Dear Dr. Price

I must apologise for not answering your letter of the 17th ulto. Earlier, but the trouble I have recently gone through must be my excuse. I was very glad to get your report about my poor wife & it is such consolation to us to know <sup>what was</sup> the nature of her trouble. Since her death I have often wondered if worry or fretting would bring in such a disease.

Will you please send me
$200 for the nursing & funeral expenses as soon as you can.

Yours faithfully
D. J. Ayndley

12th. November 1906.

Dr. Pierce,
The Retreat,
York.

Dear Sir,

Mr. R. J. Aynsley called upon us this morning in reference to the interment of his late wife, and we are informed by Mr. Aynsley that the remains will leave York by the 9-43 express tomorrow, due at Newcastle at 11-5am. As instructed by Mr. Aynsley, we have made arrangements to take over the interment as soon as the remains arrive in Newcastle.

We beg to confirm our wire to you this morning as follows:

"York Registrar's death certificate required for interment

"Mrs. Aynsley. Wire if in order, and send by undertaker,

"Newcastle, tomorrow"

to which we have your reply:-

"Certificate will accompany remains tomorrow."

We are, dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

James Coxon & Co
