Dear Mr Paine —

G. D. Arncliffe - Alkhal<sup>ne</sup>

I have just been looking at your last year's report and thought I sh<sup>d</sup> like to tell you that your late patient (Mr G. D. Arncliffe), whom I saw once to see and have the pleasure of meeting you, still keeps well and attends to business every day. I occasionally drop in to his shop when passing and say a few Kind words to cheer him on.

I think he still contains the a Total abstinence, and his wife also gives me a good account of him. I thought you would like to know. —

Yours very sincerely,

Robert Blair.

Dear Mr Pierce. — G.D. Armitage

I have just re-read your letter of one on the 26th Oct? last about this patient and I thought you would like to hear about him. I am pleased to tell you he is doing well and has shown no tendency to re-lapse to his old drinking habits.
He looks well and has got back to business with which I am very pleased as it keeps him employed. Sometimes 80 mile the trip when passing to cheer him up, and now I saw has delighted me as I sent him to
