29th May, 1914.

Dear Miss Horn,

I am glad to hear that Miss Horn is steadily improving. I have pleasure in sending a notice of discharge as "relieved." I hope she will continue to go on well.

Yours very truly,

J

Dear Sir,

Mrs. Horn appears to be making a gradual improvement, but is not fully herself yet.
She still worries about herself, but has a much clearer idea of things in general: I think

she should be described as "relieved".

Yours sincerely.

P. Dr. Hoar.

& the market train from Ripon on Saturdays which I remember your mentioning.
Please let me have a reply at your earliest convenience because I told my sister that I would go on Saturday
& see what arrangements
I could make in the meantime about her
leaving in the future.
She is not satisfied with waiting & she said she expected me at home.

Yours very sincerely

Edythe Dr. Horn.
P.S. I must mention how grateful she is to the nurses for all their kindness & care. She has mentioned it to me, & did yesterday.

Dear Dr. Pierie,

I saw Miss Horn
yesterday after nearly eight weeks' absence, & I thought her decidedly improved; much calmer, & much clearer in her
mind; but very home-
-sick, & she pleaded most earnestly to be allowed to come back.

I do not want her to leave just now, if I can by any possible means persuade her to stay longer, for she is not herself yet; & I should be very anxious fearing she might lose ground;
& she would certainly require a nurse.

Would you object to my coming twice a week to see her, so that I may keep her contented in that way? for she will have it, that she is not going to be allowed to come back, & that whatever may happen, ^{to me} she cannot reach me.

Purely if she saw me so frequently, ^{she could rely on} it would be beneficial.

I can think of nothing else really so satisfactory for her health at present
- for a few weeks anyhow - I was told last night there are three cheap trains from Harrogate weekly - Mondays Wednesdays & Fridays -

Dear Sir,

We have admitted a patient here under an Order signed by Mr. H. Mann Thirlway. The Commissioners in Lunacy are enquiring whether he is specially appointed under the Lunacy Act, 1890. Will you kindly inform us if this is the case.

We should have a reply at once, as we must get the Order endorsed within a day or two if Mr. Thirlway is not eligible to sign it.

Yours truly,

The Clerk to the Justices,

Birkenhead

The Manager (Superintendent).

The Retreat.

Dear Sir

The patient, Miss Horn, about whom I telephoned to you last week, is coming (Wednesday)
tomorrow. They leave here at 1.30 by motor and will arrive about 8.0 pm. I hope this will be convenient to you. If, by any chance,
