Dear Dr. Berford Peice

March 8 1915

2 Violet Agnes Shotton Dudley

This patient who was admitted to this Asylum on March 5th 18th is said to have previously been a patient at York Retreat ^{about 1897}

I shall be very much obliged if you will kindly let me know any history you have.

I particularly would like to know:

Dates of admission and discharge?

Whether discharged as recovered?

The form and cause of Insanity?

The age on first attack?

If not first attack at what other Asylums the patient has been?

Any other information you can give me will be much appreciated.

I am,

Dr Berford Peice

Dear Dr. Boycott,

Miss Dudley was a very unsatisfactory patient. I looked upon her as being practically a moral imbecile, and she was certainly a very unpleasant member of the household.

I enclose an abstract of the notes giving particulars of what you ask for.

Yours very truly,

Dear Dr. Bowdler,

Enclosed is a very unsatisfactory patient. I looked upon her as being practically a normal subject, and she was certainly a very unpleasant member of the Fellowship.

I enclose an abstract of the notes giving position as to what you can do.

Dear Sir

Your letter showed they gone last night, but we are very much on the way here.
There was a terrific thunder storm during the evening and it was not safe to go down to Ivel.
Your bill has caused me a sleepless night, for I cannot understand why you should have appeared so sympathetic.

and even suggested that time worry in money matters &c.
I saw you that the Committee I will pay Dr. MacCock's fee & we make a reduction in the your own & anything reasonable fees when they know the circumstances. I paid Dr. Hitch I do not wish to give offence to all my husband's pension but I think it is a rather hard the little I had saved for to be charged 10/- for my husband's one train year &c. had to be an injury to your credit: sell something in consequence If the attendant in the workhouse to enable us to get away from town had been attending vigilantly, I repeat what I said yesterday it should not have been allowed I have no money to meet your to happen. The door was a key bill & was much late and I thought I should have made been very foolish & ill to let my husband have made I came here due to excessive considerable house. Yours Truly affectionately

I have several bills to meet that have been absolutely necessary to incur since the 12th of last month, and I cannot possibly pay even a part of your account, not hold out any promise of payment in the future and it will be very cruel & unjust to charge my husband 5 per cent, per annum on his bill till it is paid.

I am sending on the papers received from the lunacy commissioners. I shall be very grateful if you will make all as comfortable as you can for my husband. I am very truly yours
I will pay Dr. Badcock's fee & anything reasonable

Your bill was quite an extraordinary surprise to me this morning.

Will you kindly explain why I have been charged for a quarter's maintenance of my husband, when it was understood that he was admitted

for one month only, which has too, as the man was very glad just expired this week - To send me a reminder of my son know our circumstances dear. If my husband is I have just paid my only responsibility for his maintenance available cash to J. Hitchcock at The Retreat. I still think in order to facilitate my husband it is not fair he should be removed from your institution charged for the full quarter If we were not for running I know I signed some papers an account at my landlady's holding myself responsible for milk, butter & eggs, for debts incurred on my which must be paid at the husband's behalf during his month end, we should find it residence at The Retreat difficult to live just now. but I certainly did not half my removal expenses realize that this included had to be met immediately three months' maintenance

Sir

I understand that Mr Arthur Dudley who was recently retired on pension from this Office has been admitted to your Institution, and in connection with the amount which will be due to him at the end of the present month, I am desired by my Head Quarters to ascertain :-

a. If Mr Dudley is considered to be capable of managing his own affairs

b. If he could give a valid receipt for his pension.

I should be much obliged therefore if you will enable me to furnish the information asked for as early as possible.

Dear Sir,

Dudley.

As you are aware under sub-section 1 of section 127 of the Lunacy Act 1890, where it appears the unsoundness of mind is in its nature temporary, and will probably soon be removed, and that any ready money or income is standing to the Lunatic's account with a Banker, a sum may be allowed thereout for his temporary maintenance, or that of the members of his family, without a grant of the custody of the estate. This however has to be made to a Master in Lunacy on summons, supported by affidavits that the Lunacy is likely to be only temporary. The Bank Manager is aware of this, and thinks that such a course should be adopted, if the Medical men are prepared to say that the Lunacy is only temporary. He has however been most courteous, and assured us that he has no desire to stand on any legal technicality, and if you are prepared to let him have a letter that Mr Dudley is so far capable of ^{an} managing his affairs, as to be able to sign a cheque, for say £10 for his own maintenance, he will be prepared to honor that cheque, so as to give an opportunity of determining whether the Lunacy is temporary or permanent. In default of this, he says he does not see why the Bank should take the risk, and that they are bound to treat these matters as matters of business.

If you would like a word with us on the telephone Mr

FREEHOLD PROPERTY.
