Dear Lucia
Dr Price

May, thanks for the acknowledging the late Mrs Green. I have seen Mrs Jones who will forward you the amount independently of us.

W. F. Wells will be very glad if you can send him (or me) the cheque for the M/M of £2.14.0 per return so that the year's finances may close with the right bal at bank.

Your kind attention to this will greatly oblige. The funeral money will be sent in a day or so if not please let me know

Yours in haste

W. F. Wells

troubling you. but my daughter was really surprised at the amount consequently I am writing on her behalf.

Yours Faithfully

Dear Sir

My Daughter has had a bill from the Retreat handed to her by M^r Butler for a sum of £10-0-0

When I came to York and was talking to you -
you said that you

had already had the coffin made.

When I mentioned the account, I understood from your conversation that the largest item to pay, would be the Undertaker's fee for burying the Body by road.

We came by Rail from the Inquest to the funeral.

I must apologise for
