

[Report 1907] / Medical Officer of Health, Basingstoke R.D.C.

Contributors

Basingstoke (England). Rural District Council.

Publication/Creation

1907

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/dtndgkyb>

License and attribution

You have permission to make copies of this work under a Creative Commons, Attribution license.

This licence permits unrestricted use, distribution, and reproduction in any medium, provided the original author and source are credited. See the Legal Code for further information.

Image source should be attributed as specified in the full catalogue record. If no source is given the image should be attributed to Wellcome Collection.

Wellcome Collection
183 Euston Road
London NW1 2BE UK
T +44 (0)20 7611 8722
E library@wellcomecollection.org
<https://wellcomecollection.org>

BIRMINGHAM

WALTER W. WATSON, Mayor of Birmingham, Ala., is reported to have been in London, England, on a business trip...

WALTER WATSON, Mayor of Birmingham, Ala., is reported to have been in London, England, on a business trip...

BOARD OF GUARDIANS

The Board of Guardians of the City of Birmingham, Ala., met in session on Monday, the 10th inst., at 10 o'clock a.m. in the City Hall...

RURAL DISTRICT COUNCIL

The Rural District Council of Birmingham, Ala., met in session on Monday, the 10th inst., at 10 o'clock a.m. in the City Hall...

also submitted and accepted in one or two cases where there was no objection...

On the proposition of Lord Reading, it was resolved that the Board should be authorized to do so...

The Council considered the question of appointing a committee to inquire into the matter...

The Council considered the question of appointing a committee to inquire into the matter...

The Council considered the question of appointing a committee to inquire into the matter...

The Council considered the question of appointing a committee to inquire into the matter...

throughout the course of the proceedings, and through the aid of the Council...

The Council considered the question of appointing a committee to inquire into the matter...

The Council considered the question of appointing a committee to inquire into the matter...

The Council considered the question of appointing a committee to inquire into the matter...

The Council considered the question of appointing a committee to inquire into the matter...

The Council considered the question of appointing a committee to inquire into the matter...

was found to have been the case in general, and in every respect...

The Council considered the question of appointing a committee to inquire into the matter...

The Council considered the question of appointing a committee to inquire into the matter...

The Council considered the question of appointing a committee to inquire into the matter...

The Council considered the question of appointing a committee to inquire into the matter...

The Council considered the question of appointing a committee to inquire into the matter...

the result was that whereas a house in which a house was situated...

The Council considered the question of appointing a committee to inquire into the matter...

The Council considered the question of appointing a committee to inquire into the matter...

The Council considered the question of appointing a committee to inquire into the matter...

The Council considered the question of appointing a committee to inquire into the matter...

The Council considered the question of appointing a committee to inquire into the matter...

THE MOTOR CAR CASE

JUDGE RIDICULES THE COUNTERCLAIM

The longest trial which the Mayor Judge Day has ever undertaken in the Birmingham County Court... The judge ridiculed the counterclaim...

THE MOTOR CAR CASE

JUDGE RIDICULES THE COUNTERCLAIM

The longest trial which the Mayor Judge Day has ever undertaken in the Birmingham County Court... The judge ridiculed the counterclaim...

THE MOTOR CAR CASE

JUDGE RIDICULES THE COUNTERCLAIM

The longest trial which the Mayor Judge Day has ever undertaken in the Birmingham County Court... The judge ridiculed the counterclaim...

THE COUNCIL SCHOOL.
SHOW OF REACTIVES AND CONCRETE.
 The show of reactives and concrete at the Council School on Monday afternoon was very successful. The school was crowded with visitors, and the exhibits were well attended. The school was opened at 2.30 p.m., and the exhibits were shown until 4.30 p.m. The school was closed at 5 p.m.

WHITTINGTON.
 F.A.A. Movement.—From a preliminary survey it is apparent that the Whittington F.A.A. Movement is well advanced. The school was opened at 2.30 p.m., and the exhibits were shown until 4.30 p.m. The school was closed at 5 p.m.

STABBING A CONSTABLE AT READING.
 At the Reading Borough Bench, on Monday, before Mr. C. A. Ford (prosecuting) and other magistrates, William Barnes, of Reading, was charged on a complaint with assaulting a police constable on Monday, March 23, 1908. P.C. Pendergast stated that on Monday, March 23, at 11.15 p.m., he was duty in Bath-road, when he saw the prisoner and another man, Jack Applegate, walking along the road. Barnes was of an ill-temperament, and was very much excited. He was going along quietly and was not being troublesome. Barnes, however, would not let Barnes pass, and he was very much excited. Barnes was very much excited, and he was very much excited. Barnes was very much excited, and he was very much excited.

THE PREMIER'S ILLNESS.
LATEST BULLETIN.
 The condition of the Prime Minister remained unchanged on Thursday. Early in the morning an attack of indigestion was complained, and following the subsequent failure of Wednesday, he was unable to eat anything. He was very much excited, and he was very much excited. He was very much excited, and he was very much excited.

FORTHCOMING EVENTS.
SUNDAY (1908).
 Haverhill Church (Stations of the Cross)—Liturgy, 10.30. The Rev. W. H. Stedman. The service will be held at 11 a.m. and 2.30 p.m. The service will be held at 11 a.m. and 2.30 p.m. The service will be held at 11 a.m. and 2.30 p.m.

PARISH COUNCIL.
 The Parish Council of Whittington met on Monday evening last at the Town Hall. The meeting was presided over by Mr. W. H. Stedman, the Mayor. The meeting was very successful, and the exhibits were well attended. The school was opened at 2.30 p.m., and the exhibits were shown until 4.30 p.m. The school was closed at 5 p.m.

STABBING A CONSTABLE AT READING.
 At the Reading Borough Bench, on Monday, before Mr. C. A. Ford (prosecuting) and other magistrates, William Barnes, of Reading, was charged on a complaint with assaulting a police constable on Monday, March 23, 1908. P.C. Pendergast stated that on Monday, March 23, at 11.15 p.m., he was duty in Bath-road, when he saw the prisoner and another man, Jack Applegate, walking along the road. Barnes was of an ill-temperament, and was very much excited. He was going along quietly and was not being troublesome. Barnes, however, would not let Barnes pass, and he was very much excited. Barnes was very much excited, and he was very much excited.

THE PREMIER'S ILLNESS.
LATEST BULLETIN.
 The condition of the Prime Minister remained unchanged on Thursday. Early in the morning an attack of indigestion was complained, and following the subsequent failure of Wednesday, he was unable to eat anything. He was very much excited, and he was very much excited. He was very much excited, and he was very much excited.

FORTHCOMING EVENTS.
SUNDAY (1908).
 Haverhill Church (Stations of the Cross)—Liturgy, 10.30. The Rev. W. H. Stedman. The service will be held at 11 a.m. and 2.30 p.m. The service will be held at 11 a.m. and 2.30 p.m. The service will be held at 11 a.m. and 2.30 p.m.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.
 The Rev. W. H. Stedman, the Mayor, presided over the meeting of the Parish Council of Whittington on Monday evening last at the Town Hall. The meeting was very successful, and the exhibits were well attended. The school was opened at 2.30 p.m., and the exhibits were shown until 4.30 p.m. The school was closed at 5 p.m.

STABBING A CONSTABLE AT READING.
 At the Reading Borough Bench, on Monday, before Mr. C. A. Ford (prosecuting) and other magistrates, William Barnes, of Reading, was charged on a complaint with assaulting a police constable on Monday, March 23, 1908. P.C. Pendergast stated that on Monday, March 23, at 11.15 p.m., he was duty in Bath-road, when he saw the prisoner and another man, Jack Applegate, walking along the road. Barnes was of an ill-temperament, and was very much excited. He was going along quietly and was not being troublesome. Barnes, however, would not let Barnes pass, and he was very much excited. Barnes was very much excited, and he was very much excited.

THE PREMIER'S ILLNESS.
LATEST BULLETIN.
 The condition of the Prime Minister remained unchanged on Thursday. Early in the morning an attack of indigestion was complained, and following the subsequent failure of Wednesday, he was unable to eat anything. He was very much excited, and he was very much excited. He was very much excited, and he was very much excited.

FORTHCOMING EVENTS.
SUNDAY (1908).
 Haverhill Church (Stations of the Cross)—Liturgy, 10.30. The Rev. W. H. Stedman. The service will be held at 11 a.m. and 2.30 p.m. The service will be held at 11 a.m. and 2.30 p.m. The service will be held at 11 a.m. and 2.30 p.m.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.
 The Rev. W. H. Stedman, the Mayor, presided over the meeting of the Parish Council of Whittington on Monday evening last at the Town Hall. The meeting was very successful, and the exhibits were well attended. The school was opened at 2.30 p.m., and the exhibits were shown until 4.30 p.m. The school was closed at 5 p.m.

STABBING A CONSTABLE AT READING.
 At the Reading Borough Bench, on Monday, before Mr. C. A. Ford (prosecuting) and other magistrates, William Barnes, of Reading, was charged on a complaint with assaulting a police constable on Monday, March 23, 1908. P.C. Pendergast stated that on Monday, March 23, at 11.15 p.m., he was duty in Bath-road, when he saw the prisoner and another man, Jack Applegate, walking along the road. Barnes was of an ill-temperament, and was very much excited. He was going along quietly and was not being troublesome. Barnes, however, would not let Barnes pass, and he was very much excited. Barnes was very much excited, and he was very much excited.

STABBING A CONSTABLE AT READING.
 At the Reading Borough Bench, on Monday, before Mr. C. A. Ford (prosecuting) and other magistrates, William Barnes, of Reading, was charged on a complaint with assaulting a police constable on Monday, March 23, 1908. P.C. Pendergast stated that on Monday, March 23, at 11.15 p.m., he was duty in Bath-road, when he saw the prisoner and another man, Jack Applegate, walking along the road. Barnes was of an ill-temperament, and was very much excited. He was going along quietly and was not being troublesome. Barnes, however, would not let Barnes pass, and he was very much excited. Barnes was very much excited, and he was very much excited.

THE PREMIER'S ILLNESS.
LATEST BULLETIN.
 The condition of the Prime Minister remained unchanged on Thursday. Early in the morning an attack of indigestion was complained, and following the subsequent failure of Wednesday, he was unable to eat anything. He was very much excited, and he was very much excited. He was very much excited, and he was very much excited.

FORTHCOMING EVENTS.
SUNDAY (1908).
 Haverhill Church (Stations of the Cross)—Liturgy, 10.30. The Rev. W. H. Stedman. The service will be held at 11 a.m. and 2.30 p.m. The service will be held at 11 a.m. and 2.30 p.m. The service will be held at 11 a.m. and 2.30 p.m.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.
 The Rev. W. H. Stedman, the Mayor, presided over the meeting of the Parish Council of Whittington on Monday evening last at the Town Hall. The meeting was very successful, and the exhibits were well attended. The school was opened at 2.30 p.m., and the exhibits were shown until 4.30 p.m. The school was closed at 5 p.m.

STABBING A CONSTABLE AT READING.
 At the Reading Borough Bench, on Monday, before Mr. C. A. Ford (prosecuting) and other magistrates, William Barnes, of Reading, was charged on a complaint with assaulting a police constable on Monday, March 23, 1908. P.C. Pendergast stated that on Monday, March 23, at 11.15 p.m., he was duty in Bath-road, when he saw the prisoner and another man, Jack Applegate, walking along the road. Barnes was of an ill-temperament, and was very much excited. He was going along quietly and was not being troublesome. Barnes, however, would not let Barnes pass, and he was very much excited. Barnes was very much excited, and he was very much excited.

STABBING A CONSTABLE AT READING.
 At the Reading Borough Bench, on Monday, before Mr. C. A. Ford (prosecuting) and other magistrates, William Barnes, of Reading, was charged on a complaint with assaulting a police constable on Monday, March 23, 1908. P.C. Pendergast stated that on Monday, March 23, at 11.15 p.m., he was duty in Bath-road, when he saw the prisoner and another man, Jack Applegate, walking along the road. Barnes was of an ill-temperament, and was very much excited. He was going along quietly and was not being troublesome. Barnes, however, would not let Barnes pass, and he was very much excited. Barnes was very much excited, and he was very much excited.

THE PREMIER'S ILLNESS.
LATEST BULLETIN.
 The condition of the Prime Minister remained unchanged on Thursday. Early in the morning an attack of indigestion was complained, and following the subsequent failure of Wednesday, he was unable to eat anything. He was very much excited, and he was very much excited. He was very much excited, and he was very much excited.

FORTHCOMING EVENTS.
SUNDAY (1908).
 Haverhill Church (Stations of the Cross)—Liturgy, 10.30. The Rev. W. H. Stedman. The service will be held at 11 a.m. and 2.30 p.m. The service will be held at 11 a.m. and 2.30 p.m. The service will be held at 11 a.m. and 2.30 p.m.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.
 The Rev. W. H. Stedman, the Mayor, presided over the meeting of the Parish Council of Whittington on Monday evening last at the Town Hall. The meeting was very successful, and the exhibits were well attended. The school was opened at 2.30 p.m., and the exhibits were shown until 4.30 p.m. The school was closed at 5 p.m.

STABBING A CONSTABLE AT READING.
 At the Reading Borough Bench, on Monday, before Mr. C. A. Ford (prosecuting) and other magistrates, William Barnes, of Reading, was charged on a complaint with assaulting a police constable on Monday, March 23, 1908. P.C. Pendergast stated that on Monday, March 23, at 11.15 p.m., he was duty in Bath-road, when he saw the prisoner and another man, Jack Applegate, walking along the road. Barnes was of an ill-temperament, and was very much excited. He was going along quietly and was not being troublesome. Barnes, however, would not let Barnes pass, and he was very much excited. Barnes was very much excited, and he was very much excited.

STABBING A CONSTABLE AT READING.
 At the Reading Borough Bench, on Monday, before Mr. C. A. Ford (prosecuting) and other magistrates, William Barnes, of Reading, was charged on a complaint with assaulting a police constable on Monday, March 23, 1908. P.C. Pendergast stated that on Monday, March 23, at 11.15 p.m., he was duty in Bath-road, when he saw the prisoner and another man, Jack Applegate, walking along the road. Barnes was of an ill-temperament, and was very much excited. He was going along quietly and was not being troublesome. Barnes, however, would not let Barnes pass, and he was very much excited. Barnes was very much excited, and he was very much excited.

THE PREMIER'S ILLNESS.
LATEST BULLETIN.
 The condition of the Prime Minister remained unchanged on Thursday. Early in the morning an attack of indigestion was complained, and following the subsequent failure of Wednesday, he was unable to eat anything. He was very much excited, and he was very much excited. He was very much excited, and he was very much excited.

FORTHCOMING EVENTS.
SUNDAY (1908).
 Haverhill Church (Stations of the Cross)—Liturgy, 10.30. The Rev. W. H. Stedman. The service will be held at 11 a.m. and 2.30 p.m. The service will be held at 11 a.m. and 2.30 p.m. The service will be held at 11 a.m. and 2.30 p.m.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.
 The Rev. W. H. Stedman, the Mayor, presided over the meeting of the Parish Council of Whittington on Monday evening last at the Town Hall. The meeting was very successful, and the exhibits were well attended. The school was opened at 2.30 p.m., and the exhibits were shown until 4.30 p.m. The school was closed at 5 p.m.

STABBING A CONSTABLE AT READING.
 At the Reading Borough Bench, on Monday, before Mr. C. A. Ford (prosecuting) and other magistrates, William Barnes, of Reading, was charged on a complaint with assaulting a police constable on Monday, March 23, 1908. P.C. Pendergast stated that on Monday, March 23, at 11.15 p.m., he was duty in Bath-road, when he saw the prisoner and another man, Jack Applegate, walking along the road. Barnes was of an ill-temperament, and was very much excited. He was going along quietly and was not being troublesome. Barnes, however, would not let Barnes pass, and he was very much excited. Barnes was very much excited, and he was very much excited.

ARE INTERESTED IN CYCLING, soon WILL BE if you call and consult THE SPECIALISTS IN BARS where you can see absolutely the Largest, Best Assorted, and Stock in the district, and where you will not be pressed to buy. Bring with you. We shall probably offer you a better price than other agents.

PERSONALLY TESTED (by several thousand miles of actual riding) on two and three speed gears. Stormy-Archer, Humber-Condor, Fagan, and Triplex, etc.

THE SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE DISTRICT AGENCY FOR THE FOLLOWING:—
BEESTON HUMBER
SINGER
SWIFT
ROVER
 Cycles.
HIGHEST ESTABLISHED.
 Grades.

OVER CYCLES, £5 5s, £6 6s, £8 8s, £10 10s, £12 12s, £14 14s.
WIFF CYCLES, £6 6s, £8 8s, £10 10s, £12 12s, £14 14s.
NGER CYCLES, £6 10s, £7, £8 10s, £10 10s, £12 12s, £14 14s.
MBER CYCLES, £5 5s, £7 7s, £9 9s, £11 11s, £13 13s, £15 15s.

1907 CYCLES TO BE CLEARED REGARDLESS OF COST.
 applied to our catalogue weekly or monthly. We specialise in every branch of the trade.
BEES ACCURATELY, CAREFULLY, CHEAPLY EXECUTED.
CESSORIES — Competition in Quality and Price defied

LAN & SONS, Ltd.,
THE HAMPSHIRE CYCLE DEPOT,
CHURCH STREET, BASINGSTOKE.