Dear Sir,

Hugh Ross Dalgleish decd.

The late Mr Dalgleish died at Langthorpe, Boroughbridge, Yorks on 14th inst, leaving a will by which he appointed our Mr McEwen to be his sole Executor. We are making investigations as to the nature and amount of his estate, but are having some little difficulty on account of the fact that the deceased had no near relatives in this country, and kept his affairs very much to himself. We see from his papers that he resided at your Institution for a time some few years ago, and it has occurred to us that possibly he may have left some of his effects in your custody. Perhaps you will be good enough to let us hear from you whether this is the case, as we must of course account for everything left by the deceased in settling Government duties.

We are,

Yours faithfully,

J. & A. F. Adam

Dear Dr. Pierce,

I thank you for reply. I was wishing to return to the Retreat rather than Thorsby, but I feel somewhat better, & will try to make the best of this. Please excuse my having given you the trouble of writing to the Matron & accept my best thanks.

Yours very truly

H. R. Dalgleish

Dear Dr. Peirce,

I thank you very much for your kind letter and offer of assistance. I cannot say I am getting on well here, being again depressed, and afraid of getting worse. I would wish to return to The Retreat if you would receive me again. If I heard favorably from you by Wed. morning, I might arrive on the afternoon of Wed. or Thursday.

I remain your faithfully

H. R. Dalpeith.
