Dear Miss Vigor.

For the past few weeks
the letters from my brother have been so desponding, I am greatly troubled. He thinks he is going the wrong way, & can never be better. Will you kindly tell me how he really is, it is so difficult for me to judge from his letters.

Has S^r Pierce returned? I don't think it would be wise for Mr Sammatt to return home yet.

If desirable I might come over again soon to see him -
Are any further arrangements made?

Hoping for better news,
with kind regards.

Yours sincerely,

Mary J. Farnie -

Is he too much alone?

D^r Pierce.

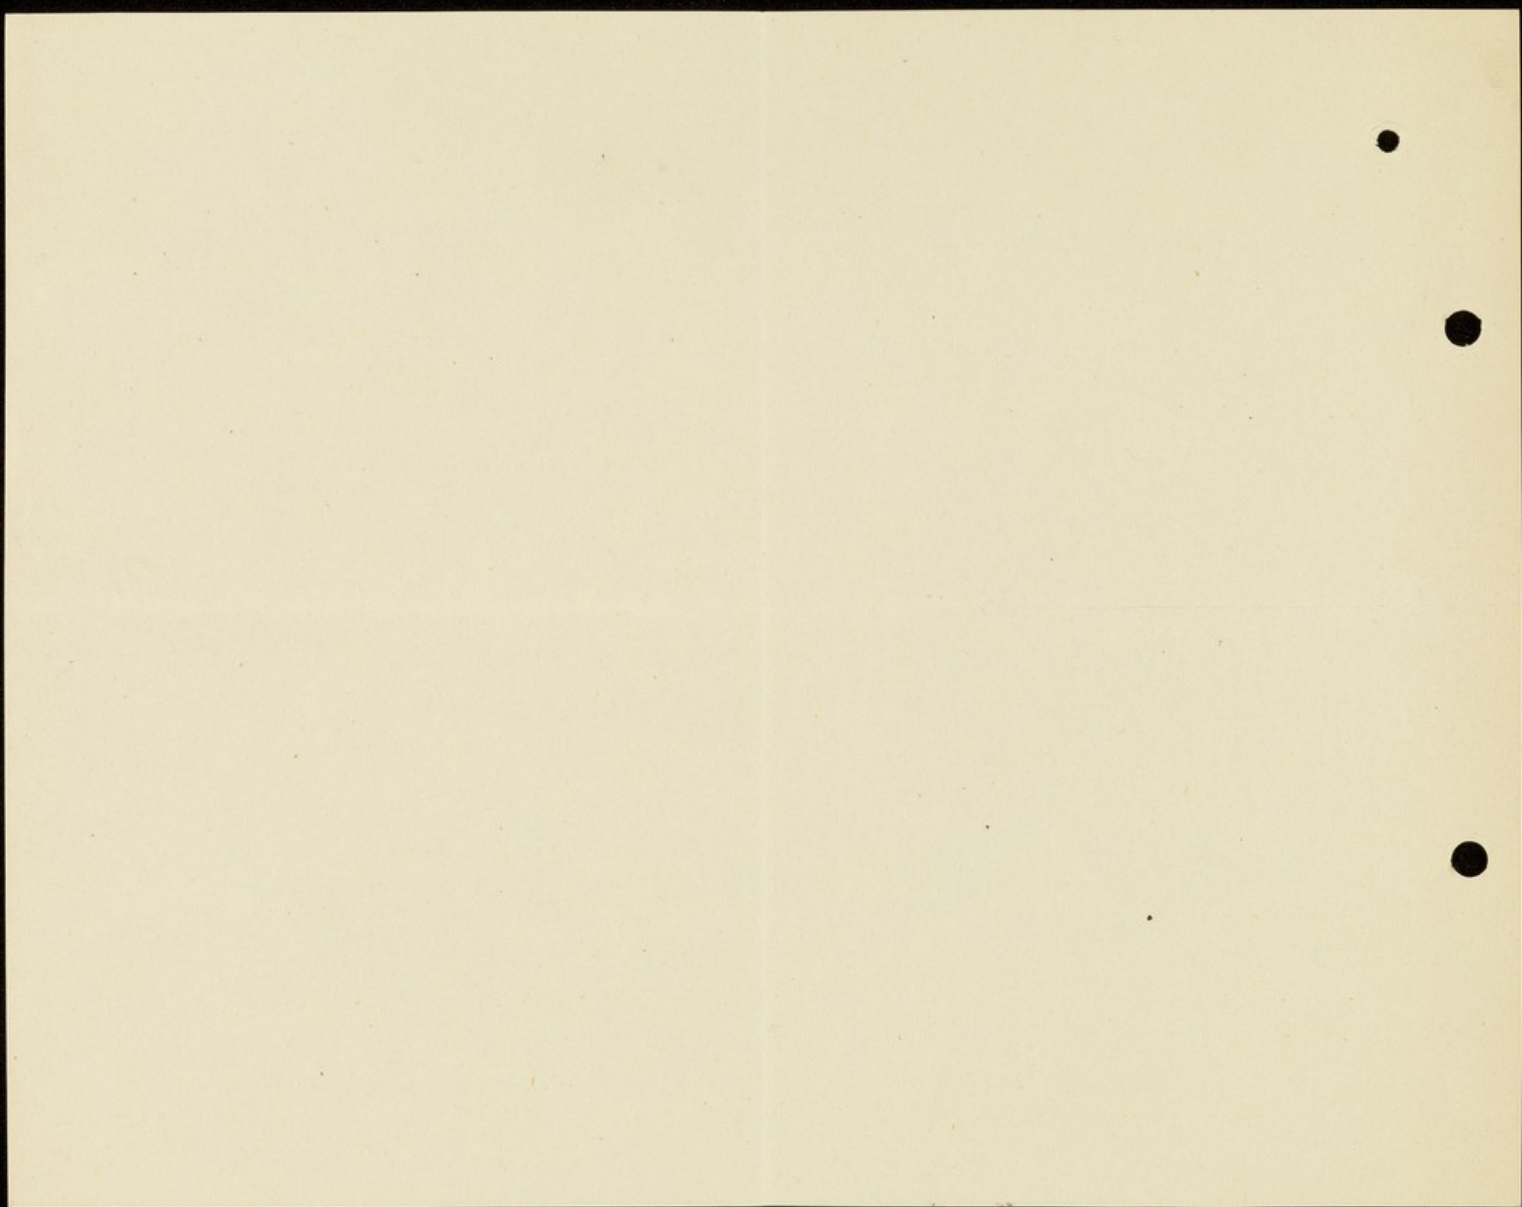

Dear Sir.

My brother Mr. Dammatt says it is a very long time since he saw any body he knows, I also feel the separation very long -

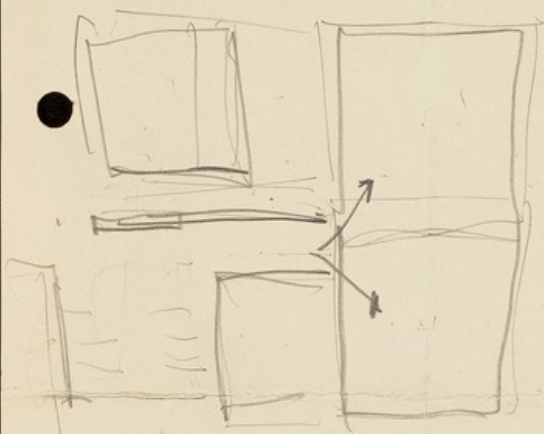

I should like to know how you think he is progressing, and propose going to Newby, N^o Scarborough on about the 12th May to be near him for a few days if thought advisable.

Yours Sincerely.

Dear Sir,

I was sorry to have to write in such a hurry. I hope Mr Dammatt has now arrived. I gave him a supply of the medicine he has been taking His night Powder is Veronal gr ix
 He has also a Cascara (M &)
 and Milk Vanilla Mixture Also a M Sodii Calcium &
 a gr 10 Pepsin Pill

Of course I should be glad to wean him of the Veronal
 and other medicines
 but I suppose it might be

Will wait a few days.

About a month ago I detected a thickening which might be in wall of stomach or transverse colon; I think the former. It has not increased during the month and I hope there is no Carcinoma. His sister will explain that if he should get worse they would ~~then~~ wish the Certification to take place at Scarborough instead of sending him home

Yours very truly

Dear Sir,

My patient is very gloomy about the prospect of his recovery & his trouble may increase as the result. I was half inclined to suggest you should have him a day or two at the Retreat to decide which would suit him best but it occurs to me the best thing would be for him to go to Scarborough very shortly before your weekly visit. I think it might be well for his sister & her husband

to spend a night either at the Hall or in Scarbro' when they bring him,

Kindly say
when he should come
& I will try to get him

Yours truly

Thos. S. Mowley

P.S. I was under the impression the fuss at York & were 2 guineas & upwards.
Mr. Darnall is not really well off, as he is helping me to support an invalid (who is nephew to both of us) & his family.
