Thanking you for making matters so easy for me today

ANNANDALE, ILKLEY,
YORKS.

Dear Dr. Kemp,
after leaving the Retreat today I determined to take the responsibility & risk of signing the petition for poor Mrs. Graham, and I have written Mr. Graham asking him to give me the requisite authority.
The Grahams don't know me; but I know all about them for generations. As a matter of fact an ancestor of Mr. G. was Town Clerk, when my Grandfather's brother was presented with the Freedom of my native Town, and I have the Burgess Ticket; but Mr. G. does not know this. Still in their trouble I will take the risk.

This being so, will you please look out for some Doctor in York to fill in a Certificate instead of one, & I will pay him the necessary quinea.
I know Mr. Jelland; but if the "job" be too small for him, you might get Mr. Hood (Junior) whose grandfather died under my "judicious" treatment twenty years ago!
I hope poor Mrs. Graham has been quiet, and has begun to take food again. If the poor soul were going to die or sink away right off, I wd almost wish that death might occur, in some hotel or lodgings.
As it is, her removal to a retreat, is a fearful blow to her relatives & friends.

She said I have The Blue Wondering what I had it?

Dear Dr. Pierce

I can't understand why Mrs. G. She was as usual tone on Monday & spoke to Nixon on Tuesday: and I thought she was exhausted on Wednesday. She was more rigid than flaccid in her limbs; though her head rested on her chest & shoulder, when wheeled in a bath chair. Will you please send me notes of the post & your final opinion. I know you will be kind to Dr. G. & his wife when they come. Yrs very truly J. T. O. Thos. Johnstone
