Dear Sir.

You will by now probably have heard from Dr. Rabagliati to the effect that we propose sending Mrs. Hayward to Throsby Hall, & I shall be pleased if you can arrange for her to go there next Friday, the 12th inst. I expect my sister, who will bring her on Friday, can remain the Friday night to see her settled & return to Bradford the following day. Will you please let me know if this can be arranged & also state what payment you require in advance. Might I suggest that if possible you let my mother have a separate bed room

on account of her
bowel complaint,
it might be somewhat
unpleasant for some one to join with her.

The enclosed form
signed by Mrs. Hayward is I think required
by you.

I shall be pleased to hear from you
in course of post
that the suggested
arrangements are acceptable to you.

Yours truly,

M. Hayward

Dear Sir.

*Just received
but answered
thought you might wish to make an appointment for tomorrow.*

I notice by the Report of your Institution that Dr Perce is in the habit of attending at Leeds 1 1/2 half days per week.

Will you kindly let me know if this is still so (the Report was for 1909) & on what days & at what address, as I wish to see him.

Thanking you in anticipation Yours truly,
