ANNUAL REPORT

ON THE

SANITARY CONDITION

OF

BOOTLE,

BY THE

MEDICAL OFFICER OF HEALTH.

BOOTLE : BCOTLE PRINTING AND PUBLISHING CO., LTD., 107, BALLIOL ROAD.

1896.

TWENTY-THIRD ANNUAL REPORT

ON THE # SANITARY CONDITION OF THE COUNTY BOROUGH OF BOOTLE.

DURING the year 1895, the Returns of the Local Registrar, Mr. Edwin Smith, record 1823 Births and 1075 Deaths within the Borough, the natural increase of the population being therefore 748. On comparing these numbers with those in 1894 it will be seen that there was an increase of both births and deaths, viz: - of 163 in the number of births, and of 158 in that of deaths, the natural increase being very nearly the same in the two years.

POPULATION.

Although there is reason to believe that the population of Bootle has considerably increased, still, as it is always of a fluctuating character, and as I have made out all my statistical reports during the year on an estimated population of 51,500, I think it will be advisable to estimate that number as being the average population of Bootle throughout the past year. The following table shows the number of births and deaths within the Borough during the 10 years 1885-1894 (inclusive), and in the year 1895 :—

Years.	Births	Deaths.	Years.		Births.	Deaths.
1885	 1589	 807	1890		1706	 1017
1886	 1737	 897	1891		1780	 1165
1887	 1595	 920	1892		1710	 951
1888	 1681	 820	1893		1828	 1153
1889	 1668	 886	1894		1660	 917
	190	 Dintha 1000	. Dootho 1	075

1895—Births 1823; Deaths 1075.

By this table it will be seen that during the last 11 years, the number of births in each year has varied considerably, and I think proves the fluctuating character of the population.

BIRTHS.

The number of births registered in Bootle in 1895 was 1823, of which 944 were males and 879 females. The total number exceeded that in every previous year excepting 1893, in which year 5 more infants were born, the number being 1828. The total number in 1895 was 163 more than that in 1894, and the birth-rate was equal to 35.4 per 1000, and exceeded that of the 33 large towns by 4, and that of England and Wales by 5.1 per 1000.

DEATHS.

The number of deaths registered in Bootle in 1895 was 1075, of which 573 were males and 502 females, so that the deaths of males exceed those of females by 71. The total number was 158 more than in 1894, and the deathrate was equal to 20.87 per 1000. As however 101 paupers, said to belong to Bootle, died in the Walton and Mill Road Workhouses of the West Derby Union, and thus died "outside the district," and 66 deaths of persons not belonging to Bootle occurred "within the district," the difference between these numbers-viz., 35, has to be added to the 1075 deaths before mentioned. The death-rate was, without the addition of 35 equal to 20.87 per thousand, but with this addition 21.55 per 1000, the latter being 3 per 1000 more than in 1894. The death-rate (even with the addition mentioned) was almost the same as that of the average of the 33 large towns, which was 20.7. The death-rate in England and Wales was 18.7 per 1000. Of the 101 paupers belonging to Bootle who died in the workhouses, there were admitted 1 in 1884, 1 in 1886, 1 in 1890, 2 in 1891, 2 in 1892, 10 in 1893, 21 in 1894, and 63 in 1895.

INFANT MORTALITY.

The deaths of infants under 5 years of age within the Borough amounted to 523. and thus comprised 48.6 per cent. of the whole deaths. The total number (523) exceeded that in 1894 by 111, and the percentage by 3.7. The deaths of infants under one year were 335, and were 73 more than in 1894. They were 183.7 per 1000 of the registered births, in other words 18.3 per cent. of those born died within the first year of life, a percentage of 2.6more than in 1894. The largest number of deaths under 5 years, and also under our year occurred in July, when 100 children under 5 years died, and of these 75 were infants under one year. By the published returns of infant mortality measured by the proportions of deaths under one year to the registered births, I find that in the 33 large towns the average mortality was 182, and in the whole of England and Wales per 1000.

Analysis of the Causes of Deaths—I will now review the causes of the deaths in Bootle during the past year, and point out the principal reasons why the death-rate in 1895 was larger than in 1894, and also slightly exceeded the death-rate of the 33 large towns. In order to show this clearly, I will first compare the death-rates in Bootle in the 4 quarters of the year with the approximate death-rates of the 33 large towns, and of the whole of England and Wales.

Bootle.			:	33 Large Town	18.	, England and Wales.
1st	Quarter	22.7	1st	Quarter	25.2	1st	Quarter	22.8
2nd	,,	17.6	2nd	,,	17.8	2nd	,,	17.2
3rd	,,	23.9_	Brd	,,	20.2	3rd	,,	17.4
$4 \mathrm{th}$	,,	19.8	4th	,,	19.4	4th	"	17.4

On comparing the above death-rates, it will be noticed, that notwithstanding the mortality in Bootle in the 1st Quarter was considerably smaller than in the 33 large towns and the mortality in Bootle in the 2nd and 4th quarters was much the same as that in the 33 large towns, yet the mortality in the 3rd quarter was so much larger than in the 33 large towns that it caused the total mortality to exceed that of the large towns and the whole of England and Wales. It is therefore in this 3rd quarter (as in 1894) that we have to look for the cause of the total mortality being slightly in excess in Bootle, and it will be noticed that the death-rate in this quarter was as much as 23.9, or nearly 24 in the 1000. On looking through table No. 4, it will be seen that this large mortality in the 3rd quarter was due to a large infant mortality, and this was principally caused by the large number of deaths from diarrhœa; the total deaths from this disease alone in the three months, July, August and September, being 88, or 55 more than in the same months in 1894. On comparing the total mortality in Bootle in 1895 with that of the preceding year, it will be found that the deaths from diseases which principally assisted to make the general increased mortatity were as follows :- Diarrhœa 107, an increase of no less than 63; diseases of brain, spinal marrow, &c., 97, an increase of 13; diseases of lungs and air passages 276, an increase of 86; premature birth 36, an increase of 16; deaths through violence, &c., 76, an increase of 23.

As a counterbalance to this increased mortality in the above diseases, there was a decrease of deaths from a few diseases, notably 13 deaths from measles, 25 from scarlatina, 12 from enteric fever, 9 from diseases of the stomach, liver, &c. Six of the deaths however from scarlatina and enteric fever were of persons not belonging to Bootle. The deaths in the Bootle Borough Hospital (87) were 3 more than in 1894, but a large proportion of these (49) were non-residents. The deaths in the Hospital for Infectious Diseases at Linacre were 30, and numbered 6 less than in 1894, but 6 of these deaths were from persons in the out-townships. The amout of sickness amongst the pauper class of inhabitants was on the whole less than in 1894, but the decrease occurred in the latter half of the year. The number of cases seen during the year by the District Medical Officer were as follows :--1st quarter 844, 2nd quarter 571, 3rd quarter 543, 4th quarter 230-total 2188. The total No. of cases in 1895 was 221 less than in 1894. Table No. 4 gives a summary of the deaths from the various classes of diseases, the first class being that of zymotic diseases, the prevention, and if possible, the extinction of which, sanitary science is specially directed. I shall now mention the sanitary work accomplished during the year, and in commenting on each of the 7 principal zymotic diseases, I shall in accordance with the order of the Local Government Board, give a summary of the action taken, or which I have advised the sanitary authority to take, to prevent the spread of these diseases.

ZYMOTIC DISEASES.

The number of deaths from the 7 principal zymotics, viz :- smallpox, measles, scarlatina, diphtheria, whooping cough, fevers and diarrhœa (after deducting 7 deaths of persons from outside the district, viz:-2 from scarlatina, 4 from enteric fever, and 1 from diarrhea, and adding one death from scarlatina in the workhouse) was 184. This number exceeded that in 1894 by 27. Of this number 151 were of children under 5 years of age. The zymotic death-rate was thus equal to 3.57 per 1000, and exceeded that in 1894 by 0.53 per 1000. The total number was 17.7 more than the average of the preceding 10 years. The number of infectious or contagious diseases notified to the sanitary authority during the year was 602, this number not including measles, the notification of which zymotic is not made compulsory by the Local Government Board. The diseases notified were as follows :- Smallpox 37, scarlatina 300, diphtheria 18, enteric (or typhoid) fever 187, simple continued fever 3, membranous croup 9, puerperal fever 3, erysipelas 45. The total number of notifications were 437 less than those in 1894. The comparison of the approximate death-rates of the 7 principal zymotic death-rates in Bootle, with the death-rates from these diseases in the 33 large towns was as follows : —

				Bootle.	33 Large Towns
Smallpox			 	·038	 ·01
Measles			 	.038	 .53
Scarlatina			 	·252	 ·18
Diphtheria			 	·233	 ·85
Whooping Con	ugh		 	.504	 .87
Fevers			 	·446	 ·20
Diarrhœa			 	2.058	 1.20
		Totals		8.569	2.84

On comparing the above death-rates, it will be noticed that the total zymotic death-rate in Bootle considerably exceeded that of the 33 large towns, and that this excess was in a great measure due to the large death-rate from diarrhœa, which was 0.8 more than the diarrhœa death-rate of the 33 large towns. The death-rates from scarlatina, whooping cough and fevers (including typhus and enteric fevers) were also larger, but those from measles and diphtheria were considerably less in Bootle than in the 33 large towns, so that if there had not been such an excess in the diarrhœa death-rate, there would not have been, after all, much difference in the total zymotic deaths of Bootle and the large towns. It will be seen by the Local Government Board's Table B., that of the 602 cases notified, 120 were from Derby Ward, 246 from Knowsley Ward, and 236 from Stanley Ward; therefore the notifications from Knowsley Ward were more than double those from Derby Ward, but were only 10 more than those from Stanley Ward. The number of deaths of persons from these notifiable zymotic diseases that occurred in their homes were as follows :- Derby Ward 8, Knowsley Ward 10, Stanley Ward 16. The number of deaths from these wards in the hospital, were 3 from Derby Ward, 16 from Knowsley Ward, and 5 from Stanley Ward. The total number of deaths of persons from these diseases, both in their homes and in hospital was therefore as follows :- Derby Ward 11, Knowsley Ward 26, and Stanley Ward 21. The number of deaths in the Linacre Hospital from the out-townships was 6 viz :--1 from Litherland, 1 from Waterloo, and 4 from Seaforth.

HOSPITAL FOR INFECTIOUS DISEASES.

The total number of cases treated in the Hospital for Infectious Diseases at Linacre was 360, which number was 46 less than the number treated in 1894. Of the total number 265 were residents and 95 were non-residents. Of the residents admitted and treated in the hospital 53 were from Derby Ward. 123 from Knowsley Ward, and 89 from Stanley Ward. Of the nonresidents 56 were from Seaforth, 12 from Waterloo, 18 from Litherland, and 9 from Crosby. There was thus a decrease of 68 cases from Bootle, and an increase of 22 cases from the out-townships. There was a decrease of cases from all the wards in Bootle, viz :--18 from Derby Ward, 23 from Knowsley Ward, and 27 from Stanley Ward. The Local Government Board's Table A, shows that the total number of deaths in the hospital during the year was 30, viz :- 24 from persons in Bootle, and 6 from the out-townships, giving a total death-rate of 8.3 per cent. The percentage of deaths from the Bootle cases was a little over 9 per cent., and that from the out-townships a little over 6 per cent. The isolation afforded by this invaluable institution, together with the good nursing, proper dietary and skilful medical treatment provided by the sanitary authority during the year, fully proved the great usefulness of the Hospital, especially in the isolation of the 43 cases of small-pox. I may here remark that Dr. Biernacki, after having been Medical Superintendent of this Hospital for nearly three years, and having performed his very responsible duties in a most efficient, conscientious and skilful manner, resigned the appointment in August last, in consequence of his having been appointed to the post of Medical Superintendent to the West Ham Fever Hospital. On the 19th August, Dr. C. V. M'Cormack was appointed by the Sanitary Authority to fill the vacancy thus created, and he commenced his duties in the latter part of September.

DISINFECTING APPARATUS.

The apparatus used at the disinfecting station is "Washington Lyon's Patent," which can furnish a heat of 250° by superheated steam. The following is a list of the various articles disinfected during the year:— Mattresses, 882; beds, 676; pillows and bolsters, 1,455; sheets, 834; blankets, 725; quilts, 767; carpets, 450; wearing apparel, 1,249; sundries, 1,478—total 8,516. Occasionally when the articles sent are very foul or have been used by patients suffering from very infectious diseases, such as small-pox (or typhus), they are burnt at the cost of the Sanitary Authority. Infected houses and rooms are fumigated by sulphurous acid gas, and carbolic powder is largely used around infected premises, foul middens, drains, &c., and the disinfectants are furnised free of cost. I will now proceed to make obversations on the 7 principal zymotic diseases, stating all that could be ascertained as to the outbreak and extension of these diseases, together with the advice given and the measures taken to prevent their spread. The first zymotic I will remark upon is

SMALLPOX.

During the year 37 cases of smallpox in Bootle were notified, and all (excepting 2) were removed as soon as possible to hospital, but besides these 35 cases from Bootle, there were 8 other cases removed to the Linacre Hospital from the out-townships, so that altogether there were 43 cases of smallpox treated at this hospital. Of these 43 cases I am glad to say only 2 deaths occurred, and these were of children over 5 years of age, one of whom was unvaccinated. With regard to the origin of the outbreak of this loathsome disease, I will repeat, to some extent, the report I made to the Health Committee on the 14th January. It was as follows :--- " I regret to have to report a very sudden and serious outbreak of smallpox in this Borough, no less than 15 cases having been notified and sent to hospital within 5 days, viz :-12 from Conway Street, 1 from Denbigh Street, and 2 from Audley Street. The first intimation that I had of the existence of the disease in this Borough, was, the notification of the case of a man at 29, Conway Street, from Dr. McPherson, in the evening of the 9th January. Later on the same evening, hearing of the probable existence of other cases in this house, I visited the other members of the family and found that all of them, viz., the man, his wife and 4 children, were suffering from They were all removed to hospital on the same night. I smallpox. then directed that Mr. Daly's (Sanitary Inspector) staff, should make a houseto-house inspection in the neighbourhood, with the result that I had to notify on the 10th Jan. one fresh case in 25, Conway Street, on the 11th 2 fresh cases, 1 in Denbigh Street and the other at 31, Conway Street, on the 12th 5 more cases, viz., 1 at 25, 2 at 31, and 1 at 39. Conway Street respectively, and 1 in Audley Street. I had also to visit and notify on the 13th January another case in Audley Street. All these cases were removed as soon as possible to the Linacre Hospital, and every precaution taken with regard to disinfection, burning of bedding, stripping and burning of paper from walls, &c., to prevent the spread of the contagium. The origion of this outbreak of smallpox is very doubtful. I suspect that one of the children from 29, Conway Street, was the source of the contagion, as this boy, when I saw him, appeared to have nearly recovered from the disease, and had been playing with other children in the neighbourhood." On the 4th February I again reported to the Health Committee with reference to this serious outbreak of smallpox, the report was as follows : "Of the 13 smallpox cases notified since your last meeting, 7 were notified during the week ending 19th Jan., 3 during the week ending 26th Jan., and the 3 others during the last days of the month. The number of smallpox cases therefore appear to be decreasing. All the cases (excepting one) occurring in Bootle were removed to the Linacre Hospital. As I believe that isolation and vaccination are the only reliable preventives to the spread of the contagium of smallpox, I took upon myself the responsibility of procuring a supply of lymph (vaccine) from the Public Vaccinator, and I have vaccinated 55 persons (including 3 "Bus" guards) since the outbreak, nearly all of which persons belonged to the infected houses. I believe 3 of these were primary vaccinations, and the remainder were revaccinations. There were also (at least) 2 children sent to hospital suffering from the disease who were un-vaccinated." I may here mention, that in addition to the other precautions already mentioned, I wrote to the vaccination officer (Mr. Richard Morrow) stating that I had discovered several children who had never been vaccinated, and requesting him to use every endeavour to find out other un-vaccinated children. I believe the Vaccination Officer did use his utmost exertions to find out these unprotected children, but owing to the migratory character of the inhabitants of cottage property, it is often extremely difficult to trace out these children, who are always not only in danger themselves of catching the disease when it is epidemic, but are also a anger to the general community. On the 18th February I reported to the Health Committee 5 more cases of smallpox. With regard to the notifications of smallpox, I may here state briefly, that altogether 27 cases were notified in January, 6 in February, 2 in March, not one in April, one case in May and one in July-total 37. During this outbreak of smallpox the "Disinfecting Box," invented by Mr. Daley, our Chief Sanitary Inspector, was found very useful in disinfecting persons, as the box can be wheeled to the infected houses and persons can be thus disinfected without having previously to pass through the public streets. I may here state that I have entered very fully into the particulars concerning this outbreak of smallpox, in consequence of the important character of the outbreak, especially with regard to its suddenness and rapid spread, the prompt measures adopted to stop its progress, and the very satisfactory result of these measures. I feel certain that if it had not been for the isolation afforded by the Hospital at Linacre, and the prompt removal of the cases as soon as they were discovered, assisted also by the re-vaccination of persons from the infected houses, the disease would have rapidly spread to all parts of the Borough, whereas by the end of March the disease was practically stamped out.

MEASLES.

I think I can say with certainty, that at no time in the year was this zymotic, epidemic in Bootle. As however the notification of it is not compulsory, and as 2 deaths were registered from it, one in October, and one in December, I presume there must have been a few cases in the last quarter of the year, especially in December, because the disease has become epidemic in the present year 1896. The death-rate from this zymotic in Bootle was .038, a very low one, being 20.7 below the average of the preceding 10 years, which low death-rate assisted very much in lessening the total zymotic death-rate. As the disease is very infectious, and is said to be so, even before the eruption appears, it is very necessary to prevent children being sent to school from infected houses.

SCARLATINA.

This disease was more or less epidemic (though not severely so) throughout the year, but on the whole the number of notifications and the number of deaths were both much less than in 1894, the number of notifications having been 300, and the number of deaths 13, in 1895, as compared with notifications 638, and deaths 36, in 1894. The percentage of deaths to notifications in 1895 was therefore only 4.3, and the total number of deaths (after deducting the deaths of non-residents) was 23 less than in 1894. There is no doubt the type of this disease in Bootle during late years, has been much milder than in former years. I speak this from my own recollection, as during my long residence in Bootle, I remember some very fatal epidemics of this zymotic. Table No. 2 will show the number of notifications of scarlatina in each month of the year, and Table No. 4 gives the number of deaths (including those in the Infectious Hospital) in the It will be noticed that no fatal case months when fatal cases occurred. occurred in February, March, May and August. The number of cases admitted into hospital from Bootle was 124 and from the out-townships 57, and of these 57 cases, the number from Seaforth exceeded that from the total number of all the other townships combined. The total number of cases of scarlatina, therefore admitted into the Linacre Hospital was 181, which number was 51 less than in 1894, and the total number of deaths from this disease in hospital was 14, 2 of which were of non-residents. The total number of deaths from scarlatina in this hospital in 1894 was also 14, but 4 were from the out-townships. The total number of deaths from this disease last year, was 10.3 less than the average of the preceding 10 years. After every case of scarlatina fumigation of rooms, stripping of paper from walls, disinfection of clothes, &c., at the shed are strictly enforced.

DIPHTHERIA.

The number of notifications of this disease was 18, and the number of deaths 12, the former being 14 less and the latter 7 more than in 1894. Two cases only were treated at the Linacre Hospital. Eight of the deaths were of children under 5 years of age, and the other 4 were aged 5 years and upwards. The total deaths exceeded the average of the preceding 10 years by 3.6. The zymotic death-rate was 0.23, 0.12 less than the average of the 38 large towns. Fortunately diphtheria is a disease which has not been very prevalent in Bootle.

CROUP.

The cases notified under the heading of croup were 9 in number, and the number of deaths registered as croup were 7. There is however such a similarity between these 2 diseases that many medical men believe they ought both to be classified as cases of diphtheria.

WHOOPING. COUGH.

The number of deaths from whooping cough was 26, all of which excepting one, being of children under 5 years of age. The total number exceeded that in 1894 by 3 and was slightly over the average of the preceding 10 years. The death-rate in Bootle was 0.5, and exceeded the death-rate from this zymotic in the large towns by 0.13. The disease was most prevalent in April, May, June, July, August, October and December when 5, 2, 4, 4, 2, 2 and 4 deaths respectively were registered. There was only 1 death in each of the months January, February, and November, and not one in March and September.

CONTINUED FEVER.

Typhus—There was no death from this very infectious disease during the year, nor indeed was there a single case notified, a very satisfactory fact to notice.

Enteric (or Typhoid) Fever--The total number of cases of enteric fever notified during the year was 187, this number being 107 less than in 1894, all excepting 14 being persons aged 5 years and upwards. The number of deaths registered was 27, but 4 of these were of persons from the out-townships, so that the total number of deaths of Bootle persons was 23, which number was 10 less than in 1894. As is usually the case in Bootle, the number of cases notified was greatest in the late summer and the autumn viz :-18 in July, 25 in August, 35 in September (the largest number) and 27 in October. The number of deaths in these months were 3, 2, 4 and 4 respectively, and there were also 4 deaths in November. The total number exceeded the average of the preceding 10 years by 4.6, but as will be noticed in Table No. 3 it was only half the number in 1893 and 10 less than in 1894. The death-rate 0.44 exceeded the average of "fevers" in the 33 large towns by 0.24 and was therefore larger than it should be. The number of cases of enteric fever admitted into the Linacre Hospital from Bootle was 105 and from the out-townships 30, therefore, the total number of cases admitted was 135. The number of cases from Bootle was 23 less and those from the outtownships 5 less than in 1894. The total number of deaths from this disease in hospital was 20, 16 of which were of residents and 4 non-residents, the total number 20 being 14.8 per cent of the enteric cases admitted, which percentage was almost exactly the same as that in 1894. The percentage of cases dying from Bootle was about 15.23 and that from the out-townships The percentage of deaths from all the notified cases in Bootle was 13.33 12.3 and thus appears to be a more favourable percentage than that in the hospital, but it must be remembered that as a rule, a great proportion of the cases removed to hospital are of a more serious character than a large number treated outside, many cases indeed are not removed until late on in the attack, when serious symptoms and complications arise and when the strength and resources of the friends nursing the patient at home are exhausted, and although, under these circumstances, the removal of the patient may be absolutely necessary, get at this period of the attack, the removal must tend to lessen the chances of the patient's recovery. I think also there can be no doubt that a certain number of cases notified as enteric fever are not really cases of this fever. On the whole I think it is gratifying to notice that the number of deaths from this fever have gradually decreased since the epidemic in 1893, and it is very satisfactory to notice the decrease of deaths in 1895 when compared with the deaths in 1894. I am greatly in hopes that the large number of middens that have been converted into w.c.'s must have been instrumental in causing this decrease of mortality from enteric fever.

With regard to the measures adopted for the prevention of this disease, I may state, that after the notification of every case, a sanitary inspector visits the house and premises to discover if possible any local defects that may exist, and if he finds defects or insanitary conditions, he has these remedied as soon as possible; he is also instructed to remove to hospital all the cases he can, and fumigate rooms and disinfect linen, &c. Disinfectants are also supplied free of cost and in short, every precaution taken to prevent a recurrence of the disease; notwithstanding these precautions, however, the disease will often reappear on the same premises. In my last report I mentioned how often I had observed enteric fever to appear in the same houses in consecutive years. A notable instance of this occurred in a certain milk house in this borough in September last, this being the third year in succession in which this fever had appeared in this milk house, in spite of stringent sanitary precautions having been taken on each occasion. In each year the disease appeared in September. In 1894 a number of sanitary improvements had been ordered, including the conversion of a privy-midden into a w.c. and we then thought that everything had been done to prevent the recurrence of the disease. However, in September last after receiving a notification of its reappearance I, accompanied by the two sanitary inspectors, again made a careful and thorough examination of the milk-house, shippon and premises, and came to the conclusion that the following sanitary work should be commenced at once :- 1st. That the subsoil should be thoroughly drained, and that the terminal end of the subsoil drain should be disconnected. 2nd. That a concrete or other impervious floor should be placed down under the house, in order to prevent ground air finding its way into the house. 3rd. That the space beneath the floors should be thoroughly ventilated. 4th. That having found by the "smoke test" some defects in the drains, that these drains should be taken up and relaid. I may here observe that the owner of these premises, seeing the urgency of this matter, at once complied with the request of the sanitary authority to rectify these sanitary requirements and completed the work most satisfactorily, the house being closed during the time the work was in progress. It is also a satisfaction to note, that although 4 persons were sent to hospital from this house, suffering from enteric fever, no case in the neighbourhood could be traced to the contamination of the milk.

DIARRHŒA.

I now come to the consideration of the zymotic which, as a rule, every year, largely increases the zymotic death-rate in Bootle, and assists considerably in increasing the total infantile mortality. It is certainly interesting to notice how regularly the advent of it comes on every year, as soon as the hot summer weather commences. Table No. 4 shows that in January, there were only 2 deaths, 1 an infant and the other an adult aged 60. There was no death in either February or March, 2 infants under one year died in April, 2 infants under one year and one child between 2 and 5 years died in May, 4 infants under one year died in June, and then suddenly in July no less than 52 deaths under 5 years, and one death of a child aged 5 years and 2 months occurred. Of the 52 deaths no less than 42 were of infants under 1 year, 8 were of infants aged 1 year and under 2 years, and 2 were of children aged 21 and 4 years. In August the mortality from this disease had dropped to 24 infants under 2 years, of whom 14 were infants under 1 year. The mortality was still decreasing in September when 10 children died, 6 of whom were infants under 1 year. In October there were only 5 deaths, of which 4 were of infants under 1 year, and in November only one infant died.

Altogether the total number of deaths from diarrhœa in Bootle during the past year was 107, only 5 of which were aged 5 years and upwards, the remaining 102 being of children under 5 years. Of these 102 children no less than 76 were infants under 1 year, 23 were infants aged 1 year and under 2 years, and only 3 were children between 2 and 5 years. The 5 deaths over 5 years were as follows :—5 years and 2 months, 60 years, 78 years, 47 years, and 48 years. The total number 107 exceeded that in the cool year of 1894 by 62, was 42.3 above the average of the preceding 10 years, and the zymotic death rate (2.05) exceeded that of the 33 large towns by 0.85 (or nearly 1 in the 1000). With the exception of the large number of deaths from diarrhœa in the hot summer of 1893, the number of deaths from diarrhœa in 1895 was the largest number registered in Bootle for at least 12 years. As the mortality from diarrhœa in Bootle is always excessive, and increased the total mortality in 1895 by more than 2 in the 1000, I think it will be useful to review the principal causes of this disease, with the view of endeavouring to adopt some means, whereby the large infantile mortality from this disease may be lessened if not prevented. In the first place I may mention that as epidemic diarrhœa commences in the advent of the hot summer weather, but more particularly when the temperature of the subsoil at 4 feet below the surface rises to 56° Fahr, it is very necessary to prevent organic contamination of the loose porous sandy subsoil, particularly around the cottage property, in which subsoil the peculiar micro-organism of diarrhœa is said to reside. This subsoil is very readily fouled by leakages from privy-middens or from drains, cess-pools or other accumulations of filth whether vegetable or excremental. This fouling of the subsoil therefore ought carefully to be looked after, and after every death from diarrhœa, in my opinion, a sanitary inspector should visit the premises in which the death occurred to find out, if possible, sanitary defects and have them remedied at once. I believe such inspections are equally or even more urgently needed than after some of the infectious diseases. Such inspections are more necessary in my opinion, in the habitations of the very poor as partly from ignorance of the proper way to nourish and rear young infants, partly from want of cleanliness, the existence of insanitary surroundings and other causes the mortality is usually greater. As breast-fed infants are remarkably exempt from this disease, and as the mortality is very high in bottle-fed infants, the assistance of district nurses would be most useful to instruct ignorant mothers with regard to the cleansing of the bottles and preparing the nourishment, which in the form of milk and water ought to be always boiled, as the boiling of the milk destroys micro-organisms and ferments, including also the tubercle bacilli from tuberculous cows. As I have repeatedly pointed out, the providing of créches for infants, whose mothers have to leave them in the day-time, would be of great assistance in lessening the mortality from this disease. I am strongly in hopes that a short Act of Parliament may shortly be passed for this purpose, and it is astonishing to me that in a county borough like Bootle, in which so many benevolent people reside, and which contains such a large labouring population, an institution for district nurses has not been started long ago.

CHOLERA.

No case of this disease was notified during the year nor was any suspicious case reported.

INFLUENZA.

In the early part of the year this disease was epidemic, and as the weather at that time was very cold, the number of deaths from diseases of the lungs was no doubt much influenced both by the severity of the weather and by the prevalence of influenza. The number of deaths registered as directly attributable to influenza was 12, of which number 2 occurred in February, 7 in March, 2 in April and 1 in May, all the deceased persons being above 5 years. The mortality from influenza is greatest in the middle and later periods of life and especially among those debilitated by disease or predisposed to bronchitis or pneumonia. The ages of the persons who died in Bootle from this disease appear to prove this, for of the 12 deaths only one was of a child aged 13 years. The ages of the other deceased persons were as follows ; 23, 34, 48, 2 at 58, 61, 62, 63, 65, 67 and 73, so that exactly half were elderly persons aged 61 and upwards. I find that I reported to the Health Committee on the 25th March that the large number of deaths registered during the present month has, in my opinion been due to the influenza epidemic. In corroboration of this, it will be seen on referring to Table No. 4 that out of a total of 106 deaths in March, 7 were referred directly to influenza and no less than 36 to bronchitis, pneumonia and pleurisy, and 10 to phthisis. In the previous month (February), out of a total of 100 deaths in 28 days, 2 deaths were registered as directly due to influenza, whilst no less than 46 were registered as deaths from the 3 diseases mentioned, and 6 to phthisis. It is therefore extremely probable that there was an epidemic influence in operation in these 2 months, and that a large number of these pulmonary diseases were really complications of influenza.

OTHER ZYMOTICS.

The deaths from zymotic diseases of minor importance to those already commented on were as follows :--puerperal fever 1, erysipelas 1, rheumatic fever 1, syphilis 3, purpura 1, pyæmia and Septicæmia 1. The mortality from these diseases, therefore, was very satisfactory. particularly with regard to erysipelas, for it appears that out of a total of 45 notifications, only 1 death occurred.

DISEASES OF UNCERTAIN OR VARIABLE SEAT.

The deaths from these diseases numbered 31, all being (excepting one) of persons over 5 years. Of the total number of deaths 22 were of persons who died from cancer, a decrease of 4 when compared with those in 1894.

DISEASES TUBERCULAR.

One hundred and two deaths from this class of diseases were registered during the year, a decrease of 15 when compared with those in 1894. Of these 68 were due to phthisis (a decrease of one), 24 to tabes mesenterica, 6 to tubercular meningitis, 1 to tubercular-peritonitis and 2 to scrofula, and 1 to hydrocephalus. There were also 19 deaths from phthisis in the workhouses, but 3 persons died in Bootle from this disease not belonging thereto. The increasing attention which is bestowed on this disease every year by sanitarians the fact of its being infectious, and the large amount of information obtained by experimental work, shown by the reports lately submitted by the commissioners in the report of the royal commission on tuberculosis, must convince every one of the great importance of these investigations and the necessity that exists of preventing as far as possible, if not altogether, the production and spread of this deadly disease. The precautions indicated to safeguard the public against the production of this disease, are :--1st, to destroy the bacillus in the expectoration before it becomes dried and pulverised and then inhaled into the lungs. 2nd. To supervise cows in order to prevent the sale of milk from tuberculous udders. 3rd. In order to make our food supply perfectly wholesome and nutritious, it is necessary to eliminate all tuberculous animals from our stock, dairies and markets by gradually weeding out tuberculous stock, and by careful and judicious confiscation of tuberculous carcases. By energetic action of this kind, the evil is attacked at its root, for the necessary precautions of boiling milk, and thoroughly cooking meat should be only temporary expedients, because, even when these precautions are taken, especially in the case of meat, tubercle bacilli may escape destruction, and under certain conditions there appears to be no doubt that the human organism is specially susceptible to infection by even partially devitalised tubercle bacilli. All these facts have been elucidated by the royal commission on tuberculosis, and I think the public require to be educated on this subject, and to co-operate with sanitary authorities in an intelligent manner. To show how little the owners of cottage property will listen to advice, when given with the best intentions, I may mention that in November last, I suggested to the Health Committee that the bed-rooms occupied by persons who had died from phthisis, should be thoroughly cleansed, disinfected, and the paper stripped from the walls in order to prevent the communication of the disease to persons who would subsequently occupy the same rooms as the deceased persons. In consequence of this recommendation, the Health Committee issued a notice to owners of property offering to disinfect rooms, upon their agreeing to strip the paper from the walls, and thoroughly cleanse the rooms. I really thought owners of property would readily comply with such a reasonable request, when they considered the bad name a house would get if repeated deaths should occur in it from this disease. The sanitary inspector afterwards informed me, that in the first case that this offer was made, the owner of the premises ridiculed the idea and positively refused to pay the small cost of repapering the room. No further attempt was made to carry out my recommendation and it is therefore apparent that in order to combat successfully with this disease legislation is urgently requisite.

DISEASES OF THE BRAIN, SPINAL MARROWS, &c.

The number of deaths registered from this class of diseases was 97, of which 52 were of children under 5 years of age. The total number was 13 more than that in 1894, and the number of deaths of children was 13 more than in 1894. The deaths of infants registered under the vague term of "convulsions" was 21.

DISEASES OF HEART AND BLOOD VESSELS.

The number of deaths registered from these diseases was 41, a decrease of 4 when compared with the deaths in 1894.

DISEASES OF THE LUNGS AND AIR PASSAGES.

The total number of deaths from these diseases was 276, which number exceeded that in 1894 by 86, and even exceeded the number in 1893 by 44. Of the total number 136 were of children under 5 years. The deaths from this class of diseases therefore largely exceeded those in the previous year, the principal cause of the excess being the severity of the weather, and the prevalence of influenza in the winter and spring months. There were also a large number of deaths from these diseases in November and December. The total number of deaths in each of the 4 months February, March, November and December was 46, 36, 34 and 31 respectively, making altogether 147, which was more than half the total number of deaths from these diseases in the year. As however 36 Bootle persons died in the workhouses and there-fore out of the district, and 3 died in Bootle not belonging thereto, the difference 33, ought to be added to the 276 registered in Bootle—this would increase the mortality from these diseases to 309.

OTHER DISEASES.

The deaths from "other diseases" in 1895, when compared with those in 1894 were as follows :- Diseases of kidneys, bladder, &c. 29, an increase of 13; diseases of uterus, child-birth, &c., 13, an increase of 8; diseases of stomach, liver, &c., 59, a decrease of 9. I may remark here that under this last-named heading 7 deaths were registered from enteritis, 13 from gastroenteritis and 1 from gastric catarrh, and of the 21 deaths from these diseases, 16 were of children under 5 years. Probably the majority of these 16 deaths should have been included with those from diarrhea. In addition 3 deaths were registered from diseases of bones, one each from diseases of the skin and eyes, 7 from malformation, no less than 36 from premature birth, 19 from atrophy and debility, 18 from old age and natural decay. The deaths of 16 persons (an increase of one) were registered during the year, aged 80 and upwards-viz., 1 in January, 4 in February, 1 in March, 2 in April, 1 in June, 1 in August, 4 in October, 1 in November, and 1 in December. Of these 16 old persons 3 died aged 80, 1 aged 81, 1 aged 82, 2 aged 83, 1 aged 84, 2 aged 85, 4 aged 86, 1 aged 87 and 1 aged 88. In addition to these old persons who died in Bootle, 3 old Bootle persons died in Walton Workhouse, 2 aged 84 and 1 aged 82. Unfortunately one cannot always depend, that the friends of these old people register their deaths correctly, although I believe that, as a rule, the age is more often under stated than the reverse.

DEATHS THROUGH VIOLENCE, &c.

Seventy-six deaths through violence, &c., occurred during the year, being an increase of 23 when compared with the number from the same cause in 1894. This was a considerable increase, but in addition 5 deaths were registered from "natural causes," the precise cause not being shown. Of the 76 deaths, 21 were of children under 5 years of age, and the causes of these deaths were as follows : 38 (an increase of 14) were due to injuries either from accidents or negligence, 5 were from drowning or effects of immersion, 17 were from burns or scalds, 5 were from "suffocation," 3 were from suicide, 2 from manslaughter, 3 from poisoning, and 3 persons were "found dead," the cause not being clearly proved. There were exactly the same number of deaths, viz., 44, that were "uncertified," by any medical practitioner, as in 1894, but as the total number of deaths during last year was larger than in 1894, the percentage of these deaths was slightly smaller, being a little over 4 per cent, and of the total number 19 were of children under 5 year of age.

INQUESTS.

The number of inquests held during the year was 84, an increase of 20 when compared with the number in 1894. The number of inquests in each month was as follows:—January 7, February 7, March 5, April 4, May 8, June 7, July 8, August 7, September 6, October 13, November 5, December 7. It will thus be seen that 7.8 (or nearly 8) per cent of the deaths in this borough formed the subject of legal inquiry.

HORSE AMBULANCE.

This ambulance has continued to do most useful work. Altogether it has turned out to 446 cases during the year—313 cases between 6 a.m. and 6 p.m., and 133 between 6 p.m. and 6 a.m. The ambulance is worked by the members of the Fire Brigade, every one of whom I believe, has been specially trained and examined and is a member of the St. John's Ambulance Association. The Ambulance is also worked in the same expeditious manner as an engine is worked when turned out for a fire, and can be sent out in less than a minute after an alarm has been given. The ambulance carriage itself was built in the most improved style, regardless of cost, and since it was presented to the Committee of the Bootle Borough Hospital in the year 1889, it has saved an immense amount of suffering and probably many lives.

PUBLIC BATHS AND GYMNASIUM.

The following is the report of the manager of these Baths and Gymnasium, Mr. McMahon :-- Baths—The numbers attending the baths fluctuate very much. Wet, equally with cold weather, militates against good and regular attendances. The following numbers attended during the year from January to December, 1895:—males, 56,708; females, 10,888—total, 67,596. The receipts for the baths for the same period were £925 14s. 6d.

The Gymnasium continues to be popular, especially among the young people. The number attending during the winter of 1895 was as follows :---Gentlemen's class, 85; boys' class, 40; ladies' classes, 132; school children's classes, 204-total 461. The income from the gymnasium for the winter of 1895 was £71 14s. 8d. The ladies and gentlemen attending the gymnasium seem to appreciate and enjoy the exercises very much, owing probably to their having less facilities than gentlemen for out-door exercise. There has been a slight decrease in the number attending the gentlemen's class for the winter season of 1895 Palpable and acknowledged benefit has been derived by several young people who have attended the gymnasium.

SANITARY WORK.

Table No. 5 contains the Sanitary Inspector's Report, and again shows the large amount of sanitary work accomplished during the year. The epidemic of smallpox caused an immense amount of work in the Sanitary Inspector's Department, particularly at the time of its invasion and for the remainder of the month of January. The removal of the patients to hospital, and afterwards, the disinfecting of the persons remaining in the houses in the "disinfecting box," the disinfecting of the clothing, bedding, &c., and the fumigating of the houses, altogether taxed the resources of the department to the utmost. There was also a good deal of work done in connection with disinfecting, &c., after the 300 scarlatina cases, and also the other infectious or contagious diseases. During the year 504 houses were disinfected, and in each case notices were sent to the owners to cleanse the infected rooms. Of this number 14 houses were cleaned by the Local Authority, under the Infectious Diseases (Prevention) Act, 1890, the owners having failed to comply with the notices served on them. This work entailed 1,424 inspections. Disinfectants were taken to each infected house immediately on the notification of the disease.

NUISANCES.

During the year nuisances were reported to exist in 2,164 private houses. Of this number 380 houses were inspected by special request of tenants. The nuisances dealt with include defective drainage, w.c's., sinks, bath and washbasin waste-pipes, roofs, downspouts, yard surfaces, ventilation, filthy houses, accumulations of filth, manure, stagnant water and other refuse, fowls and animals improperly kept. Reinspections of premises were made and the necessary steps taken to abate the nuisances. Owners were summoned in twenty instances for non-compliance with notices.

INSPECTION OF LODGING HOUSES.

The Sanitary Inspector reports that the number of houses registered in Bootle, under the Public Health Act is 201, and that the number of houses newly registered during the year was 49, but 64 houses were vacated by the keepers, so that the number of houses now on the register is 186. The Inspector also reports that the number of day and night inspections were 2,614, and that the number of infringements of the bye-laws were 171; of these 4 cases were brought before the magistrates.

INSPECTIONS OF DAIRIES, COWSHEDS, AND MILK-SHOPS.

The number of persons on the register for the sale of milk during the year was 125. The number of inspections made was 697. Number of notices served for defects found to exist 74. There were 2 dairies in which fever was found to exist, but the precautions that were immediately taken prevented the spread of these fevers. The precautions taken were as follow :—the immediate removal of the patients to hospital, the destruction of all the milk in the infected premises, thorough fumigation and disinfection of premises, clothes, &c., and water supply carefully examined.

INSPECTION OF BAKEHOUSES.

On the 4th September, accompanied by the two sanitary inspectors, I made my annual inspection of the bakehouses in this Borough. I found the number of bakehouses in use to be 32. Taken altogether they were in fairly good order, but notices were afterwards sent to limewash and cleanse 17, and there were 2 bakehouses found to have sanitary defects which were afterwards remedied.

INSPECTIONS OF WORKSHOPS.

The Sanitary Inspector reports that the number of workshops on the register last year was 73, an increase of 13 when compared with 1894. This work is principally performed by Inspector M'Culloch, and has lately largely increased through recent legislation. The work has been well done, and 40 defects were reported and remedied during the year, these defects being principally with respect to overcrowding, want of cleanliness and of sufficient ventilation.

FOOD INSPECTIONS.

7 lbs. fish from shop in Peel Road. Fined 20s. and costs.

8 lbs. meat from shop in Irlam Road. Fined 20s. and costs.

8 lbs. meat from shop in Marsh Lane. Fined 10s. and costs.

20 lbs. meat from shop in Peel Road. Ordered to be destroyed.

12,377 lbs. of unsound food have been destroyed by consent of the owners without the formality of a magistrate's order. Also a number of crates of rotten eggs imported from Egypt and landed in the Bootle docks.

INSPECTION OF CATTLE SHIPS.

These inspections are of a very important character, particularly in my opinion, with regard to the cleansing and disinfecting of the "cattle fittings," for if this duty is not properly performed, cattle disease might be imported into the interior of the country. 772 inspections and re-inspections were made during the year by Assistant Inspector Owens, under the direction of Inspector Daley. 9 infringements were reported, being 3 for neglecting to cleanse cattle ships, and 6 for neglecting to cleanse and disinfect the "cattle fittings." In each case legal proceedings were taken and the responsible persons fined.

CANAL BOATS.

As the Leeds and Liverpool Canal runs through Bootle inspections of canal boats have to be made, although Bootle is not a registering district. These inspections are also made by Assistant Inspector Owens, under the the direction of the Chief Sanitary Inspector, and 332 of these inspections were made during the year. 11 infringements were reported and notices sent to the owners and masters, who, in each case remedied the defects reported.

SYSTEMATIC INSPECTIONS.

During the year, accompanied by the two Sanitary Inspectors, I again made a large number of systematic inspections, our attention being particularly directed to the condition of the privy-middens, with the view of getting them converted into w.c's., when they were found to be in an insanitary condition. More than a 1000 of these middens have been inspected in this manner, and the result of these inspections has been duly reported to the Health Committee, together with other sanitary defects that came under our notice. I have also at various times made other inspections in cases that appeared to require special attention or special action to rectify sanitary defects.

WATER SUPPLY.

Table No. 8 gives the analyses of the hard and soft water supplied by the Liverpool Water Committee to Bootle and other districts in the four quarters of the year. These analyses are supplied every quarter to the Bootle Corporation, together with the distribution of the said waters. At the end of the 3rd quarter we received the information that the Water Committee had been working no wells in the Bootle District since the 1st July, and it will be noticed that no analysis of the Bootle well water was given in this quarter, and also, it was reported that the water supplied in this quarter was a mixture of the two soft waters Vyrnwy and Rivington. At the end of the 4th quarter, the water engineer reported that the water supplied to us during this quarter was a mixture in varying proportions of Vyrnwy and Rivington, with occasionally a small proportion of the Green Lane well water in Liverpool. He also stated that the Bootle well had been permanently closed, and on inquiry I found that the machinery, pumps and plant had been sold, and the buildings are now being demolished. I think it is some satisfaction for us to know that in future we shall probably have a more uniform supply, and not a mixture of hard and soft waters in the mains with occasional changes of entirely hard to soft water for drinking. The water supplied to us at present is certainly a good wholesome soft water, and for domestic purposes, boilers, &c., superior to the hard water from the Bootle well.

THE DESTRUCTOR.

During the year the destructor has been of great service, and has burnt 6.340<sup>1</sup> tons of refuse matter that could not have been easily disposed of as in past years. The Borough Surveyor informs me that he was able to sell some of the excremental refuse matter to the farmers at a small profit to the Corporation. It is sent away by boats into the rural districts along the canal, but about half the refuse matter has been burnt in the destructor. The number of ash-pits emptied in 1895 was 37,902. The "clinkers" remaining after the burning of this refuse matter have been found very useful in making the foundations of roads in the New Ornamental Park, and after having been ground down in a mortar-mill a large quantity have been converted into very useful and serviceable concrete flags.

THE NEW PARK.

This park, which has been named "Derby Park" after the Earl of Derby, was opened to the public in August last. The whole of the plans have been drawn by Mr. J. A. Crowther, the Borough Surveyor and Engineer, who has personally superintended the work. The task has been an arduous one for the Surveyor and the Parks Committee, under the able chairmanship of Mr. Councillor A. Morton, but the work has been so successfully carried out, that its success must be a source of pride and satisfaction to everyone who has been connected with it. The land, covering an area of 22 acres, was generously given to the Corporation by the Earl of Derby, and is situated near Breeze Hill, in the north-eastern portion of the borough, close to the Walton boundary. The cost of carrying out the plans and designs of this ornamental park will be about £24,000 when perfectly complete. Although far from complete at present yet the park has been laid out in the most tasteful manner, and the idea which has been ever kept in mind has been to arrange the park so as to afford the utmost amount of shelter from the prevailing north and north-westerly winds. This has been successfully accomplished by raising mounds and forming shelters where practicable. But in carrying out this object the effect of pleasing the eye has not been neglected, for by making undulating grassy mounds, skirting flower beds with flowers of every variety of colour, by cutting out dells surrounded by walls of the natural rock (red sandstone) thus forming bowers or arbours, this has been accomplished in a very attractive manner, and at the same time has shaded from the bleak winds, and has made, delightful retreats in almost any season. For the amusement and recreation of young persons, the park contains a large ornamental band stand, 3 large greens for bowls, lawn tennis, croquet, &c., besides other smaller greens. One of the most attractive portions of the whole park is the ornamental lake, covering an acre and a half of water area, which will be well stocked with fish, and when frozen in winter, is visited by a crowd of skaters. I think there can be no doubt that every year will make this park more attractive and increase its popularity, but what is in my opinion, of more consequence, it will largely conduce to the health and physical stamina of the rising generation of this Borough.

ADULTERATIONS.

Sale of Food and Drugs Act—The Chief Constable (Mr. James Cumming) and Inspectors Leslie and Ferguson have the carrying out of these acts during the year. Table No. 7 gives the number of samples taken and sent to the public analyst, the result being that out of 93 samples taken, 6 persons were prosecuted for adulterations—4 being convicted and 2 discharged. The table also gives a description of the food, &c., submitted for analysis.

SANITARY PROCEEDINGS AND ADVICE, &c.

In accordance with Act 14, Section 4, of the Local Government Board's Order, I will now refer to " Proceedings relating to conditions dangerous or injurious to health, in which I have taken part or advised" the Sanitary Authority during the year. I have reported regularly every fortnight during the year on the vital statistics of the Borough, the sanitary requirements and the work accomplished, together with special reports when necessary. The sanitary proceedings have I think been fully commented on in the previous part of this Annual Report, and I think it is unnecessary to make any further remarks on this subject, in this concluding paragraph. I regret, however, to point out that partly in consequence of the very cold weather in the winter and spring months, the prevalence of influenza and the consequent mortality from diseases of the lungs, and also the increased mortality in the hot weather of July and August from infantile diarrhœa, the death-rate of the Borough for 1895 when compared with 1894 increased from 18.4 to 21.55 per 1000. My time during the year was again much occupied by inspections of the cottage property with the Sanitary Inspectors, and reporting to the Health Committee the results of my inspections, together with the recommendations and advice which I submitted in order to improve this class of property. I have again strongly advised the conversion of the privy-middens into w.c.'s, as I am convinced from long experience that to prevent or lessen the regular recurrence of infantile diarrhœa and enteric fever in the summer and autumn the former ought to be abolished. The question of the water supply to this Borough is now, I think, practically settled, as the pumping machinery for the Bootle wells is sold, and the wells closed, so that, I hope in future, we shall be supplied constantly as in Liverpool, with the soft Vyrnwy and Rivington waters in an uniform manner. In July, I was asked to report on some premises in Sandfield Place, Marsh Lane, where I found a man had recently started a bone-boiling business. As these premises were quite unsuitable for such an offensive trade, particularly in a crowded neighbourhood like that of Marsh Lane, I gave an opinion that this business ought not to be allowed, and the Health Committee in consequence refused to give permission for the establishment of this business.
