This arrangement will afford all London an opportunity of beholding the reputed Gods of Iximaya—a race of human beings never before seen—doll-like little strangers, fully grown, about the length of a man's arm, every way beautifully proportioned, with beautiful black, glossy hair, deep olive complexions, and with physiognomies only resembling the statues and mural drawings, exhumed from the dust of centuries, in the trackless Deserts of the Old World, and the impenetrable Forests of the New.

MISS C. WALLWORTH, MR. H. SMITH, & MR. W. J. MORRIS, on the CRYSTAL-OPHONIC

Will assist these Human Puzzles (concerning whose History, Birth, and abiding-place all the world are at variance), forming an Entertainment more wonderful than any before introduced to the London Public. History of the Aztecs, 1s. Aztec Polka, 2s.

In Dublin, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Manchester, Liverpool, Leeds, Bradford, York, Hull, Nottingham, and Birmingham, they have produced a new era in Sight-seeing; 7,148 Persons paid to see them at the Zoological Gardens, Liverpool, in one single day.

THE EARTHMEN,

Much more extraordinary than the Bushmen or Bosjesmen, will appear, in conjunction with the Aztecs, at the QUEEN'S CONCERT ROOMS, HANOVER SQUARE, and also at the LINWOOD GALLERY, LEICESTER SQUARE, every Exhibition during their stay in London.
