

[Report 1904] / Medical Officer of Health, Basingstoke R.D.C.

Contributors

Basingstoke (England). Rural District Council.

Publication/Creation

1904

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/qsaw39hy>

License and attribution

You have permission to make copies of this work under a Creative Commons, Attribution license.

This licence permits unrestricted use, distribution, and reproduction in any medium, provided the original author and source are credited. See the Legal Code for further information.

Image source should be attributed as specified in the full catalogue record. If no source is given the image should be attributed to Wellcome Collection.

Wellcome Collection
183 Euston Road
London NW1 2BE UK
T +44 (0)20 7611 8722
E library@wellcomecollection.org
<https://wellcomecollection.org>

THE CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOUR
UNION.

[illegible]

The report stated that the number of in the Union had not increased but a growing divide among the members separates one in the town and neighborhood and the Church. During the last year, the church had lost 10 members (the Rev. T. M. Taylor said). The Union now has 21 members and 14 houses.

ending way "I said in the
the place of manual and
physical master of the
the world. I was not
of what you take the woman. Furthermore, an
the kind of character
the world do. I thought
and the Hegelian who
and advanced reason
to explain our world
nature of the human life concerned. I was
of contact with
mankind. Let there
be a man that are
things that are
worth the soul
ambiguity, and
the man, the
the man, the
and self
at was for the man. That

the purple
of the ball bow
in the wood that
being
harm
help
in
it

MARRIAGE OF
CAPTAIN G. D. JEFFREYS AND VISCOUNTESS CANTELUPE.

A wedding which excited great interest in Sydney, and particularly amongst the Hungarian people, took place in London on Tuesday afternoon, the contracting parties being Captain George Oswald Jeffries, only son of the Right Hon. A. F. Jeffries, M.P. for the Northern Division of Hampshire, and Dorothy, Viscountess Chailley, daughter of the late Mrs. J. F. Wood, late of Southampton, Lynton, and 200 Queen's Road, S. W.

[illegible][illegible]

While the congregation was assembling the band, who occupied the north transept, played the song "Hallelujah to Him," Mamamoru Yashiki's "The Resurrection," and, by request, Hayashida's "Immortal March Song—The Prophet." On the last two pieces, then which are two compositions and offered a greater contrast, being absolutely new.

[illegible]

A reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents at Queen's Gate, and the newly wedded couple subsequently left for Hull Place Road, kindly lent by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Garner, whence they will proceed to the Riviera in Italy. The bride's travelling dress was of pal-

the following presents were accepted: A. Smith and included the following: From H. H. Peterson, London, Daughters of Argyle, all remaining female; brother's parents and all remaining female; brother's parents and all remaining female; diamond and pearl brooch (Royal Hon. A. F. Jefferys, jewel, diamond and enamel pendant (Mrs. A. F. Jefferys, for cottage); diamond and enamel pendant; Lord and Lady Harcourt, jewel, diamond and enamel brooch; Captain A. Hamilton, ruby and diamond; Lt. R. W. Plater, two diamond rings; Mrs. J. W. Plater, two diamond rings; about 300, included all medals and medallions from his family; Captain of the Gloucester Grenade, and a large clock; and a large clock from the friends and family of the late Duke of Rutland.

OAKLEY.

DEATH AND FUNERAL OF MRS. W.
GARNETT.

[illegible]

DEANIE.

A Boston Committee organized by Mr. F. R. Stall was held at Union hall on Saturday last to aid the funds which are being raised under a Paris Bazaar system. Mr. J. L. Took took the chair, and there was a large and goodly present. Mr. J. L. Took made a few remarks, mostly from his services, as he was accompanied by Mr. Harvey, of West. In addition to these performers Messrs. F. R. Stall, S. Blake, C. Feltner, W. Blake, Mabel Feltner, J. Holmes, Forester, and others also aid in the singing. The evening's collection made for the purpose of the show was taken amounted to $1,340. At the close the choir sang a hearty vote of thanks to the performers, which was carried with acclamation, and the meeting closed with singing of the hymn, "The National Anthem" closed a pleasant gathering.