as treasurer, and suggesting their investment in the public funds, Rep. xiv. App. 683.

COMMISSION:

1. Merchants' Commission.
2. Government Agents abroad.
3. American War.
4. Mr. Andrew Lindegren.
5. Messrs. Godfrey, Thornton and Son.
6. Messrs. Thorley, Morrison & Co.
7. Receivers of Greenwich Hospital
8. Collectors of Light Dues.

1. Merchants' Commission:

Observation of the Commissioners on the amount of the commission charged on the purchase and delivery of 4,160 tons of Riga hemp into His Majesty's yards, Rep. xii. 8. 15.

2. Government Agents abroad:

Rates of commission allowed Mr. Lindegren, Messrs. Godfrey Thornton and Son, and Messrs. Thorley, Morrison & Co., for purchases of hemp made by them at Riga for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. 14. 20. 23—Rate of commission allowed Mr. Lindegren and Messrs. Thorley, Morrison & Co. on the purchases of masts, fir timber, &c. imported in 1795 and 1796, ib. 32, 33.

3. American War:

Account of the rates of commission granted to persons employed by the Navy Board to purchase naval stores, during the American war, Rep. xii. App. 145—Letter from the secretary of the Navy Board to the secretary of the Naval Inquiry Commission, dated 20 August 1805, respecting the rate of commission allowed Messrs. Wale, Pierson & Co. on their purchases of masts at Riga, in the American war, ib. 260.

4. Mr. Andrew Lindegren:

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 12 June 1795, on the subject of the allowance of commission on purchases and travelling expenses, Rep. xii. App. 201, 202—Copy of minutes of the committee of accounts of the Navy Board, dated 7 and 10 August 1798, on the amount of commission to be allowed Mr. Lindegren, on the stores purchased by him at Riga for the service of the navy, ib. 216, 217—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 29 April 1805, relative to the allowance of commission to Mr. Lindegren for the purchase of naval stores at Riga, ib. 218, 219—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 14 May 1805, on the subject of the commission allowed Mr. Lindegren for the purchase of naval stores secretly for Government, ib. 221—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 16 May 1805, respecting the agreement entered into with Mr. Lindegren for the purchase of naval stores on commission for Government, ib. 221, 222—Letter from COMMISSION—continued.

4. Mr. Andrew Lindegren—continued.

from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 30 November 1799, relative to the amount of commission that he is to receive on the purchase of masts at Riga for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 284, 285.

5. Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son :

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, dated 13 June 1795, relative to the rate of commission to be allowed their firm for the purchase of hemp for the service of the navy, Rep. xii. App. 202.

6. Messrs. Thorley, Morison & Co :

Copy of minutes of the committee of accounts of the Navy Board, dated 10 August 1798, on the subject of the commission to be allowed Messrs. Thorley and Morison on the hemp purchased by them at Riga for the service of the navy, Rep. xii. App. 217.

7. Receivers of Greenwich Hospital :

Amount of remuneration made to the receivers of the Greenwich Hospital estates in the north upon the gross amount of their collection, Rep. xiv. 529, 530.

8. Collectors of Light Dues :

Rate of commission allowed to the collectors of customs at the out-ports for the collection of the duties arising from the North and South Foreland lighthouses, belonging to the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. 533—Account of the commission paid to the several collectors of the light dues by the Commissioners of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. App. 601.

See also Agents, 1.

COMMISSION AGENTS :

1. Purchase of foreign Naval Stores.
2. Enhancement of Prices.
3. Private Trading.

1. Purchase of foreign Naval Stores :

Observations of the Commissioners on the practice of procuring foreign naval stores for the service of His Majesty's Navy by means of commission agents, Rep. xii. 3-18—Circumstance of the Government employing Mr. Cornwall Smalley, a partner in the house of Thorntons & Smalley, as commission agent at Petersburg, for purchasing hemp and other naval stores for His Majesty's navy, ib. 26.

2. Enhancement of Prices :

Observations of the Commissioners on the tendency of the employment of a Government agent to enhance the price of hemp at Riga, Rep. xii. 9, 10.

3. Private Trading :

Opinion of the Commissioners that agents should be required to make affidavits that they were in no way interested in the articles purchased previous to their being obtained by Government, Rep. xii. 48.

See also Lindegren, Andrew. Smalley, Cornwall.

Commissioners of Naval Inquiry. Copy of letter from the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 29 April 1805, relative to the allowance of commission to Mr. Lindegren for the purchase of naval stores at Riga, Rep. xii. App. 218, 219—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 14 May 1805, on the subject of the commission allowed Mr. Lindegren for the purchase of naval stores secretly for Government at Riga, ib. 221.

Commissioners of the Navy. See Gambier, Samuel. Hamond, Sir Andrew Snape, Bart. Harwood, Harry. Hartwell, Sir Francis John, Navy Board.

COMMITTEE OF ACCOUNTS :

1. Examination of Certificates for Stores.
2. Yard Certificates.
3. Agent's Commission.

1. Examination of Certificates for Stores :

Copy of minute of the Committee of Accounts, dated 12 December 1803, with respect to the examination of certificates for stores delivered in His Majesty's dockyards, Rep. xii. App. 87.

COMMITTEE OF ACCOUNTS—continued.

2. Yard Certificates:

Copy of the minute of the Committee of Accounts to the Navy Board, dated 22 January 1804, directing the method to be pursued in the examination of yard certificates, Rep. xii. App. 87.

3. Agent's Commission:

Copy of minutes of the Committee of Accounts of the Navy Board, dated 7 and 10 August 1798, on the amount of commission to be allowed Mr. Lindegren on the stores purchased by him at Riga for the service of the navy, Rep. xii. App. 216, 217—Copy of minute of the Committee of Accounts to the Navy Board, dated 10 August 1798, on the subject of the commission to be allowed Messrs. Thorley & Morison, on the hemp purchased by them at Riga for the service of the navy, ib. 217.

Committee of Directors (Greenwich Hospital). Occasion of a committee of directors of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich being appointed to visit the estates of the hospital in the north, Rep. xiv. 527.

Committee of Stores. See Rule, Sir William.

Commutation of Allowances. Opinion of the Commissioners that the pensioners of Greenwich Hospital on the butler's list should be required to commute the whole of their allowances of provisions, Rep. xiv. 545, 546.

COMPENSATIONS FOR LOSSES:

1. Dr. Mein's Victualling Contract.
2. Messrs. Joseph Hay & Co.'s Provision Contract.
3. Fraudulent Claims of Compensations.

1. Dr. Mein's Victualling Contract:

Amount of money granted by the Board for Sick and Wounded Seamen to Dr. Mein, by way of compensation for losses said to have been sustained by him in the performance of his first contract, Rep. xiii. 365—Account of the amount paid to Dr. Mein under the contract of 26 March 1800, for the increase in the prices of the articles supplied, ib. 377—Comparison of the quantities of beef and mutton supplied to the prisoners at the prison hospital at Forton, in the months of November and December 1800, and the quantities on which Dr. Mein received the additions for the increase of prices during those months, ib. 382—Copy of letter from the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded Seamen to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 4 November 1805, relative to the compensation made to Dr. Mein for the loss sustained by him in his contract for victualling sick prisoners of war, dated 22 December 1799, ib. 490, 491.

2. Messrs. Joseph Hay & Co.'s Provision Contract.

Copy of letter from Messrs. Joseph Hay & Co. to the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded Seamen, dated 23 July 1800, urging the Board to make them an allowance for the losses which they have sustained on their contract, Rep. xiii. App. 505.

3. Fraudulent Claims of Compensations:

Remarks of the Commissioners on the impositions to which the public is exposed in making of advances on contract prices, and the irregularities which occur in the mode of granting such allowances, Rep. xiii. 387, 388.

COMPTROLLER OF THE NAVY:

1. Secret Naval Services.
2. Purchase of Hemp and Naval Stores at Riga.
3. Instructions to Mr. Lindegren.
4. Private Trading of Government Agent at Riga.
5. Employment of Mr. Cornwall Smalley.
6. Mr. Cornwall Smalley's Instructions.

1. Secret Naval Services:

Occasion of the comptroller of the navy receiving directions, by an Order in Council, to execute certain services of a secret nature, under the authority of the First Lord of the Admiralty, Rep. xii. 28, 29—Copy of instructions given by Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 9 January 1795, relative to proceeding to Riga to purchase hemp and masts secretly for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 61, 62.

2. Purchase of Hemp and Naval Stores at Riga:

Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of the comptroller of the navy, relative to the advantages of the employment of a Government agent at Riga to purchase hemp and other naval stores for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. 10, 11—
Examination

COMPTROLLER OF THE NAVY—continued.

2. Purchase of Hemp and Naval Stores at Riga—continued.

Examination of the comptroller of the navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 25 March 1805, relative to the circumstances which led to the employment of an agent to purchase hemp and other naval stores at Riga, Rep. xii. App. 62-66.

3. Instructions to Mr. Lindegren :

Examination of the comptroller of the navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 26 March 1805, relative to the instructions given to Mr. Lindegren to purchase hemp and other naval stores at Riga secretly, Rep. xii. App. 66-70—Copy of the instructions from the comptroller of the navy to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 20 January 1797, relative to the purchase of hemp and other naval stores on commission at Riga, secretly for the service of the navy, ib. 215, 216—Copy of instructions from the comptroller of the navy to Mr. Lindegren, dated 6 March 1799, relative to the purchase of hemp and other naval stores for the use of the navy, in Russia, ib. 223.

4. Private Trading of Government Agent at Riga :

Examination of the comptroller of the navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Navy Inquiry, 19 June 1805, respecting the private trading of Mr. Andrew Lindegren, the agent appointed by Government to purchase hemp and naval stores at Riga, Rep. xii. App. 74-76.

5. Employment of Mr. Cornwall Smalley :

Examination of the comptroller of the navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 30 March 1805, respecting the employment of Mr. Cornwall Smalley to purchase hemp at Petersburg secretly, for the service of the navy, Rep. xii. App. 70-72.

6. Mr. Cornwall Smalley's Instructions :

Copy of instructions from the comptroller of the navy to Mr. Cornwall Smalley, dated 9 December 1796, to purchase hemp at Petersburg secretly for Government, Rep. xii. App. 222.

See also Hamond, Sir Andrew Snape, Bart.

Consuls. Opinion of the Commissioners that all certificates of the rates of exchange, and of the prices of articles purchased abroad for His Majesty's service, should be signed by the British consuls, Rep. xii. 386, 387.

CONTRACTS:

1. Foreign Naval Stores.
2. Hemp Contract.
3. Mast Contract.
4. Messrs. Samuel Sanders & Co.
5. Thornton Brothers & Co.
6. Victualling Sick Prisoners of War.
7. Greenwich Hospital.
8. Advances on Contract Prices.
9. Profits on Contracts.
10. Vacation of Contracts.
11. Transfer of Contracts.

1. Foreign Naval Stores :

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of contracting for naval stores required for His Majesty's service, Rep. xii. 4, 5.

2. Hemp Contract :

Abstract account showing the total quantities of hemp contracted for by the Navy Board in each year, from 1793 to 1800, both years inclusive, Rep. xii. App. 226.

3. Mast Contract :

Copy of contract made by the Navy Board with Mr. Andrew Lindegren for Riga masts, dated 3 May 1799, Rep. xii. App. 316, 317—Copy of contract made by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy with Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 3 April 1804, for Riga masts and fir timber for the service of His Majesty's navy, ib. 328-330.

4. Messrs. Samuel Sanders & Co. :

Copy of contract, dated 2 May 1800, made by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy with Mr. Samuel Sanders, for Riga masts and fir timber for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 319-321.

4—Reports, 1806—continued.

*CONTRACTS—continued.*5. Thornton Brothers & Co. :

Copy of contract made by the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy with Messrs. Thornton Brothers & Co., dated 3 April 1804, for the supply of Riga masts and fir timber for the service of His Majesty's Navy, Rep. xii. App. 330-333.

6. Victualling Sick Prisoners of War :

Observations of the Commissioners on the contracts for victualling sick prisoners of war, between the Commissioners for taking care of sick and wounded seamen and Dr. Thomas Mein, surgeon in His Majesty's navy, Rep. xiii. App. 363-376—Observations of the Commissioners on the terms of the second contract entered into by the Board for Sick and Wounded Seamen and Dr. Mein, for victualling sick prisoners of war at the depôts, ib. 376-384—Copy of contract made by Dr. Mein with the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded Seamen for victualling sick prisoners of war, dated 21 December 1799, ib. 395, 396—Copy of contract made by Dr. Mein with the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded Seamen for victualling sick prisoners of war, dated 26 March 1800, ib. 396-398—Copy of contract made by Dr. Mein with the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded Seamen, dated 26 November 1800, ib. 398-400—Account showing the average price paid in each month for beef, mutton, bread, beer, and coals supplied to the Royal hospitals at Plymouth and Haslar, and also the prices paid to Dr. Thomas Mein for the like articles furnished for the use of the sick prisoners of war at the different depôts mentioned in his contract of 21 December 1799, from the 22d of that month to 31 December 1800, ib. 484, 485.

7. Greenwich Hospital :

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of contracting for provisions and all other articles of consumption in the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. 541—Account of the contracts in force on 1 March 1806 for supplying the Royal Hospital at Greenwich with provisions and other articles, Rep. xiv. App. 640-645.

8. Advances on Contract Prices :

Steps taken by the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded Seamen to guard against the imposition to which the public are exposed in making of advances on contract prices, Rep. xiii. 387, 388—Copy of minute of the Sick and Wounded Board, dated 4 March 1796, with respect to making advances in contracts, Rep. xiii. App. 517.

9. Profits on Contracts :

Observations of the Commissioners on the very large profits which Dr. Mein must have derived from his two first contracts with the Board for Sick and Wounded Seamen, for victualling sick prisoners of war, Rep. xiii. 384.

10. Vacation of Contracts :

Observations of the Commissioners on the conduct of the Sick and Wounded Board, in allowing contractors to vacate their contracts at pleasure, Rep. xiii. 388.

11. Transfer of Contracts :

Observations of the Commissioners on the system of transferring contracts entered into by the Navy Board for supplying His Majesty's several dockyards with Riga masts and fir timber, Rep. xii. 51-53—Opinion of the Commissioners that all persons interested in contracts should be named therein, and that no share or interest in contracts should be transferred without the knowledge and approbation of the public Boards, ib. 52—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 29 October 1805, relative to the transfer of the contracts for the supply of Riga masts and fir timber for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 319.

See also Advances on Contracts. Vacation of Contracts.

Cooke, William. Copy of opinion of William Cooke, esq., of Lincoln's Inn, barrister-at-law, dated 27 August 1800, on the case submitted by Dr. Mein and the assignees of Mr. Richard Owen, with respect to the articles of agreement entered into between Dr. Mein and Mr. Owen on 22d December 1799, Rep. xiii. 496, 497.

Copenhagen. See Selby & Co., Messrs.

Copper Mines. Mode of leasing the copper mines belonging to the Royal Hospital of Greenwich, in the north of England, Rep. xiv. 529.

Cost of Maintenance. Account showing the total number of persons victualled and the sums paid to Dr. Thomas Mein in each month, under his contract 26 March 1800; and also the average cost of one person for a day in each month, Rep. xiii. App. 515.

See also Nurses (Greenwich Hospital). Pensioners (Greenwich Hospital), 2.

Costs. See Bills of Costs.

Council of Greenwich Hospital. Copy of minute of the council of the commissioners and governors of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, dated 14 July 1725, relating to the buying of the pensioners, such part of their provisions as they might have to spare, and to prevent them selling any part out of the house, Rep. xiv. App. 658, 659—Copy of minute of council of the commissioners and governors of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, dated 4 August 1725, respecting the pensioners selling their allowances of provisions to any but the steward of the hospital, ib. 659—Minute of council of commissioners and governors of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, dated 9 August 1776, directing the abolition of the practice of the pensioners selling their provisions, ib. 665, 666.—See also General Court of Commissioners.

Counsel to the Admiralty. See Jervis, T.

COUNSEL'S OPINION :

1. Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica.
2. Agreement for victualling Sick Prisoners of War.

1. Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica :

Copy of opinion of the law officers of the Crown on the case of Mr. James Dick, late naval storekeeper at Jamaica, appropriating the premium on bills drawn on the Navy Board, to his own advantage, Rep. xii. 353-355.

2. Agreement for victualling Sick Prisoners of War :

Copy of case submitted for the opinion of counsel by Dr. Thomas Mein, and the assignees of Mr. Richard Owen, with respect to the articles of agreement entered into between Dr. Mein and Mr. Owen, on 26 December 1799, Rep. xiii. App. 495-497.

Court of Directors of Greenwich Hospital. Copy of minute of a court of directors of Greenwich Hospital, held at Salters' Hall on 31 July 1805, relative to the proposed visitation of the hospital estates in the north, Rep. xiv. App. 564.

Cowes, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Cowes in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

Customs. See Receiver-General of Customs.

D.

Dartmouth, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Dartmouth, in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

Davis, William Gregory. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Mr. William Gregory Davis, relative to the abuses and irregularities in the office of naval storekeeper at Jamaica, Rep. xii. 338-350—Examination of Mr. William Gregory Davis, first clerk in the office for examining foreign accounts in the Navy Office, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 31 January 1803, relative to the examination and check which the accounts of naval officers at foreign stations undergo in the Navy Office, Rep. xii. App. 351, 352.

Dawson, Robert. See "Nymph," The Ship.

Deal, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Deal in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

DEALS :

1. Portsmouth Yard.
2. Norway Deals.

1. Portsmouth Yard :

Account of deals received into His Majesty's stores at Portsmouth yard from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton and Son, on Government account, out of the "Barnes" transport, per Navy Board's warrant of 25 September 1725, Rep. xii. App. 262.

2. Norway Deals :

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Andrew Lindgren, dated 20 August 1797, signifying the wishes of the Navy Board with respect to the distribution of the Norway deals to be delivered at His Majesty's dockyards, Rep. xii. App. 274, 275.

Delivery of Cargoes. Statement by the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth, of the number of days the "Aurora," "Young William," "Harriet," "Liberty," "Lord Hood," and "Favorite," were respectively delivering their cargoes at that yard, Rep. xii. App. 270.

Depôts. Observations of the Commissioners on the contracts for victualling sick prisoners of war at the several depôts, between the Commissioners for taking care of sick and wounded seamen and Dr. Thomas Mein, surgeon in His Majesty's navy, Rep. xiii. 363-376—Copy of letter from Dr. Mein to the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded Seamen, dated 18 December 1800, tendering for the contract for supplying the hospitals and depôts of Plymouth, Portsmouth, Chatham, and Stapleton with provisions, Rep. xiii. App. 400.

DEPTFORD DOCKYARD:

1. Foreign Timber imported.
2. Distribution of Naval Stores.

1. Foreign Timber imported:

Copy of letter from the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Deptford to John Williams, esq., dated 16 September 1805, relative to the manner in which the Norway masts sent on shore from the ship "Adventure" were disposed of, Rep. xii. App. 260.

2. Distribution of Naval Stores:

Copy of letter of Navy Board to Mr. Lindegren, dated 20 April 1797, directing the distribution of the Norway goods and the Riga timber to be delivered by Mr. Lindegren at His Majesty's yard at Deptford, Rep. xii. App. 274, 275.

Deputations to Receivers. Observations of the Commissioners on the heavy expense incurred by the corporation of Greenwich Hospital for law charges on granting of new deputations to receivers of unclaimed and forfeited shares of prize and bounty monies, Rep. xiv. 538, 539—Form of deputation of the treasurer and receiver-general of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich to receivers of unclaimed and forfeited shares of prize and bounty monies, Rep. xvi. App. 637, 638.

Deputy Receivers of Greenwich Hospital. Recommendation of the Commissioners for lessening the charges of the solicitor of Greenwich Hospital on the appointment of deputy receivers, Rep. xiv. 539, 540.

Deputy Treasurer for Greenwich Hospital. Examination of Edward Bate, esq., deputy treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 16 April 1806, respecting the collection of the revenues of Greenwich Hospital, Rep. xvi. App. 562, 563.—See also Ellis, Mr.

Derrick, Mr. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Mr. Derrick, secretary to the Navy Board, relative to the abuses and irregularities in the office of naval storekeeper at Jamaica, Rep. xii. App. 338-350.

DERWENTWATER ESTATE:

1. Grant of Estates to Greenwich Hospital.
2. Law Charges.
3. Lead Mines.
4. Receivers.
5. Receipt and Expenditure.

1. Grant of Estates to Greenwich Hospital:

Occasion of the estates of the Earl of Derwentwater being granted to the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. 525.

2. Law Charges:

Observations of the Commissioners on the heavy expenses of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, for law charges for the Derwentwater estate, Rep. xiv. 538.

3. Lead Mines:

Account of the net proceeds of the lead mines on the Derwentwater estate, belonging to the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, in the years 1799, 1804, and 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 585—Account of the gross produce of the lead mines of the Derwentwater estate, the expense of smelting and refining, and the net proceeds, from 1796 to 1805 inclusive, ib. 592.

4. Receivers:

Account of the salaries and other emoluments of the receivers of the Derwentwater estate for the year 1804, and the net receipt on an average of the years 1801, 1802, and 1803, each year ending with 21 November, Rep. xiv. App. 586, 587.

5. Receipt and Expenditure.

Detailed account of the receipt and expenditure of the Derwentwater estate, from 22 November 1804 to 21 November 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 590, 591.

DICK, JAMES :

1. Office of Naval Storekeeper.
2. Premium on Navy Bills.
3. Counsel's Opinion.

1. Office of Naval Storekeeper :

Observations of the Commissioners on the abuses and irregularities in the office of naval storekeeper at Jamaica by Mr. James Dick, Rep. xii. App. 338-350—Observations of the Commissioners on the conduct of the Navy Board, in allowing Mr. Dick to remain so long in his situation of storekeeper, notwithstanding many suspicious circumstances in his conduct, ib. 347-350.

2. Premium on Navy Bills :

Amount of the sum derived by Mr. James Dick, from the premium on bills drawn by him on the Navy Board, whilst filling the office of naval storekeeper at Jamaica, Rep. xii. App. 342—Observations of the Commissioners on the conduct of the Navy Board in permitting Mr. Dick, the successor of Mr. Smith, naval storekeeper at Jamaica, to draw bills upon the Navy Board, without adverting to the circumstances of his not having brought the premium upon them to account until September 1800, ib. 347.

3. Counsel's Opinion :

Case of Mr. James Dick, late naval storekeeper at Jamaica, as submitted to the attorney and solicitor general, and the counsel for the Admiralty, with their opinion thereon, Rep. xii. App. 353-355.

DIET :

1. Sick Prisoners of War.
2. Porchester Castle.
3. Greenwich Hospital.
4. Infirmary of Greenwich Hospital.

1. Sick Prisoners of War :

Statement of the sick diet to be provided for prisoners of war, according to the directions of the surgeons, Rep. xiii. 379.

2. Porchester Castle :

Reason of the numbers of prisoners on the different diets stated in the monthly returns of the surgeon of Porchester hospital differing so widely from the numbers as entered in the quarterly books at the hospital, Rep. xiii. 382.

3. Greenwich Hospital :

Table of allowances of provisions to a pensioner in the Royal Hospital at Greenwich for every day in the week, Rep. xiv. 542—Minute of a meeting of the directors of Greenwich Hospital, held at Salters' Hall 14 August 1776, respecting the manner in which the pensioners in the helpless ward are victualled, and the expense which will attend the making an alteration in their diet, Rep. xiv. App. 666.

4. Infirmary of Greenwich Hospital :

Return of the number of patients victualled in the infirmary of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, on what is called the infirmary or physical diet, for one day in the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 651.

DIRECTORS OF GREENWICH HOSPITAL :

1. Appointment of the Board.
2. Emoluments of Receivers of Hospital Estates.
3. Attendances of the Solicitor.
4. Sale of Provisions by Pensioners and Nurses.
5. Diet of Patients.
6. Treasurer's Balances.

1. Appointment of the Board :

Appointment by the charter of a standing committee of the governor, deputy-governor, treasurer, auditor, and 20 other persons, styled directors of the hospital; powers delegated to them by charter, Rep. xiv. 526,

2. Emoluments of Receivers of Hospital Estates :

Copy of minute of a meeting of directors of Greenwich Hospital, held at that place on 10 August 1805, directing an inquiry into the amount of salaries and other emoluments of the receivers of the hospital estates in the north, and the persons employed under them, Rep. xiv. App. 564.

DIRECTORS OF GREENWICH HOSPITAL—continued.3. Attendances of the Solicitor :

Minute of a meeting of the directors of Greenwich Hospital, held at Salters' Hall on 27 March 1805, directing their secretary and solicitor to attend Sir William Scott, judge of the High Court of Admiralty, about preparing a bill to be brought before Parliament, for regulating the distribution of prize money, Rep. xiv. App. 638.

4. Sale of Provisions by Pensioners and Nurses :

Copy of minute of the directors of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, dated 9 January 1724-5, respecting the prices it might be proper to allow the pensioners for their spare provisions, and preventing the patients in the infirmary from selling their victuals, Rep. xiv. App. 657, 658—Minute of a meeting of the directors of Greenwich Hospital, dated 3 August 1776, on the inconveniences which attend the practice of the pensioners selling their provisions, with a view to its abolition, ib. 665—Minute of a meeting of the directors of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, dated 10 August 1776, on the subject of the practice of the pensioners selling their provisions, ib. 666.

5. Diet of Patients :

Minute of a meeting of the directors of Greenwich Hospital, held at Salters' Hall, 14 August 1776, respecting the manner in which the pensioners in the helpless ward are victualled, and the expense which will attend the making an alteration in their diet, Rep. xiv. App. 666.

6. Treasurer's Balances :

Minute of a meeting of the directors of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, dated 27 April 1805, with reference to the investment of a portion of the balances in the hands of the treasurer in the public funds, Rep. xiv. App. 684—Minute of a meeting of the directors of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, held at Salters' Hall on 8 May 1805, directing the payment of the treasurer's balance into the Bank of England, and the investment of the surplus in the purchase of stock, ib.

See also Committee of Directors.

Disbursements of Agent. See Purchases of Naval Stores, 4.

Discount. See Policies of Insurance.

Dismissal from Office. Circumstances attending the dismissal from office of Mr. Smith, the naval storekeeper at Jamaica, Rep. xii. App. 342.

Dispenser of Medicines. Observations of the Commissioners on the duties of the dispenser at the infirmary at Greenwich Hospital, in providing wine and spirits for the patients, Rep. xiv. 546.

Distribution of Prize Money. Observations of the Commissioners on the regulations adopted under the Act 45 Geo. 3, c. 72, with respect to the distribution of prize money to the seamen of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xiv. 534, 535—Minute of a meeting of the directors of Greenwich Hospital, held at Salters' Hall on 27 March 1805, directing their secretary and solicitor to attend Sir William Scott, judge of the High Court of Admiralty, about preparing a Bill to be brought before Parliament for regulating the distribution of prize money, Rep. xiv. App. 638.—See also Prize Office.

Distribution of Stores. Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 20 April 1797, signifying the wishes of the Navy Board with respect to the distribution of the Norway goods and Riga timber to be delivered at His Majesty's dockyards, Rep. xii. App. 274, 275.

DOCKYARD OFFICERS :

1. Chatham Yard.
2. Deptford Yard.
3. Plymouth Yard.
4. Portsmouth Yard.

1. Chatham Yard :

Copy of letter from the officers of His Majesty's yard at Chatham to the Committee of Stores, dated 24 August 1797, relative to the quality of the hemp consigned to that yard, bought by commission at Riga, Rep. xii. App. 216—Copy of letter from the officers of Chatham dockyard to the Honorable Navy Board, dated 18 November 1799, relative to the inferior quality of the hemp from Riga, brought by the ship "Nymph," Robert Dawson, master, ib. 223, 224—Copy of letter from the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Chatham to the Honorable Navy Board, dated 19 September 1799, complaining of the inferior quality of the Riga hemp unloaded from the ship "Hector," John Pringle

DOCKYARD OFFICERS—continued.

1. Chatham Yard—continued.

Pringle, master, Rep. xii. App. 224—Copy of letter from the officers of His Majesty's yard at Chatham to the Honorable Navy Board, dated 25 September 1799, reporting on the inferior quality of the Riga hemp landed at that yard from the ship "Nymph," Robert Dawson, master, ib.—Copy of letter from the officers of His Majesty's yard at Chatham to the Honorable Navy Board, dated 30 September 1799, reporting upon the inferior quality of Riga hemp unloaded at that yard from the ship "Hector," John Pringle, master, ib. 224, 225—Copy of letter from the officers of Chatham roperyard to the Honorable Navy Board, dated 3 October 1799, reporting upon the inferior quality of the Riga hemp received at that yard by the "Hector," ib. 225.

2. Deptford Yard:

Letter from the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Deptford to the Secretary of the Naval Inquiry Commission, dated 16 September 1805, acquainting him of their inability to state in what manner the Norway masts sent on shore from the ship "Adventure," were disposed of, Rep. xii. App. 260.

3. Plymouth Yard:

Copy of the report of the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth to the Honorable Navy Board, dated 28 October 1797, on the quality of the hemp purchased by commission at Riga by Mr. Lindegren, Rep. xii. App. 59—Copy of the report of the officers of Plymouth yard, dated 4 November 1797, on the same subject, ib. 59, 60—Copy of report of the Plymouth officers, dated 6 January 1798, on the same, ib. 60.

4. Portsmouth Yard:

Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth, dated 13 October 1796, directing them not to receive any fir timber or Norway masts out of the Riga mast ships consigned by Mr. Lindegren, Rep. xii. App. 259—Copy of letter from the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth to the Committee of Stores, dated 9 December 1796, respecting the receipt of Riga fir timber from Mr. Lindegren, ib.—Copy of report from the officers of His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth to the secretary of the Commission of Naval Inquiry, dated 7 May 1805, of the masts, fir timber, &c., received from Mr. Lindegren, between the years 1795 and 1801, ib. 264—Copy of report of the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 19 April 1797, of the number of masts, bowsprits, spars, and pieces of square fir timber received from Mr. Lindegren at that yard, ib. 265-270—Extract of a letter from the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth, dated 14 November 1797, reporting on the quality of the hemp delivered at that yard from the "Supply" hemp ship, ib. 314.

Dodds, Master. See "Freedom," The Ship.

Dover, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Dover in each quarter of the year, 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

Duty on Foreign Timber. Circumstance of Mr. Lindegren charging the duty to the public upon several parcels of fire-wood imported in the mast ships on his own private account, Rep. xii. 35, 36.

Dyer, John. Examination of John Dyer, esq., secretary to the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners, 19 May 1806, relative to the title to admission into Greenwich Hospital, and the value of the hospital estates in the north, Rep. xiv. App. 582-585.

E.

East Indies. Regulations adopted by the Act of 45 Geo. 3, c. 72, with respect to the payment of prize-money to the seamen in His Majesty's service in the East Indies, Rep. xiv. 534.

Eddington, William. See "Peggy," The Ship.

Edgar, William. See "Asphalon," The Ship. "Liberty," The Ship.

Edinburgh Depôt Hospital. Circumstance of the Board for Sick and Wounded Seamen engaging Messrs. Hay & Company to provide for the sick prisoners of war at Edinburgh Depôt, Rep. xiii. 376—Copy of letter from the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded Seamen to Messrs. Hay & Co., dated 20 December 1799, directing them to take steps for victualling the sick French prisoners of war at the depôts at Edinburgh depôt, Rep. xiii. App. 504.

Edwards, William. Examination of Mr. William Edwards of Portsmouth, butcher, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 11 February 1806, relative to the prices of beef and mutton at Portsmouth, in the years 1800 and 1801, Rep. xiii. App. 466, 467.

Ellis, Mr. Circumstance of Mr. Ellis, deputy treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, compromising a debt due to the corporation of commissioners and governors, by taking an estate in the island of Jamaica, Rep. xiv. 532.

"Ellison," The Ship. Copy of invoice of Rhine hemp sold to Andrew Lindegren, esq., and shipped by his order, and for his account and risque, on board the ship "Ellison," Captain John Chapman, Rep. xii. App. 197—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq., to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 5 August 1795, advising him of the sailing from Riga of the ship "Ellison," Captain Chapman, for Woolwich, laden with hemp for the service of the navy, ib. 200.

Embargo in Russia. Circumstance of the Government making purchases of hemp through neutral merchants for the service of His Majesty's navy, in consequence of the embargo in Russia, Rep. xii. 7—Impediment to the delivery of Riga masts and fir timber at His Majesty's several yards, owing to the restraint laid by the Emperor of Russia on the exportation, ib. 51.

Emoluments of Chaplains (Greenwich Hospital). Particulars of the revenue arising to the Royal Hospital at Greenwich from the emoluments of the two chaplains to the ordnances at Deptford and Woolwich, Rep. xiv. 534.

ESTABLISHMENT (GREENWICH HOSPITAL):

1. Present Establishment and Cost of Maintenance.
2. Boys and Nurses.
3. Civil Officers.

1. Present Establishment and Cost of Maintenance :

Observations of the Commissioners on the present establishment of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, and the expense of maintaining the same, Rep. xiv. 536-541—Account of the present establishment of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, as it stood in March 1806, Rep. xiv. App. 606. 609.

2. Boys and Nurses :

Account of the number of boys and their nurses borne on the establishment of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich in each year, from 1 January 1790 to 31 December 1805, showing the cost of one boy and one nurse in each year, Rep. xiv. App. 674.

3. Civil Officers :

Return of the names of such persons on the establishment of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich as have not been employed in His Majesty's navy, Rep. xiv. App. 679.

Evidence. Mode of taking evidence of witnesses examined before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, Rep. xii. App. 339.

EXAMINATION OF ACCOUNTS :

1. Castings of Vouchers.
2. Certificates for Stores.
3. Yard Certificates.

1. Castings of Vouchers :

Recommendation of the Commissioners that the clerks in the Navy Office who examine the castings of the vouchers to accounts, should note the time, and affix their signatures thereto, Rep. xii. 49.

2. Certificates for Stores :

Copy of minute of the committee of accounts of the Navy Board, dated 12 December 1803, with respect to the examination of certificates for stores delivered in His Majesty's dockyards, Rep. xii. App. 87.

3. Yard Certificates :

Copy of the minute of the committee of accounts of the Navy Board, dated 22 January 1804, directing the method to be pursued in the examination of yard certificates, Rep. xii. App. 87.

Exchanges. See Consuls.

Exeter, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Exeter, in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

EXPENDITURE OF PUBLIC MONEY:

1. Account Current.
2. Sick and Wounded Board.
3. Greenwich Hospital Establishment.
4. Law Charges, Greenwich Hospital.
5. Brewing Charges at Greenwich Hospital.
6. Infirmery of Greenwich Hospital.
7. Charity School at Greenwich.

1. Account Current :

Opinion of the Commissioners that no account of the expenditure of public money should be received by the Navy Board without a general account current of the receipts and disbursements, Rep. xii. 48.

2. Sick and Wounded Board :

Observations of the Commissioners on the magnitude of the expenditure entrusted to the late Board for sick and wounded seamen and sick prisoners of war, Rep. xiii. 388, 389.

3. Greenwich Hospital Establishment :

Statement of the expenses of the establishment of Greenwich Hospital for the year 1805, with observations of the Commissioners thereupon, Rep. xiv. 536-541—Statement of the annual expense of the provisions, weekly money, clothing, linen, bedding, and washing for the pensioners and nurses in the Royal Hospital at Greenwich in the last year, ib. 547—Account of the expenditure of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, from 1 January 1790 to 31 December 1805, under the different heads of expense, Rep. xiv. App. 560, 571—Detailed account of the expenditure of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich for the year 1805, ib. 667, 668.

4. Law Charges, Greenwich Hospital :

Observations of the Commissioners on the heavy expenditure incurred by the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, under the head of law charges, Rep. xiv. 537-541.

5. Brewing Charges at Greenwich Hospital :

Account of the particulars constituting the sum of 5,126*l.* 14*s.* 10½*d.*, stated as the brewing charge for 1805 in the account of the expense of Greenwich Hospital for that year, Rep. xiv. App. 669.

6. Infirmery of Greenwich Hospital :

Detailed account of the expense of the infirmery of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, exclusive of medicines, for the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 671, 672.

7. Charity School at Greenwich :

Account of the revenue and expenditure of the charity school of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich from 1790 to 1805 inclusive, Rep. xiv. App. 676, 677.

See also Accounts, 6. Infirmery of Greenwich Hospital, 2.

F.

Falmouth, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Falmouth in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

Falstone Perpetual Curacy. Particulars respecting the perpetual curacy of Falstone, in the gift of the commissioners and governors of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. 550, 551.

Fareham (Hants). Statement of the average price of coals at Fareham in the month of December 1799, and in each month during the year 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 482, 483.

See also Franklin, Joseph. Kelsey, Arthur.

Faversham, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Faversham in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

"Favorite," The Ship. Report of the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 19 April 1797, of the number of Riga and Norway masts and spars, and prices of fir timber received from Mr. Lindegren by the ship "Favorite," John Harper, master, Rep. xii. App. 267.

Fees. Minute of the committee of the accounts of the Navy Board, dated 10 August 1798, disallowing certain fees paid at the Navy Office for navy bills in Mr. Lindegren and Mr. Smalley's accounts, Rep. xii, App. 217.—See also Steward of Greenwich Hospital, 2.

Fenning, Samuel. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Samuel Fenning, constant director of the Royal Exchange Assurance Company, relative to the allowance of 10 per cent. to merchants on the amount of the premium on policies of insurance, Rep. xii. 47—Examination of Samuel Fenning, senior, esq., constant director of the Royal Exchange Assurance Company, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 20 April 1805, relative to the insurance of goods against sea risk, and rate of allowance made on premiums, Rep. xii. App. 308.

FIR TIMBER:

1. Purchases of Fir Timber abroad.
2. Broken Stowage.
3. Plymouth Dockyard.
4. Portsmouth Dockyard.
5. Mr. Andrew Lindegren's Contract.
6. Mr. Samuel Sanders' Contract.
7. Messrs. Thornton Brothers' Contract.

1. Purchases of Fir Timber abroad:

Observations of the Commissioners on the purchases of fir timber on commission by Mr. Andrew Lindegren, at Riga, for the service of His Majesty's navy, from 1795 to 1799, Rep. xii. 28-50—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Andrew Lindegren, esq., dated 26 April 1796, directing him to procure 2,000 loads of Riga fir timber and a large quantity of Norway masts, Rep. xii. App. 258.

2. Broken Stowage:

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the officers of His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth, dated 10 December 1796, directing them to return the surplus fir timber to Mr. Lindegren, beyond the quantity ordered, Rep. xii. App. 259.

3. Plymouth Dockyard:

Copy of warrant from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the officers of His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, dated 15 August 1797, relative to filling up of the broken stowage in the mast ships from Riga with fir timber, Rep. xii. App. 276.

4. Portsmouth Dockyard:

Copy of the warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the officers of His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth, dated 13 October 1796, directing them not to receive any fir timber out of the Riga mast ships consigned by Mr. Lindegren, Rep. xii. App. 259—Copy of letter from the officers of His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth to the Committee of Stores, dated 9 December 1796, respecting the receipt of fir timber from Mr. Lindegren, ib.—Account of pieces of fir timber received into His Majesty's stores at Portsmouth dockyard from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton and Son, on account of Government, out of the "Barnes" transport, per Navy Board warrant of 25 September 1795, ib. 262—Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the officers of His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth, dated 27 April 1796, directing them to receive 1,400 loads of fir timber procured by Mr. Lindegren from Riga for the service of the navy, ib. 264—Account of the number of pieces of square fir timber received at His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth in 1797, from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton and Son, on account of Mr. Andrew Lindegren, specifying the several ships' names the stores were imported in, and the quantity delivered by each, ib. 265-270.

5. Mr. Andrew Lindegren's Contract:

Copy of contract made by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy with Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 3 April 1804, for the supply of Riga masts and fir timber for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 328-330.

6. Mr. Samuel Sanders' Contract:

Copy of contract made the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy with Mr. Samuel Sanders, dated 2 May 1800, for the supply of fir timber for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 319-321.

7. Messrs. Thornton Brothers' Contract:

Copy of contract made by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy with Messrs. Thornton Brothers & Co., dated 3 April 1804, for supply of Riga masts and fir timber for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 330-333.

See also Broken Stowage, 2.

Firewood. Remarks of the Commissioners on the conduct of Mr. Lindegren in bringing home firewood in the mast ships from Riga, on his own account, without paying freight for the same, Rep. xii. 31. 35—Copy of letter from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, to Messrs. Chapell & Hodge, of Plymouth dock, dated 31 July 1797, directing them to dispose of the lathwood and firewood brought home in the mast ships from Riga, Rep. xii. App. 276.—See also Broken Stowage, 3.

First Fruits Office. Examination of John Bacon, esq., F. S. A., senior clerk in the First Fruits Office, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 22 May 1806, relative to the value of livings in the market, Rep. xiv. App. 681.

FIRST LORD OF THE ADMIRALTY:

1. Appointment of Government Agent at Riga.
2. French Agents.
3. Purchases of Naval Stores abroad.

1. Appointment of Government Agent at Riga:

Circumstance of the First Lord of the Admiralty instructing the comptroller of the navy to send an able and confidential person to Riga to purchase hemp for His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. 4—Letter from the First Lord of the Admiralty to the comptroller of the navy, dated 6 January 1795, directing him to send a confidential person to Riga to purchase hemp, Rep. xii. App. 61—Copy of letter from the First Lord of the Admiralty to the Secretary of State for the foreign department, dated 23 February 1795, relative to the employment of an agent to purchase hemp and naval stores at Riga secretly for Government, ib. 73.

2. French Agents:

Copy of letter from the First Lord of the Admiralty to the comptroller of the navy, dated 17 January 1797, relative to the employment of Monsieur Chapeaurouge by the French government in making large purchases of naval stores at Riga, Rep. xii. App. 215—Copy of minute of the First Lord of the Admiralty, dated 11 August 1795, approving the efforts of Mr. Lindegren to deprive the French of the masts and naval stores purchased by their agent at Riga, ib. 228.

3. Purchases of Naval Stores abroad:

Manner in which the orders of the First Lord of the Admiralty for purchases of masts, fir timber, &c. were conveyed to Mr. Lindegren, the commission agent at Riga, Rep. xii. 28, 29—Copy of letter from the First Lord of the Admiralty to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, comptroller of the navy, dated 27 February 1799, relative to the purchase of hemp and foreign naval stores on commission, Rep. xii. App. 223.

Fitting Ships for Sea. Nature of the payments made to the men lent to assist in fitting out His Majesty's ships in lieu of their allowances of provisions as pensioners of Greenwich Hospital, Rep. xiv. 543.

Flour. Extract from the register of the returns of flour and the assize of bread, as fixed in every week by the mayor and aldermen of the borough of Portsmouth, commencing 3 December 1799, and continued weekly unto 19 August 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 458.

Foreign Department. See Secretary of State for the Foreign Department.

FOREIGN NAVAL STORES:

1. Employment of Commission Agent.
2. Instructions to Government Agent at Riga.
3. Riga Mast Contract.
4. Disbursements of Government Agent.

1. Employment of Commission Agent:

Remarks of the Commissioners on the purchases of foreign naval stores on commission by Mr. Andrew Lindegren, for the service of His Majesty's navy, from 1795 to 1799, Rep. xii. 3-28-50.—Copy of letter from the First Lord of the Admiralty to the comptroller of the navy, dated 27 February 1799, on the subject of the employment of an agent to purchase foreign naval stores for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 223.

2. Instructions to Government Agent at Riga:

Copy of instructions from Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, to Andrew Lindegren, esq., dated 6 March 1799, relative to the purchase of hemp and foreign naval stores in Russia, for the service of the navy, Rep. xii. App. 223.

3. Riga Mast Contract:

Particulars of the different parcels of foreign naval stores contracted for by Mr. Andrew Lindegren, to be delivered in the year 1796 at Riga, including all those that were sold to the French agent, and such as he was in treaty for, Rep. xii. App. 230.

4. Disbursements of Government Agent:

Abstract of the disbursements of Mr. Andrew Lindegren for cost and charges on Riga masts, &c. by him purchased for His Majesty's service, in the years 1795 and 1796, Rep. xii. App. 232-238—Abstract of the disbursements of Mr. Andrew Lindegren for costs and charges on Riga masts, &c. by him purchased for His Majesty's service, in the year

FOREIGN NAVAL STORES—continued.4. Disbursements of Government Agents—continued.

1797, Rep. xii. App. 240-248—Abstract of the disbursements of Mr. Andrew Lindegren for costs and charges on Riga masts, &c. by him purchased for His Majesty's service, in the year 1798, ib. 250-253.

See also Invoices.

FOREIGN TIMBER:

1. Royal Dockyards.
2. Portsmouth Yard.
3. Broken Stowage.
4. The Ship "Adventure."
5. The Ship "Young William."
6. The Mast Ship "Selby."

1. Royal Dockyards:

Statement of the number of masts, bowsprits, spars, and pieces of fir timber received at His Majesty's dockyards, in the years 1795 and 1796, Rep. xii. 33, 34—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 20 April 1797, signifying the wishes of the Navy Board with respect to the distribution of the Norway goods and Riga timber, to be delivered by Mr. Lindegren, Rep. xii. App. 274, 275.

2. Portsmouth Yard:

Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy to the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth, dated 27 April 1796, directing them to receive 1,400 loads of foreign timber procured by Mr. Lindegren, for the service of the navy, Rep. xii. App. 264—Account of the number of masts, bowsprits, spars, and pieces of square fir timber received at His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth in 1797, from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, on account of Mr. Andrew Lindegren, specifying the several ships' names the stores were imported in, and the quantity delivered by each, ib. 265-273.

3. Broken Stowage:

Copy of letter from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son to Messrs. Chapell & Hodge of Portsmouth dock, dated 15 August 1797, directing the sale of the timber received by the mast ships from Riga, Rep. xii. App. 277.

4. The Ship "Adventure."

Letter from the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Deptford to the secretary of the Naval Inquiry Commission, dated 16 September 1805, acquainting him of their inability to state in what manner the foreign timber sent on shore from the ship "Adventure" was disposed of, Rep. xii. 260.

5. The Ship "Young William":

Copy of the invoice of masts, bowsprits, and spars shipped on board the "Young William," Captain Richard Stamper, for Sheerness, from Riga, 27 May 1797, on order, and for account and risk of Andrew Lindegren, esq., Rep. xii. App. 278.

6. The Mast Ship "Selby":

Copy of the invoice of masts, spars, and fir timber shipped on board the "Selby," Captain John Thompson, for Portsmouth, from Riga, the 3d June 1797, by order, and for account and risk of Andrew Lindegren, esq., Rep. xii. App. 279.

See also Duty on Foreign Timber.

FORELANDS LIGHTHOUSES:

1. Revenue and Disbursements.
2. Cost of Collection of Light Dues.

1. Revenue and Disbursements:

Particulars respecting the revenue of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, arising from the duties of the North and South Foreland lighthouses, Rep. xiv. 533—Statement of the annual receipts of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, on account of the North and South Foreland lighthouses, upon an average of the last ten years, ib. 534—Account of the gross collection for the Foreland lights, in each year from 1790 to 1805, both inclusive, showing the sums paid for salaries and the amount of the other disbursements, in each year respectively, Rep. xiv. App. 602.

2. Cost of Collection of Light Dues:

Detailed account of the expenses of collecting the duties of the North and South Foreland lighthouses, including the expense of repairs, &c. in that department for the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 602.

See also Osbolston, George.

Forestalling the Market. See French Agents, 2.

Forfeited Shares of Prize Money. Particulars of the revenue arising to the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich from forfeited shares of prize money, Rep. xiv. 534-536.

Forster, Mr. Observations of the Commissioners on the circumstances under which Mr. Forster was appointed a receiver of the Greenwich Hospital estates in the north, Rep. xiv. 530.

Forsyth, Captain. See "Industry," The Ship.

FORTON HOSPITAL (PORTSMOUTH):

1. Victualling Contract with Dr. Mein.
2. Agreement with Mr. Owen, of Fareham.
3. Quality of Meat.
4. Surgeon of the Hospital.

1. Victualling Contract with Dr. Mein :

Observations of the Commissioners on the contracts for victualling sick prisoners of war at the prison hospital at Forton, near Portsmouth, between the commissioners for taking care of sick and wounded seamen and Dr. Thomas Mein, surgeon in His Majesty's navy, Rep. xiii. 363-376—Statement of the quantities of beef and mutton charged to Dr. Mein by Mr. Owen, as furnished to the prison hospital at Forton from 21 December 1799 to the beginning of May 1800, and the quantities on which Dr. Mein received the addition from the Sick and Wounded Board, ib. 380—Statement of the quantities of beef and mutton supplied by Messrs. Whitear & Lucas to the prison hospital at Forton, in the months of November and December 1800, and the quantities on which Dr. Mein received the additions, ib. 382.

2. Agreement with Mr. Owen, of Fareham :

Observations of the Commissioners on the nature of the agreement entered into by Dr. Grey, on the part of Dr. Mein, with Mr. Richard Owen for supplying the prison hospital at Forton with beef, mutton, bread, beer, &c., Rep. xiii. 371, 372—Copy of articles of agreement entered into by Dr. Grey, on the part of Dr. Mein, with Mr. Richard Owen, for the supply of beef, mutton, bread, beer, and various other articles for the sick prisoners of war at Forton, dated 21 December 1799, Rep. xiii. App. 492, 493—Account of provisions supplied by Mr. Richard Owen to Forton Hospital, from 22 December 1799 to 31 January 1800, ib. 511—Similar account for the months of February, March, and April 1800, ib. 511, 512.

3. Quality of Meat :

Observations of the Commissioners on the inferior quality of the meat supplied to the prison hospital at Forton, under Dr. Mein's contract, Rep. xiii. 385.

4. Surgeon of the Hospital :

Circumstance of the surgeon at Forton Hospital being in the pay and acting as agent to Dr. Mein, the contractor for victualling sick prisoners of war, Rep. xiii. 385—Account showing the yearly amount of the pay and allowances granted by the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen to Mr. John Griffin, a surgeon of Forton Hospital, in the years 1800 and 1801, Rep. xiii. App. 516.

See also Griffin, John. Rose, Thomas. Surgeons of Hospitals, 2.

Foster, William. Examination of William Foster, esq., chief clerk in the office for bills and accounts in the Navy Office, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 27 June 1805, relative to Mr. Lindegren's accounts for the purchase of hemp and masts for the service of the navy, Rep. xii. App. 309, 310.

Franklin, Joseph. Examination of Mr. Joseph Franklin, of Fareham, tallow chandler and soap boiler, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry at Portsmouth, 13 February 1806, relative to the prices of provisions at Gosport, in the month of December 1799, and in the first six months of 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 503.

Frauds. See Compensations for Losses, 3.

Fraudulent Certificates. Manner in which the certificates of prices sent in by Dr. Mein to the Sick and Wounded Board were obtained, Rep. xiii. 374, 375—Observations of the Commissioners on the importance of public boards paying great attention to the character of the certificates received, more especially in matters transacted in foreign countries, ib. 386, 387.

See also Certificates, 2. Hooper, George.

"Freedom," The Ship. Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq., to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 18 July 1795, reporting the sailing from Riga of the ship "Freedom," Dodds master, for Chatham, laden with hemp for His Majesty's service, Rep. xii. App. 227, 228.

FREIGHTS:

1. Hemp-laden Ships.
2. Broken Stowage.
3. Mast Ships.
4. The Ship "Barnes."

1. Hemp-laden Ship:

Circumstance of Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son overcharging for freight of hemp-laden ships more than had been agreed for by the charter-parties, Rep. xii. 17.

2. Broken Stowage:

Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq., to Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, dated 12 September, 1795, relative to putting broken stowage on board the mast transport ships from Riga, for His Majesty's dockyards at Portsmouth and Plymouth, Rep. xii. App. 255—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq., to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 11 August 1797, on the subject of broken stowage necessary for the ships laden with masts at Riga, for His Majesty's dockyards, ib. 275, 276—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Lindegren, dated 11 August 1797, on the subject of the broken stowage necessary for the ships yet to be laden with masts from Riga, ib. 276.

3. Mast Ships:

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Andrew Lindegren, esq., dated 14 August 1795, relative to procuring freight for the surplus stowage of mast ships from Riga, Rep. xii. App. 254—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq., to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 3 November 1795, relative to procuring merchandize from individuals at Riga, to fill up the empty space in the mast ships to the outports, ib. 254, 255.

4. The Ship "Barnes":

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Messrs. Godfrey Thoruton & Son, dated 19 June 1795, relative to providing small articles of broken stowage for the "Barnes" mast ship from Riga, Rep. xii. App. 254.

See also Broken Stowage.

FRENCH AGENTS:

1. Purchases of Naval Stores at Riga.
2. Forestalling the Riga Market.
3. Monsieur Chapeaurouge.
4. Miln & Halliday, Messrs.
5. Prices of Masts purchased.
6. Shipments of Hemp.

1. Purchases of Naval Stores at Riga:

Occasion of our Government receiving information that the French were buying up large quantities of hemp at Riga, Rep. xii. 4, 5—Object of our Government in endeavouring to forestall the French agents in their purchases of hemp and other naval stores at Riga, ib. 10, 11—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq., to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart, comptroller of the navy, dated 18 June 1795, respecting the attempts made by the French agents at Riga to purchase hemp for their Government, Rep. xii. App. 199.

2. Forestalling the Riga Market:

Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 11 April 1795, respecting the efforts made by him with the Hamburg merchants to deprive the French of their supplies of hemp and naval stores from Riga, Rep. xii. App. 227—Copy of minute of the First Lord of the Admiralty, dated 11 August 1795, approving the efforts of Mr. Lindegren to deprive the French government of the masts and naval stores purchased by their agent at Riga, ib. 228—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 11 August 1795, approving of his efforts to induce the French agent at Riga to dispose of the masts and other naval stores purchased by him for his government, ib.

3. Monsieur Chapeaurouge:

Copy of letter from the First Lord of the Admiralty to the Comptroller of the Navy, dated 17 January 1797, relative to the employment of Monsieur Chapeaurouge by the French government in making large purchases of naval stores at Riga, Rep. xii. App. 215.

4. Miln

FRENCH AGENTS—continued.

4. Miln & Halliday, Messrs :

Abstract of the disbursements and claims of Mr. Andrew Lindegren for a quantity of Riga, Rhine, and Outshott hemp, by him purchased of Messrs. Miln and Halliday, and others, agents to the French government at Riga, Rep. xii. App. 96-98.

5. Prices of Masts purchased :

Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq., to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 6 September 1795, respecting the prices to be paid to the French agent at Riga, for the masts purchased of him for His Majesty's service, Rep. xii. App. 228, 229.

6. Shipments of Hemp :

Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 21 June 1795, respecting the shipments of hemp made on account of the French government from Riga, Rep. xii. App. 199.

See also Miln & Halliday, Messrs.

FRENCH PRISONERS OF WAR :

1. *Subsistence of Prisoners.*2. *Victualling Contracts.*3. *Inspection of Provisions.*1. Subsistence of Prisoners :

Occasion of the French government breaking off the agreement with this country to provide for the subsistence of the French prisoners here, Rep. xiii. 364.

2. Victualling Contracts :

Observations of the Commissioners on the contracts for victualling sick French prisoners in the prison hospitals at the several depôts, between the Commissioners for taking care of sick and wounded seamen and Dr. Thomas Mein, surgeon in His Majesty's navy, Rep. xiii. 363-376—Copy of letter from the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded Seamen to Dr. Mein, dated 20 December 1799, accepting his tender for the contract for supplying the hospitals for French prisoners at the depôts with provisions, ib. 400—Copy of letter from the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded Seamen to Dr. Mein, dated 20 March 1800, relative to supplying sick French prisoners of war at the hospital depôts with provisions by contract, ib. 438.

3. Inspection of Provisions :

Observations of the Commissioners on the practice in prison hospitals of appointing committees of Frenchmen to inspect the provisions sent in by the contractors, Rep. xiii. 385.

Friend, William. Observations of the Commissioners with reference to the manner in which the signature of Mr. William Friend, a butcher at Portsea, to the certificate of prices sent in by Dr. Mein to the Sick and Wounded Board, was obtained, Rep. xiii. 374—Examination of Mr. William Friend, of Portsea, butcher, taken upon oath, at Portsmouth, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 8 February 1806, relative to the prices of beef and mutton supplied to Haslar Hospital, in the years 1799 and 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 467, 468.

Friend, William, the Younger. Examination of Mr. William Friend, of Portsea, butcher, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, at Portsmouth, 8 February 1806, respecting the manner in which the signature of the certificate of prices sent in by Dr. Mein was obtained, Rep. xiii. App. 500, 501.

FUNDED PROPERTY :

1. *Greenwich Hospital.*2. *Charity School for Boys at Greenwich.*1. Greenwich Hospital :

Particulars respecting the funded property belonging to the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, and amount of interest derived from money in the funds, Rep. xiv. 532, 533—Account of the amount of funded property of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich as it stood on 31 December in each year, from 1783 to 1789, inclusive, Rep. xiv. App. 597—Account of the personal property of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, from 1790 to 1805, inclusive, as it stood on 31 December in each year, describing the securities in which it is invested, ib.

2. Charity School for Boys at Greenwich :

Account of the personal property belonging to the establishment of the charity boys at the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, from 1790 to 1805, inclusive, as it stood on 31 December in each year, describing the securities in which it is invested, Rep. xiv. App. 675.

G.

GAMBIER, SAMUEL :

1. Accounts of the Government Agent at Riga.
2. Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica.

1. Accounts of the Government Agent at Riga :

Examination of Samuel Gambier, esq., a Commissioner of His Majesty's Navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 21 May 1805, relative to the state of Mr. Lindegren's accounts for the purchase of naval stores on commission, Rep. xii. App. 78-87—Further examination of Samuel Gambier, esq., a Commissioner of His Majesty's Navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 23 May 1805, relative to the accounts of Mr. Lindegren for the purchase of naval stores, ib. 89-91.

2. Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica :

Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Mr. Gambier, a Commissioner of His Majesty's Navy, relative to the abuses and irregularities in the office of naval storekeeper at Jamaica, Rep. xii. App. 339-350.

Garbutt, John. See "Hannah," The Ship.

GENERAL COURT OF COMMISSIONERS (GREENWICH HOSPITAL):

1. Holding of Courts.
2. Visitation of Hospital Estates.
3. Increase of Salary of Treasurer.

1. Holding of Courts :

A general court of commissioners and governors of Greenwich Hospital is required by the charter to be held twice a year, Rep. xiv. 526.

2. Visitation of Hospital Estates :

Copy of minute of the general court of the commissioners and governors of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, which was held at the Admiralty Office 23 July 1805, respecting the visitation of the hospital estates in the north by the governors, Rep. xiv. App. 564.

3. Increase of Salary of Treasurer :

Minute of a general court of the commissioners and governors of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, held at the Admiralty Office, 23 July 1805, directing an increase of the salary of the treasurer of the hospital, Rep. xiv. App. 684, 685.

General Orders. Recommendation of the Commissioners that the general orders of the council of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich be revised, and a digest made of such as are proper to be retained, Rep. xiv. 550.

Gibbons, Sir William, Bart. Examination of Sir William Gibbons, bart., a Commissioner of the Sick and Wounded Board, taken upon oath, 12 December 1805, relative to the system of contracting for the supply of sick prisoners of war with provisions at the several hospitals, Rep. xiii. App. 443-445.

Gibson, Master. See "Captain Cook," The Ship.

Gilbert, John. Copy of letter from Mr. John Gilbert, butcher, of Plymouth dock, to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 11 February 1806, respecting the prices of butchers' meat at Plymouth, in the month of December 1799, and in each of the first six months of 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 497.

Glasgow, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Glasgow, in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

Godby, John. Examination of Mr. John Godby, steward of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 9 April 1806, relative to the supply of provisions for the use of the pensioners on that establishment, Rep. xiv. App. 646-649.

Golden Vale Estate (Jamaica). Manner in which the Royal Hospital at Greenwich came into possession of the Golden Vale estate in Jamaica, Rep. xiv. 531, 532—Statement of the circumstances respecting Golden Vale estate, in the island of Jamaica, belonging to the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. App. 594, 595.

See also Milligan, Robert. Paplay, George.

Goldson, William. Copy of letter from William Goldson, esq., mayor of Portsmouth, to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 4 January 1806, with an extract from the register of returns of flour and the assize of bread, as fixed at Portsmouth, between 3 December 1799 and 19 August 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 457, 458.

Goodeve, Edward. Examination of Mr. Edward Goodeve, of Portsea, baker, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, at Portsmouth, 8 February 1806, relative to the price of bread in Portsea and neighbourhood, in December 1799, and in the year 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 472, 473.

Goodeve, Joseph, Jun. Examination of Mr. Joseph Goodeve, a partner in the house of John, Joseph & Benjamin Goodeve, brewers, of Gosport, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, at the Royal Hospital at Haslar, 7 February 1806, relative to the price of beer at Gosport, in the year 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 476.

Goodeve, Joseph, Sen. Examination of Mr. Joseph Goodeve, sen., of Gosport, brewer, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, at the Royal Hospital at Haslar, 6 February 1806, relative to the price of beer at Gosport and neighbourhood in the years 1800 and 1801, Rep. viii. App. 474, 476.

GOSPORT:

1. Dr. Mein's Certificate of Prices.
2. Prices of Provisions at Gosport.

1. Dr. Mein's Certificate of Prices:

Copy of certificate presented by Dr. Mein to the Board for sick and wounded seamen, dated 31 March 1800, of the price of beef, mutton, bread, beer, and coals at Gosport on 22 December 1799, Rep. xiii. App. 455—Copy of certificate presented by Dr. Mein to the Board for sick and wounded seamen, dated 30 June 1800, of the rates of provisions at Gosport on 22 December 1799, ib.

Prices of Provisions at Gosport:

Statement of the average prices of beef and mutton at Gosport in each month of the year 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 460, 461, 464—Statement of the price of the gallon loaf at Gosport on 22 December 1799, and the average price in each month of the year 1800, ib. 468, 469—Statement of the price of beer in Gosport, similar to that supplied to the Royal Hospital at Haslar in December 1799, and in January, February, March, and April 1800, ib. 477—Statement of the average price of coals per chaldron at Gosport in each month during the year 1800 and 1801, ib. 480, 481—Copy of letter from William Yeo, esq., governor of Haslar Hospital, to the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen, dated 9 April 1800, respecting the price of the best beef and mutton at Portsmouth and Gosport, ib. 489, 490.

See also Goodeve, Joseph, Jun. Goodeve, Joseph, Sen. Haslar Hospital. Healyer, John. Hewson, William. Hooper, George. Hoskins, Thomas. Lucas, John. Matthews, William. Minchin, Thomas Andrews. Newbury, John. Paul, James. Peacock, John. Vigar, William. Whitcomb, James. Whitecar, Henry.

Government Commission Agents. See Agents, 1. Lindegren, Andrew. Smalley, Cornwall.

Governor of Haslar Hospital. Remarks of the Commissioners on the neglect of the Board for sick and wounded seamen to communicate to the governor of Haslar Hospital, the nature of the contract subsisting between them and Dr. Mein, Rep. xiii. 377, 378—Copy of letter from William Yeo, esq., governor of Haslar Hospital, to the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen, dated 24 March 1800, relative to the rise which has taken place in the articles of beef, mutton, and oatmeal since Mr. Owen took the contract to supply the hospital, Rep. xiii. App. 487.

Grant, Captain. See "Ann," The Ship.

Grants of Public Money. See Greenwich Hospital, 9.

Greathed, Captain John Thompson. See "Sappho," The Ship.

Greenway, John. Copy of letter from Mr. John Greenway, brewer of Stoke, near Plymouth, to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 31 January 1806, respecting the price of beer at Plymouth from 22 December 1799 to 31 January 1800, and from 31 January 1800 to December 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 498.

Greenwich Estate. Account of the rents received from houses in Greenwich belonging to the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich in the years 1770, 1780, 1790, and 1805, Rep. xiv. 528.—Account of the revenue received by the corporation of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich from the rents of houses and tenements in Greenwich ib. 531.

GRENWICH HOSPITAL :

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1. Foundation of the Hospital and Management. | 8. Prize and Bounty Monies. |
| 2. Establishment and Salaries of Officers. | 9. Parliamentary Grants. |
| 3. Revenue of the Hospital. | 10. West India Property. |
| 4. Personal Property. | 11. Expenditure of the Hospital. |
| 5. Hospital Estates. | 12. Law Charges. |
| 6. Derwentwater Estate. | 13. Provision Contracts. |
| 7. Timber on the Hospital Estates. | 14. Pensioners and Nurses. |
| | 15. Out-Pensioners. |
| | 16. Civil Officers. |

1. Foundation of the Hospital and Management :

History of the foundation and endowment of Greenwich Hospital in the reign of William and Mary, Rep. xiv. 525—Observations of the Commissioners on the few instances of abuse or irregularity discovered in the course of the investigation into the affairs of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, ib. 548.

2. Establishment and Salaries of Officers :

Account of the present establishment of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich as it stood on 24 March 1806, Rep. xiv. App. 606-609—Account of salaries held by persons on the establishment of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich which have been augmented since 1790, as they stood at that time, their several augmentations, and the authority by which they were increased, ib. 610, 611.

3. Revenue of the Hospital :

Account of the sources from whence the revenues of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich are derived, Rep. xiv. 526—Account of the total revenue of the corporation of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, from the northern estates, independent of the timber, ib. 531—Statement of the revenue and expenditure of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, showing the balance in favour of the hospital, ib. 551—Account of the revenue of the Royal Hospital Greenwich, under the respective heads of receipts, from 1790 to 1805 inclusive, Rep. xiv. App. 558, 559.

4. Personal Property :

Account of the personal property of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, as it stood on 31 December in each year, from 1783 to 1789 inclusive, Rep. xiv. App. 597—Account of the personal property of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich from 1790 to 1805 inclusive, as it stood on 31 December in each year, describing the securities in which it is invested, ib.

5. Hospital Estates :

Statement showing the valuation of the estates of the Royal Hospital of Greenwich, by the committee of directors on visitation, and the rents obtained by the late lettings, Rep. xiv. 528, 529—Account of the real property of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, as it stood on 28 April 1806, Rep. xiv. App. 566-581.

6. Derwentwater Estate :

Account of the salaries and other emoluments of the receivers of the Derwentwater estates for the year 1804, and the net receipt on an average of the years 1801, 1802, and 1803, each year ending with 21 November, Rep. xiv. App. 586, 587—Detailed account of the receipt and expenditure of the Derwentwater estate, from 22 November 1804 to 21 November 1805, ib. 590, 591.

7. Timber on the Hospital Estates :

Estimated value of the timber growing on the estates of the Royal Hospital of Greenwich in the north, and amount received on that account since that estate was granted in 1735, Rep. xiv. 531.

8. Prize and Bounty Monies :

All shares of prize money which shall not be legally demanded within six years after the same shall have been paid to the treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, are to be forfeited to the said hospital, Rep. xiv. 534—Account of the amount of prize and bounty monies received and refunded by the Royal Hospital at Greenwich under the Act of 45 Geo. 3, c. 72, from the time of passing that Act to 31 December 1805, and from that time to 31 May 1806, Rep. xiv. App. 604.

9. Parliamentary Grants :

Account of the sums voted by Parliament for the service of Greenwich Hospital since the year 1770, distinguishing the sums voted in each year, Rep. xiv. App. 681.

GREENWICH HOSPITAL—continued.

10. West India Property:

Attempt made in January 1793 by the commissioners and governors of Greenwich Hospital to dispose of their estate in the island of Jamaica, Rep. xiv. 532.

11. Expenditure of the Hospital:

Statement of the expences of the establishment of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich for the year 1805, with observations of the Commissioners thereupon, Rep. xiv. 536-541—Account of the expenditure of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich from 1 January 1790 to 31 December 1805, under the different heads of expense, Rep. xiv. App. 560, 561—Detailed account of the expenditure of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich for the year 1805, ib. 667, 668—Account of the particulars constituting the sum of 5,126*l.* 14*s.* 10½*d.*, stated as the brewing charge for 1805, in the account of the expense of Greenwich Hospital for that year, ib. 669.

12. Law Charges:

Observations of the Commissioners on the heavy expenses of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, under the head of "Law charges," Rep. xiv. 537-541—Account of the sums paid by the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich for law charges in each year, from 1796 to 1805 inclusive, distinguishing the expense of the hospital from that of the Derwentwater estate, Rep. xiv. App. 612—Account of law charges of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, disbursed from 21 November 1804 to 21 November 1805 inclusive, ib.—Bill of law charges and business done for the commissioners and governors of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, in the county of Kent, exclusive of the Derwentwater estate, from 31 March to 1 October 1805, ib. 613-622.

13. Provision Contracts:

Account of the contracts in force on 1 March 1806 for supplying the Royal Hospital at Greenwich with provisions and other articles, Rep. xiv. App. 640-645.

14. Pensioners and Nurses:

Observations of the Commissioners on the expenditure incurred by the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich on account of the in-pensioners, Rep. xiv. 541-544—Statement of the annual expense of the provisions, weekly money, clothing, linen, bedding, and washing for the pensioners and nurses in the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich in the last year, ib. 547—Account of the number of pensioners and nurses maintained in the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich in each year, from 1 January 1790 to 31 December 1805, showing the cost of one pensioner and one nurse in each year, Rep. xiv. App. 639.

15. Out-Pensioners:

Account of the number of out-pensioners of Greenwich Hospital and the amount of their pensions in each year, from 1781 to 1790, both inclusive, Rep. xiv. App. 673—Account of the number of out-pensioners of Greenwich Hospital, from 1 January 1790 to 31 December 1805, stating the rate of pensions granted in each year, ib.

16. Civil Officers:

Opinion of the Commissioners that in future no landsman should be appointed to any situation in Greenwich Hospital, unless within a given time a duly qualified person in the sea service should fail to apply, Rep. xiv. 548, 550—Return of the names of such persons on the establishment of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich as have not been employed in His Majesty's navy, Rep. xiv. App. 679.

See also Accounts, 8. Admiralty Board, 3. Admission of Pensioners. Auditor of Greenwich Hospital. Barber of Greenwich Hospital. Bellingham, Sir William, Bart. Bourchier, John. Brewery at Greenwich Hospital. Butler of Greenwich Hospital. Bye-Laws. Chalk off List. Chaplains. Charter of Greenwich Hospital. Church Patronage. Civil Officers. Clerk of the Checque. Colpoys, Admiral Sir John. Copper Mines. Deputy Receivers. Derwentwater Estates. Diet, 3. Directors of Greenwich Hospital. Dyer, John. Emoluments of Chaplains. Forelands Lighthouses. Half Pay Officers. Hall List. Harrison, John. Hickman, Stephen Collman. Hospital Estates. Infirmery of Greenwich Hospital. Law Charges. Light Dues. Martyr, John. Merchant Service. Newburgh, Earl of. Nurses. Official Residences. Osbolston, George. Paplay, George. Parliamentary Grants. Patients. Pensioners. Physician to Greenwich Hospital. Plurality of Offices. Prize Money, 1. Receiver-General of Customs. Receivers. Run Men's Wages. Salaries of Officers. Sale of Provisions. Samworth, John. Saward, William. Schoolmaster of Greenwich Hospital. Seafaring Men. Secretary of Greenwich Hospital. Sixpenny Duty. Smith, Richard. Solicitor to Greenwich Hospital. Steward of Greenwich Hospital. Table Allowances. Table List. Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital. Turner, Sir John. Walton, Mr. West India Property.

Greig, Richard. See "Trio," The Ship.

Grenville, Lord. Copy of letter from the Right hon. Lord Grenville, Secretary of State for the foreign department, to Sir Charles Whitworth, ambassador to Petersburg, dated 24 February 1795, informing him of the determination of Government to send Mr. Lindegren to Riga to purchase hemp and naval stores secretly, Rep. xii. App. 73.

Grey, Dr. Copy of articles of agreement entered into by Dr. Grey, on the part of Dr. Mein, with Mr. Richard Owen, for the supply of beef, mutton, bread, beer, and various other articles, for the sick prisoners of war at Forton and Porchester hospitals, dated 21 December 1799, Rep. xiii. App. 492, 493.

GRIFFIN, JOHN:

1. Signature of Contractor's Certificate of Prices.
2. Salary and Allowances of the Surgeon of Forton Hospital.

1. Signature of Contractor's Certificate of Prices:

Remarks of the Commissioners on the manner in which the signature of the attesting witness, Mr. Griffin, surgeon of Forton Hospital, to the certificates sent in by Dr. Mein to the Sick and Wounded Board, was obtained, Rep. xiii. 374, 375.

2. Salary and Allowances of the Surgeon of Forton Hospital:

Account showing the yearly amount of the pay and allowances granted by the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen to Mr. John Griffin, as surgeon of Forton Hospital, in the years 1800 and 1801, Rep. xiii. App. 516.

Grimsby, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Grimsby, in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 604.

Gwecke, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses in the port of Gwecke, in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 604.

H.

Half-Pay Officers. Particulars of the revenue derived by the Royal Hospital at Greenwich from the half-pay and emoluments of certain officers of the hospital, Rep. xiv. 534.

Halifax (Nova Scotia). Observations of the Commissioners on the practice of the naval officer at Halifax accounting to the Navy Board for the premium on bills drawn by him, Rep. xii. App. 341.

Hall, John. See "Aurora," The Ship.

Hall List. Nature of the payments made by the butler of Greenwich Hospital to the pensioners, in lieu of their allowance of provisions, called "The Hall or Table List," Rep. xiv. 543, 544.

Halliday, Thomas. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Mr. Halliday, relative to the folly of the employment of an agent to make purchases of hemp at Riga for the service of the navy, Rep. xii. 9, 10, 12, 13 — Examination of Thomas Halliday, esq., a Russia merchant, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 14 March 1805, relative to the purchase of hemp and other naval stores on commission at Riga and Petersburg, for the service of the navy, Rep. xii. App. 193-196.

See also Miln & Halliday, Messrs.

Hamburgh Merchants. Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 11 April 1795, respecting the efforts made by him with the Hamburgh merchants to deprive the French of their supplies of hemp and other naval stores from Riga, Rep. xii. App. 227.

Hammond, John. Examination of Mr. John Hammond, first clerk to the agent, and acting as clerk to the governor of the Royal Hospital at Haslar, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry at that hospital, 12 February 1806, relative to the prices of beef, mutton, bread, beer, and coals, at Gosport and Portsmouth, between April 1800 and January 1804, Rep. xiii. App. 508, 509.

HAMOND, SIR ANDREW SNAPE, BART.:

1. Purchase of Hemp and Naval Stores at Riga.
2. Instructions to Mr. Lindegren.
3. Employment of Mr. Cornwall Smalley.
4. Private trading of Government Agent at Riga.

1. Purchase of Hemp and Naval Stores at Riga:

Examination of Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 25 March 1805, relative to the circumstances which led to the employment of an agent to purchase hemp and other naval stores at Riga, Rep. xii. App. 62-66.

2. Instructions to Mr. Lindegren:

Copy of instructions given by Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, comptroller of the navy, to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 9 January 1795, relative to proceeding to Riga to purchase hemp and masts for the service of the navy, Rep. xii. App. 61, 62—Examination of Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, comptroller of the navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 26 March 1805, relative to the instructions given to Mr. Lindegren to purchase hemp and other naval stores at Riga, ib. 66-70—Copy of the instructions from Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, comptroller of the navy, to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 20 January 1797, relative to the purchase of hemp and other naval stores on commission at Riga, secretly for the service of the navy, ib. 215, 216—Copy of instructions from Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 6 March 1799, relative to the purchase of hemp and foreign naval stores in Russia, for the service of the navy, ib. 223.

3. Employment of Mr. Cornwall Smalley:

Examination of Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 30 March 1805, respecting the employment of Mr. Cornwall Smalley to purchase hemp at Petersburg for the navy service, Rep. xii. App. 70-72—Copy of instructions from Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy to Mr. Cornwall Smalley, dated 9 December 1796, to purchase hemp at Petersburg secretly for Government on commission, ib. 222.

4. Private trading of Government Agent at Riga:

Examination of Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 19 June 1805, respecting the private trading of Mr. Andrew Lindegren, the agent appointed to purchase hemp and naval stores at Riga secretly for Government, Rep. xii. App. 74-76.

See also Comptroller of the Navy.

Hanbury & Co., Messrs. Circumstance of Mr. Lindegren employing Messrs. Hanbury & Co. as his private agents in applying the public money to his private advantage, Rep. xii. 46—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, dated 12 September 1795, requesting them to send all public and private letters under cover to Messrs. Hanbury, Rep. xii. App. 265.

“Hannah,” The Ship. Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the officers of His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth, dated 10 December 1796, directing them to return the surplus timber to Mr. Lindegren, brought home in the transport “Hannah,” Rep. xii. App. 259—Report of the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 19 April 1793, of the number of Riga and Norway masts and spars, and pieces of fir timber received from Mr. Lindegren by the ship “Hannah,” John Garbutt, master, ib. 266-269.

Hare, Captain. See “Lady Annabella,” The Ship.

Harmood, Harry. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Mr. Harmood, a member of the Committee of Stores, relative to the abuses and irregularities in the office of the naval storekeeper at Jamaica, Rep. xii. App. 338-350.

Harness, John. Examination of John Harness, M. D., chairman of the Sick and Wounded Board, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 10 December 1805, relative to the system of contracting for the supply of the sick prisoners of war with provisions at the several hospitals, Rep. xiii. App. 440-443.

Harper, John. See “Favourite,” The Ship.

HARRISON, JOHN:

1. Visitation of Hospital Estates.
2. Simonburn Rectory, Northumberland.
3. State and Value of the Hospital Estates in the North.

1. Visitation of Hospital Estates:

Occasion of the appointment of Mr. Harrison a member of a committee to visit the estates belonging to the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, in the north, Rep. xiv. 527—Copy of minute of a court of directors of Greenwich Hospital, held at Salters' Hall, 31 July 1805, appointing John Harrison, esq., a member of the committee of visitation of the hospital estates in the north, Rep. xiv. App. 564.

2. Simonburn Rectory, Northumberland:

Examination of John Harrison, esq., commissioner for victualling His Majesty's Navy, and a director of Greenwich Hospital, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 16 April 1806, relative to the value and circumstances of the living of Simonburn, Rep. xiv. App. 586, 587.

3. State and Value of the Hospital Estates in the North:

Examination of John Harrison, esq., a commissioner for victualling His Majesty's Navy, and a director of Greenwich Hospital, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 4 June 1806, relative to the state and value of the hospital estates in the north, and conduct and emoluments of the receivers and agents, Rep. xiv. App. 588.

Hartwell, Sir Francis John. Examination of Sir Francis John Hartwell, knight, a commissioner of His Majesty's Navy, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 27 May 1805, relative to the examination which the accounts of the purchase of naval stores by commission undergo, previous to their being passed by the Navy Board, Rep. xii. App. 311, 312.

Harwich, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Harwich, in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 604.

HASLAR HOSPITAL:

1. Prices of Provisions.
2. Standard of Prices.
3. Weekly Report of the Governor.
4. Mr. Owen's Victualling Contract.
5. Coal Contract.
6. Sureties of Contractors.

1. Prices of Provisions:

Difference in the prices paid by the Sick and Wounded Board for beef, mutton, bread, and beer at Haslar Hospital, and the prices according to Dr. Mein's certificates, on 22 December 1799, Rep. xiii. 369, 370—Statement of the average price of beer per tun, and of table beer supplied to the Royal Hospital at Haslar, in each month during the year 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 474-476—Statement of the average wholesale price of beer of a similar quality to that supplied to the hospital in each month, during the year 1801, ib. 475, 476—Account showing the average prices paid in each month for the beef, mutton, bread, beer, and coals supplied to the Royal Hospital at Haslar, and also the prices paid to Dr. Mein for the like articles, from 22 December 1799 to 31 December 1800, ib. 484, 485.

2. Standard of Prices:

Letter from Dr. Thomas Mein to the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded Seamen, dated 17 June 1800, suggesting the taking of the prices of provisions at Haslar Hospital as a standard for the supply of the sick prisoners of war at the depôts, Rep. xiii. App. 439.

3. Weekly Report of the Governor:

Circumstance of the Board for Sick and Wounded Seamen desiring the governor of Haslar Hospital to report weekly the market prices of beef, mutton, bread, beer, and coals in the neighbourhood of Haslar, Rep. xiii. 377, 378—Letter from the Board for Sick and Wounded Seamen to the governor of Haslar Hospital, dated 14 April 1800, desiring him to report to the Board weekly the market prices of beef, mutton, and beer in the neighbourhood of Haslar, ib. App. 510—Letter from the Board for Sick and Wounded Seamen to the governor of Haslar Hospital, dated 13 June 1800, desiring him to report to the Board weekly the market prices of bread in that neighbourhood, ib.

4. Mr. Owen's Victualling Contract:

Circumstances connected with the contract entered into by the Board for Sick and Wounded Seamen and Mr. Richard Owen, for supplying the Royal Hospital at Haslar with provisions, Rep. viii. 370-372—Copy of letter from the Commissioners for Sick and and Wounded Seamen to Governor Yeo, of Haslar Hospital, dated 19 March 1800, requesting to know what increase of price has taken place on the articles of beef, mutton, and oatmeal since Mr. Owen took the contract to supply them, Rep. xiii. App. 487—Copy of letter from William Leo, esq., governor of Haslar Hospital, to the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen, dated 24 March 1800, relative to the rise which has taken place in the articles of beef, mutton, and oatmeal since Mr. Owen took the contract to supply the hospital, ib. 487—Copy of letter from the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen to Mr. Richard Owen, of Fareham, dated 27 March 1800, intimating their intention not to release him from his contract for supplying sundry articles of provisions for the service of the Royal Hospital at Haslar, ib. 488.

HASLAR HOSPITAL—continued.4. Mr. Owen's Victualling Contract—continued.

5. Coal Contract :

Copy of minute of Sick and Wounded Board, dated 25 October 1799, on the subject of the coal contract for the supply of Haslar Hospital, Rep. xiii. App. 518.

6. Sureties of Contractors :

Letter from the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen to William Yeo, esq., governor of Haslar Hospital, dated 23 December 1799, directing him to call upon the contractors for the supply of provisions to the Royal Hospital for the names of their securities, Rep. iii. App. 486, 487.

See also Governor of Haslar Hospital. Hammond, John. Hoskins, Thomas. Mottley, George. Naters, Mr. Owen, Richard. Rose, Thomas. Weekly Returns. Yeo, William.

HAY, JOSEPH & Co., MESSRS. :

1. Victualling Sick Prisoners of War.
2. Compensation for Losses on Victualling Contract.

1. Victualling Sick Prisoners of War :

Observations of the Commissioners on the offer made by Messrs. Hay & Co. to the Board for sick and wounded seamen, for supplying the sick prisoners of war at the depôts with provisions, Rep. xiii. 375, 376—Copy of letter from Messrs. Joseph Hay & Co. to the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen, dated 18 December 1799, offering to victual the sick prisoners of war at the several depôts, Rep. xiii. App. 503—Copy of letter from Messrs. Joseph Hay & Co. to the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen, dated 26 March 1800, offering to contract for victualling all prisoners of war on the hospital diets at sixteen pence each per day, ib. 504.

2. Compensation for Losses on Victualling Contract :

Copy of letter from Messrs. Joseph Hay & Co. to the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen, dated 23 July 1800, urging the Board to make them an allowance for the losses which they have sustained on their contract, Rep. xiii. App. 505.

"Hector," The Ship. Remarks of the Commissioners on the inferior quality of the hemp shipped from Riga, by Mr. Lindegren, in the ship "Hector," for Chatham yard, Rep. xii. 26—Copy of letter from the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Chatham to the honourable the Navy Board, dated 19 September 1799, complaining of the inferior quality of the Riga hemp unloaded from the ship "Hector," John Pringle, master, Rep. xii. App. 224—Copy of letter from the officers of His Majesty's yard at Chatham to the honourable Navy Board, dated 30 September 1799, reporting upon the inferior quality of the Riga hemp unloaded at that yard from the ship "Hector," John Pringle, master, ib. 224, 225—Copy of letter from the officers of Chatham ropeyard to the Honourable Navy Board, dated 3 October 1799, reporting upon the inferior quality of the Riga hemp received at that yard out of the ship "Hector," ib. 225—Copy of letter from Charles Hope, esq., commissioner of Chatham yard, to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 16 May 1804, relative to the cargo of hemp of the "Hector," consigned to that yard in 1799 from Riga, ib. 226.

Hellyer, John. Examination of Mr. John Hellyer, of Gosport, late of Forton, publican, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry at Portsmouth, 13 February 1806, relative to the prices of butchers' meat, bread, beer, and coals at Gosport in December 1799, and the six first months of 1830, Rep. xiii. App. 501.

Helpless Wards. Nature of the payments made to the men in the helpless wards of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich in lieu of their allowances of provisions, Rep. xiv. 543.

4—Reports, 1806—continued.

HEMP:

1. Employment of Commission Agent.
2. Instructions to Government Agent at Riga.
3. Purchases of Hemp at Riga.
4. Disbursements of Government Agent.
5. French Agents at Riga.
6. Quality of Hemp purchased.
7. Chatham Yard.
8. Plymouth Yard.
9. Portsmouth Yard.
10. Woolwich Yard.

1. Employment of Commission Agent:

Copy of letter from the First Lord of the Admiralty to the comptroller of the navy, dated 6 January 1795, directing him to send a confidential person to Riga, to purchase hemp and naval stores secretly, Rep. xii. App. 61—Copy of letter from Sir Charles Whitworth, ambassador to Petersburg, to the Right hon. Lord Grenville, Secretary of State for the foreign department, dated 27 March 1795, on the subject of the employment of agents to purchase hemp at Riga and Petersburg secretly for Government, ib. 73—Copy of letter from the First Lord of the Admiralty to the comptroller of the navy, dated 27 February 1799, on the subject of the employment of an agent to purchase hemp on commission for the service of the navy, ib. 223.

2. Instructions to Government Agent at Riga:

Copy of instructions given by Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 9 January 1795, relative to proceeding to Riga to purchase hemp secretly for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 61, 62.

3. Purchases of Hemp at Riga:

Remarks of the Commissioners on the purchases of hemp on commission by Mr. Andrew Lindegren, at Riga, for the service of His Majesty's navy, from 1795 to 1799, Rep. xii. 3-28—Letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 2 May 1795, informing him of the purchase of 4,000 tons of hemp for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 192, 193—Letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 11 June 1795, relative to effecting purchases of hemp at Riga, in order to prevent the article falling into the hands of the French, ib. 196, 197—Abstract account showing the total quantities of hemp contracted for by the Navy Board, in each year from 1793 to 1800, both years inclusive, ib. 226.

4. Disbursements of Government Agent:

Abstract of the disbursements and claims of Mr. Andrew Lindegren for Riga Rhine hemp, by him purchased and delivered for His Majesty's service, pursuant to an order from Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 9 January 1795, Rep. xii. App. 92-94—Abstract of the disbursements and claims of Mr. Andrew Lindegren for Riga Rhine and Outshott hemp, by him purchased of the agents of the French Government at Riga, at an advanced price, in order to prevent the enemy from receiving any supplies of that article, ib. 95-98—State of the disbursements and claims of Mr. Andrew Lindegren for Riga Rhine and Outshott hemp, by him purchased and delivered for His Majesty's service, pursuant to an order from Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 9 January 1795, ib. 100-110—Abstract of the disbursements of Mr. Andrew Lindegren for Riga Rhine hemp, by him purchased and delivered for His Majesty's service, shipped at Riga, between 20 June and 5 August 1797, ib. 120-123—Abstract of the disbursements of Mr. Andrew Lindegren for Riga Rhine hemp, by him purchased for His Majesty's service in the year 1799, ib. 124-129.

5. French Agents at Riga:

Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq., to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the Navy, dated 11 April 1795, respecting the efforts made by him with the Hamburgh merchants to deprive the French of their supplies of hemp from Riga, Rep. xii. App. 227.

6. Quantity of Hemp purchased:

Account showing the state and quality of the several cargoes of Riga hemp at the time of delivery at His Majesty's several dockyards, Rep. xii. 6, 7.

7. Chatham Yard:

Account of the quantity of hemp supplied by commission and received into His Majesty's yard at Chatham since 1 January 1793, Rep. xii. App. 132, 133—Copy of letter from the officers of His Majesty's yard at Chatham to the Committee of Stores, dated 24 August 1797, relative to the quality of the hemp consigned to that yard, bought by commission at Riga, ib. 216.

8. Plymouth

4—Reports, 1806—continued.

HEMP—continued.8. Plymouth Yard:

Copy of report of the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth to the honourable Navy Board, dated 28 October 1797, of the quality of the hemp purchased by commission at Riga by Mr. Lindegren, Rep. xii. App. 59—Copy of report of the officers of Plymouth yard, dated 4 November 1797, on the same subject, ib. 59. 60—Copy of report of the Plymouth officers, dated 6 January 1798, on the same, ib. 60—Account of the quantity of hemp supplied by commission to His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, since 1 January 1793, ib. 138, 139.

9. Portsmouth Yard:

Account of the quantity of hemp supplied by commission to His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth, since 1 January 1793, prepared in pursuance of directions from Commissioner Sir Charles Saxton, Rep. xii. App. 134-137.

19. Woolwich Yard:

Account of the hemp purchased on commission and received into His Majesty's stores at Woolwich, between 1 January 1793 and 17 October 1803, Rep. xii. App. 130, 131.

See also Hamburgh Merchants. Outshott Hemp. Petersburg Hemp. Purchases of Stores, 2. Quality of Hemp. Rhine Hemp. Riga Hemp. Selby & Co., Messrs.

Hemp Laden Ships. See Freights, 1.

"Henniker," The Ship. Copy of the letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq., to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 3 September 1795, reporting the sailing from Riga of the ship "Henniker," Captain Winter, with masts and bowsprits for Portsmouth or Plymouth, for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 255.

Henslow, Sir John. Observations of the Commissioners on the part taken by Sir John Henslow with reference to the rate of commission to be allowed Mr. Lindegren on the purchases of hemp and other naval stores at Riga, Rep. xii. 14, 15—Examination of Sir John Henslow, knight, joint surveyor of His Majesty's navy, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 23 April 1805, relative to the employment of Mr. Lindegren to proceed to Russia to purchase naval stores on commission for the service of the navy, Rep. xii. App. 202-205.

Hewson, William. Examination of Mr. William Hewson, coal merchant, of Gosport, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Military Inquiry, 7 February 1806, relative to the price of coals at Gosport in the month of December 1799, and in each month of the year 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 480, 481.

Hickman, Stephen Collman. Examination of Mr. Stephen Collman Hickman, brewer to the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 18 April 1806, relative to the mode of conducting the brewing business of that institution, Rep. xiv. App. 669, 670.

High Court of Admiralty. See Scott, Right honourable Sir William.

Hodge, Mr. See Chapell & Hodge, Messrs.

Holding of Courts. See General Court of Commissioners, 1.

Hooper, George. Observations of the Commissioners on the circumstance of the signature of Mr. George Hooper to Dr. Mein's certificates being fraudulently obtained, Rep. xiii. 373, 374—Examination of Mr. George Hooper, a butcher at Gosport, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 23 December 1805, relative to the system of supplying the Royal Hospital at Haslar and sick prisoners of war at Portsmouth and its neighbourhood with beef and mutton by contract, Rep. xiii. App. 462-465.

Hope, Charles. Copy of letter from Charles Hope, esq., commissioner of Chatham yard, to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 16 May 1804, relative to the cargoes of hemp of the "Nymphie" and "Hector," consigned to that yard in 1799 from Riga, Rep. xii. App. 226.

Horn, Master. See "Three Brothers," The Ship.

Hoskins, Thomas. Examination of Mr. Thomas Hoskins, of Gosport, coal merchant, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry at the Royal Hospital at Haslar, 7 February 1806, relative to the price of coals at Gosport in December 1799, and in the four first months of the year 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 481, 482.

HOSPITAL ESTATES (GREENWICH HOSPITAL):

1. Grant of the Derwentwater Estate.
2. Management of Property.
3. Rental.
4. Charges and Outgoings.
5. Leasing of Farms and Collieries.
6. Valuation of Hospital Estates.
7. Lead Mines.
8. Visitation of Estates.
9. Receivers of Hospital Estates.

1. Grant of the Derwentwater Estate:

Circumstance of the estates of the Earl of Derwentwater being granted to Greenwich Hospital, Rep. xiv. 525.

2. Management of Property:

Observations of the Commissioners on the management of the estates of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich by the receivers appointed by the general court, Rep. xiv. 529, 530.

3. Rental:

Amount of the rents received from houses and lands belonging to the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich in the years 1770, 1780, 1790, 1800, and 1805, Rep. xiv. 528—Statement of the gross rental of the northern estates belonging to the Royal Hospital of Greenwich as it stood on 28 April 1806, Rep. xiv. 530; App. 580, 581—Account of the total revenue of the corporation of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich from the northern estates, independent of the timber, Rep. xiv. 531—Account of the estates of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich as they stood on 28 April 1806, Rep. xiv. App. 566–581.

4. Charges and Outgoings:

Estimate of the annual charge incurred for buildings, repairs, fencing, planting, law charges, &c., on the estates of the Royal Hospital of Greenwich in the north, including an annuity to the Earl of Newburgh, Rep. xiv. 530—Detailed account of the receipt and expenditure of the Derwentwater estate, from 22 November 1804 to 21 November 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 590, 591.

5. Leasing of Farms and Collieries:

Observations of the Commissioners on the mode of letting the farms and collieries on the Greenwich Hospital estate in the north, Rep. xiv. 529.

6. Valuation of Hospital Estates:

Statement showing the valuation of the estates of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich by the committee of directors on visitation, and the rents obtained by the late lettings, Rep. xiv. 528, 529—Valuation of the wood belonging to the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, in the north, made by Mr. John Surties, in the years 1804 and 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 593.

7. Lead Mines:

Account of the gross proceeds of the lead mines of the Derwentwater estate, the expense of smelting and refining, and the net proceeds, from 1796 to 1805 inclusive, Rep. xiv. App. 592.

8. Visitation of Estates:

Occasion of a general court of the commissioners and governors of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich determining upon a visitation of the hospital estates in the north, Rep. xiv. 527—Copy of minute of the general court of the commissioners and governors of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, which was held at the Admiralty Office on 23 July 1805, respecting the visitation of the hospital estates in the north by the governors, Rep. xiv. App. 564—Copy of minute of a court of directors of Greenwich Hospital, held at Salters' Hall on 31 July 1805, relative to the proposed visitation of the hospital estates in the north, ib.

9. Receivers of Hospital Estates:

Copy of minute of a meeting of directors of Greenwich Hospital, held at that place on 10 August 1805, directing an inquiry into the amount of salaries and other emoluments of the receivers of the hospital estates in the north, and the persons employed under them, Rep. xiv. App. 564—Account of the salaries and other emoluments of the receivers of the Derwentwater estates for the year 1804, and the net receipt on an average of the years 1801, 1802, and 1803, each year ending with 21 November, Rep. xiv. App. 586, 587.

See also Harrison, John 3.

4—Reports, 1806—continued.

Hospital Ships. Observation of the Commissioners on the contracts for victualling sick prisoners of war on board the hospital ships at the several depôts between the commissioners for taking care of sick and wounded seamen and Dr. Thomas Mein, surgeon in His Majesty's navy, Rep. xiii. 363-376.

See also Bristol Prison Hospital Ship at Chatham. Caton Hospital Ship (Plymouth).

Hospitals. Copy of letter from Dr. Mein to the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded Seamen, dated 18 December 1800, tendering for the contract for supplying the hospitals and depôts of Plymouth, Portsmouth, Chatham, and Stapleton, with provisions, Rep. xiii. App. 400.

See also Edinburgh Depôt Hospital. Forton Hospital. Liverpool Depôt Hospital.
Norman Cross Depôt Hospital. Portchester Hospital. Stapleton Hospital
(near Bristol).

House Property. Particulars and amount of the revenues of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich arising from house property, Rep. xiv. 527, 528.—Amount of the rents received from houses belonging to the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich in the years 1770, 1780, 1790, 1800, and 1805, ib. 528.

Hull, Port of. Account of the not duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Hull in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

Hurst, George. See "Selley," The Ship.

I.

Ilfracombe, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Ilfracombe, in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

"Industry," The Ship. Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq., to Sir Andrew Snape, Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 5 August 1795, reporting the sailing from Riga of the ship "Industry," Captain Forsyth, for Plymouth, laden with hemp for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 200.

INFIRMARY OF GREENWICH HOSPITAL:

1. Patients borne on the Establishment.
2. Expense of Establishment.
3. Management.
4. Sale of Provisions.
5. Diet of Patients.

1. Patients borne on the Establishment :

Return of the number of patients victualled in the Infirmary of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, on what is called the infirmary or physical diet, for one day in the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 671.

2. Expense of Establishment :

Observations of the Commissioners on the expenditure incurred by the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, on account of the Infirmary, Rep. xiv. 546, 547.—Detailed account of the expenses of the Infirmary of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, exclusive of medicines, for the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 671, 672.

3. Management :

Opinion of the Commissioners that the Infirmary in Greenwich Hospital should be under the immediate superintendence of the military officers, who should see that due attention be paid to the comfort and recovery of the sick, Rep. xiv. 547.

4. Sale of Provisions :

Copy of minute of the directors of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, dated 9 January 1724-5, relative to the prevention of patients in the Infirmary from selling their victuals, Rep. xiv. App. 657, 658.

5. Diet of Patients :

Minute of a meeting of the directors of Greenwich Hospital, held at Salters' Hall 14 August 1776, respecting the manner in which the pensioners in the Helpless Ward are victualled, and the expense which will attend the making an alteration in their diet, Rep. xiv. App. 666.

See also Diet, 4. Dispenser of Medicines.

IN-PENSIONERS, GREENWICH HOSPITAL :

1. Admission of Pensioners.
2. Disbursements.
3. Number borne on the Establishment.

1. Admission of Pensioners :

Class of persons who are entitled to admission as in-pensioners to the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. 541.

2. Disbursements :

Statement of the disbursements on account of the in-pensioners of Greenwich Hospital in the year 1805, Rep. xiv. 541.

3. Number borne on the Establishment :

Statement of the number of in-pensioners at present maintained within the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, together with the annual expense of their maintenance, Rep. xiv. 547.

Inspection of Provisions. Observations of the Commissioners on the practice in prison hospitals of appointing committees of Frenchmen to inspect the provisions sent in by the contractor, Rep. xiii. 385.

INSTRUCTIONS TO OFFICERS :

1. Commission Agent at Riga.
2. Government Agent at Petersburg.

1. Commission Agent at Riga :

Nature of the instructions given to Mr. Andrew Lindegren upon proceeding to Riga as commission agent to purchase naval stores for His Majesty's service, Rep. xii. 5—Copy of instructions given by Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 9 January 1795, relative to proceeding to Riga to purchase hemp and masts secretly for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 61, 62—Copy of the instructions from Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 20 January 1797, relative to the purchase of hemp and other naval stores at Riga secretly for His Majesty's service, ib. 215, 216—Copy of instructions from Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 6 March 1799, relative to the purchase of hemp and foreign naval stores in Russia, for the service of the navy, ib. 223.

2. Government Agent at Petersburg :

Copy of instructions from Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, to Mr. Cornwall Smalley, dated 9 December 1796, to purchase hemp at Petersburg secretly for Government, Rep. xii. App. 222.

Insurances. Remarks of the Commissioners on the practice of allowing merchants 10 per cent. upon the amount of the premium on insurances, Rep. xii. 47.

See also Angerstein, John Julius. Fenning, Samuel. Policies of Insurance.

Interest on Navy Bills. Remarks of the Commissioners on the circumstance of the Navy Board not requiring individuals to whom money has been advanced in navy bills to account for the interest on the bills, Rep. xii. 48.

Investment of Money. Regulations of the Board of Directors of Greenwich Hospital with respect to the investment in the funds of the unappropriated balances of the hospital, Rep. xiv. 535.—See also Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, 2.

INVOICES :

1. Riga Hemp Imported.
2. Foreign Naval Stores.
3. The Ship "Young William."
4. The Mast Ship "Selby."
5. The Mast Ship "Centurion."

1. Riga Hemp Imported :

Copy of invoice of Rhine hemp sold to Andrew Lindegren, esq., and shipped by his order, and for his account and risk, on board the "Ellison," Captain John Chapman, Rep. xii. App. 197—Copy of invoice of twenty bundles of Rhine hemp, and four bundles Oulshott hemp, being part of an extra quantity of hemp sold to Andrew Lindegren, esq., and shipped by his order, and for his account and risk, on board the "Sappho," Captain John Thompson Greathed, for the Thames, ib. 198.

2. Foreign Naval

INVOICES—continued.

2. Foreign Naval Stores:

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Andrew Lindegren, esq., dated 26 April 1799, on the subject of the invoices of masts, &c., purchased at Riga, for the service of the Royal navy, Rep. xii. App. 282—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 27 April 1799, with respect to making out the invoices for masts, &c., purchased at Riga for the service of the navy, ib. 283—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Andrew Lindegren, esq., dated 15 July 1799, relative to the method of making out the invoices for the masts purchased at Riga for the service of the navy, ib.—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Andrew Lindegren, esq., dated 16 October 1799, relative to the system of making out the invoices, transmitted by Messrs. Thorley, Morison & Co., for masts shipped at Riga for the service of the navy, ib. 284—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to the Honourable Navy Board, 22 July 1799, relative to the method of making out the invoices for masts purchased at Riga, by commission, on Government account, ib. 283, 284—Copy of letter from Mr. Lindegren to the Navy Board, dated 18 October 1799, on the same subject, ib. 284.

3. The Ship "Young William":

Copy of invoice of masts, bowsprits, and spars shipped on board the "Young William," Captain Richard Stamper, for Sheerness, from Riga, 27 May 1797, on order, and for account and risk of Andrew Lindegren, esq., Rep. xii. App. 278.

4. The Mast Ship "Selby":

Copy of invoice of masts, spars, and fir deals shipped on board the "Selby," Captain John Thompson, for Portsmouth, from Riga, 3 June 1797, by order, and for account and risk of Andrew Lindegren, esq., Rep. xii. App. 279.

5. The Mast Ship "Centurion":

Copy of the invoice of masts, spars, and fir deals shipped on board the "Centurion," Captain John Swales, for the river, from Riga, by order, and for account and risk of Andrew Lindegren, esq., Rep. xii. App. 280.

Ipswich, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Ipswich, in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

Issues of Money. Account of the imprest granted to Mr. Andrew Lindegren between 8 June 1795 and 25 November 1801, to enable him to purchase hemp and other naval stores for His Majesty's service, Rep. xii. App. 305-307.

Ivimy, William. Examination of Mr. William Ivimy, of Portsea, baker, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, at the Royal Hospital at Haslar, 7 February 1806, relative to the prices of bread at Portsea in December 1799, and in each of the first six months of 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 498-500.

J.

Jamaica Estate. Particulars respecting the property belonging to the Royal Hospital of Greenwich, in the Island of Jamaica, and its estimated value, Rep. xiv. 531, 532—Statement of the circumstances respecting Golden Vale estate, in the Island of Jamaica, belonging to the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. App. 594, 595.

See also Milligan, Robert. Paplay, George.

JAMAICA STATION:

1. Naval Storekeeper.
2. Commissariat Accounts.
3. Supply of Provisions and Naval Stores.
4. Demands for Naval Stores.

1. Naval Storekeeper:

Observations of the Commissioners on the gross abuses and irregularities in the office of naval storekeeper at Jamaica, Rep. xii. 337-346—Observations of the Commissioners on the conduct of the Navy Board in allowing Mr. Dick to remain so long in the situation of storekeeper, notwithstanding the many suspicious circumstances in his conduct, ib. 347-350.

2. Commissariat Accounts:

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Jamaica officers, dated 5 August 1799, requesting the quarterly returns of the remains of, and demands
710—XI. D D for

JAMAICA STATION—continued.

2. Commissariat Accounts—continued.

for stores, Rep. xii. App. 355—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Jamaica officers, dated 16 April 1799, signifying the displeasure of the Board at the manner in which the returns and accounts of the stores are made to the Navy Office, ib. 356—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Dick, naval storekeeper at Jamaica, dated 27 February 1800, relative to the delays in making up his quarterly returns, ib. 358—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Dick, naval officer at Jamaica, dated 1 March 1800, respecting certain omissions in several of his quarterly returns made to the Navy Office, ib. 358, 359.

3. Supply of Provisions and Naval Stores :

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Sir Hyde Parker, Admiral on the Jamaica station, respecting the supply of provisions for the service of the squadron on that station, Rep. xii. App. 355, 356—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Jamaica officers, dated 24 December 1799, relative to exceeding their instructions with respect to the purchase of stores for the use of His Majesty's squadron, at that station, ib. 357.

4. Demands for Naval Stores :

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Jamaica officers, dated 3 March 1800, relative to making demands for naval stores for the service of His Majesty's squadron at that station, Rep. xii. App. 357, 358.

See also Dick, James. Parker, Sir Hyde. Parker, Admiral Sir William. Seymour, Vice-Admiral Lord Hugh. Smith, Mr.

Jervis, J. Copy of opinion of J. Jervis, esq., counsel to the Admiralty, in the matter of Mr. James Dick, late naval storekeeper at Jamaica, Rep. xii. App. 355.

Jobson, Master. See "London," The Ship.

"John and Richard," The Ship. Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Officers of His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth, dated 10 December 1796, directing them to return the surplus timber to Mr. Lindegren, brought home in the ship "John and Richard," Rep. xii. App. 259—Report of the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 19 April 1797, of the number of Riga and Norway masts and spars received from Mr. Lindegren by the ship "John and Richard," David Suter master, ib. 268.

Johnston, Dr. Observations of the Commissioners on the conduct of the late Dr. Johnston, chairman of the Board for sick and wounded seamen, with reference to granting to Dr. Mein an allowance for losses on his contract, Rep. xiii. 365.

K.

Kelsey, Arthur. Examination of Mr. Arthur Kelsey, of Fareham, coal merchant, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, at the Royal Hospital at Haslar, 6 February 1806, relative to the average price of coals at Fareham in December 1799, and in each month of the year 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 482, 483.

King, Henry. Examination of Henry King, esq., carcass salesman in Newgate Market, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 13 December 1805, relative to the prices of ox beef and wether mutton at Newgate Market in the winter months of 1799 and spring of 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 455.

King's Yards. Copy of Minute of the committee of accounts of the Navy Board, dated 12 December 1803, directing the method to be pursued in the examination of certificates of stores delivered in His Majesty's dockyards, Rep. xii. App. 87—Copy of minute of the committee of accounts, dated 22 January 1804, on the same subject, ib.

See also Chatham Dockyard. Deptford Dockyard. Plymouth Dockyard. Portsmouth Dockyard. Sheerness Dockyard. Woolwich Dockyard.

L.

"Lady Annabella," The Ship. Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 5 August 1795, reporting the sailing from Riga of the ship "Lady Annabella," Captain Hare, for Woolwich, laden with hemp for the use of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 200.

Lancaster, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Lancaster, in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 604.

4—Reports, 1806—continued.

Landed Property. Particulars of the landed property belonging to the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, with the amount of rents received in the years 1770, 1780, 1790, 1800, and 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 528—Account of the real property of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, as it stood on 28 April 1806, ib. 566-581.

Lathwood. Observations of the Commissioners on the circumstance of Mr. Lindegren, bringing home lathwood in the mast-ships from Riga on his own account, without paying freight for the same, Rep. xii. 31—Extract of a letter from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son to Messrs. Chapell & Hodge, of Plymouth Dock, dated 31 July 1797, directing them to dispose of the lathwood and firewood brought home in the mast-ships from Riga, Rep. xii. App. 276.—See also Broken Stowage, 3.

LAW CHARGES (GREENWICH HOSPITAL):

1. Expenditure and Disbursements.
2. Affidavit of Solicitor.
3. Taxation of Bills of Costs.
4. Bill of Law Charges.

1. Expenditure and Disbursements:

Observations of the Commissioners on the heavy expenses of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, under the head of law charges, Rep. xiv. 537-541—Account of the sums paid by the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich for law charges, in each year from 1796 to 1805 inclusive, distinguishing the expense of the hospital from that of the Derwentwater estate, Rep. xiv. App. 612—Account of law charges of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, disbursed from 21 November 1804 to 21 November 1805, inclusive, ib.

2. Affidavit of Solicitor:

Opinion of the Commissioners that too great a reliance is placed on the affidavit which the solicitor is required to annex to his bill, Rep. xiv. 540.

3. Taxation of Bills of Costs:

Recommendation of the Commissioners that the solicitor's bills for law charges of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich should be submitted to the auditor previously to their being laid before the Board of Directors, Rep. xiv. 540.

4. Bill of Law Charges:

Bill of law charges and business done for the commissioners and governors of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, in the county of Kent, exclusive of the Derwentwater estate, from 31 March to 1 October 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 613-622.

See also Hospital Estates (Greenwich Hospital), 4. Tenants.

Law Officers of the Crown. Circumstance of the law officers of the Crown advising the commencement of a suit against Mr. James Dick, for the recovery of the premiums on bills drawn by him whilst acting as naval storekeeper at Jamaica, Rep. xii. App. 343-355.—See also Counsel's Opinion.

LEAD MINES (GREENWICH HOSPITAL):

1. Leases of Mines.
2. Revenue arising from Mines.

1. Leases of Mines:

Mode of leasing the lead mines belonging to the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, in the north, Rep. xiv. 529.

2. Revenue arising from Mines:

Account of the profits derived from the lead mines belonging to the Royal Hospital of Greenwich, in the north, Rep. xiv. 531—Account of the net proceeds of the lead mines on the Derwentwater estate belonging to the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, in the years 1799, 1804, and 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 585—Account of the gross produce of the lead mines of the Derwentwater estate, the expense of smelting and refining, and the net proceeds from 1796 to 1805 inclusive, ib. 592.

Leases. Observations of the Commissioners on the circumstance of the cost of their leases being borne entirely by the corporation of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. 541.—See also Tenants.

Leigh, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Leigh in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

Leith, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Leith in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

Letting of Estate. Mode of letting the farms and collieries upon the Greenwich Hospital estate, in the north, by public competition, Rep. xiv. 529.

“Liberty,” The Ship. Report of the officers of His Majesty’s dockyard at Portsmouth, to the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Navy, dated 19 April 1797, of the number of Riga and Norway masts and spars received from Mr. Lindegren by the ship “Liberty,” William Edgar, master, Rep. xii. App. 265. 268.

Lieutenant-Governor of Greenwich Hospital. See Bourchier, John.

LIGHT DUES :

1. Revenue arising from Light Dues.
2. Cost of Collection.
3. North and South Foreland Lights.

1. Revenue arising from Light Dues :

Particulars of the revenue derived by the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich from duties arising from lighthouses, Rep. xiv. 532, 533—Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses by the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603, 604.

2. Cost of Collection :

Account of the commission paid to the several collectors of the light duties by the Commissioners of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. App. 601—Detailed account of the expenses of collecting the duties of the North and South Foreland lighthouses, including the expense of repairs, &c. in that department, for the year 1805, ib. 602.

3. North and South Foreland Lights :

Account of the gross collection for the Foreland lights in each year from 1790 to 1805, both inclusive, showing the sums paid for salaries and the amount of the other disbursements in each year respectively, Rep. xiv. App. 602.

See also Collection of Light Dues. Foreland Lights. Receiver-General of Customs.

Lincoln, Robert. See “Anne,” The Ship.

LINDEGREN, ANDREW :

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1. Appointment to Commission Agency. | 9. Private Trading. |
| 2. Secret Instructions. | 10. Broken Stowage of Mast Ships. |
| 3. Purchases of Naval Stores. | 11. Transfer of Contracts. |
| 4. Dispatch of Hemp, laden and Mast Ships. | 12. Mast Contract. |
| 5. Invoices of Stores imported. | 13. Prices of Riga Masts. |
| 6. Commission on Purchases. | 14. Quality of Hemp imported. |
| 7. Disbursement Account for Hemp purchased. | 15. Agreement with Godfrey Thornton & Son. |
| 8. Naval Store Account. | 16. French Agents at Riga. |

1. Appointment to Commission Agency :

Circumstance of the comptroller of the navy selecting Mr. Lindegren, of Portsmouth, for the performance of the service of commission agent at Riga, Rep. xii. 4, 5.

2. Secret Instructions :

Copy of instructions given by Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 9 January 1795, relative to proceeding to Riga to purchase hemp and masts secretly for the service of the navy, Rep. xii. App. 61, 62—Copy of the instructions from Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 20 January 1797, relative to the purchase of hemp and other naval stores at Riga secretly, for the service of the navy, ib. 215, 216.

3. Purchases of Naval Stores :

Observations of the Commissioners on the purchases of hemp, masts, and fir timber on commission by Mr. Andrew Lindegren, for the service of His Majesty’s navy, from 1795 to 1799, Rep. xii. 3-28-50—Examination of Andrew Lindegren, esq., taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 20 March 1805, relative to the purchase of hemp and other naval stores by commission, for the service of the navy, Rep. xii. Rep. 145-183—Letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 2 May 1795, informing him of the purchase of 4,000 tons of hemp for the service of His Majesty’s navy, ib. 192, 193—Letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 11 June 1795, with respect to effecting purchases of hemp at Riga in order to prevent the article falling into the hands of the French, ib. 196, 197—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren,

LINDEGREN, ANDREW—continued.

3. Purchase of Naval Stores—continued.

Lindgren, esq. to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 18 June 1795, respecting the attempts made by the French agents to purchase hemp at Riga, Rep. xii. App. 199—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindgren, esq. to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 10 June 1796, relative to the purchase of masts and hemp at Riga for the service of the navy, ib. 214—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindgren, esq. to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 7 April 1798, on the subject of the masts and spurs purchased at Riga for the service of His Majesty's navy, ib. 281—Letter from Andrew Lindgren, esq. to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 24 April 1798, on the same subject, ib. 281, 282.

4. Dispatch of Hemp-laden and Mast Ships :

Copy of letter from A. Lindgren, esq. to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 5 August 1795, relative to the dispatch of ships laden with hemp from Riga, for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 200—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindgren, esq. to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 29 June 1796, informing the Board of the sailing of fifteen vessels laden with masts and timber from Riga to different ports in England, for the use of the navy, ib. 214—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindgren, esq. to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 18 July 1795, reporting the sailing from Riga of the ships "Yarico," "Ann," "Captain Cook," "Three Brothers," and "Freedom," laden with hemp for the service of His Majesty's navy, ib. 227, 228—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindgren, esq. to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 1 February 1796, reporting the non-arrival of two ships, laden with hemp and masts, from Petersburg and Riga, for His Majesty's service, ib. 229—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindgren, esq. to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 21 March 1797, relative to the shipment of the masts purchased by him on commission at Riga for the service of the navy, ib. 274.

5. Invoices of Stores imported :

Copy of letter from Andrew Lindgren, esq. to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 27 April 1799, with respect to making out the invoices for masts, &c. purchased at Riga for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 283—Letter from Andrew Lindgren, esq. to the Honourable Navy Board, dated 22 July 1799, relative to the method of making out the invoices for masts purchased at Riga on account of Government, ib. 283, 284—Letter from Mr. Lindgren to the Navy Board, dated 18 October 1799, on the same subject, ib. 284.

6. Commission on Purchases :

Amount of Mr. Lindgren's commission on the purchases of hemp and masts made by him prior to 1798, Rep. xii. 43—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 29 April 1805, relative to the allowance of commission to Mr. Lindgren for the purchase of naval stores at Riga, Rep. xii. App. 218, 219—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 14 May 1805, on the subject of the commission allowed Mr. Lindgren for the purchase of naval stores secretly for Government, ib. 221—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 16 May 1805, respecting the agreement entered into with Mr. Lindgren for the purchase of naval stores at Riga, for Government, ib. 221, 222—Letter from Andrew Lindgren, esq. to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 30 November 1799, relative to the amount of commission he is to receive on the purchase of masts at Riga for the service of the navy, ib. 284, 285.

7. Disbursement Account for Hemp purchased :

Official abstract and statement of the disbursements and claims of Mr. Andrew Lindgren for the purchase of hemp, in the year 1795, Rep. xii. App. 92-94—Abstract of the disbursements and claims of Mr. Andrew Lindgren for Riga Rhine, and Outshott hemp, by him purchased of the agents to the French government at Riga, at an advanced price, in order to prevent the enemy receiving any supplies of that article, ib. 95-98—Abstract of the cost and charges of ninety-two tons of Outshott hemp shipped on board the "London," Jobson, master, supposed to have been taken by a Dutch privateer, ib. 95-98—State of the disbursements and claims of Mr. Andrew Lindgren, for Riga Rhine, and Outshott hemp, by him purchased and delivered for His Majesty's service, pursuant to an order from Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 9 January 1795, ib. 100-110—Official abstract and statement of Mr. Lindgren's accounts for the purchase of hemp, in 1796, ib. 112-119—Abstract of the disbursements of Mr. Andrew Lindgren, for Riga Rhine hemp, by him purchased and delivered for His Majesty's service, shipped at Riga between 20 June and 5 August 1797, ib. 120-123—Abstract of the disbursements of Mr. Andrew Lindgren, for Riga Rhine hemp, by him purchased for His Majesty's service, in the year 1799, ib. 124-129.

LINDEGREN, ANDREW—continued.

8. Naval Store Account :

Copies of the accounts current between Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son and Mr. Andrew Lindgren, relating to the purchases of stores made by the latter for the service of the navy, under commissions granted by the Navy Board, in the years 1795, 1796, 1797, and 1798, Rep. xii. App. 206-209—Abstract of the disbursements of Mr. Andrew Lindgren, for cost and charges on Riga masts, &c., by him purchased for His Majesty's service, in the years 1795 and 1796, ib. 232-239—Abstract of the disbursements of Mr. Andrew Lindgren, for costs and charges of Riga masts, &c., by him purchased for His Majesty's service, in the year 1797, ib. 240-248—Abstract of the disbursements of Mr. Andrew Lindgren, for costs and charges on Riga masts, &c., by him purchased for His Majesty's service, in the year 1798, ib. 250-253—Letter from Andrew Lindgren, esq. to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 11 May 1805, transmitting an account current showing the balance due from him to the Navy Board, ib. 271—Letter from Andrew Lindgren, esq. to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 1 June 1805, transmitting to them an amended account current, ib. 272, 273—Transcript from the account of Mr. Lindgren, in the ledgers of Godfrey Thornton & Sons, entitled, "Disbursements for naval stores imported," ib. 286, 287—Extracts from the journals of Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Sons, explanatory of such items accounted for in the transcript from the ledger account, entitled, "Disbursements for naval stores imported," as were not contained in the general account with Mr. Lindgren, entitled, "His account of naval stores imported," ib. 288, 289—Account extracted from the foregoing, showing the sums received and paid by Mr. Godfrey Thornton & Son, which should have been carried by Mr. Lindgren to the account of the public, ib. 290, 291—Copy of Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son's account with Mr. Lindgren, entitled, "His particular account," for the years 1796, 1797, 1798, and 1799, ib. 294-303—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindgren, esq. to Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, dated 1 June 1797, relative to the balance due to him on the naval store account, ib. 304.

9. Private Trading :

Remarks of the Commissioners on the circumstance of Mr. Lindgren freighting the mast-ships from Riga with goods on his own account, and charging the duty and insurance to the public, Rep. xii. 30-40—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 24 May 1805 respecting Mr. Lindgren's trading on his private account whilst employed as the Government agent at Riga, Rep. xii. App. 257, 258—Letter from the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth to the secretary to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 7 May 1845, relative to the permission granted to Mr. Lindgren to remove, 185 small masts from Portsmouth dockyard brought there in the "Adventure" transport ship, ib. 264—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindgren, esq. to Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, dated 22 November 1795, relative to his private money concerns, ib. 304.

10. Broken Stowage of Mast Ships :

Copy of letter from Andrew Lindgren, esq., to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 3 November 1795, relative to procuring merchandize from individuals at Riga to fill up the empty space in the mast-ships to the outports, Rep. xii. App. 254, 255—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindgren, esq. to Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, dated 12 September 1795, relative to putting broken stowage on board the mast transport ships from Riga for His Majesty's dockyards at Portsmouth and Plymouth, ib. 255—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindgren, esq. to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 11 August 1797, on the subject of broken stowage necessary for the ships laden with masts at Riga, for the use of His Majesty's Dockyards, ib. 275, 276.

11. Transfer of Contracts :

Circumstances attending the transfer of contracts made by the Navy Board with Mr. Lindgren, for supplying His Majesty's dockyards with Riga masts and fir timber, Rep. xii. 51-53—Account of Mr. Andrew Lindgren with Messrs. Thorley, Morison & Co., for the purchase of masts and spars at Riga, for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 316, 317—Examination of Andrew Lindgren, esq., taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 3 July 1805, relative to the transfer of the contracts for the supply of Riga masts and fir timber for the service of His Majesty's navy, ib. 322-327.

12. Mast Contract :

Copy of contract made by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy with Mr. Andrew Lindgren, dated 3 April 1804, for the supply of Riga masts and fir timber for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 328-330.

LINDEGREN, ANDREW—continued.

13. Prices of Riga Masts :

Copy of letter from Andrew Lindgren, esq. to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 25 April 1798, relative to the prices of masts and bowsprits purchased at Riga for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 282.

14. Quality of Hemp :

Copy of letter from Andrew Lindgren, esq. to the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, dated 27 November 1797, relative to the complaint made of the bad quality of the Riga hemp delivered at His Majesty's dockyards at Portsmouth and Plymouth, Rep. xii. App. 315.

15. Agreement with Godfrey Thornton & Son :

Copy of agreement made and concluded on 27 February 1795, between Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son on the one part, and Mr. Andrew Lindgren on the other part, to provide from foreign parts certain articles of naval stores, Rep. xii. App. 77.

16. French Agents at Riga :

Copy of letter from Andrew Lindgren, esq. to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 21 June 1795, relative to the shipments of hemp made on account of the French government from Riga, Rep. xii. App. 199—Letter from Mr. Andrew Lindgren to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 9 August 1795, relative to the scarcity of hemp at Riga, and enclosing a further list of neutrals arrived to load stores for France, ib. 200, 201—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindgren, esq. to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 11 April 1795, respecting the efforts made by him with the Hamburgh merchants, to deprive the French of their supplies of hemp and naval stores from Riga, ib. 227—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindgren, esq. to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, comptroller of the navy, dated 6 September 1795, respecting the prices to be paid to the French agent at Riga, for the masts purchased of him for the service of His Majesty's navy, ib. 228, 229.—See also Hanbury, Messrs. Hemp.

Linkletter, Captain. See "Two Brothers," The Ship.

Liverpool Depot Hospital. Circumstance of the Board for sick and wounded seamen engaging Messrs. Hay & Company to provide for the sick prisoners of war at Liverpool depot, Rep. xiii. 376—Copy of letter from the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen to Messrs. Hay & Co., dated 20 December 1799, directing them to take steps for victualling the sick French prisoners of war at the depôts at Norman Cross, Edinburgh, and Liverpool, Rep. xiii. App. 504.

Liverpool, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Liverpool in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

"Liverpool," The Ship. Copy of letter from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son to Messrs. Chapell & Hodge of Plymouth dock, dated 9 August 1797, directing an examination of the masts shipped from Riga on board the ship "Liverpool," Rep. xii. App. 277.

See also Broken Stowage, 7.

Living. Particulars respecting the livings belonging to the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, in the gift of the governors, Rep. xiv. 550—Account of the livings belonging to the corporation of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. App. 680.

See also Presentations to Livings.

London City. Account of the assize of bread in the city of London in each week from 26 November 1799 to 30 December 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 456.

See also Woodthorpe, Henry.

London Estate. Account of the rents received from house property belonging to the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, situate in the city of London, in the years 1770, 1780, 1790, 1800, and 1805, Rep. xiv. 528—Account of the amount received by the corporation of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, from the rents of the houses and tenements in London, ib. 531.

London, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses in the port of London, oversea, and from coasters, in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

"London," The Ship. Abstract of the cost and charges of 92 tons of Outshoot hemp, shipped on board the "London," Jobson master, supposed to have been taken by a Dutch privateer, Rep. xii. App. 95, 98.

"Lord Hood," The Ship. Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Officers of His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth, dated 10 December 1796, directing them to return the surplus timber to Mr. Lindgren, brought home in the transport ship

“Lord Hood,” The Ship—continued.

“Lord Hood,” Rep. xii. App. 259—Report of the officers of His Majesty’s dockyard at Portsmouth to the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Navy, dated 19 April 1797, of the number of Riga and Norway masts and spars and pieces of fir timber received from Mr. Lindegren, by the ship “Lord Hood,” Harrop Pringle master, ib. 266. 268.

Losses on Contracts. Remarks of the Commissioners on Dr. Mein’s claims for compensation for losses sustained by him, in the performance of his contracts for victualling sick prisoners of war, Rep. xiii. 373.

See also Allowances for Losses. Compensation for Losses.

Lucas, John. Examination of Mr. John Lucas, a butcher at Gosport, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 10 January 1806, relative to the prices of butchers’ meat in the winter months of 1799 and spring of 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 459. 460.

Lynn, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the port of Lynn in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

M.

Maintenance of Prisoners. Mutual agreement entered into between Great Britain and France respectively to maintain their own subjects, being prisoners of war, Rep. xiii. 364.

See also Cost of Maintenance.

Maldon, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Maldon in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

Management. See Infirmery of Greenwich Hospital, 3.

Manners-Sutton, Thomas. Copy of opinion of Thomas Manners-Sutton, His Majesty’s Solicitor-general, in the matter of Mr. James Dick, late naval storekeeper at Jamaica, Rep. xii. App. 355.

Marines. See Sixpenny Duty.

Market Prices of Provisions. Circumstance of the Board for sick and wounded seamen desiring the governor of Haslar Hospital to report weekly the market prices of beef, mutton, bread, coals, and beer in the neighbourhood of Haslar, Rep. xiii. 377, 378.

See also Certificates, 1.

Market Tolls (Greenwich). Account of the amount received by the corporation of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich from the tolls of the market at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. 531.

MARTYR, JOSEPH:

1. Bill of Law Charges.

2. Conduct of the Law Business of Greenwich Hospital.

1. Bill of Law Charges:

Copy of bill of law charges and business done for the commissioners and governors of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich by Joseph Martyr, solicitor, from 31 March to 1 October 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 613-632.

2. Conduct of the Law Business of Greenwich Hospital:

Examination of Joseph Martyr, esq., solicitor to the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 14 June 1806, relative to the manner in which the law business of that institution is conducted, Rep. xiv. App. 632-637.

Marwood, Captain. See “Ann,” The Ship.

Mast Ships (Broken Stowage). Observations of the Commissioners on the circumstance of Mr. Lindegren bringing home small articles of broken stowage in the mast ships from Riga on his own account, with paying freight for the same, Rep. xii. 30-40—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 3 November 1795, relative to procuring merchandize from individuals at Riga to fill up the empty space in the mast ships, to the outports, Rep. xii. App. 254, 255—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, dated 12 September 1795, relative to putting broken stowage on board the mast transport ships from Riga, for His Majesty’s dockyards, ib. 255—Copy of letter from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son to Messrs. Chapell & Hodge, of Plymouth dock, dated 15 August 1797, directing the sale of the timber received by the mast ships from Riga, ib. 277.—See also Broken Stowage, 1. Freights, 3.

Master Ropemaker. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of the master ropemaker of Plymouth with reference to the inferior quality of the hemp delivered at that yard, by persons employed by the Navy Board, during the late war, Rep. xii. 3.

MASTS :

- | | |
|---|----------------------------------|
| 1. Purchase of Masts at Riga. | 6. Mast-laden Ships. |
| 2. Commission on Purchases of Masts. | 7. Broken Stowage. |
| 3. Mast Contracts. | 8. Plymouth Yard. |
| 4. Prices of Masts ; Disbursements of Agent. | 9. Portsmouth Yard. |
| 5. Norway Masts. | 10. French Agent at Riga. |

1. Purchase of Masts at Riga :

Observations of the Commissioners on the purchases of masts on commission by Mr. Andrew Lindegren at Riga, for the service of His Majesty's navy, from 1795 to 1799, Rep. xii. 28-50—Copy of instructions given by Sir Andrew Snape Hammond, bart., comptroller of the navy, to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 9 January 1795, relative to proceeding to Riga to purchase hemp and masts for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 61, 62—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 10 June 1796, relative to the purchase of masts and hemp at Riga for the service of the navy, ib. 214—Copy of letter from the First Lord of the Admiralty to the comptroller of the navy, dated 27 February 1799, on the subject of the employment of an agent to purchase masts on commission for the service of the navy, ib. 223.

2. Commission on Purchases of Masts :

Letter from R. A. Nelson, esq., secretary of the Navy Board, to John Williams, esq., secretary of the Naval Inquiry Commission, dated 20 August 1805, respecting the rate of commission allowed to Messrs. Wale, Pierson & Co. on their purchases of masts at Riga, in the American war, Rep. xii. App. 260.

3. Mast Contracts :

Particulars of the different parcels of masts contracted for, to be delivered in the year 1796, including all those that were sold to the French agent, and such as he was in treaty for, Rep. xii. App. 230—Copy of the contract made by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy with Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 3 May 1799, for the supply of masts for the service of His Majesty's navy, ib. 316, 317—Copy of contract made by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy with Mr. Samuel Sanders, dated 2 May 1800, for the supply of masts from Riga for the service of His Majesty's navy, ib. 319-321—Copy of contract made by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy with Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 3 April 1804, for the supply of Riga masts and fir timber for the service of His Majesty's Navy, ib. 328-330—Copy of contract made by the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy with Messrs. Thorntons Brothers & Co., dated 3 April 1804, for the supply of Riga masts and fir timber for the service of His Majesty's navy, ib. 330-333.

4. Prices of Masts ; Disbursements of Agent :

Copy of a letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 6 September 1795, respecting the prices to be paid to the French agent at Riga for the masts purchased of him for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 228, 229—Abstract of the disbursements of Mr. Andrew Lindegren, for cost and charges on Riga masts, &c. by him purchased for His Majesty's service in the years 1795 and 1796, ib. 232-238—Abstract of the disbursements of Mr. Andrew Lindegren for cost and charges on Riga masts, &c. by him purchased for His Majesty's service in the year 1797, ib. 240-248—Abstract of the disbursements of Mr. Andrew Lindegren for cost and charges on Riga masts, &c. by him purchased for His Majesty's service in the year 1798, ib. 250-253.

5. Norway Masts :

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 26 April 1796, directing him to procure 2,000 loads of Riga fir timber, and a large quantity of Norway masts, Rep. xii. App. 258—Letter from the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Deptford to the secretary of the Naval Inquiry Commission, dated 16 September 1805, acquainting him of their inability to state in what manner the Norway masts sent on shore from the ship "Adventure" were disposed of, ib. 260.

6. Masts-laden Ships :

Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 1 February 1796, reporting the non-arrival of the ship "Adventure," laden with masts from Riga to Plymouth, Rep. xii. App. 229—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 21 March 1797, relative to the shipment of masts purchased by him on commission at Riga for the service of the navy, ib. 274.

MASTS—continued.7. Broken Stowage:

Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth, dated 13 October 1796, directing them not to receive any Norway masts out of the ships which will bring the Riga masts from Mr. Lindegren, Rep. xii. App. 259.

8. Plymouth Yard:

Copy of a letter from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son to Messrs. Chapell & Hodge, of Plymouth dock, dated 9 August 1797, directing an examination of the masts shipped from Riga on board the ships "Nestor" and "Liverpool," Rep. xii. App. 277.

9. Portsmouth Yard:

Account of masts received into His Majesty's stores at Portsmouth yard from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, on account of Government, out of the "Barnes" transport, per Navy Board's warrant of 25 September 1795, Rep. xii. App. 262—Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth, dated 27 April 1796, directing them to receive a large quantity of Norway masts, procured by Mr. Lindegren at Riga for the service of the navy, ib. 264—Account of the number of masts received at His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth in the year 1797 from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, on account of Mr. Andrew Lindegren, specifying the several ships' names the stores were imported in, and the quantity delivered by each, ib. 265-270.

10. French Agent at Riga:

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Lindegren, dated 11 August 1795, approving of his efforts to induce the French agent at Riga to dispose of the masts and other naval stores purchased for his government, Rep. xii. App. 228.

See also Norway Masts. Small Masts.

Matthews, William. Examination of Mr. William Matthews, a butcher at Gosport, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, at the Royal Hospital at Haslar, 7 February 1806, relative to the prices of butchers' meat at Gosport in the winter months of 1799 and spring of 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 461.

Mayor of Portsmouth. Copy of letter from William Goldsaw, esq., mayor of Portsmouth, to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 4 January 1806, with an extract from the register of returns of flour and the assize of bread, as fixed at Portsmouth, between 3 December 1799 and 19 August 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 457, 458.

MEAT:

1. Average Prices.
2. Inferior Quality.

1. Average Prices:

Statement showing the average prices of beef and mutton in each month of the year 1800, according to the evidence of the witnesses examined at Portsmouth, and the average prices according to the weekly returns of the governor of Haslar Hospital, Rep. xiii. 378—Statement of the quantities of beef and mutton charged to Dr. Mein by Mr. Owen, as furnished to the prison hospital at Forton, from 21 December 1799 to the beginning of May 1800, and the quantities on which Dr. Mein received the addition from the Sick and Wounded Board, ib. 380—Statement of the quantities of beef and mutton supplied by Messrs. Whitear and Lucas to the prison hospital at Forton, in the months of November and December 1800, and the quantities on which Dr. Mein received the additions, ib. 382.

2. Inferior Quality:

Observations of the Commissioners on the inferior quality of the meat supplied under the contracts with Dr. Mein to the prison hospitals at Forton and Portchester, Rep. xiii. 385.

Medicines. Recommendation of the Commissioners that all medicines for prison hospitals should be provided by the Sick and Hurt Board, and not by contractors, Rep. xiii. 386.

See also Dispenser of Medicines.

Meetings of the Board of Directors. Opinion of the Commissioners that the constant attendance of the solicitor to Greenwich Hospital at all the meetings of the Board of Directors is wholly unnecessary, and should be discontinued, Rep. xiv. 538.

MEIN, DR. THOMAS :

1. Victualling Contracts.
2. Agreement with Mr. Owen, of Fareham.
3. Rise in the Prices of Provisions.
4. Compensation for Losses on Contract.
5. Certificates of Prices of Provisions.
6. Destruction of Documents.
7. Supply of Provisions at Forton Hospital.
8. Patients in Portchester Prison Hospital.

1. Victualling Contracts :

Observations of the Commissioners on the contracts for victualling sick prisoners of war, between the Commissioners for taking care of sick and wounded seamen and sick prisoners of war and Dr. Thomas Mein, surgeon in His Majesty's navy, Rep. xiii. 363-376—Observations of the Commissioners on the terms of the second contract entered into by the Board for sick and wounded seamen with Dr. Mein, for victualling sick prisoners of war at the depôts, ib. 376-384—Copy of contract made by Dr. Mein with the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen, for victualling sick prisoners of war, dated 21 December 1799, Rep. xiii. App. 395, 396—Copy of contract made by Dr. Mein with the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen, for victualling sick prisoners of war, dated 26 March 1800, ib. 396-398—Copy of contract made by Dr. Mein with the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen, for victualling sick prisoners of war, dated 26 November 1800, ib. 398-400—Copy of letter from Dr. Mein to the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen, dated 18 December 1800, tendering for the contract for supplying the hospitals and depôts of Plymouth, Portsmouth, Chatham, and Stapleton with provisions, ib. 400—Examination of Dr. Thomas Mein, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 13 January 1806, respecting the system of victualling the sick prisoners of war at the depôts by contract, ib. 408-438—Letter from Dr. Thomas Mein to the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen, dated 26 November 1800, accepting the contract on the terms offered by the Board for victualling the sick prisoners of war at the several hospitals, ib. 420—Account showing the total number of persons victualled, and the sums paid to Dr. Thomas Mein, in each month, under his contract, 26 March 1800, and also the average cost of one person for a day in each month, ib. 515.

2. Agreement with Mr. Owen, of Fareham :

Copy of articles of agreement entered into by Dr. Grey, on the part of Dr. Mein, with Mr. Richard Owen, for the supply of beef, mutton, bread, beer, and various other articles for the sick prisoners of war at Ferlin and Portchester Hospital, dated 21 December 1799, Rep. xiii. App. 492, 493—Copy of articles of agreement entered into by Dr. Thomas Mein with Mr. Richard Owen, dated 26 December 1799, confirming the agreement made by Dr. Grey, and extending the supply to the depôt at Stapleton, near Bristol, ib. 493, 494—Copy of case submitted for the opinion of counsel by Dr. Thomas Mein and the assignees of Mr. Richard Owen, with respect to the articles of agreement entered into between Dr. Mein and Mr. Owen, on 26 December 1799, ib. 495-497.

3. Rise in the Prices of Provisions :

Copy of letter from Dr. Thomas Mein to the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen, dated 17 May 1800, complaining of the loss which he has sustained by the great and rapid rise in the price of provisions on his contract for supplying the hospitals for sick prisoners of war, Rep. xiii. App. 451—Copy of letter from Dr. Mein to the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen, dated 9 July 1800, inclosing a statement respecting the rapid and very great rise in the prices of provisions in the early part of the year 1800, ib.

4. Compensation for Losses on Contract :

Observations of the Commissioners on the application of Dr. Mein to the Board for sick and wounded seamen, for an allowance for losses sustained by him in the performance of his contract, Rep. xiii. 365-369—Statement presented by Dr. Mein to the Board for sick and wounded seamen, 9 July 1800, for an allowance for losses said to have been sustained by him under his contract of 21 December 1799, Rep. xiii. App. 452—Copy of letter from the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 14 November 1805, relative to the compensation made to Dr. Mein for the loss sustained by him in his contract for victualling sick prisoners of war, dated 22 December 1799, ib. 490, 491.

5. Certificates of Prices of Provisions :

Statement showing the difference in the prices paid by the Board for sick and wounded seamen at the Royal Hospital at Haslar, on 22 December 1799, and the prices according to

4—Reports, 1806—continued.

MEIN, DR. THOMAS—continued.5. Certificates of Prices of Provisions—continued.

to Dr. Mein's certificate on that day, Rep. xiii. 369, 370—Statement of additional sums paid to Dr. Mein, as they were computed upon the basis of the prices on 22 December 1799, as represented in the certificates delivered by him, and upon the increase of the prices, taken at the average from the weekly returns made by the governor of Haslar Hospital, ib. 379—Letter from Dr. Thomas Mein to the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen, dated 17 June 1800, relative to the difficulty in procuring certificates of the prices of provisions at the different depôts, and suggesting the taking the prices at Haslar Hospital as a standard, Rep. xiii. App. 439—Account showing the average price paid in each month for beef, mutton, bread, beer and coal supplied to the Royal Hospitals at Plymouth and Haslar; and also the prices paid to Dr. Thomas Mein for the like articles furnished for the use of the sick prisoners of war at the different depôts mentioned in his contract of 21 December 1799, from the 22d of that month to 21 December 1800, ib. 484, 485.

6. Destruction of Documents :

Observations of the Commissioners on the circumstance of Dr. Mein having destroyed the bills and receipts connected with his contract for victualling sick prisoners of war at the depôts, Rep. xiii. 372, 373.

7. Supply of Provisions at Forton Hospital :

Explanation given by Dr. Mein of the difference in the quantities of beef and mutton charged to him by Mr. Owen, as supplied to the prison hospital at Forton, and those in which he received the addition from the Sick and Wounded Board, Rep. xiii. 381.

8. Patients in Portchester Prison Hospital :

Letter from John Williams, esq., secretary to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, to Mr. T. Blatherwick, formerly surgeon of the prison hospital at Portchester, dated 26 April 1806, requesting an explanation of the reasons of the certificates granted to Dr. Mein, of the number of patients victualled at Portchester Hospital differing so materially in respect the numbers contained in the surgeon's quarterly books, Rep. xiii. App. 513, 514.

Memorial of the Navy Board. Observations, by way of supplement to the First Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, on the memorial of the principal officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, in answer to that report, Rep. xii. App. 337-350.

Merchandize. See Broken Stowage.

Merchant Service. Particulars and amount of the revenue derived by the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich from the sixpence per man, per month, from seamen in the merchant service, Rep. xiv. 526.

Merchants. See Hamburgh Merchants. Neutral Merchants. Russia Merchants.

MERCHANTS' COMMISSION :

1. Purchases of Stamps.
2. Government Agents at Riga.
3. Premiums of Insurance.

1. Purchases of Stamps :

Observations of the Commissioners on the rate of commission usually allowed to merchants shipping hemp from Riga, Rep. xii. 8, 9, 15.

2. Government Agents at Riga :

Rates of commission allowed Mr. Lindegren, Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, and Messrs. Thorley, Morison & Co., for the purchases of hemp made by them at Riga for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. 14, 20, 23—Rates of commission allowed Mr. Lindegren and Messrs. Thorley, Morison & Co., on the purchase of masts, fir timber, &c., imported in 1795 and 1796, ib. 32, 33—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Lindegren, dated 14 August 1798, on the subject of the commission to be allowed Messrs. Thorley and Morison, and Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, for the purchase of hemp and masts at Riga, for the service of the navy, Rep. xii. App. 217—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 10 May 1805, relative to the allowance of commission to Mr. Lindegren, and the merchants employed in the purchase of hemp and other naval stores at Riga, ib. 219, 220.

3. Premiums of Insurance :

Remarks of the Commissioners on the discount allowed to merchants on paying the premiums on insurance on sea policies, Rep. xii. 47, 48.

See also Commission, 1-6.

Metcalf, Captain. See “Thames,” The Ship.

Milford, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Milford in each quarter of the year 1815, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

MILITARY OFFICERS :

1. Infirmary at Greenwich Hospital.
2. Boys' School at Greenwich.

1. Infirmary at Greenwich Hospital :

Opinion of the Commissioners that the infirmary in Greenwich Hospital should be under the immediate superintendence of the military officers, who should see that due attention be paid to the comfort and recovery of the sick, Rep. xiv. 547.

2. Boys' School at Greenwich :

Opinion of the Commissioners that the school annexed to Greenwich Hospital for the education of poor boys, the sons of seamen, should be placed under the superintendence of the military officers, Rep. xiv. 548.

Mill Prison (Plymouth). Remarks of the Commissioners on the terms of the contract made by Dr. Mein with the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen, for victualling sick prisoners of war at Mill Prison, at Plymouth, Rep. xiii. 363-389.

Milligan and Mitchell, Messrs. Particulars respecting the West India property belonging to the Royal Hospital at Greenwich under the management of Messrs. Milligan and Mitchell, merchants in London, Rep. xiv. 532.

Milligan, Robert. Examination of Robert Milligan, esq., of the city of London, merchant, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 9 June 1806, respecting the Golden Grove estate in the island of Jamaica, belonging to the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. App. 595, 596.

MILN, HALLIDAY & CO., MESSRS. :

1. Purchases of Hemp.
2. Invoice of Stores.

1. Purchases of Hemp :

Large purchase of Riga hemp made by Government of the house of Miln, Halliday & Co., of Riga, Rep. xii. 12.—Abstract of the disbursements and claims of Mr. Andrew Lindegren for a quantity of Riga Rhine, and Outshott hemp, by him purchased of Messrs. Milne and Halliday, and others, agents to the French government at Riga, Rep. xii. App. 96-98.

2. Invoices of Stores :

Invoice of Rhine hemp sold by Messrs. Miln and Halliday to Andrew Lindegren, esq., and shipped by his order and for his account and risk on board the “Ellison,” Captain John Chapman, Rep. xii. App. 197.

Minchin, Thomas Andrews. Examination of Thomas Andrews Minchin, esq., of Gosport, attorney-at-law, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 27 January 1806, relative to the commission of bankruptcy taken out against Mr. Richard Owen, of Fareham, Rep. xiii. App. 491, 492.

Minehead, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Minehead, in each quarter of the year 1805; Rep. xiv. App. 604.

Mines. Mode of letting the lead and copper mines on the Greenwich Hospital estate in the north, Rep. xiv. 529.—See also Lead Mines.

Minutes of the Board of Directors. Circumstance of copies of the minutes of the Board of Directors of Greenwich Hospital not being furnished to the officers whose conduct they were intended to regulate, Rep. xiv. 550.

Misapplication of the Public Money. Opinion of the Commissioners that all misapplications of the public money, on occasion of addition being made to contract prices, should be deemed inexcusable and a ground of removal from office, Rep. xiii. 388.

Mitchell, Mr. See Milligan and Mitchell, Messrs.

Morison, John. Circumstance of the employment of Mr. John Morison, of the firm of Thorley, Morison & Co., to purchase hemp, on Government account, at Riga, Rep. xii. 9—Examination of John Morison, esq., Russia merchant, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 19 March 1805, relative to the purchase of hemp and other naval stores, on commission, at Riga and Petersburg, for the service of the navy, Rep. xii. App. 183-191.—See also Thorley, Morison & Co., Messrs.

4—Reports, 1806—continued.

Mottley, George. Examination of George Mottley, esq., agent to the Royal Hospital at Haslar, near Gosport, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, at that hospital, 5 February 1800, respecting the prices of beef, mutton, bread, beer and coals, at Gosport and Portsmouth, between 20 April and 28 December 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 506-508.

MUTTON :

1. Royal Hospital at Haslar.
2. Newgate Market.
3. Price of Mutton at Gosport.
4. Plymouth Dock.
5. Portsmouth Borough.

1. Royal Hospital at Haslar :

Statement, showing the difference between the prices paid for mutton by the Board for sick and wounded seamen, at the Royal Hospital at Haslar, and the prices according to Dr. Mein's certificate, on 22 December 1799, Rep. xiii. 369, 370.

2. Newgate Market :

Statement of the sales of beef and wether mutton at Newgate Market by the carcase, per stone of eight pounds, in each week of November and December of 1799, and January, February, March, and April 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 455.

3. Prices of Mutton at Gosport :

Statement of the average prices of beef and mutton at Gosport, in each month of the year 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 460, 461-464.

4. Plymouth Dock :

Statement of the Price of beef and mutton per cwt. at Plymouth Dock, in the month of December 1799, and in each of the first six months of 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 497.

5. Portsmouth Borough :

Statement of the average prices of beef and mutton per cwt. at Portsmouth, in each month during the year 1800 and 1801, Rep. xiii. App. 466.

N.

Naters, Mr. Letter from the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen, to the governor of Haslar Hospital; dated 14 April 1800, on the subject of compensation to Mr. Naters for his trouble in delivering 519 chaldron of coals for the service of the hospital, Rep. xiii. App. 509—Copy of minute of the Sick and Wounded Board, dated 25 October 1799—On the subject of Mr. Naters' contract for supplying Haslar Hospital with coals, ib. 518.

NAVAL CHAPLAINS :

1. Royal Hospital at Greenwich.
2. Simonburn Rectory.

1. Royal Hospital at Greenwich :

Objection of the Commissioners to the appointment of other than naval chaplains to the office of chaplain of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. 549.

2. Simonburn Rectory :

Recommendation of the Commissioners for making provisions for naval chaplains out of the rectory of Simonburn, in the gift of the Commissioners and Governors of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. 550, 551.

Naval Inquiry. See Commissioners of Naval Inquiry. Williams, John.

Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica. Observations by way of supplement to the First Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, on the memorial of the principal officers and Commissioners of his Majesty's navy in answer to that report, Rep. xii. App. 337-350.

See also Admiralty Board, 1. Broughton, Mr. Davis, William Gregory.
Derrick, Mr. Dick, James. Dismissal from Office. Gambier, Samuel, 2.
Harwood, Henry. Navy Bills, 5. Parker, Sir Hyde. Parker, Admiral Sir
William. Premium on Bills. Quarterly Accounts. Rule, Sir William.
Seymour, Vice-Admiral Lord Hugh. Smith, Mr. Storekeeper at Jamaica.

NAVAL STORES:

1. Secret Purchases abroad.
2. Instructions to the Government Agent.
3. Agreement between Messrs. Thornton and Mr. Lindegren.
4. Agents' Account Current.
5. Commission on the Purchase of Stores.
6. Riga Masts.
7. Portsmouth Yard.
8. French Agents at Riga.

1. Secret Purchases abroad:

Remarks of the Commissioners on the purchases of naval stores on commission, by Mr. Andrew Lindegren, for the service of his Majesty's navy, from 1795 to 1799, Rep. xii. 3-28-50.—Copy of letter from the First Lord of the Admiralty to the Comptroller of the Navy, directing him to send a confidential person to Riga to purchase naval stores, Rep. xii. App. 61—Copy of letter from Sir Charles Whitworth, ambassador to Petersburg, to the Right hon. Lord Grenville, Secretary of State for the foreign department; dated 27 March 1795, on the subject of employment of agents by Government to purchase naval stores at Riga and Petersburg secretly, ib. 73—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy, dated 10 June 1796, relative to the purchase of masts and hemp at Riga, for the service of the royal navy, ib. 214—Copy of letter from the First Lord of the Admiralty to the Comptroller of the Navy, dated 27 February 1799, on the subject of the employment of an agent to purchase naval stores on commission, ib. 223.

2. Instructions to the Government Agent:

Copy of the instructions from Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 20 January 1797, relative to the purchase of hemp and other naval stores at Riga secretly, for His Majesty's service, Rep. xii. App. 215, 216—Copy of instructions from Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, to Mr. Cornwall Smalley, dated 9 December 1796, to purchase hemp at Petersburg secretly, for Government, ib. 222—Copy of instructions from Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 6 March 1799, relative to the purchase of hemp and other naval stores in Russia for the use of the navy, ib. 223.

3. Agreement between Messrs. Thornton and Mr. Lindegren:

Copy of agreement made and concluded on 27 February 1795 between Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, on the one part, and Mr. Andrew Lindegren, to provide from foreign parts certain articles of naval stores, Rep. xii. App. 77.

4. Agents' Accounts Current:

Copies of the accounts current between Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son and Mr. Andrew Lindegren, relating to the purchases of stores made by the latter for the service of the navy, under commissions granted by the Navy Board in the years 1795, 1796, 1797, and 1798, Rep. xii. App. 206-209.

5. Commission on Purchase of Stores:

Account of the rates of commission granted to persons employed by the Navy Board to purchase naval stores for the service during the American war, Rep. xii. App. 145—Copy of minutes of the committee of accounts of the Navy Board, dated 7 and 10 August 1798, on the amount of commission to be allowed Mr. Lindegren on the stores purchased by him at Riga for the service of the navy, ib. 216, 217—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 14 August 1798, respecting the allowance of commission to merchants for the purchase of hemp and masts at Riga for the service of the navy, ib. 217.

6. Riga Masts:

Abstract of the disbursements of Mr. Andrew Lindegren for costs and charges on Riga masts, &c. by him purchased for His Majesty's service, in the years 1795 and 1796, Rep. xii. App. 232-239—Abstract of the disbursements of Mr. Andrew Lindegren, for cost and charges of Riga masts, &c. by him purchased for His Majesty's service, in the years 1797, ib. 240-248—Abstract of the disbursements of Mr. Andrew Lindegren for cost and charges on Riga masts, &c. by him purchased for His Majesty's service in the year 1798, ib. 250-253.

7. Portsmouth Yard:

Account of the articles (excepting hemp) supplied to His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth, under the commission granted to Mr. Andrew Lindegren to purchase naval stores, between the years 1795 and 1801, both inclusive, Rep. xii. App. 262, 263—Account of the number of masts, bowsprits, spars, and pieces of square fir timber received at His Majesty's

*NAVAL STORES—continued.*7. Portsmouth Yard—continued.

Majesty's yard at Portsmouth, in 1797, from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, on account of Mr. Andrew Lindegren, specifying the several ships' names the stores were imported in, and the quantity delivered by each, Rep. xii. App. 265-270.

8. French Agents at Riga :

Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to Sir Andrew Snape Hammond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 11 April 1795, respecting the efforts made by him with the Hamburg merchants to deprive the French of the supply of naval stores from Riga, Rep. xii. App. 227—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Andrew Lindregen, dated 11 August 1795, approving his efforts to induce the French agent at Riga to dispose of the masts and other naval stores purchased for his Government, ib. 228.

See also Accounts, 2. Broken Stowage. Distribution of Stores. Foreign Naval Stores. Invoices. Purchases of Stores, 3. Selby & Co., Messrs.

Navy Agents. See Agents, 2.

NAVY BILLS :

1. Date of Bills, and Rate of Interest.
2. Fees on Navy Bills.
3. Government Agent at Riga.
4. Premium on Bills.
5. Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica.

1. Date of Bills, and Rate of Interest :

Observations of the Commissioners with regard to the date at which imprest bills are issued by the Navy Board, and rate of interest they bear, Rep. xii. 48.

2. Fees on Navy Bills :

Copy of minute of the committee of accounts of the Navy Board, dated 10 August 1798, disallowing certain fees paid at the Navy Office for navy bills, Rep. xii. App. 217.

3. Government Agent at Riga :

Account of the imprest granted to Mr. Andrew Lindegren to enable him to purchase hemp and other naval stores between 8 June 1795 and 25 November 1801, Rep. xii. App. 305-307.

4. Premium on Bills :

Observations of the Commissioners on the practice of naval storekeepers at Jamaica appropriating the premiums on bills drawn by them upon the Navy Board to their own advantage and emolument, Rep. xii. App. 341-350.

5. Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica :

Observations of the Commissioners on the conduct of the Navy Board in permitting Mr. Dick, the successor of Mr. Smith, naval storekeeper at Jamaica, to draw bills upon the Navy Board, without adverting to the circumstances of his not having brought the premium upon them to account until September 1800, Rep. xii. App. 344-347.

See also Interest on Navy Bills.

NAVY BOARD :

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1. Purchases of Hemp and Naval Stores abroad. | 9. Warrant to Officers of Chatham Yard. |
| 2. Merchant's Commission on Purchases of Naval Stores. | 10. French Agent at Riga. |
| 3. Naval Store Accounts. | 11. Non-production of Official Documents. |
| 4. Invoices of Stores. | 12. Transfer of Contracts. |
| 5. Broken Stowage of Mast Ships. | 13. Bristol Prison Hospital Ship at Chatham. |
| 6. Private Trading of Government Agent. | 14. Jamaica Officers. |
| 7. Quality of Hemp. | 15. Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica. |
| 8. Prices of Masts. | |

1. Purchases of Hemp and Naval Stores abroad :

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 8 July 1735, approving his proceedings with respect to the purchase of hemp at Riga, in order to prevent the article falling into the hands of the enemy, Rep. xii. App. 197—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Andrew Lindegren, esq., dated 2 September 1795, relative to securing hemp and masts at Riga for the service of the navy, ib. 201—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy

NAVY BOARD—continued.

1. Purchase of Hemp and Naval Stores abroad—continued.

Navy to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 2 August 1796, authorizing the purchase of 2,500 tons of hemp at Riga for the service of the navy, Rep. xii. App. 215—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 26 April 1796, directing him to procure 2,000 loads of Riga fir timber and a large quantity of Norway masts, ib. 258—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 20 April 1797, signifying the wishes of the Navy Board with respect to the distribution of the Norway goods and Riga timber to be delivered by Mr. Lindegren, ib. 274, 275—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 22 April 1805, respecting the orders and directions given from time to time to Mr. Lindegren to purchase masts and other naval stores for the service of the navy, ib. 312, 313.

2. Merchants' Commission on Purchases of Naval Stores:

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Andrew Lindegren, esq., dated 12 June 1795, on the subject of the allowance of commission on purchases, Rep. xii. App. 201, 202—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Co., dated 13 June 1795, relative to the rate of commission to be allowed their firm for the purchase of hemp for the service of the navy, ib. 202—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 14 August 1798, respecting the allowance of commission to merchants for the purchase of hemp and masts at Riga for the service of the navy, ib. 217—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of the Navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 10 May 1805, relative to the allowance of commission to Mr. Andrew Lindegren and the merchants employed in the purchase of hemp and naval stores at Riga for the service of the navy, ib. 219, 220—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 16 May 1805, respecting the agreement entered into with Mr. Lindegren for the purchase of naval stores on commission for Government, at Riga, ib. 221, 222.

3. Naval Store Accounts:

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 8 June 1804, relative to furnishing Mr. Lindegren's accounts, Rep. xii. App. 78—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Andrew Lindegren, esq., dated 7 March 1797, respecting the accounts rendered by Messrs. Thorntons, for the purchase of hemp and masts for His Majesty's service, ib. 292—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 1 June 1805, stating their inability to find the account current furnished by Mr. Lindegren to the Navy Board in 1797, ib.—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of the Navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 5 June 1805, on the same subject, ib. 293.

4. Invoices of Stores:

Letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Andrew Lindegren, esq., dated 26 April 1799, on the subject of the invoices of the masts purchased at Riga for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 282—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Andrew Lindegren, esq., dated 15 July 1799, relative to making out the invoices for the masts purchased at Riga for the service of the navy, ib. 283—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Andrew Lindegren, esq., dated 16 October 1799, relative to the making out of the invoices transmitted by Messrs. Thorley, Morison & Co. for masts shipped at Riga for the service of the navy, ib. 284.

5. Broken Stowage of Mast Ships:

Letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, dated 19 June 1795, relative to providing small articles of broken stowage for the "Barnes," mast ship from Riga, Rep. xii. App. 254—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Lindegren, dated 14 August 1795, relative to procuring freight for the surplus stowage of mast ships from Riga, ib.—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Navy to the officers of His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth, dated 10 December 1796, directing them to return the surplus timber to Mr. Lindegren beyond the quantity ordered, ib. 259—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Lindegren, dated 11 August 1797, on the subject of the broken stowage necessary for the ships to be laden with masts from Riga, ib. 276—Copy of letter from Thomas Tooke, esq. to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 22 July 1805, stating his inability to find any letter from the Navy Board to Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, in the year 1797, on the subject of broken stowage brought by the mast ships, ib. 277.

NAVY BOARD—continued.

6. Private Trading of Government Agent :

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 24 May 1805, respecting Mr. Lindegren's trading on his private account whilst employed as the Government agent at Riga, Rep. xii. App. 257, 258.

7. Quality of Hemp :

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 30 October 1797, respecting the inferior quality of the Riga hemp delivered at His Majesty's dock and ropeyard at Plymouth, Rep. xii. App. 313—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 27 November 1803, on the subject of the bad quality of the hemp delivered at Plymouth, from Riga, ib. 314—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Andrew Lindegren, esq., dated 18 November 1797, respecting the inferior quality of Riga hemp delivered at Portsmouth yard from the "Supply" hemp ship, ib.—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 21 November 1797, respecting the quality of the Riga hemp delivered at Plymouth yard from out of the ship "Agenoria," ib. 315.

8. Prices of Masts :

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Lindegren, dated 13 December 1799, with regard to the prices of the masts purchased at Riga for the service of the Royal Navy, Rep. xii. App. 285.

9. Warrant to Officers of Chatham Yard :

Copy of warrant from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the officers of Chatham dockyard, dated 5 October 1799, directing the disposal of the Riga hemp consigned to that yard by Mr. Lindegren, Rep. xii. App. 225.

10. French Agent at Riga :

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Lindegren, dated 11 August 1795, approving of his efforts to induce the French agent at Riga to dispose of the masts and other naval stores purchased for his government, Rep. xii. App. 228.

11. Non-production of Official Documents :

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 15 May 1805, stating their inability to furnish certain letters required by the Commission of Inquiry, Rep. xii. App. 218.

12. Transfer of Contracts :

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 29 October 1805, relative to the transfer of the contracts for Riga masts and fir timber for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 319.

13. "Bristol" Prison Hospital Ship at Chatham :

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 14 March 1806, relative to the amount of the pay and allowances granted by the Navy Board to Mr. Young, surgeon of the "Bristol" prison hospital ship at Chatham, Rep. xiii. App. 516.

14. Jamaica Officers :

Copy of letter of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Jamaica officers, dated 5 August 1799, requesting the quarterly returns of the remains of, and demands for stores, Rep. xii. App. 355—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Sir Hyde Parker, admiral on the Jamaica station, respecting the supply of provisions for the service of the troops on that station, ib. 355, 356—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Jamaica officers, dated 16 April 1799, specifying the displeasure of the Board at the manner in which the returns and accounts of the Jamaica officers are made to the Navy Office, ib. 356.—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Jamaica officers, dated 24 December 1799, relative to exceeding their instructions in the purchase of stores for the use of the squadron, on the Jamaica station, ib. 357—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Jamaica officers, dated 3 March 1800, relative to making demands for naval stores for the use of His Majesty's squadron on the Jamaica station, ib. 357, 358—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Dick, naval storekeeper at Jamaica, dated 27 February 1800, relative to the delays in making up his quarterly returns, ib. 358—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Dick, the naval officer at Jamaica, dated 1 March 1800, respecting certain omissions in several of his quarterly returns made to the Navy Office, ib. 358, 359.

NAVY BOARD—continued.

15. Naval Storekeeper at Jamaica:

Observations by way of supplement to the First Report of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, on the memorial of the principal officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, in answer to that report, Rep. xii. App. 337-350—Observations of the Commissioners on the conduct of the Navy Board in permitting Mr. Dick, the successor of Mr. Smith, naval storekeeper at Jamaica, to draw bills upon the Navy Board, without adverting to the circumstance of his not having brought the premium upon them to account until September 1800, ib. 344-347—Observations of the Commissioners on the conduct of the Navy Board, in allowing Mr. Dick to remain so long in his situation of storekeeper, notwithstanding many suspicious circumstances in his conduct, ib. 347-350.

See also Committee of Accounts. Comptroller of the Navy. Derrick, Mr. Gambier, Samuel. Hamond, Sir Andrew Snape, Bart. Harmood, Harry. Hartwell, Sir Francis John. Memorial of the Navy Board. Nelson, R. A. Rule, Sir William. Secretary to the Navy Board. Treasurer of the Navy. Warrants of the Navy Board.

Navy Office. See Accounts, 5. Clearing Bills. Davis, William Gregory. Fees. Foster, William.

"Nelly," The Ship. Copy of Letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq., to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 1 February 1796, reporting the non-arrival of the ship "Nelly," laden with hemp from Petersburg for Portsmouth, Rep. xii. App. 229—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, comptroller of the navy, dated 3 September 1795, reporting the sailing of the ship "Nelly," Captain Reid, from Riga for Woolwich, with further parcels of intended French hemp for the use of His Majesty's navy ib. 255.

Nelson, R. A. Letter from R. A. Nelson, esq., secretary of the Navy Board, to John Williams, esq., dated 20 August 1805, respecting the rate of commission allowed to Messrs. Wale, Pierson & Co. on their purchases of masts at Riga, in the American war, Rep. xii. App. 260.

"Nestor," The Ship. Copy of letter from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Sons to Messrs. Chapell and Hodge, of Plymouth Dock, dated 9 August 1797, directing an examination of the masts shipped from Riga on board the ship "Nestor," Rep. xii. App. 277.

See also Broken Stowage, 7.

Neutral Merchants. Circumstance of purchases of hemp being made through neutral merchants for the service of His Majesty's navy, in consequence of the embargo in Russia, Rep. xii. 7.

Neutral Vessels. List of neutral vessels arrived at Riga to load stores for France, Rep. xii. App. 201.

Newburgh, Earl of. Annuity granted to Earl of Newburgh, as a charge on the estates of the Royal Hospital of Greenwich, in the north, Rep. xiv. 530.

Newbury, John. Examination of Mr. John Newbury of Gosport, baker, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, at the Royal Hospital at Haslar, the 12th day of February 1806, relative to the price of bread in Gosport and neighbourhood on 22 December 1799, and the months of January, February, March, and April 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 470, 471.

Newcastle, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Newcastle in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

Newgate Market. Statement of the prices of ox beef and wether mutton at Newgate Market, by the carcase, per stone of eight pounds, in each week of November and December of 1799, and January, February, March, and April 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 455.

See also King, Henry.

Newhaven, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Newhaven in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

Norman Cross Depôt Hospital. Circumstance of the Board for sick and wounded seamen engaging Messrs. Hay & Company to provide for the sick prisoners of war at Norman Cross depôt, Rep. xiii. 376—Copy of letter from the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen to Messrs. Hay & Co., dated 20 December 1799, directing them to take steps for victualling the sick French prisoners of war at the depôts at Norman Cross, Edinburgh, and Liverpool, Rep. xiii. App. 504.

North Foreland Light. See Forelands Lights.

NORTHERN ESTATES :

1. Rental of Estates.
2. Value of Timber.

1. Rental of Estates :

Account of the rents received by the Royal Hospital at Greenwich from the northern estates, exclusive of the mines, in the years 1770, 1780, 1790, 1800, and 1805, Rep. xiv. 528—Statement of the gross rental of the estates, belonging to the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, in the north, as it stood on 28 April 1806, Rep. xiv. 530, App. 580, 581.

2. Value of Timber :

Estimated value of the timber growing on the estates of the Royal Hospital of Greenwich, in the north, and amount received on that account, since the estate was granted in 1755, Rep. xiv. 531.

See also Harrison, John.

NORWAY MASTS :

1. Purchases by Government Agent.
2. Deptford Yard
3. Portsmouth Yard.

1. Purchases by Government Agent :

Remarks of the Commissioners on the purchase of Norway masts made by Mr. Lindegren in the year 1797, for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. 36, 37—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of the Navy to Andrew Lindegren, esq., dated 26 April 1796, directing him to procure 2,000 loads of Riga fir timber, and a large quantity of Norway masts, Rep. xii. App. 258—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 20 August 1797, signifying the wishes of the Navy Board with respect to the distribution of the Norway masts and deals to be delivered at His Majesty's dockyards, ib. 274, 275.

2. Deptford Yard :

Letter from the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Deptford to the secretary of the Naval Inquiry Commission, dated 16 September 1805, acquainting him of their inability to state in what manner the Norway masts sent on shore from the ship "Adventure," were disposed of, Rep. xii. App. 260.

3. Portsmouth Yard :

Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Officers of His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth, dated 13 October 1796, directing them not to receive any Norway masts out of the ships, which will bring the Riga masts from Mr. Lindegren, Rep. xii. App. 259—Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Officers of His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth, dated 22 April 1796, directing them to receive a large quantity of Norway masts purchased by Mr. Lindegren at Riga for the service of the navy, ib. 264.

Nova Scotia. See Halifax (Nova Scotia).

NURSES (GREENWICH HOSPITAL) :

1. Cost of Maintenance.
2. Allowances in lieu of Provisions.
3. Number borne on the Establishment.

1. Cost of Maintenance :

Average cost to the Royal Hospital at Greenwich of the maintenance of one nurse in the year 1805, Rep. xiv. 541—Account of the number of pensioners and nurses maintained in the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich in each year, from 1 January 1790 to 31 December 1805, showing the cost of one pensioner and one nurse in each year, Rep. xiv. App. 639.

2. Allowances in lieu of Provisions :

Nature of the payments made by the butler of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich to the nurses in lieu of their allowances of provisions, Rep. xiv. 544.

3. Number borne on the Establishment :

Account of the number of boys and their nurses borne on the establishment of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich in each year, from 1 January 1790 to 31 December 1805, showing the cost of one boy and one nurse in each year, Rep. xiv. App. 674.

"Nymphe," The Ship. Observations of the Commissioners on the inferior quality of the hemp shipped from Riga in the "Nymphe" for Chatham yard, Rep. xii. 26—Copy of letter from the Officers of Chatham dockyard to the honourable Navy Board, dated 18 November 1779, relative to the inferior quality of the hemp from Riga brought by the ship "Nymphe," Robert Dawson, master, Rep. xii. App. 223, 224—Copy of letter from the Officers of His Majesty's yard at Chatham to the honourable Navy Board, dated 25 September 1799, reporting on the inferior quality of the Riga hemp landed at that yard from the ship "Nymphe," Robert Dawson, master, ib. 224—Copy of letter from Charles Hope, esq., Commissioner of Chatham yard, to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 16 May 1804, relative to the cargo of hemp of the "Nymphe" consigned to that yard in 1799 from Riga, ib. 226.

O.

OATHS:

1. Agents of the Victualling Board.
2. Solicitor to Greenwich Hospital.

1. Agents of the Victualling Board:

Nature of the oath required to be taken by agents employed by the Victualling Board, that they were in no way interested in the articles purchased previous to their being obtained for the Government, Rep. xii. 48.

2. Solicitor to Greenwich Hospital:

Observations of the Commissioners on the objectionable practice of requiring oaths from public officers, as instanced in the case of the solicitor to Greenwich Hospital, Rep. xiv. 540.

See also Victualling Board.

OFFICERS OF GREENWICH HOSPITAL:

1. Seafaring Men.
2. Fees to Officers and Clerks.
3. Half Pay.

1. Seafaring Men:

The charter requires all officers to be employed in the hospital to be seafaring men, or such as have lost their limbs, or been otherwise disabled, in the sea service, Rep. xiv. 526.

2. Fees to Officers and Clerks:

Recommendation of the Commissioners that the civil officers and clerks of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich be strictly prohibited from receiving any fee or gratuity of any kind whatever, Rep. xiv. 549.

3. Half Pay:

Particulars of the revenue derived by the Royal Hospital at Greenwich from the half-pay of the lieutenant governor, the captains, lieutenants, assistant surgeons, and dispenser's assistant, Rep. xiv. 534.

See also Barber of Greenwich Hospital. Butler of Greenwich Hospital. Clerk of the Cheque. Physician to Greenwich Hospital. Plurality of Offices. Salaries of Officers. Secretary of Greenwich Hospital. Steward of Greenwich Hospital.

Official Residences. Account of the different officers and persons to whom apartments are allotted in the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, according to the establishment of the hospital, Rep. xiv. App. 685.

Orders. See General Orders.

Orders in Council. See Secret Services.

"Orwell," The Ship. Report of the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 19 April 1797, of the number of Riga and Norway masts and spars received from Mr. Lindegren by the ship "Liberty," Durham Walker, master, Rep. xii. App. 269.

Osbolston, George. Bequest of the duties arising from the North and South Foreland lighthouses, by George Osbolston, to the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, in 1707, Rep. xiv. 533.

OUT PENSIONERS (GREENWICH HOSPITAL):

1. Expenditure of Out-Pensioners; Number borne on the Establishment.
2. Application of the Surplus Revenue of the Hospital.

1. Expenditure of Out-Pensioners; Number borne on the Establishment:

Observations of the Commissioners on the expense incurred on account of the out-pensioners of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich; number borne on the establishment, Rep. xiv. 547—Account of the number of out-pensioners of Greenwich Hospital, and the amount of their pensions in each year, from 1781 to 1790, both inclusive, Rep. xiv. App. 673—Account of the number of out-pensioners of Greenwich Hospital, from 1 January 1790 to 31 December 1805, stating the rates of pensions granted in each year, ib.

2. Application of Surplus Revenue of the Hospital:

Recommendation of the Commissioners with respect to applying the surplus revenue of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich towards the out-pensioners of that institution, Rep. xiv. 552.

OUTSHOTT HEMP:

1. Disbursements and Claims of the Government Agent at Riga.
2. Cargo of the Ship "Sappho."

1. Disbursements and Claims of the Government Agent at Riga:

Abstract of the disbursements and claims of Mr. Andrew Lindegren for 301 tons of Outshott hemp by him purchased of the agents of the French government at Riga, at an advanced price, in order to prevent the enemy from receiving any supplies of that article, Rep. xii. App. 95-98—Abstract of the cost and charges of 92 tons of Outshott hemp shipped on board the "London," Jobson master, supposed to have been taken by a Dutch privateer, ib.—State of the disbursements and claims of Mr. Andrew Lindegren for Outshott hemp by him purchased and delivered for His Majesty's service, pursuant to an order of Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 9 January 1795, ib. 100-110—Official abstract and statement of Mr. Lindegren's accounts for the purchase of Outshott hemp in 1796, ib. 112-119.

2. Cargo of the Ship "Sappho":

Copy of the invoice of four bundles of Outshott hemp, being part of an extra quantity sold to Andrew Lindegren, esq., and shipped by his order and for his account and risk on board the "Sappho," for the Thames, Rep. xii. App. 198—Copy of letter from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 26 March 1796, respecting a cargo of Outshott hemp that arrived from Riga by the ship "Sappho," for the service of the navy, ib. 213, 214.

OWEN, RICHARD:

1. Haslar Hospital Contract.
2. Agreement with Dr. Mein.
3. Portchester and Forton Hospitals.

1. Haslar Hospital Contract:

Remarks of the Commissioners on the contract entered into between the Board for sick and wounded seamen and Mr. Richard Owen, for supplying the Royal Hospital at Haslar with provisions, Rep. xiii. 370-372—Copy of letter from Mr. Richard Owen to the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen, dated 18 March 1800, requesting an increase of price on his contract to supply beef, mutton, and oatmeal to the Royal Hospital at Haslar, Rep. xiii. App. 487—Copy of letter from Mr. Richard Owen, of Fareham, to the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen, dated 5 April 1800, urging the Board for an increase of price on his contract for supplying certain articles of provisions to Haslar Hospital, ib. 488, 489.

2. Agreement with Dr. Mein:

Copy of articles of agreement entered into by Dr. Grey, on the part of Dr. Mein, with Mr. Richard Owen, for the supply of beef, mutton, bread, beer, and various other articles for the sick prisoners of war at Forton and Portchester Hospitals, dated 21 December 1799, Rep. xiii. App. 492, 493—Copy of articles of agreement entered into by Dr. Thomas Mein with Mr. Richard Owen, dated 26 December 1799, confirming the agreement made by Dr. Grey, and extending the supply to the depôt at Stapleton, near Bristol, ib. 493, 494—Copy of case, submitted for the opinion of counsel by Dr. Thomas Mein and the assignees of Mr. Richard Owen, with respect to the articles of agreement entered into between Dr. Mein and Mr. Owen on 26 December 1799, ib. 495-497.

3. Portchester and Forton Hospital:

Account of provisions supplied by Mr. Richard Owen to Portchester and Forton Hospitals, from 22 December 1799 to 31 January 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 511—Similar account for the months of February, March, and April 1800, ib. 511, 512.

P.

Padstow, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Padstow, in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 604.

Papley, George. Circumstance of Mr. George Papley, a prize agent at Jamaica, making over the Golden Vale estate, in that island, to Greenwich Hospital, for a debt owing by him for unclaimed shares of prize money, Rep. 531, 532.

Parker, Admiral Sir Hyde. Circumstance of Sir Hyde Parker being furnished with bills by the naval storekeeper at Jamaica for the remittance of money to England, without being required to pay any premium upon them, Rep. xii. App. 348—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Sir Hyde Parker, admiral on the Jamaica station, respecting the supply of provisions for the service of the troops on that station, ib. 355, 356.

Parker, Admiral Sir William. Circumstance of Rear-Admiral Sir William Parker calling the attention of the Navy Board to the practice of the naval storekeeper at Jamaica appropriating the premium on the bills drawn by him to his own advantage and emolument, Rep. xii. App. 341, 342.

Parliamentary Grants. Account of the sums voted by Parliament for the service of Greenwich Hospital since the year 1770, distinguishing the sums voted in each year, Rep. xiv. App. 681.

PATIENTS (GREENWICH HOSPITAL):

1. Helpless Ward.
2. Hospital Infirmary.

1. Helpless Ward:

Nature of the payments made to the patients in the Helpless ward of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, in lieu of their allowances of provisions, Rep. xiv. 543.

2. Hospital Infirmary:

Observations of the Commissioners on the medical diet of the patients in the infirmary of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. 546, 547—Copy of minute of the directors of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, dated 9 January 1724-5, relative to the prevention of patients in the infirmary, from selling their victuals, Rep. xiv. App. 657, 658—Return of the number of patients victualled in the infirmary of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, on what is called the infirmary or physical diet, for one day in the year 1805, ib. 671.—See also Infirmary of Greenwich Hospital, 1.

Patronage. See Church Patronage.

Paul, James. Examination of Mr. James Paul, of Gosport, miller, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, at the Royal Hospital at Haslar, 7 February 1806, relative to the price of bread in Gosport and neighbourhood in the latter part of 1799, and in the year 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 469, 470.

PAYMENTS OF MONEY:

1. Butler of Greenwich Hospital.
2. Prize Money.

1. Butler of Greenwich Hospital:

Manner in which the accounts of the numerous payments of money made by the butler of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, to the pensioners and nurses in lieu of allowances of provisions, are kept, Rep. xiv. 544—Opinion of the Commissioners, that the payments of money to pensioners of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich on the butler's list, should be made monthly by the steward, under the check of the clerk of the cheque, and in the presence of one of the military officers on duty, ib. 545, 546.

2. Prize Money:

Observations of the Commissioners on the regulations adopted under the Act of 45 Geo. 3, c. 72, with respect to the payment of prize money to the seamen in His Majesty's navy, Rep. xiv. 534, 535.

Peacock, John. Observation of the Commissioners on the evidence of Mr. John Peacock, a coal merchant at Gosport, and agent to Dr. Mein at Portsmouth, with reference to the manner in which the certificates of prices of provisions were obtained, Rep. xiii. 373-375—Explanation given by Mr. Peacock respecting the quantities of beef and mutton charged to Dr. Mein by Mr. Owen, as furnished to the prison hospital at Forton, and the quantities on which Dr. Mein received the addition from the Sick and Wounded Board, ib. 380, 381—Examination of Mr. John Peacock, of Gosport, coal merchant, taken upon upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 30 December 1805, respecting the supply of the sick prisoners of war at Forton Prison with provisions, by contract, Rep. xiii. App. 401-408.

4—Reports, 1806—continued.

Peacock, John—continued.

“Peggy,” The Ship. Circumstances attending Mr. Lindegren bringing home masts and firewood in the ship “Peggy” from Riga on his private account, and charging the insurance and duty to the public, Rep. xii. 35—Report of the officers of His Majesty’s dockyard at Portsmouth to the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Navy, dated 19 April 1797, of the number of Riga and Norway masts and spars received from Mr. Lindegren by the ship “Peggy,” William Eddington, master, Rep. xii. App. 267.

PENSIONERS (GREENWICH HOSPITAL):

1. Number borne on the Establishment.
2. Cost of Maintenance.
3. Allowances for Spare Provisions.
4. Sale of Provisions.
5. Profits on Provisions bought of Pensioners.
6. The “Butler’s List.”

1. Number borne on the Establishment :

Statement of the number of pensioners at present maintained within the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, together with the annual expense of their maintenance, Rep. xiv. 547.

2. Cost of Maintenance :

Average cost to the Royal Hospital at Greenwich of the maintenance of one pensioner in the year 1805, Rep. xiv. 541—Observations of the Commissioners on the expense incurred by the Royal Hospital at Greenwich on account of the in-pensioners, ib. 541-544—Account of the number of pensioners and nurses in the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich in each year, from 1 January 1790 to 31 December 1805, showing the cost of one pensioner and one nurse in each year, Rep. xiv. App. 639.

3. Allowances for Spare Provisions :

Many of the pensioners in Greenwich Hospital are permitted to have the option of taking up their provisions in kind, or of receiving money in lieu of the whole, or certain parts of their daily allowances, Rep. xiv. 542—Copy of minute of the directors of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, dated 9 January 1724-5, respecting the prices it might be proper to allow the pensioners for their spare provisions, Rep. xiv. App. 657, 658—Copy of minute of the Council of Commissioners and Governors of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, dated 14 July 1725, respecting the purchase of the pensioners, such part of their provisions as they might have to spare, ib. 658, 659.

4. Sale of Provisions :

Copy of minute of Council of the Commissioners and Governors of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, dated 4 August 1725, respecting the pensioners selling their allowances of provisions, to any but the steward of the hospital, Rep. xiv. App. 659—Minute of a meeting of the directors of Greenwich Hospital, dated 3 August 1776, on the inconveniences which attend the practice of the pensioners selling their provisions, with a view to its abolition, ib. 665—Minute of Council of Commissioners and Governors of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, dated 9 August 1776, directing the abolition of the practice of the pensioners selling their provisions, ib. 665, 666—Minute of a meeting of the directors of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, dated 10 August 1776, on the subject of the practice of the pensioners selling their provisions, ib. 666.

5. Profits on Provisions bought of Pensioners :

Detailed account of the profits on provisions bought of the pensioners in the year 1805, and also of savings arising from pensioners lent to assist in fitting His Majesty’s ships, Rep. xiv. App. 662-664.

6. The “Butler’s List” :

Opinion of the Commissioners that no man be admitted on the “Butler’s list” at Greenwich Hospital without an order from the council, and that such men as have families in the neighbourhood should be preferred, Rep. xiv. 545.

See also Admission of Pensioners. Allowances to Pensioners. Commutation of Allowances. Out-Pensioners. Table Allowances.

Penzance, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Penzance in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

Percival, Spencer. Copy of opinion of Spencer Percival, esq., His Majesty’s attorney-general, in the matter of Mr. James Dick, late naval storekeeper at Jamaica, Rep. xii. App. 335.

Perquisites. See Steward of Greenwich Hospital, 2.

PERSONAL PROPERTY :

1. Royal Hospital at Greenwich.
2. Charity School for Boys at Greenwich.

1. Royal Hospital at Greenwich :

Particulars respecting the personal property belonging to the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, and amount of interest derived from money in the funds, Rep. xiv. 532, 533—Account of the personal property of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, as it stood on 31 December in each year, from 1783 to 1789 inclusive, Rep. xiv. App. 597—Account of the personal property of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich from 1790 to 1805 inclusive, as it stood on the 31 December in each year, describing the securities in which it is invested, ib.

2. Charity School for Boys at Greenwich :

Account of the personal property belonging to the establishment of the charity boys at the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, from 1790 to 1805 inclusive, as it stood on 31 December in each year, describing the securities in which it is invested, Rep. xiv. App. 675.

Peters, Mr. See Thomson, Peters & Co., Messrs.

Peter's, St., Hill (London). Account of the rents received from four houses belonging to the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, situate on St. Peter's Hill in the city of London, in the years 1770, 1780, 1790, 1800 and 1805, Rep. xiv. 528.

Petersburgh. Circumstance of the Government employing Mr. Cornwall Smalley, a partner in the house of Thorntons and Smalley, as commission agent at Petersburgh, to purchase hemp and other naval stores for His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. 26—Copy of letter from Sir Charles Whitworth, ambassador to Petersburgh, to the Right honourable Lord Grenville, Secretary of State for the foreign department, dated 27 March 1795, on the subject of the employment of Government agents to purchase hemp at Riga and Petersburgh secretly, Rep. xii. App. 73.

See also Agents, 3. Smalley, Cornwall.

PETERSBURGH HEMP :

1. Private Speculation.
2. Navy Contract.

1. Private Speculation :

Particulars respecting a speculation in Petersburgh hemp entered into on the joint account of Mr. Lindegren, Mr. Morison, and Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, Rep. xii. 44, 45.

2. Navy Contract :

Abstract account showing the total quantities of Petersburgh hemp contracted for by the Navy Board, in each year from 1793 to 1800, both years inclusive, Rep. xii. App. 226—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 1 February 1796, reporting the non-arrival of the ship "Nelly," laden with hemp from Petersburgh for Portsmouth, ib. 229.

Physician to Greenwich Hospital. Observations of the Commissioners on the duties of the physician to the infirmary of Greenwich Hospital, Rep. xiv. 546, 547.

See also Private Practice.

Pierson, Mr. See Wale, Pierson & Co., Messrs.

Planks. Account of planks received into His Majesty's stores at Portsmouth yard from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, on Government account, out of the "Barnes" transport, per Navy Board's warrant of 25 September 1795, Rep. xii. App. 262.

Plurality of Offices. Circumstances of the places of first clerk to the steward and first mate to the butler in Greenwich Hospital being held by the same person, Rep. xiv. 550.

Plymouth Depot Hospital. Observations of the Commissioners on the contracts for victualling sick prisoners of war in the prison hospitals at Plymouth depot between the Commissioners for taking care of sick and wounded seamen and Dr. Thomas Mein, surgeon in His Majesty's navy, Rep. xiii. 363-376.

See also "Caton" Hospital Ship (Plymouth). Mill Prison (Plymouth).

Plymouth Dock. Statement of the price of beef and mutton per cwt. at Plymouth dock in the month of December 1799, and in each of the first six months of 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 497.

See also Chapell and Hodge, Messrs. Gilbert, John. Greenway, John.

PLYMOUTH DOCKYARD :

1. Quality of Hemp purchased at Riga.
2. Distribution of Naval Stores.
3. Broken Stowage in Mast Ships.

1. Quality of Hemp purchased at Riga :

Copy of report of the officers of Plymouth yard to the Navy Board, dated 28 October 1797, on the quality of the hemp purchased by commission at Riga by Mr. Lindegren, Rep. xii. App. 59—Copy of report of the officers of the Plymouth yard, dated 4 November 1797, on the same subject, ib. 59, 60—Copy of report of the Plymouth officers, dated 6 January 1798, on the same, ib. 60—Account of the quantity of hemp supplied by commission to His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth since 1 January 1793, ib. 138, 139.

2. Distribution of Naval Stores :

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Andrew Lindegren, esq., dated 22 April 1797, directing the distribution of the Norway goods and Riga timber to be delivered at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, Rep. xii. App. 274, 275.

3. Broken Stowage in Mast Ships :

Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the officers of Plymouth dockyard, dated 15 August 1797, relative to the filling up of the broken stowage in the mast ships, with fir timber, Rep. xii. App. 276—Copy of letter from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son to Messrs. Chapell & Hodge, of Plymouth dock, dated 15 August 1797, directing the sale of the timber received by the mast ships from Riga, at Plymouth yard, ib. 277.

See also Clerk of the Ropeyard. Master Ropemaker. Royal Hospital at Plymouth.

Plymouth, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Plymouth in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

Policies of Insurance. Observations of the Commissioners on the practice of allowing merchants a discount of ten per cent. upon policies of insurance, Rep. xii. 47, 48.

Poole, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Poole in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

PORTCHESTER HOSPITAL :

1. Victualling Contract with Dr. Mein.
2. Agreement with Mr. Owen.
3. Supply of Provisions.
4. Inferior Quality of Meat.
5. Number of Sick Prisoners dieted.
6. Certificate of Patients victualled.

1. Victualling Contract with Dr. Mein :

Observations of the Commissioners on the contracts for victualling sick prisoners of war at the prison hospital at Portchester Castle, near Portsmouth, between the Commissioners for taking care of sick and wounded seamen and Dr. Thomas Mein, surgeon in His Majesty's navy, Rep. xiii. 363-376.

2. Agreement with Mr. Owen :

Observations of the Commissioners on the terms of the agreement entered into by Dr. Grey, on the part of Dr. Mein, with Mr. Richard Owen for supplying the present hospital at Portchester with beef, mutton, bread, beer, and coals at stated prices, Rep. xiii. 371, 372—Copy of articles of agreement entered into by Dr. Grey, on the part of Dr. Mein, with Mr. Richard Owen for the supply of beef, mutton, bread, beer, and various other articles for the sick prisoners of war at Forton and Portchester Hospital, dated 21 December 1799, Rep. xiii. App. 492, 493.

3. Supply of Provisions :

Account of provisions supplied by Mr. Richard Owen to Portchester Hospital from 22 December 1799 to 31 January 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 511—Similar account for the months of February, March, and April 1800, ib. 511, 512.

4. Inferior Quality of Meat :

Observations of the Commissioners on the inferior quality of the meat supplied to the prison hospital at Portchester Castle, under the contracts with Dr. Mein, Rep. xiii. 385.

PORTCHESTER HOSPITAL—continued.5. Number of Sick Prisoners dieted:

Statement of the number of prisoners on the different diets in Portchester Hospital in each month, from October 1800 to March 1801, according to the monthly returns of the surgeon and by the hospital books, Rep. xiii. 382—Comparison of the numbers on full, half, and low diet in the Portchester Hospital in the year 1800, according to the monthly return of the surgeon, with the numbers on full, half, and low diet in the corresponding months of 1801, as entered in the quarterly books of the hospital, Rep. xiii. App. 383.

6. Certificate of Patients victualled:

Letter from John Williams, esq., secretary to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, to Mr. J. Blatherwick, formerly surgeon of the prison hospital at Portchester, dated 26 April 1806, requesting an explanation of the reasons of the certificate granted to Dr. Mein, of the number of patients victualled at Portchester Hospital differing so materially in respect of the numbers contained in the surgeon's quarterly books, Rep. xiii. App. 513, 514.

See also Blatherwick, J. Diet, 2.

Portsea. Statement of the prices of bread at Portsea in December 1799, and in each week of the year 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 472—Statement of the price of the gallon loaf at Portsea made from fine flour between 1 January and 31 December 1801, ib. 473.

See also Friend, William. Friend, William, the Younger. Goodeve, Edward. Iviny, William.

PORTSMOUTH BOROUGH:

1. Assize of Bread.
2. Prices of Meat.
3. Price of Coals.

1. Assize of Bread:

Extract from the register of the returns of flour and the assize of bread, as fixed in every week by the mayor and aldermen of the borough of Portsmouth, commencing 3 December 1799, and continued weekly unto 19 August 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 458.

2. Prices of Meat:

Statement of the average price of beef and mutton per cwt. at Portsmouth, in each month during the years 1800 and 1801, Rep. xiii. App. 466—Copy of letter from William Yeo, esq., governor of Haslar Hospital, to the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen, dated 9 April 1800, respecting the price of the best beef and mutton at Portsmouth and Gosport, ib. 489, 490.

3. Price of Coals:

Statement of the average price of coals at Portsmouth, per chaldron, on 22 December 1799, and in each month during the year 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 483.

See also Edwards, William. Goldson, William. Peacock, John.

Portsmouth Depôt Hospital. Observations of the Commissioners on the contracts for victualling sick prisoners of war at the prison hospitals at Portsmouth, between the commissioners for taking care of sick and wounded seamen and Dr. Thomas Mein, surgeon in His Majesty's navy, Rep. 363-376.

See also Forton Hospital (Portsmouth). Portchester Hospital.

PORTSMOUTH DOCKYARD:

1. Agent for the Navy.
2. Hemp.
3. Foreign Naval Stores.
4. Delivery of Ships' Cargoes.
5. Distribution of Naval Stores.
6. Cargo of the Ship "Selby."

1. Agent for the Navy:

Observations of the Commissioners on the duties performed by Mr. Lindegren, whilst acting as agent for the Navy Board at Portsmouth, Rep. xii. 14, 15.

2. Hemp:

Account of the quantity of hemp supplied by commission to His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth, since 1 January 1793, prepared in pursuance of directions from Commissioner Sir Charles Saxton, Rep. xii. App. 134-137—Extract of a letter from the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth, dated 14 November 1797, reporting on the inferior quality of the hemp delivered at that yard from out of the "Supply," hemp ship, John Willis, master, ib. 314.

*PORTSMOUTH DOCKYARD—continued.*3. Foreign Naval Stores :

Copy of the warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth, dated 13 October 1796, directing them not to receive any fir timber or Norway masts out of the ships which will bring the Riga masts purchased by Mr. Lindegren, Rep. xii. App. 259—Copy of letter from the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth to the committee of stores, dated 9 December 1796, respecting the receipt of fir timber from Mr. Lindegren, ib.—Account of masts, &c. received into His Majesty's stores at Plymouth dockyard, from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, on account of Government, out of the "Barnes" transport, per Navy Board's warrant of 25 September 1795, ib. 262—Copy of report from the officers of Portsmouth yard to the secretary to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 7 May 1805, of the masts, fir timber, &c. received from Mr. Lindegren, between the years 1795 and 1801, with a letter from the officers in explanation, ib. 264—Copy of report of the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 19 April 1797, of the number of masts, bowsprits, spars, and pieces of square fir timber received from Mr. Lindegren at that yard, ib. 265-270.

4. Delivery of Ships' Cargoes :

Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the officers of His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth, dated 22 April 1796, directing them to receive 1,400 loads of fir timber and a large quantity of Norway masts, purchased by Mr. Lindegren at Riga for the service of the navy, Rep. xii. App. 264—Statement by the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth of the number of days the "Aurora," "Young William," "Hannah," "Liberty," "Lord Hood," and "Favourite" were respectively delivering their cargoes at that yard, ib. 270.

5. Distribution of Naval Stores :

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Andrew Lindegren, esq., dated 22 April 1797, directing the distribution of the Norway goods and Riga timber, to be delivered at His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth, Rep. xii. App. 274, 275.

6. Cargo of the Ship "Selby" :

Copy of the invoice of masts, spars, and fir deals shipped on board the "Selby," Captain John Thompson, for Portsmouth, from Riga, 3 June 1797, by order and for account and risk of Andrew Lindegren, esq., Rep. xii. App. 279.

See also Agents, 2.

Portsmouth, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Portsmouth, in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

Premium on Bills. Observations of the Commissioners on the practice of the naval storekeepers at Jamaica appropriating the premium on the bills drawn by them to their own emolument and advantage, Rep. xii. 341-350—Observations of the Commissioners on the conduct of the Navy Board, in permitting Mr. Dick, the successor of Mr. Smith, naval storekeeper at Jamaica, to draw bills upon the Navy Board, without adverting to the circumstances of his not having brought the premium upon them to account until September 1800, Rep. xii. App. 344-347.

See also Halifax (Nova Scotia). Smith, Mr.

Presentations to Livings. Account of the presentations to livings belonging to the corporation of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. App. 680.

Presents of Wine. See Steward of Greenwich Hospital, 2.

PRICES :

1. Enhancement of Prices.
2. Standard of Prices.
3. Riga Masts.
4. Naval Stores (Jamaica).
5. Dr. Mein's Certificates of Prices.
6. Provisions at Portsmouth and Haslar.
7. Bread in London.

1. Enhancement of Prices :

Observations of the Commissioners on the tendency of the employment of a Government agent to enhance the price of hemp at Riga, Rep. xii. 9, 10.

2. Standard of Prices :

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of sick and wounded seamen to Dr. Mein, dated 17 June 1800, agreeing to take the prices of provisions at Haslar Hospital as the standard to be allowed in furnishing the sick prisoners of war at the depôts, Rep. xiii. App. 439.

PRICES—continued.

3. Riga Masts:

Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 6 September 1795, respecting the prices to be paid to the French agent at Riga for the masts purchased of him for His Majesty's service, Rep. xii. App. 228, 229—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 25 April 1798, relative to the prices of masts and bowsprits purchased at Riga on commission, for the service of His Majesty's navy, ib. 282—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Lindegren, dated 13 December 1799, relative to the prices of the masts purchased on commission at Riga, for the service of the navy, ib. 285.

4. Naval Stores, Jamaica:

Observations of the Commissioners on the difference in the prices at which Government supplied the different articles of naval stores sent to Jamaica, and of the prices at which they were purchased on the spot, by the storekeeper at that station, Rep. xii. App. 349, 350.

5. Dr. Mein's Certificates of Prices:

Statement extracted from the certificates of tradesmen of Gosport, showing the prices of beef, mutton, bread, beer, and coals on 22 December 1799, and in the month January 1800, Rep. xiii. 369—Statement exhibiting the actual prices of beef, mutton, bread, beer, and coals at Gosport and Portsmouth, compared with the prices certified in the certificates sent in by Dr. Mein, ib. 374—Statement showing the prices paid by Dr. Mein, under his agreement with Mr. Owen, for beef, mutton, bread and beer, and the prices inserted in the certificate for the like articles on 22 December 1799, ib. 375.

6. Provisions at Portsmouth and Haslar:

Statement showing the average prices of beef, mutton, bread, beer, and coals, in each month of the year 1800, according to the evidence of the witnesses at Portsmouth, and the average prices according to the weekly returns of the governor of Haslar Hospital, Rep. xiii. 378.

7. Bread in London:

Account of the prices of the peck loaf, wheaten and household, in the city of London, in each week from 26 November 1799 to 31 December 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 456.

See also Advances on Contracts. Certificates, 1. Consuls. Rise of Prices of Provisions. Royal Hospital at Plymouth. Standard of Prices. Weekly Returns.

Pringle, Harrop. See "Lord Hood," The Ship.

Pringle, John. See "Hector," The Ship.

PRISON HOSPITALS:

1. Inferior Quality of Meat.
2. Inspection of Provisions.

1. Inferior Quality of Meat:

Observations of the Commissioners on the inferior quality of the meat supplied to the prison hospitals under the contract with Dr. Mein, Rep. xiii. 385.

2. Inspection of Provisions:

Observations of the Commissioners on the practice of appointing committees of Frenchmen to inspect the provisions in every hospital sent in by the contractor, Rep. xiii. 385.

See also Agents. Bristol Prison Hospital Ship at Chatham. Caton Hospital Ship (Plymouth). Forton Hospital (Portsmouth). Medicines. Portchester Hospital. Stapleton Hospital (near Bristol).

PRISONERS OF WAR:

1. Subsistence of Prisoners.
2. Victualling Contract with Dr. Mein.
3. Number of Patients victualled.
4. Expenditure of the Sick and Wounded Office.

1. Subsistence of Prisoners:

Agreement entered into between Great Britain and France respectively to maintain their own subjects, being prisoners of war, Rep. xiii. 364.

4—Reports, 1806—continued.

PRISONERS OF WAR—continued.

2. Victualling Contract with Dr. Mein :

Observations of the Commissioners on the contracts for victualling sick prisoners of war, between the Commissioners for taking care of sick and wounded seamen and Dr. Thomas Mein, surgeon in His Majesty's navy, Rep. xiii. 363-376—Copy of contract made by Dr. Mein with the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen, for victualling sick prisoners of war, dated 21 December 1799, Rep. xiii. App. 395, 396—Copy of contract made by Dr. Mein with the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen, for victualling sick prisoners of war, dated 26 March 1800, ib. 396-398—Copy of contract made by Dr. Mein with the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen, dated 26 November 1800, ib. 398-400—Account showing the average price paid in each month for beef, mutton, bread, beer, and coals supplied to the Royal hospitals at Plymouth and Haslar, and also the prices paid to Dr. Thomas Mein for the like articles, furnished for the use of the sick prisoners of war at the different depôts mentioned in his contract of 21 December 1799, from 22d of that month to 31 December 1800, ib. 484, 485.

3. Number of Patients victualled :

Account showing the total number of persons victualled, and the sums paid to Dr. Thomas Mein in each month, under his contract 26 March 1800, and also the average cost of one person for a day in each month, Rep. xiii. App. 515.

4. Expenditure of the Sick and Wounded Office :

General abstract of the expenditure of the Sick and Wounded Office, on account of sick prisoners of war, in the years 1800 and 1801, Rep. xiii. App. 520, 521.

See also Diet, 1. French Prisoners of War.

Private Practice. Remarks of the Commissioners on the circumstance of the physician and surgeon to Greenwich Hospital and their assistants carrying on private practice, Rep. xiv. 547.

Private Trading. Observations of the Commissioners on the circumstance of Mr. Lindegren freighting the mast ships from Riga, with goods on his own account, Rep. xii. 30-40—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 24 May 1805, respecting Mr. Lindegren's trading on his private account, whilst employed as the Government agent at Riga, Rep. xii. App. 257, 258.—See also Commission Agents, 3.

Prize Act. Observations of the Commissioners on the charge made by the solicitor to Greenwich Hospital for attendances on the passing of the last prize Act, Rep. xiv. 540.

PRIZE MONEY :

1. Revenues of Greenwich Hospital.
2. Bill for regulating the Distribution of Prize Money.

1. Revenues of Greenwich Hospital :

Particulars respecting the revenues arising to the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, from unclaimed and forfeited shares of prize money, Rep. xiv. 534-536—Statement of the aggregate amount received by the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, on account of the unclaimed shares of prize money during the late war, and in the three succeeding years, ib. 536—Account of the amount of prize and bounty monies received and refunded by the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, under the Act of 45 Geo. 3, c. 72, from the time of passing that Act to 31 December 1805, and from that time to 31 May 1806, Rep. xiv. App. 604.—See also Agents, 5.

2. Bill for regulating the Distribution of Prize Money :

Minute of a meeting of the directors of Greenwich Hospital, held at Salters' Hall, on 27 March 1805, directing their secretary and solicitor to attend Sir William Scott, Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, about preparing a Bill to be brought before Parliament for regulating the distribution of prize money, Rep. xiv. App. 638.

See also Distribution of Prize Money. East Indies. Prize Office. Scott, Right Hon. Sir William. Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, 3. Unclaimed Prize Money.

Prize Office. Establishment of an office for the receipt of prize money at Greenwich Hospital, under the Act of 45 Geo. 3, c. 72, Rep. xiv. 534, 535.

PROFITS:

1. Dr. Mein's Victualling Contract.
2. Purchase of Spare Provisions of Pensioners and Nurses at Greenwich Hospital.

1. Dr. Mein's Victualling Contract:

Observations of the Commissioners on the very great profits which Dr. Mein must have derived from his two first contracts with the Sick and Hurt Board for victualling sick prisoners of war, Rep. xiii. 384.

2. Purchase of Spare Provisions of Pensioners and Nurses at Greenwich Hospital:

Amount of the profits derived by the Royal Hospital at Greenwich from the payment of money to pensioners and nurses, in lieu of provisions, Rep. xiv. 545—Appropriation of the profits, on provisions bought from the pensioners and nurses of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, in aid of the funds for the support of the school for the education and maintenance of poor boys, the sons of seamen, ib. 548—Detailed account of the profits on provisions bought of the pensioners in the year 1805, and also of savings arising from pensioners lent to assist in fitting His Majesty's ships, Rep. xiv. App. 662-664.

PROVISIONS:

1. Victualling Sick Prisoners of War.
2. Quality of Provisions.
3. Prices of Provisions.
4. Rise of Prices.
5. Certificates of Prices.
6. Greenwich Hospital Contracts.
7. Sale of Spare Provisions at Greenwich Hospital.

1. Victualling Sick Prisoners of War:

Observations of the Commissioners on the contracts for supplying provisions and other articles for sick prisoners, during the late war, between the Commissioners for taking care of sick and wounded seamen and Dr. Thomas Mein, surgeon in His Majesty's navy, Rep. xiii. 363-376.

2. Quality of Provisions:

Observations of the Commissioners on the inferior quality of the meat supplied to the prison hospitals under the contracts with Dr. Mein, Rep. xiii. 385, 386.

3. Prices of Provisions:

Statement showing the difference between the prices paid by the Board for sick and wounded seamen, at Haslar Hospital, and the prices according to Dr. Mein's certificates on 22 December 1799, Rep. xiii. 369, 370—Copy of certificate presented by Dr. Mein to the Board for sick and wounded seamen, dated 31 March 1800, of the price of beef, mutton, bread, beer, and coals at Gosport on 22 December 1799, Rep. xiii. App. 455—Copy of certificate presented by Dr. Mein to the Board for sick and wounded seamen, dated 30 June 1800, of the rates of provisions at Gosport on 22 December, ib.—Account showing the average price paid in each month for beef, mutton, bread, beer, and coals supplied to the Royal hospitals at Plymouth and Haslar, and also the prices paid to Dr. Thomas Mein for the like articles, furnished for the use of the sick prisoners of war at the different depôts mentioned in his contract of 21 December 1799, from 22d of that month to 31 December 1800, ib. 484, 485—Copy of letter from William Yeo, esq., governor of Haslar Hospital, to the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen, dated 9 April 1800, respecting the price of the best beef and mutton at Portsmouth and Gosport, ib. 489, 490.

4. Rise of Prices:

Statement forwarded by Dr. Mein to the Board for sick and wounded seamen, on 9 July 1800, showing the rapid and very great increase in the price of provisions, in the months of December, January, February, March, and April 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 452.

5. Certificates of Prices:

Copies of certificates sent by Mr. Owen, of Fareham, to the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen, of the prices of beef, mutton, and oatmeal at Gosport, on 10 January and 4 April 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 489.

6. Greenwich Hospital Contracts:

Provisions, and all other articles of considerable consumption, in the Royal Hospital at Greenwich are obtained by contracts entered into in consequence of public advertisements, Rep. xiv. 541—Account of the contracts in force on 1 March 1806, for supplying the Royal Hospital at Greenwich with provisions and other articles, Rep. xiv. App. 640-645.

PROVISIONS—continued.

7. Sale of Spare Provisions at Greenwich Hospital:

Observations of the Commissioners on the inconvenience and immorality of the former practice of pensioners in the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, taking their provisions out of the hospital for sale, Rep. xiv. 542—Manner in which the accounts of the numerous payments made by the butler of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, to the pensioners and nurses in lieu of their allowances of provisions, are kept, ib. 544-547—Copy of minute of the Directors of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, dated 9 January 1724-5, respecting the prices it might be proper to allow the pensioners for their spare provisions, Rep. xiv. App. 657, 658—Copy of minute of the Council of Commissioners and Governors of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, dated 14 July 1725, forbidding the pensioners selling any part of their provisions out of the house, ib. 658, 659—Method of discovering the quantity of provisions paid for by the butler of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, ib. 660, 661—Detailed account of the profits on provisions bought of the pensioners of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, in the year 1805, ib. 662-664.

See also Allowances to Pensioners. Beef. Beer. Bread. Certificates.
Inspection of Provisions. Mutton. Rise of Prices of Provisions. Royal Hospital at Plymouth. Sale of Provisions. Table Allowances.

Public Money. Observations of the Commissioners on the conduct of Mr. Lindegren, in applying the public money to his own private advantage, Rep. xii. 45-47.

See also Balances of Public Money. Expenditure of Public Money.

Purchase of Provisions (Greenwich Hospital). Copy of minute of the Council of Commissioners and Governors of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, dated 14 July 1725, respecting the purchase of the pensioners, of such part of their provisions as they might have to spare, Rep. xiv. App. 658, 659.

See also Butler of Greenwich Hospital, 3.

PURCHASES OF STORES:

- | | |
|---|----------------------------------|
| 1. Secret Instructions to the Govern-
Agent. | 5. Merchants' Commission. |
| 2. Hemp Purchases. | 6. French Agents. |
| 3. Foreign Naval Stores. | 7. Chatham Yard. |
| 4. Disbursements and Claims of the
Government Agent. | 8. Plymouth Yard. |
| | 9. Portsmouth Yard. |
| | 10. Woolwich Yard. |

1. Secret Instructions to the Government Agent:

Copy of instructions given by Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 9 January 1795, relative to proceeding to Riga to purchase hemp secretly for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 61, 62—Copy of the instructions from Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 20 January 1797, relative to the purchase of hemp and other naval stores at Riga secretly for His Majesty's service, ib. 215, 216—Copy of instructions from Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, to Mr. Cornwall Smalley, dated 9 December 1796, to purchase hemp at Petersburg secretly for Government, ib. 222—Copy of instructions from Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 6 March 1799, relative to the purchase of hemp and other naval stores in Russia for the service of the navy, ib. 223.

2. Hemp Purchases:

Observations of the Commissioners on the manner in which the purchases of hemp were made by Mr. Lindegren, at Riga, in the year 1795, 1796, 1797, and 1799, Rep. xii. 6-18—Copy of letter from the First Lord of the Admiralty to the comptroller of the navy, dated 6 January 1795, directing him to send a confidential person to Riga to purchase hemp and other naval stores, Rep. xii. App. 61—Copy of letter from Sir Charles Whitworth, ambassador to Petersburg, to the Right honourable Lord Grenville, Secretary of State for the Foreign Department, dated 27 March 1795, on the subject of the employment of agents to purchase hemp at Riga and Petersburg secretly, ib. 73—Letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 2 May 1795, informing him of the purchase of 4,000 tons of hemp for the service of His Majesty's navy, ib. 192, 193—Letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 11 June 1795, on the subject of making purchases of hemp at Riga, in order to prevent the article falling into the hands of the French, ib. 196, 197—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 2 August 1796, authorizing the purchase of 2,500 tons of hemp at Riga for the service of His Majesty's navy, ib. 215.

PURCHASES OF STORES—continued.

3. Foreign Naval Stores:

Observations of the Commissioners on the purchases of stores on commission by Mr. Andrew Lindegren, for the service of His Majesty's navy, from 1795 to 1799, Rep. xii. 3-28-50—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 7 April 1798, on the subject of the masts and spars purchased at Riga for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 281—Letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 24 April 1798, on the same subject, ib. 281, 282—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 22 April 1805, respecting the orders and directions given from time to time to Mr. Lindegren to purchase masts and other naval stores for the service of His Majesty's navy, ib. 312, 313.

4. Disbursements and Claims of the Government Agent:

Abstract of the disbursements and claims of Mr. Andrew Lindegren for Riga Rhine hemp, by him purchased and delivered for His Majesty's service, pursuant to an order from Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, comptroller of the navy, dated 9 January 1795, Rep. xii. App. 92-94—Abstract of the disbursements and claims of Mr. Andrew Lindegren for Riga Rhine and Outshott hemp, by him purchased of the agents of the French Government at Riga, at an advanced price, in order to prevent the enemy from receiving any supplies of that article, ib. 95-98—State of the disbursements and claims of Mr. Andrew Lindegren for Riga Rhine and Outshott hemp, by him purchased and delivered for His Majesty's service, pursuant to an order from Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 9 January 1795, ib. 100-110—Official abstract and statement of Mr. Lindegren's account for the purchase of hemp in 1796, ib. 112-119—Abstract of the disbursements of Mr. Andrew Lindegren for Riga Rhine hemp by him purchased and delivered for His Majesty's service, shipped at Riga, between 20 June and 5 August 1797, ib. 120-123—Abstract of the disbursements of Mr. Andrew Lindegren for Riga Rhine hemp by him purchased for His Majesty's service, ib. 124-129—Account of the imprest granted to Mr. Andrew Lindegren between 8 June 1795 and 25 November 1801, to enable him to purchase hemp and other naval stores for His Majesty's service, ib. 305-307.

5. Merchants' Commission:

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Andrew Lindegren, esq., dated 12 June 1795, on the subject of the allowance of commission on purchases and travelling expenses to Mr. Lindegren, for his services, Rep. xii. App. 201, 202—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Sons, dated 13 June 1795, relative to the rate of commission to be allowed their firm for the purchase of hemp for the use of the navy, ib. 202—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 14 August 1798, respecting the allowance of commission to merchants for the purchase of hemp and masts at Riga for the service of the navy, ib. 217—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 10 May 1805, relative to the allowance of commission to Mr. Lindegren and the merchants employed in the purchase of hemp and other naval stores at Riga, ib. 219, 220—Letter from the secretary of the Navy Board to the secretary of the Naval Inquiry Commission, dated 20 August 1805, respecting the rate of commission allowed to Messrs. Wale, Pierson & Co. on their purchases of masts at Riga, in the American war, ib. 260.

6. French Agents:

Copy of letter from Andrew Lindergren, esq., to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 18 June 1795, respecting the attempts made by the French agents to purchase hemp for their government at Riga, Rep. xii. App. 199.

7. Chatham Yard:

Account of the quantity of hemp supplied by commission, and received into His Majesty's yard at Chatham, since 1 January 1793, Rep. xii. App. 132, 133—Copy of letter from the officers of His Majesty's yard at Chatham to the committee of stores, dated 24 August 1797, reporting on the quality of the hemp consigned to that yard from Riga, ib. 216.

8. Plymouth Yard:

Account of the quantity of hemp supplied by commission to His Majesty's yard at Plymouth since 1 January 1793, Rep. xii. App. 138, 139.

9. Portsmouth Yard:

Account of the quantity of hemp supplied by commission to His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth since 1 January 1793, Rep. xii. App. 134-137.

PURCHASES OF STORES—continued.

10. Woolwich Yard:

Account of the quantity of hemp purchased on commission, and received into His Majesty's stores at Woolwich, between 1 January 1793 and 17 October 1803, Rep. xii. App. 130, 131.

See also Commission. French Agents, 1. Hamburgh Merchants. Selby & Co., Messrs.

Pyle, Henry. See "Adventure," The Ship.

Q.

QUALITY OF HEMP:

1. Riga Hemp.
2. Chatham Yard.
3. Plymouth Yard.
4. Portsmouth Yard.

1. Riga Hemp:

Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 27 March 1797, relative to the complaint made of the bad quality of the Riga hemp delivered at His Majesty's dockyards at Portsmouth and Plymouth, Rep. xii. App. 315.

2. Chatham Yard:

Copy of letter from the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Chatham to the committee of stores, dated 24 August 1797, reporting on the quality of the hemp consigned to that yard from Riga, Rep. xii. App. 216—Copy of letter from the officers of Chatham dockyard to the Honourable Navy Board, dated 18 November 1799, relative to the inferior quality of the hemp from Riga, brought in the ship "Nymphe," Robert Dawson, master, ib. 223, 224—Copy of letter from the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Chatham to the honourable the Navy Board, dated 19 September 1799, complaining of the inferior quality of the Riga hemp unloaded from the ship "Hector," John Pringle, master, ib. 224—Copy of letter from the officers of His Majesty's yard at Chatham to the Honourable Navy Board, dated 25 September 1799, reporting on the inferior quality of the Riga hemp landed at that yard from the ship "Nymphe," ib.—Copy of letter from the officers of His Majesty's yard at Chatham to the Honourable Navy Board, dated 30 September 1799, reporting upon the inferior quality of Riga hemp unloaded at that yard from the ship "Hector," John Pringle, master, ib. 224, 225—Copy of letter from the officers of Chatham Ropeyard to the Honourable Navy Board, dated 3 October 1799, reporting upon the inferior quality of the Riga hemp received at that yard out of the "Hector," ib. 225.

3. Plymouth Yard:

Copy of report of the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth to the Honourable Navy Board, dated 28 October 1797, on the quality of the hemp purchased by commission at Riga by Mr. Lindegren, Rep. xii. App. 59—Copy of report of the officers of Plymouth yard, dated 4 November 1797, on the same subject, ib. 59, 60—Copy of report of the Plymouth officers, dated 6 January 1798, on the same, ib. 60—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 30 November 1797, respecting the inferior quality of the Riga hemp delivered at His Majesty's dock and ropeyard at Plymouth, ib. 313—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 27 November 1803, on the subject of the bad quality of the Riga hemp delivered at His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, ib. 314—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 31 November 1797, respecting the quality of the Riga hemp delivered at Plymouth yard from out of the ship "Agenoria," ib. 315.

4. Portsmouth Yard:

Extract of a letter from the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth, dated 14 November 1797, reporting on the quality of the hemp delivered at that yard from the "Supply" hemp ship, John Willis, master, Rep. xii. App. 314—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Andrew Lindegren, esq., dated 18 November 1797, respecting the inferior quality of Riga hemp delivered at Portsmouth yard from out of the "Supply" hemp ship, ib.

Quality of Provisions. Observations of the Commissioners on the inferior quality of the provisions supplied to the prison hospitals under the contracts with Dr. Mein, Rep. xiii. 385.

Quarterly Accounts. Copy of letter of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Jamaica officers, dated 5 August 1799, requesting the quarterly returns of the remains of of, and demands for stores, Rep. xii. App. 355—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Dick, naval storekeeper at Jamaica, dated 27 February 1800, relative to the delays in making up his quarterly return. ib. 358—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Dick, naval officer at Jamaica, dated 1 March 1800, respecting certain omissions in several of his quarterly returns made to the Navy Office, ib. 358, 359.

Quarterly Accounts—continued.

Queenborough, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Queenborough in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 604.

R.

Ramsgate, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Ramsgate in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

Rates of Exchange. See Consuls.

Rations. Table of allowance of provisions to a pensioner in the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich for every day in the week, Rep. xiv. 542.

Real Property. Account of the real property of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich as it stood on 28 April 1806, Rep. xiv. App. 566-581.

Receiver-General of Customs. Allowance made to the receiver-general of customs in London, for corresponding with and examining the accounts of the collectors at the out-ports, of duties arising from lighthouses, belonging to the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. 533.

RECEIVERS OF GREENWICH HOSPITAL:

1. Management of Hospital Estates.
2. Deputations to Receivers.
3. Salaries and Emoluments.

1. Management of Hospital Estates:

Observations of the Commissioners on the management of the estates of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, in the north, by the receivers appointed by the general court, Rep. xiv. 529, 530.

2. Deputations to Receivers:

Observations of the Commissioners on the heavy expense incurred by the corporation of Greenwich Hospital, for law charges on granting new deputations to receivers of unclaimed and forfeited shares of prize and bounty money, Rep. xiv. 538, 539—Form of deputation to the treasurer and receiver-general of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, to receivers of unclaimed and forfeited shares of prize and bounty monies, Rep. xiv. App. 637, 638.

3. Salaries and Emoluments:

Copy of a minute of a meeting of directors of Greenwich Hospital, held at that place on 10 August 1805, directing an inquiry into the amount of salaries and other emoluments of the receivers of the hospital estates in the north, and the persons employed under them, Rep. xiv. App. 564—Account of the salaries and other emoluments of the receivers of the Derwentwater estates for the year 1804, and the net receipt on an average of the years 1801, 1802 and 1803, each year ending with 12 November, ib. 586, 587.

See also Forster, Mr. Turner, Sir John. Walton, Mr.

Reduction of Salary. Opinion of the Commissioners that the salary of the treasurer of Greenwich Hospital should be reduced upon vacancy, Rep. xiv. 537.

Regulations. Recommendation of the Commissioners that the regulations and bye laws of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich be revised, and a digest made of such as are proper to be retained, Rep. xiv. 550.

Reid, Captain. See "Nelly, The Ship."

Remuneration of Officers. Opinion of the Commissioners that public boards should stipulate with agents, that the rate of commission which may be agreed upon, shall constitute the whole of their remuneration, Rep. xii. 48.—See also Salaries of Officers.

Rents of Land. Particulars and amount of the revenues of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich arising from rents of land, Rep. xiv. 527, 528—Amount of the rents received from houses and lands belonging to the Royal Hospital at Greenwich in the years 1770, 1780, 1790, 1800 and 1805, ib. 528—Statement of the gross rental of the northern estates belonging to the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich as it stood on 28 April 1806, Rep. xiv. 530. App. 580, 581.
710--XI. belonging

4—Reports, 1806—continued.

Rents of Land—continued.

Repairs. See Hospital Estates (Greenwich Hospital).

Residence of Officers. See Official Residences.

Resident Commissioners. See Hope, Charles.

REVENUES OF GREENWICH HOSPITAL:

1. Sources of Revenue.
2. Northern Estates.
3. Charity School for Boys.
4. Surplus Revenue.

1. Sources of Revenue:

Account of the sources from whence the revenues of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich arise, Rep. xiv. 526—Account of the revenue of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich under the respective heads of receipts from 1790 to 1805 inclusive, Rep. xiv. App. 558, 559.

2. Northern Estates:

Account of the total revenue of the corporation of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, from the northern estates, independent of the timber, Rep. xiv. 531.

3. Charity School for Boys:

Account of the revenue and expenditure of the charity school of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich from 1790 to 1805 inclusive, Rep. xiv. App. 676, 677.

4. Surplus Revenue:

Statement of the revenue and expenditure of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, showing the balance in favour of the hospital, Rep. xiv. 551—Recommendation of the Commissioners with respect to the application of the surplus revenue of the Royal Hospital, ib. 552.

Rhine Hemp. Copy of invoice of Rhine hemp sold to Andrew Lindegren, esq., and shipped by his order, and for his account and risk, on board the ship "Ellison," Captain John Chapman, Rep. xii. App. 197—Copy of invoice of twenty bundles of Rhine hemp, being part of an extra quantity of hemp sold to Andrew Lindegren, esq., and shipped by his order, and for his account and risk, on board the "Sappho," for the Thames, ib. 198—Copy of letter from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton and Son to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 26 March 1796, respecting a cargo of Rhine hemp that arrived from Riga by the ship "Sappho," ib. 213, 214.

RIGA HEMP:

1. Purchases of Hemp at Riga.
2. Secret Instructions to the Government Agent.
3. Quality of Hemp purchased.
4. Cost and Charge of Hemp purchased.
5. Report of the Chatham Officers.
6. Report of the Officers of Plymouth Yard.

1. Purchases of Hemp at Riga:

Copy of letter from Sir Charles Whitworth, ambassador to Petersburg, to the Right honourable Lord Grenville, Secretary of State for the Foreign Department, dated 27 March 1795, on the subject of the employment of agents to purchase hemp at Riga and Petersburg secretly, Rep. xii. App. 73—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 2 August 1796, authorizing the purchase of 2,500 tons of hemp at Riga for the service of the navy, ib. 215—Abstract account showing the total quantities of Riga hemp contracted for by the Navy Board in each year from 1793 to 1800, both years inclusive, ib. 226.

2. Secret Instructions to the Government Agent:

Copy of instructions given by Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 9 January 1795, relative to proceeding to Riga to purchase hemp and masts secretly for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 61, 62.

3. Quality of Hemp purchased:

Statement showing the quality and state of each cargo of Riga hemp imported by Mr. Lindegren at the time of its receipt in His Majesty's yards, Rep. xii. 12, 13—Observations of the Commissioners on the superior quality of the hemp received from Riga over the Petersburg hemp, ib. 22, 23.

RIGA HEMP—continued.4. Cost and Charges of Hemp purchased:

Average cost per ton of the Riga hemp imported by Mr. Lindegren for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. 12—Abstract of the disbursements and claims of Mr. Andrew Lindegren for Riga Rhine hemp by him purchased and delivered for His Majesty's service, pursuant to an order from Sir Andrew Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 9 January 1795, Rep. xii. App. 92-94—Abstract of the disbursements and claims of Mr. A. Lindegren for 2,602 tons of Riga Rhine hemp, by him purchased of the agents of the French Government at Riga, at an advanced price, in order to prevent the enemy from receiving any supplies of that article, ib. 95-98—State of the disbursements and claims of Mr. Andrew Lindegren, for Riga hemp, by him purchased and delivered for His Majesty's service, pursuant to an order from Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, ib. 100-110—Official abstract and statement of Mr. Lindegren's accounts for the purchase of hemp in 1796, ib. 112-119—Abstract of the disbursements of Mr. Andrew Lindegren for Riga Rhine hemp, by him purchased and delivered for His Majesty's service in the year 1799, ib. 124-129.

5. Report of the Chatham Officers:

Copy of letter from the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Chatham to the committee of stores, dated 24 August 1797, reporting on the quality of the hemp consigned to that yard from Riga, Rep. xii. App. 216—Copy of letter from the officers of Chatham dockyard to the Honourable Navy Board, dated 18 November 1799, relative to the inferior quality of the hemp from Riga brought by the ship "Nympe," Robert Dawson, master, ib. 223, 224—Copy of letter from the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Chatham to the Honourable Navy Board, dated 19 September 1799, complaining of the inferior quality of the Riga hemp unloaded from the ship "Hector," John Pringle, master, ib. 224—Copy of letter from the officers of His Majesty's yard at Chatham to the Honourable Navy Board, dated 25 September 1799, reporting on the inferior quality of the Riga hemp landed at that yard from the ship "Nympe," Robert Dawson, master, ib.—Copy of letter from the officers of His Majesty's yard at Chatham to the Honourable Navy Board, dated 30 September 1799, reporting upon the inferior quality of Riga hemp unloaded at that yard from the ship "Hector," ib. 224, 225—Copy of letter from the officers of Chatham ropeyard to the Honourable Navy Board, dated 3 October 1799, reporting upon the inferior quality of the Riga hemp received at that yard out of the ship "Hector," ib. 225.

6. Report of Officers of Plymouth Yard:

Copy of report of the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Plymouth to the Honourable Navy Board, dated 28 October 1797, on the quality of the hemp purchased by commission at Riga by Mr. Lindegren, Rep. xii. App. 59—Copy of report of the officers of Plymouth yard, dated 4 November 1797, on the same subject, 59, 60—Copy of report of the Plymouth officers, dated 6 January 1798, on the same, ib. 60.

See also French Agents.

RIGA MASTS AND FIR TIMBER:

1. Purchases made by the Government Agent.
2. Mast Contract.
3. Costs and Charges of Masts purchased.
4. Examination and Sale of Cargoes.
5. Portsmouth Yard.

1. Purchases made by the Government Agent:

Observations of the Commissioners on the purchases of Riga masts on commission, by Mr. Andrew Lindegren, for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. 28-50—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 21 March 1797, relative to the shipment of masts purchased by him on commission at Riga, for the service of the navy, Rep. xii. App. 274—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 26 April 1796, directing him to procure 2,000 loads of Riga fir timber, and a large quantity of Norway masts, ib. 258.

2. Mast Contract:

Particulars of the different parcels of Riga masts contracted for, to be delivered in the year 1796, including all those that were sold to the French agent, and such as he was in treaty for, Rep. xii. App. 230—Copy of contract made by the Navy Board with Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 3 May 1799, for the supply of Riga masts for the service of His Majesty's navy, ib. 316, 317—Copy of contract made by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy with Mr. Samuel Sanders, dated 2 May 1800, for the supply of Riga masts for the service of His Majesty's navy, ib. 319-321—Copy of contract made by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy with Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 3 April 1804, for the supply of Riga masts for the service of His Majesty's navy, ib. 328-330

4—Reports, 1805—continued.

RIGA MASTS AND FIR TIMBER—continued.2. Mast Contract—continued.

—Copy of contract made by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy with Messrs. Thornton Brothers & Co., dated 3 April 1804, for the supply of Riga masts and fir timber for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 330-333.

3. Costs and Charges of Masts purchased:

Abstract of the disbursements of Mr. Andrew Lindegren, for cost and charges on Riga masts, &c., by him purchased for His Majesty's service, in the years 1795 and 1796, Rep. xii. App. 232-238—Abstract of the disbursements of Mr. Andrew Lindegren for costs and charges on Riga masts, &c., by him purchased for His Majesty's service, in the year 1797, ib. 240-248—Abstract of the disbursements of Mr. Andrew Lindegren for cost and charges on Riga masts, &c., by him purchased for His Majesty's service, in the year 1798, ib. 250-253—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 25 April 1798, relative to the prices of masts purchased at Riga on commission, for the service of His Majesty's navy, ib. 282—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Lindegren, dated 13 December 1799, relative to the prices of the masts purchased on commission at Riga for the service of the Royal navy, ib. 285.

4. Examination and Sale of Cargoes:

Copy of letter from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son to Messrs. Chapell & Hodge, of Plymouth Dock, dated 9 August 1797, directing an examination of the masts shipped from Riga on board the ships "Nestor" and "Liverpool," Rep. xii. App. 277—Copy of letter from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son to Messrs. Chapell & Hodge, of Plymouth Dock, dated 15 August 1797, directing the sale of the timber received by the mast ships from Riga, ib.

5. Portsmouth Yard:

Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the officers of His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth, dated 22 April 1796, directing them to receive 1,400 loads of fir timber, procured by Mr. Lindegren at Riga, for the service of the navy, Rep. xii. App. 264.—See also Selby & Co., Messrs.

Rise of Prices of Provisions. Circumstances attending the application of Dr. Mein to the Board for sick and wounded seamen, for an allowance for losses, in consequence of the rapid and very great increase in the price of provisions, Rep. xiii. 367—Comparison of the quantities of beef and mutton supplied by Mr. Owen to the prison hospital at Forton, from 21 December 1799 to the beginning of May 1800, and the quantities on which Dr. Mein received the additions for the increase of price during those months, ib. 380—Comparison of the quantities of beef and mutton supplied to the prisoners at Forton Hospital, in the months of November and December 1800, and the quantities on which Dr. Mein received the additions for the increase of price during those months, ib. 382—Statement forwarded by Dr. Mein to the Board for sick and wounded seamen, on 9 July 1800, showing the rapid and very great increase in the price of provisions in the months of December, January, February, March, and April 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 452.

Rochester, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Rochester, in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 604.

Rockwood, John. See "Agenoria," The Ship.

Ropeyard at Chatham. Copy of letter from the officers of Chatham ropeyard to the Honourable Navy Board, dated 30 October 1799, reporting upon the inferior quality of the Riga hemp received at that yard out of the "Hector," Rep. xii. App. 225.

See also Clerk of the Ropeyard. Master Ropemaker.

Rose, Thomas. Examination of Mr. Thomas Rose, of Forton, brewer, taken upon oath before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry at the Royal Hospital at Haslar, 7 February 1806, relative to the price of beer and table beer per tun supplied to Haslar Hospital in January, February, March, and April 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 477-480.

Royal Dockyards. See Chatham Dockyard. Deptford Dockyard. Dockyard Officers. Plymouth Dockyard. Portsmouth Dockyard. Sheerness Dockyard. Woolwich Dockyard.

Royal Exchange Assurance Company. Remarks of the Commissioners on the practice of the Royal Exchange Assurance Company making an allowance of ten per cent. to merchants on the premium of policies of assurance, Rep. xii. 47.

See also Fenning, Samuel.

Royal Hospital at Plymouth. Account showing the average prices paid in each month for the beef, mutton, bread, beer and coals supplied to the Royal Hospital at Plymouth, and also the prices paid to Dr. Mein for the like articles, from 22 December 1799 to 31 December 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 484, 485.

Rule, Sir William. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Sir William Rule, a member of the committee of stores, relative to the abuses and irregularities in the office of the naval storekeeper at Jamaica, Rep. xii. App. 338-350.

Run Men's Wages. Particulars of the revenue derived by the Royal Hospital at Greenwich from the shares of prizes of run men, Rep. xiv. 535.

Russia. Remarks of the Commissioners on the purchases of masts, spars, &c. made by Mr. Lindegren, for the service of His Majesty's navy, through his agents in Russia, Rep. xii. 38-40.

See also Embargo in Russia. French Agents. Smalley, Cornwall.

RUSSIA MERCHANTS:

1. Government Agent at Riga.
2. Merchants' Commission.

1. Government Agent at Riga:

Occasion of the Government deeming it necessary to employ a Russia merchant in London to transact the business of the commission agent at Riga, Rep. xii. 5.

2. Merchants' Commission:

Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of several Russia merchants respecting the rate of commission allowed merchants shipping hemp from Riga, Rep. xii. 8, 9.

See also Bonar, Thomson. Brough, Anthony. Commission. Halliday, Thomas. Morison, John. Sanders, Samuel. Thomson, Peters & Co., Messrs. Thorley, Morison & Co., Messrs. Thornton Brothers & Co., Messrs. Thornton, Godfrey, & Son, Messrs. Todd, George. Tooke, Thomas.

Rye, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Rye in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

S.

Sailing of Ships. Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 5 August 1795, advising him of the sailing of six vessels, laden with hemp, from Riga, for the service of his Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 200—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 29 June 1796, advising the Board of the sailing of fifteen vessels laden with masts and timber from Riga to different ports in England, ib. 214—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 18 July 1795, reporting the sailing from Riga of five hemp-laden ships for His Majesty's dockyards, ib. 227, 228—Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 3 September 1795, reporting the sailing from Riga of the ships laden with hemp and naval stores for Woolwich dockyard for the service of the navy, ib. 254, 255.

SALARIES OF OFFICERS (GREENWICH HOSPITAL):

1. Augmentation of Salaries.
2. Receivers of Hospital Estates.
3. Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital.

1. Augmentation of Salaries:

Observations of the Commissioners on the correspondence and proceedings relative to the augmentation of the salaries of the officers, clerks, and servants of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. 536, 537—Account of salaries held by persons in the establishment of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich which have been augmented since 1790, as they stood at that time, their several augmentations, and the authority by which they were increased, Rep. xiv. App. 610, 611.

2. Receivers of Hospital Estates:

Copy of minute of a meeting of directors of Greenwich Hospital, held at that place on 10 August 1805, directing an inquiry into the amount of salaries and other emoluments of the receivers of the hospital estates in the north, and the persons employed under them, Rep. xiv. App. 564.

4—Reports, 1806—continued.

SALARIES OF OFFICERS (GREENWICH HOSPITAL)—continued.3. Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital:

Minute of a general court of the Commissioners and Governors of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, held at the Admiralty Office 23 July 1805, directing an increase of the salary of the treasurer of the hospital, Rep. xiv. App. 684, 685.

See also Reduction of Salaries.

SALE OF PROVISIONS (GREENWICH HOSPITAL):

1. Pensioners and Nurses.
2. Patients in the Infirmary.

1. Pensioners and Nurses:

Observations of the Commissioners on the inconvenience and immorality of the former practice of pensioners at Greenwich taking their provisions out of the hospital for sale, Rep. xiv. 542—Copy of minute of the council of the Commissioner and Governors of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, dated 14 July 1725, forbidding the pensioners selling any part of their provisions out of the house, Rep. xiv. App. 658, 659—Copy of minute of council of the Commissioners and Governors of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, dated 4 August 1725, respecting the pensioners selling their allowance of provisions to any but the steward of the hospital, ib. 659—Minute of a meeting of the directors of Greenwich Hospital, dated 3 August 1776, on the inconveniences which attend the practice of the pensioners selling their provisions, with a view to its abolition, ib. 665—Minute of council of Commissioners and Governors of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, dated 9 August 1776, directing the abolition of the practice of the pensioners selling their provisions, ib. 665, 666—Minute of a meeting of the directors of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, dated 19 August 1776, on the subject of the practice of the pensioners selling their provisions, ib. 666.

2. Patients in the Infirmary:

Copy of minute of the directors of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, dated 9 January 1724-5, relative to the prevention of patients in the infirmary from selling their victuals, Rep. xiv. App. 657, 658.

Samworth, James. Examination of Mr. John Samworth, first clerk to the steward of Greenwich Hospital, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 11 April 1806, relative to the receiving and issuing of the provisions and stores for the use of the pensioners and nurses on that establishment, Rep. xiv. App. 649-655—Copy of letter from Mr. John Samworth, first clerk of the steward of Greenwich Hospital, dated 15 April, stating the method of discovering the quantity of provisions paid for by the butler of that establishment, ib. 660, 661.

Sanders, Samuel. Examination of Samuel Sanders, esq., taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 24 September 1805, respecting the contract made with the Navy Board in May 1800, for the supply of Riga masts and fir timber for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 321, 322.

Sanders, Samuel & Co., Messrs. Observations of the Commissioners on the contract entered into by the Navy Board with Messrs. Samuel Sanders & Co. for supplying His Majesty's several yards with Riga masts and fir timber, Rep. xii. 51-53—Copy of contract made by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy with Messrs. Samuel Sanders & Co., dated 2 May 1800, for the supply of Riga masts and fir timber for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 319-321.

Sandwich, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Sandwich in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

"Sappho," The Ship. Copy of invoice of twenty bundles of Rhine hemp, and four bundles of Outshott hemp, being part of an extra quantity sold to Andrew Lindegren, esq., and shipped by his order, and for his account and risk on board the "Sappho," Captain John Thompson Greathed, for the Thames, Rep. xii. App. 198—Copy of letter from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 26 March 1796, respecting a cargo of hemp that arrived from Riga by the ship "Sappho," ib. 213, 214.

Saword, William. Examination of Mr. William Saword, butler of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 10 April 1806, relative to the issuing of provisions to the pensioners and nurses on the establishment, Rep. xiv. App. 655-657.

Scilly, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Scilly in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 604.

4—Reports, 1806—continued.

School for Boys at Greenwich. Observations of the Commissioners on the establishment annexed to the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, of a school for the education and maintenance of poor boys, the sons of seamen, Rep. xiv. 548.

Schoolmaster of Greenwich Hospital. Amount of the allowance made to the schoolmaster of Greenwich Hospital school for himself and assistants, Rep. xiv. 548.

Scott, Dr. James. Copy of letter from Dr. James Scott, rector of the parish of Simonburn to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 17 June 1806, relating to the rectory of Simonburn, Rep. xiv. App. 681-683.

Scott, Right Hon. Sir William. Minute of a meeting of the directors of Greenwich Hospital, held at Salters' Hall on 27 March 1805, directing their secretary and solicitor to attend Sir William Scott, Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, about preparing a Bill to be brought before Parliament, for regulating the distribution of prize money, Rep. xiv. App. 638.

Seafaring Men. Impracticability of complying with regulation contained in the charter of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, which requires that "all officers employed in the hospital shall be seafaring men," Rep. xiv. 549.

See also Officers of Greenwich Hospital.

Seamen. General abstract of the expenditure of the Sick and Wounded Office on account of seamen in the years 1800 and 1801, Rep. xiii. App. 520, 521.

See also Distribution of Prize Money. Sixpenny Duty.

Secret Instructions. Copy of the instructions from Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 20 January 1797, relative to the purchase of hemp and other naval stores on commission at Riga secretly for His Majesty's service, Rep. xii. App. 215, 216.

Secret Services. Occasion of the comptroller of the navy receiving directions by an Order of Council, to execute certain services of a secret nature, under the authority of the First Lord of the Admiralty, Rep. xii. 28, 29.

SECRETARY OF GREENWICH HOSPITAL:

1. Civil Office.
2. Admission of Pensioners.

1. Civil Office:

Objection of the Commissioners to giving this situation to persons in the Admiralty Office; it might be easily filled by persons either in the military or civil line of the naval service, Rep. xiv. 549.

2. Admission of Pensioners:

Examination of John Dyer, esq., secretary to the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, taken upon oath before the Commissioners, 19 May 1806, relative to the title of Pensioners to admission into Greenwich Hospital, and the value of the hospital estates in the north, Rep. xiv. App. 582-585.—See also Dyer, John.

Secretary of the Navy Board. Letter from the secretary of the Navy Board to the secretary of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 20 August 1805, respecting the rate of commission allowed Messrs. Wale, Pierson & Co. on their purchases of masts at Riga, in the American war, Rep. xii. App. 260.—See also Derrick, Mr. Nelson, R. O.

Secretary of State for the Foreign Department. Copy of letter from the Right honourable Lord Grenville, Secretary of State for the Foreign Department, to Sir Charles Whitworth, ambassador at Petersburg, dated 24 February 1795, informing him of the determination of Government to send Mr. Lindegren to Riga to purchase hemp and naval stores secretly, Rep. xii. App. 73.

Securities. Letter from the commissioners for sick and wounded seamen to William Yeo, esq., governor of Haslar Hospital, dated 23 December 1799, directing him to call upon the contractors for the supply of provisions to the Royal Hospital, for the names of their securities, Rep. xiii. App. 486, 487.

Selby & Co., Messrs. Employment of Messrs. Selby & Co. of Copenhagen by the French government to purchase hemp and naval stores at Riga, Rep. xiii. 12.

"Selby," The Ship. Report of the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 19 April 1797, of the number of Riga and Norway masts and spars received from Mr. Lindegren by the ship "Selby," George “Selby,” The Ship—continued.

Hurst, master, Rep. xii. App. 268—Copy of the invoice of masts, spars, and fir deals shipped on Board the “Selby,” Captain John Thompson, for Portsmouth, from Riga, 3 June 1797, by order and for account and risk of Andrew Lindegren, esq. ib. 279.

Seymour, Vice-admiral Lord Hugh. Extract from letter of the Navy Board to Vice-admiral Lord Hugh Seymour, dated 1 October 1800, relative to the purchase of stores by the naval storekeeper at Jamaica for the service of the squadron, Rep. App. 348, 349.

SHEERNESS DOCKYARD :

1. Distribution of Naval Stores.
2. Cargo of the Ship “Young William.”

1. Distribution of Naval Stores :

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Navy to Andrew Lindegren, esq., dated 22 April 1797, directing the distribution of the Norway goods and Riga timber to be delivered at His Majesty’s yard at Sheerness, Rep. xii. App. 274, 275.

2. Cargo of the Ship “Young William :”

Copy of the invoice of masts, bowsprits, and spars shipped on board the “Young William,” Captain Richard Stamper, for Sheerness, from Riga, 27 May 1797, on order, and for account and risk of Andrew Lindegren, esq., Rep. xii. App. 278.

Sheffield, Mr. Appointment of Mr. Sheffield, a mineralogist employed under the inspector-general of naval works, to accompany a committee of directors to visit the estates belonging to the Royal Hospital of Greenwich, in the north, Rep. xiv. 527.

Shipment of Masts at Riga. Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq., to the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Navy, dated 21 March 1797, relative to the shipment of masts purchased by him on commission at Riga, for the service of the navy, Rep. xii. App. 274.—See also Broken Stowage. Freights, 2. Mast-Ships.

Shipping. See Light Dues. Neutral Vessels. Sailing of Ships. Transport Ships.

Shoreham, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Shoreham, in each quarter of the year 1805; Rep. xiv. App. 603.

SICK PRISONERS :

1. Dr. Mein’s Victualling Contract.
2. Plymouth and Haslar Hospitals.
3. Portchester Castle.

1. Dr. Mein’s Victualling Contract :

Observations of the Commissioners on the contracts for victualling sick prisoners of war, between the Commissioners for taking care of sick and wounded seamen and Dr. Thomas Mein, surgeon in His Majesty’s navy, Rep. xiii. 363-376—Copy of contract made by Dr. Mein with the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen, for victualling sick prisoners of war, dated 21 December 1799; Rep. xiii. App. 395, 396—Copy of contract made by Dr. Mein with the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen, for victualling sick prisoners of war, dated 26 March 1800; ib. 396-398—Copy of contract made by Dr. Mein with the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen, dated 26 November 1800; ib. 398-400—Account showing the total number of persons victualled, and the sums paid to Dr. Thomas Mein, in each month, under his contract 26 March 1800; and also the average cost of one person for a day in each month, ib. 515.

2. Plymouth and Haslar Hospitals :

Account, showing the average price paid in each month for beef, mutton, bread, beer, and coals supplied to the Royal Hospitals at Plymouth and Haslar; and also the prices paid to Dr. Thomas Mein for the like articles furnished for the use of the sick prisoners of war at the different depôts mentioned in his contract of 21 December 1799, from the 22d of that month to 31 December 1800; Rep. xiii. App. 484, 485.

3. Portchester Castle :

Reason of the numbers of prisoners on the different diets, stated in the monthly returns of the surgeon of Portchester Hospital, differing so widely from the numbers as entered in the quarterly book at the hospital, Rep. xiii. 382.

See also Diet, 1. Victualling Sick Prisoners of War.

SICK AND WOUNDED BOARD :

1. Dr. Mein's Victualling Contract.
2. Mr. Richard Owen's Provision Contract.
3. Messrs. Hay & Co.'s Contract.
4. Compensation for Losses in Victualling Contracts.
5. Supply of Coals to Haslar Hospital.
6. Haslar Hospital Contractors' Securities.
7. Standard of Prices of Provisions.
8. Weekly Price of Provisions.
9. Expenditure of the Board.

1. Dr. Mein's Victualling Contract :

Observations of the Commissioners on the conduct of the Sick and Wounded Board, with reference to the second contract of Dr. Mein, dated 26 March 1800; Rep. xiii. 377-386—Copy of letter from the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen to Dr. Mein, dated 20 December 1799, accepting his tender for the contract for supplying the hospitals for French prisoners at the depôts with provisions, Rep. xiii. App. 400—Copy of letter from the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen to Dr. Mein, dated 20 March 1800, relative to supplying sick French prisoners of war at the hospital depôts with provisions by contract, ib. 438—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of sick and wounded seamen to Dr. Mein, dated 25 November 1800, dissolving the contract for victualling the sick prisoners of war at the depôts, and offering fresh terms, ib. 439, 440—Copy of letter from the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen to Dr. Mein, dated 20 May 1800, respecting the contract for victualling the sick prisoners of war at Portsmouth, Plymouth, Stapleton, and Chatham, ib. 452.

2. Mr. Richard Owen's Provision Contract :

Observations of the Commissioners on the conduct of the Board for sick and wounded seamen, with reference to the contract of Mr. Richard Owen for supplying the Royal Hospital at Haslar with provisions, Rep. xiii. 370, 371—Copy of letter from the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen to Governor Yeo, of Haslar Hospital, dated 19 March 1800, requesting to know what increase of price has taken place on the articles of beef, mutton, and oatmeal since Mr. Owen took the contract to supply them, Rep. xiii. App. 487—Copy of letter from the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen to Mr. Richard Owen, of Fareham, dated 27 March 1800, intimating their intention not to release him from his contract for supplying sundry articles of provisions for the service of the Royal Hospital at Haslar, ib. 488—Copy of letter from the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen to Mr. Richard Owen, dated 10 April 1800, intimating their intention of taking into consideration what addition it may be reasonable to make to his contract rate, ib. 490.

3. Messrs. Hay & Co.'s Contract :

Copy of letter from the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen to Messrs Hay & Co., dated 20 December 1799, directing them to take steps for victualling the sick French prisoners of war at the depôts at Norman Cross, Edinburgh, and Liverpool, Rep. xiii. App. 504—Copy of letter from the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen to Messrs. Joseph Hay & Co., dated 1 April 1800, accepting their terms for victualling sick prisoners of war at the depôts, ib.

4. Compensation for Losses on Victualling Contracts :

Observations of the Commissioners on the conduct of the Board for sick and wounded seamen, with reference to the grant made to Dr. Mein as compensation for losses sustained by him in the performance of his contract, Rep. xiii. 368, 369—Nature of the steps taken by the Board for sick and wounded seamen to guard against the impositions to which the public is exposed in making of advances on contract prices, ib. 387, 388—Copy of letter from the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen to Dr. Mein, dated 11 July 1800, granting him an allowance for losses said to have been sustained by him under his contract on 21 December 1799, for victualling sick prisoners of war, Rep. xiii. App. 454—Copy of letter from the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 4 November 1805, relative to the compensation made to Dr. Mein for the loss sustained by him on his contract for victualling sick prisoners of war, dated 22 December 1799, ib. 490, 491—Copy of Letter from the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen to Messrs. Joseph Hay & Co., dated 28 July 1800, consenting to allow them at the rate of one penny halfpenny per man, per diem, in addition to their present price, for victualling sick prisoners of war, ib. 505—Copy of minute of the Sick and Wounded Board, dated 4 March 1796, with respect to making allowances on contracts, ib. 517.

SICK AND WOUNDED BOARD—continued.

5. Supply of Coals to Haslar Hospital :

Copy of letter from the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen to the governor of Haslar Hospital, dated 14 April 1800, relative to retaining a stock of coals at Haslar Hospital for six weeks' consumption, Rep. xiii. App. 509—Copy of minute of the Sick and Wounded Board, dated 25 October 1799, on the subject of contracts for supplying Haslar Hospital with coals, ib. 518.

6. Haslar Hospital Contractors' Securities :

Letter from the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen to William Yeo, esq., governor of Haslar Hospital, dated 23 December 1799, directing him to call upon the contractors for the supply of provisions to the Royal Hospital, for the names of their securities, Rep. xiii. App. 486, 487.

7. Standard of Prices of Provisions :

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of sick and wounded seamen to Dr. Mein, dated 17 June 1800, agreeing to take the prices of provisions at Haslar Hospital, as the standard to be allowed in furnishing the sick prisoners of war at the depôts, Rep. xiii. App. 439.

8. Weekly Prices of Provisions :

Letter from the Board for sick and wounded seamen to the governor of Haslar Hospital, dated 14 April 1800, desiring him to report to the Board weekly the market prices of beef, mutton, and beer in the neighbourhood of Haslar, Rep. xiii. App. 510—Copy of letter from the Board for sick and wounded seamen to the governor of Haslar Hospital, dated 13 June 1800, desiring him to report to the Board weekly the market prices of bread in that neighbourhood, ib.

9. Expenditure of the Board :

Observations of the Commissioners on the magnitude of the expenditure entrusted to the late Board for sick and wounded seamen and sick prisoners of war, Rep. xiii. 388, 389—General abstract of the expenditure of the Sick and Wounded Office, for the years 1800 and 1801, Rep. xiii. App. 520, 521.

See also Blane, Gilbert. Chief Clerk of the Sick and Wounded Office. Expenditure of Public Money, 2. Gibbons, Sir William, Bart. Harness, John. Johnston, Dr. Mein, Dr. Thomas. Seamen. Stewart, Joseph. Vacation of Contracts.

Signature of Certificates. Opinion of the Commissioners that all certificates of rates of exchange, and of the prices of articles purchased abroad for His Majesty's service, should be signed by the British consuls, Rep. xiii. 386, 387.

See also Certificates, 2. Friend, William.

Simonburn Rectory. Particulars respecting the rectory of Simonburn, in the gift of the commissioners and governors of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. 550, 551—Opinion of the Commissioners that the living of Simonburn should be sold, and the price of it added to the productive funds of the hospital, ib. 551—Copy of letter from Dr. James Scott, rector of the parish of Simonburn, to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 17 June 1806, relating to the rectory of Simonburn, ib. 681-683.

See also Harrison, John, 2.

Sixpenny Duty. Particulars and amount of the sixpences from the seamen and marines in His Majesty's navy, deducted from their wages at the time of payment, for the support of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. 526, 527.

Small Masts. Copy of letter from the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth to the secretary of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 7 May 1805, respecting the removal by Mr. Lindegren of 185 small masts from the yard, brought home in the "Adventure" transport ship, Rep. xii. App. 264.

Smalley, Cornwall. Circumstances of the Government employing Mr. Cornwall Smalley, a partner in the house of Messrs. Thornton & Smalley, as commission agent at Petersburg, to purchase hemp and other naval stores for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. 26—Copy of instructions from Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, to Mr. Cornwall Smalley, dated 9 December 1796, to purchase hemp at Petersburg secretly for Government, Rep. xii. App. 222.

Smith, Captain. See "Windsor," The Ship.

Smith, Mr. Observations of the Commissioners on the conduct of Mr. Smith, late naval storekeeper at Jamaica, in appropriating the premium on the bills drawn by him to his own advantage and emolument, Rep. xii. 341, 342—Reasons assigned by the Navy Board for not proceeding against Mr. Smith for the recovery of the amount of the premium on bills drawn by him whilst acting as naval storekeeper at Jamaica, ib. 342,

Smith, Mr.—continued.

343—Observations of the Commissioners on the conduct of the Navy Board in permitting Mr. Dick, the successor of Mr. Smith, naval storekeeper at Jamaica, to draw bills upon the Navy Board without adverting to the circumstances of his not having brought the premium upon them to account until September 1800, Rep. xii. 344-347.

See also Dismissal from Office.

Smith, Ralph. See "Withywood," The Ship.

Smith, Richard. Examination of Richard Smith, esq., clerk of the cheque of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 15 May 1806, relative to the mode of contracting for supplies and stores, and manner in which the provisions and necessaries for the men are obtained, Rep. xiv. App. 598-601.

Solicitor-General. See Manners Sutton, Thomas.

SOLICITOR TO GREENWICH HOSPITAL:

1. Law Charges.
2. Attendances of the Solicitor.
3. Bills of Costs.

1. Law Charges:

Observations of the Commissioners on the explanation given by the solicitor to the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, with reference to the heavy law charges of that corporation, Rep. xiv. 538-540—Examination of Joseph Martyn, esq., solicitor to the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 14 June 1806, relative to the manner in which the law business of that institution is conducted, Rep. xiv. App. 632-637.

2. Attendances of the Solicitor:

Recommendations of the Commissioners for lessening the attendances of the solicitor to Greenwich Hospital, with a view to a reduction of the law charges, Rep. xiv. 538, 539.

3. Bills of Costs:

Recommendation of the Commissioners that the bills of costs of the solicitor to Greenwich Hospital should be submitted to the auditor previously to their being laid before the Board of Directors, Rep. xiv. 540—Copy of bill of law charges and business done for the commissioners and governors of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, by Joseph Martyn, solicitor, from 31 March to 1 October 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 613-632.

See also Law Charges. Martyn, Joseph. Oaths, 2.

"Sophia," The Ship. Report of the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth, to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 19 April 1797, of the number of Riga and Norway masts and spars received from Mr. Lindegren, by the ship "Sophia," John Bannister, master, Rep. xii. App. 268.

South Foreland Light. See Foreland Lights, 1.

South Sea Annuities. Account of the amount of South Sea Annuities belonging to the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, as it stood on 31 December in each year, from 1783 to 1789 inclusive, Rep. xiv. App. 587—Account of the South Sea Annuities of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, from 1790 to 1805 inclusive, ib.

Southampton, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Southampton, in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 604.

Southwold, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Southwold, in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 604.

Spare Provisions. See Allowances to Pensioners.

Spars. Account of spars received into His Majesty's stores at Portsmouth yard, from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, on account of Government, out of the "Barnes" transport, per Navy Board's warrant of 25 September 1795, Rep. xii. App. 262—Account of the number of spars received at His Majesty's dockyard, at Portsmouth, in 1797, from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, on account of Mr. Andrew Lindegren, specifying the several ships' names the stores were imported in, and the quantity delivered by each, ib. 265-270.

SPENCER, RIGHT HON. EARL:

1. Employment of a Government Agent at Riga.
2. French Agents at Riga.

1. Employment of a Government Agent at Riga:

Copy of letter from the Right hon. Earl Spencer, First Lord of the Admiralty, to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 6 January 1795, directing him to send a confidential person to Riga to purchase hemp and naval stores secretly, Rep. xii. App. 61—Copy of letter from the Right hon. Earl Spencer, First Lord of the Admiralty, to Lord Grenville, Secretary of State for the Foreign Department, dated 23 February 1795, respecting the employment of an agent to purchase hemp and naval stores at Riga, ib. 73—Copy of letter from the Right hon. Earl Spencer, First Lord of the Admiralty, to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 27 February 1799, on the subject of employment of an agent to purchase hemp and foreign naval stores on commission for the service of the navy, ib. 223.

2. French Agents at Riga:

Copy of letter from the Right hon. Earl Spencer, First Lord of the Admiralty, to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 17 January 1797, relative to the employment of Monsieur Chapeaurouge by the French government in making large purchases of naval stores at Riga, Rep. xii. App. 215—Copy of minute of the Right hon. Earl Spencer, First Lord of the Admiralty, dated 11 August 1795, approving the efforts made by Mr. Lindegren to deprive the French government of the masts and naval stores purchased by their agent at Riga, ib. 228.

Stamper, Richard. See "Young William," The Ship.

Standard of Prices. Circumstance of Dr. Mein proposing to the Sick and Wounded Board, that the prices returned weekly by the governor of the Royal Hospital at Haslar should be considered the standard, Rep. xiii. 365—Copy of letter from the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen to Dr. Mein, dated 17 June 1800, agreeing to take the prices of provisions at Haslar Hospital as the standard to be allowed in furnishing the sick prisoners of war at the depôts, Rep. xiii. App. 439.

STAPLETON HOSPITAL (NEAR BRISTOL):

1. Dr. Mein's Victualling Contract.
2. Agreement with Mr. Owen, of Fareham.

1. Dr. Mein's Victualling Establishment:

Observations of the Commissioners on the contract for victualling sick prisoners of war at Stapleton Hospital, near Bristol, between the Commissioners for taking care of sick and wounded seamen and Dr. Thomas Mein, surgeon in His Majesty's navy, Rep. xiii. 363-376.

2. Agreement with Mr. Owen, of Fareham:

Remarks of the Commissioners on the terms of the agreement entered into between Dr. Mein and Mr. Richard Owen for victualling sick prisoners of war at Stapleton Hospital, near Bristol, Rep. xiii. 371, 372—Copy of articles of agreement entered into by Dr. Thomas Mein with Mr. Richard Owen, of Fareham, dated 26 December 1799, for the supply of beef, mutton, bread, beer, and various other articles for the sick prisoners of war at the depôt at Fareham, near Bristol, Rep. xiii. App. 493, 494.

STEWARD OF GREENWICH HOSPITAL:

1. Accounts.
2. Perquisites and Fees.
3. Supply of Provisions.

1. Accounts:

Manner in which the accounts of the numerous payments of the steward of Greenwich Hospital to the butler, for pensioners and nurses in lieu of their allowance of provisions, are kept, Rep. xiv. 544-546.

2. Perquisites and Fees:

Observations of the Commissioners of the circumstance of the steward of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich receiving premiums on the appointment of clerks, and presents of wine and other articles from contractors, Rep. xiv. 548, 549.

3. Supply of Provisions:

Examination of Mr. John Godby, steward of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 9 April 1806, relative to the supply of provisions for the use of the pensioners on that establishment, Rep. xiv. App. 646, 649.

See also Godby, John. Samworth, John.

Stewart,

Stewart, Joseph. Examination of Joseph Stewart, esq., secretary to the Board of sick and wounded seamen, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 14 December 1805, relative to the system of contracting for the supply of provisions to the sick prisoners of war at the several dépôt hospitals, Rep. xiii. App. 448-451—Copy of letter from Joseph Stewart, esq., secretary to the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen, to John Williams, esq., secretary to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 18 January 1806, inclosing a copy of the minute of the Board, dated 25 October 1799, on the subject of contracts, ib. 517.

STOCK:

1. Royal Hospital at Greenwich.
2. Charity School for Boys at Greenwich.

1. Royal Hospital at Greenwich:

Particulars respecting the stock belonging to the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, and amount of interest derived from money in the funds, Rep. xiv. 532, 533—Account of the amount of stock belonging to the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, as it stood on 31 December in each year, from 1783 to 1789 inclusive, Rep. xiv. App. 597—Account of the funded property of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, from 1790 to 1805 inclusive, as it stood on 31 December in each year, describing the securities in which it is invested, ib.

2. Charity School for Boys at Greenwich:

Account of the personal property belonging to the establishment of the charity boys at the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, from 1790 to 1805 inclusive, as it stood on 31 December in each year, describing the securities in which it is invested, Rep. xiv. App. 675.

STOREKEEPER AT JAMAICA:

1. Abuses and Irregularities of the Office.
2. Premiums on Navy Bills.
3. Counsel's Opinion.

1. Abuses and Irregularities of the Office:

Observations of the Commissioners on the abuses and irregularities in the office of storekeeper at Jamaica, Rep. xii. App. 337-347—Observations of the Commissioners on the conduct of the Navy Board in allowing Mr. Dick to remain so long in his situation as storekeeper, notwithstanding many suspicious circumstances in his conduct, ib. 347-350—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Jamaica officers, dated 16 April 1799, signifying the displeasure of the Board at the manner in which the returns and accounts of the Jamaica officers are made to the Navy Office, ib. 356—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Dick, naval storekeeper at Jamaica, dated 27 February 1800, relative to the delays in making up his quarterly returns, ib. 358—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Dick, naval officer at Jamaica, dated 1 March 1800, respecting certain omissions in several of his quarterly returns made to the Navy Office, ib. 358, 359.

2. Premiums on Navy Bills:

Observations of the Commissioners on the conduct of the Navy Board in permitting Mr. Dick, the successor of Mr. Smith, naval storekeeper at Jamaica, to draw bills upon the Navy Board, without adverting to the circumstances of his not having brought the premium upon them to account until September 1800, Rep. xii. App. 344-347.

3. Counsel's Opinion:

Case of Mr. James Dick, late naval storekeeper at Jamaica, as submitted to the attorney and solicitor general, and the counsel for the Admiralty, with their opinion thereupon, Rep. xii. App. 353-355.

STORES:

1. Purchases of Naval Stores.
2. Portsmouth Yard.
3. Jamaica Officers.

1. Purchases of Naval Stores:

Copies of the accounts current between Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, and Mr. Andrew Lindegren, relating to the purchases of stores made by the latter for the service of the navy, under commissions granted by the Navy Board, in the years 1795, 1796, 1797, and 1798, Rep. xii. App. 206-209.

STORES—continued.2. Portsmouth Yard :

Account of the articles (excepting hemp) supplied to His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth, under the commission granted to Mr. Andrew Lindegren to purchase naval stores, between the years 1795 and 1801, both inclusive, Rep. xii. App. 262, 263.

3. Jamaica Officers :

Copy of letter of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Jamaica officers, dated 5 August 1799, requesting the quarterly returns of the remains of and demands for stores, Rep. xii. App. 355.

See also Certificates, 3. Distribution of Stores. Invoices. Naval Stores. Purchases of Stores.

Stowage of Mast Ships. See Broken Stowage.

Subsistence of Prisoners. See French Prisoners of War.

Sunderland, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Sunderland, in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

SURGEONS OF HOSPITALS :

1. Agents to Contractors.
2. Chatham and Forton Hospitals.

1. Agents to Contractors :

Opinion of the Commissioners that surgeons of hospitals should be required to depose that they are in no way acting for, or on account of any persons holding a contract under the Sick and Hurt Board, Rep. xiii. 386.

3. Chatham and Forton Hospitals :

Observations of the Commissioners on the circumstance of the surgeons of the prison hospitals at Forton and Chatham being in the pay and acting as agents to Dr. Mein, the contractor for victualling sick prisoners, Rep. xiii. 385, 386—Account, showing the yearly amount of the pay and allowances granted by the Commissioners for sick and wounded seamen to Mr. John Griffin, as surgeon of Forton Hospital, and to Mr. Young, surgeon of the "Bristol" prison hospital ship at Chatham, in the years 1800 and 1801, Rep. xiii. App. 516.

See also Agents, 4. Certificates, 4. Private Practice.

Surplus Revenue. Observations of the Commissioners on the most eligible mode of applying the surplus revenue of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. 552.

Surveyors of the Navy. See Henslow, Sir John. Rule, Sir William.

Suter, David. See "John and Richard," The Ship.

Swales, Captain. See "Centurion," The Ship.

Swansea, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Swansea, in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

T

Table Allowances. Table of allowance of provisions to a pensioner in the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, for every day in the week, Rep. xiv. 542.

Table List. Nature of the payments made by the butler of Greenwich Hospital to the pensioners, in lieu of their allowances of provisions, called "The Hall or Table List," Rep. xiv. 543, 544.

Tenants. Opinion of the Commissioners that the cost of the leases of the Greenwich Hospital estates should be wholly borne by the tenants, Rep. xiv. 541.

Thames River. Copy of the invoice of masts, spars, and fir deals shipped on board the "Centurion," Captain John Swales, for the river, from Riga, by order and for account and risk of Andrew Lindegren, esq., Rep. xii. App. 280.

"Thames," The Ship. Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 5 August 1795, reporting the sailing from Riga of the Ship "Thames," Captain Metcalf, for Woolwich, laden with hemp, for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 200.

Thompson, Captain John. See "Selby," The Ship.

Thomson, Peters & Co. Rate of commission allowed Messrs. Thomson, Peters & Co., on the purchase of hemp in Russia, for the service of the navy, during the American war, Rep. xii. 8, 9. 15—Rate of commission allowed by the Navy Board to Messrs. Thomson, Peters & Co. on the purchases of masts, fir timber, &c., imported between 1781 and 1784 for the service of the navy, ib. 33—Account of the rates of commission granted by the Navy Board to Messrs. Thomson, Peters & Co., for purchase of naval stores during the American war, Rep. xii. App. 145.

THORLEY, MORISON & CO., MESSRS. :

1. Purchases of Hemp at Riga ; Rate of Commission.
2. Invoices of Stores purchased.
3. Transfer of Contracts.

1. Purchases of Hemp at Riga ; Rate of Commission.

Occasion of the employment of Mr. John Morison, of the firm of Thorley Morison & Co., to purchase hemp on Government account at Riga, Rep. xii. 9—Observations of the Commissioners on the rate of commission allowed Messrs. Thorley, Morison & Co. on the purchases of hemp made by them at Riga, ib. 8. 14. 20. 23—Copy of minute of the Committee of Accounts of the Navy Board, dated 10 August 1798, on the subject of the commission to be allowed Messrs. Thorley and Morison on the hemp purchased by them at Riga for the service of the navy, Rep. xii. App. 217—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 14 August 1798, on the subject of the commission to be allowed Messrs. Thorley, Morison & Co. for the purchase of hemp and masts at Riga for the service of the navy, ib.

2. Invoices of Stores purchased :

Copy of invoice of twenty bundles Rhine hemp, and four bundles Outshott hemp, sold by Messrs. Thorley, Morison, & Co. to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, and shipped by his order, and for his account and risk, on board the "Sappho" for the Thames, Rep. xii. App. 198.

3. Transfer of Contracts :

Observations of the Commissioners on the transfer of contracts made by the Navy Board for supplying His Majesty's yards with Riga masts and fir timber, to Messrs. Thorley, Morison & Co., Rep. xii. 51-53—Statement of Mr. Andrew Lindegren's account with Messrs. Thorley, Morison & Co. for the purchase of masts and spars at Riga, Rep. xii. App. 316, 317.

Thornton Brothers & Co. Circumstances attending the transfer of a contract made by the Navy Board with Messrs. Thornton Brothers & Co., for supplying His Majesty's yards with Riga masts and fir timber, Rep. xii. 52, 53—Copy of contract made by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy with Messrs. Thornton, Brothers & Co., dated 3 April 1804, for the supply of Riga masts and fir timber for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 330-333.—See also Tooke, Thomas.

Thornton, Godfrey. Examination of Godfrey Thornton, esq., Russia merchant, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 17 May 1805, relative to the purchases of naval stores made by Mr. Andrew Lindegren for the service of the navy in the years 1795, 1796, and 1797, Rep. xii. App. 256, 257.

THORNTON, GODFREY, AND SON, MESSRS. :

1. Appointment as Government Agents.
2. Purchases of Naval Stores.
3. Agreement with Mr. Lindegren.
4. Commission on Agency Business.
5. Naval Store Account.
6. Disposal of broken Stowage at Plymouth.
7. The Transport Ship "Barnes."

1. Appointment as Government Agents :

Circumstance of Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, Russia merchants, being selected by Government to transact the business in this country for Mr. Lindegren, the commission agent at Riga, Rep. xii. 5—Circumstance of Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son being employed by Mr. Lindegren, as his private agents, to transact the business relative to the purchase of masts in 1798, ib. 40, 41.

2. Purchase of Naval Stores :

Copies of the accounts current between Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son and Mr. Andrew Lindegren, relating to the purchases of stores made by the latter for the service of the navy, under commissions granted by the Navy Board, in the years 1795, 1796, 1797, and 1798, Rep. xii. App. 206-209—Copy of letter from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton

*THORNTON, GODFREY, AND SON, MESSRS.—continued.*2. Purchase of Naval Stores—continued.

Thornton & Son, attorney to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 26 March 1796, respecting a cargo of hemp that arrived from Riga by the ship "Sappho," for the service of the navy, Rep. xii. App. 213, 214—Account of the number of masts, bowsprits, spars, and pieces of square fir timber received at His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth in 1797 from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, on account of Mr. Andrew Lindegren, specifying the several ships' names the stores were imported in, and the quantity delivered by each, ib. 265-270.

3. Agreement with Mr. Lindegren:

Copy of agreement made and concluded on the 27th February 1795 between Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son of the one part, and Mr. Andrew Lindegren of the other part, to provide from foreign parts certain articles of naval stores, Rep. xii. App. 87.

4. Commission on Agency Business:

Rate of commission agreed to be given to Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son for managing the whole of commission agency business in England, Rep. xii. 15, 16—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, dated 13 June 1795, relative to the rate of commission to be allowed their firm on the purchases of hemp for the service of the navy, Rep. xii. App. 202—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Lindegren, dated 14 August 1798, on the subject of the commission to be allowed Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, for the purchase of naval stores at Riga for His Majesty's service, ib. 217.

5. Naval Store Account:

Transcript from the account in the ledgers of Godfrey Thornton & Son, entitled "Disbursements for naval stores imported," Rep. xii. App. 286, 287—Extracts from the journal of Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, explanatory of such items accounted for in the transcript from the ledger account, as were not contained in the general account with Mr. Lindegren, entitled "His account of naval stores imported," ib. 288, 289—Account extracted from the foregoing, showing the sums received and paid by Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, which should have been carried by Mr. Lindegren to the account of the public, ib. 290, 291—Copy of Messrs. Thornton & Son's account with Mr. Lindegren, entitled "His particular account," for the years 1796, 1797, 1798, and 1799, ib. 294-303.

6. Disposal of broken Stowage at Plymouth:

Extract of a letter from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son to Messrs. Chapell & Hodge of Plymouth dock, dated 31 July 1797, relative to the disposal of the lathwood and firewood brought home in the timber ships from Riga, Rep. xii. App. 276—Copy of letter from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son to Messrs. Chapell & Hodge of Plymouth dock, dated 9 August 1797, directing an examination of the masts shipped from Riga, on board the ships "Nestor" and "Liverpool," ib. 277—Copy of letter from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son to Messrs. Chapell & Hodge, dated 15 August 1797, directing the sale of the timber received by the mast ships from Riga, ib.—Copy of letter from Thomas Tooke, esq., to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 22 July 1805, stating his inability to find any letter from the Navy Board to Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, in the year 1797, on the subject of broken stowage brought by the mast ships, ib.

7. The Transport Ship "Barnes":

Copy of letter from Messrs. Godfrey & Son to the Commissioners of His Majesty's navy, dated 19 June 1793, respecting the captain of the transport ship "Barnes" being directed to call upon them for a letter of introduction to a gentleman at Riga, Rep. xii. App. 254—Account of the masts, &c. received into His Majesty's stores at Portsmouth dockyard from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton and Son, on account of Government, out of the "Barnes" transport, per Navy Board's warrant of 25 September 1795, ib. 262.

See also Accounts, 3. Agents, 3. Chapell & Hodge, Messrs. Tooke, Thomas.

"Three Brothers," The Ship. Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq., to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 18 July 1795, reporting the sailing from Riga of the ship "Three Brothers," Horn, master, for the River Thames, laden with hemp for His Majesty's service, Rep. xii. App. 227, 228.

TIMBER:

1. Purchases of Timber by Government Agent abroad.
2. Contracts for Foreign Timber.
3. Sailing of Timber Ships from Riga.
4. Broken Stowage of Timber Ships.
5. Portsmouth Yard.
6. Greenwich Hospital Estates.

1. Purchases of Timber by Government Agent abroad:

Observations of the Commissioners on the purchases of fir timber on commission by Mr. Andrew Lindegren for the service of His Majesty's navy, from 1795 to 1799, Rep. xii. 28-50—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Andrew Lindegren, esq., dated 26 April 1796, directing him to procure 2,000 loads of Riga fir timber, and a large quantity of Norway masts, Rep. xii. App. 258—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 20 April 1797, signifying the wishes of the Navy Board with respect to the distribution of the Norway and Riga timber to be delivered by Mr. Lindegren, ib. 274, 275.

2. Contracts for Foreign Timber:

Copy of contract made by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy with Mr. Samuel Sanders, dated 2 May 1800, for the supply of fir timber for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 319-321—Copy of contract made by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy with Mr. Andrew Lindegren, dated 3 April 1804, for the supply of Riga masts and fir timber for the service of His Majesty's navy, ib. 328-330—Copy of contract made by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy with Messrs. Thornton Brothers & Co., dated 3 April 1804, for the supply of Riga masts and fir timber for the service of His Majesty's navy, ib. 330-333.

3. Sailing of Timber Ships from Riga:

Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq., to [the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 29 June 1796, advising the Board of the sailing of fifteen vessels laden with masts and timber from Riga to different ports in England, Rep. xii. App. 214.

4. Broken Stowage of Timber Ships:

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the officers of His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth, dated 10 December 1796, directing them to return the surplus timber to Mr. Lindegren beyond the quantity ordered, Rep. xii. App. 259—Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the respective officers of His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, dated 15 August 1797, relative to the filling up of the broken stowage in the mast ships from Riga with fir timber, ib. 276—Copy of letter from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son to Messrs. Chapell & Hodge of Plymouth dock, dated 15 August 1797, directing the sale of the timber received by the mast ships from Riga, ib. 277.

5. Portsmouth Yard:

Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth, dated 13 October 1796, directing them not to receive any fir timber out of the Riga mast ships consigned by Mr. Lindegren, Rep. xii. App. 259—Copy of letter from the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth to the Committee of Stores, dated 9 December 1796, respecting the receipt of timber from Mr. Lindegren, ib.—Account of pieces of fir timber received into His Majesty's stores at Portsmouth yard from Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, on account of Government, out of the "Barnes" transport, per Navy Board's warrant of 25 September 1795, ib. 262—Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the officers of His Majesty's yard at Portsmouth, dated 27 April 1796, directing them to receive 1,400 loads of fir timber and a large quantity of Norway masts procured by Mr. Lindegren from Riga for the service of the navy, ib. 264.

6. Greenwich Hospital Estates:

Estimated value of the timber growing on the estates of the Royal Hospital of Greenwich, in the north, and amount received on that account since the estate was granted in 1735, Rep. xiv. 531—Valuation of the timber belonging to the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich in the north, made by Mr. John Surties, in the years 1804 and 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 593.

See also Fir Timber. Foreign Timber. Riga Masts and Fir Timber.

Todd, George. Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Mr. George Todd, a Russia merchant, respecting the rate of commission allowed merchants, shipping hemp from Riga on Government account, Rep. xii. 8, 9—Examination of George Todd, esq., a Russia merchant, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 3 August 1804, relative to the purchase of hemp and other naval stores at Riga and Petersburg on commission, Rep. xii. App. 143-145.

TOOKE, THOMAS :

1. Mr. Lindegren's Accounts.
2. Broken Stowage of Mast Ships.
3. Transfer of Contracts.

1. Mr. Lindegren's Accounts :

Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Mr. Tooke, relative to Mr. Lindegren's accounts of disbursements for naval stores, Rep. xii. 41, 42—Examination of Thomas Tooke, e-q., of the house of Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, Russia merchants, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 11 May 1805, relative to the accounts of Mr. Lindegren, for the purchase of stores at Riga and Petersburg for the service of the navy, Rep. xii. App. 210-213.

2. Broken Stowage of Mast Ships :

Copy of letter from Thomas Tooke, esq. to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 22 July 1805, stating his inability to find any letter from the Navy Board to Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son in the year 1797, on the subject of broken stowage brought by the mast ships, Rep. xii. App. 277.

3. Transfer of Contracts :

Examination of Thomas Tooke, esq., a partner in the house of Messrs. Thornton Brothers & Co., taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 11 July 1805, relative to the transfer of the contracts, for the supply of Riga masts and fir timber, for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 333, 334.

Town Clerk of London. See Woodthorpe, Henry.

Trading. See Private Trading.

Transfer of Contracts. Observations of the Commissioners on the system of transfer of contracts entered into by the Navy Board, for the supply of Riga masts and fir timber at His Majesty's several dockyards, Rep. xii. 51-53—Opinion of the Commissioners that all persons interested in contracts should be named therein, and that no share or interest in contracts should be transferred without the knowledge and approbation of the public Boards, ib. 52—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 29 October 1805, relative to the transfer of the contracts for the supply of Riga masts and fir timber for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 319.—See also Accounts, 7.

Transport Ships. Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to Messrs. Godfrey Thornton & Son, dated 12 September 1795, relative to putting broken stowage on board the mast transport ships from Riga for His Majesty's dockyards at Portsmouth and Plymouth, Rep. xii. App. 255.

See also Broken Stowage, 4.

Travelling Expenses. Agreement with Mr. Lindegren to allow him his travelling expenses whilst acting as agent at Riga, Rep. xii. 16—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Andrew Lindegren, esq., dated 12 June 1795, on the subject of the allowance of his travelling expenses whilst acting as agent to Government, Rep. xii. App. 201, 202.

TREASURER OF GREENWICH HOSPITAL :

1. Augmentation of Salary.
2. Investment of Balances.
3. Unclaimed Prize Money.
4. Simonburn Rectory.

1. Augmentation of Salary :

Observations of the Commissioners on the circumstance of the augmentation of the salary of the treasurer of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. 537—Minute of a general court of the Commissioners and Governors of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, held at the Admiralty Office, 23 July 1805, directing an increase of the salary of the treasurer of the hospital, Rep. xiv. App. 684, 685.

2. Investment of Balances :

Copy of letter from Admiral Sir John Colpoys, treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, to John Dyer, esq., dated 27 April 1806, relative to the large balances of public money which from time to time remain in his hands as treasurer, and suggesting the investment of the surplus in the public funds, Rep. xiv. App. 683—Minute of a meeting of the directors of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, dated 27 April 1805, with reference to the investment of a portion of the balance in the hands of the treasurer in the public funds, funds, Rep. xiv. App. 684—Minute of a meeting of the directors of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, held at Salters' Hall on 8 May 1805, directing the payment of the treasurer's balance into the Bank of England, and the investment of the surplus in the purchase of stock, ib.

TREASURER OF GREENWICH HOSPITAL—continued.2. Investment of Balances—continued.

3. Unclaimed Prize Money :

Power of the treasurer of Greenwich Hospital to appoint deputies at the outports to remit and account for unclaimed and forfeited shares of prize money, Rep. xiv. 535.

4. Simonburn Rectory :

Examination of Admiral Sir John Colpoys, K. B., treasurer of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 18 April 1806, respecting the living of the parish of Simonburn, belonging to the hospital, Rep. xiv. App. 68c.

See also Colpoys, Admiral Sir John. Reduction of Salaries.

Treasurer of the Navy. Particulars and amount of the sixpences from the seamen and marines in His Majesty's navy paid over by the treasurer of the navy, to the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, Rep. xiv. 526, 527.

"Trio," The Ship. Report of the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 19 April 1797, of the number of Riga and Norway masts and spars received from Mr. Lindegren by the ship "Trio," Richard Greig master, Rep. xii. App. 269.

Truro, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Truro, in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 604.

Turner, Sir John. Circumstances attending the resignation by Sir John Turner, of the office of receiver of the estates of the Royal Hospital of Greenwich, in the north, Rep. xiv. 530—Examination of Sir John Turner, knight, formerly one of the receivers of the estates of Greenwich Hospital, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, 4 June 1806, relative to his relinquishment of the situation of receiver of Greenwich Hospital estates in the north, Rep. xiv. App. 589.

"Two Brothers," The Ship. Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 3 September 1795, reporting the sailing from Riga of the ship "Two Brothers," Captain Linkletter, for Woolwich, with further parcels of intended French hemp, for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 255.

U.

Unappropriated Balances. By a late regulation of the Board of Directors of Greenwich Hospital, the unappropriated balance of the hospital is never to exceed the sum of 10,000 l., Rep. xiv. 535.

UNCLAIMED PRIZE MONEY :

1. Revenue of Greenwich Hospital.
2. Deputations to Receivers.

1. Revenue of Greenwich Hospital :

Particulars of the revenue arising to the Royal Hospital at Greenwich from unclaimed prize money, Rep. xiv. 534, 535—Statement of the aggregate amount received by the Royal Hospital at Greenwich on account of the unclaimed shares of prize money during the late war, and in the three succeeding years, ib. 536.

2. Deputations to Receivers :

Form of deputation of the treasurer and receiver-general of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich to receivers of unclaimed and forfeited shares of prize and bounty monies, Rep. xiv. App. 637, 638.

See also Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, 3.

Ushaw, Captain. See "Barnes," The Ship.

V.

Vacation of Contracts. Remarks of the Commissioners on the conduct of the Sick and Wounded Board in allowing contractors to vacate their contracts at pleasure, Rep. xiii. 388.

Victualling Board. Nature of the oath required to be taken by agents employed by the Victualling Board, that they were in no way interested in the articles purchased, previous to their being obtained for the Government, Rep. xii. 48.

VICTUALLING SICK PRISONERS OF WAR :

1. Dr. Mein's Contract.
2. Agreement with Mr. Owen of Fareham.
3. Messrs. Joseph Hay, & Co.'s Contract.
4. Prices of Provisions.

1. Dr. Mein's Contract :

Observations of the Commissioners on the contracts for victualling sick prisoners of war, between the Commissioners for taking care of Sick and Wounded Seamen and Dr. Thomas Mein, surgeon in His Majesty's navy, Rep. xiii. 363-376—Copy of contract made by Dr. Mein with the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded Seamen for victualling sick prisoners of war, dated 21 December 1799, Rep. xiii. App. 395, 396—Copy of contract made by Dr. Mein with the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded Seamen, of victualling sick prisoners of war, dated 26 March 1800, ib. 396-398—Copy of contract made by Dr. Mein with the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded Seamen, dated 26 November 1800, ib. 398-400—Account showing the total number of persons victualled, and the sums paid to Dr. Thomas Mein in each month under his contract 26 March 1800, and also the average cost of one person for a day in each month, ib.

2. Agreement with Mr. Owen, of Fareham :

Copy of articles of agreement entered into by Dr. Grey on the part of Dr. Mein with Mr. Richard Owen for the supply of beef, mutton, bread, beer, and various other articles for the sick prisoners of war at Forton and Porchester Hospitals, dated 21 December 1799, Rep. xiii. App. 492, 493—Copy of articles of agreement entered into by Dr. Thomas Mein with Mr. Richard Owen, dated 26 December 1799, confirming the agreement made by Dr. Grey, and extending the supply to the depôt at Stapleton, near Bristol, ib. 493, 494.

3. Messrs. Joseph Hay & Co.'s Contract :

Copy of letter from Messrs. Joseph Hay & Co. to the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded Seamen, dated 18 December 1799, offering to victual the sick prisoners of war at the several depôts, Rep. xiii. App. 503—Copy of letter from Messrs. Joseph Hay & Co. to the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded Seamen, dated 26 March 1800, offering to contract for victualling all prisoners of war on the hospital diets at 1 s. 4 d. each per day, ib. 504—Copy of letter from the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded Seamen to Messrs Hay & Co., dated 20 December 1799, directing them to take steps for victualling the sick French prisoners of war at the depôts at Norman Cross, Edinburgh, and Liverpool, ib.—Copy of letter from the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded Seamen to Messrs. Joseph Hay & Co., dated 1 April 1800, accepting their terms for victualling sick prisoners of war at the depôts, ib.

4. Prices of Provisions :

Account showing the average price paid in each month for beef, mutton, bread, beer, and coals supplied to the Royal Hospital at Plymouth and Haslar, and also the prices paid to Dr. Thomas Mein for the like articles, furnished for the use of the sick prisoners of war at the different depôts mentioned in his contract of 21 December 1799, from the 22d of that month to 31 December 1801, Rep. xiii. App. 484, 485.

See also Haslar Hospital. Hay, Joseph & Co., Messrs. Mein, Dr. Thomas.
Owen, Richard. Provisions. Stewart, Joseph.

Vigar, William. Examination of William Vigar, of Gosport, baker, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, at the Royal Hospital at Haslar, 6 February 1806, relative to the price of bread at Gosport and neighbourhood in the years 1799 and 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 468, 469.

Visitation of Greenwich Hospital Estates. Occasion of the general court of the Commissioners and Governors of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, determining upon a visitation of the hospital estates in the north, Rep. xiv. 527—Copy of minute of a court of directors of Greenwich Hospital, held at Salters' Hall, on 31 July 1805, relative to the proposed visitation of the hospital estates in the north, Rep. xiv. App. 564—Copy of minute of the general court of the Commissioners and Governors of the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, which was held at the Admiralty Office on 23 July 1805, respecting the visitation of the hospital estates in the north by the governors, ib.

Vouchers. Opinion of the Commissioners, that when accounts are passed, none of the papers or documents furnished as vouchers thereto should be returned to the accountant, but that they should be retained by the Navy Board, as their authority for allowing the charge, Rep. xii. 49.—See also Examination of Accounts, 1.

W.

Wages. See Run Men's Wages.

Wainscot Logs. Circumstance of Mr. Lindegren importing a quantity of wainscot logs in the mast ships from Riga on his private account, Rep. xii. 41.

Wale, Pierson & Co., Messrs. Rate of commission allowed by the Navy Board to Messrs. Wale, Pierson & Co., on the purchases of masts, fir timber, &c., imported between 1781 and 1784, for the service of the navy, Rep. xii. 33—Account of the rates of commission granted by the Navy Board to Messrs. Wale, Pierson & Co., for purchase of naval stores for the services during the American war, Rep. xii. App. 145—Letter from the secretary of the Navy Board to the secretary of the Naval Inquiry Commission, dated 20 August 1805, respecting the rate of commission allowed Messrs. Wale, Pierson & Co., on their purchases of masts at Riga in the American war, ib. 260.

Walker, Durham. See "Orwell," The Ship.

Walton, Mr. Observations of the Commissioners on the exertions and attention of Mr. Walton, the receiver and agent to the hospital estates of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, in the north, Rep. xiv. 530, 531.

War with France. See Prisoners of War.

WARRANTS OF THE NAVY BOARD:

1. Chatham Yard.
2. Plymouth Yard.
3. Portsmouth Yard.

2. Chatham Yard:

Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the officers of Chatham dockyard, dated 5 October 1799, directing the disposal of the Riga hemp consigned to that yard by Mr. Lindegren, Rep. xii. App. 225.

2. Plymouth Yard:

Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the respective officers of His Majesty's yard at Plymouth, dated 15 August 1797, relative to the filling up of the broken stowage in the mast ships from Riga with fir timber, Rep. xii. App. 276.

3. Portsmouth Yard:

Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth, dated 13 October 1796, directing them not to receive any fir timber or Norway masts out of the ships which will bring the Riga masts, purchased by Mr. Lindegren, Rep. xii. App. 259—Copy of warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth, dated 27 April 1796, directing them to receive 1,400 loads of Riga fir timber, and a large quantity of Norway masts procured by Mr. Lindegren at Riga, for the service of the navy, ib. 264.

Weekly Returns. Statement showing the average prices of beef, mutton, bread, beer, and coals in each month of the year 1800, according to the evidence of the witnesses examined at Portsmouth, and the average prices according to the weekly returns of the governors of Haslar Hospital, Rep. xiii. 378.

West India Property. Particulars relative to the property belonging to the Royal Hospital of Greenwich in the West Indies, and estimated value thereof, Rep. xiv. 531, 532—Statement of the circumstances respecting Golden Vale estate, in the Island of Jamaica, belonging to the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich, Rep. xvi. App. 594, 595.

See also Milligan & Mitchell, Messrs. Papley, George.

- Weymouth*, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Weymouth in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.
- Whitby*, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Whitby in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 604.
- Whitcomb, James.* Examination of Mr. James Whitcomb of Gosport, formerly brewer, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, at the Royal Hospital at Haslar, 12 February 1806, relative to the price of the beer per tun supplied to Haslar Hospital in each month of the year 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 477.
- Whitear & Lucas*, Messrs. Statement of the quantities of beef and mutton supplied by Messrs. Whitear & Lucas to the Prison Hospital at Forton, in the months of November and December 1800, and the quantities on which Dr. Mein received the additions, Rep. xiii. 382.
- Whitear, Mr. Henry.* Observations of the Commissioners on the evidence of Mr. Henry Whitear, relative to the quantities of beef and mutton supplied to the prisoners in the hospital at Forton, in the months of November and December 1800, Rep. xiii. 381—Examination of Mr. Henry Whitear, of Ann's Hill, near Gosport, farmer, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, at Portsmouth, 13 February 1806, respecting the prices of beef and mutton at Gosport in December 1799, and in the first six months of 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 501, 502.
- Whitehaven*, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Whitehaven in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.
- Whitworth, Sir Charles.* Copy of letter from Sir Charles Whitworth, ambassador to Petersburg, to the Right hon. Lord Grenville, Secretary of State for the foreign department, dated 27 March 1795, relative to the employment of agents to purchase hemp at Riga secretly, for the service of the navy, Rep. xii. App. 73.
- Williams, John.* Letter from John Williams, esq., secretary to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, to Mr. T. Blatherwick, formerly surgeon of the Prison Hospital at Portchester, dated 26 April 1806, requesting an explanation of the reason of the certificates granted to Dr. Mein, of the number of patients victualled at Portchester Hospital differing so materially in respect to the numbers contained in the surgeon's quarterly books, Rep. xiii. App. 513, 514.
- "Windsor," The Ship. Copy of Letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 5 August 1795, informing him of the sailing of the ship "Windsor," Captain Smith, from Riga for Portsmouth, laden with hemp for the service of his Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 200.
- Winter*, Captain. See "Heniker," The Ship.
- "Withywood," The Ship. Copy or letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq., to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 3 September 1795, reporting the sailing from Riga of the ship "Withywood," Captain Smith, with masts and bowsprits for Portsmouth, for the service of His Majesty's navy, Rep. xii. App. 255—Report of the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 19 April 1797, of the number of Riga masts and bowsprits received from Mr. Lindegren by the ship "Withywood," Ralph Smith master, ib. 265.
- Wood.* Valuation of the wood belonging to the Royal Hospital for seamen at Greenwich in the north, made by Mr. John Surties, in the years 1804 and 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 593.
See also Fire-Wood.
- Woodbridge*, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Woodbridge in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 604.
- Woodthorpe, Henry.* Copy of letter from Henry Woodthorpe, esq., town clerk of the city of London, to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 30 November 1805, with an account of the assize of bread from 26 November 1799 to 30 December 1800, Rep. xiii. App. 455, 456.

WOOLWICH DOCKYARD :

1. Quantity of Hemp purchased.
2. Distribution of Naval Stores.

1. Quantity of Hemp purchased :

Account of the quantity of hemp purchased on commission, and received into His Majesty's stores at Woolwich, between 1 January 1793 and 17 October 1803, Rep. xii. App. 130, 131.

2. Distribution of Naval Stores :

Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to Andrew Lindegren, esq., dated 20 April 1797, directing the distribution of the Norway goods and Riga timber to be delivered by Mr. Lindegren at His Majesty's yard at Woolwich, Rep. xii. App. 274, 275.

Wounded Board. See Sick and Wounded Board.

Y.

Yard Certificates. Copy of the minute of the Committee of Accounts of the Navy Board, dated 22 January 1804, directing the method to be pursued in the examination of yard certificates, Rep. xii. App. 87.

"Yarico," The Ship. Copy of letter from Andrew Lindegren, esq. to Sir Andrew Snape Hamond, bart., comptroller of the navy, dated 18 July 1795, reporting the sailing from Riga of the ship "Yarico," Cameron, master, for Plymouth, laden with hemp, for His Majesty's service, Rep. xii. App. 227, 228.

Yarmouth, Port of. Account of the net duties collected for the lighthouses at the port of Yarmouth in each quarter of the year 1805, Rep. xiv. App. 603.

YEO, WILLIAM :

1. Contractors' Securities.
2. Mr. Owen's Contract.
3. Weekly Prices of Provisions.

1. Contractors' Securities :

Letter from the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded Seamen to William Yeo, esq., governor of Haslar Hospital, dated 23 December 1799, directing him to call upon the contractors for the supply of provisions to the Royal Hospital for the names of their securities, Rep. xiii. App. 486, 487.

2. Mr. Owen's Contract :

Copy of letter from William Yeo, esq., governor of Haslam Hospital, to the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded Seamen, dated 24 March 1800, relative to the rise which has taken place in the articles of beef, mutton, and oatmeal, since Mr. Owen took the contract to supply the hospital, Rep. xiii. App. 487.

3. Weekly Prices of Provisions :

Copy of letter from William Yeo, esq., governor of Haslar Hospital, to the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded Seamen, dated 9 April 1800, respecting the price of the best beef and mutton at Portsmouth and Gosport, Rep. xiii. App. 489, 490—Examination of William Yeo, esq., governor of the Royal Hospital at Haslar, taken upon oath, before the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, at that hospital, 5 February 1800, respecting the prices of beef, mutton, bread, beer, and coals, between 20 April and 28 December 1800, ib. 505, 506.

Young, Alexander. Account showing the yearly amount of the pay and allowances granted by the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded Seamen to Mr. Alexander Young, surgeon of the "Bristol" prison hospital ship at Chatham, in the years 1800 and 1801, Rep. xiii.

4—Reports, 1806—continued.

Young, Alexander—continued.

App. 516—Copy of letter from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy to the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, dated 14 March 1806, relative to the amount of the pay and allowances granted by the Navy Board to Mr. Young, surgeon of the "Bristol" prison hospital ship at Chatham, ib. 516.

"Young William," The Ship. Report of the officers of His Majesty's dockyard at Portsmouth to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, dated 19 April 1797, of the number of Riga and Norway masts and spars, and pieces of fir timber received from Mr. Lindgren by the ship "Young William," Richard Stamper, master, Rep. xii. App. 266—Copy of the invoice of masts, bowsprits and spars shipped on board the "Young William," Captain Richard Stamper, for Sheerness, from Riga, 27 May 1796, on order, and for account and risque of Andrew Lindgren, esq., ib. 278.

Faint, illegible text at the top of the page, possibly a header or title.

Second block of faint, illegible text, appearing as a paragraph or list.

Third block of faint, illegible text, continuing the document's content.

Fourth block of faint, illegible text, appearing as a paragraph.

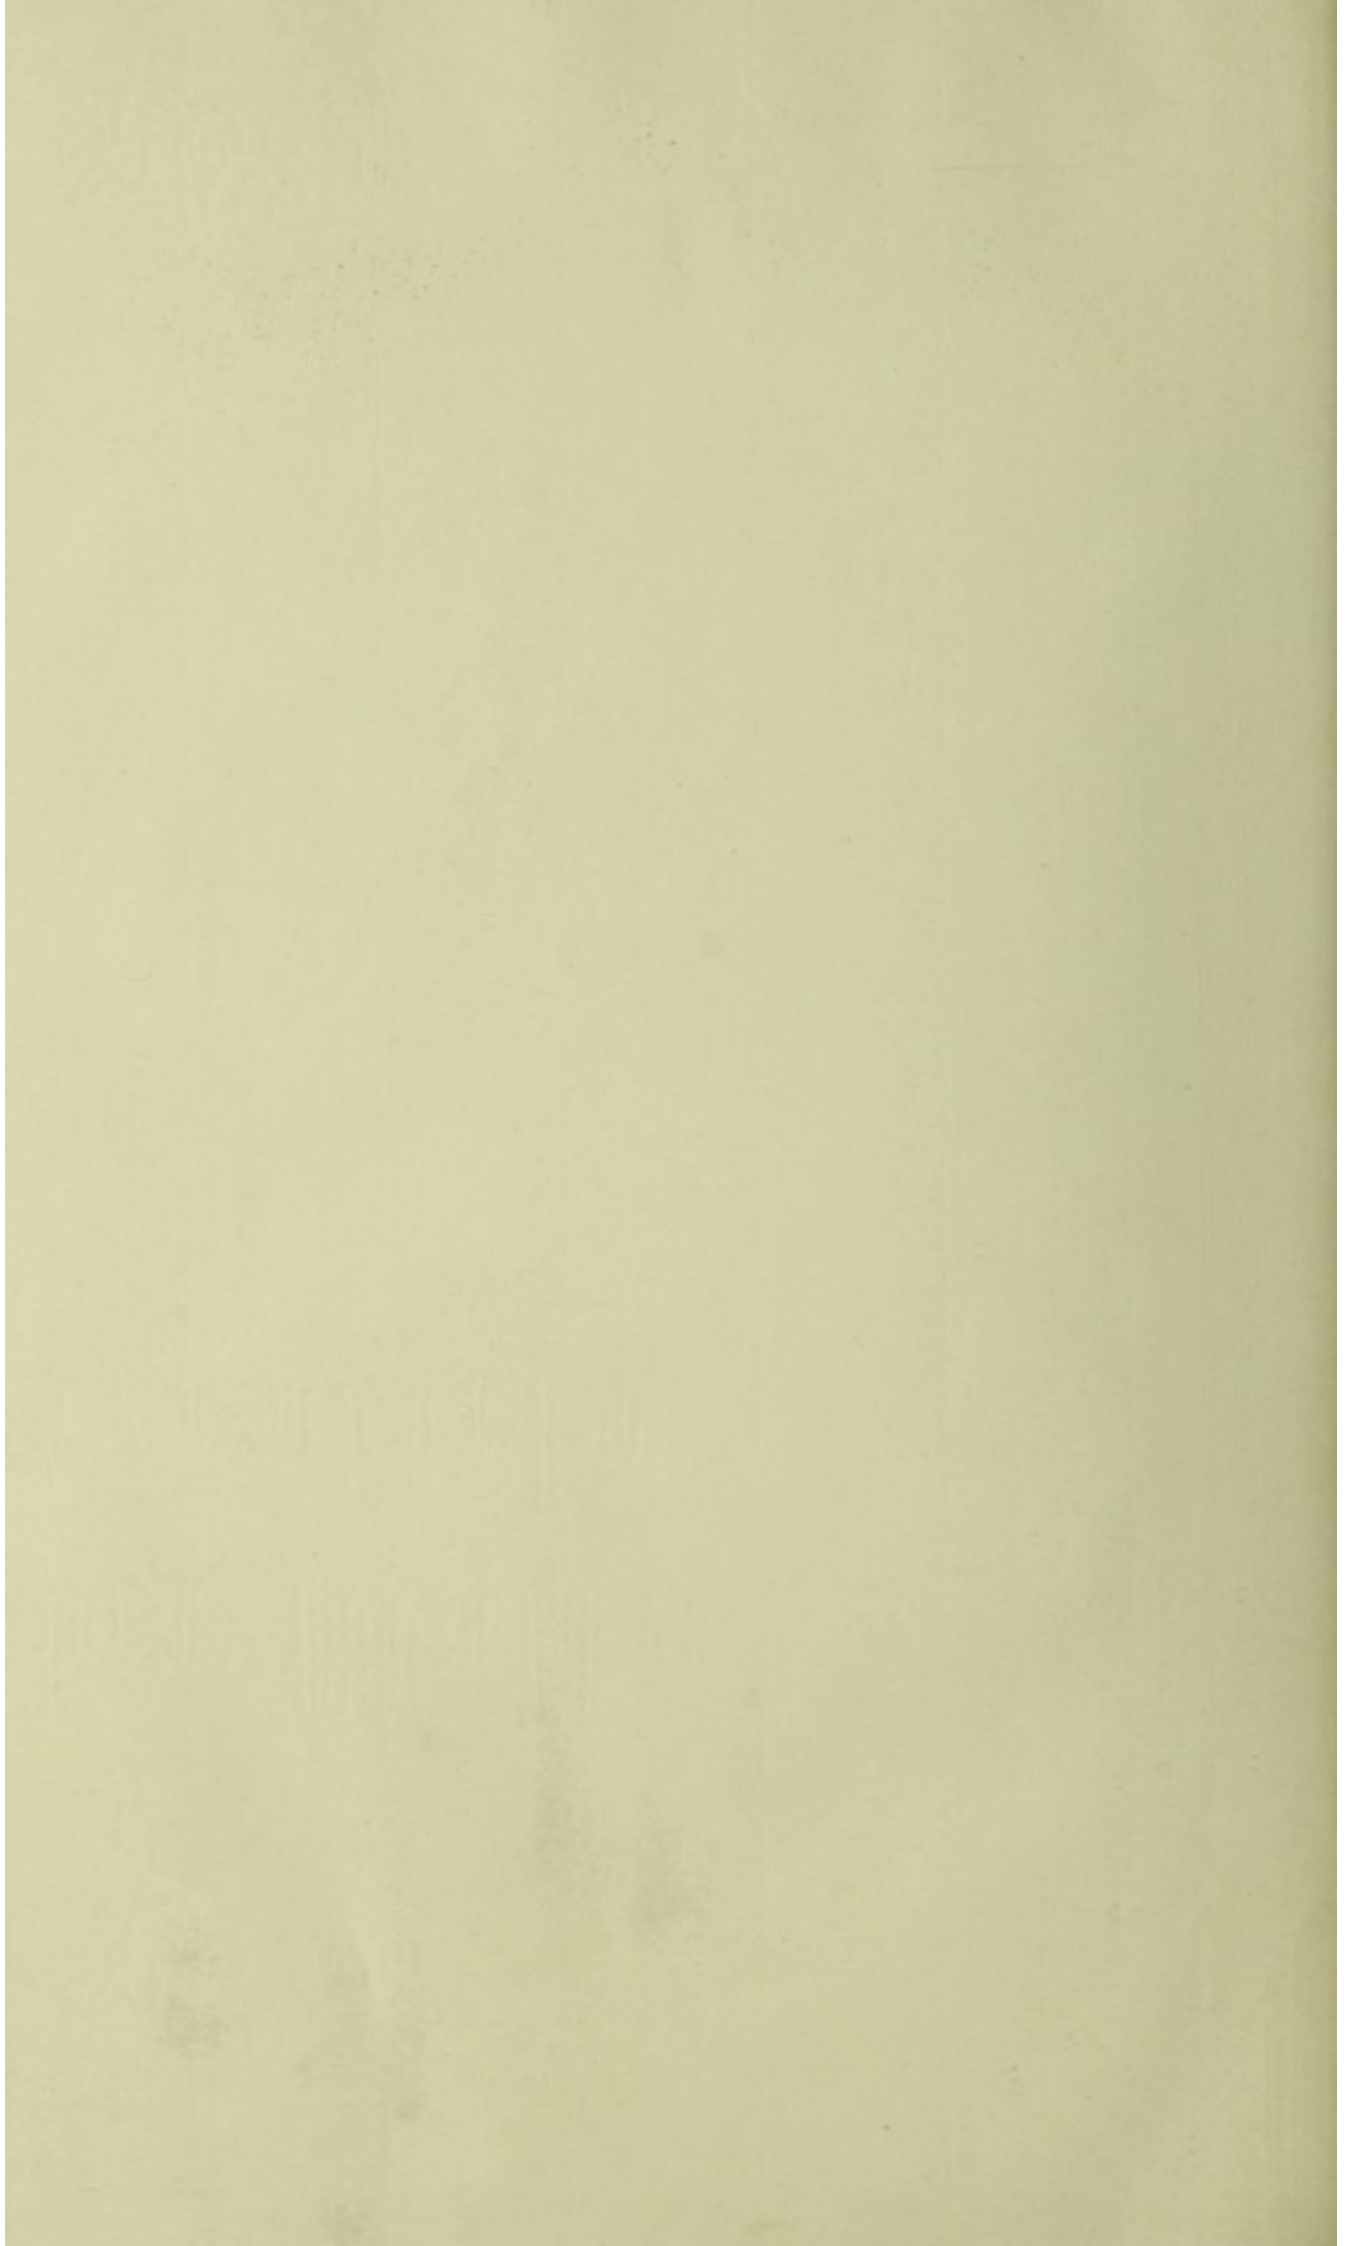

Fifth block of faint, illegible text, continuing the document's content.

Sixth block of faint, illegible text at the bottom of the page, possibly a footer.

1892

1892

1892

1500

1500

1500

