requested that he should not be supplied with money & I made myself responsible for his fees &c. I have not had any explanation as to the circumstances under which my money was handed to him to the extent of £6.10/- on him leaving the Retreat as, of course, it had one & only one result & that most disastrous - Further I cannot understand how Mr Colthurst was allowed to obtain credit personally for goods apparently

Dear Sir

I have your favor of yesterday's date re sundry small accounts of Mr Colthurst.
I am going into the matter with him & will communicate with you further - When I left Mr Colthurst at your establishment I particularly for the benefit of the Retreat.

I shall be glad to hear from you on these points -

Yours faithfully

Dr. Bedford Pierce,
The Retreat,
York.

Dear Dr. Pierce,

I am much obliged by your favor of yesterday's date suggesting Malden for Colthurst, but from what I have heard of this place it is rather too expensive.

I am, yours faithfully,

Frank L Riseley

P.S. I am enquiring about Rickmansworth also Buntingford Herts. Do you know anything about them?

Dear Mr. Brown,

I am much obliged to you for your letter of yesterday's date suggesting that you should, but from what I have heard of this place it is rather too expensive.
I am, yours faithfully,

Dear Dr Pince

Many thanks for your letter & kind offer of an interview tomorrow. I am afraid I shall not be in Bristol, but should I unexpectedly be, I will run the chance of meeting you. As I am almost certain not to be, please don't put yourself to any inconvenience -

[Faint, illegible handwriting on lined paper, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side. The text is mirrored across the center fold. Three binder holes are visible on the right edge.]

if you would let me know what happened & what your candid opinion of him is - Myself I don't think he moves a finger to help himself & one thing I have always deplored is his lack of a hobby - I am very sorry for the trouble you have had & if you can spare time to let me have a line I shall be more than obliged

I am faithfully yours
Frank L. Riseley

Dear Dr. Pierce

Very many thanks for your wire the contents of which I much regret - I abstained from writing yesterday until I had received some account from Colthurst - I heard this morning but his letter was most unsatisfactory & gives me no real reason for his action -

Privately & confidentially I should esteem it a great favor

I thought you are giving the matter & I sincerely trust your efforts will meet with the result they deserve.

Please let me know when you require another payment

Yours faithfully

Dear Dr. Pierce

Very many thanks for your favour of the 11th inst and I quite agree with you the case of Mr Colthurst is a very perplexing one - I feel sure you are using every means to give him a chance in life and I thank you for the trouble
