Dear Mr. Davies,

The leave of absence is for three months, but can be terminated at any time. The Petitioner is the person who has the right to discharge, and if you inform me that you consider she has recovered it will be sufficient. If you are not able to see her yourself a letter from her friends or from the medical man who has seen her would be equally satisfactory.

I remain,

Yours very truly,

Dear Sir:

I am writing you to advise that the following information was received from the

State Department on October 1, 1951:

A letter from the State Department dated October 1, 1951, to the Department of Defense, Washington, D. C., advised that the information was received from the State Department on October 1, 1951.

16 Great George St
Westminster
17 July 1915.

Dear Dr Bedford Pearce,

Do I understand that Miss Davies is on leave of absence on trial?
If so what time have you specified?

I hope to see Miss Davies before long; should I not be able to do so before the specified time expires, who must say whether Miss Davies may be said to have recovered completely?

I enclose cheque £7.10.5.

Pray pardon pencil.

Yours very truly

2nd July, 1915.

Dear Dr. Davy,

You will be pleased to hear that Miss Davies is now wonderfully better if not quite well. She is quite an altered person, and I think the time is approaching when she should leave Throxenby. I enclose a copy of a letter I have written to her nephew on the subject.

In reply to your letter which came when I was away on holiday I fear that I do not know anyone exactly suitable. There must, however, be many people who would be only too pleased to take a boarder if we but knew of them. There is a Mrs. Dixon at Howe End, Far Sawrey, Windermere, who has a beautiful house and they are exceedingly nice people, but they have one or more resident patients, and I hardly think that Miss Davies would like to stay where there are other patients. Perhaps you will let me know if there is any difficulty in getting a suitable home. I can make enquiries if it should be necessary.

Dear Mr. Dwyer,

You will be pleased to hear that Miss Davies is now wonderfully better. It is not quite well. She is quite an altered person, and I think the time is approaching when she should leave Birmingham. I enclosed a copy of a letter I have written to her regarding the subject.

In reply to your letter which came when I was away on holiday I told you that I do not know anyone exactly suitable. There must, however, be many people who would be only too pleased to take a boarder. It is not known of them. There is a Mrs. Dixon at home and Mr. Garry, Birmingham, who has a beautiful house and they are exceedingly nice people, but they have one or two resident patients, and I hardly think that Miss Davies would like to stay there. There are other patients. Perhaps you will let me know if there is any difficulty in getting a suitable house. I can make enquiries if it should be necessary.

I remain,

Yours very truly,

Dear Mr. Davies,

I was over at Throxenby yesterday and was exceedingly pleased to find that Miss Davies is now practically well, and I think the time has come when she may suitably leave Throxenby Hall. She is a little perplexed as to what to do. I think that she would like to stay with some relatives at Bishop Auckland, but she is not quite sure whether they will not be rather nervous about her. Perhaps it would be possible for her to pay a visit somewhere else. In any case I think it would be unwise for her to make any plans for the future until her convalescence is thoroughly established. I conclude it would be better for her to go away on leave of absence in the first place, and I enclose the conditions under which this is granted. I am sending a copy of this letter to Dr. Davy.

It would be quite suitable for her to go visiting with an old pupil, but I understand from Miss Davies that she is not yet at liberty, and I think it would be well for Miss Davies to leave Throxenby Hall in a week or two.

I remain,

Yours very truly,

San Francisco, Calif.

Dear Mr. Davies,

I was over at Thompson's yesterday and saw personally pleased to find that your letter is now practically well, and I think the time has come when you may safely leave the country. The idea is a little perplexing as to what to do. I think that you would like to stay with some relatives at Mission Heights, but she is not quite sure whether they will not be rather nervous about that. Perhaps it would be possible for her to pay a visit somewhere else. In any case
I think it would be better for her to make my plans for the future until her convenience is a possibility established. I certainly would be better for her to go away on leave of absence in the first place, and I think the conditions under which this is granted.
I am sending a copy of this letter to Mr. Davis.
It would be quite suitable for her to go visiting with an old pupil, but I understand from Miss Davies that she is not yet at liberty, and I think it would be well for Miss Davies to leave

Thompson's Hall in a week or two.

I remain,

Yours very truly,

Would it be a practical thing for Miss Davies to go about from place to place with one of her ex-pupils. The lady is very fond of Miss Davies: is a teacher of some kind, but so far as I know has no nursing experience. They are mutually very much attached.

I shall be very glad of your views.

Dear Dr. Pivce -

My wife went over to Throxenby to see Mr. Davies, a week ago - She was very delighted at the improvement in her mental condition - She expressed herself as satisfied to stay at Throxenby but dreaded a return to the Retreat. Could she go as a private patient to a doctor for a month or so before she comes among her friends again, do you think? Of course everything would depend on the place & man she went to & I should not recommend it unless it were somebody you know & have confidence in. What do you think?

My wife seemed to think her out of health rather.

& not to have much will of her own - but ready to fall in with any suggestion -
She would like I think to go to Barnard Castle to the Deyons, rather than anywhere else but they dread having her yet.
I don't think that would be good yet as it would bring up memories of the miserable state
she was in before going to you - we should be glad of suggestions from 17th June, 1915.

Dear Mrs. Davy,

Throxenby Hall is about two miles from Scarborough Station, and we have an arrangement with Robinsons', the cab proprietors, that the fare is eighteenpence. I am very glad that you are able to call and see Miss Davies, and feel sure you will be pleased at the improvement she has made.

Dear Dr. Pearce, we are much pleased to hear of Miss Davies' improvement - & I will if possible go over to see her on Saturday - if you will tell me how I can get to Throxenby

 Scalby - but does not know if I should require a carriage to take me there - & I suppose if so I must either order one - or go direct from Scarborough - I am so sorry to have to trouble you for these particulars -

Dear Dr. Davy,

Miss Davies is doing exceedingly well at Throxenby Hall, and I wonder if you or Mrs. Davy could run over to see her. I have a letter from Mr. G. G. Davies asking when she will be able to leave, and before giving a definite reply I should like to know what you think. The improvement is very pleasant and satisfactory, but I should doubt if she is yet perfectly well.

Dear Mr. Dixon, R.A.,

Miss ^ADavies is certainly very much better. There is, however, still some trouble about her food. She thinks she is given an altogether unreasonable amount, and if left to herself she would certainly take too little.

She went to Throxenby Hall near Scarborough yesterday, and I hope she will do well there: I have just heard by telephone that she is settling down very nicely.

If she makes further progress towards convalescence it will not be long before she is able to leave special care altogether, but I cannot at the present moment state when that will be.

Dear Mr. Dixon,

It is certainly very much better, I think, to have all the things about the house given as a gift, rather than to have them given as a loan, and to have them given as a gift, rather than to have them given as a loan, and to have them given as a gift, rather than to have them given as a loan.

I am sure that you will find this to be a very good plan, and I am sure that you will find this to be a very good plan, and I am sure that you will find this to be a very good plan, and I am sure that you will find this to be a very good plan.

21st April, 1915.

Dear Mr. Davies,

Your letter of the 16th was unfortunately overlooked, and hence the delay in replying.

Miss Davies is improving slowly, but there is a very decided dullness and lack of interest in things and a general state of mental inertia. She always objects if asked to do anything and says that she cannot do it, but nevertheless she does a certain amount of work. She talks much less about her worries, though if asked about them she says they are just as bad as ever.

She receives a letter practically every day, and though she reads them she is quite indifferent as to whether they come or not.

I am afraid I cannot give a very clear opinion as to her prospects of real recovery. I think it is likely that she will improve further, indeed she is wonderfully better than when she came, but I cannot but feel very doubtful as to whether the recovery will be complete.

Dear Sir,

I have duly altered the Certificate, which I now return.

I do not think that there is any harm in writing to Miss Davies on religious subjects, though I am afraid she is too much distressed in mind and too much occupied with her own thoughts to be able to get much consolation in this way. However she is quite able to appreciate a letter, and consequently I hope that you will write to her regularly, even though she may not be able to reply.

Dear Sir,

At the recent meeting of the Committee Miss Davies's terms were fixed at £3. 3. 0 per week. The only extras, except out of pocket expenses for clothing etc., will be 2/- per week for washing and mending. It is usual to charge board and maintenance in advance and disbursements at the end of each quarter. I am informing the Matron that you do not wish expenses for clothing to be incurred without letting you know.

I fear that I cannot report any satisfactory improvement. I do not think that Miss Davies is any worse. Her bodily health is better, but she still thinks herself unworthy in the extreme.

Dear Sir,

I thank you for your letter of 12th inst to hand this morning with form of guarantee.

The terms mentioned verbally upon which Miss Davies went to you were Three guineas a week.

More than that I am afraid it will be impossible to pay, so I sincerely trust that no difficulty will be found in getting the Committee to agree to that figure. — Further I should be glad if you could give me an estimate of the sum all necessary extras will amount to per annum. — Everything in reason which can be provided by any possibility will of course be provided but ~~however~~ I shall be glad if you will refer any expense outside what is usual to me before incurring same. I should also much prefer to pay all extras (that is everything beyond the £3-3-0 separately & monthly).
I see the form does not

[Faint, illegible handwriting throughout the page]

provide for the insertion of the amount to be paid for Lodging Maintenance and Care of the patient. — I should like to insert this as the document puts no bounds on the liability which may be incurred otherwise.

I will remit the full quarters Fees on hearing that the Committee have agreed to the figure mentioned, although I was quite unaware that such payment would be required in advance.

I am afraid I am giving a lot of trouble, but my excuse must be that I want to keep finances as straight as possible.

Dear Sir,

There is very little that can be done to provide extra comforts for Miss Davies. She would no doubt be glad to receive letters regularly, and might possibly look at magazines, but she is in a low depressed state, and unable to take much interest in outside matters..

The Secretary cannot send in an account until the terms have been fixed by the Committee, which does not meet until the 19th. I was proposing that she should have general accommodation at a cost of three guineas per week. The Secretary will enclose with this one of the usual agreement forms. Perhaps you could send something on account to put the matter in order.

Dear Sir:

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th inst. in relation to the proposed purchase of the ship "Albatross" for the service of the Navy. I am sorry to hear that the ship is no longer available for purchase. I am sure that the Navy will be able to find another suitable ship for its service.

I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
J. D. Long

POST OFFICE TELEGRAPH

TO

34, BEVERLEY ROAD,

HULL. Jan 9. 1915

Dear Dr. Pearce

would it be harmful to Miss Davies for me to come over & see her. If not I should like to do so early this week - as some of her friends are very anxious to know how she is -

My husband has been too busy to come over - Believe me

Yrs Truly

9th January, 1915.

Dear Sir,

I am afraid that I cannot report any improvement in Miss Davies's condition. She is still very unhappy, and is a good deal troubled by a feeling as if she wants to be sick. There is no reason to suppose that this is due to any organic disease, but I expect that it is associated with hallucinations of taste.

With regard to the Certificate of Existence for the Alliance Insurance Company I think that you will find that they will be willing to take my signature, seeing that she is now under my care. I sign a good many such certificates in the course of the year, but perhaps it would be well to mention it to them before I do so. I would sign as written below, and I do not expect that there would be any difficulty. As these certificates will constantly be wanted it seems a pity to trouble a clergyman or other person to come up to see Miss Davies.

I remain,

Yours very truly,

G. G. Davies, Esq.

Dear Sir,

The certificate on the accompanying sheet requires completion on the 9th instant by a Clergyman, Magistrate, Banker or Solicitor. - I think perhaps you could kindly get a man qualified to attend to the business. I should be very grateful to you if you could. It is important that the money should be drawn by me as Miss Davies' Attorney as soon after the 9th as possible. If you find you cannot manage it (you will see that the certificate has to be signed by someone who personally knows Miss Davies) kindly wire me & I will endeavour to arrange. - There is no need for the person giving the certificate to have seen Miss Davies before: he only has to satisfy himself ~~that~~ of her identity.

Will you explain to Miss Davies at the time that the Income Tax has to be deducted this time but that I am taking steps to obtain recovery of the amount.

Thanking you in advance, I am,
Dear Sir Yours sincerely
D. Bedford Pierce
G. R. Davies.

Dear Sir,

The Certificate on the accompanying sheet requires completion on the following by a Chartered Accountant. I have the pleasure to inform you that I am happily able to do so and I have therefore enclosed to you a copy of the same. It is signed and dated as required. I am, Sir, very trusting that you will find it satisfactory. I am, Sir,

Thank you very much for all your trouble. I know these cases often prove lengthy but I am hoping for improvement in your next report.

Dear Sir,

I am greatly obliged to you for your letter of 1st inst, and very sorry to have so discouraging an opinion. — Might I ask you whether you think it does Miss Davies good to receive letters. — I have a very firm belief in her recovery & we all of course want to do all we can to further that end. If there are any particular subjects which you think should not be mentioned will you let me know. —

I believe you told me that the Fee would be £3 a week. If there are any additional comforts which this does not provide, such as flowers for her room or books, or in fact anything which would tend to assist her recovery will you be so good as to let me know their nature & cost.

I would thank you to communicate with me at the above address in future and so save time in the post.

I am, Yours sincerely
S. Bedford-Pierce

Dear Dr Pivrel -

Thanks for your letter. Miss Davies had during the last week or ten days made a great trouble about her mouth & throat. She seemed to have some sticky mucus which she would "hawk"
up & spit into the night-commode - which was very unlike herself.
She was convinced that she was diseased throughout - "from her head to the sole of her foot." as she expressed it. Yours truly

Miss Regina Annie Davies.

Age. about 68

Date of adm.

Address. 96 Westbourne Avenue, Kingston upon Hull.

Description Single Schoolmistress.

Religious Persuasion Church of England.

Abstract of Certificate.

In a very nervous & depressed condition, & very suspicious. Has threatened suicide? Says that Matron of Hunting House at Hull has "let Kieve in" her for introducing such a filthy patient as herself, and intends to ruin her. At one moment says she is taking a large house & going to buy a motor car; & at another says she has lost her money. Says the Nurses are deceitful & thought she had been drugged.

Special Features.

Fits

Habits

Suicidal

Homicidal

General Bodily condition

Is frail - but not specially thin.

Lips dry & cracked - evidently painful. Often cracks about mouth.

When admitted some sore places around - better since but still cracked -

Seems as if deficient in saliva.

Frequent attempts at evacuation - not marked -

Little appetite for food. refuses solid food - has been reduced liquids.

Chest - nil disc.

Abd. - do.

Mental state

Is confused & depressed - but able to explain exactly what is wrong.

Partly due to ideas of ~~poor~~ poverty - worries about her money.

Has thought her food dropped -

Complains of strange feelings in limbs -

There are no definite fixed delusions but a vague feeling that she is unworthy, & objectionable & ought not to be here - unable to associate with others. Also that she cannot pay her way -

Probably Hall's of smell taste & feeling - but not continuous.

Ordered - Liquid food - A. H. Milled, Benger, Borden's Food -

Listerine as a mouth wash.

Hallucinations Says the food tastes nasty.

Emotional state. Fairly cheerful -

Complaints complains of her mouth being very peculiar feelings in her hands & limbs. Constantly Coughing & Clearing her throat. Says she is full up & refuses to take food.

Conduct & behaviour

Remains quietly in bed, but needs a good deal of persuasion to take nourishment.

Dec 30th 14. Pt in bed all day. Seemed fairly comfortable, but complained a great deal of the cold. Very difficult with food. Taken only liquids. Slept at intervals & worrying about her clothes when awake. (5 1/2 hrs)

" 31st Moved to the North Room, with another pt.
Had a fairly comfortable day. Glycerine & Borax applied to the lips.

Jan 2nd 15 Pt had a very bad night. Refused to stay in bed & became violent & struck the nurse. Quiet later & apologised. When questioned this a.m. said she thought she was shut up in a furnace & was trying to get out. Expressed regret for what she had done. Apt given daily with very slight result.

Weight 50.65

" 3rd Agitated & very deluded during the night. Removed to the Dormitory today. Very worrying all day.

" 4th Pt. been quieter less worrying. Tap Enema given with good result. Complained of pain in her side. Has a good deal of flatulence.

" 7th Seems to have hallucinations of smell & taste. Constantly says the food is nasty, also that there is a bad smell. Appears to be listening to & answering voices at times. Peptonised foods ordered. Breath less offensive.

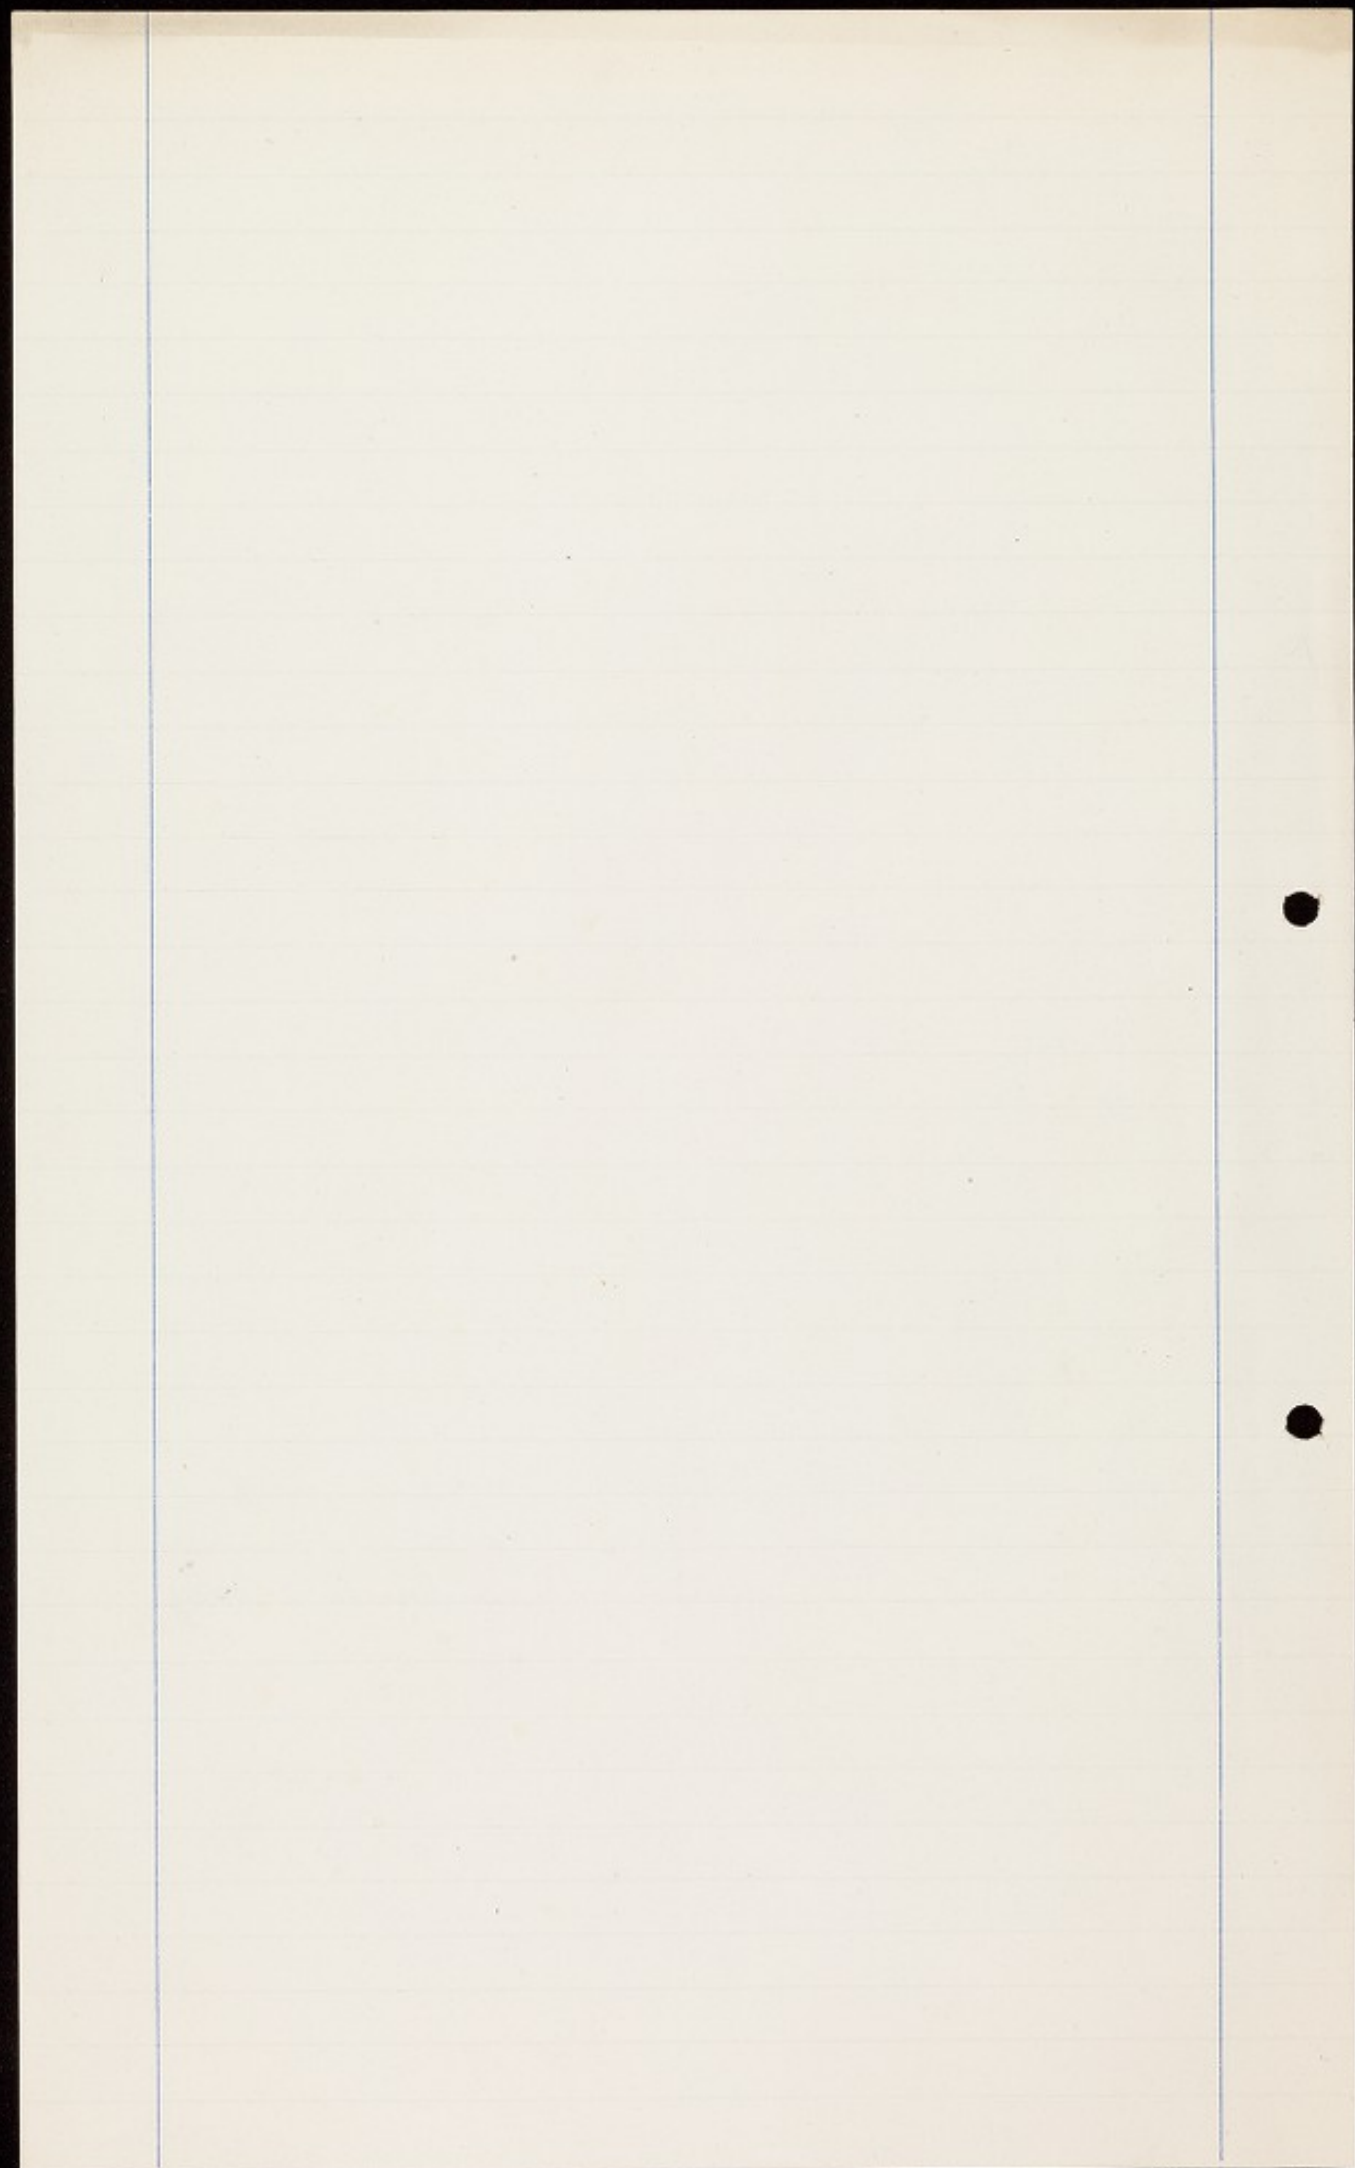

" 10th Pt. much the same. Constantly worrying, but fairly good during the day. Very restless at times during the night. Is taking nourishment fairly well.
Is sitting up today. Has written several letters.

" 17th No change in the mental condition. Still worries over every trifle or any remark she hears, thinks they refer to her.
Still says the food is nasty & is constantly spitting. Not much evidence of indigestion. Is taking platenoid night & morning, with only occasional good result. Is suffering from piles, which bleed at times if Pt. is constipated. Has to be relieved with occasional Soap & Water Enema. Was dressed & sat in the drawing room for a few hrs on Friday & each day since. Looked at the papers & played a game of cards, but worrying most of the time & go back to bed.

" 24th No change. Taking ordinary light diet since the 21st.
visited by Mr. Barry, on Tuesday. Sat & talked to her in the Drawing Room. Quiet after she left.
