Dear Sir.

Enclosed find form duly filled up with questions answered as exhaustively as I can. If any further information required will supply if in my power to do so.

I should very much like to know how far it is advisable to keep up communications from home. I suppose we may write them about home matters avoiding of course any news of warring nature and also I suppose we are at liberty to visit any time during the day.

I should also like to know about our present house (where Mother died) whether it would be advisable to change before Father returns as if so we want to be enquiring about a new tenant in consequence of houses being difficult to let, and one may need considerable time to effect a change.

Probably if convenient to you I had better come over and see you at some early date and get your full advice on the matter in so far as it relates to Father's health.

Thanking you in anticipation of your kind reply on these two points

I remain

Yours very truly
Jas D Holmes.
