PREFACE.

THIS book owes its existence to the late Mr. Clifford Wyndham Holgate's bequest to the Warden and Fellows of Winchester College of the copyright of his "Winchester Commoners, 1836–1890," and of the further material which he had collected for a second edition, and to the acceptance of the said bequest by the legatees.

The further material above mentioned consisted of the following :—

(a) A considerable number of corrections and additions made by Mr. Holgate in an interleaved copy of his book ; this copy was given by him to Mr. Herbert Chitty, who has from time to time noted further addenda and corrigenda.

(b) A manuscript list of scholars admitted between January, 1836, and the end of 1854. This list (though in a good many cases it does not give the parentage of the scholars, and in seventeen cases between 1836 and 1851 gives nothing but their names with dates and places of birth) is fairly full down to 1851 ; from 1852 to the end of 1854 the information it supplies is very scanty.

(c) A similar manuscript list of scholars admitted between Short Half, 1869, and the end of 1890. This list gives in most cases the date of birth and the name and address of a parent or guardian, but in very few cases are any biographical particulars attached.

(d) A manuscript list of the names of scholars and commoners admitted between the beginning of Common Time, 1891, and the end of Common Time, 1901, in most cases with the date of birth and name and address of parent or guardian, but in no case with any biographical details.

In supplementing and correcting the material placed in my hands, I have obtained much valuable assistance from Mr. Francis Brodie, Dr. Teale, Mr. W. H. H. Bird, Mr. Herbert Chitty, Mr. G. W.

Ricketts, and others too numerous to mention, to all of whom I am sincerely grateful, as well as from "A Roll of Names and Addresses of Old Wykehamists," edited by Mr. G. W. Ricketts in 1903, and again in 1906; Mr. Kirby's "Winchester Scholars," published in 1888; and "Annals of Culver House," compiled by Mr. A. W. Oyler and published in 1905, a copy of which last book was generously presented to me by the compiler. To Mr. E. T. Cook I am indebted for kindly looking through the proof-sheets and for valuable suggestions and corrections. I have tried to make the book as accurate a record as possible of events down to the 18th June, 1906, when the MS. left my hands, and I have made later additions and corrections whenever I could do so during the passage of the book through the press.

If cross-references are excluded, the index to Part II. contains 5354 names.

The founder's arms on the title-page are reproduced from a drawing made by the Rev. Edward Earle Dorling, M.A., late Vicar of Burcombe, Wilts., in memory of his friend C. W. H.

JOHN B. WAINEWRIGHT.

[In a MS. notebook belonging to Dr. Moberly, in which he was accustomed to note the names of those to whose parents he had promised their admission as Commoners, there appears, under date 1841, the name—

"Stephenson, son of James, Esq., 10, New Sq., Lincoln's Inn, Sept., 1841," to which he has subsequently added the note "abiit ad Cantab." There is, however, a difficulty here, for the University Calendars about this period contain only the following Stephensons:—

(1) Charles; Pemb. 1846;
(2) Augustus Frederick William Keppel; Caius 1844;
(3) John Joseph; Caius 1845;
(4) Cookson; Trin. 1851; and
(5) Sussex Vane; Caius 1852;

and of these (1) was the e. s. of Charles Stephenson, Esq. of Croydon; (2) and (5) were sons of Henry Frederick Stephenson, Esq., Commissioner of Excise; (3) was a son of Joseph Stephenson, Esq., of the Bank of Ireland; and (4) was the son of Wm. Stephenson, Esq., of Holmforth.]
