4th June, 1913.

To W. E. Waller Esq., York.

Dear Sir,

I am pleased to advise you that my wife, Mrs Doble, who was a patient with you recently is keeping very well indeed, and I hope will soon be quite herself again. The rest she got when at the Retreat seems to have done her a world of good.

I sent you a cheque against your pro forma account for quarter's fees in advance, with the agreement duly signed. I would be glad if you would now render me the statement of account exactly due, and refund to me the amount against the unexpired time.

Thanking you in anticipation.

Yours very truly,

Dear Mrs. Doble,

I was much grieved that I did not see you before you left and did not say goodbye, but I had an appointment in the city at 12 o'clock, and so missed the opportunity of seeing Mr. Doble.

I am pleased to hear that you continue to sleep well, and I hope that your new house and the interests connected therewith find you occupation that will be a pleasure. You will certainly rejoice at being at home again.

With kind regards,

Yours very truly,

Dear D. Since

very well. I have slept well for the last two nights - in spite of the cars.

I have not seen

but Mr C. came up material - I'll see I can on Sat to see you find - I want to & report. Many thanks write to-day. L.D.

for all your kindness, & I should not have any scruples about coming

Dear Dr Pierce

I have seen Mr Doble who is in the position that, when he ceases work, his income stops which, he tells me, must not happen now - He agrees that when his wife shows any signs of being of the Retreat it would be a good move to get her to Scarborough - They have just been moving houses here &
don't want her at home
till all is settled -

Very truly
Yours

Dear Dr. Chamberlain,

I am glad to say that Mrs. Doble is very much better. She now sleeps almost the whole night without sedatives. She goes out and about a fair amount, and the acuteness of the depression is certainly lessened. It is doubtful in my mind whether she will improve much further, and it may be perhaps desirable for her to ride out on the crest of the wave. If my view of the case be correct she is not unlikely to have a further attack of depression at some other time, and there may be some advantage in her leaving the Retreat before she gets tired of the place. Would it be possible for her husband to take her away, say to a hydro or somewhere of that kind in the course of a fortnight or a month. I have said nothing to her on the subject as I should like to know what you think first.

With kind regards,

Yours very truly,

Dear Dr Pierce,

I had Mr Doble in here last night - she was asking me whether you had formed any opinion as to the probable duration of Mrs Doble's stay at the Retreat - She wishes me to say just so long as you think advisable but would like to have some idea in months as to probable duration - Perhaps you would drop me a line when

You have a little spare time —

Yours very truly

Given me the enclosed note to send on to you.

Again thanking you for your kindness

Dear Dr. Pierce,

I received your kind letter & would ask you to accept my best thanks for same—

I am very pleased that you were able to place my wife in the smaller dormitory as she felt it somewhat the idea of sleeping in the larger one.

I did not expect that she would have a good night—the first night she was away but I sincerely hope she will soon find the much needed natural sleep.

I have a very nice letter from her this morning—she writes in fairly good spirits & hopes.

Dear Dr. Chamberlain,

I am sorry to hear that Mrs. Doble is worse. I should think Scalebor Park would be very suitable, as it is so readily accessible for the family, but I did not mention it before because they are unable to receive voluntary patients there. If, however, Mrs. Doble is worse she could be certified as insane, and there would be no trouble on that score. I can send forms for certificates if necessary.

It so happens that we have, unexpectedly, a vacancy in prospect towards the end of this week, and we could receive Mrs. Doble here.

Dear Dr Pierce

Many thanks for letter - Mrs Doble gets worse & I fear we can't last out time necessary to get her to the Retreat - What do you think of Sealeton Park?
I am writing them for terms re but shall not fix up definitely until I hear from you -
